11.3.1 Notwithstanding what is set out above in this Section 11, Polestar shall be responsible for costs relating to delays which are due to Polestar's non-fulfilment of any of its obligations under this CM Agreement and/or each executed Change Request. Further, any such delays which are due to Polestar shall give a corresponding extension of time to Volvo Cars for meeting any Gates.

11.3.2 Notwithstanding what is set out above in this Section 11, Polestar shall be responsible for costs relating to faults and defects which are due to Polestar's non-fulfilment of any of its obligations under this CM Agreement and/or each executed Change Request.

12. WARRANTIES

12.1 Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:

- (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;
- (b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this CM Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;
- (c) the execution, delivery and performance of this CM Agreement have been duly authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate any laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and
- (d) this CM Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

13. INDEMNIFICATION

13.1 General

- 13.1.1 The Parties acknowledge that all CM Results and any Volvo Cars' Background IP is licensed to Polestar on an "as is" basis, without any warranties or representations of any kind (except for the warranties in Section 12 above), whether implied or express, and in particular any warranties of suitability, merchantability, description, design and fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, completeness, systems integration and accuracy are expressly excluded to the maximum extent permissible by law.
- 13.1.2 In addition, Volvo Cars does not make any warranties or representations as regards the functionality of any CM Results and/or Volvo Cars' Background IP in relation to the Polestar Vehicle, or any Other Polestar Branded Vehicle. Polestar hereby releases Volvo Cars from all liability (and accordingly, cannot claim damages, compensation, price reduction etc.) in respect of errors, defects and deficiencies in any CM Results and/or Volvo Cars' Background IP of whatever kind, whether visible or latent, including but not limited to errors of fact or law, errors regarding right of disposition, physical defects and deficiencies and damages arising due to product liability after the CM Results have been delivered to Polestar, however excluding Volvo Cars' limited undertakings in Section 11.2.1.
- 13.1.3 The principles set out in this Section 13 is reflected in the Fee and the fact that Volvo Cars is not a supplier or consultant of systems or technical solutions, such as the CM Results', but merely a car manufacturer which normally only develops technical solutions for its own business purposes.
- 13.1.4 The principles set forth in this Section 13 are exclusive. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing in this Section 13, the Parties agree that no other remedy whatsoever under any statute, law or legal principle shall be available to Polestar in relation to the licenses granted and/or work to be performed by Volvo Cars hereunder.

13.2 Polestar's indemnification

- 13.2.1 Polestar shall indemnify and hold Volvo Cars harmless from and against any and all damages, costs, losses and expenses, direct or indirect, arising out of or in connection with Polestar's use of any CM Results and/or any Volvo Cars' Background IP, including but not limited to any Third Party claims or Intellectual Property Rights infringement.
- 13.2.2 Volvo Cars shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to Polestar's use of any CM Results and/or any Volvo Cars' Background IP from Volvo Cars notify Polestar of such claim in writing and Polestar shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the Third Party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. Polestar shall at all times keep Volvo Cars informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with Volvo Cars on appropriate actions to take. If Polestar fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend Volvo Cars within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, Volvo Cars shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/or over any settlement negotiation at Polestar's cost. Any settlement proposed by Polestar on its own account must take account of potential implications for Volvo Cars and shall therefore be agreed in writing with Volvo Cars before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

14. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 14.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this CM Agreement.
- 14.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with this CM Agreement shall be limited to ten (10) per cent of the Fee payable by Polestar to Volvo Cars hereunder.
- 14.3 The limitations of liability set out in this Section 14 shall not apply in respect of damage;
- (a) caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence, or
 - (b) caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 16 below.

15. GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES15.1 Governance

- 15.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this CM Agreement as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this CM Agreement.
- 15.1.2 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this CM Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event the Parties on an operational level cannot agree upon inter alia the prioritisation of development activities or other aspects relating to the co-operation between the Parties, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.
- 15.1.3 If the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution of the disagreement the relevant issue should be escalated to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. for decision.

15.2 Changes

- 15.2.1 During the term of an approved Change Request governed by this CM Agreement, either Party can request changes to the approved Change Request, which shall be handled in accordance with the governance procedure set forth in Section 15.1 above. Both Parties agree to act in good faith to address and respond to any requested change requests within a reasonable period of time.
- 15.2.2 The Parties acknowledge that Volvo Cars will not perform in accordance with such change request until agreed in writing between the Parties. For the avoidance of any doubt, until there is agreement about the requested change, all work shall continue in accordance with the approved Change Request.
- 15.2.3 The Parties further acknowledge that Polestar shall be responsible for all costs which relates to changes to the Work and/or approved Change Requests, as well as other changes which are requested by Polestar.

16. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 16.1 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes comprised by the fulfilment of this CM Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this CM Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 16.1 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or subcontractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:

- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
- (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
- (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
- (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;
- (e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or
- (f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.

- 16.2 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 16.
- 16.3 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within thirty (30) days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as "Confidential", "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 16.4 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 16, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section 20.2 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 16.5 For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 16 does not permit disclosure of Source code to software, and/or any substantial parts of design documents to software, included in the CM Results, to any Third Party, notwithstanding what it set forth above in this Section 16. Any such disclosure to any Third Party is permitted only if approved in writing by Volvo Cars.
- 16.6 This confidentiality provision shall survive the expiration or termination of this CM Agreement without limitation in time.

17. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 17.1 This CM Agreement shall become effective retroactively from 1 June 2019 when the Individual Terms is signed by duly authorised signatories of each Party and shall, unless terminated by either Party upon twelve (12) months' written notice to the other Party or terminated in accordance with Section 17.2 below, remain in force during the validity of the license period of the license granted to Polestar hereunder.
- 17.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this CM Agreement with immediate effect in the event;
- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this CM Agreement, which has not been remedied within sixty (60) days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
 - (b) the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.
- 17.3 For avoidance of doubt, Polestar not paying the Fee, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, shall be considered a material breach for the purpose of this CM Agreement.
- 17.4 Furthermore, Polestar is entitled to terminate this CM Agreement with immediate effect in case Volvo Cars acts in breach of what is set forth in Sections 11.1 and/or 11.2 and has not within sixty (60) days from written notice from Polestar to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied), taken necessary measures and/or remedy such non-compliance, delay, fault or defect and after such issue has been escalated in accordance with the escalation principles set out in Section 20.1.
- 17.5 Polestar shall in addition be entitled to cancel the Work performed by Volvo Cars for convenience upon thirty (30) days written notice to Volvo Cars. In such event Volvo Cars shall, upon request from Polestar, promptly make available in the Data Room (if applicable) any and all parts of the CM Results which have been finalised for delivery on the effective date of the cancellation. Moreover, the "CM Results" shall for the purposes of this CM Agreement be considered such parts of the CM Results that Volvo Cars has finalised on the effective date of the cancellation.
- 17.6 In the event Polestar cancels the Work in accordance with Section 17.5 above, the Fee shall, instead of what is set out in the Individual Terms, correspond to Volvo Cars' costs for the Work performed up, until and including the effective date of the cancellation, including the mark-up otherwise applied to calculate the Fee in accordance with the Individual Terms and any other reasonable proven costs Volvo Cars has incurred.

18. MISCELLANEOUS18.1 Force majeure

- 18.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under the CM Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A "Force Majeure Event" means any event beyond a Party's reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party's), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors.

- 18.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under the CM Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its nonperformance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

18.2 Notices

All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this CM Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, facsimile, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:

- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
- (b) if sent by facsimile or email transmission, at the time and on the date indicated on a confirmation of successful transmission page relating to such facsimile transmission or at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
- (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
- (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods. All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be addressed to the address, and with the attention, as set out in the Individual Terms, or to such other address, number or email address as a Party may designate.

18.3 Assignment

- 18.3.1 Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this CM Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.
- 18.3.2 Notwithstanding the above, each Party may assign this CM Agreement to an Affiliate without the prior written consent of the other Party.

18.4 Waiver

Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this CM Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this CM Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the CM Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.

18.5 Severability

In the event any provision of this CM Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the CM Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the CM Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from; or performance under; the CM Agreement; it shall be reasonably amended.

18.6 Entire agreement

All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this CM Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this CM Agreement are superseded by this CM Agreement and its Appendices.

18.7 Amendments

Any amendment or addition to this CM Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.

18.8 Survival

18.8.1 If this CM Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 17 above, Section 4 (License Grant), Section 16 (Confidentiality), Section 19 (Governing Law), Section 20 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 18.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.

18.8.2 Notwithstanding Section 18.8.1 above, if this CM Agreement is terminated due to Polestar not paying the Fee, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, pursuant to Section 17 above, Section 4 (License Grant) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination.

19. GOVERNING LAW

The CM Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with the CM Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of Sweden without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

20. DISPUTE RESOLUTION20.1 Escalation principles

20.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten (10) days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.

- 20.1.2 The members of the Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 20.1.3 If the Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within thirty (30) days from the deadlock notice served pursuant to Section 20.1.1 above, such deadlock will be referred to the CEO's of each Party, which shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve the situation in the same way as indicated above. If no Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the CEO's of each Party immediately and Section 20.1.2 above shall not apply.
- 20.1.4 If the CEO's of each Party cannot settle the deadlock within thirty (30) days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO at Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. Should the matter not have been resolved by the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO at Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd, within thirty (30) days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 20.2 below.
- 20.1.5 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 16 above.
- 20.1.6 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 20.1 and may escalate an issue directly to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO at Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

20.2 Arbitration

- 20.2.1 Any dispute, controversy Or claim arising out of or in connection with the CM Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce. The seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, and the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.
- 20.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under the CM Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 20.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to the CM Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.

20.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

Individual Terms—Service Agreement (Sourcing)

Certain identified information marked with “[]” has been omitted from this document because it is both (i) not material and (ii) the type that the registrant treats as private or confidential.

INDIVIDUAL TERMS—SERVICE AGREEMENT

Short description of activities under this Service Agreement: The Service Provider shall provide certain sourcing services in relation to the production of Polestar branded vehicles.

This Service Agreement is entered into on 31 October 2018 and made between:

Volvo Car Corporation, Reg. No. 556074-3089, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden (“Service Provider”); and Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co- Ltd., Reg. No. 91510100MA6BX1H33P, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of People’s Republic of China (“Purchaser”).

Each of the Service Provider and the Purchaser is hereinafter referred to as a “Party” and jointly as the “Parties”.

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have determined that the Service Provider shall perform certain Services (as defined in the General Terms (as defined below)) to the Purchaser which are further described in Appendix 1, the Service Specification. The provision of the Services described in the Service Specification (as defined in the General Terms) shall be performed in accordance with the terms in this service agreement and its appendices (the “Service Agreement”).
- B. The Purchaser now wishes to enter into this Service Agreement for the purpose of receiving the Services and the Service Provider wishes to provide the Services in accordance with the terms set forth in this Service Agreement.
- C. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Service Agreement.

1. AGREEMENT1.1 General

This Service Agreement consists of this main document (the “Individual Terms”) and its appendices. These Individual Terms set out the specific terms in respect of the provision of the Services, whereas Appendix 2 sets out certain general terms and conditions applicable to the performance of the Parties’ activities hereunder (the “General Terms”).

1.2 Scope

The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification for the Services as specified in Appendix 1, the Service Specification, which shall be deemed an integrated part of these Individual Terms.

1.3 Affiliate

Affiliate shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the following meaning:

(a) for Purchaser, any of the below legal entities (other than the Purchaser) and any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled (individually or jointly) by:

(i) Polestar Automotive (Shanghai) Co., Ltd;

(ii) Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co., Ltd.;

(iii) Polestar Holding AB; or

(iv) Polestar Performance AB; and

(b) for Service Provider, Volvo Car AB and any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by Volvo Car AB; whereby

“control” for this purpose meaning ownership or control of at least fifty per cent (50%) of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest of such legal entity. The Parties, however, agree to renegotiate this definition of “Affiliate” in good faith if it in the future does not reflect the Parties’ intention at the time of signing this Service Agreement due to a restructuring or reorganisation in relation to either of the Parties.

1.4 Service Charges

1.4.1 The Services Charges (as defined in the General Terms) for the Services and for the development of the Results will be based on the estimated hours for the Services to be performed by the Service Provider and the hourly rates, both as set forth in Appendix 3. The Parties acknowledge that the estimated Service Charges set forth in Appendix 3 are based on an estimation of the amount of hours required for the performance of the Services and for the development of the Results and that this estimation may differ from the final number of hours charged by the Service Provider.

1.4.2 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency: SEK

1.4.3 The hourly rates that are used to calculate the Service Charges shall be determined between the Parties on an annual basis, based on the Services performed by the Service Provider (including the related development of the Results), as set out in Appendix 1, the Service Specification. The Service Charges shall be calculated on a time and material basis applying arm’s length hourly rates using the cost plus method, i.e. full cost incurred plus an arm’s length mark-up. The hourly rates should be reviewed, updated and agreed between the Parties on an annual basis.

1.5 Payment

1.5.1 If the Service Provider, pursuant to the General Terms, appoints its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, the Service Provider shall include the costs relating to such work in the invoices to the Purchaser.

The Service Charges shall be invoiced semi-annually at the end of each six months, i.e. in July for the period January-June and in January for the period July-December, as agreed between the Parties, and paid in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms.

1.6 Governance Forum

- 1.6.1 The Parties agree that governance in respect of this Service Agreement shall be handled in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms. When reference is made to a relevant governance forum, it shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the meaning set out below in this Section 1.6.
- 1.6.2 The first level of governance forum for handling the cooperation between the Parties in various matters, handling management, prioritisation of development activities etc. under the Service Agreement shall be the “Steering Committee”, which regarding cooperation between the Parties shall be the first level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.
- 1.6.3 The higher level of governance forum, to which an issue shall be escalated if the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution shall be the “Strategic Board”, which regarding cooperation between the Parties shall be the highest level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

1.7 Territory

For the purposes of this Service Agreement, the “Territory” shall mean the world.

1.8 General Terms

- 1.8.1 The Parties agree that the Service Agreement, and each Party's rights and obligations hereunder, shall be governed by the terms and conditions in the General Terms, which shall be deemed an integrated part of these Individual Terms.
- 1.8.2 For the purposes of this Service Agreement, Section 9.1.3 of the General Terms shall not apply.

1.9 Template Financial Reporting

The Parties agree that the basis for calculating the Service Charges shall be transparent and auditable to the Purchaser. Therefore, the relevant financial information relating to the Service Specification is attached as Appendix 4, which shall be deemed an integrated part of these Individual Terms.

1.10 Data Processing Agreement

- 1.10.1 If the Service Provider processes any personal data on the Purchaser's behalf and in accordance with its instructions as part of or in connection with the performance of the Services, the Parties agree that the Data Processing Agreement set forth in Appendix 5 shall be finalized and apply between the Parties, and shall be deemed an integrated part of these Individual Terms.
- 1.10.2 The Parties shall at all times comply with applicable laws on data protection and privacy, in particular, but not limited to the EU Data Protection Laws (as defined in Appendix 2), and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that any Affiliates or subcontractors engaged by it also comply therewith.

1.11 Order of Priority

In the event there are any contradictions or inconsistencies between the terms of these Individual Terms and any of the Appendices hereto, the Parties agree that the following order of priority shall apply:

1. These Individual Terms
2. Appendix 2, General Terms—Service Agreement
3. Appendix 1, Service Specification
4. Appendix 3, Service Charges
5. Appendix 4, Template Financial Reporting
6. Appendix 5, Data Processing Agreement

1.12 Notices

APPENDIX 2, GENERAL TERMS—SERVICE AGREEMENT

BACKGROUND

This Appendix 2, General Terms—Service Agreement, (the “General Terms”) is an Appendix to the Individual Terms and is an integrated part of the Service Agreement entered into between the Parties.

1. DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of these General Terms, the following terms shall have the meanings assigned to them below. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa. Any capitalised terms used, but not specifically defined below in this Section 1, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Individual Terms.

“Appendix” means an appendix to the Individual Terms.

“Background IP” means the Intellectual Property Rights either;

- (a) owned by either of the Parties; or
- (b) created, developed or invented by directors, managers, employees or consultants of either of the Parties to which the Party has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sublicense

prior to the execution of this Service Agreement, and any Intellectual Property Rights developed independently of this Service Agreement.

“Confidential Information” means any and all information regarding the Parties and their respective businesses, whether commercial or technical, in whatever form or media, including but not limited to information relating to Intellectual Property Rights, concepts, technologies, processes, commercial figures, techniques, strategic plans and budgets, investments, customers and sales, designs, graphics, CAD models, CAE data, statement of works (including engineering statement of works and any high level specification), targets, test plans/reports, technical performance data and engineering sign-off documents and other information of a sensitive nature, that a Party learns from or about the other Party prior to or after the execution of this Service Agreement.

“Data Room” means (if applicable) the information sharing platform agreed to be used between the Parties for making available the information regarding the Results and Services to the Purchaser.

“EU Data Protection Laws” shall mean collectively, any applicable data protection, privacy or similar law generally applicable to the processing of personal data, including but not limited to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation) and any act or piece of national legislation implementing, supporting or otherwise incorporating said regulation, including any amendment made to any of the foregoing.

“Gates” means the deadlines set out in the Service Specification, such as time limits, milestones and gates, which shall be based on VPDS, and which shall, unless otherwise agreed, be Program Start (PS), Final Data Judgement (FDJ), Launch Readiness (LR), Launch Sign-off (LS) and Final Status Report (FSR), all described in the VDPS.

“Individual Terms” means the contract document (with the heading “Individual Terms—Service Agreement”), which is signed by Service Provider and the Purchaser, to which these General Terms are an Appendix.

“Industry Standard” means the exercise of such professionalism, skill, diligence, prudence and foresight which would normally be expected at any given time from a skilled and experienced actor engaged in a similar type of undertaking as under this Service Agreement.

“Intellectual Property Rights” or “IP” means Patents, Non-patented IP and rights in Confidential Information and Know-How to the extent protected under applicable laws anywhere in the world. For the avoidance of doubt, Trademarks are not comprised by this definition.

“Jobl” means, in relation to each Polestar branded vehicle to which the Services relate, the date on which the production of such Polestar branded vehicle starts.

“Jobl+90” means, in relation to each Polestar branded vehicle to which the Services relate, the date of Final Status Report (FSR), which follows from VPDS and which will take place 90 days after Jobl.

“Know-How” means confidential and proprietary industrial, technical and commercial information and techniques in any form including (without limitation) drawings, formulae, test results, reports, project reports and testing procedures, instruction and training manuals, tables of operating conditions, specifications, component lists, market forecasts, lists and particulars of customers and suppliers.

“Non-patented IP” means copyrights (including rights in computer software), database rights, semiconductor topography rights, rights in designs, and other intellectual property rights (other than Trademarks and Patents) and all rights or forms of protection having equivalent or similar effect anywhere in the world, in each case whether registered or unregistered, and registered includes registrations, applications for registration and renewals whether made before, on or after execution of this Service Agreement.

“Patent” means any patent, patent application, or utility model, whether filed before, on or after execution of this Service Agreement, along with any continuation, continuation-in-part, divisional, re-examined or re-issued patent, foreign counterpart or renewal or extension of any of the foregoing.

“Results” shall mean

- (i) any outcome of the Services provided to the Purchaser under this Service Agreement (including but not limited to any IP, technology, software, methods, processes, deliverables, objects, products, documentation, materials, modifications, improvements, and/or amendments to be carried out by the Service Provider under the Service Specification),

- (ii) any other outcome or result of the Services to be performed by the Service Provider as described in the relevant Service Specification, irrespective of whether the performance of the Services has been completed or not, and
- (iii) any outcome similar to what is set out in (i) and (ii) above, but which was created from 2016 up until the effective date of this Service Agreement as a result of the Service Provider's own internal performance of manufacturing and engineering services similar to the Services prior to the effective date of this Service Agreement.

"Service Agreement" means the Individual Terms including all of its Appendices and their Schedules as amended from time to time.

"Service Charges" means the service charges as set forth or referenced to in the Individual Terms.

"Service Specification" means the specification of the Services to be provided by the Service Provider to the Purchaser hereunder including (if applicable) a time plan for the provision of the Services, which is included as Appendix 1 in this Service Agreement.

"Services" shall mean the services to be performed by the Service Provider to the Purchaser hereunder, including all services under the Appendices attached hereto.

"Territory" shall mean the territory defined in the Individual Terms.

"Third Party" means a party other than any of the Parties and/or an Affiliate of one of the Parties to this Service Agreement.

"Trademarks" means trademarks (including part numbers that are trademarks), service marks, logos, trade names, business names, assumed names, trade dress and get-up, and domain names, in each case whether registered or unregistered, including all applications, registrations, renewals and the like, in each case to the extent they constitute rights that are enforceable against Third Parties.

"Use" means to make, have made, use (including in a process, such as use in designing, engineering, testing or assembling products or in their research or development), keep, install, integrate, extract, assemble, reproduce, incorporate, create derivative works of, modify, adapt, improve, enhance, develop, service or repair, including in the case of installation, integration, assembly, service or repair, the right to have a subcontractor of any tier carry out any of these activities on behalf of the Parties in their capacity as a licensee hereunder.

The right to "have made" is the right of a Party in its capacity as a licensee hereunder, as applicable, to have another person (or their subcontractor of any tier) make for that Party and does not include the right to grant sub-licenses to another person to make for such person's own use or use other than for that Party.

2. PROVISION OF SERVICES

2.1 Services

- 2.1.1 The Services to be performed under this Service Agreement are described in Appendix 1, the Service Specification, which shall be deemed an integrated part of this Service Agreement.
- 2.1.2 Subject to the terms and conditions herein, the Purchaser agrees to engage the Service Provider for the provision of, and Service Provider agrees to perform, the Services up until Job1+90.

2.2 Subcontractors

- 2.2.1 The Parties acknowledge that the Service Provider may use its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, provided that the Service Provider informs the Purchaser thereof.
- 2.2.2 The Service Provider shall however remain responsible for the performance, and any omission to perform or comply with the provisions of this Service Agreement, by any Affiliate to the Service Provider and/or any subcontractor to the same extent as if such performance or omission was made by the Service Provider itself. The Service Provider shall also remain the Purchaser's sole point of contact unless otherwise agreed.

2.3 Relationship between the Parties

The Parties are acting as independent contractors when performing each Party's respective obligations under the Service Agreement. Neither Party nor its Affiliates are agents for the other Party or its Affiliates and have no authority to represent them in relation to any matters. Nothing in these General Terms or the Service Agreement shall be construed as to constitute a partnership or joint venture between the Parties.

3. SERVICE REQUIREMENTS

- 3.1 All Services shall be performed in accordance with the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement, including the Service Specification, and otherwise in a professional manner.
- 3.2 When providing the Services, the Service Provider shall use professional, appropriate, qualified and skilled personnel, and shall ensure that its personnel have been properly educated and trained for the Services to be performed, including being fully acquainted with the Purchaser's specific requirements. The Service Provider shall avoid unnecessary changes in the personnel engaged in performing its undertakings under this Service Agreement. The Service Provider shall work according to the same standard of care and professionalism that is done in the Service Provider's internal business and development projects. Such standard of care and professionalism, as well as the Service Provider's performance of its undertakings under this Service Agreement, shall however at all times correspond to Industry Standard. For the avoidance of doubt, the Service Provider is responsible for all necessary recruiting and hiring costs associated with employing appropriate personnel as well as all necessary training costs. It is acknowledged that the Service Charges shall adhere to the principles set forth in this Section 3.2.
- 3.3 The Purchaser shall provide the Service Provider with instructions as reasonably required for the Service Provider to be able to carry out the Services. The Service Provider must continuously inform the Service Provider of any needs of additional instructions or specifications required to perform the Services.
- 3.4 The Service Provider shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its undertakings under this Service Agreement. Further, the Service Provider undertakes to ensure that the performance of the Services will not be given lower priority than other of the Service Provider's internal similar projects.
- 3.5 The Parties acknowledge and agree that the Services might not be described on a detailed basis in the Service Specification and that the details of such Services might not have been finalised at the time of entering into this Service Agreement, but that the Service Specification will be updated during the provision of the Services up until Job1+90 at the latest.

4. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS4.1 Ownership of existing Intellectual Property Rights

4.1.1 Each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of its Background IP.

4.1.2 Nothing in this Service Agreement shall be deemed to constitute an assignment of, or license to use, any Trademarks of the other Party.

4.2 Ownership of Results

4.2.1 In the event any Results are created as a result of the Services provided by the Service Provider (or if applicable, any of its appointed Affiliates or subcontractors) under this Service Agreement, the Parties agree that the Service Provider shall be the sole and exclusive owner of such Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof made by the Service Provider.

4.3 License grant

4.3.1 The Service Provider hereby grants to the Purchaser a non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any IP or Background IP included in the license described hereunder)) and non-assignable license to, within the Territory:

- (a) Use, in whole or in part, the Results;
- (b) if applicable, Use any Background IP embedded in or otherwise used in the development of the Results to the extent such license is necessary or reasonably necessary to make Use of the license granted to the Results; and
- (c) design, engineer, Use, make and have made, repair, service, market, sell and make available products and/or services based on, incorporating or using the Results and any Background IP referred to in (a) and (b) above, in whole or in part.

4.3.2 The license granted to the Purchaser in accordance with Section 4.3.1 shall be fully sublicensable to the Purchaser's Affiliates, but shall not be sub-licensable to any Third Party without prior written consent from the Service Provider, which shall not be unreasonably withheld (whereby a sublicense/license to a Third Party which is a competitor of the Service Provider is an example of what could be deemed unreasonable) or delayed. For the avoidance of doubt, the Service Provider shall be free to Use and to grant licenses to the Results and any Background IP to the Service Provider's Affiliates and any Third Parties without prior written consent from the Purchaser.

4.3.3 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Service Agreement, nothing in these General Terms or otherwise in the Service Agreement shall be construed as to give the Purchaser any rights, including but not limited to any license rights (express or implied), to any Intellectual Property Rights, except as expressly stated herein.

4.4 Polestar brand name

- 4.4.1 For sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the “Polestar” brand name or Trademarks, or refer to “Polestar” in communications or official documents of whatever kind.
- 4.4.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the “Polestar” brand name or “Polestar” Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence

4.5 Volvo brand name

- 4.5.1 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the “Volvo” brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to “Volvo” in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the “Volvo” Trademarks as well as the “Volvo” name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the “Volvo” Trademarks is subject to a service agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related Intellectual Property can only be used by Volvo Car Corporation and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.
- 4.5.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the “Volvo” brand name or “Volvo” Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

5. SERVICE CHARGES

In consideration of the Service Provider’s performance of the Services under this Service Agreement and the development of the Results, the Purchaser agrees to pay to the Service Provider the Service Charges as set forth or referenced to in the Individual Terms.

6. PAYMENT TERMS

- 6.1 All amounts and payments referred to in this Service Agreement shall be paid in the currency set forth in the Individual Terms, in a timely manner and in accordance with the payment terms set forth in this Section 6.
- 6.2 All amounts and payments referred to in this Service Agreement are exclusive of VAT, and any other taxes, including but not limited to withholding tax and surcharges.
- 6.3 Any amount of the invoiced by the Service Provider to the Purchaser shall be paid by the Purchaser within thirty (30) days after receipt.
- 6.4 Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based on the one (1) month applicable interbank rate, depending on invoice and currency, with an addition of two per cent (2%) per annum.
- 6.5 Any paid portion of the Service Charges is non-refundable, with the exception set forth in the Individual Terms, if any.

7. AUDIT

- 7.1 During the term of the Service Agreement, the Purchaser shall have the right to, upon reasonable notice in writing to the Service Provider, inspect Service Provider's books and records related to the Services and the premises where the Services are performed, in order to conduct quality controls and otherwise verify the statements rendered under this Service Agreement.
- 7.2 Audits shall be made during regular business hours and be conducted by the Purchaser or by an independent auditor appointed by the Purchaser. Should Purchaser during any inspection find that the Service Provider or the Services does/do not fulfil the requirements set forth herein, the Purchaser is entitled to comment on the identified deviations. The Service Provider shall, upon notice from the Purchaser, take reasonable efforts to take the actions required in order to fulfil the requirements. In the event the Parties cannot agree upon measures to be taken in respect of the audit, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.

8. DELIVERY AND ACCEPTANCE

- 8.1 The Service Provider shall provide any Results (or parts thereof) to the Purchaser at the Gates or otherwise promptly after any part of such Results has been finalised.
- 8.2 Such Results (or parts thereof) shall be provided by the Service Provider to the Purchaser by electronically loading files with the relevant information into a Data Room agreed upon (if applicable) and otherwise provided as agreed between the Parties e.g. through knowledge transfer meetings.
- 8.3 Delivery of the Services (or parts thereof) occurs when the delivery at the respective Gates meets the requirements for that Gate set out in the Service Specification, however subject to Section 9.2.1 and that the Purchaser has accepted such delivery in accordance with what is set out below in this Section 8.
- 8.4 The Purchaser shall accept the delivery of the Services, and parts thereof, at the respective Gates, unless the Services upon delivery at that Gate deviates from the requirements set forth in the Service Specification.
- 8.5 The Purchaser shall give its final acceptance of the delivered Services on Job1+90, at the latest.
- 8.6 If the Services have been delivered in accordance with this Section 8, but the Purchaser has not accepted the delivery in time (i.e. at the Gates or as separately agreed) nor objected to the delivery due to it deviating from what is set out in Section 9.2.1, the delivery shall be deemed accepted by the Purchaser.

- 8.7 After Job1+90, any changes to the Service Specification shall be subject to the Parties entering into a separate agreement governing such changes. Thus, this Service Agreement shall not apply in relation to any such changes. Further, the Service Provider shall have no responsibility for the Services and/or any such Results after Job1+90.

9. DELAYS, DEFECTS ETC.

9.1 Delay

- 9.1.1 The Service Provider shall be deemed to be in delay where any of the Gates are met after the agreed delivery date for such Gate, unless the Parties have agreed for an extension of the time for meeting such Gate upon which the new agreed delivery date shall be relevant for determining whether the Service Provider is in delay.
- 9.1.2 If the Service Provider is in delay, or at any time believes that a Gate will not, or is unlikely to, be met in time, the Service Provider shall inform the Purchaser of the reasons for and consequences of not meeting the Gate at the agreed date and shall take all steps reasonably necessary, including providing additional resources, to ensure that the requirements for the relevant Gate is met as soon as possible. For avoidance of doubt, the Service Provider shall be entitled to compensation in accordance with this Service Agreement for work performed to meet a Gate in relation to a risk of, or an actual, delay unless otherwise stated in this Section 9.1 or Section 9.2.2.
- 9.1.3 If the Service Provider is in delay and such delay has a negative impact on the project relating to the Services, the Parties shall upon the Purchaser's request agree on a reduction of the Service Charges relating to the additional work that (i) has to be carried out in order to meet the requirements for the Gate in question and (ii) is performed after the agreed delivery date for such Gate.
- 9.1.4 Without prejudice to any other remedies available, the Parties acknowledge that the Service Provider's delay may be subject to Section 15.2(a).

9.2 Defects in delivery or the performance of the Services

- 9.2.1 In the event the Services and/or the Results, or any part thereof, after having met a Gate, deviate from the requirements set forth in the Service Specification, or if the Services otherwise does not meet or ceases to meet the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement, the Service Provider shall, if such fault or defect is discovered and/or notified to the Service Provider before Job1+90, remedy such non-compliance, fault or defect as soon as reasonably possible at its own cost.
- 9.2.2 The Purchaser shall not be responsible for costs that relate to poorly executed Services or Services having been performed by personnel not qualified for such Services, in breach of Section 3.2, as long as such costs would not have occurred had the Services been properly executed or performed by qualified personnel.

9.3 Effects of the Purchaser's actions

- 9.3.1 Notwithstanding what is set out above in this Section 9, the Purchaser shall be responsible for costs relating to delays which are due to the Purchaser's non-fulfilment of any of its obligations under this Service Agreement or the Purchaser's requests for changes to the Service Specification. Further, any such delays which are due to the Purchaser shall give a corresponding extension of time to the Service Provider for meeting any affected Gate.

9.3.2 Notwithstanding what is set out above in this Section 9, the Purchaser shall be responsible for costs relating to faults and defects which are due to the Purchaser's non-fulfilment of any of its obligations under this Service Agreement.

10. WARRANTIES

10.1 Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:

- (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;
- (b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Service Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;
- (c) the execution, delivery and performance of this Service Agreement have been duly authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate any laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and
- (d) this Service Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

11. INDEMNIFICATION

11.1 General

- 11.1.1 The Parties acknowledge that the Services are provided, and that the Results are licensed, to the Purchaser on an "as is" basis, without any warranties or representations of any kind (except for the warranties in Section 10.1 above), whether implied or express, and in particular any warranties of suitability, merchantability, description, design and fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, completeness, systems integration and accuracy are expressly excluded to the maximum extent permissible by law.
- 11.1.2 In addition, the Service Provider does not make any warranties or representations as regards the functionality of any Services or Results. The Purchaser hereby releases the Service Provider from all liability (and accordingly, cannot claim damages, compensation, price reduction etc.) in respect of errors, defects and deficiencies in any Services or Results of whatever kind, whether visible or latent, including but not limited to errors of fact or law, errors regarding right of disposition, physical defects and deficiencies and damages arising due to product liability after the Services and/or Results have been delivered to the Purchaser, however excluding the Service Provider's limited undertakings in Section 9.2.1.
- 11.1.3 The principles set out in this Section 11 is reflected in the Service Charges and the fact that the Service Provider is not a provider or consultant of services such as the Services, but merely a car manufacturer which normally only performs Services for its own business purposes.

- 11.1.4 The principles set forth in this Section 11 are exclusive. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing in this Section 11, the Parties agree that no other remedy whatsoever under any statute, law or legal principle shall be available to the Purchaser in relation to the Services to be performed, and/or the licenses to be granted, by the Service Provider hereunder.

11.2 The Purchaser's indemnification

- 11.2.1 The Purchaser shall indemnify and hold the Service Provider harmless from and against any and all damages, costs, losses and expenses, direct or indirect, arising out of or in connection with the Purchaser's use of any Services or Results, including but not limited to any Third party claims on Intellectual Property Rights infringement.
- 11.2.2 The Service Provider shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to the Purchaser's use of any Services or Results from the Service Provider notify the Purchaser of such claim in writing and the Purchaser shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the Third party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. The Purchaser shall at all times keep the Service Provider informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with the Service Provider on appropriate actions to take. If the Purchaser fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend the Service Provider within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, the Service Provider shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/or over any settlement negotiation at the Purchaser's cost. Any settlement proposed by the Purchaser on its own account must take account of potential implications for the Service Provider and shall therefore be agreed in writing with the Service Provider before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

12. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 12.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Service Agreement.
- 12.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement shall be limited to ten per cent (10 %) of the Service Charges payable by Purchaser to the Service Provider hereunder.
- 12.3 The limitations of liability set forth in this Section 12 shall not apply in respect of damage;
- (a) caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence, or
 - (b) caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 14 below.

13. GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES

13.1 Governance

- 13.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Service Agreement as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Service Agreement.

- 13.1.2 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Service Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event the Parties on an operational level cannot agree upon inter alia the prioritisation of Services or other aspects relating to the co-operation between the Parties, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.
- 13.1.3 If the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution of the disagreement the relevant issue should be escalated to the Strategic Board for decision.

13.2 Changes

- 13.2.1 Up until Job1+90, the Purchaser can request changes to the Service Specification, which shall be handled in accordance with the governance procedure set forth in Section 13.1 above. Both Parties agree to act in good faith to address and respond to any change request within a reasonable period of time.
- 13.2.2 The Parties acknowledge that the Service Provider will not perform in accordance with such change request until agreed in writing between the Parties. For the avoidance of any doubt, until there is agreement about the requested change, all work shall continue in accordance with the existing Service Specification.
- 13.2.3 The Parties further acknowledge that the Purchaser shall be responsible for all costs which relates to changes to the Work as well as other changes which are requested by the Purchaser.

14. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 14.1 The Parties shall take any and all necessary measures to comply with the security and confidentiality procedures of the other Party.
- 14.2 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes comprised by the fulfilment of this Service Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Service Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 14.2 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or subcontractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:
- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
 - (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
 - (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
 - (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;
 - (e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or
 - (f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.

- 14.3 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 14.
- 14.4 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within thirty (30) days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as "Confidential", "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 14.5 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 14, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section 18.2 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 14.6 This confidentiality provision shall survive the expiration or termination of this Service Agreement without limitation in time.

15. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 15.1 This Service Agreement shall become effective as set forth in the preamble in the Individual Terms and shall, unless terminated in accordance with Section 15.2 below, remain in force until Job1+90.
- 15.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in the event;
- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Service Agreement, which has not been remedied within fourteen (14) days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
 - (b) if the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.
- 15.3 The Purchaser shall in addition be entitled to cancel the Services performed by the Service Provider for convenience upon thirty (30) days written notice to the Service Provider.

- 15.4 In the event the Purchaser cancels the Services in accordance with Section 15.3 above, the Service Charges shall, in addition to what is set out in the Individual Terms, include any other reasonable proven costs Service Provider has incurred until the effective date of the cancellation.
- 15.5 Either Party shall in addition be entitled to terminate this Service Agreement for convenience upon sixty (60) days written notice to the other Party.

16. MISCELLANEOUS

16.1 Force majeure

16.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under the Service Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A "Force Majeure Event" means any event beyond a Party's reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party's), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors.

16.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under the Service Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its nonperformance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Service Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:

- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
- (b) if sent by email transmission at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
- (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
- (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods. All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be addressed to the address, and with the attention, as set forth in the Individual Terms, or to such other address, number or email address as a Party may designate.

16.3 Assignment

- 16.3.1 Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Service Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.
- 16.3.2 Notwithstanding the above, each Party may assign this Service Agreement to an Affiliate without the prior written consent of the other Party.

16.4 Waiver

Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Service Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Service Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the Service Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.

16.5 Severability

In the event any provision of this Service Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Service Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Service Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Service Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.

16.6 Entire agreement

All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Service Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Service Agreement are superseded by this Service Agreement and its Appendices.

16.7 Amendments

Any amendment or addition to this Service Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.

16.8 Survival

- 16.8.1 If this Service Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 15 above, Section 4.3 (License Grant), Section 14 (Confidential Information), Section 17 (Governing Law), Section 18 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 16.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.
- 16.8.2 Notwithstanding Section 16.8.1 above, if this Service Agreement is terminated due to the Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, pursuant to Section 15 above, Section 4.3 (License Grant) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination.

17. GOVERNING LAW

This Service Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Service Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of Sweden without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

18. DISPUTE RESOLUTION18.1 Escalation principles

- 18.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten (10) days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.
- 18.1.2 The members of the Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 18.1.3 If the Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within thirty (30) days from the deadlock notice served pursuant to Section 18.1.1 above, such deadlock will be referred to the General Counsels of each Party, which shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve the situation in the same way as indicated above. If no Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the General Counsels of each Party immediately and Section 18.1.2 above shall not apply.
- 18.1.4 If the General Counsels cannot settle the deadlock within thirty (30) days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the Strategic Board for decision. Should the matter not have been resolved by the Strategic Board within thirty (30) days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 18.2 below.
- 18.1.5 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 14 above.
- 18.1.6 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 18.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the Strategic Board in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

18.2 Arbitration

- 18.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, whereas the seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English, and the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.
- 18.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Service Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 18.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Service Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 18.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

APPENDIX 3—SERVICE CHARGES1. ESTIMATED TOTAL COST FOR THE SERVICES

1.1 The following estimated Services Charges are based on an estimation of the amount of hours required for the performance of the Services and the Parties acknowledge that this estimation may differ from the final number of hours charged by the Service Provider.

2. HOURLY RATES

2.1 The hourly rates that are used to calculate the Service Charges shall be determined between the Parties on an annual basis. The Service Charges shall be calculated on a time and material basis applying arm's length hourly rates using the cost plus method, i.e. full cost incurred plus an arm's length mark-up. The hourly rates should be reviewed, updated and agreed between the Parties on an annual basis.

Appendix 5 Data Processing Agreement

This Data Processing Agreement (the "Data Processing Agreement") is entered into between:

- (1) Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co. Ltd., reg. no. 91510100MA6BX1H33P, a company organized under the laws of People's Republic of China ("Purchaser"); and
- (2) Volvo Car Corporation, reg. no. 556074-3089, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden ("Service Provider").

Each of the Purchaser and the Service Provider are referred to as a "Party" and, jointly, as the "Parties".

1. BACKGROUND

The Parties have entered into an agreement regarding the provision of certain services (the "Agreement").

Capitalised terms used in this Data Processing Agreement shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Agreement, unless otherwise stated. Terms used but not defined in this Data Processing Agreement shall have the same meaning as set out in Article 4 in the Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, as may be amended, updated, replaced or superseded from time to time (the "GDPR") if not expressly stated otherwise.

Now, therefore, the Parties agree as follows.

2. PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA

- 2.1 The following shall apply in relation to data protection and take precedence in relation to any conflicts between the Agreement and this Data Processing Agreement.
- 2.2 The Service Provider shall to the extent any Personal Data (as defined in applicable laws, rules and regulations) is processed by the Service Provider on behalf of the Purchaser under the Agreement:
 - (a) only process Personal Data in accordance with the Purchaser's documented instructions. The Service Provider shall immediately inform the Purchaser if instructions are lacking or if instructions are infringing applicable laws, rules and regulations;
 - (b) ensure that the employees/agents/sub-contractors or other third parties that are authorized to process Personal Data are subject to an enforceable obligation of confidentiality with regards to the Personal Data;
 - (c) implement appropriate technical and organizational measures required pursuant to Article 32 in the GDPR;
 - (d) to the extent sub-contractors are engaged as sub-processors of Personal Data on behalf of the Purchaser (which mandate is hereby given by the Purchaser), respect the conditions referred to in Article 28, paragraphs 2 and 4, in the GDPR;

- (e) to the extent Personal Data will be transferred to a country that does not ensure an adequate level of data protection, the Service Provider shall inform the Purchaser and ensure that the Personal Data is safeguarded through e.g. Standard Contractual Clauses adopted by the European Commission prior to any transfer of Personal Data or any other allowed means of transfer under the GDPR;
 - (f) assist the Purchaser to respond to requests from Data Subjects' (as defined in applicable laws, rules and regulations) pursuant to Chapter III in the GDPR by implementing appropriate technical and organizational measures;
 - (g) assist the Purchaser to fulfil its obligations pursuant to Articles 32 to 36 in the GDPR;
 - (h) on termination or expiration of the Agreement for any reason, return or delete, at the Purchaser's choice, all Personal Data processed under the Agreement, unless the Service Provider is required to retain the Personal Data by applicable laws, rules and regulations; and
 - (i) make available to Purchaser upon Purchaser's request (at no cost to the Purchaser) all information necessary to demonstrate Purchaser's and Service Provider' compliance with the obligations laid down in Article 28 in the GDPR and in this Data Processing Agreement and allow for and contribute to audits, including inspections, conducted by the Purchaser or another auditor mandated by the Purchaser.
- 2.3 The intended processing of Personal Data shall be specified according to applicable laws, rules and regulations, for each processing activity, in the relevant Service Specification.
- 2.4 In relation to the ongoing Services, the processing of Personal Data is specified in the attached Appendix 1 to this Data Processing Agreement.
- 2.5 Any limitation of liability set out in the Agreement shall apply also in respect of this Data Processing Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, the terms and conditions under the Agreement shall, unless otherwise set out herein, also apply in respect of this Data Processing Agreement, including but not limited as regards confidentiality, governing law and dispute resolution.

This Data Processing Agreement has been signed in two (2) originals, of which the Parties have received one (1) each.

APPENDIX 1—SPECIFICATION OF PROCESSING ACTIVITIES

Name of specific processing activity: _____

Scope, type and purpose of the intended collection, processing or utilization of Personal Data, kind of Personal Data, categories of Data Subjects and roles of the parties:

[Please insert an explanation of the scope and type of processing activity as well as kind of Personal Data and categories of Data Subjects and the roles of the Parties. Example: The Service Provider will process Personal Data such as Basic Employment Data, Basic Personal Data and Competence Data (for explanation of data categories see BMS) that are necessary to perform the Services pursuant to the Agreement meaning that the Service Provider will not collect Personal Data on behalf of the Purchaser but instead store the Personal Data that the Purchaser feeds the system with and otherwise make available the Personal Data provided by the Purchaser within the system at hand. The categories of Data Subjects are employees and former employees. The Service Provider will process Personal Data as a processor and the Purchaser will be the controller for the processing activity.]

Duration of the processing of Personal Data:

[Please provide information on the expected duration of the processing activity. If the expected duration of the processing activity cannot be provided, please provide information on the criteria that will determine the duration of the processing. Example: The processing activity will continue for as long as the Agreement is valid and for a period of three months thereafter to allow the Service Provider to erase or retransfer the Personal Data.]

Additional Instructions:

[Please provide information on any eventual additional instructions on the processing activity that is not directly covered by the descriptions in the Agreement. This section is needed when the Service Provider will perform a number of different processing activities and for which all aspects are not covered by the Agreement.]

Place of processing:

[Please provide information on the data flow in relation to the processing activity. It is very important that we have detailed knowledge about where Personal Data is processed (stored, used, compiled, transferred etc.). If the Personal Data is first transferred to one country outside of EEA for compression and then retransferred to another country for storing etc. we need to know the details of the data flow.]

Additional technical and organizational security measures:

[Please provide information on additional technical and organizational security measures for the particular processing activity that is not directly covered by the descriptions in the Agreement. This section is needed e.g. when we have identified a more sensitive processing activity and for which the Service Provider needs to adopt stricter security measures.]

Additional sub-processors:

[Please provide information on additional sub-processors. This section needs to be kept updated during the term of the Agreement when eventual additional sub-processors/sub-contractors are used.]

Commencement of the processing activity

[Please provide information on the start date of the particular processing activity. Usually the processing activity starts in relation to the start date of the services covered by the Agreement but for further processing activities that can be added later on we need to state a start date (an exact date is not needed).]

Novation Agreement

This Novation Agreement (the “Agreement”) is entered into by and among the following parties on 8 December, 2020.

SERVICE AGREEMENT MAIN DOCUMENT

Name of Project: [] Procurement Services

Short description of activities under this Service Agreement: Procurement services needed for [] maintenance.

This Service Agreement is between Volvo Cars Technology (Shanghai) Co., Ltd., Reg. No. 91310000568010754K, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of China ("Service Provider"), and Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co., Ltd., Reg. No. 91510100MA6bXIH33P, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of China ("Purchaser").

Each of Service Provider and Purchaser is hereinafter referred to as a "Party" and jointly as the "Parties".

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have determined that Service Provider shall provide to Purchaser certain Services (as defined in the General Terms), which are further described in the Service Specification in Appendix 1. The provision of the Services shall be performed in accordance with the terms in this service agreement and its appendices (the "Service Agreement").
- B. Purchaser now wishes to enter into this Service Agreement for the purpose of receiving the Services and Service Provider wishes to provide the Services in accordance with the terms set forth in this Service Agreement.
- C. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Service Agreement.

AGREEMENT

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This Service Agreement consists of this main document (the "Main Document") and its appendices. This Main Document sets out the specific terms in respect of the provision of the Services, whereas Appendix 2 sets out certain general terms and conditions applicable to the Parties' rights, obligations and performance of the Parties' activities hereunder (the "General Terms").
- 1.2 All capitalized terms used, but not specifically defined in this Main Document, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the General Terms.

2. SERVICE SPECIFICATION

- 2.1 The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification for the Services as specified in the Service Specification in Appendix 1.

3. AFFILIATE

3.1 Affiliate shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the following meaning:

“Affiliate” means any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by or is under common control with Volvo Cars Technology (Shanghai) or Polestar New Energy Vehicle and control means the possession, directly or indirectly, by agreement or otherwise, of (i) at least 50% of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest, or (ii) the power (a) to appoint or remove a majority of the board of directors or other governing body of an entity, or (b) to cause the direction of the management of an entity.

4. SERVICE CHARGES

4.1 In consideration of Service Provider’s performance of the Services under this Service Agreement, Purchaser shall to pay to Service Provider the service charges as further described below (the “Service Charges”).

4.2 The Service Charges for the Services will be based on the actual hours required for the Services to be performed by Service Provider as set forth in the Service Specification in Appendix 1 and the hourly rates as set forth in Appendix 3. The Parties acknowledge that the estimated Service Charges set forth in the Service Specification in Appendix 1, are based on an estimation of the amount of hours required for the performance of the Services and that this estimation may differ from the final actual number of hours charged by Service Provider. Hence, the Service Charges will ultimately be invoiced based on actual hours, not on estimated hours.

4.3 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency: CNY.

4.4 The hourly rates that are used to calculate the Service Charges shall be determined by Service Provider on an annual basis in compliance with applicable tax legislation, including but not limited to the principle of “arm’s length distance” between the Parties. The hourly rates shall be calculated using the cost plus method, i.e. full cost incurred plus an arm’s length mark-up. All costs Service Provider has in order to perform the Services shall be reimbursed by Purchaser.

5. PAYMENT

5.1 If Service Provider, pursuant to the General Terms, appoints its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, Service Provider shall include the costs relating to such work in the invoices to Purchaser.

5.2 The actual Service Charges shall be invoiced on a monthly basis at the end of each month and paid by Purchaser in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms.

6. GOVERNANCE FORUM

6.1 The Parties agree that governance in respect of this Service Agreement shall be handled in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms in Appendix 2. When reference is made to a relevant governance forum, it shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the meaning set out below in this Section 6.

6.2 The first level of governance forum for handling the co-operation between the Parties in various matters, handling management, prioritisation of development activities etc. under the Service Agreement shall be the “Steering Committee”, which regarding cooperation between Service Provider and Purchaser is the so called Volvo Polestar Executive P&Q Steering Committee. The Steering Committee shall be the first level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

- 6.3 The higher level of governance forum, to which an issue shall be escalated if the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution shall be the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. This shall be the highest level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

7. TEMPLATE FINANCIAL REPORTING

- 7.1 The Parties agree that the basis for calculating the Service Charges shall be transparent and auditable to Purchaser and be done based on the template attached as Appendix 4.

8. ORDER OF PRIORITY

- 8.1 In the event there are any contradictions or inconsistencies between the terms of this Main Document and any of the Appendices hereto, the Parties agree that the following order of priority shall apply:

- (1) This Main Document
- (2) Appendix 2, General Terms—Service Agreement
- (3) Appendix 1, Service Specification
- (4) Appendix 3, Hourly Rates
- (5) Appendix 4, Template Financial Reporting

SERVICE AGREEMENT
APPENDIX 1
SERVICE SPECIFICATION
Direct Material Procurement Services, [] Maintenance Procurement CH-CH

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This Service Specification is a part of the Service Agreement executed between Service Provider and Purchaser. This Service Specification sets out the scope and the specification of the activities that shall be performed under the Service Agreement, the division of responsibilities between Service Provider and Purchaser and the applicable time plan for the performance of the activities.

2. DEFINITIONS

- 2.1 Any capitalised terms used but not specifically defined herein shall have the meanings set out for such terms in the Main Document. In addition, the capitalised terms set out below in this Section 2 shall for the purposes of this Service Specification have the meanings described herein. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa.

“Procurement”—Involves both commercial purchasing and quality assurance of suppliers and their products and services.

“Direct Material Procurement”—Purchasing and quality assurance from and of Suppliers of car component tooling, car components, vehicle software and related development activities.

“Indirect Procurement”—Purchasing of Non-Production Material, Services and IT.

“SQM” means Supplier Quality Management, function within Direct Procurement that quality assures suppliers and the car components that they supply to Volvo Cars.

3. GENERAL DESCRIPTION

- 3.1 The Parties have agreed that the Service Provider will provide a full service regarding maintenance in running production for procurement activities related to [] at PSCD and components and suppliers.
- 3.2 The overall objectives of the activities are to manage in-plant PSCD (Polestar New Energy Vehicle, Chengdu Plant) related procurement activities for the full [] and quality assure and commercially manage changes and suppliers for [] Polestar Technology according to the Volvo Cars standards (methods, tools, evaluations, qualifications, processes etc used at Volvo).
- 3.3 The services of Indirect Procurement are not included in this Agreement and will be subject to a separate agreement.
- 3.4 The service of commercial purchasing for platform components and supplier quality assuring platform components at suppliers are covered in a separate agreement.

- 3.5 The [] Procurement services cover:
1. In-plant PSCD activities—all Categories 1-4 (both platform and unique)
 2. Commercial purchasing and SQM activities at supplier, for the following categories as defined in the PSI and PS2 Car Model Assignment and License Agreement, signed 31 Oct 2018:
 - Polestar Technology (Category 1) components
 - PS Unique Volvo Technology (Category 2) components
 - Common Polestar Technology (Category 3B) components
- 4. ASSUMPTIONS/PRE-REQUISITES
- 4.1 The Procurement services will be carried out according to and within Volvo Cars existing change management processes and approval levels. Volvo Cars Procurement will follow the already established functional forums, where Procurement is required for the different change management processes (i.e. DRM). Decision related to supplier relocation will be approved in Volvo Cars Supplier Choice Meeting (“SCM”).The governance procedure is described in Appendix 4.
 - 4.2 In case of supplier relocation for Polestar unique components according to chapter 3.5 under point 2, Polestar is responsible to participate in the SCM and is regarded as one of the Stakeholders and will have a voice in the SCM.
 - 4.3 Relocation decisions for any [] part will be based on multiple parameters such as quality, technical capability, sustainability, strategic consideration, and price. All price calculations are based on landed cost.
 - 4.4 To adhere to Volvo Cars standards, the Volvo Cars Purchasing Terms & Conditions will be used towards the suppliers at sourcing and contract signing. Volvo Cars plants payment terms: 60 days + free delivery months and 75 days net for export/import between EU and China. Volvo Cars delivery terms: FCA.
 - 4.5 “Arm’s length principle” will be applied, meaning that information shared with Polestar about for instance Volvo Cars supplier strategies and agreements will be based on “need- to-know” basis only. Volvo Cars will not share benchmark data without the consent of the Supplier.
 - 4.6 Volvo Cars Procurement functions may work in their normal line organisation while providing this service to Polestar and may work with other projects in parallel.
- 5. DESCRIPTION OF THE SERVICE ACTIVITIES
- 5.1 The service will be provided in three main areas:
1. In-plant PSCD activities covering full [] . From the plant perspective monitor suppliers’ incoming quality, deliveries and capacity issues and feedback to suppliers and SQM.
- Procurement Plant Teams (PPT) on-site at PSCD responsible to handle all procurement related issues (quality & delivery):
- The PPT will be responsible for all 8D with possibility to request help from Site SQM if extra expertise is needed
 - PPT will be responsible for both Q and A reports from D4.
 - Meeting structure in several steps (daily plant meetings with SCC and IMQ, weekly plant meetings with plant mgmt., weekly regional meeting including previous functions plus procurement line organization + constraint + capacity mgmt., and finally a global alignment/escalation meeting

Capacity and constraints Management situated in Procurement office in Shanghai:

- volume re-calculations and needed changes in MPS towards suppliers
- constraints coordination

2. Purchasing for unique Polestar components. Handling of all VPC (Volvo Parts Concern), eventual claims and capacity requests that need commercial discussions with suppliers.

3. Supplier quality for unique Polestar components. Will fully handle quality assurance and constraints management on supplier site both for product and supplier. If relocation is needed, supplier quality (SQM) will lead the supplier evaluation and qualification work.

5.2 Volvo Cars Procurement will perform procurement deliveries through the following functions and their activities:

- Hardware, Software and Propulsion Buyers—Handling VPC and other requests from a commercial perspective towards the suppliers
- Procurement Plant Engineer—located in PSCD handling procurement related issues (quality & delivery) in the plant and report issues to SQM. Be responsible for both Q and A reports from D4.
- Capacity & Constraint analysts—Located in Shanghai handling volume calculations and coordinating eventual constraints issues
- SQM Engineer—Contact with the supplier, on-site if needed, for supplier site improvement and to complete part approval and capacity verification activities for assigned parts. Secure corrective action plans for any incomplete or inadequate item.

In addition, Volvo Cars Procurement will provide all management and business support needed to support the different functions and processes with decisions and business analysis to support these decisions.

5.2.1 Volvo Cars Procurement will keep Polestar informed of the overall progress of the work by PPT in relevant plant meetings

6. ESTIMATED HOURS

6.1 The Parties estimate that [] are required to perform the Services during 2020.

7. THE PURCHASER'S RESPONSIBILITIES

7.1 The Purchaser must keep the Service Provider informed about information necessary to fulfil the work of quality assure and handle the commercial contacts with the suppliers. Any changes of capacity or product pre-requisites must immediately be communicated to the Service Providers assigned functions.

7.2 Polestar is responsible to participate in SCM and SCC meetings for Polestar Technology components or to delegate, in written in front of the SCM, the decision to Volvo. Polestar may be invited to be present in Supplier Choice meetings for Volvo Technology components.

- 7.3 Polestar is responsible to provide approved funding of tooling investments and other expenses (related to claims, technical support, capacity requests etc) for full [] in front of negotiations with suppliers.
- 7.4 Polestar will always be ultimately responsible for the Purchase Orders placed in Polestars name (i.e. payments, volume).
- 7.5 Polestar will keep a Power of Attorney updated and available for each of Volvo Cars legal entities to act on Polestars behalf. The purpose is to avoid any confusion towards suppliers and clarify that Volvo Cars has the authority to deliver the direct material procurement for Polestar.
- 7.6 Polestar will need to sign supplier agreements and attachments for Polestar Technology according to Polestar Delegation of Authority. If requested, Volvo Cars will use Polestar templates when acting on Polestars behalf.

SERVICE AGREEMENT

- 2.23 The right to “have made” is the right of a Party in its capacity as a licensee hereunder, as applicable, to have another person (or their subcontractor of any tier) make for that Party and does not include the right to grant sublicenses to another person to make for such person’s own use or use other than for that Party.

3. PROVISION OF SERVICES

- 3.1 Service Specification. The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification of the Services provided under this Service Agreement in the Service Specification.
- 3.2 Service Recipients. In addition to Purchaser, all of Purchaser’s Affiliates shall be entitled to receive and use the Services under this Service Agreement. Nevertheless, Purchaser shall be Service Provider’s sole point of contact and shall be responsible for payment of the Service Charges as set forth in this Service Agreement, irrespectively of whether it is Purchaser or any of Purchaser’s Affiliates that in reality received and used the Services.
- 3.3 Subcontractors.
- 3.3.1 The Parties acknowledge that Service Provider may use its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, provided that Service Provider informs Purchaser thereof.
- 3.3.2 Service Provider shall however remain responsible for the performance, and any omission to perform or comply with the provisions of this Service Agreement, by any Affiliate to Service Provider and/or any subcontractor to the same extent as if such performance or omission was made by Service Provider itself. Service Provider shall also remain Purchaser’s sole point of contact unless otherwise agreed.

3.4 Relationship between the Parties. The Parties are acting as independent contractors when performing each Party's respective obligations under the Service Agreement. Neither Party nor its Affiliates are agents for the other Party or its Affiliates and have no authority to represent them in relation to any matters. Nothing in these General Terms or the Service Agreement shall be construed as to constitute a partnership or joint venture between the Parties.

4. SERVICE REQUIREMENTS

- 4.1 All Services shall be performed in accordance with the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement, including the Service Specification, and otherwise in a professional manner.
- 4.2 When providing the Services, Service Provider shall use professional and skilled personnel, reasonably experienced for the Services to be performed, Service Provider shall work according to the same standard of care and professionalism that is done in Service Provider's internal business and development projects. Such standard of care and professionalism, shall however at all times correspond to Industry Standard. For the avoidance of doubt, Service Provider is responsible for all necessary recruiting and hiring costs associated with employing appropriate personnel as well as all necessary training costs.
- 4.3 Service Provider acknowledges that time is of essence and Service Provider agrees to strictly respect and adhere to the deadlines set out in the Service Specification in Appendix 1, such as time limits, milestones and gates. In the event Service Provider risks not to meet an agreed deadline or is otherwise in delay with the performance of the Services, Service Provider shall appoint additional resources in order to avoid the effects of the anticipated delay or the delay (as the case may be).
- 4.4 In the event the Services or any part thereof, more than insignificantly deviate from the requirements set forth in the Service Specification, or if Service Provider otherwise does not meet or ceases to meet the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement (except for minor faults and defects, which do not affect the provision of the Services), Service Provider shall remedy such non-compliance, fault or defect as soon as reasonably possible.
- 4.5 In the event Service Provider fails to act in accordance with Section 4.3 and 4.4 above, such failure shall be escalated in accordance with the escalation principles set forth in Section 17.1 and eventually give Purchaser the right to terminate the Service Agreement in accordance with Section 14.4.
- 4.6 Purchaser shall provide Service Provider with instructions as reasonably required for Service Provider to be able to carry out the Services. Service Provider must continuously inform Purchaser of any needs of additional instructions or specifications required to perform the Services.
- 4.7 Service Provider shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its undertakings under this Service Agreement. Further, Service Provider undertakes to ensure that the performance of the Services will not be given lower priority than other of Service Provider's internal similar projects.

5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

5.1 Ownership of existing Intellectual Property Rights.

5.1.1 Each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of its Background IP.

5.1.2 Nothing in this Service Agreement shall be deemed to constitute an assignment of, or license to use, any Trademarks of the other Party.

5.2 Ownership of Results. In the event any Results are created as a result of the Services provided by Service Provider (or if applicable, any of its appointed Affiliates or subcontractors) under this Service Agreement, the Parties agree that Service Provider shall be the exclusive owner of such Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof. Hence, all Results shall automatically upon their creation stay with Service Provider. Service Provider shall further have the right to transfer, sublicense, modify and otherwise freely dispose of the Results.

5.3 License grant.

5.3.1 Upon creation of the Results, Purchaser shall at the same time automatically be granted a non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any IP or Background IP included in the license described hereunder)), non-assignable (however assignable to Purchaser's Affiliates), worldwide license to Use, in whole or in part, the Results and, if applicable, any Background IP embedded in or otherwise used in the development of the Results. The license granted in this Section 5.3.1 is limited to the extent such license is necessary for Purchaser to make use of the Services provided hereunder and to enable an orderly transfer to another service provider after the termination and/or expiry of this Service Agreement.

5.3.2 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Service Agreement, nothing in these General Terms or otherwise in the Service Agreement shall be construed as to give the other Party any rights, including but not limited to any license rights (express or implied), to any Background IP, except as expressly stated herein.

5.4 Volvo brand name.

5.4.1 For the sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the "Volvo" brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to "Volvo" in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the "Volvo" Trademarks as well as the "Volvo" name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the "Volvo" Trademarks is subject to a service agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related Intellectual Property can only be used by Volvo Car Corporation and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.

5.4.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Volvo" brand name or "Volvo" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

5.4.3 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the Polestar brand name or Trademarks, or refer to Polestar in communications or official documents of whatever kind.

- 5.4.4 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the Polestar brand name or Polestar Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

6. SERVICE CHARGES

- 6.1 In consideration of Service Provider's performance of the Services under this Service Agreement, Purchaser agrees to pay to Service Provider the Service Charges as set forth or referenced to in the Main Document.

7. PAYMENT TERMS

- 7.1 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency set forth in the Main Document, in a timely manner and in accordance with the payment terms set forth in this Section 7.
- 7.2 All amounts referred to in this Service Agreement are exclusive of VAT, VAT will be added in accordance with local legislation.
- 7.3 Any amount of the Service Charges invoiced by Service Provider to Purchaser shall be paid by Purchaser within 45 days after the invoice date.
- 7.4 Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based on the one month applicable interbank rate, depending on invoice and currency, with an addition of two per cent (2.0%) per annum.
- 7.5 Any paid portion of the Service Charges is non-refundable, with the exception set forth in the Main Document.

8. AUDIT

- 8.1 During the term of the Service Agreement, Purchaser shall have the right to, upon reasonable notice in writing to Service Provider, inspect Service Provider's books and records related to the Services and the premises where the Services are performed, in order to conduct quality controls and otherwise verify the statements rendered under this Service Agreement.
- 8.2 Audits shall be made during regular business hours and be conducted by Purchaser or by an independent auditor appointed by Purchaser. Should Purchaser during any inspection find that Service Provider or the Services does/do not fulfil the requirements set forth herein, Purchaser is entitled to comment on the identified deviations. Service Provider shall, upon notice from Purchaser, take reasonable efforts to take the actions required in order to fulfil the requirements. In the event the Parties cannot agree upon measures to be taken in respect of the audit, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.

9. REPRESENTATIONS

- 9.1 Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:
- (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;
 - (b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Service Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;

- (c) the execution, delivery and performance of this Service Agreement have been duly authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate any laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and
- (d) this Service Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

10. SERVICE WARRANTY

- 10.1 When performing the Services, Service Provider shall provide professional and skilled personnel, reasonably experienced for the Services to be performed at the best of their knowledge.
- 10.2 Service Provider provides the Services "as is". Service Provider does neither warrant nor represent that any Services, provided or delivered to Purchaser hereunder are functional for the business needs of Purchaser or otherwise suitable for any specific purpose, nor that the Services, are not infringing any Intellectual Property of any third party. Service Provider does neither give any representations or warranties as regards the merchantability of the deliverables to be delivered hereunder nor any other representations or warranties of any kind whatsoever concerning the Services. Purchaser acknowledges that the price of the Services to be performed and other deliverables to be delivered by Service Provider are set in consideration of the foregoing.
- 10.3 Service Provider shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to Purchaser's use of the Services notify Purchaser of such claim in writing and Purchaser shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the third party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. Purchaser shall at all times keep Service Provider informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with Service Provider on appropriate actions to take. If Purchaser fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend Service Provider within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, Service Provider shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/ or over any settlement negotiation at Purchaser's cost. Any settlement proposed by Purchaser on its own account must take account of potential implications for Service Provider and shall therefore be agreed with Service Provider before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

11. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 11.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Service Agreement.
- 11.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement shall be limited to 30 % of the total Service Charges payable by Purchaser to Service Provider hereunder.
- 11.3 The limitations of liability set forth in this Section 11 shall not apply in respect of:
 - (a) claims related to death or bodily injury;
 - (b) damage caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence;
 - (c) damage caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 13 below; or
 - (d) damage arising out of an infringement, or alleged infringement, of the other Party's or any third party's Intellectual Property.

12. GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES

12.1 Governance.

- 12.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Service Agreement as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Service Agreement.
- 12.1.2 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Service Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event the Parties on an operational level cannot agree upon inter alia the prioritisation of development activities or other aspects relating to the co-operation between the Parties, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.
- 12.1.3 If the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution of the disagreement the relevant issue should be escalated to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. for decision.

12.2 Changes.

- 12.3 During the term of this Service Agreement, Purchaser can request changes to the Service Specification, which shall be handled in accordance with the governance procedure set forth in Section 12.1 above. Both Parties agree to act in good faith to address and respond to any change request within a reasonable period of time.
- 12.4 The Parties acknowledge that Service Provider will not perform in accordance with such change request until agreed in writing between the Parties. For the avoidance of any doubt, until there is agreement about the requested change, all work shall continue in accordance with the existing Service Specification.

13. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 13.1 The Parties shall take any and all necessary measures to comply with the security and confidentiality procedures of the other Party.
- 13.2 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes comprised by the fulfilment of this Service Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Service Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 13.2 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or sub-contractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:
- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
 - (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
 - (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
 - (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;
 - (e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or
 - (f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.
- 13.3 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 13.

- 13.4 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as “Confidential,” “Proprietary” or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within 30 days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as “Confidential”, “Proprietary” or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 13.5 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 13, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section 17.2 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 13.6 For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 13 does not permit disclosure of source code to software, and/or any substantial parts of design documents to software, included in the Results, to any Third Party, notwithstanding what is set forth above in this Section 13. Any such disclosure to any Third Party is permitted only if approved in writing by Service Provider.
- 13.7 This confidentiality provision shall survive the expiration or termination of this Service Agreement without limitation in time.

14. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 14.1 This Service Agreement shall become effective when the Main Document is signed by duly authorised signatories of each Party and shall, unless terminated in accordance with this Section 14 below, remain in force until the Services are completed.
- 14.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in the event:
- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Service Agreement, which has not been remedied within 30 days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
 - (b) if the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.

- 14.3 For avoidance of doubt, Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, shall be considered in material breach for the purpose of this Service Agreement.
- 14.4 Furthermore, Purchaser is entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in case Service Provider acts in breach, which is not insignificant, of what is set forth in Section 4.3 and 4.4 provided that the issue first has been escalated in accordance with Section 17.1.
- 14.5 Purchaser shall in addition be entitled to cancel the Services performed by Service Provider for convenience upon 30 days written notice to Service Provider.
- 14.6 In the event Purchaser cancels the Services in accordance with Section 14.5 above, the Service Charges shall, in addition to what is set out in the Main Document, include any other reasonable proven costs Service Provider has incurred until the effective date of the cancellation.
- 14.7 Either Party shall in addition be entitled to terminate the Service Agreement for convenience upon 60 days written notice to the other Party.

15. MISCELLANEOUS

15.1 Force majeure.

- 15.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under the Service Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A "Force Majeure Event" means any event beyond a Party's reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party's), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors if such default or delay has been caused by a Force Majeure Event.
- 15.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under the Service Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its nonperformance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.
- 15.2 Notices. All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Service Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:
 - (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
 - (b) if sent by email transmission, at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;

(c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or

(d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods. All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be addressed to the address, and with the attention, as set forth in the Main Document, or to such other address, number or email address as a Party may designate.

15.3 Assignment.

15.3.1 Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Service Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.

15.3.2 Notwithstanding the above, each Party may assign this Service Agreement to an Affiliate without the prior written consent of the other Party.

15.4 Waiver. Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Service Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Service Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the Service Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.

- 15.5 Severability. In the event any provision of this Service Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Service Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Service Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Service Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.
- 15.6 Entire agreement. All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Service Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Service Agreement are superseded by this Service Agreement and its Appendices.
- 15.7 Amendments. Any amendment or addition to this Service Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.
- 15.8 Survival.
- 15.8.1 If this Service Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 5.3 (License grant), Section 13 (Confidentiality), Section 16 (Governing Law), Section 17 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 15.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.
- 15.8.2 Notwithstanding Section 15.8.1 above, if this Service Agreement is terminated due to Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 5.3 (License Grant) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination. For the avoidance of doubt, what is stated in this Section 15.8.2 shall only apply in relation to such licenses granted to Purchaser pursuant to Section 5.3 above and any licenses granted to Service Provider under Section 5.3 shall thus nevertheless remain in force after such termination.

16. GOVERNING LAW

- 16.1 This Service Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Service Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of:
- (a) the People's Republic of China, if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China; and
 - (b) Sweden, if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of Sweden,
- without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

17.1 Escalation principles.

- 17.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.

- 17.1.2 The members of the Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 17.1.3 If the Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice served pursuant to Section 17.1.1 above, such deadlock will be referred to the CEO's of each Party, which shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve the situation in the same way as indicated above. If no Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the CEO's of each Party immediately and Section 17.1.2 above shall not apply.
- 17.1.4 If the CEO's of each Party cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. for decision. Should the matter not have been resolved by the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. within 30 days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 17.2 below.
- 17.1.5 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 13 above.
- 17.1.6 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 17.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

17.2 Arbitration.

- 17.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall:
- (a) if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China, be submitted to China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Committee ("CIETAC") for arbitration, which shall be held in Shanghai and conducted in accordance with the CIETAC's arbitration rules in effect at the time of applying for arbitration, whereas the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English and Chinese; and

- (b) if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of Sweden, be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, whereas the seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English, and the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.
- 17.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 17.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 17.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential

SERVICE AGREEMENT

MAIN DOCUMENT

Name of Project: [] Procurement Services

Short description of activities under this Service Agreement: Procurement services needed for [] maintenance.

This Service Agreement is between Volvo Car Corporation, Reg. No. 556074-3089, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Sweden ("Service Provider"), and Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co., Ltd., Reg. No. 91510100MA6bXIH33P, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of China ("Purchaser").

Each of Service Provider and Purchaser is hereinafter referred to as a "Party" and jointly as the "Parties".

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have determined that Service Provider shall provide to Purchaser certain Services (as defined in the General Terms), which are further described in the Service Specification in Appendix 1. The provision of the Services shall be performed in accordance with the terms in this service agreement and its appendices (the "Service Agreement").
- B. Purchaser now wishes to enter into this Service Agreement for the purpose of receiving the Services and Service Provider wishes to provide the Services in accordance with the terms set forth in this Service Agreement.
- C. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Service Agreement.

AGREEMENT

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This Service Agreement consists of this main document (the "Main Document") and its appendices. This Main Document sets out the specific terms in respect of the provision of the Services, whereas Appendix 2 sets out certain general terms and conditions applicable to the Parties' rights, obligations and performance of the Parties' activities hereunder (the "General Terms").
- 1.2 All capitalized terms used, but not specifically defined in this Main Document, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the General Terms.

2. SERVICE SPECIFICATION

- 2.1 The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification for the Services as specified in the Service Specification in Appendix 1.

3. AFFILIATE

3.1 Affiliate shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the following meaning:

“Affiliate” means any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by or is under common control with Volvo Car Corporation or Polestar Automotive Holding Limited and control means the possession, directly or indirectly, by agreement or otherwise, of (i) at least 50% of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest, or (ii) the power (a) to appoint or remove a majority of the board of directors or other governing body of an entity, or (b) to cause the direction of the management of an entity.

4. SERVICE CHARGES

4.1 in consideration of Service Provider's performance of the Services under this Service Agreement, Purchaser shall to pay to Service Provider the service charges as further described below (the “Service Charges”).

4.2 The Service Charges for the Services will be based on the actual hours required for the Services to be performed by Service Provider as set forth in the Service Specification in Appendix 1 and the hourly rates as set forth in Appendix 3. The Parties acknowledge that the estimated Service Charges set forth in the Service Specification in Appendix 1, are based on an estimation of the amount of hours required for the performance of the Services and that this estimation may differ from the final actual number of hours charged by Service Provider. Hence, the Service Charges will ultimately be invoiced based on actual hours, not on estimated hours.

4.3 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency: SEK.

4.4 The hourly rates that are used to calculate the Service Charges shall be determined by Service Provider on an annual basis in compliance with applicable tax legislation, including but not limited to the principle of “arm's length distance” between the Parties. The hourly rates shall be calculated using the cost plus method, i.e. full cost incurred plus an arm's length mark-up. All costs Service Provider has in order to perform the Services shall be reimbursed by Purchaser.

5. PAYMENT

5.1 If Service Provider, pursuant to the General Terms, appoints its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, Service Providers shall include the costs relating to such work in the invoices to Purchaser.

5.2 The actual Service Charges shall be invoiced on a monthly basis at the end of each month and paid by Purchaser in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms.

6. GOVERNANCE FORUM

6.1 The Parties agree that governance in respect of this Service Agreement shall be handled in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms in Appendix 2. When reference is made to a relevant governance forum, it shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the meaning set out below in this Section 6.

6.2 The first level of governance forum for handling the co-operation between the Parties in various matters, handling management, prioritisation of development activities etc. under the Service Agreement shall be the “Steering Committee” which regarding cooperation between Service Provider and Purchaser is the so called Volvo Polestar Executive PC Steering Committee. The Steering Committee shall be the first level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

- 6.3 The higher level of governance forum, to which an issue shall be escalated if the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution shall be the “Strategic Board”, which regarding cooperation between Service Provider and Purchaser is the so called Volvo Polestar Executive Meeting. The Strategic Board shall be the highest level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

7. TEMPLATE FINANCIAL REPORTING

- 7.1 The Parties agree that the basis for calculating the Service Charges shall be transparent and auditable to Purchaser and be done based on the template attached as Appendix 4.

8. ORDER OF PRIORITY

- 8.1 In the event there are any contradictions or inconsistencies between the terms of this Main Document and any of the Appendices hereto, the Parties agree that the following order of priority shall apply:

- (1) This Main Document
- (2) Appendix 2, General Terms- Service Agreement
- (3) Appendix 1, Service Specification
- (4) Appendix 3, Hourly Rates
- (5) Appendix 4, Template Financial Reporting

9. NOTICES

- 2.17 “Service Agreement” means the Main Document including all Of its Appendices and their Schedules as amended from time to time.
- 2.18 “Service Charges” means the service charges as set forth or referenced to in the Main Document.
- 2.19 “Service Specification” describes the Services to be provided by Service Provider to Purchaser hereunder including (if applicable) a time plan for the provision of the Services, which is included as Appendix 1 in this Service Agreement,
- 2.20 “Third Party” means a party other than any of the Parties and/or an Affiliate of one of the Parties to this Service Agreement.
- 2.21 “Trademarks” means trademarks (including part numbers that are trademarks), service marks, logos, trade names, business names, assumed names, trade dress and get-up, and domain names, in each case whether registered or unregistered, including all applications, registrations, renewals and the like, in each case to the extent they constitute rights that are enforceable against Third Parties.

- 2.22 “Use” means to make, have made, use (including in a process, such as use in designing, engineering, testing or assembling products or in their research or development), keep, install, integrate, extract, assemble, reproduce, incorporate, create derivative works of, modify, adapt, improve, enhance, develop, service or repair, including in the case of installation, integration, assembly, service or repair, the right to have a subcontractor of any tier carry out any of these activities on behalf of the Parties in their capacity as a licensee hereunder,
- 2.23 The right to “have made” is the right of a Party in its capacity as a licensee hereunder, as applicable, to have another person (or their subcontractor of any tier) make for that Party and does not include the right to grant sublicenses to another person to make for such person’s own use or use other than for that Party.

3. PROVISION OF SERVICES

- 3.1 Service Specification. The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification of the Services provided under this Service Agreement in the Service Specification.
- 3.2 Service Recipients. In addition to Purchaser, all of Purchaser’s Affiliates shall be entitled to receive and use the Services under this Service Agreement. Nevertheless, Purchaser shall be Service Provider’s sole point of contact and shall be responsible for payment of the Service Charges as set forth in this Service Agreement, irrespectively of whether it is Purchaser or any of Purchaser’s Affiliates that in reality received and used the Services.
- 3.3 Subcontractors.
- 3.3.1 The Parties acknowledge that Service Provider may use its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, provided that Service Provider informs Purchaser thereof.
- 3.3.2 Service Provider shall however remain responsible for the performance, and any omission to perform or comply with the provisions of this Service Agreement, by any Affiliate to Service Provider and/or any subcontractor to the same extent as if such performance or omittance was made by Service Provider itself. Service Provider shall also remain Purchaser’s sole point of contact unless otherwise agreed.
- 3.4 Relationship between the Parties. The Parties are acting as independent contractors when performing each Party’s respective obligations under the Service Agreement. Neither Party nor its Affiliates are agents for the other Party or its Affiliates and have no authority to represent them in relation to any matters. Nothing in these General Terms or the Service Agreement shall be construed as to constitute a partnership or joint venture between the Parties.

4. SERVICE REQUIREMENTS

- 4.1 All Services shall be performed in accordance with the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement, including the Service Specification, and otherwise in a professional manner.
- 4.2 When providing the Services, Service Provider shall use professional and skilled personnel, reasonably experienced for the Services to be performed, Service Provider shall work according to the same standard of care and professionalism that is done in Service Provider’s internal business and development projects. Such standard of care and professionalism, shall however at all times correspond to Industry Standard. For the avoidance of doubt, Service Provider is responsible for all necessary recruiting and hiring costs associated with employing appropriate personnel as well as all necessary training costs.

- 4.3 Service Provider acknowledges that time is of essence and Service Provider agrees to strictly respect and adhere to the deadlines set out in the Service Specification in Appendix 1, such as time limits, milestones and gates. In the event Service Provider risks not to meet an agreed deadline or is otherwise in delay with the performance of the Services, Service Provider shall appoint additional resources in order to avoid the effects of the anticipated delay or the delay (as the case may be).
- 4.4 In the event the Services or any part thereof, more than insignificantly deviate from the requirements set forth in the Service Specification, or if Service Provider otherwise does not meet or ceases to meet the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement (except for minor faults and defects, which do not affect the provision of the Services), Service Provider shall remedy such non-compliance, fault or defect as soon as reasonably possible.
- 4.5 In the event Service Provider fails to act in accordance with Section 4.3 and 4.4 above, such failure shall be escalated in accordance with the escalation principles set forth in Section 17.1 and eventually give Purchaser the right to terminate the Service Agreement in accordance with Section 14.4.
- 4.6 Purchaser shall provide Service Provider with instructions as reasonably required for Service Provider to be able to carry out the Services. Service Provider must continuously inform Purchaser of any needs of additional instructions or specifications required to perform the Services.
- 4.7 Service Provider shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its undertakings under this Service Agreement. Further, Service Provider undertakes to ensure that the performance of the Services will not be given lower priority than other of Service Provider's internal similar projects.

5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS
- 5.1 Ownership of existing Intellectual Property Rights.
- 5.1.1 Each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of its Background IP.
- 5.1.2 Nothing in this Service Agreement shall be deemed to constitute an assignment of, or license to use, any Trademarks of the other Party.
- 5.2 Ownership of Results. In the event any Results are created as a result of the Services provided by Service Provider (or if applicable, any of its appointed Affiliates or subcontractors) under this Service Agreement, the Parties agree that Service Provider shall be the exclusive owner of such Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof. Hence, all Results shall automatically upon their creation stay with Service Provider. Service Provider shall further have the right to transfer, sublicense, modify and otherwise freely dispose of the Results.
- 5.3 License grant.
- 5.3.1 Upon creation of the Results, Purchaser shall at the same time automatically be granted a non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any IP or Background IP included in the license described hereunder)), non-assignable (however assignable to Purchaser's Affiliates), worldwide license to Use, in whole or in part, the Results and, if applicable, any Background IP embedded in or otherwise used in the development of the Results. The license granted in this Section 5.3.1 is limited to the extent such license is necessary for Purchaser to make use of the Services provided hereunder and to enable an orderly transfer to another service provider after the termination and/or expiry of this Service Agreement.
- 5.3.2 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Service Agreement, nothing in these General Terms or otherwise in the Service Agreement shall be construed as to give the other Party any rights, including but not limited to any license rights (express or implied), to any Background IP, except as expressly stated herein.
- 5.4 Volvo brand name.
- 5.4.1 For the sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the "Volvo" brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to "Volvo" in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the "Volvo" Trademarks as well as the "Volvo" name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the "Volvo" Trademarks is subject to a service agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related Intellectual Property can only be used by Volvo Car Corporation and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.
- 5.4.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Volvo" brand name or "Volvo" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.
- 5.5 Polestar brand name.
- 5.5.1 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the Polestar brand name or Trademarks, or refer to Polestar in communications or official documents of whatever kind.
- 5.5.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the Polestar brand name or Polestar Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

6. SERVICE CHARGES

- 6.1 In consideration of Service Provider's performance of the Services under this Service Agreement, Purchaser agrees to pay to Service Provider the Service Charges as set forth or referenced to in the Main Document.

7. PAYMENT TERMS

- 7.1 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency set forth in the Main Document, in a timely manner and in accordance with the payment terms set forth in this Section 7.
- 7.2 Purchaser shall bear all taxes, including VAT, Withholding Tax and surtaxes, that are applicable in accordance with local legislation to amounts and payments under this Service Agreement.
- 7.3 Any amount of the Service Charges invoiced by Service Provider to Purchaser shall be paid by Purchaser within 30 days after the invoice date.
- 7.4 Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based on the one month applicable interbank rate, depending on invoice and currency, with an addition of two per cent (2.0%) per annum.
- 7.5 Any paid portion of the Service Charges is non-refundable, with the exception set forth in the Main Document.

8. AUDIT

- 8.1 During the term of the Service Agreement, Purchaser shall have the right to, upon reasonable notice in writing to Service Provider, inspect Service Provider's books and records related to the Services and the premises where the Services are performed, in order to conduct quality controls and otherwise verify the statements rendered under this Service Agreement.
- 8.2 Audits shall be made during regular business hours and be conducted by Purchaser or by an independent auditor appointed by Purchaser. Should Purchaser during any inspection find that Service Provider or the Services does/do not fulfil the requirements set forth herein, Purchaser is entitled to comment on the identified deviations. Service Provider shall, upon notice from Purchaser, take reasonable efforts to take the actions required in order to fulfil the requirements. In the event the Parties cannot agree upon measures to be taken in respect of the audit, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.

9. REPRESENTATIONS

- 9.1 Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:
- (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;
 - (b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Service Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;
 - (c) the execution, delivery and performance of this Service Agreement have been duly authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate any laws or regulations applicable to it or (II) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and

(d) this Service Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

10. SERVICE WARRANTY

- 10.1 When performing the Services, Service Provider shall provide professional and skilled personnel, reasonably experienced for the Services to be performed at the best of their knowledge.
- 10.2 Service Provider provides the Services "as is". Service Provider does neither warrant nor represent that any Services, provided or delivered to Purchaser hereunder are functional for the business needs of Purchaser or otherwise suitable for any specific purpose, nor that the Services, are not infringing any Intellectual Property of any third party. Service Provider does neither give any representations or warranties as regards the merchantability of the deliverables to be delivered hereunder nor any other representations or warranties of any kind whatsoever concerning the Services. Purchaser acknowledges that the price of the Services to be performed and other deliverables to be delivered by Service Provider are set in consideration of the foregoing.
- 10.3 Service Provider shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to Purchaser's use of the Services notify Purchaser of such claim in writing and Purchaser shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the third party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. Purchaser shall at all times keep Service Provider informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with Service Provider on appropriate actions to take. If Purchaser fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend Service Provider within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, Service Provider shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/ or over any settlement negotiation at Purchaser's cost. Any settlement proposed by Purchaser on its own account must take account of potential implications for Service Provider and shall therefore be agreed with Service Provider before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

11. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 11.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Service Agreement.
- 11.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement shall be limited to 30% of the total Service Charges payable by Purchaser to Service Provider hereunder.
- 11.3 The limitations of liability set forth in this Section 11 shall not apply in respect of:
- (a) claims related to death or bodily injury;
 - (b) damage caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence;
 - (c) damage caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 13 below; or
 - (d) damage arising out of an infringement, or alleged infringement, of the other Party's or any third party's Intellectual Property.

12. GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES

12.1 Governance.

- 12.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Service Agreement as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Service Agreement.
- 12.1.2 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Service Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event the Parties on an operational level cannot agree upon inter alia the prioritisation of development activities or other aspects relating to the co-operation between the Parties, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.
- 12.1.3 If the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution of the disagreement the relevant issue should be escalated to the Strategic Board for decision.

12.2 Changes.

- 12.3 During the term of this Service Agreement, Purchaser can request changes to the Service Specification, which shall be handled in accordance with the governance procedure set forth in Section 12.1 above. Both Parties agree to act in good faith to address and respond to any change request within a reasonable period of time.
- 12.4 The Parties acknowledge that Service Provider will not perform in accordance with such change request until agreed in writing between the Parties. For the avoidance of any doubt, until there is agreement about the requested change, all work shall continue in accordance with the existing Service Specification.

13. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 13.1 The Parties shall take any and all necessary measures to comply with the security and confidentiality procedures of the other Party.
- 13.2 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes comprised by the fulfilment of this Service Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Service Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 13.2 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or sub-contractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:
- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
 - (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
 - (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
 - (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;
 - (e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or

- (f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.
- 13.3 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 13.
- 13.4 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing Within 30 days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as "Confidential", "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 13.5 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 13, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section 17.2 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 13.6 For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 13 does not permit disclosure of source code to software, and/or any substantial parts of design documents to software, included in the Results, to any Third Party, notwithstanding what is set forth above in this Section 13. Any such disclosure to any Third Party is permitted only if approved in writing by Service Provider.
- 13.7 This confidentiality provision shall survive the expiration or termination of this Service Agreement without limitation in time.

14. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 14.1 This Service Agreement shall become effective when the Main Document is signed by duly authorised signatories of each Party and shall, unless terminated in accordance with this Section 14 below, remain in force until the Services are completed.
- 14.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in the event:
- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Service Agreement, which has not been remedied within 30 days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
 - (b) if the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.
- 14.3 For avoidance of doubt, Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, shall be considered in material breach for the purpose of this Service Agreement.

- 14.4 Furthermore, Purchaser is entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in case Service Provider acts in breach, which is not insignificant, of what is set forth in Section 4.3 and 4.4 provided that the issue first has been escalated in accordance with Section 17.1.
- 14.5 Purchaser shall in addition be entitled to cancel the Services performed by Service Provider for convenience upon 30 days written notice to Service Provider.
- 14.6 In the event Purchaser cancels the Services in accordance with Section 14.5 above, the Service Charges shall, in addition to what is set out in the Main Document, include any other reasonable proven costs Service Provider has incurred until the effective date of the cancellation.
- 14.7 Either Party shall in addition be entitled to terminate the Service Agreement for convenience upon 60 days written notice to the other Party.

15. MISCELLANEOUS

15.1 Force majeure.

15.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under the Service Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A “Force Majeure Event” means any event beyond a Party’s reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party’s), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors if such default or delay has been caused by a Force Majeure Event.

15.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under the Service Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its nonperformance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

15.2 Notices. All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Service Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:

- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
- (b) if sent by email transmission, at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
- (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
- (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods. All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be addressed to the address, and with the attention, as set forth in the Main Document, or to such other address, number or email address as a Party may designate.

15.3 Assignment.

15.3.1 Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Service Agreement without the other Party’s prior written consent.

- 15.3.2 Notwithstanding the above, each Party may assign this Service Agreement to an Affiliate without the prior written consent of the other Party.
- 15.4 Waiver. Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Service Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Service Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the Service Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.
- 15.5 Severability. In the event any provision of this Service Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Service Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Service Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Service Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.
- 15.6 Entire agreement. All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Service Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Service Agreement are superseded by this Service Agreement and its Appendices.
- 15.7 Amendments. Any amendment or addition to this Service Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.
- 15.8 Survival.
- 15.8.1 If this Service Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 5.3 (License grant), Section 13 (Confidentiality), Section 15 (Governing Law), Section 17 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 15.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.
- 15.8.2 Notwithstanding Section 15.8.1 above, if this Service Agreement is terminated due to Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 5.3 (License Grant) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination. For the avoidance of doubt, what is stated in this Section 15.8.2 shall only apply in relation to such licenses granted to Purchaser pursuant to Section 5.3 above and any licenses granted to Service Provider under Section 5.3 shall thus nevertheless remain in force after such termination.
16. GOVERNING LAW
- 16.1 This Service Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Service Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of:
- (a) the People's Republic of China, if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China; and
 - (b) Sweden, if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of Sweden, without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

17.1 Escalation principles.

- 17.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in, dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.
- 17.1.2 The members of the Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 17.1.3 If the Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the Strategic Board for decision, if no Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the Strategic Board. Should the matter not have been resolved by the Strategic Board within 30 days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 17.2 below.
- 17.1.4 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 13 above.
- 17.1.5 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 17.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the Strategic Board in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

17.2 Arbitration.

- 17.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall:
- (a) if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws Of the People's Republic of China, be submitted to China international Economic and Trade Arbitration Committee ("CIETAC") for arbitration, which shall be held in Shanghai and conducted in accordance with the CIETAC's arbitration rules in effect at the time of applying for arbitration, whereas the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English and Chinese; and
 - (b) if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of Sweden, be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, whereas the seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English, and the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.

- 17.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 17.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 17.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

Individual Terms—Service Agreement (ME)

Certain identified information marked with “[]” has been omitted from this document because it is both (i) not material and (ii) the type that the registrant treats as private or confidential.

INDIVIDUAL TERMS—SERVICE AGREEMENT

Short description of activities under this Service Agreement: The Service Provider shall provide certain manufacturing engineering services in relation to the production of Polestar branded vehicles.

This Service Agreement is entered into on 31 October 2018 and made between:

Volvo Car Corporation, Reg. No. 556074-3089, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden (“Service Provider”); and Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co. Ltd., Reg. No. 91510100MAGBX1H33P, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of People’s Republic of China (“Purchaser”).

Each of the Service Provider and the Purchaser is hereinafter referred to as a “Party” and jointly as the “Parties”.

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have determined that the Service Provider shall perform certain Services (as defined in the General Terms (as defined below)) to the Purchaser which are further described in Appendix 1, the Service Specification. The provision of the Services described in the Service Specification (as defined in the General Terms) shall be performed in accordance with the terms in this service agreement and its appendices (the “Service Agreement”).
- B. The Purchaser now wishes to enter into this Service Agreement for the purpose of receiving the Services and the Service Provider wishes to provide the Services in accordance with the terms set forth in this Service Agreement.
- C. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Service Agreement.

1. AGREEMENT1.1 General

This Service Agreement consists of this main document (the “Individual Terms”) and its appendices. These Individual Terms set out the specific terms in respect of the provision of the Services, whereas Appendix 2 sets out certain general terms and conditions applicable to the performance of the Parties’ activities hereunder (the “General Terms”).

1.2 Scope

The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification for the Services as specified in Appendix 1, the Service Specification, which shall be deemed an integrated part of these Individual Terms.

1.3 Affiliate

Affiliate shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the following meaning:

- (a) for Purchaser, any of the below legal entities (other than the Purchaser) and any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled (individually or jointly) by:
 - (i) Polestar Automotive (Shanghai) Co., Ltd;
 - (ii) Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co., Ltd.;
 - (iii) Polestar Holding AB; or
 - (iv) Polestar Performance AB; and
- (b) for Service Provider, Volvo Car AB and any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by Volvo Car AB; whereby “control” for this purpose meaning ownership or control of at least fifty per cent (50%) of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest of such legal entity. The Parties, however, agree to renegotiate this definition of “Affiliate” in good faith if it in the future does not reflect the Parties’ intention at the time of signing this Service Agreement due to a restructuring or reorganisation in relation to either of the Parties.

1.4 Service Charges

- 1.4.1 The Services Charges (as defined in the General Terms) for the Services and for the development of the Results will be based on the estimated hours for the Services to be performed by the Service Provider and the hourly rates, both as set forth in Appendix 3. The Parties acknowledge that the estimated Service Charges set forth in Appendix 3 are based on an estimation of the amount of hours required for the performance of the Services and for the development of the Results and that this estimation may differ from the final number of hours charged by the Service Provider.
- 1.4.2 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency: SEK
- 1.4.3 The hourly rates that are used to calculate the Service Charges shall be determined between the Parties on an annual basis, based on the Services performed by the Service Provider (including the related development of the Results), as set out in Appendix 1, the Service Specification. The Service Charges shall be calculated on a time and material basis applying arm’s length hourly rates using the cost plus method, i.e. full cost incurred plus an arm’s length mark-up. The hourly rates should be reviewed, updated and agreed between the Parties on an annual basis.

1.5 Payment

- 1.5.1 If the Service Provider, pursuant to the General Terms, appoints its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, the Service Provider shall include the costs relating to such work in the invoices to the Purchaser.

The Service Charges shall be invoiced semi-annually at the end of each six months, i.e. in July for the period January-June and in January for the period July-December, as agreed between the Parties, and paid in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms.

1.6 Governance Forum

- 1.6.1 The Parties agree that governance in respect of this Service Agreement shall be handled in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms. When reference is made to a relevant governance forum, it shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the meaning set out below in this Section 1.6.
- 1.6.2 The first level of governance forum for handling the cooperation between the Parties in various matters, handling management, prioritisation of development activities etc. under the Service Agreement shall be the “Steering Committee”, which regarding cooperation between the Parties shall be the first level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.
- 1.6.3 The higher level of governance forum, to which an issue shall be escalated if the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution shall be the “Strategic Board”, which regarding cooperation between the Parties shall be the highest level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

1.7 Territory

For the purposes of this Service Agreement, the “Territory” shall mean the world.

1.8 General Terms

- 1.8.1 The Parties agree that the Service Agreement, and each Party’s rights and obligations hereunder, shall be governed by the terms and conditions in the General Terms, which shall be deemed an integrated part of these Individual Terms.
- 1.8.2 For the purposes of this Service Agreement, Section 9.1.3 of the General Terms shall not apply.

1.9 Template Financial Reporting

The Parties agree that the basis for calculating the Service Charges shall be transparent and auditable to the Purchaser. Therefore, the relevant financial information relating to the Service Specification is attached as Appendix 4, which shall be deemed an integrated part of these Individual Terms.

1.10 Data Processing Agreement

- 1.10.1 If the Service Provider processes any personal data on the Purchaser’s behalf and in accordance with its instructions as part of or in connection with the performance of the Services, the Parties agree that the Data Processing Agreement set forth in Appendix 5 shall be finalized and apply between the Parties, and shall be deemed an integrated part of these Individual Terms.
- 1.10.2 The Parties shall at all times comply with applicable laws on data protection and privacy, in particular, but not limited to the EU Data Protection Laws (as defined in Appendix 2), and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that any Affiliates or subcontractors engaged by it also comply therewith.

1.11 Order of Priority

In the event there are any contradictions or inconsistencies between the terms of these Individual Terms and any of the Appendices hereto, the Parties agree that the following order of priority shall apply:

1. These Individual Terms
2. Appendix 2, General Terms—Service Agreement
3. Appendix 1, Service Specification
4. Appendix 3, Service Charges
5. Appendix 4, Template Financial Reporting
6. Appendix 5, Data Processing Agreement

APPENDIX 2, GENERAL TERMS—SERVICE AGREEMENT

BACKGROUND

This Appendix 2, General Terms—Service Agreement, (the “General Terms”) is an Appendix to the Individual Terms and is an integrated part of the Service Agreement entered into between the Parties.

1. DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of these General Terms, the following terms shall have the meanings assigned to them below. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa. Any capitalised terms used, but not specifically defined below in this Section 1, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Individual Terms.

“Appendix” means an appendix to the Individual Terms.

“Background IP” means the Intellectual Property Rights either;

- (a) owned by either of the Parties; or
- (b) created, developed or invented by directors, managers, employees or consultants of either of the Parties to which the Party has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sublicense

prior to the execution of this Service Agreement, and any Intellectual Property Rights developed independently of this Service Agreement.

“Confidential Information” means any and all information regarding the Parties and their respective businesses, whether commercial or technical, in whatever form or media, including but not limited to information relating to Intellectual Property Rights, concepts, technologies, processes, commercial figures, techniques, strategic plans and budgets, investments, customers and sales, designs, graphics, CAD models, CAE data, statement of works (including engineering statement of works and any high level specification), targets, test plans/reports, technical performance data and engineering sign-off documents and other information of a sensitive nature, that a Party learns from or about the other Party prior to or after the execution of this Service Agreement.

“Data Room” means (if applicable) the information sharing platform agreed to be used between the Parties for making available the information regarding the Results and Services to the Purchaser.

“EU Data Protection Laws” shall mean collectively, any applicable data protection, privacy or similar law generally applicable to the processing of personal data, including but not limited to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation) and any act or piece of national legislation implementing, supporting or otherwise incorporating said regulation, including any amendment made to any of the foregoing.

“Gates” means the deadlines set out in the Service Specification, such as time limits, milestones and gates, which shall be based on VPDS, and which shall, unless otherwise agreed, be Program Start (PS), Final Data Judgement (FDJ), Launch Readiness (LR), Launch Sign-off (LS) and Final Status Report (FSR), all described in the VDPS.

“Individual Terms” means the contract document (with the heading “Individual Terms—Service Agreement”), which is signed by Service Provider and the Purchaser, to which these General Terms are an Appendix.

“Industry Standard” means the exercise of such professionalism, skill, diligence, prudence and foresight which would normally be expected at any given time from a skilled and experienced actor engaged in a similar type of undertaking as under this Service Agreement.

“Intellectual Property Rights” or “IP” means Patents, Non-patented IP and rights in Confidential Information and Know-How to the extent protected under applicable laws anywhere in the world. For the avoidance of doubt, Trademarks are not comprised by this definition.

“Job1” means, in relation to each Polestar branded vehicle to which the Services relate, the date on which the production of such Polestar branded vehicle starts.

“Job1+90” means, in relation to each Polestar branded vehicle to which the Services relate, the date of Final Status Report (FSR), which follows from VPDS and which will take place 90 days after Job1.

“Know-How” means confidential and proprietary industrial, technical and commercial information and techniques in any form including (without limitation) drawings, formulae, test results, reports, project reports and testing procedures, instruction and training manuals, tables of operating conditions, specifications, component lists, market forecasts, lists and particulars of customers and suppliers.

“Patent” means any patent, patent application, or utility model, whether filed before, on or after execution of this Service Agreement, along with any continuation, continuation-in-part, divisional, re-examined or re-issued patent, foreign counterpart or renewal or extension of any of the foregoing.

“Results” shall mean

- (i) any outcome of the Services provided to the Purchaser under this Service Agreement (including but not limited to any IP, technology, software, methods, processes, deliverables, objects, products, documentation, materials, modifications, improvements, and/or amendments to be carried out by the Service Provider under the Service Specification),

- (ii) any other outcome or result of the Services to be performed by the Service Provider as described in the relevant Service Specification, irrespective of whether the performance of the Services has been completed or not, and
- (iii) any outcome similar to what is set out in (i) and (ii) above, but which was created from 2016 up until the effective date of this Service Agreement as a result of the Service Provider's own internal performance of manufacturing and engineering services similar to the Services prior to the effective date of this Service Agreement.

"Service Agreement" means the Individual Terms including all of its Appendices and their Schedules as amended from time to time.

"Service Charges" means the service charges as set forth or referenced to in the Individual Terms.

"Service Specification" means the specification of the Services to be provided by the Service Provider to the Purchaser hereunder including (if applicable) a time plan for the provision of the Services, which is included as Appendix 1 in this Service Agreement.

"Services" shall mean the services to be performed by the Service Provider to the Purchaser hereunder, including all services under the Appendices attached hereto.

"Territory" shall mean the territory defined in the Individual Terms.

"Third Party" means a party other than any of the Parties and/or an Affiliate of one of the Parties to this Service Agreement.

"Trademarks" means trademarks (including part numbers that are trademarks), service marks, logos, trade names, business names, assumed names, trade dress and get-up, and domain names, in each case whether registered or unregistered, including all applications, registrations, renewals and the like, in each case to the extent they constitute rights that are enforceable against Third Parties.

"Use" means to make, have made, use (including in a process, such as use in designing, engineering, testing or assembling products or in their research or development), keep, install, integrate, extract, assemble, reproduce, incorporate, create derivative works of, modify, adapt, improve, enhance, develop, service or repair, including in the case of installation, integration, assembly, service or repair, the right to have a subcontractor of any tier carry out any of these activities on behalf of the Parties in their capacity as a licensee hereunder.

The right to "have made" is the right of a Party in its capacity as a licensee hereunder, as applicable, to have another person (or their subcontractor of any tier) make for that Party and does not include the right to grant sub-licenses to another person to make for such person's own use or use other than for that Party.

2. PROVISION OF SERVICES2.1 Services

- 2.1.1 The Services to be performed under this Service Agreement are described in Appendix 1, the Service Specification, which shall be deemed an integrated part of this Service Agreement.
- 2.1.2 Subject to the terms and conditions herein, the Purchaser agrees to engage the Service Provider for the provision of, and Service Provider agrees to perform, the Services up until Job1+90.

2.2 Subcontractors

- 2.2.1 The Parties acknowledge that the Service Provider may use its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, provided that the Service Provider informs the Purchaser thereof.
- 2.2.2 The Service Provider shall however remain responsible for the performance, and any omission to perform or comply with the provisions of this Service Agreement, by any Affiliate to the Service Provider and/or any subcontractor to the same extent as if such performance or omission was made by the Service Provider itself. The Service Provider shall also remain the Purchaser's sole point of contact unless otherwise agreed.

2.3 Relationship between the Parties

The Parties are acting as independent contractors when performing each Party's respective obligations under the Service Agreement. Neither Party nor its Affiliates are agents for the other Party or its Affiliates and have no authority to represent them in relation to any matters. Nothing in these General Terms or the Service Agreement shall be construed as to constitute a partnership or joint venture between the Parties.

3. SERVICE REQUIREMENTS

- 3.1 All Services shall be performed in accordance with the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement, including the Service Specification, and otherwise in a professional manner.
- 3.2 When providing the Services, the Service Provider shall use professional, appropriate, qualified and skilled personnel, and shall ensure that its personnel have been properly educated and trained for the Services to be performed, including being fully acquainted with the Purchaser's specific requirements. The Service Provider shall avoid unnecessary changes in the personnel engaged in performing its undertakings under this Service Agreement. The Service Provider shall work according to the same standard of care and professionalism that is done in the Service Provider's internal business and development projects. Such standard of care and professionalism, as well as the Service Provider's performance of its undertakings under this Service Agreement, shall however at all times correspond to Industry Standard. For the avoidance of doubt, the Service Provider is responsible for all necessary recruiting and hiring costs associated with employing appropriate personnel as well as all necessary training costs. It is acknowledged that the Service Charges shall adhere to the principles set forth in this Section 3.2.
- 3.3 The Purchaser shall provide the Service Provider with instructions as reasonably required for the Service Provider to be able to carry out the Services. The Service Provider must continuously inform the Service Provider of any needs of additional instructions or specifications required to perform the Services.

- 3.4 The Service Provider shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its undertakings under this Service Agreement. Further, the Service Provider undertakes to ensure that the performance of the Services will not be given lower priority than other of the Service Provider's internal similar projects.
- 3.5 The Parties acknowledge and agree that the Services might not be described on a detailed basis in the Service Specification and that the details of such Services might not have been finalised at the time of entering into this Service Agreement, but that the Service Specification will be updated during the provision of the Services up until Job1+90 at the latest.

4. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

4.1 Ownership of existing Intellectual Property Rights

- 4.1.1 Each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of its Background IP.
- 4.1.2 Nothing in this Service Agreement shall be deemed to constitute an assignment of, or license to use, any Trademarks of the other Party.

4.2 Ownership of Results

- 4.2.1 In the event any Results are created as a result of the Services provided by the Service Provider (or if applicable, any of its appointed Affiliates or subcontractors) under this Service Agreement, the Parties agree that the Service Provider shall be the sole and exclusive owner of such Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof made by the Service Provider.

4.3 License grant

- 4.3.1 The Service Provider hereby grants to the Purchaser a non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any IP or Background IP included in the license described hereunder)) and non-assignable license to, within the Territory:
- (a) Use, in whole or in part, the Results;
 - (b) if applicable, Use any Background IP embedded in or otherwise used in the development of the Results to the extent such license is necessary or reasonably necessary to make Use of the license granted to the Results; and
 - (c) design, engineer, Use, make and have made, repair, service, market, sell and make available products and/or services based on, incorporating or using the Results and any Background IP referred to in (a) and (b) above, in whole or in part.
- 4.3.2 The license granted to the Purchaser in accordance with Section 4.3.1 shall be fully sublicensable to the Purchaser's Affiliates, but shall not be sub-licensable to any Third Party without prior written consent from the Service Provider, which shall not be unreasonably withheld (whereby a sublicense/license to a Third Party which is a competitor of the Service Provider is an example of what could be deemed unreasonable) or delayed. For the avoidance of doubt, the Service Provider shall be free to Use and to grant licenses to the Results and any Background IP to the Service Provider's Affiliates and any Third Parties without prior written consent from the Purchaser.
- 4.3.3 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Service Agreement, nothing in these General Terms or otherwise in the Service Agreement shall be construed as to give the Purchaser any rights, including but not limited to any license rights (express or implied), to any Intellectual Property Rights, except as expressly stated herein.

4.4 Polestar brand name

4.4.1 For sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the “Polestar” brand name or Trademarks, or refer to “Polestar” in communications or official documents of whatever kind.

4.4.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the “Polestar” brand name or “Polestar” Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence

4.5 Volvo brand name

4.5.1 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the “Volvo” brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to “Volvo” in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the “Volvo” Trademarks as well as the “Volvo” name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the “Volvo” Trademarks is subject to a service agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related Intellectual Property can only be used by Volvo Car Corporation and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.

4.5.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the “Volvo” brand name or “Volvo” Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

5. SERVICE CHARGES

In consideration of the Service Provider’s performance of the Services under this Service Agreement and the development of the Results, the Purchaser agrees to pay to the Service Provider the Service Charges as set forth or referenced to in the Individual Terms.

6. PAYMENT TERMS

6.1 All amounts and payments referred to in this Service Agreement shall be paid in the currency set forth in the Individual Terms, in a timely manner and in accordance with the payment terms set forth in this Section 6.

6.2 All amounts and payments referred to in this Service Agreement are exclusive of VAT, and any other taxes, including but not limited to withholding tax and surcharges.

6.3 Any amount of the invoiced by the Service Provider to the Purchaser shall be paid by the Purchaser within thirty (30) days after receipt.

6.4 Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based on the one (1) month applicable interbank rate, depending on invoice and currency, with an addition of two per cent (2%) per annum.

6.5 Any paid portion of the Service Charges is non-refundable, with the exception set forth in the Individual Terms, if any.

7. AUDIT

- 7.1 During the term of the Service Agreement, the Purchaser shall have the right to, upon reasonable notice in writing to the Service Provider, inspect Service Provider's books and records related to the Services and the premises where the Services are performed, in order to conduct quality controls and otherwise verify the statements rendered under this Service Agreement.
- 7.2 Audits shall be made during regular business hours and be conducted by the Purchaser or by an independent auditor appointed by the Purchaser. Should Purchaser during any inspection find that the Service Provider or the Services does/do not fulfil the requirements set forth herein, the Purchaser is entitled to comment on the identified deviations. The Service Provider shall, upon notice from the Purchaser, take reasonable efforts to take the actions required in order to fulfil the requirements. In the event the Parties cannot agree upon measures to be taken in respect of the audit, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.

8. DELIVERY AND ACCEPTANCE

- 8.1 The Service Provider shall provide any Results (or parts thereof) to the Purchaser at the Gates or otherwise promptly after any part of such Results has been finalised.
- 8.2 Such Results (or parts thereof) shall be provided by the Service Provider to the Purchaser by electronically loading files with the relevant information into a Data Room agreed upon (if applicable) and otherwise provided as agreed between the Parties e.g. through knowledge transfer meetings.
- 8.3 Delivery of the Services (or parts thereof) occurs when the delivery at the respective Gates meets the requirements for that Gate set out in the Service Specification, however subject to Section 9.2.1 and that the Purchaser has accepted such delivery in accordance with what is set out below in this Section 8.
- 8.4 The Purchaser shall accept the delivery of the Services, and parts thereof, at the respective Gates, unless the Services upon delivery at that Gate deviates from the requirements set forth in the Service Specification.
- 8.5 The Purchaser shall give its final acceptance of the delivered Services on Job1+90, at the latest.
- 8.6 If the Services have been delivered in accordance with this Section 8, but the Purchaser has not accepted the delivery in time (i.e. at the Gates or as separately agreed) nor objected to the delivery due to it deviating from what is set out in Section 9.2.1, the delivery shall be deemed accepted by the Purchaser.
- 8.7 After Job1+90, any changes to the Service Specification shall be subject to the Parties entering into a separate agreement governing such changes. Thus, this Service Agreement shall not apply in relation to any such changes. Further, the Service Provider shall have no responsibility for the Services and/or any such Results after Job1+90.

9. DELAYS, DEFECTS ETC.9.1 Delay

- 9.1.1 The Service Provider shall be deemed to be in delay where any of the Gates are met after the agreed delivery date for such Gate, unless the Parties have agreed for an extension of the time for meeting such Gate upon which the new agreed delivery date shall be relevant for determining whether the Service Provider is in delay.
- 9.1.2 If the Service Provider is in delay, or at any time believes that a Gate will not, or is unlikely to, be met in time, the Service Provider shall inform the Purchaser of the reasons for and consequences of not meeting the Gate at the agreed date and shall take all steps reasonably necessary, including providing additional resources, to ensure that the requirements for the relevant Gate is met as soon as possible. For avoidance of doubt, the Service Provider shall be entitled to compensation in accordance with this Service Agreement for work performed to meet a Gate in relation to a risk of, or an actual, delay unless otherwise stated in this Section 9.1 or Section 9.2.2.
- 9.1.3 If the Service Provider is in delay and such delay has a negative impact on the project relating to the Services, the Parties shall upon the Purchaser's request agree on a reduction of the Service Charges relating to the additional work that (i) has to be carried out in order to meet the requirements for the Gate in question and (ii) is performed after the agreed delivery date for such Gate.
- 9.1.4 Without prejudice to any other remedies available, the Parties acknowledge that the Service Provider's delay may be subject to Section 15.2(a).

9.2 Defects in delivery or the performance of the Services

- 9.2.1 In the event the Services and/or the Results, or any part thereof, after having met a Gate, deviate from the requirements set forth in the Service Specification, or if the Services otherwise does not meet or ceases to meet the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement, the Service Provider shall, if such fault or defect is discovered and/or notified to the Service Provider before Jobl+90, remedy such non-compliance, fault or defect as soon as reasonably possible at its own cost.
- 9.2.2 The Purchaser shall not be responsible for costs that relate to poorly executed Services or Services having been performed by personnel not qualified for such Services, in breach of Section 3.2, as long as such costs would not have occurred had the Services been properly executed or performed by qualified personnel.

9.3 Effects of the Purchaser's actions

- 9.3.1 Notwithstanding what is set out above in this Section 9, the Purchaser shall be responsible for costs relating to delays which are due to the Purchaser's non-fulfilment of any of its obligations under this Service Agreement or the Purchaser's requests for changes to the Service Specification. Further, any such delays which are due to the Purchaser shall give a corresponding extension of time to the Service Provider for meeting any affected Gate.

- 9.3.2 Notwithstanding what is set out above in this Section 9, the Purchaser shall be responsible for costs relating to faults and defects which are due to the Purchaser's non-fulfilment of any of its obligations under this Service Agreement.

10. WARRANTIES

Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:

- (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;
- (b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Service Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;
- (c) the execution, delivery and performance of this Service Agreement have been duly authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate any laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and
- (d) this Service Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

11. INDEMNIFICATION

11.1 General

- 11.1.1 The Parties acknowledge that the Services are provided, and that the Results are licensed, to the Purchaser on an "as is" basis, without any warranties or representations of any kind (except for the warranties in Section 10.1 above), whether implied or express, and in particular any warranties of suitability, merchantability, description, design and fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, completeness, systems integration and accuracy are expressly excluded to the maximum extent permissible by law.
- 11.1.2 In addition, the Service Provider does not make any warranties or representations as regards the functionality of any Services or Results. The Purchaser hereby releases the Service Provider from all liability (and accordingly, cannot claim damages, compensation, price reduction etc.) in respect of errors, defects and deficiencies in any Services or Results of whatever kind, whether visible or latent, including but not limited to errors of fact or law, errors regarding right of disposition, physical defects and deficiencies and damages arising due to product liability after the Services and/or Results have been delivered to the Purchaser, however excluding the Service Provider's limited undertakings in Section 9.2.1.
- 11.1.3 The principles set out in this Section 11 is reflected in the Service Charges and the fact that the Service Provider is not a provider or consultant of services such as the Services, but merely a car manufacturer which normally only performs Services for its own business purposes.
- 11.1.4 The principles set forth in this Section 11 are exclusive. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing in this Section 11, the Parties agree that no other remedy whatsoever under any statute, law or legal principle shall be available to the Purchaser in relation to the Services to be performed, and/or the licenses to be granted, by the Service Provider hereunder.

11.2 The Purchaser's indemnification

- 11.2.1 The Purchaser shall indemnify and hold the Service Provider harmless from and against any and all damages, costs, losses and expenses, direct or indirect, arising out of or in connection with the Purchaser's use of any Services or Results, including but not limited to any Third party claims on Intellectual Property Rights infringement.
- 11.2.2 The Service Provider shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to the Purchaser's use of any Services or Results from the Service Provider notify the Purchaser of such claim in writing and the Purchaser shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the Third party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. The Purchaser shall at all times keep the Service Provider informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with the Service Provider on appropriate actions to take. If the Purchaser fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend the Service Provider within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, the Service Provider shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/or over any settlement negotiation at the Purchaser's cost. Any settlement proposed by the Purchaser on its own account must take account of potential implications for the Service Provider and shall therefore be agreed in writing with the Service Provider before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

12. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 12.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Service Agreement.
- 12.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement shall be limited to ten per cent (10 %) of the Service Charges payable by Purchaser to the Service Provider hereunder.
- 12.3 The limitations of liability set forth in this Section 12 shall not apply in respect of damage;
- (a) caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence, or
 - (b) caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 14 below.

13. GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES13.1 Governance

- 13.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Service Agreement as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Service Agreement.
- 13.1.2 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Service Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event the Parties on an operational level cannot agree upon inter alia the prioritisation of Services or other aspects relating to the co-operation between the Parties, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.
- 13.1.3 If the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution of the disagreement the relevant issue should be escalated to the Strategic Board for decision.

13.2 Changes

- 13.2.1 Up until Job1+90, the Purchaser can request changes to the Service Specification, which shall be handled in accordance with the governance procedure set forth in Section 13.1 above. Both Parties agree to act in good faith to address and respond to any change request within a reasonable period of time.
- 13.2.2 The Parties acknowledge that the Service Provider will not perform in accordance with such change request until agreed in writing between the Parties. For the avoidance of any doubt, until there is agreement about the requested change, all work shall continue in accordance with the existing Service Specification.
- 13.2.3 The Parties further acknowledge that the Purchaser shall be responsible for all costs which relates to changes to the Work as well as other changes which are requested by the Purchaser.

14. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

14.1 The Parties shall take any and all necessary measures to comply with the security and confidentiality procedures of the other Party.

14.2 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes comprised by the fulfilment of this Service Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Service Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 14.2 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or subcontractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:

- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
- (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
- (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
- (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;
- (e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or
- (f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.

- 14.3 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 14.
- 14.4 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within thirty (30) days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 14.5 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 14, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section 18.2 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 14.6 This confidentiality provision shall survive the expiration or termination of this Service Agreement without limitation in time.
15. TERM AND TERMINATION
- 15.1 This Service Agreement shall become effective as set forth in the preamble in the Individual Terms and shall, unless terminated in accordance with Section 15.2 below, remain in force until Job1+90.
- 15.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in the event;
- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Service Agreement, which has not been remedied within fourteen (14) days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
 - (b) if the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.
- 15.3 The Purchaser shall in addition be entitled to cancel the Services performed by the Service Provider for convenience upon thirty (30) days written notice to the Service Provider.
- 15.4 In the event the Purchaser cancels the Services in accordance with Section 15.3 above, the Service Charges shall, in addition to what is set out in the Individual Terms, include any other reasonable proven costs Service Provider has incurred until the effective date of the cancellation.
- 15.5 Either Party shall in addition be entitled to terminate this Service Agreement for convenience upon sixty (60) days written notice to the other Party.

16. MISCELLANEOUS16.1 Force majeure

16.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under the Service Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A “Force Majeure Event” means any event beyond a Party’s reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party’s), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors.

16.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under the Service Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its nonperformance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

16.2 Notices

All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Service Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:

- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
- (b) if sent by email transmission, at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
- (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
- (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods. All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be addressed to the address, and with the attention, as set forth in the Individual Terms, or to such other address, number or email address as a Party may designate.

16.3 Assignment

16.3.1 Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Service Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.

16.3.2 Notwithstanding the above, each Party may assign this Service Agreement to an Affiliate without the prior written consent of the other Party.

16.4 Waiver

Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Service Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Service Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the Service Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.

16.5 Severability

In the event any provision of this Service Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Service Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Service Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Service Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.

16.6 Entire agreement

All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Service Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Service Agreement are superseded by this Service Agreement and its Appendices.

16.7 Amendments

Any amendment or addition to this Service Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.

16.8 Survival

16.8.1 If this Service Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 15 above, Section 4.3 (License Grant), Section 14 (Confidential Information), Section 17 (Governing Law), Section 18 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 16.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.

16.8.2 Notwithstanding Section 16.8.1 above, if this Service Agreement is terminated due to the Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, pursuant to Section 15 above, Section 4.3 (License Grant) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination.

17. GOVERNING LAW

This Service Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Service Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of Sweden without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

18. DISPUTE RESOLUTION18.1 Escalation principles

- 18.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten (10) days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.
- 18.1.2 The members of the Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 18.1.3 If the Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within thirty (30) days from the deadlock notice served pursuant to Section 18.1.1 above, such deadlock will be referred to the General Counsels of each Party, which shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve the situation in the same way as indicated above. If no Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the General Counsels of each Party immediately and Section 18.1.2 above shall not apply.
- 18.1.4 If the General Counsels cannot settle the deadlock within thirty (30) days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the Strategic Board for decision. Should the matter not have been resolved by the Strategic Board within thirty (30) days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 18.2 below.
- 18.1.5 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 14 above.
- 18.1.6 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 18.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the Strategic Board in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

18.2 Arbitration

- 18.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, whereas the seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English, and the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.
- 18.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Service Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 18.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Service Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 18.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

APPENDIX 3—SERVICE CHARGES1. ESTIMATED TOTAL COST FOR THE SERVICES

- 1.1 The following estimated Services Charges are based on an estimation of the amount of hours required for the performance of the Services and the Parties acknowledge that this estimation may differ from the final number of hours charged by the Service Provider.
- 1.2 The below is an estimate of the total cost for the Services for the years [] divided between the part of such cost that relates to the Polestar 1 and Polestar 2 vehicle, respectively. All figures in the table below are provided in []SEK.

2. HOURLY RATES

- 2.1 The hourly rates that are used to calculate the Service Charges shall be determined between the Parties on an annual basis. The Service Charges shall be calculated on a time and material basis applying arm's length hourly rates using the cost plus method, i.e. full cost incurred plus an arm's length mark-up. The hourly rates should be reviewed, updated and agreed between the Parties on an annual basis.
- 2.2 The hourly rates for the years [] are set out below. All figures in the table below are provided in SEK.

Data Processing Agreement

This Data Processing Agreement (the "Data Processing Agreement") is entered into between:

- (1) Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co. Ltd., reg. no. 91510100MA6BX1H33P, a company organized under the laws of People's Republic of China ("Purchaser"); and
- (2) Volvo Car Corporation, reg. no. 556074-3089, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden ("Service Provider").

Each of the Purchaser and the Service Provider are referred to as a "Party" and, jointly, as the "Parties".

1. BACKGROUND

The Parties have entered into an agreement regarding the provision of certain services (the "Agreement").

Capitalised terms used in this Data Processing Agreement shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Agreement, unless otherwise stated. Terms used but not defined in this Data Processing Agreement shall have the same meaning as set out in Article 4 in the Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, as may be amended, updated, replaced or superseded from time to time (the "GDPR") if not expressly stated otherwise.

Now, therefore, the Parties agree as follows.

2. PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA

2.1 The following shall apply in relation to data protection and take precedence in relation to any conflicts between the Agreement and this Data Processing Agreement.

2.2 The Service Provider shall to the extent any Personal Data (as defined in applicable laws, rules and regulations) is processed by the Service Provider on behalf of the Purchaser under the Agreement:

- (a) only process Personal Data in accordance with the Purchaser's documented instructions. The Service Provider shall immediately inform the Purchaser if instructions are lacking or if instructions are infringing applicable laws, rules and regulations;
- (b) ensure that the employees/agents/sub-contractors or other third parties that are authorized to process Personal Data are subject to an enforceable obligation of confidentiality with regards to the Personal Data;
- (c) implement appropriate technical and organizational measures required pursuant to Article 32 in the GDPR;
- (d) to the extent sub-contractors are engaged as sub-processors of Personal Data on behalf of the Purchaser (which mandate is hereby given by the Purchaser), respect the conditions referred to in Article 28, paragraphs 2 and 4, in the GDPR;
- (e) to the extent Personal Data will be transferred to a country that does not ensure an adequate level of data protection, the Service Provider shall inform the Purchaser and ensure that the Personal Data is safeguarded through e.g. Standard Contractual Clauses adopted by the European Commission prior to any transfer of Personal Data or any other allowed means of transfer under the GDPR;

- (f) assist the Purchaser to respond to requests from Data Subjects' (as defined in applicable laws, rules and regulations) pursuant to Chapter III in the GDPR by implementing appropriate technical and organizational measures;
 - (g) assist the Purchaser to fulfil its obligations pursuant to Articles 32 to 36 in the GDPR;
 - (h) on termination or expiration of the Agreement for any reason, return or delete, at the Purchaser's choice, all Personal Data processed under the Agreement, unless the Service Provider is required to retain the Personal Data by applicable laws, rules and regulations; and
 - (i) make available to Purchaser upon Purchaser's request (at no cost to the Purchaser) all information necessary to demonstrate Purchaser's and Service Provider' compliance with the obligations laid down in Article 28 in the GDPR and in this Data Processing Agreement and allow for and contribute to audits, including inspections, conducted by the Purchaser or another auditor mandated by the Purchaser.
- 2.3 The intended processing of Personal Data shall be specified according to applicable laws, rules and regulations, for each processing activity, in the relevant Service Specification.
- 2.4 In relation to the ongoing Services, the processing of Personal Data is specified in the attached Appendix 1 to this Data Processing Agreement.
- 2.5 Any limitation of liability set out in the Agreement shall apply also in respect of this Data Processing Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, the terms and conditions under the Agreement shall, unless otherwise set out herein, also apply in respect of this Data Processing Agreement, including but not limited as regards confidentiality, governing law and dispute resolution.

This Data Processing Agreement has been signed in two (2) originals, of which the Parties have received one (1) each.

Scope, type and purpose of the intended collection, processing or utilization of Personal Data, kind of Personal Data, categories of Data Subjects and roles of the parties:

[Please insert an explanation of the scope and type of processing activity as well as kind of Personal Data and categories of Data Subjects and the roles of the Parties. Example: The Service Provider will process Personal Data such as Basic Employment Data, Basic Personal Data and Competence Data (for explanation of data categories see BMS) that are necessary to perform the Services pursuant to the Agreement meaning that the Service Provider will not collect Personal Data on behalf of the Purchaser but instead store the Personal Data that the Purchaser feeds the system with and otherwise make available the Personal Data provided by the Purchaser within the system at hand. The categories of Data Subjects are employees and former employees. The Service Provider will process Personal Data as a processor and the Purchaser will be the controller for the processing activity.]

Duration of the processing of Personal Data:

[Please provide information on the expected duration of the processing activity. If the expected duration of the processing activity cannot be provided, please provide information on the criteria that will determine the duration of the processing. Example: The processing activity will continue for as long as the Agreement is valid and for a period of three months thereafter to allow the Service Provider to erase or retransfer the Personal Data.]

Additional Instructions:

[Please provide information on any eventual additional instructions on the processing activity that is not directly covered by the descriptions in the Agreement. This section is needed when the Service Provider will perform a number of different processing activities and for which all aspects are not covered by the Agreement.]

Place of processing:

[Please provide information on the data flow in relation to the processing activity. It is very important that we have detailed knowledge about where Personal Data is processed (stored, used, compiled, transferred etc.). If the Personal Data is first transferred to one country outside of EEA for compression and then retransferred to another country for storing etc. we need to know the details of the data flow]

Additional technical and organizational security measures:

[Please provide information on additional technical and organizational security measures for the particular processing activity that is not directly covered by the descriptions in the Agreement. This section is needed e.g. when we have identified a more sensitive processing activity and for which the Service Provider needs to adopt stricter security measures.]

Additional sub-processors:

[Please provide information on additional sub-processors. This section needs to be kept updated during the term of the Agreement when eventual additional sub-processors/sub-contractors are used.]

Commencement of the processing activity [Please provide information on the start date of the particular processing activity. Usually the processing activity starts in relation to the start date of the services covered by the Agreement but for further processing activities that can be added later on we need to state a start date (an exact date is not needed).]

Novation Agreement

This Novation Agreement (the “Agreement”) is entered into by and among the following parties on 8 December, 2020.

Individual Terms—Service Agreement (ME)

Certain identified information marked with “[]” has been omitted from this document because it is both (i) not material and (ii) the type that the registrant treats as private or confidential.

INDIVIDUAL TERMS—SERVICE AGREEMENT

Short description of activities under this Service Agreement: The Service Provider shall provide certain manufacturing engineering services in relation to the production of Polestar branded vehicles.

This Service Agreement is entered into on 21 Dec 2018 and made between:

Daqing Volvo Car Manufacturing Co. Ltd., Reg. No. 91230600717837780P, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of People’s Republic of China (“Service Provider”); and

Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co. Ltd., Reg. No. 91510100MA6BX1H33P, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of People’s Republic of China (“Purchaser”).

Each of the Service Provider and the Purchaser is hereinafter referred to as a “Party” and jointly as the “Parties”.

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have determined that the Service Provider shall perform certain Services (as defined in the General Terms (as defined below)) to the Purchaser which are further described in Appendix 1, the Service Specification. The provision of the Services described in the Service Specification (as defined in the General Terms) shall be performed in accordance with the terms in this service agreement and its appendices (the “Service Agreement”).
- B. The Purchaser now wishes to enter into this Service Agreement for the purpose of receiving the Services and the Service Provider wishes to provide the Services in accordance with the terms set forth in this Service Agreement.
- C. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Service Agreement.

1. AGREEMENT1.1 General

This Service Agreement consists of this main document (the “Individual Terms”) and its appendices. These Individual Terms set out the specific terms in respect of the provision of the Services, whereas Appendix 2 sets out certain general terms and conditions applicable to the performance of the Parties’ activities hereunder (the “General Terms”).

1.2 Scope

The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification for the Services as specified in Appendix 1, the Service Specification, which shall be deemed an integrated part of these Individual Terms.

1.3 Affiliate

Affiliate shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the following meaning:

(a) for Purchaser, any of the below legal entities (other than the Purchaser) and any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled (individually or jointly) by:

- (i) Polestar Automotive (Shanghai) Co., Ltd;
- (ii) Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co., Ltd.;
- (iii) Polestar Holding AB; or
- (iv) Polestar Performance AB; and

(b) for Service Provider, Volvo Car AB and any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by Volvo Car AB; whereby

“control” for this purpose meaning ownership or control of at least fifty per cent (50%) of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest of such legal entity. The Parties, however, agree to renegotiate this definition of “Affiliate” in good faith if it in the future does not reflect the Parties’ intention at the time of signing this Service Agreement due to a restructuring or reorganisation in relation to either of the Parties.

1.4 Service Charges

1.4.1 The Services Charges (as defined in the General Terms) for the Services and for the development of the Results will be based on the estimated hours for the Services to be performed by the Service Provider and the hourly rates, both as set forth in Appendix 3. The Parties acknowledge that the estimated Service Charges set forth in Appendix 3 are based on an estimation of the amount of hours required for the performance of the Services and for the development of the Results and that this estimation may differ from the final number of hours charged by the Service Provider.

1.4.2 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency: CNY

1.4.3 The hourly rates that are used to calculate the Service Charges shall be determined between the Parties on an annual basis, based on the Services performed by the Service Provider (including the related development of the Results), as set out in Appendix 1, the Service Specification. The Service Charges shall be calculated on a time and material basis applying arm’s length hourly rates using the cost plus method, i.e. full cost incurred plus an arm’s length mark-up. The hourly rates should be reviewed, updated and agreed between the Parties on an annual basis.

1.5 Payment

1.5.1 If the Service Provider, pursuant to the General Terms, appoints its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, the Service Provider shall include the costs relating to such work in the invoices to the Purchaser.

The Service Charges shall be invoiced semi-annually at the end of each six months, i.e. in July for the period January-June and in January for the period July-December, as agreed between the Parties, and paid in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms.

1.6 Governance Forum

- 1.6.1 The Parties agree that governance in respect of this Service Agreement shall be handled in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms. When reference is made to a relevant governance forum, it shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the meaning set out below in this Section 1.6.
- 1.6.2 The first level of governance forum for handling the cooperation between the Parties in various matters, handling management, prioritisation of development activities etc. under the Service Agreement shall be the “Steering Committee”, which regarding cooperation between the Parties shall be the first level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.
- 1.6.3 The higher level of governance forum, to which an issue shall be escalated if the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution shall be the “Strategic Board”, which regarding cooperation between the Parties shall be the highest level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

1.7 Territory

For the purposes of this Service Agreement, the “Territory” shall mean the world.

1.8 General Terms

- 1.8.1 The Parties agree that the Service Agreement, and each Party’s rights and obligations hereunder, shall be governed by the terms and conditions in the General Terms, which shall be deemed an integrated part of these Individual Terms.
- 1.8.2 For the purposes of this Service Agreement, Section 9.1.3 of the General Terms shall not apply.

1.9 Template Financial Reporting

The Parties agree that the basis for calculating the Service Charges shall be transparent and auditable to the Purchaser. Therefore, the relevant financial information relating to the Service Specification is attached as Appendix 4, which shall be deemed an integrated part of these Individual Terms.

1.10 Data Processing Agreement

- 1.10.1 If the Service Provider processes any personal data on the Purchaser’s behalf and in accordance with its instructions as part of or in connection with the performance of the Services, the Parties agree that the Data Processing Agreement set forth in Appendix 5 shall be finalized and apply between the Parties, and shall be deemed an integrated part of these Individual Terms.
- 1.10.2 The Parties shall at all times comply with applicable laws on data protection and privacy, in particular, but not limited to the EU Data Protection Laws (as defined in Appendix 2), and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that any Affiliates or subcontractors engaged by it also comply therewith.

1.11 Order of Priority

In the event there are any contradictions or inconsistencies between the terms of these Individual Terms and any of the Appendices hereto, the Parties agree that the following order of priority shall apply:

1. These Individual Terms
2. Appendix 2, General Terms—Service Agreement

3. Appendix 1, Service Specification
4. Appendix 3, Service Charges
5. Appendix 4, Template Financial Reporting
6. Appendix 5, Data Processing Agreement

APPENDIX 2, GENERAL TERMS—SERVICE AGREEMENTBACKGROUND

This Appendix 2, General Terms—Service Agreement, (the “General Terms”) is an Appendix to the Individual Terms and is an integrated part of the Service Agreement entered into between the Parties.

1. DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of these General Terms, the following terms shall have the meanings assigned to them below. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa. Any capitalised terms used, but not specifically defined below in this Section 1, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Individual Terms.

“Appendix” means an appendix to the Individual Terms.

“Background IP” means the Intellectual Property Rights either;

- (a) owned by either of the Parties; or
- (b) created, developed or invented by directors, managers, employees or consultants of either of the Parties to which the Party has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sublicense

prior to the execution of this Service Agreement, and any Intellectual Property Rights developed independently of this Service Agreement.

“Confidential Information” means any and all information regarding the Parties and then- respective businesses, whether commercial or technical, in whatever form or media, including but not limited to information relating to Intellectual Property Rights, concepts, technologies, processes, commercial figures, techniques, strategic plans and budgets, investments, customers and sales, designs, graphics, CAD models, CAE data, statement of works (including engineering statement of works and any high level specification), targets, test plans/reports, technical performance data and engineering sign-off documents and other information of a sensitive nature, that a Party learns from or about the other Party prior to or after the execution of this Service Agreement.

“Data Room” means (if applicable) the information sharing platform agreed to be used between the Parties for making available the information regarding the Results and Services to the Purchaser.

“EU Data Protection Laws” shall mean collectively, any applicable data protection, privacy or similar law generally applicable to the processing of personal data, including but not limited to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation) and any act or piece of national legislation implementing, supporting or otherwise incorporating said regulation, including any amendment made to any of the foregoing.

“Gates” means the deadlines set out in the Service Specification, such as time limits, milestones and gates, which shall be based on VPDS, and which shall, unless otherwise agreed, be Program Start (PS), Final Data Judgement (FDJ), Launch Readiness (LR), Launch Sign-off (LS) and Final Status Report (FSR), all described in the VDPS.

“Individual Terms” means the contract document (with the heading “Individual Terms—Service Agreement”), which is signed by Service Provider and the Purchaser, to which these General Terms are an Appendix.

“Industry Standard” means the exercise of such professionalism, skill, diligence, prudence and foresight which would normally be expected at any given time from a skilled and experienced actor engaged in a similar type of undertaking as under this Service Agreement.

“Intellectual Property Rights” or “IP” means Patents, Non-patented IP and rights in Confidential Information and Know-How to the extent protected under applicable laws anywhere in the world. For the avoidance of doubt, Trademarks are not comprised by this definition.

“Job1” means, in relation to each Polestar branded vehicle to which the Services relate, the date on which the production of such Polestar branded vehicle starts,

“Job1+90” means, in relation to each Polestar branded vehicle to which the Services relate, the date of Final Status Report (FSR), which follows from VPDS and which will take place 90 days after Job1.

“Know-How” means confidential and proprietary industrial, technical and commercial information and techniques in any form including (without limitation) drawings, formulae, test results, reports, project reports and testing procedures, instruction and training manuals, tables of operating conditions, specifications, component lists, market forecasts, lists and particulars of customers and suppliers.

“Patent” means any patent, patent application, or utility model, whether filed before, on or after execution of this Service Agreement, along with any continuation, continuation-in-part, divisional, re-examined or re-issued patent, foreign counterpart or renewal or extension of any of the foregoing.

“Results” shall mean

- (i) any outcome of the Services provided to the Purchaser under this Service Agreement (including but not limited to any IP, technology, software, methods, processes, deliverables, objects, products, documentation, materials, modifications, improvements, and/or amendments to be carried out by the Service Provider under the Service Specification),
- (ii) any other outcome or result of the Services to be performed by the Service Provider as described in the relevant Service Specification, irrespective of whether the performance of the Services has been completed or not, and
- (iii) any outcome similar to what is set out in (i) and (ii) above, but which was created from 2016 up until the effective date of this Service Agreement as a result of the Service Provider’s own internal performance of manufacturing and engineering services similar to the Services prior to the effective date of this Service Agreement.

“Service Agreement” means the Individual Terms including all of its Appendices and their Schedules as amended from time to time.

“Service Charges” means tire service charges as set forth or referenced to in the Individual Terms.

“Service Specification” means the specification of the Services to be provided by the Service Provider to the Purchaser hereunder including (if applicable) a time plan for the provision of the Services, which is included as Appendix 1 in this Service Agreement.

“Services” shall mean the services to be performed by the Service Provider to the Purchaser hereunder, including all services under the Appendices attached hereto.

“Territory” shall mean the territory defined in the Individual Terms.

“Third Party” means a party other than any of the Parties and/or an Affiliate of one of the Parties to this Service Agreement.

“Trademarks” means trademarks (including part numbers that are trademarks), service marks, logos, trade names, business names, assumed names, trade dress and get-up, and domain names, in each case whether registered or unregistered, including all applications, registrations, renewals and the like, in each case to the extent they constitute rights that are enforceable against Third Parties.

“Use” means to make, have made, use (including in a process, such as use in designing, engineering, testing or assembling products or in their research or development), keep, install, integrate, extract, assemble, reproduce, incorporate, create derivative works of, modify, adapt, improve, enhance, develop, service or repair, including in the case of installation, integration, assembly, service or repair, the right to have a subcontractor of any tier carry out any of these activities on behalf of the Parties in their capacity as a licensee hereunder.

The right to “have made” is the right of a Party in its capacity as a licensee hereunder, as applicable, to have another person (or their subcontractor of any tier) make for that Party and does not include the right to grant sub-licenses to another person to make for such person’s own use or use other than for that Party.

2. PROVISION OF SERVICES2.1 Services

- 2.1.1 The Services to be performed under this Service Agreement are described in Appendix 1, the Service Specification, which shall be deemed an integrated part of this Service Agreement.
- 2.1.2 Subject to the terms and conditions herein, the Purchaser agrees to engage the Service Provider for the provision of, and Service Provider agrees to perform, the Services up until Job1+90.

2.2 Subcontractors

- 2.2.1 The Parties acknowledge that the Service Provider may use its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, provided that the Service Provider informs the Purchaser thereof.
- 2.2.2 The Service Provider shall however remain responsible for the performance, and any omission to perform or comply with the provisions of this Service Agreement, by any Affiliate to the Service Provider and/or any subcontractor to the same extent as if such performance or omission was made by the Service Provider itself. The Service Provider shall also remain the Purchaser's sole point of contact unless otherwise agreed.

2.3 Relationship between the Parties

The Parties are acting as independent contractors when performing each Party's respective obligations under the Service Agreement. Neither Party nor its Affiliates are agents for the other Party or its Affiliates and have no authority to represent them in relation to any matters. Nothing in these General Terms or the Service Agreement shall be construed as to constitute a partnership or joint venture between the Parties.

3. SERVICE REQUIREMENTS

- 3.1 All Services shall be performed in accordance with the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement, including the Service Specification, and otherwise in a professional manner.
- 3.2 When providing the Services, the Service Provider shall use professional, appropriate, qualified and skilled personnel, and shall ensure that its personnel have been properly educated and trained for the Services to be performed, including being fully acquainted with the Purchaser's specific requirements. The Service Provider shall avoid unnecessary changes in the personnel engaged in performing its undertakings under this Service Agreement. The Service Provider shall work according to the same standard of care and professionalism that is done in the Service Provider's internal business and development projects. Such standard of care and professionalism, as well as the Service Provider's performance of its undertakings under this Service Agreement, shall however at all times correspond to Industry Standard. For the avoidance of doubt, the Service Provider is responsible for all necessary recruiting and hiring costs associated with employing appropriate personnel as well as all necessary training costs. It is acknowledged that the Service Charges shall adhere to the principles set forth in this Section 3.2.
- 3.3 The Purchaser shall provide the Service Provider with instructions as reasonably required for the Service Provider to be able to carry out the Services. The Service Provider must continuously inform the Service Provider of any needs of additional instructions or specifications required to perform the Services.
- 3.4 The Service Provider shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its undertakings under this Service Agreement. Further, the Service Provider undertakes to ensure that the performance of the Services will not be given lower priority than other of the Service Provider's internal similar projects.
- 3.5 The Parties acknowledge and agree that the Services might not be described on a detailed basis in the Service Specification and that the details of such Services might not have been finalised at the time of entering into this Service Agreement, but that the Service Specification will be updated during the provision of the Services up until Job1+90 at the latest.

4. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS4.1 Ownership of existing Intellectual Property Rights

- 4.1.1 Each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of its Background IP.
- 4.1.2 Nothing in this Service Agreement shall be deemed to constitute an assignment of, or license to use, any Trademarks of the other Party.

4.2 Ownership of Results

- 4.2.1 In the event any Results are created as a result of the Services provided by the Service Provider (or if applicable, any of its appointed Affiliates or subcontractors) under this Service Agreement, the Parties agree that the Service Provider shall be the sole and exclusive owner of such Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof made by the Service Provider.

4.3 License grant

- 4.3.1 The Service Provider hereby grants to the Purchaser a non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any IP or Background IP included in the license described hereunder)) and non-assignable license to, within the Territory:
- (a) Use, in whole or in part, the Results;
 - (b) if applicable, Use any Background IP embedded in or otherwise used in the development of the Results to the extent such license is necessary or reasonably necessary to make Use of the license granted to the Results; and
 - (c) design, engineer, Use, make and have made, repair, service, market, sell and make available products and/or services based on, incorporating or using the Results and any Background IP referred to in (a) and (b) above, in whole or in part.

- 4.3.2 The license granted to the Purchaser in accordance with Section 4.3.1 shall be fully sublicensable to the Purchaser's Affiliates, but shall not be sub-licensable to any Third Party without prior written consent from the Service Provider, which shall not be unreasonably withheld (whereby a sublicense/license to a Third Party which is a competitor of the Service Provider is an example of what could be deemed unreasonable) or delayed. For the avoidance of doubt, the Service Provider shall be free to Use and to grant licenses to the Results and any Background IP to the Service Provider's Affiliates and any Third Parties without prior written consent from the Purchaser.
- 4.3.3 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Service Agreement, nothing in these General Terms or otherwise in the Service Agreement shall be construed as to give the Purchaser any rights, including but not limited to any license rights (express or implied), to any Intellectual Property Rights, except as expressly stated herein.

4.4 Polestar brand name

- 4.1.1 For sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the "Polestar" brand name or Trademarks, or refer to "Polestar" in communications or official documents of whatever kind.
- 4.4.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Polestar" brand name or "Polestar" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence

4.5 Volvo brand name

- 4.5.1 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the "Volvo" brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to "Volvo" in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the "Volvo" Trademarks as well as the "Volvo" name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the "Volvo" Trademarks is subject to a service agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related Intellectual Property can only be used by Volvo Car Corporation and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.

This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Volvo" brand name or "Volvo" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

5. SERVICE CHARGES

In consideration of the Service Provider's performance of the Services under this Service Agreement and the development of the Results, the Purchaser agrees to pay to the Service Provider the Service Charges as set forth or referenced to in the Individual Terms.

6. PAYMENT TERMS

- 6.1 All amounts and payments referred to in this Service Agreement shall be paid in the currency set forth in the Individual Terms, in a timely manner and in accordance with the payment terms set forth in this Section 6.

All amounts and payments referred to in this Service Agreement are exclusive of VAT, and any Other taxes, including but not limited to withholding tax and surcharges.

6.3 Any amount of the invoiced by the Service Provider to the Purchaser shall be paid by the Purchaser within thirty (30) days after receipt.

6.4 Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based on the one (1) month applicable interbank rate, depending on invoice and currency, with an addition of two per cent (2%) per annum.

6.5 Any paid portion of the Service Charges is non-refundable, with the exception set forth in the Individual Terms, if any.

7. AUDIT

- 7.1 During the term of the Service Agreement, the Purchaser shall have the right to, upon reasonable notice in writing to the Service Provider, inspect Service Provider's books and records related to the Services and the premises where the Services are performed, in order to conduct quality controls and otherwise verify the statements rendered under this Service Agreement.
- 7.2 Audits shall be made during regular business hours and be conducted by the Purchaser or by an independent auditor appointed by the Purchaser. Should Purchaser during any inspection find that the Service Provider or the Services does/do not fulfil the requirements set forth herein, the Purchaser is entitled to comment on the identified deviations. The Service Provider shall, upon notice from the Purchaser, take reasonable efforts to take the actions required in order to fulfil the requirements. In the event the Parties cannot agree upon measures to be taken in respect of the audit, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.

8. DELIVERY AND ACCEPTANCE

- 8.1 The Service Provider shall provide any Results (or parts thereof) to the Purchaser at the Gates or otherwise promptly after any part of such Results has been finalised.
- 8.2 Such Results (or parts thereof) shall be provided by the Service Provider to the Purchaser by electronically loading files with the relevant information into a Data Room agreed upon (if applicable) and otherwise provided as agreed between the Parties e.g. through knowledge transfer meetings.
- 8.3 Delivery of the Services (or parts thereof) occurs when the delivery at the respective Gates meets the requirements for that Gate set out in the Service Specification, however subject to Section 9.2.1 and that the Purchaser has accepted such delivery in accordance with what is set out below in this Section 8.
- 8.4 The Purchaser shall accept the delivery of the Services, and parts thereof, at the respective Gates, unless the Services upon delivery at that Gate deviates from the requirements set forth in the Service Specification.
- 8.5 The Purchaser shall give its final acceptance of the delivered Services on Job1+90, at the latest.
- 8.6 If the Services have been delivered in accordance with this Section 8, but the Purchaser has not accepted the delivery intime (i.e. at the Gates or as separately agreed) nor objected to the delivery due to it deviating from what is set out in Section 9.2.1, the delivery shall be deemed accepted by the Purchaser.

- 8.7 After Jobl+90, any changes to the Service Specification shall be subject to the Parties entering into a separate agreement governing such changes. Thus, this Service Agreement shall not apply in relation to any such changes. Further, the Service Provider shall have no responsibility for the Services and/or any such Results after Jobl+90.

9. DELAYS, DEFECTS ETC.

9.1 Delay

- 9.1.1 The Service Provider shall be deemed to be in delay where any of the Gates are met after the agreed delivery date for such Gate, unless the Parties have agreed for an extension of the time for meeting such Gate upon which the new agreed delivery date shall be relevant for determining whether the Service Provider is in delay.
- 9.1.2 If the Service Provider is in delay, or at any time believes that a Gate will not, or is unlikely to, be met in time, the Service Provider shall inform the Purchaser of the reasons for and consequences of not meeting the Gate at the agreed date and shall take all steps reasonably necessary, including providing additional resources, to ensure that the requirements for the relevant Gate is met as soon as possible. For avoidance of doubt, the Service Provider shall be entitled to compensation in accordance with this Service Agreement for work performed to meet a Gate in relation to a risk of, or an actual, delay unless otherwise stated in this Section 9.1 or Section 9.2.2.
- 9.1.3 If the Service Provider is in delay and such delay has a negative impact on the project relating to the Services, the Parties shall upon the Purchaser's request agree on a reduction of the Service Charges relating to the additional work that (i) has to be carried out in order to meet the requirements for the Gate in question and (ii) is performed after the agreed delivery date for such Gate.
- 9.1.4 Without prejudice to any other remedies available, the Parties acknowledge that the Service Provider's delay maybe subject to Section 15.2(a).

9.2 Defects in delivery or the performance of the Services

- 9.2.1 In the event the Services and/or the Results, or any part thereof, after having met a Gate, deviate from the requirements set forth in the Service Specification, or if the Services otherwise does not meet or ceases to meet the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement, the Service Provider shall, if such fault or defect is discovered and/or notified to the Service Provider before Jobl+90, remedy such noncompliance, fault or defect as soon as reasonably possible at its own cost.
- 9.2.2 The Purchaser shall not be responsible for costs that relate to poorly executed Services or Services having been performed by personnel not qualified for such Services, in breach of Section 3.2, as long as such costs would not have occurred had the Services been properly executed or performed by qualified personnel.

9.3 Effects of the Purchaser's actions

- 9.3.1 Notwithstanding what is set out above in this Section 9, the Purchaser shall be responsible for costs relating to delays which are due to the Purchaser's non-fulfilment of any of its obligations under this Service Agreement or the Purchaser's requests for changes to the Service Specification. Further, any such delays which are due to the Purchaser shall give a corresponding extension of time to the Service Provider for meeting any affected Gate.
- 9.3.2 Notwithstanding what is set out above in this Section 9, the Purchaser shall be responsible for costs relating to faults and defects which are due to the Purchaser's non-fulfilment of any of its obligations under this Service Agreement.

10. WARRANTIES

- 10.1 Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:
- (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;
 - (b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Service Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;
 - (c) the execution, delivery and performance of this Service Agreement have been duly authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate, any laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and
 - (d) this Service Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

11. INDEMNIFICATION11.1 General

- 11.1.1 The Parties acknowledge that the Services are provided, and that the Results are licensed, to the Purchaser on an "as is" basis, without any warranties or representations of any kind (except for the warranties in Section 10.1 above), whether implied or express, and in particular any warranties of suitability, merchantability, description, design and fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, completeness, systems integration and accuracy are expressly excluded to the maximum extent permissible by law.
- 11.1.2 In addition, the Service Provider does not make any warranties or representations as regards the functionality of any Services or Results. The Purchaser hereby releases the Service Provider from all liability (and accordingly, cannot claim damages, compensation, price reduction etc.) in respect of errors, defects and deficiencies in any Services or Results of whatever kind, whether visible or latent, including but not limited to errors of fact or law, errors regarding right of disposition, physical defects and deficiencies and damages arising due to product liability after the Services and/or Results have been delivered to the Purchaser, however excluding the Service Provider's limited undertakings in Section 9.2.1.
- 11.1.3 The principles set out in this Section 11 is reflected in the Service Charges and the fact that the Service Provider is not a provider or consultant of services such as the Services, but merely a car manufacturer which normally only performs Services for its own business purposes.
- 11.1.4 The principles set forth in this Section 11 are exclusive. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing in this Section 11, the Parties agree that no other remedy whatsoever under any statute, law or legal principle shall be available to the Purchaser in relation to the Services to be performed, and/or the licenses to be granted, by the Service Provider hereunder.

11.2 The Purchaser's indemnification

- 11.2.1 The Purchaser shall indemnify and hold the Service Provider harmless from and against any and all damages, costs, losses and expenses, direct or indirect, arising out of or in connection with the Purchaser's use of any Services or Results, including but not limited to any Third Party claims on Intellectual Property Rights infringement .

- 11.2.2 The Service Provider shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to the Purchaser's use of any Services or Results from the Service Provider notify the Purchaser of such claim in writing and the Purchaser shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the Third Party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. The Purchaser shall at all times keep the Service Provider informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with the Service Provider on appropriate actions to take. If the Purchaser fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend the Service Provider within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, the Service Provider shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/or over any settlement negotiation at the Purchaser's cost. Any settlement proposed by the Purchaser on its own account must take account of potential implications for the Service Provider and shall therefore be agreed in writing with the Service Provider before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

12. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 12.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Service Agreement.
- 12.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement shall be limited to ten per cent (10 %) of the Service Charges payable by Purchaser to the Service Provider hereunder.
- 12.3 The limitations of liability set forth in this Section 12 shall not apply in respect of damage;
- (a) caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence, or
 - (b) caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 14 below.

13. GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES

13.1 Governance

- 13.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Service Agreement as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Service Agreement.
- 13.1.2 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Service Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event the Parties on an operational level cannot agree upon inter alia the prioritisation of Services or other aspects relating to the co-operation between the Parties, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.
- 13.1.3 If the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution of the disagreement the relevant issue should be escalated to the Strategic Board for decision.

13.2 Changes

- 13.2.1 Up until Job1+90, the Purchaser can request changes to the Service Specification, which shall be handled in accordance with the governance procedure set forth in Section 13.1 above. Both Parties agree to act in good faith to address and respond to any change request within a reasonable period of time.
- 13.2.2 The Parties acknowledge that the Service Provider will not perform in accordance with such change request until agreed in writing between the Parties. For the avoidance of any doubt, until there is agreement about the requested change, all work shall continue in accordance with the existing Service Specification.
- 13.2.3 The Parties further acknowledge that the Purchaser shall be responsible for all costs which relates to changes to the Work as well as other changes which are requested by the Purchaser.

14. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 14.1 The Parties shall take any and all necessary measures to comply with the security and confidentiality procedures of the other Party.
- 14.2 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes comprised by the fulfillment of this Service Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Service Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 14.2 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or subcontractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:
- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
 - (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
 - (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
 - (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court Order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;
 - (e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or
 - (f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.
- 14.3 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfillment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 14.
- 14.4 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within thirty (30) days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as "Confidential", "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 14.5 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 14, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section 18.2 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 14.6 This confidentiality provision shall survive the expiration or termination of this Service Agreement without limitation in time.

15. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 15.1 This Service Agreement shall become effective as set forth in the preamble in the Individual Terms and shall, unless terminated in accordance with Section 15.2 below, remain in force until Job1+90.
- 15.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in the event;

- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Service Agreement, which has not been remedied within fourteen (14) days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
 - (b) if the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.
- 15.3 The Purchaser shall in addition be entitled to cancel the Services performed by the Service Provider for convenience upon thirty (30) days written notice to the Service Provider.

- 15.4 In the event the Purchaser cancels the Services in accordance with Section 15.3 above, the Service Charges shall, in addition to what is set out in the Individual Terms, include any other reasonable proven costs Service Provider has incurred until the effective date of the cancellation.
- 15.5 Either Party shall in addition be entitled to terminate this Service Agreement for convenience upon sixty (60) days written notice to the other Party.

16. MISCELLANEOUS

16.1 Force majeure

- 16.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under the Service Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A “Force Majeure Event” means any event beyond a Party’s reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party’s), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors.
- 16.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under the Service Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its nonperformance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

16.2 Notices

All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Service Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:

- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
- (b) if sent by email transmission, at the time and on the date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
- (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
- (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods. All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be addressed to the address, and with the attention, as set forth in the Individual Terms, or to such other address, number or email address as a Party may designate.

16.3 Assignment

16.3.1 Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Service Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.

16.3.2 Notwithstanding the above, each Party may assign this Service Agreement to an Affiliate without the prior written consent of the other Party.

16.4 Waiver

Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Service Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Service Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the Service Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.

16.5 Severability

In the event any provision of this Service Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Service Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Service Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Service Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.

16.6 Entire agreement

All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Service Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Service Agreement are superseded by this Service Agreement and its Appendices.

16.7 Amendments

Any amendment or addition to this Service Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.

16.8 Survival

16.8.1 If this Service Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 15 above, Section 4.3 (License Grant), Section 14 (Confidential Information), Section 17 (Governing Law), Section 18 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 16.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.

16.8.2 Notwithstanding Section 16.8.1 above, if this Service Agreement is terminated due to the Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, pursuant to Section 15 above, Section 4.3 (License Grant) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination.

17. GOVERNING LAW

This Service Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Service Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of:

- (a) the People's Republic of China, if all Parties are entities incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China; and
 - (b) Sweden, if any Party is not an entity incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China,
- without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

18. DISPUTE RESOLUTION18.1 Escalation principles

- 18.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten (10) days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.
- 18.1.2 The members of the Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 18.1.3 If the Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within thirty (30) days from the deadlock notice served pursuant to Section 18.1.1 above, such deadlock will be referred to the General Counsels of each Party, which shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve the situation in the same way as indicated above. If no Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the General Counsels of each Party immediately and Section 18.1.2 above shall not apply.
- 18.1.4 If the General Counsels cannot settle the deadlock within thirty (30) days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the Strategic Board for decision. Should the matter not have been resolved by the Strategic Board within thirty (30) days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 18.2 below.

- 18.1.5 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 14 above.
- 18.1.6 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 18.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the Strategic Board in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

18.2 Arbitration

- 18.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall:
- (a) if all Parties are entities incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China, be submitted to China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Committee ("CIETAC") for arbitration, which shall be held in Shanghai and conducted in accordance with the CIETAC's arbitration rules in effect at the time of applying for arbitration, whereas the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English and Chinese; and
 - (b) if any Party is not an entity incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China, be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, whereas the seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English, and the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.
- 18.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Service Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 18.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Service Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 18.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential

APPENDIX 3 - SERVICE CHARGES

Appendix 5
Data Processing Agreement

This Data Processing Agreement (the “Data Processing Agreement”) is entered into between:

- (1) Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co. Ltd., reg. no. 91510100MA6BX1H33P, a company organized under the laws of People’s Republic of China (“Purchaser”); and
- (2) Daqing Volvo Car Manufacturing Co. Ltd., reg. no. 91230600717837780P, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of People’s Republic of China (“Service Provider”).

Each of the Purchaser and the Service Provider are referred to as a “Party” and, jointly, as the “Parties”.

1. BACKGROUND

The Parties have entered into an agreement regarding the provision of certain services (the “Agreement”).

Capitalised terms used in this Data Processing Agreement shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Agreement, unless otherwise stated. Terms used but not defined in this Data Processing Agreement shall have the same meaning as set out in Article 4 in the Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, as may be amended, updated, replaced or superseded from time to time (the “GDPR”) if not expressly stated otherwise.

Now, therefore, the Parties agree as follows.

2. PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA

- 2.1 The following shall apply in relation to data protection and take precedence in relation to any conflicts between the Agreement and this Data Processing Agreement.
- 2.2 The Service Provider shall to the extent any Personal Data (as defined in applicable laws, rules and regulations) is processed by the Service Provider on behalf of the Purchaser under the Agreement:
 - (a) only process Personal Data in accordance with the Purchaser’s documented instructions. The Service Provider shall immediately inform the Purchaser if instructions are lacking or if instructions are infringing applicable laws, rules and regulations;
 - (b) ensure that the employees/agents/sub-contractors or other third parties that are authorized to process Personal Data are subject to an enforceable obligation of confidentiality with regards to the Personal Data;
 - (c) implement appropriate technical and organizational measures required pursuant to Article 32 in the GDPR;
 - (d) to the extent sub-contractors are engaged as sub-processors of Personal Data on behalf of the Purchaser (which mandate is hereby given by the Purchaser), respect the conditions referred to in Article 28, paragraphs 1 and 4, in the GDPR;
 - (e) to the extent Personal Data will be transferred to a country that does not ensure an adequate level of data protection, the Service Provider shall inform the Purchaser and ensure that the Personal Data is safeguarded through e.g. Standard Contractual Clauses adopted by the European Commission prior to any transfer of Personal Data or any other allowed means of transfer under the GDPR;
 - (f) assist the Purchaser to respond to requests from Data Subjects’ (as defined in applicable laws, rules and regulations) pursuant to Chapter HI in the GDPR by implementing appropriate technical and organizational measures;
 - (g) assist the Purchaser to fulfil its obligations pursuant to Articles 32 to 36 in the GDPR;

- (h) on termination or expiration of the Agreement for any reason, return or delete, at the Purchaser's choice, all Personal Data processed under the Agreement, unless the Service Provider is required to retain the Personal Data by applicable laws, rules and regulations; and
 - (i) make available to Purchaser upon Purchaser's request (at no cost to the Purchaser) all information necessary to demonstrate Purchaser's and Service Provider' compliance with the obligations laid down in Article 28 in the GDPR and in this Data Processing Agreement and allow for and contribute to audits, including inspections, conducted by the Purchaser or another auditor mandated by the Purchaser.
- 2.3 The intended processing of Personal Data shall be specified according to applicable laws, rules and regulations, for each processing activity, in the relevant Service Specification.
- 2.4 In relation to the ongoing Services, the processing of Personal Data is specified in the attached Appendix 1 to this Data Processing Agreement.
- 2.5 Any limitation of liability set out in the Agreement shall apply also in respect of this Data Processing Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, the terms and conditions under the Agreement shall, unless otherwise set out herein, also apply in respect of this Data Processing Agreement, including but not limited as regards confidentiality, governing law and dispute resolution.

Name of specific processing activity: _____

Scope, type and purpose of the intended collection, processing or utilization of Personal Data, kind of Personal Data, categories of Data Subjects and roles of the parties:

[Please insert an explanation of the scope and type of processing activity as well as kind of Personal Data and categories of Data Subjects and the roles of the Parties. Example: The Service Provider will process Personal Data such as Basic Employment Data, Basic Personal Data and Competence Data (for explanation of data categories see BMS) that are necessary to perform the Services pursuant to the Agreement meaning that the Service Provider will not collect Personal Data on behalf of the Purchaser but instead store the Personal Data that the Purchaser feeds the system with and otherwise make available the Personal Data provided by the Purchaser within the system at hand. The categories of Data Subjects are employees and former employees. The Service Provider will process Personal Data as a processor and the Purchaser will be the controller for the processing activity.]

Duration of the processing of Personal Data:

[Please provide information on the expected duration of the processing activity. If the expected duration of the processing activity cannot be provided, please provide information on the criteria that will determine the duration of the processing. Example: The processing activity will continue for as long as the Agreement is valid and for a period of three months thereafter to allow the Service Provider to erase or retransfer the Personal Data.]

Additional Instructions:

I Please provide information on any eventual additional instructions on the processing activity that is not directly covered by the descriptions in the Agreement. This section is needed when the Service Provider will perform a number of different processing activities and for which all aspects are not covered by the Agreement.]

Place of processing:

[Please provide information on the data flow in relation to the processing activity. It is very important that we have detailed knowledge about where Personal Data is processed (stored, used, compiled, transferred etc.). If the Personal Data is first transferred to one country outside of EEA for compression and then retransferred to another country for storing etc. we need to know the details of the data flow.]

Additional technical and organizational security measures:

[Please provide information on additional technical and organizational security measures for the particular processing activity that is not directly covered by the descriptions in the Agreement. This section is needed e.g. when we have identified a more sensitive processing activity and for which the Service Provider needs to adopt stricter security measures.]

Additional sub-processors:

[Please provide information on additional sub-processors. This section needs to be kept updated during the term of the Agreement when eventual additional sub-processors/sub-contractors are used.]

Commencement of the processing activity

[Please provide information on the start date of the particular processing activity. Usually the processing activity starts in relation to the start date of the services covered by the Agreement but for further processing activities that can be added later on we need to state a start date (an exact date is not needed).]

Individual Terms - Service Agreement (Logistics)

Certain identified information marked with "[]" has been omitted from this document because it is both (i) not material and (ii) the type that the registrant treats as private or confidential.

INDIVIDUAL TERMS - SERVICE AGREEMENT

Short description of activities under this Service Agreement: The Service Provider shall provide certain logistics services in relation to the production of Polestar branded vehicles.

This Service Agreement is entered into on 31 October 2018 and made between:

Volvo Car Corporation, Reg. No. 556074-3089, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden ("Service Provider"); and
Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co. Ltd., Reg. No. 91510100MA6BX1H33P, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of People's Republic of China ("Purchaser").

Each of the Service Provider and the Purchaser is hereinafter referred to as a "Party" and jointly as the "Parties".

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have determined that the Service Provider shall perform certain Services (as defined in the General Terms (as defined below)) to the Purchaser which are further described in Appendix 1, the Service Specification. The provision of the Services described in the Service Specification (as defined in the General Terms) shall be performed in accordance with the terms in this service agreement and its appendices (the "Service Agreement").
- B. The Purchaser now wishes to enter into this Service Agreement for the purpose of receiving the Services and the Service Provider wishes to provide the Services in accordance with the terms set forth in this Service Agreement.
- C. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Service Agreement.

1. AGREEMENT1.1 General

This Service Agreement consists of this main document (the "Individual Terms") and its appendices. These Individual Terms set out the specific terms in respect of the provision of the Services, whereas Appendix 2 sets out certain general terms and conditions applicable to the performance of the Parties' activities hereunder (the "General Terms").

1.2 Scope

The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification for the Services as specified in Appendix 1, the Service Specification, which shall be deemed an integrated part of these Individual Terms.

1.3 Affiliate

Affiliate shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the following meaning:

(a) for Purchaser, any of the below legal entities (other than the Purchaser) and any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled (individually or jointly) by:

- (i) Polestar Automotive (Shanghai) Co., Ltd;
- (ii) Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co., Ltd.;
- (iii) Polestar Holding AB; or
- (iv) Polestar Performance AB; and

(b) for Service Provider, Volvo Car AB and any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by Volvo Car AB; whereby “control” for this purpose meaning ownership or control of at least fifty per cent (50%) of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest of such legal entity. The Parties, however, agree to renegotiate this definition of “Affiliate” in good faith if it in the future does not reflect the Parties’ intention at the time of signing this Service Agreement due to a restructuring or reorganisation in relation to either of the Parties.

1.4 Service Charges

1.4.1 The Services Charges (as defined in the General Terms) for the Services and for the development of the Results will be based on the estimated hours for the Services to be performed by the Service Provider and the hourly rates, both as set forth in Appendix 3. The Parties acknowledge that the estimated Service Charges set forth in Appendix 3 are based on an estimation of the amount of hours required for the performance of the Services and for the development of the Results and that this estimation may differ from the final number of hours charged by the Service Provider.

1.4.2 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency: SEK

1.4.3 The hourly rates that are used to calculate the Service Charges shall be determined between the Parties on an annual basis, based on the Services performed by the Service Provider (including the related development of the Results), as set out in Appendix 1, the Service Specification. The Service Charges shall be calculated on a time and material basis applying arm’s length hourly rates using the cost plus method, i.e. full cost incurred plus an arm’s length mark-up. The hourly rates should be reviewed, updated and agreed between the Parties on an annual basis.

1.5 Payment

1.5.1 If the Service Provider, pursuant to the General Terms, appoints its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, the Service Provider shall include the costs relating to such work in the invoices to the Purchaser.

The Service Charges shall be invoiced semi-annually at the end of each six months, i.e. in July for the period January-June and in January for the period July-December, as agreed between the Parties, and paid in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms.

1.6 Governance Forum

- 1.6.1 The Parties agree that governance in respect of this Service Agreement shall be handled in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms. When reference is made to a relevant governance forum, it shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the meaning set out below in this Section 1.6.
- 1.6.2 The first level of governance forum for handling the cooperation between the Parties in various matters, handling management, prioritisation of development activities etc. under the Service Agreement shall be the “Steering Committee”, which regarding cooperation between the Parties shall be the first level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.
- 1.6.3 The higher level of governance forum, to which an issue shall be escalated if the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution shall be the “Strategic Board”, which regarding cooperation between the Parties shall be the highest level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

1.7 Territory

For the purposes of this Service Agreement, the “Territory” shall mean the world.

1.8 General Terms

- 1.8.1 The Parties agree that the Service Agreement, and each Party’s rights and obligations hereunder, shall be governed by the terms and conditions in the General Terms, which shall be deemed an integrated part of these Individual Terms.
- 1.8.2 For the purposes of this Service Agreement, Section 9.1.3 of the General Terms shall not apply.

1.9 Template Financial Reporting

The Parties agree that the basis for calculating the Service Charges shall be transparent and auditable to the Purchaser. Therefore, the relevant financial information relating to the Service Specification is attached as Appendix 4, which shall be deemed an integrated part of these Individual Terms.

1.10 Data Processing Agreement

- 1.10.1 If the Service Provider processes any personal data on the Purchaser’s behalf and in accordance with its instructions as part of or in connection with the performance of the Services, the Parties agree that the Data Processing Agreement set forth in Appendix 5 shall be finalized and apply between the Parties, and shall be deemed an integrated part of these Individual Terms.
- 1.10.2 The Parties shall at all times comply with applicable laws on data protection and privacy, in particular, but not limited to the EU Data Protection Laws (as defined in Appendix 2), and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that any Affiliates or subcontractors engaged by it also comply therewith.

1.11 Order of Priority

In the event there are any contradictions or inconsistencies between the terms of these Individual Terms and any of the Appendices hereto, the Parties agree that the following order of priority shall apply:

1. These Individual Terms
2. Appendix 2, General Terms - Service Agreement
3. Appendix 1, Service Specification
4. Appendix 3, Service Charges
5. Appendix 4, Template Financial Reporting
6. Appendix 5, Data Processing Agreement

1.12 Notices

All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Service Agreement shall be sent to the following addresses and shall otherwise be sent in accordance with the terms in the General Terms:

APPENDIX 2, GENERAL TERMS - SERVICE AGREEMENT

BACKGROUND

This Appendix 2, General Terms - Service Agreement, (the “General Terms”) is an Appendix to the Individual Terms and is an integrated part of the Service Agreement entered into between the Parties.

1. DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of these General Terms, the following terms shall have the meanings assigned to them below. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa. Any capitalised terms used, but not specifically defined below in this Section 1, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Individual Terms.

“Appendix” means an appendix to the Individual Terms.

“Background IP” means the Intellectual Property Rights either;

- (a) owned by either of the Parties; or
- (b) created, developed or invented by directors, managers, employees or consultants of either of the Parties to which the Party has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sublicense

prior to the execution of this Service Agreement, and any Intellectual Property Rights developed independently of this Service Agreement.

“Confidential Information” means any and all information regarding the Parties and their respective businesses, whether commercial or technical, in whatever form or media, including but not limited to information relating to Intellectual Property Rights, concepts, technologies, processes, commercial figures, techniques, strategic plans and budgets, investments, customers and sales, designs, graphics, CAD models, CAE data, statement of works (including engineering statement of works and any high level specification), targets, test plans/reports, technical performance data and engineering sign-off documents and other information of a sensitive nature, that a Party learns from or about the other Party prior to or after the execution of this Service Agreement.

“Data Room” means (if applicable) the information sharing platform agreed to be used between the Parties for making available the information regarding the Results and Services to the Purchaser.

“EU Data Protection Laws” shall mean collectively, any applicable data protection, privacy or similar law generally applicable to the processing of personal data, including but not limited to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation) and any act or piece of national legislation implementing, supporting or otherwise incorporating said regulation, including any amendment made to any of the foregoing.

“Gates” means the deadlines set out in the Service Specification, such as time limits, milestones and gates, which shall be based on VPDS, and which shall, unless otherwise agreed, be Program Start (PS), Final Data Judgement (FDJ), Launch Readiness (LR), Launch Sign-off (LS) and Final Status Report (FSR), all described in the VDPS.

“Individual Terms” means the contract document (with the heading “Individual Terms - Service Agreement”), which is signed by Service Provider and the Purchaser, to which these General Terms are an Appendix.

“Industry Standard” means the exercise of such professionalism, skill, diligence, prudence and foresight which would normally be expected at any given time from a skilled and experienced actor engaged in a similar type of undertaking as under this Service Agreement.

“Intellectual Property Rights” or “IP” means Patents, Non-patented IP and rights in Confidential Information and Know-How to the extent protected under applicable laws anywhere in the world. For the avoidance of doubt, Trademarks are not comprised by this definition.

“Job1” means, in relation to each Polestar branded vehicle to which the Services relate, the date on which the production of such Polestar branded vehicle starts.

“Job1+90” means, in relation to each Polestar branded vehicle to which the Services relate, the date of Final Status Report (FSR), which follows from VPDS and which will take place 90 days after Job1.

“Know-How” means confidential and proprietary industrial, technical and commercial information and techniques in any form including (without limitation) drawings, formulae, test results, reports, project reports and testing procedures, instruction and training manuals, tables of operating conditions, specifications, component lists, market forecasts, lists and particulars of customers and suppliers.

“Patent” means any patent, patent application, or utility model, whether filed before, on or after execution of this Service Agreement, along with any continuation, continuation-in-part, divisional, re-examined or re-issued patent, foreign counterpart or renewal or extension of any of the foregoing.

“Results” shall mean

- (i) any outcome of the Services provided to the Purchaser under this Service Agreement (including but not limited to any IP, technology, software, methods, processes, deliverables, objects, products, documentation, materials, modifications, improvements, and/or amendments to be carried out by the Service Provider under the Service Specification),
- (ii) any other outcome or result of the Services to be performed by the Service Provider as described in the relevant Service Specification, irrespective of whether the performance of the Services has been completed or not, and
- (iii) any outcome similar to what is set out in (i) and (ii) above, but which was created from 2016 up until the effective date of this Service Agreement as a result of the Service Provider’s own internal performance of manufacturing and engineering services similar to the Services prior to the effective date of this Service Agreement.

“Service Agreement” means the Individual Terms including all of its Appendices and their Schedules as amended from time to time.

“Service Charges” means the service charges as set forth or referenced to in the Individual Terms.

“Service Specification” means the specification of the Services to be provided by the Service Provider to the Purchaser hereunder including (if applicable) a time plan for the provision of the Services, which is included as Appendix 1 in this Service Agreement.

“Services” shall mean the services to be performed by the Service Provider to the Purchaser hereunder, including all services under the Appendices attached hereto.

“Territory” shall mean the territory defined in the Individual Terms.

“Third Party” means a party other than any of the Parties and/or an Affiliate of one of the Parties to this Service Agreement.

“Trademarks” means trademarks (including part numbers that are trademarks), service marks, logos, trade names, business names, assumed names, trade dress and get-up, and domain names, in each case whether registered or unregistered, including all applications, registrations, renewals and the like, in each case to the extent they constitute rights that are enforceable against Third Parties.

“Use” means to make, have made, use (including in a process, such as use in designing, engineering, testing or assembling products or in their research or development), keep, install, integrate, extract, assemble, reproduce, incorporate, create derivative works of, modify, adapt, improve, enhance, develop, service or repair, including in the case of installation, integration, assembly, service or repair, the right to have a subcontractor of any tier carry out any of these activities on behalf of the Parties in their capacity as a licensee hereunder.

The right to “have made” is the right of a Party in its capacity as a licensee hereunder, as applicable, to have another person (or their subcontractor of any tier) make for that Party and does not include the right to grant sub-licenses to another person to make for such person’s own use or use other than for that Party.

2. PROVISION OF SERVICES2.1 Services

- 2.1.1 The Services to be performed under this Service Agreement are described in Appendix 1. the Service Specification, which shall be deemed an integrated part of this Service Agreement.
- 2.1.2 Subject to the terms and conditions herein, the Purchaser agrees to engage the Service Provider for the provision of, and Service Provider agrees to perform, the Services up until Job1+90.

2.2 Subcontractors

- 2.2.1 The Parties acknowledge that the Service Provider may use its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, provided that the Service Provider informs the Purchaser thereof.
- 2.2.2 The Service Provider shall however remain responsible for the performance, and any omission to perform or comply with the provisions of this Service Agreement, by any Affiliate to the Service Provider and/or any subcontractor to the same extent as if such performance or omittance was made by the Service Provider itself. The Service Provider shall also remain the Purchaser's sole point of contact unless otherwise agreed.

2.3 Relationship between the Parties

The Parties are acting as independent contractors when performing each Party's respective obligations under the Service Agreement. Neither Party nor its Affiliates are agents for the other Party or its Affiliates and have no authority to represent them in relation to any matters. Nothing in these General Terms or the Service Agreement shall be construed as to constitute a partnership or joint venture between the Parties.

3. SERVICE REQUIREMENTS

- 3.1 All Services shall be performed in accordance with the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement, including the Service Specification, and otherwise in a professional manner.
- 3.2 When providing the Services, the Service Provider shall use professional, appropriate, qualified and skilled personnel, and shall ensure that its personnel have been properly educated and trained for the Services to be performed, including being fully acquainted with the Purchaser's specific requirements. The Service Provider shall avoid unnecessary changes in the personnel engaged in performing its undertakings under this Service Agreement. The Service Provider shall work according to the same standard of care and professionalism that is done in the Service Provider's internal business and development projects. Such standard of care and professionalism, as well as the Service Provider's performance of its undertakings under this Service Agreement, shall however at all times correspond to Industry Standard. For the avoidance of doubt, the Service Provider is responsible for all necessary recruiting and hiring costs associated with employing appropriate personnel as well as all necessary training costs. It is acknowledged that the Service Charges shall adhere to the principles set forth in this Section 3.2.

- 3.3 The Purchaser shall provide the Service Provider with instructions as reasonably required for the Service Provider to be able to carry out the Services. The Service Provider must continuously inform the Service Provider of any needs of additional instructions or specifications required to perform the Services.
- 3.4 The Service Provider shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its undertakings under this Service Agreement. Further, the Service Provider undertakes to ensure that the performance of the Services will not be given lower priority than other of the Service Provider's internal similar projects.
- 3.5 The Parties acknowledge and agree that the Services might not be described on a detailed basis in the Service Specification and that the details of such Services might not have been finalised at the time of entering into this Service Agreement, but that the Service Specification will be updated during the provision of the Services up until Job1+90 at the latest.

4. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

4.1 Ownership of existing Intellectual Property Rights

- 4.1.1 Each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of its Background IP.
- 4.1.2 Nothing in this Service Agreement shall be deemed to constitute an assignment of, or license to use, any Trademarks of the other Party.

4.2 Ownership of Results

- 4.2.1 In the event any Results are created as a result of the Services provided by the Service Provider (or if applicable, any of its appointed Affiliates or subcontractors) under this Service Agreement, the Parties agree that the Service Provider shall be the sole and exclusive owner of such Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof made by the Service Provider.

4.3 License grant

- 4.3.1 The Service Provider hereby grants to the Purchaser a non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any IP or Background IP included in the license described hereunder)) and non-assignable license to, within the Territory:
 - (a) Use, in whole or in part, the Results;
 - (b) if applicable, Use any Background IP embedded in or otherwise used in the development of the Results to the extent such license is necessary or reasonably necessary to make Use of the license granted to the Results; and
 - (c) design, engineer, Use, make and have made, repair, service, market, sell and make available products and/or services based on, incorporating or using the Results and any Background IP referred to in (a) and (b) above, in whole or in part.

- 4.3.2 The license granted to the Purchaser in accordance with Section 4.3.1 shall be fully sublicensable to the Purchaser's Affiliates, but shall not be sub-licensable to any Third Party without prior written consent from the Service Provider, which shall not be unreasonably withheld (whereby a sublicense/license to a Third Party which is a competitor of the Service Provider is an example of what could be deemed unreasonable) or delayed. For the avoidance of doubt, the Service Provider shall be free to Use and to grant licenses to the Results and any Background IP to the Service Provider's Affiliates and any Third Parties without prior written consent from the Purchaser.
- 4.3.3 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Service Agreement, nothing in these General Terms or otherwise in the Service Agreement shall be construed as to give the Purchaser any rights, including but not limited to any license rights (express or implied), to any Intellectual Property Rights, except as expressly stated herein.

4.4 Polestar brand name

- 4.4.1 For sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the "Polestar" brand name or Trademarks, or refer to "Polestar" in communications or official documents of whatever kind.
- 4.4.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Polestar" brand name or "Polestar" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence

4.5 Volvo brand name

- 4.5.1 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the "Volvo" brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to "Volvo" in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the "Volvo" Trademarks as well as the "Volvo" name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the "Volvo" Trademarks is subject to a service agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related Intellectual Property can only be used by Volvo Car Corporation and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.
- 4.5.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Volvo" brand name or "Volvo" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

5. SERVICE CHARGES

In consideration of the Service Provider's performance of the Services under this Service Agreement and the development of the Results, the Purchaser agrees to pay to the Service Provider the Service Charges as set forth or referenced to in the Individual Terms.

6. PAYMENT TERMS

- 6.1 All amounts and payments referred to in this Service Agreement shall be paid in the currency set forth in the Individual Terms, in a timely manner and in accordance with the payment terms set forth in this Section 6.

All amounts and payments referred to in this Service Agreement are exclusive of VAT, and any other taxes, including but not limited to withholding tax and surcharges.

6.3 Any amount of the invoiced by the Service Provider to the Purchaser shall be paid by the Purchaser within thirty (30) days after receipt.

6.4 Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based on the one (1) month applicable interbank rate, depending on invoice and currency, with an addition of two per cent (2%) per annum.

6.5 Any paid portion of the Service Charges is non-refundable, with the exception set forth in the Individual Terms, if any.

7. AUDIT

7.1 During the term of the Service Agreement, the Purchaser shall have the right to, upon reasonable notice in writing to the Service Provider, inspect Service Provider's books and records related to the Services and the premises where the Services are performed, in order to conduct quality controls and otherwise verify the statements rendered under this Service Agreement.

7.2 Audits shall be made during regular business hours and be conducted by the Purchaser or by an independent auditor appointed by the Purchaser. Should Purchaser during any inspection find that the Service Provider or the Services does/do not fulfil the requirements set forth herein, the Purchaser is entitled to comment on the identified deviations. The Service Provider shall, upon notice from the Purchaser, take reasonable efforts to take the actions required in order to fulfil the requirements. In the event the Parties cannot agree upon measures to be taken in respect of the audit, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.

8. DELIVERY AND ACCEPTANCE

8.1 The Service Provider shall provide any Results (or parts thereof) to the Purchaser at the Gates or otherwise promptly after any part of such Results has been finalised.

8.2 Such Results (or parts thereof) shall be provided by the Service Provider to the Purchaser by electronically loading files with the relevant information into a Data Room agreed upon (if applicable) and otherwise provided as agreed between the Parties e.g. through knowledge transfer meetings.

8.3 Delivery of the Services (or parts thereof) occurs when the delivery at the respective Gates meets the requirements for that Gate set out in the Service Specification, however subject to Section 9.2.1 and that the Purchaser has accepted such delivery in accordance with what is set out below in this Section 8.

8.4 The Purchaser shall accept the delivery of the Services, and parts thereof, at the respective Gates, unless the Services upon delivery at that Gate deviates from the requirements set forth in the Service Specification.

8.5 The Purchaser shall give its final acceptance of the delivered Services on Job1+90, at the latest.

8.6 If the Services have been delivered in accordance with this Section 8, but the Purchaser has not accepted the delivery in time (i.e. at the Gates or as separately agreed) nor objected to the delivery due to it deviating from what is set out in Section 9.2.1, the delivery shall be deemed accepted by the Purchaser.

- 8.7 After Job1+90, any changes to the Service Specification shall be subject to the Parties entering into a separate agreement governing such changes. Thus, this Service Agreement shall not apply in relation to any such changes. Further, the Service Provider shall have no responsibility for the Services and/or any such Results after Job1+90.

9. DELAYS, DEFECTS ETC.

9.1 Delay

- 9.1.1 The Service Provider shall be deemed to be in delay where any of the Gates are met after the agreed delivery date for such Gate, unless the Parties have agreed for an extension of the time for meeting such Gate upon which the new agreed delivery date shall be relevant for determining whether the Service Provider is in delay.
- 9.1.2 If the Service Provider is in delay, or at any time believes that a Gate will not, or is unlikely to, be met in time, the Service Provider shall inform the Purchaser of the reasons for and consequences of not meeting the Gate at the agreed date and shall take all steps reasonably necessary, including providing additional resources, to ensure that the requirements for the relevant Gate is met as soon as possible. For avoidance of doubt, the Service Provider shall be entitled to compensation in accordance with this Service Agreement for work performed to meet a Gate in relation to a risk of, or an actual, delay unless otherwise stated in this Section 9.1 or Section 9.2.2.
- 9.1.3 If the Service Provider is in delay and such delay has a negative impact on the project relating to the Services, the Parties shall upon the Purchaser's request agree on a reduction of the Service Charges relating to the additional work that (i) has to be carried out in order to meet the requirements for the Gate in question and (ii) is performed after the agreed delivery date for such Gate.
- 9.1.4 Without prejudice to any other remedies available, the Parties acknowledge that the Service Provider's delay may be subject to Section 15.2(a).

9.2 Defects in delivery or the performance of the Services

- 9.2.1 In the event the Services and/or the Results, or any part thereof, after having met a Gate, deviate from the requirements set forth in the Service Specification, or if the Services otherwise does not meet or ceases to meet the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement, the Service Provider shall, if such fault or defect is discovered and/or notified to the Service Provider before Job1+90, remedy such non-compliance, fault or defect as soon as reasonably possible at its own cost.
- 9.2.2 The Purchaser shall not be responsible for costs that relate to poorly executed Services or Services having been performed by personnel not qualified for such Services, in breach of Section 3.2, as long as such costs would not have occurred had the Services been properly executed or performed by qualified personnel.

9.3 Effects of the Purchaser's actions

- 9.3.1 Notwithstanding what is set out above in this Section 9, the Purchaser shall be responsible for costs relating to delays which are due to the Purchaser's non-fulfilment of any of its obligations under this Service Agreement or the Purchaser's requests for changes to the Service Specification. Further, any such delays which are due to the Purchaser shall give a corresponding extension of time to the Service Provider for meeting any affected Gate.
- 9.3.2 Notwithstanding what is set out above in this Section 9, the Purchaser shall be responsible for costs relating to faults and defects which are due to the Purchaser's non-fulfilment of any of its obligations under this Service Agreement.

10. WARRANTIES10.1 Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:

- (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;
- (b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Service Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;
- (c) the execution, delivery and performance of this Service Agreement have been duly authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate any laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and
- (d) this Service Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

11. INDEMNIFICATION11.1 General

- 11.1.1 The Parties acknowledge that the Services are provided, and that the Results are licensed, to the Purchaser on an “as is” basis, without any warranties or representations of any kind (except for the warranties in Section 10.1 above), whether implied or express, and in particular any warranties of suitability, merchantability, description, design and fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, completeness, systems integration and accuracy are expressly excluded to the maximum extent permissible by law.
- 11.1.2 In addition, the Service Provider does not make any warranties or representations as regards the functionality of any Services or Results. The Purchaser hereby releases the Service Provider from all liability (and accordingly, cannot claim damages, compensation, price reduction etc.) in respect of errors, defects and deficiencies in any Services or Results of whatever kind, whether visible or latent, including but not limited to errors of fact or law, errors regarding right of disposition, physical defects and deficiencies and damages arising due to product liability after the Services and/or Results have been delivered to the Purchaser, however excluding the Service Provider’s limited undertakings in Section 9.2.1.
- 11.1.3 The principles set out in this Section 11 is reflected in the Service Charges and the fact that the Service Provider is not a provider or consultant of services such as the Services, but merely a car manufacturer which normally only performs Services for its own business purposes.
- 11.1.4 The principles set forth in this Section 11 are exclusive. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing in this Section 11, the Parties agree that no other remedy whatsoever under any statute, law or legal principle shall be available to the Purchaser in relation to the Services to be performed, and/or the licenses to be granted, by the Service Provider hereunder.

11.2 The Purchaser's indemnification

- 11.2.1 The Purchaser shall indemnify and hold the Service Provider harmless from and against any and all damages, costs, losses and expenses, direct or indirect, arising out of or in connection with the Purchaser's use of any Services or Results, including but not limited to any Third party claims on Intellectual Property Rights infringement.
- 11.2.2 The Service Provider shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to the Purchaser's use of any Services or Results from the Service Provider notify the Purchaser of such claim in writing and the Purchaser shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the Third party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. The Purchaser shall at all times keep the Service Provider informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with the Service Provider on appropriate actions to take. If the Purchaser fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend the Service Provider within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, the Service Provider shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/or over any settlement negotiation at the Purchaser's cost. Any settlement proposed by the Purchaser on its own account must take account of potential implications for the Service Provider and shall therefore be agreed in writing with the Service Provider before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

12. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 12.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Service Agreement.
- 12.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement shall be limited to ten per cent (10 %) of the Service Charges payable by Purchaser to the Service Provider hereunder.
- 12.3 The limitations of liability set forth in this Section 12 shall not apply in respect of damage;
- (a) caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence, or
 - (b) caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 14 below.

13. GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES13.1 Governance

- 13.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Service Agreement as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Service Agreement.

13.1.2 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Service Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event the Parties on an operational level cannot agree upon inter alia the prioritisation of Services or other aspects relating to the co-operation between the Parties, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.

13.1.3 If the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution of the disagreement the relevant issue should be escalated to the Strategic Board for decision.

13.2 Changes

13.2.1 Up until Job1+90, the Purchaser can request changes to the Service Specification, which shall be handled in accordance with the governance procedure set forth in Section 13.1 above. Both Parties agree to act in good faith to address and respond to any change request within a reasonable period of time.

13.2.2 The Parties acknowledge that the Service Provider will not perform in accordance with such change request until agreed in writing between the Parties. For the avoidance of any doubt, until there is agreement about the requested change, all work shall continue in accordance with the existing Service Specification.

13.2.3 The Parties further acknowledge that the Purchaser shall be responsible for all costs which relates to changes to the Work as well as other changes which are requested by the Purchaser.

14. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

14.1 The Parties shall take any and all necessary measures to comply with the security and confidentiality procedures of the other Party.

14.2 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes comprised by the fulfilment of this Service Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Service Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 14.2 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or subcontractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:

- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
- (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
- (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
- (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;
- (e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or

- (f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.
- 14.3 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 14.
- 14.4 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within thirty (30) days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as "Confidential", "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 14.5 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 14, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section 18.2 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 14.6 This confidentiality provision shall survive the expiration or termination of this Service Agreement without limitation in time.

15. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 15.1 This Service Agreement shall become effective as set forth in the preamble in the Individual Terms and shall, unless terminated in accordance with Section 15.2 below, remain in force until Job1+90.
- 15.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in the event;
- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Service Agreement, which has not been remedied within fourteen (14) days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
- (b) if the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.
- 15.3 The Purchaser shall in addition be entitled to cancel the Services performed by the Service Provider for convenience upon thirty (30) days written notice to the Service Provider.
- 15.4 In the event the Purchaser cancels the Services in accordance with Section 15.3 above, the Service Charges shall, in addition to what is set out in the Individual Terms, include any other reasonable proven costs Service Provider has incurred until the effective date of the cancellation.
- 15.5 Either Party shall in addition be entitled to terminate this Service Agreement for convenience upon sixty (60) days written notice to the other Party.

16. MISCELLANEOUS16.1 Force majeure

16.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under the Service Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A “Force Majeure Event” means any event beyond a Party’s reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party’s), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors.

16.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under the Service Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its nonperformance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

16.2 Notices

All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Service Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:

- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
- (b) if sent email transmission, at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
- (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
- (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods. All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be addressed to the address, and with the attention, as set forth in the Individual Terms, or to such other address, number or email address as a Party may designate.

16.3 Assignment

16.3.1 Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Service Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.

16.3.2 Notwithstanding the above, each Party may assign this Service Agreement to an Affiliate without the prior written consent of the other Party.

16.4 Waiver

Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Service Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Service Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the Service Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.

16.5 Severability

In the event any provision of this Service Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Service Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Service Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Service Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.

16.6 Entire agreement

All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Service Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Service Agreement are superseded by this Service Agreement and its Appendices.

16.7 Amendments

Any amendment or addition to this Service Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.

16.8 Survival

16.8.1 If this Service Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 15 above, Section 4.3 (License Grant), Section 14 (Confidential Information), Section 17 (Governing Law), Section 18 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 16.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.

16.8.2 Notwithstanding Section 16.8.1 above, if this Service Agreement is terminated due to the Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, pursuant to Section 15 above, Section 4.3 (License Grant) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination.

17. GOVERNING LAW

This Service Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Service Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of Sweden without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

18. DISPUTE RESOLUTION18.1 Escalation principles

- 18.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten (10) days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.
- 18.1.2 The members of the Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 18.1.3 If the Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within thirty (30) days from the deadlock notice served pursuant to Section 18.1.1 above, such deadlock will be referred to the General Counsels of each Party, which shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve the situation in the same way as indicated above. If no Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the General Counsels of each Party immediately and Section 18.1.2 above shall not apply.
- 18.1.4 If the General Counsels cannot settle the deadlock within thirty (30) days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the Strategic Board for decision. Should the matter not have been resolved by the Strategic Board within thirty (30) days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 18.2 below.
- 18.1.5 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 14 above.
- 18.1.6 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 18.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the Strategic Board in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

18.2 Arbitration

- 18.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, whereas the seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English, and the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.
- 18.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Service Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 18.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Service Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 18.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

APPENDIX 3 - SERVICE CHARGES

1. ESTIMATED TOTAL COST FOR THE SERVICES

1.1 []

2. HOURLY RATES

2.1 The hourly rates that are used to calculate the Service Charges shall be determined between the Parties on an annual basis. The Service Charges shall be calculated on a time and material basis applying arm's length hourly rates using the cost plus method, i.e. full cost incurred plus an arm's length mark-up. The hourly rates should be reviewed, updated and agreed between the Parties on an annual basis.

Appendix 5
Data Processing Agreement

This Data Processing Agreement (the "Data Processing Agreement") is entered into between:

- (1) Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co. Ltd., reg. no. 91510100MA6BX1H33P, a company organized under the laws of People's Republic of China ("Purchaser"); and
- (2) Volvo Car Corporation, reg. no. 556074-3089, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden ("Service Provider").

Each of the Purchaser and the Service Provider are referred to as a "Party" and, jointly, as the "Parties".

1. BACKGROUND

The Parties have entered into an agreement regarding the provisions of certain services (the "Agreement").

Capitalised terms used in this Data Processing Agreement shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Agreement, unless otherwise stated. Terms used but not defined in this Data Processing Agreement shall have the same meaning as set out in Article 4 in the Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, as may be amended, updated, replaced or superseded from time to time (the "GDPR") if not expressly stated otherwise.

Now, therefore, the Parties agree as follows.

2. PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA

- 2.1 The following shall apply in relation to data protection and take precedence in relation to any conflicts between the Agreement and this Data Processing Agreement.
- 2.2 The Service Provider shall to the extent any Personal Data (as defined in applicable laws, rules and regulations) is processed by the Service Provider on behalf of the Purchaser under the Agreement:
 - (a) only process Personal Data in accordance with the Purchaser's documented instructions. The Service Provider shall immediately inform the Purchaser if instructions are lacking or if instructions are infringing applicable laws, rules and regulations;
 - (b) ensure that the employees/agents/sub-contractors or other third parties that are authorized to process Personal Data are subject to an enforceable obligation of confidentiality with regards to the Personal Data;
 - (c) implement appropriate technical and organizational measures required pursuant to Article 32 in the GDPR;
 - (d) to the extent sub-contractors are engaged as sub-processors of Personal Data on behalf of the Purchaser (which mandate is hereby given by the Purchaser), respect the conditions referred to in Article 28, paragraphs 2 and 4, in the GDPR;

- (e) to the extent Personal Data will be transferred to a country that does not ensure an adequate level of data protection, the Service Provider shall inform the Purchaser and ensure that the Personal Data is safeguarded through e.g. Standard Contractual Clauses adopted by the European Commission prior to any transfer of Personal Data or any other allowed means of transfer under the GDPR;
 - (f) assist the Purchaser to respond to requests from Data Subjects' (as defined in applicable laws, rules and regulations) pursuant to Chapter III in the GDPR by implementing appropriate technical and organizational measures;
 - (g) assist the Purchaser to fulfil its obligations pursuant to Articles 32 to 36 in the GDPR;
 - (h) on termination or expiration of the Agreement for any reason, return or delete, at the Purchaser's choice, all Personal Data processed under the Agreement, unless the Service Provider is required to retain the Personal Data by applicable laws, rules and regulations; and
 - (i) make available to Purchaser upon Purchaser's request (at no cost to the Purchaser) all information necessary to demonstrate Purchaser's and Service Provider' compliance with the obligations laid down in Article 28 in the GDPR and in this Data Processing Agreement and allow for and contribute to audits, including inspections, conducted by the Purchaser or another auditor mandated by the Purchaser.
- 2.3 The intended processing of Personal Data shall be specified according to applicable laws, rules and regulations, for each processing activity, in the relevant Service Specification.
- 2.4 In relation to the ongoing Services, the processing of Personal Data is specified in the attached Appendix 1 to this Data Processing Agreement.
- 2.5 Any limitation of liability set out in the Agreement shall apply also in respect of this Data Processing Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, the terms and conditions under the Agreement shall, unless otherwise set out herein, also apply in respect of this Data Processing Agreement, including but not limited as regards confidentiality, governing law and dispute resolution.

This Data Processing Agreement has been signed in two (2) originals, of which the Parties have received one (1) each.

Scope, type and purpose of the intended collection, processing or utilization of Personal Data, kind of Personal Data, categories of Data Subjects and roles of the parties:

[Please insert an explanation of the scope and type of processing activity as well as kind of Personal Data and categories of Data Subjects and the roles of the Parties. Example: The Service Provider will process Personal Data such as Basic Employment Data, Basic Personal Data and Competence Data (for explanation of data categories see BMS) that are necessary to perform the Services pursuant to the Agreement meaning that the Service Provider will not collect Personal Data on behalf of the Purchaser but instead store the Personal Data that the Purchaser feeds the system with and otherwise make available the Personal Data provided by the Purchaser within the system at hand. The categories of Data Subjects are employees and former employees. The Service Provider will process Personal Data as a processor and the Purchaser will be the controller for the processing activity.]

Duration of the processing of Personal Data:

[Please provide information on the expected duration of the processing activity. If the expected duration of the processing activity cannot be provided, please provide information on the criteria that will determine the duration of the processing. Example: The processing activity will continue for as long as the Agreement is valid and for a period of three months thereafter to allow the Service Provider to erase or retransfer the Personal Data.]

Additional Instructions:

[Please provide information on any eventual additional instructions on the processing activity that is not directly covered by the descriptions in the Agreement. This section is needed when the Service Provider will perform a number of different processing activities and for which all aspects are not covered by the Agreement.]

Place of processing:

[Please provide information on the data flow in relation to the processing activity. It is very important that we have detailed knowledge about where Personal Data is processed (stored, used, compiled, transferred etc.). If the Personal Data is first transferred to one country outside of EEA for compression and then retransferred to another country for storing etc. we need to know the details of the data flow.]

Additional technical and organizational security measures:

[Please provide information on additional technical and organizational security measures for the particular processing activity that is not directly covered by the descriptions in the Agreement. This section is needed e.g. when we have identified a more sensitive processing activity and for which the Service Provider needs to adopt stricter security measures.]

Additional sub-processors:

[Please provide information on additional sub-processors. This section needs to be kept updated during the term of the Agreement when eventual additional sub-processors/sub-contractors are used.]

Commencement of the processing activity

[Please provide information on the start date of the particular processing activity. Usually the processing activity starts in relation to the start date of the services covered by the Agreement but for further processing activities that can be added later on we need to state a start date (an exact date is not needed).]

Individual Terms - Service Agreement (Logistics)

Certain identified information marked with "[]" has been omitted from this document because it is both (i) not material and (ii) the type that the registrant treats as private or confidential.

INDIVIDUAL TERMS - SERVICE AGREEMENT

Short description of activities under this Service Agreement: The Service Provider shall provide certain logistics services in relation to the production of Polestar branded vehicles.

This Service Agreement is entered into on 21 Dec 2018 and made between:

Volvo Car (Asia Pacific) Investment Holding Co. Ltd., Reg. No. 913101145574653825, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of People's Republic of China ("Service Provider"); and

Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co. Ltd., Reg. No. 91510100MA6BX1H33P, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of People's Republic of China ("Purchaser").

Each of the Service Provider and the Purchaser is hereinafter referred to as a "Party" and jointly as the "Parties".

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have determined that the Service Provider shall perform certain Services (as defined in the General Terms (as defined below)) to the Purchaser which are further described in Appendix 1, the Service Specification. The provision of the Services described in the Service Specification (as defined in the General Terms) shall be performed in accordance with the terms in this service agreement and its appendices (the "Service Agreement").
- B. The Purchaser now wishes to enter into this Service Agreement for the purpose of receiving the Services and the Service Provider wishes to provide the Services in accordance with the terms set forth in this Service Agreement.
- C. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Service Agreement.

1. AGREEMENT1.1 General

This Service Agreement consists of this main document (the "Individual Terms") and its appendices. These Individual Terms set out the specific terms in respect of the provision of the Services, whereas Appendix 2 sets out certain general terms and conditions applicable to the performance of the Parties' activities hereunder (the "General Terms").

1.2 Scope

The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification for the Services as specified in Appendix 1, the Service Specification, which shall be deemed an integrated part of these Individual Terms.

1.3 Affiliate

Affiliate shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the following meaning:

(a) for Purchaser, any of the below legal entities (other than the Purchaser) and any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled (individually or jointly) by:

- (i) Polestar Automotive (Shanghai) Co., Ltd;
- (ii) Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co., Ltd.;
- (iii) Polestar Holding AB; or
- (iv) Polestar Performance AB; and

(b) for Service Provider, Volvo Car AB and any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by Volvo Car AB; whereby “control” for this purpose meaning ownership or control of at least fifty per cent (50%) of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest of such legal entity. The Parties, however, agree to renegotiate this definition of “Affiliate” in good faith if it in the future does not reflect the Parties’ intention at the time of signing this Service Agreement due to a restructuring or reorganisation in relation to either of the Parties.

1.4 Service Charges

1.4.1 The Services Charges (as defined in the General Terms) for the Services and for the development of the Results will be based on the estimated hours for the Services to be performed by the Service Provider and the hourly rates, both as set forth in Appendix 3. The Parties acknowledge that the estimated Service Charges set forth in Appendix 3 are based on an estimation of the amount of hours required for the performance of the Services and for the development of the Results and that this estimation may differ from the final number of hours charged by the Service Provider.

1.4.2 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency: CNY

1.4.3 The hourly rates that are used to calculate the Service Charges shall be determined between the Parties on an annual basis, based on the Services performed by the Service Provider (including the related development of the Results), as set out in Appendix 1, the Service Specification. The Service Charges shall be calculated on a time and material basis applying arm’s length hourly rates using the cost plus method, i.e. full cost incurred plus an arm’s length mark-up. The hourly rates should be reviewed, updated and agreed between the Parties on an annual basis.

1.5 Payment

1.5.1 If the Service Provider, pursuant to the General Terms, appoints its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, the Service Provider shall include the costs relating to such work in the invoices to the Purchaser.

.2 The Service Charges shall be invoiced semi-annually at the end of each six months, i.e. in July for the period January-June and in January for the period July-December, as agreed between the Parties, and paid in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms.

1.6 Governance Forum

- 1.6.1 The Parties agree that governance in respect of this Service Agreement shall be handled in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms. When reference is made to a relevant governance forum, it shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the meaning set out below in this Section 1.6.
- 1.6.2 The first level of governance forum for handling the cooperation between the Parties in various matters, handling management, prioritisation of development activities etc. under the Service Agreement shall be the "Steering Committee", which regarding cooperation between the Parties shall be the first level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.
- 1.6.3 The higher level of governance forum, to which an issue shall be escalated if the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution shall be the "Strategic Board", which regarding cooperation between the Parties shall be the highest level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

1.7 Territory

For the purposes of this Service Agreement, the "Territory" shall mean the world.

1.8 General Terms

- 1.8.1 The Parties agree that the Service Agreement, and each Party's rights and obligations hereunder, shall be governed by the terms and conditions in the General Terms, which shall be deemed an integrated part of these Individual Terms.
- 1.8.2 For the purposes of this Service Agreement, Section 9.1.3 of the General Terms shall not apply.

1.9 Template Financial Reporting

The Parties agree that the basis for calculating the Service Charges shall be transparent and auditable to the Purchaser. Therefore, the relevant financial information relating to the Service Specification is attached as Appendix 4, which shall be deemed an integrated part of these Individual Terms.

1.10 Data Processing Agreement

- 1.10.1 If the Service Provider processes any personal data on the Purchaser's behalf and in accordance with its instructions as part of or in connection with the performance of the Services, the Parties agree that the Data Processing Agreement set forth in Appendix 5 shall be finalized and apply between the Parties, and shall be deemed an integrated part of these Individual Terms.
- 1.10.2 The Parties shall at all times comply with applicable laws on data protection and privacy, in particular, but not limited to the EU Data Protection Laws (as defined in Appendix 2), and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that any Affiliates or subcontractors engaged by it also comply therewith.

1.11 Order of Priority

In the event there are any contradictions or inconsistencies between the terms of these Individual Terms and any of the Appendices hereto, the Parties agree that the following order of priority shall apply:

1. These Individual Terms
2. Appendix 2, General Terms - Service Agreement
3. Appendix 1, Service Specification
4. Appendix 3, Service Charges
5. Appendix 4, Template Financial Reporting
6. Appendix 5, Data Processing Agreement

1.12 Notices

All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Service Agreement shall be sent to the following addresses and shall otherwise be sent in accordance with the terms in the General Terms:

Appendix 1

APPENDIX 2, GENERAL TERMS - SERVICE AGREEMENT

BACKGROUND

This Appendix 2, General Terms - Service Agreement, (the “General Terms”) is an Appendix to the Individual Terms and is an integrated part of the Service Agreement entered into between the Parties.

1. DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of these General Terms, the following terms shall have the meanings assigned to them below. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa. Any capitalised terms used, but not specifically defined below in this Section 1, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Individual Terms.

“Appendix” means an appendix to the Individual Terms.

“Background IP” means the Intellectual Property Rights either;

- (a) owned by either of the Parties; or
- (b) created, developed or invented by directors, managers, employees or consultants of either of the Parties to which the Party has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sublicense

prior to the execution of this Service Agreement, and any Intellectual Property Rights developed independently of this Service Agreement.

“Confidential Information” means any and all information regarding the Parties and their respective businesses, whether commercial or technical, in whatever form or media, including but not limited to information relating to Intellectual Property Rights, concepts, technologies, processes, commercial figures, techniques, strategic plans and budgets, investments, customers and sales, designs, graphics, GAD models, GAE data, statement of works (including engineering statement of works and any high level specification), targets, test plans/reports, technical performance data and engineering sign-off documents and other information of a sensitive nature, that a Party learns from or about the other Party prior to or after the execution of this Service Agreement.

“Data Room” means (if applicable) the information sharing platform agreed to be used between the Parties for making available the information regarding the Results and Services to the Purchaser.

“EU Data Protection Laws” shall mean collectively, any applicable data protection, privacy or similar law generally applicable to the processing of personal data, including but not limited to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation) and any act or piece of national legislation implementing, supporting or otherwise incorporating said regulation, including any amendment made to any of the foregoing.

“Gates” means the deadlines set out in the Service Specification, such as time limits, milestones and gates, which shall be based on VPDS, and which shall, unless otherwise agreed, be Program Start (PS), Final Data Judgement (FDJ), Launch Readiness (LR), Launch Sign-off (LS) and Final Status Report (FSR), all described in the VDPS.

“Individual Terms” means the contract document (with the heading “Individual Terms - Service Agreement”), which is signed by Service Provider and the Purchaser, to which these General Terms are an Appendix.

“Industry Standard” means the exercise of such professionalism, skill, diligence, prudence and foresight which would normally be expected at any given time from a skilled and experienced actor engaged in a similar type of undertaking as under this Service Agreement.

“Intellectual Property Rights” or “IP” means Patents, Non-patented IP and rights in Confidential Information and Know-How to the extent protected under applicable laws anywhere in the world. For the avoidance of doubt, Trademarks are not comprised by this definition.

“Job1” means, in relation to each Polestar branded vehicle to which the Services relate, the date on which the production of such Polestar branded vehicle starts.

“Job1+90” means, in relation to each Polestar branded vehicle to which the Services relate, the date of Final Status Report (FSR), which follows from VPDS and which will take place 90 days after Job1.

“Know-How” means confidential and proprietary industrial, technical and commercial information and techniques in any form including (without limitation) drawings, formulae, test results, reports, project reports and testing procedures, instruction and training manuals, tables of operating conditions, specifications, component lists, market forecasts, lists and particulars of customers and suppliers.

“Patent” means any patent, patent application, or utility model, whether filed before, on or after execution of this Service Agreement, along with any continuation, continuation-in-part, divisional, re-examined or re-issued patent, foreign counterpart or renewal or extension of any of the foregoing.

“Results” shall mean

- (i) any outcome of the Services provided to the Purchaser under this Service Agreement (including but not limited to any IP, technology, software, methods, processes, deliverables, objects, products, documentation, materials, modifications, improvements, and/or amendments to be carried out by the Service Provider under the Service Specification),

- (ii) any other outcome or result of the Services to be performed by the Service Provider as described in the relevant Service Specification, irrespective of whether the performance of the Services has been completed or not, and
- (iii) any outcome similar to what is set out in (i) and (ii) above, but which was created from 2016 up until the effective date of this Service Agreement as a result of the Service Provider 's own internal performance of manufacturing and engineering services similar to the Services prior to the effective date of this Service Agreement.

"Service Agreement" means the Individual Terms including all of its Appendices and their Schedules as amended from time to time.

"Service Charges" means the service charges as set forth or referenced to in the Individual Terms.

"Service Specification" means the specification of the Services to be provided by the Service Provider to the Purchaser hereunder including (if applicable) a time plan for the provision of the Services, which is included as Appendix 1 in this Service Agreement.

"Services" shall mean the services to be performed by the Service Provider to the Purchaser hereunder, including all services under file Appendices attached hereto.

"Territory" shall mean the territory defined in the Individual Terms.

"Third Party" means a party other than any of the Parties and/or an Affiliate of one of the Parties to this Service Agreement.

"Trademarks" means trademarks (including part numbers that are trademarks), service marks, logos, trade names, business names, assumed names, trade dress and get-up, and domain names, in each case whether registered or unregistered, including all applications, registrations, renewals and the like, in each case to the extent they constitute rights that are enforceable against Third Parties.

"Use" means to make, have made, use (including in a process, such as use in designing, engineering, testing or assembling products or in their research or development), keep, install, integrate, extract, assemble, reproduce, incorporate, create derivative works of, modify, adapt, improve, enhance, develop, service or repair, including in the case of installation, integration, assembly, service or repair, the right to have a subcontractor of any tier carry out any of these activities on behalf of the Parties in their capacity as a licensee hereunder.

The right to "have made" is the right of a Party in its capacity as a licensee hereunder, as applicable, to have another person (or their subcontractor of any tier) make for that Party and does not include the right to grant sub-licenses to another person to make for such person's own use or use other than for that Party.

2. PROVISION OF SERVICES

2.1 Services

- 2.1.1 The Services to be performed under this Service Agreement are described in Appendix 1, the Service Specification, which shall be deemed an integrated part of this Service Agreement.
- 2.1.2 Subject to the terms and conditions herein, the Purchaser agrees to engage the Service Provider for the provision of, and Service Provider agrees to perform, the Services up until Job1+90.

2.2 Subcontractors

- 2.2.1 The Parties acknowledge that the Service Provider may use its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, provided that the Service Provider informs the Purchaser thereof.

- 2.2.2 The Service Provider shall however remain responsible for the performance, and any omission to perform or comply with the provisions of this Service Agreement, by any Affiliate to the Service Provider and/or any subcontractor to the same extent as if such performance or omission was made by the Service Provider itself. The Service Provider shall also remain the Purchaser's sole point of contact unless otherwise agreed.

2.3 Relationship between the Parties

The Parties are acting as independent contractors when performing each Party's respective obligations under the Service Agreement. Neither Party nor its Affiliates are agents for the other Party or its Affiliates and have no authority to represent them in relation to any matters. Nothing in these General Terms or the Service Agreement shall be construed as to constitute a partnership or joint venture between the Parties.

3. SERVICE REQUIREMENTS

- 3.1 All Services shall be performed in accordance with the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement, including the Service Specification, and otherwise in a professional manner.
- 3.2 When providing the Services, the Service Provider shall use professional, appropriate, qualified and skilled personnel, and shall ensure that its personnel have been properly educated and trained for the Services to be performed, including being fully acquainted with the Purchaser's specific requirements. The Service Provider shall avoid unnecessary changes in the personnel engaged in performing its undertakings under this Service Agreement. The Service Provider shall work according to the same standard of care and professionalism that is done in the Service Provider's internal business and development projects. Such standard of care and professionalism, as well as the Service Provider's performance of its undertakings under this Service Agreement, shall however at all times correspond to Industry Standard. For the avoidance of doubt, the Service Provider is responsible for all necessary recruiting and hiring costs associated with employing appropriate personnel as well as all necessary training costs. It is acknowledged that the Service Charges shall adhere to the principles set forth in this Section 3.2.
- 3.3 The Purchaser shall provide the Service Provider with instructions as reasonably required for the Service Provider to be able to carry out the Services. The Service Provider must continuously inform the Service Provider of any needs of additional instructions or specifications required to perform the Services.
- 3.4 The Service Provider shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its undertakings under this Service Agreement. Further, the Service Provider undertakes to ensure that the performance of the Services will not be given lower priority than other of the Service Provider's internal similar projects.
- 3.5 The Parties acknowledge and agree that the Services might not be described on a detailed basis in the Service Specification and that the details of such Services might not have been finalised at the time of entering into this Service Agreement, but that the Service Specification will be updated during the provision of the Services up until Job1+90 at the latest.

4. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

4.1 Ownership of existing Intellectual Property Rights

- 4.1.1 Each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of its Background IP.
- 4.1.2 Nothing in this Service Agreement shall be deemed to constitute an assignment of, or license to use, any Trademarks of the other Party.

4.2 Ownership of Results

- 4.2.1 In the event any Results are created as a result of the Services provided by the Service Provider (or if applicable, any of its appointed Affiliates or subcontractors) under this Service Agreement, the Parties agree that the Service Provider shall be the sole and exclusive owner of such Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof made by the Service Provider.

4.3 License grant

- 4.3.1 The Service Provider hereby grants to the Purchaser a non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any IP or Background IP included in the license described hereunder)) and non-assignable license to, within the Territory:
- (a) Use, in whole or in part, the Results;
 - (b) if applicable, Use any Background IP embedded in or otherwise used in the development of the Results to the extent such license is necessary or reasonably necessary to make Use of the license granted to the Results; and
 - (c) design, engineer, Use, make and have made, repair, service, market, sell and make available products and/or services based on, incorporating or using the Results and any Background IP referred to in (a) and (b) above, in whole or in part.
- 4.3.2 The license granted to the Purchaser in accordance with Section 4.3.1 shall be fully sublicensable to the Purchaser's Affiliates, but shall not be sub-licensable to any Third Party without prior written consent from the Service Provider, which shall not be unreasonably withheld (whereby a sublicense/license to a Third Party which is a competitor of the Service Provider is an example of what could be deemed unreasonable) or delayed. For the avoidance of doubt, the Service Provider shall be free to Use and to grant licenses to the Results and any Background IP to the Service Provider's Affiliates and any Third Parties without prior written consent from the Purchaser.
- 4.3.3 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Service Agreement, nothing in these General Terms or otherwise in the Service Agreement shall be construed as to give the Purchaser any rights, including but not limited to any license rights (express or implied), to any Intellectual Property Rights, except as expressly stated herein.

4.4 Polestar brand name

- 4.4.1 For sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the "Polestar" brand name or Trademarks, or refer to "Polestar" in communications or official documents of whatever kind.
- 4.4.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Polestar" brand name or "Polestar" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence

4.5 Volvo brand name

- 4.5.1 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the "Volvo" brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to "Volvo" in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the "Volvo" Trademarks as well as the "Volvo" name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the "Volvo" Trademarks is subject to a service agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related Intellectual Property can only be used by Volvo Car Corporation and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.

- 4.5.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Volvo" brand name or "Volvo" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

5. SERVICE CHARGES

In consideration of the Service Provider's performance of the Services under this Service Agreement and the development of the Results, the Purchaser agrees to pay to the Service Provider the Service Charges as set forth or referenced to in the Individual Terms.

6. PAYMENT TERMS

6.1 All amounts and payments referred to in this Service Agreement shall be paid in the currency set forth in the Individual Terms, in a timely manner and in accordance with the payment terms set forth in this Section 6.

6.2 All amounts and payments referred to in this Service Agreement are exclusive of VAT, and any other taxes, including but not limited to withholding tax and surcharges.

6.3 Any amount of the invoiced by the Service Provider to the Purchaser shall be paid by the Purchaser within thirty (30) days after receipt.

6.4 Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based on the one (1) month applicable interbank rate, depending on invoice and currency, with an addition of two per cent (2%) per annum.

6.5 Any paid portion of the Service Charges is non-refundable, with the exception set forth in the Individual Terms, if any.

7. AUDIT

7.1 During the term of the Service Agreement, the Purchaser shall have the right to, upon reasonable notice in writing to the Service Provider, inspect Service Provider's books and records related to the Services and the premises where the Services are performed, in order to conduct quality controls and otherwise verify the statements rendered under this Service Agreement.

7.2 Audits shall be made during regular business hours and be conducted by the Purchaser or by an independent auditor appointed by the Purchaser. Should Purchaser during any inspection find that the Service Provider or the Services does/do not fulfil the requirements set forth herein, the Purchaser is entitled to comment on the identified deviations. The Service Provider shall, upon notice from the Purchaser, take reasonable efforts to take the actions required in order to fulfil the requirements. In the event the Parties cannot agree upon measures to be taken in respect of the audit, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.

8. DELIVERY AND ACCEPTANCE

- 8.1 The Service Provider shall provide any Results (or parts thereof) to the Purchaser at the Gates or otherwise promptly after any part of such Results has been finalised.
- 8.2 Such Results (or parts thereof) shall be provided by the Service Provider to the Purchaser by electronically loading files with the relevant information into a Data Room agreed upon (if applicable) and otherwise provided as agreed between the Parties e.g. through knowledge transfer meetings.
- 8.3 Delivery of the Services (or parts thereof) occurs when the delivery at the respective Gates meets the requirements for that Gate set out in the Service Specification, however subject to Section 9.2.1 and that the Purchaser has accepted such delivery in accordance with what is set out below in this Section 8.
- 8.4 The Purchaser shall accept the delivery of the Services, and parts thereof, at the respective Gates, unless the Services upon delivery at that Gate deviates from the requirements set forth in the Service Specification.
- 8.5 The Purchaser shall give its final acceptance of the delivered Services on Job1+90, at the latest.
- 8.6 If the Services have been delivered in accordance with this Section 8, but the Purchaser has not accepted the delivery in time (i.e. at the Gates or as separately agreed) nor objected to the delivery due to it deviating from what is set out in Section 9.2.1, the delivery shall be deemed accepted by the Purchaser.
- 8.7 After Job1+90, any changes to the Service Specification shall be subject to the Parties entering into a separate agreement governing such changes. Thus, this Service Agreement shall not apply in relation to any such changes. Further, the Service Provider shall have no responsibility for the Services and/or any such Results after Job1+90.

9. DELAYS, DEFECTS ETC.9.1 Delay

- 9.1.1 The Service Provider shall be deemed to be in delay where any of the Gates are met after the agreed delivery date for such Gate, unless the Parties have agreed for an extension of the time for meeting such Gate upon which the new agreed delivery date shall be relevant for determining whether the Service Provider is in delay.
- 9.1.2 If the Service Provider is in delay, or at any time believes that a Gate will not, or is unlikely to, be met in time, the Service Provider shall inform the Purchaser of the reasons for and consequences of not meeting the Gate at the agreed date and shall take all steps reasonably necessary, including providing additional resources, to ensure that the requirements for the relevant Gate is met as soon as possible. For avoidance of doubt, the Service Provider shall be entitled to compensation in accordance with this Service Agreement for work performed to meet a Gate in relation to a risk of, or an actual, delay unless otherwise stated in this Section 9.1 or Section 9.2.2.
- 9.1.3 If the Service Provider is in delay and Such delay has a negative impact on the project relating to the Services, the Parties shall upon the Purchaser's request agree on a reduction of the Service Charges relating to the additional work that (i) has to be carried out in order to meet the requirements for the Gate in question and (ii) is performed after the agreed delivery date for such Gate.
- 9.1.4 Without prejudice to any other remedies available, the Parties acknowledge that the Service Provider's delay may be subject to Section 15.2(a).

9.2 Defects in delivery or the performance of the Services

- 9.2.1 In the event the Services and/or the Results, or any part thereof, after having met a Gate, deviate from the requirements set forth in the Service Specification, or if the Services otherwise does not meet or ceases to meet the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement, the Service Provider shall, if such fault or defect is discovered and/or notified to the Service Provider before Job1+90, remedy such non-compliance, fault or defect as soon as reasonably possible at its own cost.
- 9.2.2 The Purchaser shall not be responsible for costs that relate to poorly executed Services or Services having been performed by personnel not qualified for such Services, in breach of Section 3.2, as long as such costs would not have occurred had the Services been properly executed or performed by qualified personnel.

9.3 Effects of the Purchaser's actions

- 9.3.1 Notwithstanding what is set out above in this Section 9, the Purchaser shall be responsible for costs relating to delays which are due to the Purchaser's non-fulfilment of any of its obligations under this Service Agreement or the Purchaser's requests for changes to the Service Specification. Further, any such delays which are due to the Purchaser shall give a corresponding extension of time to the Service Provider for meeting any affected Gate.
- 9.3.2 Notwithstanding what is set out above in this Section 9, the Purchaser shall be responsible for costs relating to faults and defects which are due to the Purchaser's non-fulfilment of any of its obligations under this Service Agreement.

10. WARRANTIES

- 10.1 Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:
- (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;
 - (b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Service Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;
 - (c) the execution, delivery and performance of this Service Agreement have been duly authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate any laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and
 - (d) this Service Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

11. INDEMNIFICATION11.1 General

- 11.1.1 The Parties acknowledge that the Services are provided, and that the Results are licensed, to the Purchaser on an "as is" basis, without any warranties or representations of any kind (except for the warranties in Section 10.1 above), whether implied or express, and in particular any warranties of suitability, merchantability, description, design and fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, completeness, systems integration and accuracy are expressly excluded to the maximum extent permissible by law.

- 11.1.2 In addition, the Service Provider does not make any warranties or representations as regards the functionality of any Services or Results. The Purchaser hereby releases the Service Provider from all liability (and accordingly, cannot claim damages, compensation, price reduction etc.) in respect of errors, defects and deficiencies in any Services or Results of whatever kind, whether visible or latent, including but not limited to errors of fact or law, errors regarding right of disposition, physical defects and deficiencies and damages arising due to product liability after the Services and/or Results have been delivered to the Purchaser, however excluding the Service Provider's limited undertakings in Section 9.2.1.
- 11.1.3 The principles set out in this Section 11 is reflected in the Service Charges and the fact that the Service Provider is not a provider or consultant of services such as the Services, but merely a car manufacturer which normally only performs Services for its own business purposes.
- 11.1.4 The principles set forth in this Section 11 are exclusive. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing in this Section 11, the Parties agree that no other remedy whatsoever under any statute, law or legal principle shall be available to the Purchaser in relation to the Services to be performed, and/or the licenses to be granted, by the Service Provider hereunder.

11.2 The Purchaser's indemnification

- 11.2.1 The Purchaser shall indemnify and hold the Service Provider harmless from and against any and all damages, costs, losses and expenses, direct or indirect, arising out of or in connection with the Purchaser's use of any Services or Results, including but not limited to any Third party claims on Intellectual Property Rights infringement,
- 11.2.2 The Service Provider shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to the Purchaser's use of any Services or Results from the Service Provider notify the Purchaser of such claim in writing and the Purchaser shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the Third party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. The Purchaser shall at all times keep the Service Provider informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with the Service Provider on appropriate actions to take. If the Purchaser fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend the Service Provider within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, the Service Provider shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/or over any settlement negotiation at the Purchaser's cost. Any settlement proposed by the Purchaser on its own account must take account of potential implications for the Service Provider and shall therefore be agreed in writing with the Service Provider before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

12. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 12.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Service Agreement.
- 12.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement shall be limited to ten percent (10 %) of the Service Charges payable by Purchaser to the Service Provider hereunder.
- 12.3 The limitations of liability set forth in this Section 12 shall not apply in respect of damage;
- (a) caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence, or
 - (b) caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 14 below.

13. GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES13.1 Governance

- 13.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Service Agreement as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Service Agreement.
- 13.1.2 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Service Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event the Parties on an operational level cannot agree upon inter alia the prioritisation of Services or other aspects relating to the co-operation between the Parties, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.
- 13.1.3 If the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution of the disagreement the relevant issue should be escalated to the Strategic Board for decision.

13.2 Changes

- 13.2.1 Up until Jobl+90, the Purchaser can request changes to the Service Specification, which shall be handled in accordance with the governance procedure set forth in Section 13.1 above. Both Parties agree to act in good faith to address and respond to any change request within a reasonable period of time.
- 13.2.2 The Parties acknowledge that the Service Provider will not perform in accordance with such change request until agreed in writing between the Parties. For the avoidance of any doubt, until there is agreement about the requested change, all work shall continue in accordance with the existing Service Specification,
- 13.2.3 The Parties further acknowledge that the Purchaser shall be responsible for all costs which relates to changes to the Work as well as other changes which are requested by the Purchaser.

14. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 14.1 The Parties shall take any and all necessary measures to comply with the security and confidentiality procedures of the other Party.
- 14.2 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes comprised by the fulfilment of this Service Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Service Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 14.2 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or subcontractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:
- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
 - (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
 - (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
 - (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;
 - (e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or
 - (f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.

- 14.3 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 14.
- 14.4 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within thirty (30) days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as "Confidential", "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 14.5 If any Party violates, any of its obligations described in this Section 14, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section 18.2 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 14.6 This confidentiality provision shall survive the expiration or termination of this Service Agreement without limitation in time.

15. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 15.1 This Service Agreement shall become effective as set forth in the preamble in the Individual Terms and shall, unless terminated in accordance with Section 15.2 below, remain in force until Job1+90.
- 15.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in the event;
- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Service Agreement, which has not been remedied within fourteen (14) days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
 - (b) if the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.
- 15.3 The Purchaser shall in addition be entitled to cancel the Services performed by the Service Provider for convenience upon thirty (30) days written notice to the Service Provider,
- 15.4 In the event the Purchaser cancels the Services in accordance with Section 15.3 above, the Service Charges shall, in addition to what is set out in the Individual Terms, include any other reasonable proven costs Service Provider has incurred until the effective date of the cancellation.
- 15.5 Either Party shall in addition be entitled to terminate this Service Agreement for convenience upon sixty (60) days written notice to the other Party.

16. MISCELLANEOUS16.1 Force majeure

16.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under the Service Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A "Force Majeure Event" means any event beyond a Party's reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party's), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors.

16.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under the Service Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its nonperformance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

16.2 Notices

All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Service Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:

- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
- (b) if sent by email transmission, at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
- (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
- (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods. All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be addressed to the address, and with the attention, as set forth in the Individual Terms, or to such other address, number or email address as a Party may designate.

16.3 Assignment

16.3.1 Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Service Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.

16.3.2 Notwithstanding the above, each Party may assign this Service Agreement to an Affiliate without the prior written consent of the other Party.

16.4 Waiver

Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Service Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Service Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the Service Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.

16.5 Severability

In the event any provision of this Service Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Service Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Service Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Service Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.

16.6 Entire agreement

All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Service Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Service Agreement are superseded by this Service Agreement and its Appendices.

16.7 Amendments

Any amendment or addition to this Service Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.

16.8 Survival

16.8.1 If this Service Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 15 above, Section 4.3 (License Grant), Section 14 (Confidential Information), Section 17 (Governing Law), Section 18 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 16.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.

16.8.2 Notwithstanding Section 16.8.1 above, if this Service Agreement is terminated due to the Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, pursuant to Section 15 above, Section 4.3 (License Grant) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination.

17. GOVERNING LAW

This Service Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Service Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of:

- (a) the People's Republic of China, if all Parties are entities incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China; and
 - (b) Sweden, if any Party is not an entity incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China,
- without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

18. DISPUTE RESOLUTION18.1 Escalation principles

- 18.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten (10) days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.
- 18.1.2 The members of the Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 18.1.3 If the Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within thirty (30) days from the deadlock notice served pursuant to Section 18.1.1 above, such deadlock will be referred to the General Counsels of each Party, which shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve the situation in the same way as indicated above. If no Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the General Counsels of each Party immediately and Section 18.1,2 above shall not apply.
- 18.1.4 If the General Counsels cannot settle the deadlock within thirty (30) days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the Strategic Board for decision. Should the matter not have been resolved by the Strategic Board within thirty (30) days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 18.2 below.
- 18.1.5 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 14 above.
- 18.1.6 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 18.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the Strategic Board in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

18.2 Arbitration

- 18.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall:
- (a) if all Parties are entities incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China, be submitted to China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Committee ("CIETAC") for arbitration, which shall be held in Shanghai and conducted in accordance with the CIETAC's arbitration rules in effect at the time of applying for arbitration, whereas the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English and Chinese; and
 - (b) if any Party is not an entity incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China, be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, whereas the seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English, and the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.
- 18.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Service Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 18.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Service Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 18.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

APPENDIX 3 - SERVICE CHARGES1. ESTIMATED TOTAL COST FOR THE SERVICES

- 1.1 The following estimated Services Charges are based on an estimation of the amount of hours required for the performance of the Services and the Parties acknowledge that this estimation may differ from the final number of hours charged by the Service Provider.
- 1.2 The below is an estimate of the total cost for the Services for the years [], divided between the part of such cost that relates to the Polestar 1 and Polestar 2 vehicle, respectively. All figures in the table below are provided in [] CNY.

2. HOURLY RATES

- 2.1 The hourly rates that are used to calculate the Service Charges shall be determined between the Parties on an annual basis. The Service Charges shall be calculated on a time and material basis applying arm's length hourly rates using the cost plus method, i.e. full cost incurred plus an arm's length mark-up. The hourly rates should be reviewed, updated and agreed between the Parties on an annual basis.
- 2.2 The hourly rates for the years [] are set out below. All figures in the table below are provided in CNY.

Appendix 5
Data Processing Agreement

This Data Processing Agreement (the “Data Processing Agreement”) is entered into between:

- (1) Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co. Ltd., reg. no. 91510100MA6BX1H33P, a company organized under the laws of People’s Republic of China (“Purchaser”); and
- (2) Volvo Car (Asia Pacific) Investment Holding Co. Ltd., reg. no. 913101145574653825, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of People’s Republic of China (“Service Provider”).

Each of the Purchaser and the Service Provider are referred to as a “Party” and, jointly, as the “Parties”.

1. BACKGROUND

The Parties have entered into an agreement regarding the provision of certain services (the “Agreement”).

Capitalised terms used in this Data Processing Agreement shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Agreement, unless otherwise stated. Terms used but not defined in this Data Processing Agreement shall have the same meaning as set out in Article d in the Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, as may be amended, updated, replaced or superseded from time to time (the “GDPR”) if not expressly stated otherwise.

Now, therefore, the Parties agree as follows.

2. PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA

- 2.1 The following shall apply in relation to data protection and take precedence in relation to any conflicts between the Agreement and this Data Processing Agreement.
- 2.2 The Service Provider shall to the extent any Personal Data (as defined in applicable laws, rules and regulations) is processed by the Service Provider on behalf of the Purchaser under the Agreement:
 - (a) only process Personal Data in accordance with the Purchaser’s documented instructions. The Service Provider shall immediately inform the Purchaser if instructions are lacking or if instructions are infringing applicable laws, rules and regulations;
 - (b) ensure that the employees/agents/sub-contractors or other third parties that are authorized to process Personal Data are subject to an enforceable obligation of confidentiality with regards to the Personal Data;
 - (c) implement appropriate technical and organizational measures required pursuant to Article 32 in the GDPR;
 - (d) to the extent sub-contractors are engaged as sub-processors of Personal Data on behalf of the Purchaser (which mandate is hereby given by the Purchaser), respect the conditions referred to in Article 28, paragraphs 2 and 4, in the GDPR;
 - (e) to the extent Personal Data will be transferred to a country that does not ensure an adequate level of data protection, the Service Provider shall inform the Purchaser and ensure that the Personal Data is safeguarded through e.g. Standard Contractual Clauses adopted by the European Commission prior to any transfer of Personal Data or any other allowed means of transfer under the GDPR;
 - (f) assist the Purchaser to respond to requests from Data Subjects’ (as defined in applicable laws, rules and regulations) pursuant to Chapter III in the GDPR by implementing appropriate technical and organizational measures;

- (g) assist the Purchaser to fulfil its obligations pursuant to Articles 32 to 36 in the GDPR;
 - (h) on termination or expiration of the Agreement for any reason, return or delete, at the Purchaser's choice, all Personal Data processed under the Agreement, unless the Service Provider is required to retain the Personal Data by applicable laws, rules and regulations; and
 - (i) make available to Purchaser upon Purchaser's request (at no cost to the Purchaser) all information necessary to demonstrate Purchaser's and Service Provider' compliance with the obligations laid down in Article 28 in the GDPR and in this Data Processing Agreement and allow for and contribute to audits, including inspections, conducted by the Purchaser or another auditor mandated by the Purchaser.
- 2.3 The intended processing of Personal Data shall be specified according to applicable laws, rules and regulations, for each processing activity, in the relevant Service Specification.
- 2.4 In relation to the ongoing Services, the processing of Personal Data is specified in the attached Appendix 1 to this Data Processing Agreement.
- 2.5 Any limitation of liability set out in the Agreement shall apply also in respect of this Data Processing Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, the terms and conditions under the Agreement shall, unless otherwise set out herein, also apply in respect of this Data Processing Agreement, including but not limited as regards confidentiality, governing law and dispute resolution.

This Data Processing Agreement has been signed in two (2) originals, of which the Parties have received one (1) each.

APPENDIX 1—SPECIFICATION OF PROCESSING ACTIVITIES

Name of specific processing activity: _____

Scope, type and purpose of the intended collection, processing or utilization of Personal Data, kind of Personal Data, categories of Data Subjects and roles of the parties:

[Please insert an explanation of the scope and type of processing activity as well as kind of Personal Data and categories of Data Subjects and the roles of the Parties. Example: The Service Provider will process Personal Data such as Basic Employment Data, Basic Personal Data and Competence Data (for explanation of data categories see BMS) that are necessary to perform the Services pursuant to the Agreement meaning that the Service Provider will not collect Personal Data on behalf of the Purchaser but instead store the Personal Data that the Purchaser feeds the system with and otherwise make available the Personal Data provided by the Purchaser within the system at hand. The categories of Data Subjects are employees and former employees. The Service Provider will process Personal Data as a processor and the Purchaser will be the controller for the processing activity.]

Duration of the processing of Personal Data:

[Please provide information on the expected duration of the processing activity. If the expected duration of the processing activity cannot be provided, please provide information on the criteria that will determine the duration of the processing. Example: The processing activity will continue for as long as the Agreement is valid and for a period of three months thereafter to allow the Service Provider to erase or retransfer the Personal Data.]

Additional Instructions:

[Please provide information on any eventual additional instructions on the processing activity that is not directly covered by the descriptions in the Agreement. This section is needed when the Service Provider will perform a number of different processing activities and for which all aspects are not covered by the Agreement.]

Place of processing:

[Please provide information on the dataflow in relation to the processing activity. It is very important that we have detailed knowledge about where Personal Data is processed (stored, used, compiled, transferred etc.). If the Personal Data is first transferred to one country' outside of EEA for compression and then retransferred to another country for storing etc. we need to know the details of the data flow.]

Additional technical and organizational security measures:

[Please provide information on additional technical and organizational security measures for the particular processing activity that is not directly covered by the descriptions in the Agreement. This section is needed e.g. when we have identified a more sensitive processing activity and, for which the Service Provider needs to adopt stricter security measures.]

Additional sub-processors:

[Please provide information on additional sub-processors. This section needs to be kept updated during the term of the Agreement when eventual additional sub-processors/sub-contractors are used.]

Commencement of the processing activity

[Please provide information on the start date of the particular processing activity. Usually the processing activity starts in relation to the start date of the services covered by the Agreement but for further processing activities that can be added later on we need to state a start date (an exact date is not needed).]

INDIVIDUAL TERMS—SERVICE AGREEMENT

Short description of activities under this Service Agreement: The Service Provider shall provide certain services to the Purchaser in relation to the electrocoating of the Polestar 1 vehicle.

This Service Agreement is entered into on the date indicated below and made between:

Zhongjia Automobile Manufacturing (Chengdu) Co. Ltd., a company incorporated under the laws of China with register number 91510112562005858U, the registered office of which is at No. 18, Middle Xingguan Road, Longquanyi District, People's Republic of China ("Service- Provider"); and Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co. Ltd., a company incorporated under the laws of People's Republic of China with register number 91510100MA6BXIH33P, the registered office of which is at 1280 Tiangong Avenue Xinxing Neighbourhood, Tianfu New District Chengdu, People's Republic of China ("Purchaser").

Each of the Service Provider and the Purchaser is hereinafter referred to as a "Party" and jointly as the "Parties".

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have determined that the Service Provider shall perform certain Services (as defined in the General Terms (as defined below)) to the Purchaser which are further described in Appendix 1, the Service Specification. The provision of the Services described in the Service Specification (as defined in the General Terms) shall be performed in accordance with the terms in this service agreement and its appendices (the "Service Agreement").
- B. The Purchaser now wishes to enter into this Service Agreement for the purpose of receiving the Services and the Service Provider wishes to provide the Service in accordance with the terms set forth in this Service Agreement.
- C. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Service Agreement.

1. AGREEMENT1.1 General

This Service Agreement consists of this main document (the "Individual Terms") and its appendices. These Individual Terms set out the specific terms in respect of the provision of the Services, whereas Appendix 2 sets out certain general terms and conditions applicable to the performance of the Parties' activities hereunder (the "General Terms").

1.2 Scope

- 1.2.1 The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification for the Service as specified in Appendix 1, the Service Specification, which shall be deemed an integrated part of these Individual Terms.

- 1.2.2. The Services will entail that the Service Provider shall provide certain services to the Purchaser in relation to the electrocoating of the Polestar 1 vehicle, as further set out in Appendix 1, the Service Specification.

1.3 Affiliate

Affiliate shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the following meaning:

“Affiliate” means:

- (a) for Purchaser, any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled (individually or jointly) by:
- (i) Polestar Automotive (Shanghai) Co., Ltd;
 - (ii) Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co., Ltd.;
 - (iii) Polestar Holding AB; or
 - (iv) Polestar Performance AB; and
- (b) for Service Provider, Volvo Car AB and any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by Volvo Car AB;

“control” for this purpose meaning ownership or control of at least fifty per cent (50%) of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest of such legal entity. The Parties, however, agree to renegotiate this definition of “Affiliate” in good faith if it in the future does not reflect the Parties’ intention at the time of signing this Service Agreement due to a restructuring or reorganisation in relation to either of the Parties.

1.4 Service Charges

In consideration of the Service Provider’s performance of the Services under this Service Agreement, the Purchaser agrees to pay to the Service Provider the Service Charges set forth or referenced to in Appendix 1, the Service Specification.

1.5 Payment

- 1.5.1 If the Service Provider, pursuant to the General Terms, appoints its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, the Service Provider shall include the costs relating to such work in the invoices to the Purchaser.
- 1.5.2 The Service Charges shall be invoiced in on a monthly basis as agreed between the Parties and paid in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms.

1.6 Governance Forum

- 1.6.1 The Parties agree that governance in respect of this Service Agreement shall be handled in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms. When reference is made to a relevant governance forum, it shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the meaning set out below in this Section 1.6.
- 1.6.2 The first level of governance forum for handling the co-operation between the Parties in various matters, handling management, prioritisation of development activities etc. under the Service Agreement shall be the “Steering Committee”, which regarding cooperation between Polestar and Volvo Cars shall be the first level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

1.6.3 The higher level of governance forum, to which an issue shall be escalated if the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution shall be the “Strategic Board”, which regarding cooperation between Polestar and Volvo Cars shall be the highest level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

1.7 Territory

For the purposes of this Service Agreement, the “Territory” shall mean the world.

1.8 General Terms

The Parties agree that the Service Agreement, and each Party’s rights and obligations hereunder, shall be governed by the terms and conditions in the General Terms, which shall be deemed an integrated part of these Individual Terms.

1.9 Template Financial Reporting

The Parties agree that the basis for calculating the Service Charges shall be transparent and auditable to the Purchaser. Therefore, the relevant financial information relating to the Service Specification is attached as Appendix 3, which shall be deemed an integrated part of these Individual Terms.

1.10 Order of Priority-

In the event there are any contradictions or inconsistencies between the terms of these Individual Terms and any of the Appendices hereto, the Parties agree that the following order of priority shall apply:

1. These Individual Terms
2. Appendix 2, General Terms—ServiceAgreement
3. Appendix 1, Service Specification
4. Appendix 3, Template Financial Reporting

1.11 Notices

All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Service Agreement shall be sent to the following addresses and shall otherwise be sent in accordance with the terms in the General Terms:

1. SERVICE DESCRIPTION

The following list in this Section 1 describes the main parts of the Services purchased by the Purchaser from the Service Provider for the electrocoating of the Polestar 1 vehicle underbody (the “UB”) and associated services:

1. Inbound Logistics

- Receive UBs one by one from a Polestar track at the Service Provider’s RDC. The UBs will arrive three per day in average, with deviation +/-1,
- Switch from Polestar skid to transportation trolley, store Polestar Skid until next UB to be returned takes it over.
- Transport trolley from RDC to Paint shop.
- Load the UB onto paint trolley.

2. Paintshop activities

- Push trolley with UB to the paint line, load onto line, add RFID tracker to UB.
- Run UB in the regular Volvo lines mixed with Volvo cars in the (i) Pre-treatment, (ii) Electrocoating, and (iii) EC baking oven.
- After the oven, before the fixture line, transfer UB to off line station.
- Register exit from Paint line,
- Remove RFID tag.

3. Outbound (return) logistics

- Load the UB onto paint trolley.
- Transport trolley from Paint shop to RDC.

Switch from transportation trolley back to Polestar skid, store transportation trolley until next UB to be electrocoated takes it over.

2. DELIVERY, TITLE AND RISK

- 2.1 The Parties have agreed that the Purchaser shall deliver the Goods in accordance with the delivery terms DDP (Incoterms 2010) to the Service Provider's plant.
- 2.2 The Purchaser shall deliver the Goods on the truck at the RDC (regional distribution centre) to the Service Provider's plant. The Service Provider receives the Goods on the truck (and vice versa). Risk of loss or damage with respect to the Goods passes from the Purchaser to the Service Provider upon the moment the Service Provider's forklift driver touches the delivered Goods or the undersea! which the Goods are placed on.
- 2.3 The Parties have further agreed that once the Service Provider has performed the Services, the Service Provider shall deliver the finalised Goods (i.e. the electrodeposition dipped or bathed (the "ED dipped") UB) to the Purchaser in accordance with the delivery terms FCA (Incoterms 2010).
- 2.4 Once the Service Provider has performed the Services, the Service Provider shall load the finalised Goods (i.e. the ED dipped UB) onto the truck. Risk of loss or damage with respect to the Goods passes from the Service Provider to the Purchaser upon the moment the Goods are accepted as received by the driver, who will transport the Goods back to the Purchaser's site.

3. SERVICE CHARGES

- 3.1 The Service Charges for the Services will be calculated on an actual total cost basis, with a mark-up to an arm's length price using the cost plus method, i.e. total cost incurred by the Service Provider in its provision of the Services (including internal hourly rates for services similar to the Services, material, specific investments in relation made to the provision of the Service to the Purchaser, depreciation, labour overhead, logistics etc.) plus mark-up. The mark-up applied until otherwise agreed shall be eight per cent (8%).
- 3.2 All amounts and payments referred to in this Service Agreement are exclusive of VAT, and any other taxes, including but not limited to withholding tax and surcharges.
- 3.3 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency: RMB.
- 3.4 The Service Charges should be reviewed, updated and agreed between the Parties on an annual basis, based on the latest available benchmarking study.

APPENDIX 2, GENERAL TERMS—SERVICE AGREEMENT

BACKGROUND

This Appendix 2, General Terms—Service Agreement, (the “General Terms”) is an Appendix to the Individual Terms and is an integrated part of the Service Agreement entered into between the Parties.

1. DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of these General Terms, the following terms shall have the meanings assigned to them below. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa. Any capitalised terms used, but not specifically defined below in this Section 1, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Individual Terms.

“Appendix” means an appendix to the Individual Terms.

“Background IP” means the intellectual Property Rights either;

- (a) owned by either of the Parties; or
- (b) created, developed or invented by directors, managers, employees or consultants of either of the Parties to which the Party has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sublicense

prior to the execution of this Service Agreement, and any Intellectual Property Rights developed independently of this Service Agreement.

“Confidential Information” means any and all information regarding the Parties and their respective businesses, whether commercial or technical, in whatever form or media, including but not limited to information relating to Intellectual Property Rights, concepts, technologies, processes, commercial figures, techniques, strategic plans and budgets, investments, customers and sales, designs, graphics, CAD models, CAE data, statement of works (including engineering statement of works and any high level specification), targets, test plans/reports, technical performance data and engineering sign-off documents and other information of a sensitive nature, that a Party learns from or about the other Party prior to or after the execution of this Service Agreement.

“Force Majeure Event” shall have the meaning set out in Section 15.1.1

“Goods” means automotive parts and accessories, as well as other goods defined in the Service Specification, in relation to which the Services are performed under this Service Agreement.

“Individual Terms” means the contract document (with the heading “Individual Terms—Service Agreement”), which is signed by Service Provider and the Purchaser, to which these General Terms are an Appendix.

“Industry Standard” means the exercise of such professionalism, skill, diligence, prudence and foresight which would normally be expected at any given time from a skilled and experienced actor engaged in a similar type of undertaking as under this Service Agreement.

“Intellectual Property Rights” or “IP” means Patents, Non-patented IP, rights in Confidential Information and Know-How to the extent protected under applicable laws anywhere in the world. For the avoidance of doubt, Trademarks are not comprised by this definition.

“Know-How” means confidential and proprietary industrial, technical and commercial information and techniques in any form including (without limitation) drawings, formulae, test results, reports, project reports and testing procedures, instruction and training manuals, tables of operating conditions, specifications, component lists, market forecasts, lists and particulars of customers and suppliers.

“Patent” means any patent, patent application, or utility model, whether filed before, on or after execution of this Service Agreement, along with any continuation, continuation-in-part, divisional, re-examined or re-issued patent, foreign counterpart or renewal or extension of any of the foregoing.

“Results” shall mean any outcome of the Services provided to the Purchaser under this Service Agreement (including but not limited to any IP, technology, software, methods, processes, deliverables, objects, products, documentation, modifications, improvements, and/or amendments to be carried out by the Service Provider under the Service Specification) and any other outcome or result of the Services to be performed by the Service Provider as described in the relevant Service Specification, irrespective of whether the performance of the Services has been completed or not.

“Service Agreement” means the Individual Terms including all of its Appendices and their Schedules as amended from time to time.

“Service Charges” means the service charges as set forth or referenced to in Appendix 1, the Service Specification.

“Service Specification” describes the Services to be provided by the Service Provider to the Purchaser hereunder including (if applicable) a time plan for the provision of the Services, which is included as Appendix 1 in this Service Agreement.

“Services” shall mean the services to be performed by the Service Provider to the Purchaser hereunder, including all services under the Appendices attached hereto.

“Territory” shall mean the territory defined in the Individual Terms.

“Third Party” means a party other than any of the Parties and/or an Affiliate of one of the Parties to this Service Agreement.

“Trademarks” means trademarks (including part numbers that are trademarks), service marks, logos, trade names, business names, assumed names, trade dress and get-up, and domain names, in each case whether registered or unregistered, including all applications, registrations, renewals and the like, in each case to the extent they constitute rights that are enforceable against Third Parties.

“Use” means to make, have made, use (including in a process, such as use in designing, engineering, testing or assembling products or in their research or development), keep, install, integrate, extract, assemble, reproduce, incorporate, create derivative works of, modify, adapt, improve, enhance, develop, service or repair, including in the case of installation, integration, assembly, service or repair, the right to have a subcontractor of any tier carry out any of these activities on behalf of the Parties in their capacity as a licensee hereunder.

The right to “have made” is the right of a Party in its capacity as a licensee hereunder, as applicable, to have another person (or their subcontractor of any tier) make for that Party and does not include the right to grant sub-licenses to another person to make for such person’s own use or use other than for that Party.

2. PROVISION OF SERVICES

2.1 Services

- 2.1.1 The Services to be performed under this Service Agreement are described in Appendix 1, the Service Specification, which shall be deemed an integrated part of this Service Agreement.
- 2.1.2 Subject to the terms and conditions herein, the Purchaser agrees to engage the Service Provider for the provision of, and Service 2.1.2 Provider agrees to perform, the Services.

2.2 Subcontractors

- 2.2.1 The Parties acknowledge that the Service Provider may use its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Service under this Service Agreement, provided that the Service Provider informs the Purchaser thereof.
- 2.2.2 The Service Provider shall however remain responsible for the performance, and any omission to perform or comply with the provisions of this Service Agreement, by any Affiliate to the Service Provider and/or any subcontractor to the same extent as if such performance or omission was made by the Service Provider itself. The Service Provider shall also remain the Purchaser’s sole point of contact unless otherwise agreed.

2.3 Relationship between the Parties

The Parties are acting as independent contractors when performing each Party’s respective obligations under the Service Agreement. Neither Party nor its Affiliates are agents for the other Party or its Affiliates and have no authority to represent them in relation to any matters. Nothing in these General Terms or the Service Agreement shall be construed as to constitute a partnership or joint venture between the Parties.

3. SERVICE REQUIREMENTS

- 3.1 AU Services shall be performed in accordance with the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement, including the Service Specification, and otherwise in a professional manner.
- 3.2 When providing the Service, the Service Provider shall use professional, appropriate, qualified and skilled personnel, and shall ensure that its personnel have been properly educated and trained for the Services to be performed, including being fully acquainted with the Purchaser's specific requirements. The Service Provider shall avoid unnecessary changes in the personnel engaged in performing its undertakings under this Service Agreement. The Service Provider shall work according to the same standard of care and professionalism that is done in the Service Provider's internal business and development projects. Such standard of care and professionalism, as well as the Service Provider's performance of its undertakings under this Service Agreement, shall however at all times correspond to Industry Standard. For the avoidance of doubt, the Service Provider is responsible for all necessary recruiting and hiring costs associated with employing appropriate personnel as well as all necessary training costs. It is acknowledged that the Service Charges shall adhere to the principles set forth in this Section 3.2.
- 3.3 The Service Provider acknowledges that time is of essence and the Service Provider agrees to strictly respect and adhere to the deadlines set out in the Service Specification, such as time limits, milestones and gates. In the event the Service Provider risks not to meet an agreed deadline or is otherwise in delay with the performance of the Services, the Service Provider shall inform the Purchaser of the reasons for and consequences of such delay, and shall take all steps reasonably necessary, including providing additional resources, in order to avoid the effects of the anticipated delay or the delay (as the case may be).
- 3.4 In the event the Services or any part thereof, more than insignificantly deviate from the requirements set forth in the Service Specification, or if the Service Provider otherwise does not meet or ceases to meet the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement (except for minor faults and defects, which do not affect the provision of the Services), the Service Provider shall remedy such non-compliance, fault or defect as soon as reasonably possible, at its own cost.
- 3.5 The Service Provider shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its undertakings under this Service Agreement. Further, the Service Provider undertakes to ensure that the performance of the Services will not be given lower priority than other of the Service Provider's internal similar projects.
- 3.6 The Service Provider shall at all times take due and proper care of the Goods, and may not use the Goods for any purpose other than to provide the Services as described in this Service Agreement.
- 3.7 In the event the Service Provider fails to act in accordance with Section 3.3-3.6 above, such failure shall be escalated in accordance with the escalation principles set forth in Section 17.1 and eventually give the Purchaser the right to terminate the Service Agreement in accordance with Section 14.4.
- 3.8 The Purchaser shall provide the Service Provider with instructions as reasonably required for the Service Provider to be able to carry out the Services. The Service Provider must continuously inform the Service Provider of any needs of additional instructions or specifications required to perform the Services.

4. DELIVERY OF THE GOODS

The Goods shall be delivered and transferred between the Service Provider and the Purchaser in accordance with the instructions set out in the Service Specification.

5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS5.1 Ownership of existing Intellectual Property Rights

5.1.1 Each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of its Background IP.

5.1.2 Nothing in this Service Agreement shall be deemed to constitute an assignment of, or license to use, any Trademarks of the other Party.

5.2 Ownership of Results

In the event any Results are created as a result of the Services provided by the Service Provider (or if applicable, any of its appointed Affiliates or subcontractors) under this Service Agreement, the Parties agree that the Service Provider shall be the exclusive owner of such Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof. Hence, all Results shall automatically upon their creation stay with the Service Provider. The Service Provider shall further have the right to transfer, sublicense, modify and otherwise freely dispose of the Results.

5.3 License grant

5.3.1 Upon creation of the Results, the Purchaser shall at the same time automatically be granted a non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any IP or Background IP included in the license described hereunder)), non-assignable (however assignable to the Purchaser's Affiliates), worldwide license to Use, in whole or in part, the Results and, if applicable, any Background IP embedded in or otherwise used in the development of the Results. The license granted in this Section 5.3.1 is limited to the extent such license is necessary for the Purchaser to make use of the Services provided hereunder and to enable an orderly transfer to another service provider after the termination and/or expiry of this Service Agreement.

5.3.2 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Service Agreement, nothing in these General Terms or otherwise in the Service Agreement shall be construed as to give the other Party any rights, including but not limited to any license rights (express or implied), to any Background IP, except as expressly stated herein.

5.4 Polstar brand name

5.4.1 For sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the "Polestar" brand name or Trademarks, or refer to "Polestar" in communications or official documents of whatever kind.

5.4.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Polestar" brand name or "Polestar" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence

5.5 Volvo brand name

- 5.5.1 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the “Volvo” brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to “Volvo” in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the “Volvo” Trademarks as well as the “Volvo” name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the “Volvo” Trademarks is subject to a service agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related Intellectual Property can only be used by Volvo Car Corporation and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.
- 5.5.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the “Volvo” brand name or “Volvo” Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

6. SERVICE CHARGES

In consideration of the Service Provider’s performance of the Services under this Service Agreement, the Purchaser agrees to pay to the Service Provider the Service Charges as set forth or referenced to in Appendix 1, the Service Specification.

7. PAYMENT TERMS

- 7.1 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency set forth in the Service Specification, in a timely manner and in accordance with the payment terms set forth in this Section 7.
- 7.2 All amounts and payments referred to in this Service Agreement are exclusive of VAT, and any other taxes, including but not limited to withholding tax and surcharges.
- 7.3 Any amount of the invoiced by the Service Provider to the Purchaser shall be paid by the Purchaser within thirty (30) days after receipt.
- 7.4 Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based on the one (1) month applicable interbank rate, depending on invoice and currency, with an addition of two per cent (2%) per annum.
- 7.5 Any paid portion of the Service Charges is non-refundable, with the exception set forth in the Individual Terms.

8. NO LIEN

- 8.1 Irrespective of whether compensation may have been paid by the Service Provider to the Purchaser in respect of lost, damaged, Or depreciated Goods, all Goods that are stored at the premises of the Service Provider or otherwise is in Service Provider’s possession shall at all times remain the property of the Purchaser for all purposes, and neither the Service Provider nor any creditor of the Service Provider shall have a lien On such Goods.
- 8.2 The Service Provider hereby waives any and all liens or other interests in such Goods it may have as a matter of law or otherwise, and any objection to the Purchaser’s repossession of the Goods for any or no reason.
- 8.3 The Service Provider shall return to Purchaser any and all Goods requested by the Purchaser as soon as reasonably practicable after such request. The Service Provider shall not sell, assign, loan, lease, borrow against, pledge or mortgage such goods and materials to any other person or entity.
- 8.4 All of the Purchaser’s Goods shall be clearly and prominently labelled as the Purchaser’s property and shall be maintained by the Service Provider in a designated area, segregated from other materials or products.

- 8.5 The Service Provider shall not represent to any person that such goods and materials are the Service Provider's own property or the property of a Third Party.
- 8.6 The Service Provider shall assign to the Purchaser any claims the Service Provider has or will have against Third Parties with respect to the Purchaser's Goods.
- 8.7 In case any of the Service Provider's sub-contractors asserts or attempts to assert a lien on the Goods, the Service Provider shall procure that such lien is discharged without delay, and shall indemnify the Purchaser for any damages or costs, including attorney's fees, incurred due to, or in defending against, such assertion or attempted assertion of lien.

9. AUDIT

- 9.1 During the term of the Service Agreement, the Purchaser shall have the right to, upon reasonable notice in writing to the Service Provider, inspect Service Provider's books and records related to the Services and the premises where the Services are performed, in order to conduct quality controls and otherwise verify the statements rendered under this Service Agreement.
- 9.2 Audits shall be made during regular business hours and be conducted by the Purchaser or by an independent auditor appointed by the Purchaser. Should Purchaser during any inspection find that the Service Provider or the Services does/do not fulfil the requirements set forth herein, the Purchaser is entitled to comment on the identified deviations. The Service Provider shall, upon notice from the Purchaser, take reasonable efforts to take the actions required in order to fulfil lite requirements. In the event the Parties cannot agree upon measures to be taken in respect of the audit, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.

10. WARRANTIES

- 10.1 Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:
- (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;
 - (b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Service Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;
 - (c) the execution, delivery and performance of this Service Agreement have been duly authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate any laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and
 - (d) this Service Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

11. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 11.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Service Agreement.
- 11.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement shall be limited to ten (10) percent of the Service Charges payable by Purchaser to the Service Provider hereunder.

11.3 The limitations of liability set forth in this Section 11 shall not apply in respect of damage;

- (a) caused by negligent misconduct or gross negligence, or
- (b) caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 13 below.

12. GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES

12.1 Governance

12.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Service Agreement as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Service Agreement.

12.1.2 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Service Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event the Parties on an operational level cannot agree upon inter alia the prioritisation of development activities or other aspects relating to the co-operation between the Parties, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.

12.1.3 If the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution of the disagreement the relevant issue should be escalated to the Strategic Board for decision.

12.2 Changes

12.2.1 During the term of this Service Agreement, the Purchaser can request changes to the Service Specification, which shall be handled in accordance with the governance procedure set forth in Section 12.1 above. Both Parties agree to act in good faith to address and respond to any change request within a reasonable period of time.

12.2.2 The Parties acknowledge that the Service Provider will not perform in accordance with such change request until agreed in writing between the Parties. For the avoidance of any doubt, until there is agreement about the requested change, all work shall continue in accordance with the existing Service Specification.

13. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

13.1 The Parties shall take any and all necessary measures to comply with the security and confidentiality procedures of the other Party.

13.2 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes comprised by the fulfilment of this Service Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Service Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 13.2 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or subcontractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:

(a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;

(b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;

(c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;

(d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;

(e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or

(f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.

13.3 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 13.

- 13.4 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as “Confidential,” “Proprietary” or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within thirty (30) days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as “Confidential,” “Proprietary” or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 13.5 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 13, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section 17.2 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 13.6 This confidentiality provision shall survive the expiration or termination of this Service Agreement without limitation in time.

14. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 14.1 This Service Agreement shall become effective when the Individual Terms are signed by duly authorised signatories of each Party and shall remain in force until terminated in accordance with this Section 14 below.
- 14.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in the event;
- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Service Agreement, which has not been remedied within thirty (30) days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
 - (b) if the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.
- 14.3 For avoidance of doubt, Polestar not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, shall be considered a material breach for the purpose of this Service Agreement.
- 14.4 Furthermore, Purchaser is entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in case the Service Provider acts in breach, which is not insignificant, of what is set forth in Section 3.3-3.6 provided that the issue first has been escalated in accordance with Section 17.1.
- 14.5 The Purchaser shall in addition be entitled to cancel the Services performed by the Service Provider for convenience upon thirty (30) days written notice to the Service Provider.
- 14.6 Either Party shall in addition be entitled to terminate the Service Agreement for convenience upon six (6) months’ written notice to the other Party.
- 14.7 In the event the Purchaser cancels the Services or terminates the Service Agreement in accordance with Section 14.5 or Section 14.6 above, the Service Charges shall, in addition to what is set out in the Individual Terms, include any other reasonable proven costs Service Provider has incurred until the effective date of the cancellation and/or termination.

15. MISCELLANEOUS15.1 Force majeure

15.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under the Service Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A “Force Majeure Event” means any event beyond a Party’s reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party’s), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors.

15.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under the Service Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its nonperformance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

15.2 Notices

All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Service Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, facsimile, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:

- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
- (b) if sent by facsimile or email transmission, at the time and on the date indicated on a confirmation of successful transmission page relating to such facsimile transmission or at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
- (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
- (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods. All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be addressed to the address, and with the attention, as set forth in the Individual Terms, or to such other address, number or email address as a Party may designate.

15.3 Assignment

Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Service Agreement without the other Party’s prior written consent.

15.4 Waiver

Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Service Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Service Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the Service Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.

15.5 Severability

In the event any provision of this Service Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Service Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Service Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Service Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.

15.6 Entire agreement

All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Service Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Service Agreement are superseded by this Service Agreement and its Appendices.

15.7 Amendments

Any amendment or addition to this Service Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.

15.8 Survival

15.8.1 If this Service Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 5.3 (License grant), Section 13 (Confidentiality), Section 16 (Governing Law), Section 17 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 15.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.

15.8.2 Notwithstanding Section 15.8.1 above, if this Service Agreement is terminated due to the Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 5.3 (License Grant) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination.

16. GOVERNING LAW

This Service Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Service Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of:

- (a) the People's Republic of China, if all Parties are entities incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China; and
- (b) Sweden, if any Party is not an entity incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China, without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

17.1 Escalation principles

- 17.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten (10) days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.
- 17.1.2 The members of the Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on the terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 17.1.3 If the Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within thirty (30) days from the deadlock notice served pursuant to Section 17.1.1 above, such deadlock will be referred to the General Counsels of each Party, which shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve the situation in the same way as indicated above. If no Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the General Counsels of each Party immediately and Section 17.1.2 above shall not apply.
- 17.1.4 If the General Counsels cannot settle the deadlock within thirty (30) days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the Strategic Board for decision. Should the matter not have been resolved by the Strategic Board within thirty (30) days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 17.2 below.
- 17.1.5 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 13 above.
- 17.1.6 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 17.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the Strategic Board in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

17.2 Arbitration

- 17.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall:
- (a) if all Parties are entities incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China, be submitted to China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Committee ("CIETAC") for arbitration, which shall be held in Shanghai and conducted in accordance with the CIETAC's arbitration rules in effect at the time of applying for arbitration, whereas the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English and Chinese; and
 - (b) if any Party is not an entity incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China, be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, whereas the seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English, and the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.
- 17.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Service Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 17.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Service Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 17.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

AMENDMENT AGREEMENT

Certain identified information marked with "[]" has been omitted from this document because it is both (i) not material and (ii) the type that the registrant treats as private or confidential.

This Amendment Agreement to the Service Agreement ("Amendment") is between Zhongjia Automobile Manufacturing (Chengdu) Co., Ltd., Reg. No. 91510112562005858U, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of China ("Volvo Cars") and Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co. Ltd., AB, Reg. No. 91510100MA6BX1H33P, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of China ("Polestar").

Each of Volvo Cars and Polestar is hereinafter referred to as a "Party" and jointly as the "Parties".

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have determined that the Service Provider shall provide to Purchaser certain Services. The provision of the Services were to be performed in accordance with the terms of the Service Agreement and its appendices for electrocoating of the Polestar 1 vehicle, signed 19 Aug 2018 (the "Service Agreement").
- B. The Parties now wish to amend the Agreement to the extent set out below.
- C. Now, therefore, the Parties agree as follows:

1. SCOPE OF AMENDMENT

- 1.1 The Agreement will be deemed amended to the extent herein provided and will, except as specifically amended, continue in full force and effect in accordance with its original terms. In case of any discrepancy between the provisions of this Amendment and the Agreement, the provisions of this Amendment shall prevail. Any definitions used in this Amendment shall, unless otherwise is stated herein, have the respective meanings set forth in the Agreement.
- 1.2 The amendments to the provisions in the Agreement as stated in Section 2 below, such provisions highlighted for ease of reference in bold italics, shall come into force on the date this Amendment is signed by the last Party to sign it (as indicated by the date associated with that Party's signature).

2. AMENDMENTS

- 2.1 Appendix 1 to the Agreement shall be replaced its entirety by Appendix 1 attached to this Amendment.

3. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 3.1 This Amendment is and should be regarded and interpreted as an amendment to the Agreement. The validity of this Amendment is therefore dependent upon the validity of the Agreement.
- 3.2 No amendment of this Amendment will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by both Parties. A waiver of any default is not a waiver of any later default and will not affect the validity of this Amendment.

- 3.3 Sections 16 Governing Law and Section 17 Dispute Resolution of the Agreement's Appendix 2 shall apply to this Amendment as well.
- 3.4 The Parties acknowledge that this Agreement shall be binding upon the Parties already upon the signing and exchange of scanned versions thereof, including scanned signatures.

- 7.4 The Service Charges should be reviewed, updated and agreed between the Parties on an annual basis, based on the latest available benchmarking study.

AMENDMENT AGREEMENT

This Amendment Agreement to the Service Agreement (“Amendment”) is between Zhongjia Automobile Manufacturing (Chengdu) Co., Ltd., Reg. No. 91510112562005858U, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of China (“Volvo Cars”) and Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co. Ltd., AB, Reg. No. 91510100MA6BX1H33P, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of China (“Polestar”).

Each of Volvo Cars and Polestar is hereinafter referred to as a “Party” and jointly as the “Parties”.

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have determined that the Service Provider shall provide to Purchaser certain Services. The provision of the Services were to be performed in accordance with the terms of the Service Agreement and its appendices for electrocoating of the Polestar 1 vehicle, signed 19 Aug 2018 (the “Service Agreement”).
- B. The Parties now wish to amend the Agreement to the extent set out below.
- C. Now, therefore, the Parties agree as follows:

1. SCOPE OF AMENDMENT

- 1.1 The Agreement will be deemed amended to the extent herein provided and will, except as specifically amended, continue in full force and effect in accordance with its original terms. In case of any discrepancy between the provisions of this Amendment and the Agreement, the provisions of this Amendment shall prevail. Any definitions used in this Amendment shall, unless otherwise is stated herein, have the respective meanings set forth in the Agreement.
- 1.2 The amendments to the provisions in the Agreement as stated in Section 2 below, such provisions highlighted for ease of reference in bold italics, shall come into force on the date this Amendment is signed by the last Party to sign it (as indicated by the date associated with that Party’s signature).

2. AMENDMENTS

- 2.1 Appendix 1 to the Agreement shall be replaced its entirety by Appendix 1 attached to this Amendment.

3. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 3.1 This Amendment is and should be regarded and interpreted as an amendment to the Agreement. The validity of this Amendment is therefore dependent upon the validity of the Agreement.
- 3.2 No amendment of this Amendment will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by both Parties. A waiver of any default is not a waiver of any later default and will not affect the validity of this Amendment.
- 3.3 Sections 16 Governing Law and Section 17 Dispute Resolution of the Agreement’s Appendix 2 shall apply to this Amendment as well.
- 3.4 The Parties acknowledge that this Agreement shall be binding upon the Parties already upon the signing and exchange of scanned versions thereof, including scanned signatures.

SERVICE AGREEMENT
MAIN DOCUMENT

Name of Project: Polestar 1 vehicles, update services at ESDIC in Gent Belgium

This Service Agreement is between Volvo Car Belgium NV, Ltd., Reg. No. 0420.383.548, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Belgium ("Service Provider"), and Polestar Performance AB, Reg. No. 556653-3096, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Sweden ("Purchaser").

Each of Service Provider and Purchaser is hereinafter referred to as a "Party" and jointly as the "Parties".

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have determined that Service Provider shall provide to Purchaser certain Services (as defined in the General Terms), which are further described in the Service Specification in Appendix 1. The provision of the Services shall be performed in accordance with the terms in this service agreement and its appendices (the "Service Agreement").
- B. Purchaser now wishes to enter into this Service Agreement for the purpose of receiving the Services and Service Provider wishes to provide the Services in accordance with the terms set forth in this Service Agreement.
- C. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Service Agreement.

AGREEMENT

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This Service Agreement consists of this main document (the "Main Document") and its appendices. This Main Document sets out the specific terms in respect of the provision of the Services, whereas Appendix 2 sets out certain general terms and conditions applicable to the Parties' rights, obligations and performance of the Parties' activities hereunder (the "General Terms").
- 1.2 All capitalized terms used, but not specifically defined in this Main Document, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the General Terms.

2. SERVICE SPECIFICATION

- 2.1 The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification for the Services as specified in the Service Specification in Appendix 1.

3. AFFILIATE

3.1 Affiliate shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the following meaning;

“Affiliate” means any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by or is under common control with Volvo Car Belgium NV, Ltd. or Polestar Performance AB and control means the possession, directly or indirectly, by agreement or otherwise, of (i) at least 50% of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest, or (ii) the power (a) to appoint or remove a majority of the board of directors or other governing body of an entity, or (b) to cause the direction of the management of an entity.

4. SERVICE CHARGES

4.1 In consideration of Service Provider’s performance of the Services under this Service Agreement, Purchaser shall to pay to Service Provider the service charges as further described below (the “Service Charges”).

4.2 The Service Charges for the Services will be based on the estimated hours for the Services to be performed by Service Provider as set forth in the Service Specification in Appendix 1 and the hourly rate[]. The Parties acknowledge that the estimated Service Charges set forth in the Service Specification in Appendix 1, are based on an estimation of the amount of hours required for the performance of the Services and that this estimation may differ from the final actual number of hours charged by Service Provider. Hence, the Service Charges will ultimately be invoiced based on actual hours, not on estimated hours.

4.3 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency: EUR

4.4 The hourly rates that are used to calculate the Service Charges shall be determined by Service Provider on an annual basis in compliance with applicable tax legislation, including but not limited to the principle of “arm’s length distance” between the Parties. The hourly rates shall be calculated using the cost plus method, i.e. full cost incurred plus an arm’s length mark-up. All costs Service Provider has in order to perform the Services shall be reimbursed by Purchaser.

5. PAYMENT

5.1 If Service Provider, pursuant to the General Terms, appoints its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, Service Provider shall include the costs relating to such work in the invoices to Purchaser.

5.2 The actual Service Charges shall be invoiced on a monthly basis at the end of each month and paid by Purchaser in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms.

6. GOVERNANCE FORUM

6.1 The Parties agree that governance in respect of this Service Agreement shall be handled in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms in Appendix 2. When reference is made to a relevant governance forum, it shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the meaning set out below in this Section 6.

6.2 The first level of governance forum for handling the co-operation between the Parties in various matters, handling management, prioritisation of development activities etc. under

SERVICE AGREEMENT
APPENDIX-2
GENERAL TERMS

1. BACKGROUND

This Appendix 2, General Terms-Service Agreement, (the “General Terms”) is an Appendix to the Main Document and is an integrated part of the Service Agreement entered into between the Parties.

2. DEFINITIONS

2.1 For the purpose of these General Terms, the following terms shall have the meanings assigned to them below. All capitalized terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa. Any capitalized terms used, but not specifically defined below in this Section 2, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Main Document.

2.2 “Appendix” means an appendix to the Main Document.

2.3 “Background IP” means the Intellectual Property Rights either:

- (a) owned by either of the Parties;
- (b) created, developed or invented by directors, managers, employees or consultants of either of the Parties to which the Party has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sublicense;
- (c) to which the Party has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sublicense

prior to the execution of this Service Agreement, and any Intellectual Property Rights developed or otherwise acquired independently of this Service Agreement.

2.4 “Confidential Information” means any and all non-public information regarding the Parties and their respective businesses, whether commercial or technical, in whatever form or media, including but not limited to the existence, content and subject matter of this Service Agreement, information relating to Intellectual Property Rights, concepts, technologies, processes, commercial figures, techniques, algorithms, formulas, methodologies, knowhow, strategic plans and budgets, investments, customers and sales, designs, graphics, CAD models, CAE data, statement of works (including engineering statement of works and any high level specification), targets, test plans/reports, technical performance data and engineering sign-off documents and other information of a sensitive nature, that a Party learns from or about the other Party prior to or after the execution of this Service Agreement.

2.5 “Disclosing Party” means the Party disclosing Confidential Information to the Receiving Party.

- 2.6 “EU Data Protection Laws” shall mean collectively, any applicable data protection, privacy or similar law generally applicable to the processing of personal data, including but not limited to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation) and any act or piece of national legislation implementing, supporting or otherwise incorporating said regulation, including any amendment made to any of the foregoing.
- 2.7 “Force Majeure Event” shall have the meaning set out in Section 15.1.
- 2.8 “Industry Standard” means the exercise of such professionalism, skill, diligence, prudence and foresight that would normally be expected at any given time from a skilled and experienced actor engaged in a similar type of undertaking as under this Service Agreement.
- 2.9 “Intellectual Property Rights” or “IP” means Patents, Non-patented IP, rights in Confidential Information and Know-How to the extent protected under applicable laws anywhere in the world. For the avoidance of doubt, Trademarks are not comprised by this definition.
- 2.10 “Know-How” means confidential and proprietary industrial, technical and commercial information and techniques in any form including (without limitation) drawings, formulae, test results, reports, project reports and testing procedures, instruction and training manuals, tables of operating conditions, specifications, component lists, market forecasts, lists and particulars of customers and suppliers.
- 2.11 “Main Document” means the contract document (with the heading “Main Document - Service Agreement”), which is signed by Service Provider and Purchaser, to which these General Terms are an Appendix.
- 2.12 “Non-patented IP” means copyrights (including rights in computer software), database rights, semiconductor topography rights, rights in designs, and other intellectual property rights (other than Trademarks and Patents) and all rights or forms of protection having equivalent or similar effect anywhere in the world, in each case whether registered or unregistered, and registered includes registrations, applications for registration and renewals whether made before, on or after execution of this Service Agreement.
- 2.13 “Patent” means any patent, patent application, or utility model, whether filed before, on or after execution of this Service Agreement, along with any continuation, continuation-in-part, divisional, re-examined or re-issued patent, foreign counterpart or renewal or extension of any of the foregoing.
- 2.14 “Receiving Party” means the Party receiving Confidential Information from the Disclosing Party.
- 2.15 “Results” shall mean any outcome of the Services provided to Purchaser under this Service Agreement (including but not limited to any IP, technology, software, methods, processes, deliverables, objects, products, documentation, modifications, improvements, and/or amendments to be carried out by Service Provider under the Service Specification) and any other outcome or result of the Services to be performed by Service Provider as described in the relevant Service Specification, irrespective of whether the performance of the Services has been completed or not.
- 2.16 “Services” shall mean the services to be performed by Service Provider to Purchaser hereunder, including all services under the Appendices attached hereto.
- 2.17 “Service Agreement” means the Main Document including all of its Appendices and their Schedules as amended from time to time.
- 2.18 “Service Charges” means the service charges as set forth or referenced to in the Main Document.

- 2.19 “Service Specification” describes the Services to be provided by Service Provider to Purchaser hereunder including (if applicable) a time plan for the provision of the Services, which is included as Appendix 1 in this Service Agreement.
- 2.20 “Third Party” means a party other than any of the Parties and/or an Affiliate of one of the Parties to this Service Agreement.
- 2.21 “Trademarks” means trademarks (including part numbers that are trademarks), service marks, logos, trade names, business names, assumed names, trade dress and get-up, and domain names, in each case whether registered or unregistered, including all applications, registrations, renewals and the like, in each case to the extent they constitute rights that are enforceable against Third Parties.
- 2.22 “Use” means to make, have made, use (including in a process, such as use in designing, engineering, testing or assembling products or in their research or development), keep, install, integrate, extract, assemble, reproduce, incorporate, create derivative works of, modify, adapt, improve, enhance, develop, service or repair, including in the case of installation, integration, assembly, service or repair, the right to have a subcontractor of any tier carry out any of these activities on behalf of the Parties in their capacity as a licensee hereunder.
- 2.23 The right to “have made” Is the right of a Party in its capacity as a licensee hereunder, as applicable, to have another person (or their subcontractor of any tier) make for that Party and does not include the right to grant sublicenses to another person to make for such person’s own use or use other than for that Party.

3. PROVISION OF SERVICES

- 3.1 Service Specification. The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification of the Services provided under this Service Agreement in the Service Specification.
- 3.2 Service Recipients. In addition to Purchaser, all of Purchaser’s Affiliates shall be entitled to receive and use the Services under this Service Agreement. Nevertheless, Purchaser shall be Service Provider’s sole point of contact and shall be responsible for payment of the Service Charges as set forth in this Service Agreement, irrespectively of whether it is Purchaser or any of Purchaser’s Affiliates that in reality received and used the Services.
- 3.3 Subcontractors.
- 3.3.1 The Parties acknowledge that Service Provider may use its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, provided that Service Provider informs Purchaser thereof.

- 3.3.2 Service Provider shall, however remain responsible for the performance, and any omission to perform or comply with the provisions of this Service Agreement, by any Affiliate to Service Provider and/or any subcontractor to the same extent as if such performance or omission was made by Service Provider itself. Service Provider shall also remain Purchaser's sole point of contact unless otherwise agreed.
- 3.4 Relationship between the Parties. The Parties are acting as independent contractors when performing each Party's respective obligations under the Service Agreement. Neither Party nor its Affiliates are agents for the other Party or its Affiliates and have no authority to represent them in relation to any matters. Nothing in these General Terms or the Service Agreement shall be construed as to constitute a partnership or joint venture between the Parties.
4. SERVICE REQUIREMENTS
- 4.1 All Services shall be performed in accordance with the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement, including the Service Specification, and otherwise in a professional manner.
- 4.2 When providing the Services, Service Provider shall use professional and skilled personnel, reasonably experienced for the Services to be performed. Service Provider shall work according to the same standard of care and professionalism that is done in Service Provider's internal business and development projects. Such standard of care and professionalism, shall however at all times correspond to Industry Standard. For the avoidance of doubt, Service Provider is responsible for all necessary recruiting and hiring costs associated with employing appropriate personnel as well as all necessary training costs.
- 4.3 Service Provider acknowledges that time is of essence and Service Provider agrees to strictly respect and adhere to the deadlines set out in the Service Specification in Appendix 1, such as time limits, milestones and gates. In the event Service Provider risks not to meet an agreed deadline or is otherwise in delay with the performance of the Services, Service Provider shall appoint additional resources in order to avoid the effects of the anticipated delay or the delay (as the case may be).
- 4.4 In the event the Services or any part thereof, more than insignificantly deviate from the requirements set forth in the Service Specification, or if Service Provider otherwise does not meet or ceases to meet the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement (except for minor faults and defects, which do not affect the provision of the Services), Service Provider shall remedy such noncompliance, fault or defect as soon as reasonably possible.
- 4.5 In the event Service Provider fails to act in accordance with Section 4.3 and 4.4 above, such failure shall be escalated in accordance with the escalation principles set forth in Section 17.1 and eventually give Purchaser the right to terminate the Service Agreement in accordance with Section 14.4.
- 4.6 Purchaser shall provide Service Provider with instructions as reasonably required for Service Provider to be able to carry out the Services. Service Provider must continuously inform Purchaser of any needs of additional instructions or specifications required to perform the Services.
- 4.7 Service Provider shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its undertakings under this Service Agreement. Further, Service Provider undertakes to ensure that the performance of the Services will not be given lower priority than other of Service Provider's internal similar projects.

5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

5-1 Ownership of existing Intellectual Property Rights.

5.1.1 Each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of its Background IP.

5.1.2 Nothing in this Service Agreement shall be deemed to constitute an assignment of, or license to use, any Trademarks of the other Party.

5.2 Ownership of Results, in the event any Results are created as a result of the Services provided by Service Provider (or if applicable, any of its appointed Affiliates or subcontractors) under this Service Agreement, the Parties agree that Service Provider shall be the exclusive owner of such Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof. Hence, all Results shall automatically upon their creation stay with Service Provider. Service Provider shall further have the right to transfer, sublicense, modify and otherwise freely dispose of the Results.

5.3 License grant.

5.3.1 Upon creation of the Results, Purchaser shall at the same time automatically be granted a non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any IP or Background IP included in the license described hereunder)), non-assignable (however assignable to Purchaser's Affiliates), worldwide license to Use, in whole or in part, the Results and, if applicable, any Background IP embedded in or otherwise used in the development of the Results. The license granted in this Section 5.3.1 is limited to the extent such license is necessary for Purchaser to make use of the Services provided hereunder and to enable an orderly transfer to another service provider after the termination and/or expiry of this Service Agreement.

5.3.2 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Service Agreement, nothing in these General Terms or otherwise in the Service Agreement shall be construed as to give the other Party any rights, including but not limited to any license rights (express or implied), to any Background IP, except as expressly stated herein.

5.4 Volvo brand name.

5.4.1 For the sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the "Volvo" brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to "Volvo" in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the "Volvo" Trademarks as well as the "Volvo" name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the "Volvo" Trademarks is subject to a service agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related Intellectual Property can only be used by Volvo Car Corporation and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.

5.4.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Volvo" brand name or "Volvo" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

5.4.3 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the "Polestar" brand name or Trademarks, or refer to "Polestar" in communications or official documents of whatever kind.

5.4.4 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the “Polestar” brand name or “Polestar” Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

6. SERVICE CHARGES

- 6.1 In consideration of Service Provider’s performance of the Services under this Service Agreement, Purchaser agrees to pay to Service Provider the Service Charges as set forth or referenced to in the Main Document.

7. PAYMENT TERMS

- 7.1 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency set forth in the Main Document, in a timely manner and in accordance with the payment terms set forth in this Section 7.
- 7.2 Service Provider is responsible for charging and declaring sales tax/VAT or other taxes as follow from applicable law. Any applicable sales tax/VAT on the agreed price will be included in the invoices and paid by Purchaser. All amounts referred to in this Service Agreement are exclusive of VAT.
- 7.3 If Service Provider is obligated to collect or pay taxes, such taxes shall be invoiced to Purchaser, unless Purchaser provides a valid tax exemption certificate authorized by the appropriate Tax Authority. If Purchaser is required by law to withhold any taxes from its payments Purchaser must provide an official tax receipt or other appropriate documentation to support this withholding. Any amount of the invoiced by Service Provider to Purchaser shall be paid by Purchaser within 30 days after the invoice date.
- 7.4 Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based on the one month applicable interbank rate, depending on invoice and currency, with an addition of two per cent (2.0%) per annum.
- 7.5 Any paid portion of the Service Charges is non-refundable, with the exception set forth in the Main Document.

8. AUDIT

- 8.1 During the term of the Service Agreement, Purchaser shall have the right to, upon reasonable notice in writing to Service Provider, inspect Service Provider’s books and records related to the Services and the premises where the Services are performed, in order to conduct quality controls and otherwise verify the statements rendered under this Service Agreement.

- 8.2 Audits shall be made during regular business hours and be conducted by Purchaser or by an independent auditor appointed by Purchaser. Should Purchaser during any inspection find that Service Provider or the Services does/do not fulfil the requirements set forth herein, Purchaser is entitled to comment on the identified deviations. Service Provider shall, upon notice from Purchaser, take reasonable efforts to take the actions required in order to fulfil the requirements. In the event the Parties cannot agree upon measures to be taken in respect of the audit, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.

9. REPRESENTATIONS

9.1 Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:

- (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;
- (b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Service Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;
- (c) the execution, delivery and performance of this Service Agreement have been duly authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate any laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and
- (d) this Service Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

10. SERVICE WARRANTY

10.1 When performing the Services, Service Provider shall provide professional and skilled personnel, reasonably experienced for the Services to be performed at the best of their knowledge.

10.2 Service Provider provides the Services "as is". Service Provider does neither warrant nor represent that any Services, provided or delivered to Purchaser hereunder are functional for the business needs of Purchaser or otherwise suitable for any specific purpose, nor that the Services, are not infringing any Intellectual Property of any third party. Service Provider does neither give any representations or warranties as regards the merchantability of the deliverables to be delivered hereunder nor any other representations or warranties of any kind whatsoever concerning the Services. Purchaser acknowledges that the price of the Services to be performed and other deliverables to be delivered by Service Provider are set in consideration of the foregoing.

10.3 Service Provider shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to Purchaser's use of the Services notify Purchaser of such claim in writing and Purchaser shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the third party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. Purchaser shall at all times keep Service Provider informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with Service Provider on appropriate actions to take. If Purchaser fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend Service Provider within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, Service Provider shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/ or over any settlement negotiation at Purchaser's cost. Any settlement proposed by Purchaser on its own account must take account of potential implications for Service Provider and shall therefore be agreed with Service Provider before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

11. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 11.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Service Agreement.
- 11.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement shall be limited to 30% of the total Service Charges payable by Purchaser to Service Provider hereunder.
- 11.3 The limitations of liability set forth in this Section 11 shall not apply in respect of:
- (a) claims related to death or bodily injury;
 - (b) damage caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence;
 - (c) damage caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 13 below; or
 - (d) damage arising out of an infringement, or alleged infringement, of the other Party's or any third party's Intellectual Property.

12. GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES

12.1 Governance.

- 12.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Service Agreement as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Service Agreement.
- 12.1.2 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Service Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event the Parties on an operational level cannot agree upon inter alia the prioritisation of development activities or other aspects relating to the co-operation between the Parties, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.
- 12.1.3 If the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution of the disagreement the relevant issue should be escalated to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO at Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. for decision.

12.2 Changes.

- 12.3 During the term of this Service Agreement, Purchaser can request changes to the Service Specification, which shall be handled in accordance with the governance procedure set forth in Section 12.1 above. Both Parties agree to act in good faith to address and respond to any change request within a reasonable period of time.
- 12.4 The Parties acknowledge that Service Provider will not perform in accordance with such change request until agreed in writing between the Parties. For the avoidance of any doubt, until there is agreement about the requested change, all work shall continue in accordance with the existing Service Specification.

13. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 13.1 The Parties shall take any and all necessary measures to comply with the security and confidentiality procedures of the other Party.
- 13.2 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes comprised by the fulfilment of this Service Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Service Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 13.2 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or sub-contractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:
- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
 - (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
 - (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
 - (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;
 - (e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and use of its Intellectual Property Rights; of
 - (f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.
- 13.3 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 13.
- 13.4 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within 30 days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 13.5 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 13, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section 17.2 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 13.6 For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 13 does not permit disclosure of source code to software, and/or any substantial parts of design documents to software, included in the Results, to any Third Party, notwithstanding what it set forth above in this Section 13. Any such disclosure to any Third Party is permitted only if approved in writing by Service Provider.
- 13.7 This confidentiality provision shall survive the expiration or termination of this Service Agreement without limitation in time.

14. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 14.1 This Service Agreement shall become effective when the Main Document is signed by duly authorised signatories of each Party and shall, unless terminated in accordance with this Section 14 below, remain in force until the Services are completed.
- 14.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in the event:
- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Service Agreement, which has not been remedied within 30 days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
 - (b) if the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.
- 14.3 For avoidance of doubt, Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, shall be considered in material breach for the purpose of this Service Agreement.
- 14.4 Furthermore, Purchaser is entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in case Service Provider acts in breach, which is not insignificant, of what is set forth in Section 4.3 and 4.4 provided that the issue first has been escalated in accordance with Section 17.1.
- 14.5 Purchaser shall in addition be entitled to cancel the Services performed by Service Provider for convenience upon 30 days written notice to Service Provider.
- 14.6 In the event Purchaser cancels the Services in accordance with Section 14.5 above, the Service Charges shall, in addition to what is set out in the Main Document, include any other reasonable proven costs Service Provider has incurred until the effective date of the cancellation.
- 14.7 Either Party shall in addition be entitled to terminate the Service Agreement for convenience upon 60 days written notice to the other Party.

15. MISCELLANEOUS

15.1 Force majeure.

- 15.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under the Service Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A “Force Majeure Event” means any event beyond a Party’s reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party’s), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors if such default or delay has been caused by a Force Majeure Event.

- 15.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under the Service Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its nonperformance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.
- 15.2 Notices. All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Service Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:
- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
 - (b) if sent by email transmission, at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
 - (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
 - (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods. All such notices, demands, request and other communications shall be addressed to the address, and with the attention, as set forth in the Main Document, or to such other address, number or email address as a Party may designate,

15.3 Assignment.

- 15.3.1 Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Service Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.
- 15.3.2 Notwithstanding the above, each Party may assign this Service Agreement to an Affiliate without the prior written consent of the other Party.
- 15.4 Waiver. Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Service Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Service Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the Service Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.
- 15.5 Severability. In the event any provision of this Service Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Service Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Service Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Service Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.

15.6 Entire agreement. All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Service Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Service Agreement are superseded by this Service Agreement and its Appendices.

15.7 Amendments. Any amendment or addition to this Service Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.

15.8 Survival.

15.8.1 If this Service Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 5.3 (License grant), Section 13 (Confidentiality), Section 16 (Governing Law), Section 17 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 15.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.

15.8.2 Notwithstanding Section 15.8.1 above, if this Service Agreement is terminated due to Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 5.3 (License Grant) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination. For the avoidance of doubt, what is stated in this Section 15.8.2 shall only apply in relation to such licenses granted to Purchaser pursuant to Section 5.3 above and any licenses granted to Service Provider under Section 5.3 shall thus nevertheless remain in force after such termination.

16. GOVERNING LAW

This Service Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Service Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of Belgium without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

17.1 Escalation principles.

17.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten days of receipt, prepare and Circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.

17.1.2 The members of the Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.

17.1.3 If the Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice served pursuant to Section 17.1.1 above, such deadlock will be referred to the CEO's of each Party, which shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve the situation in the same way as indicated above. If no Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the CEO's of each Party immediately and Section 17.1.2 above shall not apply.

- 17.1.4 If the CEO's of each Party cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO at Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. for decision. Should the matter not have been resolved by the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO at Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. within 30 days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 17.2 below.
- 17.1.5 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 13 above.
- 17.1.6 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 17.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO at Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

17.2 Arbitration.

- 17.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Belgian Centre for Arbitration and Mediation (Cepani), whereas the seat of arbitration shall be Gent, Belgium, the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English, and the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.
- 17.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 17.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 17.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

AMENDMENT AGREEMENT

This Amendment Agreement to the Service Agreement ("Amendment") is between Volvo Car Belgium NV, Ltd., Reg. No. 0420.383.548, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Belgium ("Volvo Cars") and Polestar Performance AB, Reg. No. 556653-3096, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Sweden ("Polestar").

Each Of Volvo Cars and Polestar is hereinafter referred to as a "Party" and jointly as the "Parties".

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have determined that the Service Provider shall provide to Purchaser certain Services. The provision of the Services were to be performed in accordance with the terms of the ESD1C PSI service agreement and its appendices, signed 3 Dec 2019 (the "Service Agreement").
- B. The Parties now wish to amend the Agreement to the extent set out below.
- C. Now, therefore, the Parties agree as follows:

1. SCOPE OF AMENDMENT

- 1.1 The Agreement will be deemed amended to the extent herein provided and will, except as specifically amended, continue in full force and effect in accordance with its original terms. In case of any discrepancy between the provisions of this Amendment and the Agreement, the provisions of this Amendment shall prevail. Any definitions used in this Amendment shall, unless otherwise is stated herein, have the respective meanings set forth in the Agreement.
- 1.2 The amendments to the provisions in the Agreement as stated, in Section 2 below, such provisions highlighted for ease of reference in bold italics, shall come into force on the date this Amendment is signed by the last Party to sign it (as indicated by the date associated with that Party's signature).

2. AMENDMENTS

- 2.1 Main Document of the Agreement, the Name of Project will be replaced to "Polestar Vehicles, update services at ESDIC in Gent, Belgium".
- 2.2 Appendix 1 to the Agreement shall be replaced its entirety by Appendix 1 attached to this Amendment.

3. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 3.1 This Amendment is and should be regarded and interpreted as an amendment to the Agreement. The validity of this Amendment is therefore dependent upon the validity of the Agreement.

- 3.2 No amendment of this Amendment will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by both Parties. A waiver of any default is not a waiver of any later default and will not affect the validity of this Amendment.
- 3.3 Sections 16 Governing Law and Section 17 Dispute Resolution of the Agreement's Appendix 2 shall apply to this Amendment as well.
- 3.4 The Parties acknowledge that this Agreement shall be binding upon the Parties already upon the signing and exchange of scanned versions thereof, including scanned signatures.

SERVICE AGREEMENT
APPENDIX 1
SERVICE SPECIFICATION

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This Service Specification is a part of the Service Agreement executed between Service Provider and Purchaser. This Service Specification sets out the scope and the specification of the activities that shall be performed under the Service Agreement, the division of responsibilities between Service Provider and Purchaser and the applicable time plan for the performance of the activities.

2. DEFINITIONS

- 2.1 Any capitalised terms used but not specifically defined herein shall have the meanings set out for such terms in the Main Document.

3. GENERAL DESCRIPTION

- 3.1 The Parties have agreed that the Service Provider will perform services on Polestar vehicles at ESDIC.

4. DESCRIPTION OF THE SERVICE ACTIVITIES

- 4.1 Examples of services performed on Polestar vehicles

- Arrival + unloading of cars
- Inspection for transport damages
- Adjustments, replacements of components and other corrections.
- Software download
- Test all functionalities, test driving
- Final inspection and clean up
- Ensure full vehicle cover
- Administration and delivery to next destination.

Volvo will not take any engineering or quality responsibility for the re-build vehicles apart from workmanship at ESDIC.

The detailed specification of service per vehicle to be agreed in separate Service Requests over time. A Service Request can be submitted by Polestar to the already established SharePoint site. The Service Request will be investigated for consequences of technology, time plan, cost and resources. A quotation will be presented to Polestar for decision. Polestar then decides, based on the quotation presented in the SharePoint site, if the service request will be performed. The Parties acknowledge that Volvo Cars will not perform in accordance with a Service Request until the quotation is agreed in writing between the Parties.

A Service Request sent in by Polestar may also be denied, if the request is deemed unable to be realized due to for instance technical consequences, time schedule or lack of resources.

5. TIMING AND DELIVERABLES

5.1 The activities shall commence on [] and end no later than []

6. ESTIMATED HOURS

6.1 The Parties acknowledge that the required time per vehicle to perform the Services is defined, agreed and documented in the Service Request SharePoint site. It is both Parties understanding that eight hours constitute one working day.

Certain identified information marked with “[]” has been omitted from this document because it is both (i) not material and (ii) the type that the registrant treats as private or confidential.

COMPONENT SUPPLY AGREEMENT

This Component Supply Agreement (the “Agreement”) is entered into on the date indicated below and made between:

- (1) Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co., Ltd., a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of China (“PSJV”); and
- (2) Zhejiang Haoqing Automobile Manufacturing Co., Ltd. Chengdu Branch, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of China (“Haoqing”).

Each of PSJV and Haoqing is hereinafter referred to as a “Party” and, jointly, as the “Parties”.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, PSJV manufactures and Haoqing assembles the components for Polestar branded vehicles (“Components”), and have the necessary experience, expertise, and property, plant, and equipment to do so.

WHEREAS, Haoqing may, from time to time, buy from PSJV such Components for assembly into Polestar Branded Vehicles.

WHEREAS, the Parties intend to provide arm’s length compensation for the Components that they buy and sell, as measured by the amount of compensation that uncontrolled Third Parties would have realized in similar uncontrolled transactions under the same or similar conditions.

WHEREAS, given the fact that this is a new area of cooperation between the Parties certain matters still remain to be resolved and this Agreement therefore may be revised after a certain initial period to be agreed upon between the Parties.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the agreements hereinafter set forth and other good and valuable consideration received, the Parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I:

COMPONENT ORDER AND SUPPLY

1.1. Orders. Haoqing may place or cause to be placed, from time to time at its discretion, Orders with PSJV for Components in accordance with Commercial Terms set forth in Appendix A, as amended or modified from time to time upon mutual agreement between or among the Parties.

1.2. Component Supply. PSJV agrees to fill the Orders by supplying the Components to Haoqing. In that connection, PSJV will maintain the production process to meet and fulfil the Orders, and will acquire or supply all other materials, production factors, Supplies and services necessary.

1.3. Quality. PSJV will ensure that the Components that it supplies to fulfil the Orders are of good quality and meet the agreed standards. PSJV is responsible for properly checking the quality and quantity of the Components that it sells to Haoqing.

ARTICLE II:FEES AND PAYMENTS

2.1. Compensation. Haoqing will compensate PSJV in the aggregate for all Components that PSJV supplies during each calendar year, any compensation shall be calculated at arm's length pricing principle.

2.2. Payments. Haoqing and PSJV will make and receive all payments under this Agreement in accordance with the Commercial Terms set forth in Appendix A.

ARTICLE III:INTANGIBLES AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

3.1. Intangibles and Intellectual Property Rights. This Agreement does not create or alter any ownership, economic, or financial interest in any Intangibles.

Intangibles, including but not limited to, Intellectual Property Rights created by a Party under the term of this Agreement, if any, shall vest with the creating Party.

3.2. Construction. Nothing in this Agreement will be construed as altering the ownership or licensing of any Intangibles. Accordingly, Haoqing will not pay PSJV a technology license fee (or any similar type of fee) in relation to the Components.

ARTICLE IV:TERM

4.1. Evergreen Extension. This Agreement automatically extends on January 1st of each year subsequent to the Term set forth in Section 4.2.

4.2. Term. This Agreement shall become effective when signed by duly authorised signatories of each Party and shall, unless terminated in accordance with the provisions for earlier termination contained in Article V, remain in force until and including December 31, 2019 ("Term"). For purposes of this Agreement, "Term" also includes any Evergreen Extension described in Section 4.1 of this Article.

ARTICLE V:TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT

5.1. Termination for Insolvency. In case of bankruptcy, insolvency, or the appointment of a receiver for all or substantially all of the assets of a Party throughout the Term, the other Parties may (at their discretion and mutual agreement) terminate this Agreement immediately, in whole or in part (for example, by excluding the terminating Party) by giving written notice of such termination.

5.2. Voluntary Termination. An individual Party may terminate this Agreement, as it pertains to that Party (the "terminating Party"), at any time during the Term without any cause whatsoever (including for example and without limitation, for cause because of a material breach by PSJV or Haoqing), upon giving 12 Months prior written notice to each of the other Parties.

a. Obligations upon Termination. Upon such termination by a terminating Party, neither the terminating Party nor the Parties that are affected by the termination (the "affected Parties") are exempted from any obligations incurred prior to the date of termination, including the obligations to deliver and take delivery of Components that have been ordered and accepted prior to such termination. Haoqing, however, need not take delivery of or pay for any Component that PSJV delivers (or causes to be delivered) after this Agreement has come to an end.

b. Work in process. Upon receipt of notice of such termination by a terminating Party, the other Party will (unless otherwise directed by the terminating Party in writing) promptly terminate all work under this Agreement, in relation to transactions with the terminating Party. If Haoqing is the terminating party, Haoqing, however, may request that PSJV complete specific items of work that are partially complete, in which case Haoqing will pay a reasonable sum, at no less than arm's length prices for completing the work.

c. Investments. If the Agreement is terminated by Haoqing and PSJV has made investments in additional capacity in their own facility and/or advance payments to a third party Supplier to invest in additional capacity in relation to a Product and such investments have not been fully depreciated and amortized as at the date of termination, following termination Haoqing shall compensate PSJV the book value of such investment.

5.3. Effect of Termination. In the event of termination under paragraph 5.1 or 5.2 of this Article, the remedies of the terminating Party and each affected Party will be determined by arbitration as set out in Article VII. Further, voluntary termination by a terminating Party will not affect any of the provisions that are intended to continue to have effect after this Agreement has come to an end.

ARTICLE VI:GENERAL PROVISIONS

6.1. Appendices. The Appendices form a part of this Agreement and are construed and have the same full force and effect as if expressly set out in the body of this Agreement. In case of a conflict between the terms in this Agreement and any Appendix, the terms of the Agreement will prevail.

6.2. Excusable Delay. No Party is liable for damages for failing to perform its obligations under this Agreement when the failure is attributable to an Excusable Delay.

6.3. Performance. If PSJV is unable to perform as required under this Agreement for any reason (but excluding Haoqing's breach of a material term hereunder) for a period of 21 Days, Haoqing may temporarily resource supplies of Components from elsewhere, without rendering itself in breach of any provision under this Agreement, and may reduce pro tanto the quantity or amounts ordered hereunder. If the above-mentioned term exceeds 180 Days, Haoqing and PSJV will in good faith negotiate appropriate remedies and, as appropriate or necessary, will amend the terms of this Agreement.

6.4. Notices. Any formal notices under this Agreement, including without limitation notices of breach or termination, required or otherwise given under this Agreement will be given in writing. The notices must, as the case requires, be addressed to the Party to be notified at the following addresses and numbers (including email addresses, where applicable):

- g. To PSJV: Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co., Ltd.
Attn: []
Address: 27F, No 501, Dongdaming Road, Sinarmas Plaza, Hongkou District, Shanghai, China
Email: []
- h. To Haoqing Zhejiang Haoqing Automobile Manufacturing Co., Ltd. Chengdu Branch
Attn: []
Address: No 368, Eastchecheng 7 Road, Longquanyi District, Chengdu, Sichuan Province, China
Email: []

6.5. Amendment or Modification. No modification of or waiver regarding this Agreement is effective or binding on either Party unless in writing and executed by a duly authorised representative of each Party.

6.6. Assignment. No Party may assign this Agreement or any right hereunder or interest herein, without the prior written consent of the other affected Party.

6.7. Severability. If any section of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be void or unenforceable the other sections of this Agreement will continue in effect, and the Parties will endeavour to carry out the intent of the provision so held to be void or unenforceable to the extent permitted by law.

6.8. Taxes and Duties. Each Party is responsible for taxes and duties in line with the financial responsibilities defined in this Agreement.

6.9. Waiver. No delay or failure by any Party to exercise any of its powers, rights, or remedies under this Agreement will operate as a waiver of any such remedies preclude any other or further exercise of them. No waiver by any Party for any breach by the other Party of any provision of this Agreement constitutes a waiver of any subsequent breach of that or any other provision of this Agreement.

6.10. Priority of Agreement. This Agreement's terms, provisions, and conditions control and have priority over any conflicting or inconsistent terms and conditions that are contained in any agreement that the Parties may have executed on a date prior to this Agreement's effective date.

6.11. Governing Language and Law. This Agreement is written in the English language. All questions concerning the construction, validity and interpretation of this Agreement are governed by Chinese law. Any translation of this Agreement into Swedish or Chinese is for the convenience only and the English version shall take precedence.

6.12. Confidentiality. Any policy or procedure established by the Party's, and appended to this Agreement, regarding handling of information shall be considered part of this agreement and fulfilled by both Parties as well as any Third Party.

Each Party will take reasonable measures to protect the confidentiality of the matters described and addressed in this Agreement. For this purpose, "reasonable measures" means the same measures for the same period that the respective Party takes in relation to its own matters of a similar nature or character. In the event that any Party wishes to discuss the matters herein with any Third Party (other than the Party's advisors), the Party shall prior to such action obtain the other Party's written approval hereto, and further ensure the confidentiality of the information by signing appropriate confidentiality agreements with the Third Party.

6.18. Definitions. The definitions set forth in Appendix B control for all purposes of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VII:

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

7.1. Claims. The Parties will use their best efforts to settle any claim for breach of this Agreement, or any claim arising out of a dispute concerning the existence or validity of the Agreement, by reaching a just and equitable settlement satisfactory to the Parties. Both Parties shall appoint a person representing each Party respectively, said representative will consider and put in its best effort in order to resolve any such claim. If such representative cannot settle the claim, any Party may deliver to the other Party or Parties a "Notice of Claim," which details the notifying Party's claim.

If the Parties do not settle the claim within 30 Days after delivery of the Notice of Claim, then unless the Parties otherwise agree in writing, the Parties will submit the claim to mediation in accordance with Rules of the Mediation Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, unless one of the Parties objects. If one of the parties objects to Mediation or if the Mediation is terminated, the dispute shall be finally resolved by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce. Such arbitration is binding and will result in the sole and exclusive remedy among the Parties in relation to the claim. The Arbitration procedures will be held in English.

Appendix A

COMMERCIAL TERMS

The following Commercial Terms govern this Agreement:

1. Component Supply

1.1. PSJV will supply Haoqing with Components to fulfil Orders placed by Haoqing in accordance with the Prices on an arms lengths principle. PSJV will sell all such Components Ex Works or FCA as appropriately agreed by the parties.

2. Component Orders and Program Volumes

2.1. Haoqing will order and PSJV will supply Components in volumes in accordance with the programming as appropriate and ordering processes that are in current operation, and as amended in the future.

2.2. Haoqing will, to the extent practical and reasonable, provide volume projections to PSJV as part of Haoqing's annual business planning and budget processes.

2.3. Haoqing and PSJV will use agreed business processes regarding Orders and volumes. Orders will be collected, segmented, scheduled, and submitted using the systems upon which Haoqing and PSJV may agree from time to time.

3. Manufacturing Capacity

3.1. PSJV will install or maintain (as the case may be) during the Term and any extension thereof, the Capacity to manufacture, assemble, and supply Components to Haoqing in the quantities under the Orders, up to the maximum volume as set out in the Capacity Planning Volume.

3.2. Haoqing and PSJV will work together throughout the Term to agree PSJV's manufacturing Capacity by matching available Capacity to demand with the opportunity to adjust for seasonal and other volume fluctuations.

3.3 If Haoqing request to make any unique capacity investments, the parties shall discuss the consequences hereof and agree upon responsibility split.

4. Component Delivery

4.1. PSJV will deliver the finished Components on the dates that Haoqing specifies in the Orders, or any mutually agreed extended date. If Haoqing does not specify a date for any specific Order, PSJV will assemble, manufacture, and deliver the finished Components within a commercially reasonable time.

4.2. PSJV will deliver the finished Components to Haoqing or its delivery agent, in a deliverable condition and in accordance with the Agreement, at a delivery compound of Facility that the Parties will specify from time to time.

5. Quality, Acceptance, and Inspection

5.1. PSJV will ensure that the terms and conditions that it negotiates with its sub-contractors (if any) provide adequately for Haoqing's rights in this Section.

VOLVO

5.2. The quality metrics requirements for in-Plant Facilities will apply to all finished Components. PSJV will meet the objective standards of applicable Plant Quality Standards and PSJV will maintain such standards.

5.4. PSJV is not responsible for damage to Components that occurs after they have been delivered to the appropriate Haoqing's transportation agent.

5.5. The Parties may amend, by formal written agreement, the inspection processes or other provisions set forth in this Section.

6. Right to Reject

6.1. PSJV will repair any rejected Component within a commercially reasonable time, provided however that Haoqing always has the right to reject a Component that fails to conform to this Agreement. If a particular Component cannot be repaired, PSJV will replace any nonrepairable item. Haoqing may return any rejected Component to PSJV carriage paid and at PSJV's risk and cost.

7. Defects

7.1. PSJV will physically correct any defects found either prior to acceptance of Components by Haoqing or its designee. Haoqing is not obliged to accept Components if PSJV has not properly corrected the defect. PSJV is entirely responsible for defect correction costs incurred in respect to defects in assembly or manufacture of the Components and will not seek to pass on such costs to Haoqing.

7.2. If in delivering Components under this Agreement, PSJV delivers a Misbuild to Haoqing, Haoqing and PSJV will handle any rejected Misbuilds in accordance with Section 6.1, and PSJV alone will bear all correction costs.

8. Material Planning and Logistics

8.1. Shipments are FCA as agreed between the parties and PSJV will work with Haoqing to arrange the outbound logistics and transportation of Components from its Facility to market destinations specified by Haoqing (and Haoqing Affiliates) on Haoqing's behalf. The responsibility for these arrangements may be changed by the formal written agreement of Haoqing and PSJV.

8.2. Prices are FCA as agreed between the parties. Additional logistics costs for standard freight, insurance, export packaging, duty, and taxes, will be agreed among Haoqing, Seller, and the relevant freight providers, and will be paid by the Haoqing.

9. Prices, Invoices, and Payments

9.1. The Price per Component will be determined on "arms length terms".

9.2. PSJV will invoice Haoqing in the form of invoice as agreed by Haoqing and PSJV on a monthly basis. Invoices may be generated electronically; provided however that Haoqing may request hard-copy summary invoices that total batches of individual invoices over a specified period, in order to satisfy VAT and Customs reporting requirements.

VOLVO

9.3. Payment terms are 75 days net after date of invoiced has been issued. Haoqing will pay PSJV for the invoice in accordance with that.

9.4 Payment of all invoiced amounts will be in CNY/CNH, or such other currency as Haoqing and PSJV may agree, and against an invoice issued to Haoqing by PSJV or vice versa, by electronic means, if possible.

9.5. V A T is chargeable on all invoiced amounts only where required by local law and shall be borne by Haoqing. Haoqing may appoint an affiliate or Third Party to handle the requisite V A T registration and recovery.

10. Title Passage, Risk of loss, Warranty and Insurance

10.1. Title to each Component passes FCA to Haoqing unless otherwise agreed with PSJV in accordance with the provisions of Sections 4 and 5 of this Appendix, without prejudice to Haoqing's right to reject Components under Section 6 hereof.

10.2. The risk of loss for each Component will pass to Haoqing when PSJV has delivered the Component to Haoqing in accordance with Sections 4 and 5 of this Appendix, upon entry into the delivery compound or Facility, provided that the risk in any Component that Haoqing rejects under Section 6 above reverts to PSJV immediately upon Haoqing giving notice to PSJV of the rejection.

10.3 Any Warranty Claim and Product Liability Claim shall be handled as stated in and in accordance to the policies agreed between the parties.

Appendix B

DEFINITIONS

The following terms have the following meanings in this Agreement:

“Affiliate” means

- a) for PSJV, any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled (individually or jointly) by:
 - i. Polestar Automotive (Shanghai) Co., Ltd;
 - ii. Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co., Ltd.;
 - iii. Polestar Holding AB; or
 - iv. Polestar Performance AB; and
- b) for Haoqing, Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. and any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. however excluding PSJV and its Affiliates;

“control” for this purpose meaning ownership or control of at least fifty per cent (50%) of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest of such legal entity. The Parties, however, agree to renegotiate this definition of “Affiliate” in good faith if it in the future does not reflect the Parties’ intention at the time of signing this Agreement due to a restructuring or reorganisation in relation to either of the Parties.

“Agreement” means this Agreement as originally executed and as amended from time to time, together with its Appendices.

“Arm’s length principle”. The Price for any Component that PSJV manufactures or assembles for and supplies to Haoqing meets the arm’s length principle if the results of the transaction are consistent with the results that would have been realized if uncontrolled taxpayers had engaged in comparable transactions under comparable circumstances.

“Capacity Planning Volumes” means the annual Component Capacity planning volume mutually agreed between Haoqing and PSJV for which suppliers and the Parties should have installed Facilities and tooling.

“Component” means any part that is required to manufacture, assemble, or repair a Polestar Branded Vehicle.

“FCA” means such terms as are defined in Incoterms 2010.

“Excusable Delay” means any delay in making or accepting deliveries or performance (without fault or negligence on the part of the Party involved) which is due to a force majeure, meaning causes beyond its reasonable control including but without limitation, acts of God or of a public enemy; any preference, priority, or allocation order issued by government or any other act of government; any act of the other Party hereto; fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, riots, strikes, labour disputes, freight embargoes, unusually severe weather, changes in law or government, or delays of a supplier due to such causes; or court order or acts (other than a court order brought about by the fault of the Party invoking the force majeure). "Excusable Delay" does not, however, mean or include financial difficulties of a Party that are not attributable directly to a force majeure.

VOLVO

"Facility" means a building, Plant, premise, machine, equipment, fixture, or fitting required to build and store the Components.

"Intangibles" includes (but is not limited to) patents, designs, specifications, or other similar knowhow related to or associated with Vehicles or Components, including without limitation the Information defined herein.

"Plant Quality Standards)" means those quality standards that are in place (and as amended in the future) in relation to VOLVO Plant Facilities.

"Information" means information, data knowledge, discovery, trade secret, invention, patented or patentable, process, method, plan, know-how and, in general, any news having a technical, economical, commercial or administrative nature, and including any drawing, document, magnetic equipment, software program, photo material, sample of material or any other material belonging to one of the Parties.

"Misbuild" means any Component whose specifications, features and options, as built by PSJV, do not match or comply with those on Haoqing's Order for that Component, or any Component that is damaged, or has missing components, and for which such Misbuild reasonably is considered under commercial practices to be PSJV's responsibility.

"Order" means a production order by Haoqing for the supply by PSJV of a finished (completely built) Component, containing (as the transaction, context, circumstance, or case may be) the detailed specifications and commercial data, transmitted electronically by Haoqing to PSJV or other Polestar Affiliate.

"Product Liability Claim" means any claim or lawsuit, by a Third Party, based upon personal injury or property damage allegedly resulting from a defect in a Vehicle or Component thereof.

"Plant" or "Plant Facility" means a specific Facility in which the manufacture or assembly of a Component or Components takes place.

"Price" is the individual unit price from time to time of each Component.

"Raw Materials" means the tangible components, materials, parts, or other items that are required to assemble or manufacture the Components.

"Supplies" means tangible shop supplies that are required or maintained in order to facilitate assembling or manufacturing the Components.

"Third Party" means any person not a Party or an Affiliate of a Party. "Unit" means an individual Component.

"Vehicle" means a Polestar Branded passenger car.

VOLVO

“Warranty Claims” means those claims validly made by end user customers under the terms of the Parties’ customer warranties.

“Working Days” means a Day during which production, sales, or business activities are scheduled in the normal operation and ordinary course of Polestar business.

Certain identified information marked with "[]" has been omitted from this document because it is both (i) not material and (ii) the type that the registrant treats as private or confidential.

- 10.2.5 Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based the equivalent to one- year lending rate published by PBOC in China.

11. RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE PARTIES

- 11.1 The Parties are acting as independent Service Providers when performing each Party's respective obligations under this General Distributor Agreement. Neither Party nor its Affiliates are agents for the other Party or its Affiliates and have no authority to represent them in relation to any matters. Nothing in this General Distributor Agreement shall be construed as to constitute a partnership or joint venture between the Parties.

12. OWNERSHIP INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY/INTANGIBLES

- 12.1 The Parties agree that this Agreement does not grant or convey to the other Party any ownership or economic interest in any IP belonging to the other Party and each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of its IP.
- 12.2 Except as otherwise agreed by the parties, nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to constitute an assignment of, or license to use, any Trademarks of the other Party.

13. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 13.1 Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, either Party's liability is limited to typical damage foreseeable at the time of breach of this Agreement.
- 13.2 Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, is intended to give to any person other than the Parties any right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement. All covenants, stipulations, promises or agreements in this Agreement shall be for the sole and exclusive benefit of the Parties.

14. PRODUCT LIABILITY

- 14.1 Product liability relating to Contract Products shall be allocated between the Parties in accordance with applicable laws. In principle, product liability arising from manufacturing defects due to Haoqing will be borne by Haoqing, whereas product liability arising from design defects due to General Distributor or any other party shall be borne by responsible party.

15. FORCE MAJEURE

- 15.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under this Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A "Force Majeure Event" means any event beyond a Party's reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party's), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or sub-Service Providers.
- 15.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under the Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its nonperformance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

16. REPRESENTATION AND WARRANT

- 16.1 General Distributor represents and warrants that:
- d. it is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under applicable laws, and has and will always have full authority and all permits, authorizations and licenses necessary or advisable to enter into or perform its obligations under this Agreement; and
 - e. the individuals or entities listed in Appendix 2, under the heading "Ownership Interests", own all of General Distributor's voting securities or other ownership interests in the percentages shown in Appendix 2.

17. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 17.1 This Agreement will become effective on the date stated in paragraph 3.1 of this Agreement and shall remain in force until terminated in accordance with this section 17.
- 17.2 This Agreement may be terminated only in two years' intervals by giving two months notice with effect as per December 31 of any subsequent second year. If no termination notice is given, this Agreement shall continue to be valid for another two years.
- 17.3 Either Party may terminate this Agreement by notice to the other Party with immediate effect for good cause. Good cause exists in the events expressly set forth in this Agreement or if:
- a. a Party is in breach of an obligation under this Agreement despite having been given due warning by the other Party and despite having had sufficient opportunity and time to remedy that breach.
 - b. a Party is in breach of any representations or warranties expressly set forth in this Agreement;
 - c. voluntary or involuntary proceedings are filed by or against a Party under bankruptcy or insolvency laws or under laws for arrangement, composition, judicial management, liquidation, dissolution, receivership or similar procedures, or either Party seeks or consents to similar relief or remedies without proceedings and, in the case of involuntary proceedings, they are not dismissed within forty-five days;
 - d. a Force Majeure Event prevents a Party from performing its obligations under this Agreement for more than one hundred and eighty days and such failure to perform is continuing when notice of termination is given;
- 17.4 Either Party shall notify the other Party immediately, if any event entitling the other Party to terminate this Agreement occurs.

18. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS ON TERMINATION

- 18.1 Upon this Agreement's termination:
- a. General Distributor shall immediately stop presenting itself as an authorized general distributor of Haoqing.
 - b. General Distributor's unfilled orders are automatically canceled, unless payment has been made before effectiveness of termination or unless Haoqing specifies otherwise.
 - c. All amounts owed by either Party to the other will be immediately due and payable without need for notice, other formality or court order.
 - d. Haoqing shall repurchase from General Distributor, if so requested by General Distributor in writing within a reasonable period, however not later than six months after termination of this Agreement, all Parts delivered by Haoqing to General Distributor.

19. PRIOR AGREEMENTS, ASSIGNMENT

- 19.1 This Agreement constitutes the Parties' entire agreement for selling and servicing Contract Goods in the Contract Territory. It supersedes all prior negotiations, understandings and agreements, written or oral, relating to its subject matter. Any modification or supplement to or extension of this Agreement must be in writing and signed by authorized officers or representatives of both Parties.
- 19.2 Neither Party may assign this Agreement or any of their rights or obligations without or in violation of the terms of the other's prior consent, and unless the consent states otherwise the assigning Party will remain legally obligated, jointly and severally, with its assignee for the performance of this Agreement. In the event of any breach of this Clause by either Party, the other Party may terminate this Agreement in accordance with Article 14.2.

20. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 20.1 General Distributor and its Authorized Dealers, and their respective officers, employees and agents, shall keep confidential all non-public business or technical information relating to Haoqing, any Haoqing Group Company or any of their respective suppliers or customers of which it becomes aware in connection with this Agreement.
- 20.2 Haoqing will treat as confidential all non-public information concerning General Distributor which is obtained under this Agreement and will not disclose such information to third parties, other than Haoqing's professional advisors and Haoqing Group Companies. This confidentiality obligation, however, will not apply to:
- a. information that is known to Haoqing at the time of disclosure;
 - b. information that is or becomes available in the public domain through no fault of Haoqing;
 - c. information that is or becomes available to Haoqing from any third party who was not in breach of any confidentiality obligation to General Distributor or of whose breach of any confidentiality obligation to General Distributor Haoqing was not aware; or
 - d. information that Haoqing is required to disclose by law or court or governmental order or request from regulatory authorities.

21. PHOTOCOPIES

- 21.1 This Agreement was negotiated and concluded in the English and Chinese language, and the Chinese text of this Agreement will be controlling in all events.
- 21.2 In the event of any discrepancy or conflict between the terms of this Agreement and the terms of any Appendix hereto or any document referred to in any Appendix hereto, the terms of this Agreement shall prevail.

22. SEVERABILITY

- 22.1 If a court, arbitral tribunal or government authority having jurisdiction declares invalid or unenforceable any provision of this Agreement, this Agreement will be considered divisible as to that provision, and that provision will be deemed deleted from this Agreement or to be inapplicable, and the remainder of this Agreement will be valid and binding as if that provision were not included herein or as if it were included herein only with respect to those parts of the Contract Territory, if any, where that provision is not invalid or unenforceable.

23. NOTICES

- 23.1 All notices, consents and approvals (hereinafter referred to as a "Notice") permitted or required to be given hereunder shall only be deemed to be sufficiently and duly given if written and delivered personally or sent by courier or transmitted by electronic mail transmission (e-mail) or other form of recorded communication tested prior to transmission, addressed as follows:

Appendix 2 - Fee

This LICENSE, LICENSE ASSIGNMENT AND SERVICE AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is entered into on 15 February 2021 and made between:

- (1) Volvo Car Corporation, Reg. No. 556074-3089, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden (“Volvo Cars”); and
- (2) Polestar Performance AB, Reg. No. 556653-3096, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden (“Polestar”).

Each of Volvo Cars and Polestar is hereinafter referred to as a “Party” and jointly as the “Parties”.

BACKGROUND

- A. Volvo Cars is in the business, among other activities, of developing, manufacturing and selling Volvo branded cars. It is understood that Volvo Cars is not normally a service provider.
- B. Polestar is engaged in the development, manufacturing and sale of Polestar branded high- end electric performance cars.
- C. The Parties have entered into a Framework Assignment and License Agreement and a Car Model Assignment and License Agreement, both dated 31 October 2018, under which Volvo Cars develops, assigns and licenses certain intellectual property for Polestar 2 vehicles to Polestar.
- D. The Parties have agreed to continue to develop certain technology to be introduced in Polestar’s model year programs. During the life-time of the Polestar 2, there are several model year programs planned. These programs include additional technology content and features for the Polestar 2 that will be developed, assigned or licensed by Volvo Cars to Polestar.
- E. The Parties have also agreed that Volvo Cars will provide certain development services for Polestar relating to the development of Polestar Unique Technology, which will be introduced in Polestar’s model year programs.
- F. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Agreement.

1. DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings assigned to them below. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa.

“Affiliate” means any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by Volvo Car Corporation or Polestar Automotive Holding Limited and control means the possession, directly or indirectly, by agreement or otherwise, of (i) at least 50% of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest, or (ii) the power (a) to appoint or remove a majority of the board of directors or other governing body of an entity, or (b) to cause the direction of the management of an entity.

“Agreement” means this License, License Assignment and Service Agreement including all of its Appendices as amended from time to time.

“Appendix” means the appendices to this Agreement.

“Background IP” means the Intellectual Property Rights either;

- (a) owned by either of the Parties; or
- (b) created, developed or invented by directors, managers, employees or consultants of either of the Parties to which the Party has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sublicense

prior to the execution of this Agreement, and any Intellectual Property Rights developed independently of this Agreement.

“CMA” means the compact modular architecture platform.

“Common Polestar Technology” means such Polestar Technology, which is specified as Common Polestar Technology (Category 3B) in Appendix 1 to this Agreement, for which IP is owned by Polestar and which automatically, upon the assignment to Polestar, shall be licensed back to Volvo Cars.

“Confidential Information” means any and all information regarding the Parties and their respective businesses, whether commercial or technical, in whatever form or media, including but not limited to information relating to Intellectual Property Rights, concepts, technologies, processes, commercial figures, techniques, strategic plans and budgets, investments, customers and sales, designs, graphics, CAD models, CAE data, statement of works (including engineering statement of works and any specification), targets, test plans/reports, technical performance data and engineering sign-off documents and other information of a sensitive nature, that a Party learns from or about the other Party prior to or after the execution of this Agreement.

“Data Room” means (if applicable) the information sharing platform agreed to be used between the Parties for making available the information regarding the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology to Polestar.

“Data Room Software” means the information sharing solution agreed to be used between the Parties for making available the Polestar Technology being software.

“Disclosing Party” means the Party disclosing Confidential Information to the Receiving Party.

“Fee” means the fee to be paid by either Party to the other Party hereunder in accordance with what is set out in Appendix 2 to this Agreement.

“Force Majeure Event” shall have the meaning set out in Section 16.1.1 below.

“Gates” means the dates agreed between the Parties, and which shall be based on VPDS, when the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology, or parts thereof, shall have been delivered to and accepted by Polestar, and which shall, unless otherwise stated in this Agreement, be Program Start (PS), Final Data Judgement (FDJ), Launch Readiness (LR), Launch Sign-off (LS) and Final Status Report (FSR), all described in the VPDS.

“Industry Standard” means the exercise of such professionalism, skill, diligence, prudence and foresight which would normally be expected at any given time from a skilled and experienced actor engaged in a similar type of undertaking as under this Agreement.

“Intellectual Property Rights” means Patents, Non-patented IP, Know-How and rights in Confidential Information to the extent protected under applicable laws anywhere in the world. For the avoidance of doubt, Trademarks are not comprised by this definition.

“Job1” means in relation to this Agreement and the Polestar Vehicle, the date on which the production of the relevant Polestar Vehicle model year program covered by this Agreement starts. The Job1 time for each model year program is specified in Appendix 1.

“Job1+90” means in relation this Agreement and the Polestar Vehicle, the date of Final Status Report (FSR), which follows from VPDS and which will take place 90 days after Job1.

“Know-How” means confidential and proprietary industrial, technical and commercial information and techniques in any form including (without limitation) drawings, formulae, test results, reports, project reports and testing procedures, instruction and training manuals, tables of operating conditions, specifications, component lists, market forecasts, lists and particulars of customers and suppliers.

“Non-patented IP” means copyrights (including rights in computer software), database rights, semiconductor topography rights, rights in designs, and other intellectual property rights (other than Trademarks and Patents) and all rights or forms of protection having equivalent or similar effect anywhere in the world, in each case whether registered or unregistered, and registered includes registrations, applications for registration and renewals whether made before, on or after execution of this Agreement.

“Object Code” means the compiled version of the Source Code including parameter files.

“Other Polestar Branded Vehicles” means Polestar branded vehicle models other than the Polestar Vehicle.

“Patent” means any patent, patent application, or utility model, whether filed before, on or after the execution of this Agreement, along with any continuation, continuation-in-part, divisional, re-examined or re-issued patent, foreign counterpart or renewal or extension of any of the foregoing.

“Polestar Supplier License Technology” means the Polestar Technology which is owned by a Third Party and licensed to Volvo Cars, and which license shall be assigned to Polestar under this Agreement.

“Polestar Technology” means technology that does not exist on any other vehicle than Polestar Vehicle and which shall be provided by Volvo Cars and purchased as a service by Polestar or assigned to Polestar under this Agreement, and which is specified as Polestar Technology (Category 1 and for the avoidance of doubt Category 3B. Category 3B however not limited to existence in Polestar Vehicle) in Appendix 1 to this Agreement.

“PS Unique Volvo Technology” means such Volvo Technology which is specified as PS Unique Volvo Technology (Category 2) in Appendix 1 to this Agreement, for which IP is owned by Volvo Cars and which is licensed exclusively to Polestar including but not limited to access to drawings, specifications, calculations, protocols(including test protocols), software (Object Code and Source Code), methods, processes and any similar deliverables needed for Polestar to make use of the licensed technology.

“Results” shall mean any outcome of the Services provided to Polestar under this Agreement (including but not limited to any IP, technology, patents, designs, software (Object Code and Source Code), methods, processes, deliverables, objects, products, documentation, modifications, improvements, and/or amendments to be carried out by Volvo Cars under the Appendix 1) and any other outcome or result of the Services to be performed by Volvo Cars as described in the relevant Appendix 1, irrespective of whether the performance of the Services has been completed or not.

“Services” means the services provided from Volvo Cars to Polestar relating to the Polestar Technology as specified in Appendix 1 for Category 1.

“Source Code” means human-readable program statements written by a programmer or developer in a high-level or assembly language that are not directly readable by a computer and that need to be compiled into object code before they can be executed by a computer.

“Territory” means all countries in the world except China.

“Third Party” means a party other than any of the Parties and/or an Affiliate of one of the Parties to this Agreement.

“Trademarks” means trademarks (including part numbers that are trademarks), service marks, logos, trade names, business names, assumed names, trade dress and get-up, and domain names, in each case whether registered or unregistered, including all applications, registrations, renewals and the like, in each case to the extent they constitute rights that are enforceable against third parties.

“Use” means to make, have made, use (including in a process, such as use in designing, engineering, testing or assembling products or in their research or development), keep, install, integrate, extract, assemble, reproduce, incorporate, create derivative works of, modify, adapt, improve, enhance, develop, service or repair, including in the case of installation, integration, assembly, service or repair, the right to have a subcontractor of any tier carry out any of these activities on behalf of the Parties in their capacity as a licensee hereunder.

The right to “have made” is the right of the Parties in their capacity as a licensee hereunder, as applicable, to have another person (or their subcontractor of any tier) make for the Parties and does not include the right to grant sub-licenses to another person to make for such person’s own use or use other than for the Parties.

“Volvo IP” means Know-How, Intellectual Property Rights and all other deliverables and/or materials either

- (a) (i) owned by Volvo Cars, or (ii) created, developed or invented by directors, managers, employees or consultants of Volvo Cars (to which Volvo Cars has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sub-license), during or prior to the execution of this Agreement or during the term of the Agreement, or
- (b) licensed by Volvo Cars from any Third Party to which Volvo Cars has the right to grant a sub-license and/or to assign such license to Polestar.

“Volvo Technology” means the Volvo IP that shall be licensed to Polestar under this Agreement, and which is specified as Volvo Technology (Category 3 and 4 and for the avoidance of doubt Category 2) in Appendix 1 to this Agreement and for which IP is owned by Volvo Cars including but not limited to access to drawings, specifications, calculations, protocols (including test protocols), software (Object Code and Source Code), methods, processes and any similar deliverables needed for Polestar to make use of the licensed technology.

“Volvo Supplier License Technology” means the Volvo Technology and Polestar Unique Volvo Technology which is owned by a Third Party and licensed to Volvo Cars, and which license shall be sublicensed to Polestar under this Agreement.

“VPDS” means Volvo Cars’ procedures in development projects, ‘Volvo Product Development System’.

“Way Of Working” means the level of way of working set out in Section 2.2.2 below.

2. SCOPE OF THE AGREEMENT

2.1 General

- 2.1.1 The Polestar Vehicle consists of parts that are unique for Polestar and parts that are common with Volvo Cars. Before entering into this Agreement, the Parties have discussed and specified the jointly agreed technical content that will be delivered by Volvo Cars for the Polestar Vehicle model year programs as further specified in Appendix 1. The model year programs will follow the VPDS process. The Parties have established a joint governance and change structure to follow up on upcoming changes for common development. Polestar alone will decide on changes to Polestar unique parts.
- 2.1.2 The Parties have agreed that Volvo Cars shall, to some extent based on Volvo IP, provide as a service and a license to Polestar certain technology related to the Polestar Vehicle and Other Polestar Branded Vehicles. It is acknowledged that such work will be conducted in accordance with the standards that Volvo Cars is using in its internal projects.
- 2.1.3 The Parties have agreed that the Volvo Technology shall be the sole property of Volvo Cars. Volvo Cars shall grant Polestar certain rights to use the Volvo Technology but also provide as a service and as assignment of supplier owned IP to Polestar the Polestar Technology. Polestar shall automatically grant Volvo Cars a grant-back license to use such parts of Polestar Technology that are Common Polestar Technology.
- 2.1.4 The Parties acknowledge that the Parties, prior to the signing of this Agreement, have started performing work in relation to this Agreement and that this Agreement shall govern this work irrespectively when it has been performed.
- 2.1.5 The Appendices shall be considered an integral part of this Agreement and any reference to the Agreement shall include the Appendices.
- 2.1.6 In the event there are any contradictions or inconsistencies between the terms of this Agreement and the appendices hereto, the Parties agree that they shall prevail over each other in the following order if not specifically stated otherwise in such document or the context or circumstances clearly suggest otherwise:
- (a) this Agreement;
 - (b) Appendix 1 - Polestar 2 Technical Specification Model year Programs;
 - (c) Appendix 2 - Fee.

2.2 Way of Working

- 2.2.1 Before entering into this Agreement, Polestar has been informed about the development and service processes and procedures that Volvo Cars is applying for its internal work and which Volvo Cars will be using for the development and services under this Agreement.
- 2.2.2 Under this Agreement, Volvo Cars shall use professional, appropriate, qualified and skilled personnel, and shall ensure that its personnel have been properly educated and trained for the work to be performed, including being fully acquainted with Polestar's specific requirements. Volvo Cars shall avoid unnecessary changes in the personnel engaged in performing its undertakings under this Agreement. Volvo Cars shall work according to the same standard of care and professionalism that is done in Volvo Cars' internal development projects. Such standard of care and professionalism, as well as Volvo Cars' performance of its undertakings under this Agreement shall however at all times correspond to Industry Standard. If Volvo Cars uses its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform its responsibilities under this Agreement, the same way of working shall apply as if such performance was made by Volvo Cars itself.

- 2.2.3 Volvo Cars shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its responsibilities under this Agreement. Furthermore, Volvo Cars undertakes to ensure that any development of the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology will not be given lower priority than other Volvo Cars internal similar projects.
- 2.2.4 Polestar shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its responsibilities under this Agreement and in particular provide Volvo Cars timely with necessary instructions and decisions requested by Volvo Cars, as required for Polestar to fulfil its responsibilities under this Agreement. Furthermore, Polestar shall use professional and skilled personal for the responsibilities to be performed including being adequately acquainted with Volvo Cars' specific requirements related to the common development.

2.3 The Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology

2.3.1 General

- 2.3.1.1 A commonly agreed specification setting forth, on an overall level, the deliverables to be performed by Volvo Cars in relation to the Polestar Vehicle is set out in Appendix 1. A final specification of the deliverables shall, subject to good faith and joint discussions between the Parties, be made at Job1+90 as a part of the Final Status Report (FSR) where all agreed deliverables will be finally categorized as Volvo Technology or Polestar Technology jointly by the Parties. All of the aforementioned specifications shall be considered an integral part of Appendix 1 and consequently also this Agreement. However, for the avoidance of doubt deliverables categorised as Volvo Technology in Appendix 1 will not be recategorised as Polestar Technology.
- 2.3.1.2 The license to Volvo Technology and the delivery as a service of Polestar Technology shall, in relation to the Polestar Vehicle and Other Polestar Branded Vehicles, include all Volvo IP, which together with relevant Third Party Intellectual Property Rights not included in Volvo IP is reasonably necessary in order to meet the specification set forth in Appendix 1 to this Agreement. In case any such Third Party Intellectual Property Rights not included in Volvo IP is reasonably necessary in order to meet the specification set forth in Appendix 1 to this Agreement, Volvo Cars shall indicate that within the frame of the deliverables under the Volvo Technology. Polestar might thus be required to license Intellectual Property Rights and/or purchase components of Third Parties necessary to produce the Polestar Vehicle. However, Volvo Cars shall use reasonable efforts to ensure that Third Party Intellectual Property Rights are possible to sublicense or assign to Polestar.
- 2.3.1.3 For the avoidance of doubt, if any development shall be made in relation to such Polestar Technology to which Volvo Cars has not been granted a license to, pursuant to Section 4.3 or 4.4, the Parties acknowledge that Volvo Cars has a right to use such Polestar Technology to the extent it is reasonably necessary in order to perform the requested Service and the agreed common development.

2.3.2 General Limitations

- 2.3.2.1 The Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology that will be delivered under this Agreement is defined and described in Appendix 1 and that content is the basis for the Fee. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the details of such technology might not have been finalised at the time of entering into this Agreement. The technical functions are defined, but detailed deliverables will be updated and agreed according to Section 8 below, as the development progresses up until Job1+90 at the latest.
- 2.3.2.2 For the avoidance of doubt, Volvo Cars shall not under this Agreement manufacture the Polestar Vehicle, any components of the Volvo Technology or the Polestar Technology, or integrate any such components or the Volvo Technology or the Polestar Technology into Polestar's production of vehicles.

2.3.2.3 The Parties further acknowledge and agree that, if it is discovered that something has been classified by mistake as Volvo Technology under this Agreement, but which should have been classified as Polestar Technology or Common Polestar Technology, and/or vice versa, the Parties agree to in good faith renegotiate and agree on the reclassification of such technology and any amendment of the Fee to reflect such change. For avoidance of doubt, and as an example, this means that if the Parties agree that certain technology shall be changed from Volvo Technology to Common Polestar Technology, the terms and conditions herein relating to the latter shall thereafter apply to such technology. If the Parties cannot agree on such a reclassification, the issue shall be escalated in accordance with what is set out in Section 13.1.

2-3.3 Limitations in relation to the Polestar Supplier License Technology and Volvo Supplier License Technology.

2.3.3.1 Assignment of Polestar Supplier Technology.

Polestar acknowledges that the Polestar Supplier License Technology is owned by Third Parties and that Volvo Cars may not be allowed to assign its rights thereto without consent from such relevant Third Party.

The assignment of Polestar Supplier License Technology is thus subject to any limitations which may be applicable to the rights granted to Volvo Cars by the Third Party owning the Intellectual Property Rights to such Polestar Supplier License Technology and will, not take effect until Volvo Cars has received the relevant consent from the Third Party.

When Volvo Cars has received the consent from the Third Party such Polestar Supplier License Technology will be assigned to Polestar. If Volvo Cars has not received the relevant consent from the Third Party within twelve (12) months from the signing date of this Agreement, no assignment of such Polestar Supplier License Technology shall occur, nor be considered to have occurred, and the Fee shall be reduced corresponding to the the part of the Fee that relates to the Polestar Supplier License Technology to which Volvo Cars has not received relevant consent in time. If such a reduction is not feasible to determine, it shall be negotiated between the Parties in good faith.

2.3.3.2 License to Volvo Supplier License Technology

Polestar acknowledges that the Volvo Supplier License Technology is owned by Third Parties and that Volvo Cars may not be allowed to grant a license without consent from such relevant Third Party.

The grant of a license to Volvo Supplier License Technology is thus subject to any limitations which may be applicable to the rights granted to Volvo Cars by the Third Party owning the Intellectual Property Rights to such Volvo Supplier License Technology, and will not take effect until Volvo Cars has received the relevant consent from the Third Party.

If Volvo Cars has not received the relevant consent from the Third Party within twelve (12) months from the signing date of this Agreement no license grant to Volvo Supplier License Technology shall occur, nor be considered to have occurred, and the Fee shall be reduced corresponding to the the part of the Fee that relates to the Volvo Supplier License Technology to which Volvo Cars has not received relevant consent in time. If such a reduction is not feasible to determine, it shall be negotiated between the Parties in good faith.

3. SERVICES

Volvo Cars undertakes to provide to Polestar the Polestar Technology as a service referred to as Services. The rights and obligations for providing the Services are covered under this Section 3.

3.1 Provision of services

3.1.1 Specification of Services

3.1.1.1 The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification of the Services provided under this Agreement in Category 1 in Appendix 1.

3.1.2 Making available the Results

3.1.2.1 Volvo Cars shall make the Results (or if not finalised, any part of the Results that has been finalised) available to Polestar within the timeframes specified in Appendix 1, but under all circumstances promptly after any part of the Results has been finalised. The Results shall only be made available in a Data Room except for the Object Code and the Source Code, which shall only be made available in the Data Room Software.

3.1.2.2 The Results (or any finalised part thereof) shall be deemed made available by Volvo Cars to Polestar if such files have been electronically loaded into and made accessible by Volvo Cars in the Data Room and Data Room Software agreed upon.

3.1.3 Subcontractors

3.1.3.1 The Parties acknowledge that Volvo Cars may use its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Agreement, provided that Volvo Cars informs Polestar thereof.

3.1.3.2 Volvo Cars shall however remain responsible for the performance, and any omission to perform or comply with the provisions in this Section 3, by any Affiliate to Volvo Cars and/or any subcontractor to the same extent as if such performance or omission was made by Volvo Cars itself. Volvo Cars shall also remain Polestar's sole point of contact unless otherwise agreed.

3.2 Service Requirements

3.2.1 All Services shall be performed in accordance with the requirements set forth in this Agreement, including Appendix 1.

3.2.2 Polestar shall provide Volvo Cars with instructions as reasonably required for Volvo Cars to be able to carry out the Services. Volvo Cars must continuously inform Polestar of any needs of additional instructions or specifications required to perform the Services.

3.3 Intellectual Property Rights

3-3.1 Ownership of existing Intellectual Property Rights.

3.3.1.1 Each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of (i) any Background IP and other Intellectual Property Rights owned prior to the execution of the Services under this Agreement, (ii) any Intellectual Property Rights developed independently of the Services in this Section 3, and (iii) any Intellectual Property Rights which are modifications, amendments or derivatives of any Intellectual Property Rights already owned by such Party.

3.3.1.2 Nothing in this Section 3 shall be deemed to constitute an assignment of, or license to use, any Trademarks of the other Party.

3.3.2 Ownership of Results.

3.3.2.1 Polestar shall be the exclusive owner of the Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof.

3.3.2.2 All Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof, and any Intellectual Property Rights developed as a result of the Services provided by Volvo Cars (or if applicable, any of its appointed Affiliates or subcontractors), shall consequently automatically upon creation be transferred from Volvo Cars to Polestar. Polestar may freely modify and assign such Result. However, and for the avoidance of doubt, Source Code and Object Code modifications, amendments and developments after such Source Code and Object Code have been made available by Volvo Cars to Polestar in accordance with Section 3.1.2 are not governed by this Agreement, but will instead be governed by a separate software sharing agreement.

4. LICENSE GRANT4.1 License grant

- 4.1.1 Volvo Cars undertakes to grant Polestar a license to the Volvo Technology covered by this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt any software included in the Volvo Technology the following shall apply: Polestar may use the Object Code in its delivered format, whether modified or unmodified, without limitations. Polestar may not transfer or sublicense the Source Code to any Third Party, in whole or in part, in any form, whether modified or unmodified.
- 4.1.2 Such license shall, except for what is set out in Section 4.2 below or unless otherwise agreed in this Agreement, be non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any Volvo IP included in the license described hereunder)), non-assignable and give Polestar a right to, within the Territory and only in relation to the Polestar Vehicle and Other Polestar Branded Vehicles;
- (a) Use, in whole or in part, the Volvo Technology covered by this Agreement and any Volvo Cars' Background IP necessary to make Use of such Volvo Technology; and
- (b) design, engineer, make and have made, repair, service, market, sell and make available products and/or services based on, incorporating or using the Volvo Technology and the Background IP referred to in (a) above (in whole or in part).
- 4.1.3 Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as to give Polestar any rights, including but not limited to any license rights (express or implied), to any Volvo IP, except as expressly stated herein.
- 4.1.4 The license to be granted to Polestar in accordance with Section 4.1.1 and 4.1.2 above shall be fully sub-licensable to the Polestar's Affiliates, but shall not be sub-licensable to any Third Party without prior written consent from Volvo Cars, which shall not be unreasonably withheld (whereby a sublicense/license to a Third Party which is a competitor of Volvo Cars is an example of what could be deemed unreasonable) or delayed. For the avoidance of doubt, Volvo Cars shall except for what is set out in Section 4.2 below be free to Use and to grant licenses to Volvo Technology and any Volvo Cars' Background IP to Volvo Cars' Affiliates and any Third Parties without prior written consent from Polestar.

4.2 PS Unique Volvo Technology

- 4.2.1 In addition to what is set forth in Section 4.1 above, what is set forth in this Section 4.2 shall apply in relation to PS Unique Volvo Technology.
- 4.2.2 Any license granted in Section 4.1.2 above shall, in relation to PS Unique Volvo Technology be exclusive instead of non-exclusive. As a consequence thereof Volvo Cars shall have no right to make any Use whatsoever of, or to grant any further licenses to, any such PS Unique Volvo Technology.
- 4.2.3 In the event Volvo Cars (i) in its sole discretion, determines that the PS Unique Volvo Technology, or parts thereof, shall no longer be PS Unique Volvo Technology but instead be such ordinary Volvo Technology covered only by Section 4.1 above Volvo Cars should pay Polestar a compensation. The compensation should equal 50% of the amount included in the Fee for such PS Unique Volvo Technology. In this case the following shall apply. Such PS Unique Volvo Technology shall immediately, upon Volvo Cars' payment of the compensation, no longer be considered PS Unique Volvo Technology but instead be considered ordinary Volvo Technology and what is set out in Section 4.1 above shall thus apply instead. For the avoidance of doubt, this inter alia implies that such previous exclusive license granted by Volvo Cars to Polestar shall instead become non-exclusive. For avoidance of doubt, Volvo Cars' right under this Section 4.2.3 may be exercised at any time also after the term of this Agreement.

4.3 Grant-back license to Common Polestar Technology

- 4.3.1 Polestar undertakes to automatically grant Volvo Cars a license to the Common Polestar Technology.
- 4.3.2 Such license shall, be non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any Polestar Intellectual Property Rights included in the license hereunder)), non-assignable and give Volvo Cars a right to, within the Territory, for Volvo branded vehicles;
- (a) Use, in whole or in part, such Common Polestar Technology, and/or
 - (b) design, engineer, make and have made, repair, service, market, sell and make available products and/or services based on, incorporating or using such Common Polestar Technology (in whole or in part).
- 4.3.3 The license to be granted to Volvo Cars in accordance with Section 4.3.1 and 4.3.2 above shall be fully sub-licensable to Volvo Cars' Affiliates and to any Third Parties, without prior written consent from Polestar. The Parties further agree that Volvo Cars may further develop such licenced Common Polestar Technology, either by itself or together with its Affiliates and/or any Third Parties. For the avoidance of doubt, Polestar shall be free to Use the Common Polestar Technology licenced back to Volvo Cars and to license such Common Polestar Technology to Polestar's Affiliates and to any Third Parties without prior written consent from Volvo Cars.

4.4 License to Polestar Technology not being Common Polestar Technology

- 4.4.1 In the event Volvo Cars requests that the Polestar Technology not being Common Polestar Technology, or parts thereof, shall be licensed to Volvo Cars, and Polestar consents, Polestar shall grant to Volvo Cars a license to such Polestar Technology. Such consent from Polestar shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In such a case, Volvo Cars shall pay a compensation to Polestar. The compensation should equal 50% of the amount included in Fee as regards such Polestar Technology. For the avoidance of doubt, Volvo Cars' request for a license to Polestar Technology as set out in this Section 4.4.1 may be exercised at any time also after the term of this Agreement.
- 4.4.2 Such license shall, be non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any Polestar Intellectual Property Rights included in the license described hereunder)), non-assignable and give Volvo Cars a right to, within the Territory, for Volvo branded vehicles;
- (a) Use, in whole or in part, such Polestar Technology, and/or
 - (b) design, engineer, make and have made, repair, service, market, sell and make available products and/or services based on, incorporating or using such Polestar Technology (in whole or in part).
- 4.4.3 The license to be granted to Volvo Cars in accordance with Section 4.4.1 and 4.4.2 above shall be fully sub-licensable to Volvo Cars's Affiliates, but shall not be sub-licensable to any Third Party without prior written consent from Polestar, which shall not be unreasonably withheld (whereby a sublicense/license to a Third Party which is a competitor of Polestar is an example of what could be deemed unreasonable) or delayed. For the avoidance of doubt, Polestar shall be free to Use the Polestar Technology licensed to Volvo Cars and to license such Polestar Technology to Polestar's Affiliates and to any Third Parties without prior written consent from Volvo Cars.

4.5 Third Party assignments

If the rights to any subject matter to which a license is granted under this Agreement is assigned by a Party to any Third Party, such Party shall ensure that said license is binding also upon the Third Party.

5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS5.1 Ownership rights

- 5.1.1 Other than with regard to Polestar Technology delivered as a service to Polestar, if any, Volvo Cars remains the owner and holder of all Volvo IP, including any Volvo Technology and Volvo Cars' Background IP, as well as any and all modifications, amendments and improvements thereof. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed an assignment of ownership of any Volvo IP, including any Volvo Technology and Volvo Cars' Background IP, from Volvo Cars to Polestar.

5.2 Polestar brand name

- 5.2.1 For sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Agreement does not include any right to use the "Polestar" brand name or Trademarks, or refer to "Polestar" in communications or official documents of whatever kind.
- 5.2.2 This means that this Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Polestar" brand name or "Polestar" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

5.3 Volvo brand name

- 5.3.1 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Agreement does not include any right to use the "Volvo" brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to "Volvo" in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the "Volvo" Trademarks as well as the "Volvo" name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the "Volvo" Trademarks is subject to a license agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related Intellectual Property Rights can only be used by Volvo Car Corporation and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.
- 5.3.2 This means that this Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Volvo" brand name or "Volvo" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

5.4 Suspected infringement

- 5.4.1 Either Party shall promptly (upon becoming aware) notify the other Party in writing of:
- (a) any conduct of a Third Party that such Party reasonably believes to be, or reasonably believes to be likely to be, an infringement, misappropriation or other violation of any Intellectual Property Rights licensed to such Party hereunder; or
 - (b) any allegations made to such Party by a Third Party that any Intellectual Property Rights licensed hereunder are invalid, subject to cancellation, unenforceable, or are a misappropriation of any Intellectual Property Rights of a Third Party.

- 5.4.2 In the event that a Party has provided the other Party a notification pursuant to Section 5.4.1 above, and the other Party decides not to take any action against the Third Party, the other Party may approve in writing that such Party shall be entitled to itself take action against the Third Party at its own cost. If the other Party approves, it shall provide reasonable assistance to such Party, as requested by such Party at its own expense. If the other Party does not approve to such Party taking such action, the issue should be escalated to the relevant governance forum on high governance level for decision.
- 5.4.3 For the avoidance of doubt, Volvo Cars has no responsibility in relation to Polestar in the event the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology is alleged to infringe in any Third Party's Intellectual Property Rights and as a consequence Volvo Cars has no obligation to defend and hold Polestar harmless from and against any alleged infringements, except as set forth in Section 11.3 below. Likewise, Polestar has no responsibility in relation to Volvo Cars in the event any Polestar Technology licensed back to Volvo Cars hereunder is alleged to infringe in any Third Party's Intellectual Property Rights and as a consequence Polestar has no obligation to defend and hold Volvo Cars harmless from and against any alleged infringements, except as set forth in Section 11.2 below.

6. FEE, PAYMENT TERMS

In consideration of the Services provided, the third party licenses assigned and the licenses granted hereunder and the Parties' performance of their respective obligations under this Agreement, each Party agrees to pay to the other Party the Fee under the payments terms as described in Appendix 2.

7. AUDITS

- 7.1.1 During the term of this Agreement, Polestar shall have the right to, upon reasonable notice in writing to Volvo Cars, inspect Volvo Cars' books and records related to the Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology and the premises where the work to finalise the Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology is carried out, in order to conduct quality controls and otherwise verify the statements rendered in this Agreement.
- 7.1.2 Audits shall be made during regular business hours and be conducted by Polestar or by an independent auditor appointed by Polestar. Should Polestar during any inspection find that Volvo Cars or the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology do not fulfil the requirements set forth herein, Polestar is entitled to comment on the identified deviations. Volvo Cars shall, upon notice from Polestar, take the actions required in order to fulfil the requirements. In the event the Parties cannot agree upon measures to be taken in respect of the audit, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to relevant governance forum on high governance level.

8. DELIVERY AND ACCEPTANCE

- 8.1 Volvo Cars shall provide the Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology, covered by this Agreement, (or if not finalised, any part of the Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology that has been finalised) to Polestar at the Gates or otherwise promptly after any part of the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology has been finalised.
- 8.2 The Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology (or finalised part thereof) in question shall be provided by Volvo Cars to Polestar by electronically loading files with the relevant information into the Data Room, except for the Object Code and the Source Code, which shall only be made available in the Data Room Software

- 8.3 Delivery of any Volvo Technology (or parts thereof), covered by this Agreement, occurs when the delivery at the respective Gates meets the requirements for that Gate set out in this Agreement, however subject to Section 9.2.1 below and that Polestar has accepted such delivery in accordance with what is set out below in this Section 8.
- 8.4 Polestar shall accept the delivery of the Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology, and parts thereof, at the respective Gates, unless the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology upon delivery at that Gate deviates from the requirements set forth in this Agreement. Unless otherwise noted in the minutes from the respective Gate, it is assumed that Polestar has accepted the delivery.
- 8.5 If the Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology has been delivered in accordance with this Section 8, but Polestar has not accepted the delivery in time (z. e. at the Gates or as agreed in this Agreement) nor objected to the delivery due to it deviating from what is set out in Section 9.2.1 below, the delivery shall be deemed accepted by Polestar. This shall apply at each Gate for each step.
- 8.6 For the avoidance of doubt, no delivery of the Common Polestar Technology shall be made by Polestar to Volvo Cars, and no acceptance shall hence be made by Volvo Cars of the Common Polestar Technology, since the Common Polestar Technology will continue to be in Volvo Cars' possession upon the assignment to Polestar considering the automatic grant- back license set forth in Section 4.3 above.

9. DELAYS, DEFECTS ETC.

9.1 Delay

- 9.1.1 Volvo Cars shall be deemed to be in delay when any of the Gates are met after the agreed delivery date for such Gate, unless the delay is caused by Polestar or the Parties have agreed for an extension of the time for meeting such Gate upon which the new agreed delivery date shall be relevant for determining whether Volvo Cars is in delay.
- 9.1.2 If Volvo Cars is in delay, or at any time believes that a Gate will not, or is unlikely to, be met in time, Volvo Cars shall inform Polestar of the reasons for and consequences of not meeting the Gate at the agreed date and shall take all steps reasonably necessary, including providing additional resources, to ensure that the requirements for the relevant Gate is met as soon as possible. For the avoidance of doubt, Volvo Cars shall be entitled to compensation in accordance with this Agreement for work performed to meet a Gate in relation to a risk of, or an actual, delay unless otherwise stated in this Section 9.1 or Section 9.2.3.
- 9.1.3 If Volvo Cars is in delay and such delay has a negative impact on the relevant model year program, the Parties shall upon Polestar's request, agree on a reduction of the Fee relating to additional work that (i) has to be carried out in order to meet the requirements for the Gate in question and (ii) is performed after the agreed delivery date for such Gate.
- 9.1.4 The Parties acknowledge that Volvo Cars' delay may be subject to Section 15.2 a) and 15.4.

9.2 Defects in delivery or the performance of development work

- 9.2.1 In the event the Volvo Technology or the Polestar Technology, or any part thereof, after having met a Gate, are faulty or defective, Volvo Cars shall, if such fault or defect is discovered and/or notified to Volvo Cars before Job1+90, remedy such noncompliance, fault or defect as soon as possible at its own cost
- 9.2.2 The Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology will not be considered faulty or defective if Volvo Cars has adhered to the Way Of Working when developing it.

- 9.2.3 Polestar shall not be responsible for costs that relate to work that does not meet the standards used by Volvo Cars when performing similar work for Volvo Cars or work having been performed by personnel not qualified for such work, in breach of Section 2.2.2 above, as long as such costs would not have occurred had the work been properly executed or performed by qualified personnel.

9.3 Effects of Polestar's actions

- 9.3.1 Notwithstanding what is set out above in this Section 9, Polestar shall be responsible for costs relating to delays which are due to Polestar's non-fulfillment of any of its obligations under this Agreement. Further, any such delays which are due to Polestar shall give a corresponding extension of time to Volvo Cars for meeting any affected Gate. Time plan and cost consequences for Polestar's requests for changes to the Volvo Technology or the Polestar Technology are to be handled in accordance with Section 13.2.
- 9.3.2 Notwithstanding what is set out above in this Section 9, Polestar shall be responsible for costs relating to faults and defects which are due to Polestar's non-fulfillment of any of its obligations under this Agreement.

10. WARRANTIES

General warranties

Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:

- (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;
- (b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;
- (c) the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement have been duly authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate any laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and
- (d) this Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

11. INDEMNIFICATION

11.1 General

- 11.1.1 The Parties acknowledge that all Volvo Technology and Polestar Technology, and any Volvo Cars' Background IP, is licensed and/or provided as a service to Polestar on an "as is" basis, without any warranties or representations of any kind (except for the warranties in Section 10 above), whether implied or express, and in particular any warranties of suitability, merchantability, description, design and fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, completeness, systems integration and accuracy are expressly excluded to the maximum extent permissible by law. However, the above does not exclude Volvo Cars' limited undertakings in Section 9.2.1 above.
- 11.1.2 In addition, Volvo Cars does not make any warranties or representations as regards the functionality of any Volvo Technology, Volvo Cars' Background IP and/or Polestar Technology in relation to the Polestar Vehicle and/or Other Polestar Branded Vehicles. Polestar hereby releases Volvo Cars from all liability (and accordingly, cannot claim damages, compensation, price reduction etc.) in respect of errors, defects and deficiencies in any Volvo Technology, Volvo Cars' Background IP and/or Polestar Technology of whatever kind, whether visible or latent, including but not limited to errors of fact or law, errors regarding right of disposition, physical defects and deficiencies and damages arising due to product liability after the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology have been delivered to Polestar, however excluding Volvo Cars' limited undertakings in Section 9.2.1 above.

- 11.1.3 The principles set out in this Section 11 is reflected in the Fee and the fact that Volvo Cars is not a supplier or consultant of systems or technical solutions, such as the Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology, but merely a car manufacturer which normally only develops technical solutions for its own business purposes.
- 11.1.4 The principles set forth in this Section 11 are exclusive. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing in this Section 11, the Parties agree that no other remedy whatsoever under any statute, law or legal principle shall be available to Polestar in relation to the licenses and/or work to be granted and/or performed by Volvo Cars hereunder.
- 11.1.5 What is set forth in Sections 11.1.1-11.1.4 above shall apply mutatis mutandis in relation the effectuated grant-back licenses set forth in Sections 4.3 and 4.4 above.

11.2 Polestar's indemnification

- 11.2.1 Polestar shall indemnify and hold harmless Volvo Cars and each of its Affiliates from and against any and all direct or indirect losses, liabilities, damages, costs, expenses (including all interest, penalties, reasonable legal and other professional fees, costs and expenses), actions, charges, fines, claims and proceedings arising out of or in connection with Polestar's use of any Volvo Technology, Volvo Cars' Background IP and/or Polestar Technology, including but not limited to any Third Party claims on Intellectual Property Rights infringement.
- 11.2.2 Polestar shall indemnify and hold harmless Volvo Cars and each of its Affiliates from and against any and all direct or indirect losses, liabilities, damages, costs, expenses (including all interest, penalties, reasonable legal and other professional fees, costs and expenses), actions, charges, fines, claims and proceedings sustained by any of them, arising from any Third Party with respect to the death or injury to any person, or damage to property, by whomsoever suffered, resulting or claimed to have resulted from any fault or defect in the Polestar Vehicle or Other Polestar Branded Vehicles.
- 11.2.3 Volvo Cars shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to Polestar's use of any Volvo Technology, Volvo Cars' Background IP and/or Polestar Technology from Volvo Cars, or a claim which may reasonably be indemnifiable pursuant to Section 11.2.2 above, notify Polestar of such claim in writing and Polestar shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the Third Party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. Polestar shall at all times keep Volvo Cars informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with Volvo Cars on appropriate actions to take. If Polestar fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend Volvo Cars within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, Volvo Cars shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/or over any settlement negotiation at Polestar's cost. Any settlement proposed by Polestar on its own account must take account of potential implications for Volvo Cars and shall therefore be agreed in writing with Volvo Cars before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

11.3 Volvo's indemnification

- 11.3.1 Volvo Cars shall indemnify and hold harmless Polestar and each of its Affiliates from and against any and all direct or indirect losses, liabilities, damages, costs, expenses (including all interest, penalties, reasonable legal and other professional fees, costs and expenses), actions, charges, fines, claims and proceedings, arising out of or in connection with Volvo Cars' use of any Polestar Technology licensed back to Volvo Cars hereunder, including but not limited to any Third Party claims on Intellectual Property Rights infringement.

- 11.3.2 Volvo Cars shall indemnify and hold harmless Polestar and each of its Affiliates from and against any and all direct or indirect losses, liabilities, damages, costs, expenses (including all interest, penalties, reasonable legal and other professional fees, costs and expenses), actions, charges, fines, claims and proceedings sustained by any of them, arising from any Third Party with respect to the death or injury to any person, or damage to property, by whomever suffered, resulting or claimed to have resulted from any fault or defect in any Volvo branded vehicle.
- 11.3.3 Polestar shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to Volvo Cars' use of any Polestar Technology licensed back to Volvo Cars hereunder from Polestar, or a claim which may reasonably be indemnifiable pursuant to Section 11.3.2 above, notify Volvo Cars of such claim in writing and Volvo Cars shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the Third Party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. Volvo Cars shall at all times keep Polestar informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with Polestar on appropriate actions to take. If Volvo Cars fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend Polestar within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, Polestar shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/or over any settlement negotiation at Volvo Cars' cost. Any settlement proposed by Volvo Cars on its own account must take account of potential implications for Polestar and shall therefore be agreed in writing with Polestar before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

12. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 12.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Agreement.
- 12.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with a this Agreement shall be limited to ten (10) percent of the Fee payable by Polestar to Volvo Cars under this Agreement.
- 12.3 The limitations of liability set out in this Section 12 shall not apply in respect of damage;
- (a) caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence, or
 - (b) caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 14 below.

13. GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES

13.1 Governance

- 13.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Agreement, including its Appendices as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Agreement.
- 13.1.2 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event that the Parties on an operational level cannot agree, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue in accordance with what it set forth in Section 18. In the event that the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and the procedure set forth in Section 18 shall apply.

- 13.1.3 The first level of governance forum for handling the co-operation between the Parties in various matters, handling management, prioritisation of development activities etc. under this Agreement shall be the "Steering Committee", which is the so called Volvo Polestar PC Steering Committee. The Steering Committee shall be the first level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.
- 13.1.4 The higher level of governance forum, to which an issue shall be escalated if the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution shall be the "Strategic Board", which regarding cooperation between Volvo Cars and Polestar is the so called Volvo Polestar Executive Meeting. The Strategic Board shall be the highest level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.
- 13.2 Changes and Costs
- 13.2.1 Up until Job 1+90, Polestar can request changes to the specification set forth in Appendix 1, as well as to the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology, which shall be handled in accordance with the governance procedure set forth in Section 13.1 above. Both Parties agree to act in good faith to address and respond to any change request within a reasonable period of time.
- 13.2.2 For the avoidance of doubt the Parties acknowledge that Volvo Cars, up until Job1+90, will be entitled to suggest changes to the Volvo Technology, as long as the specification in Appendix 1 is met. The Parties undertake to act in good faith and to agree on the consequences of any such changes for Polestar. If the Parties cannot agree on such suggested change of Volvo Technology, Volvo Cars shall still be entitled to carry out said change, but the result thereof will not be considered Volvo Technology.
- 13.2.3 The costs relating to changes to the development work requested by Polestar shall, in relation to Volvo Technology, be allocated based on the category of the relevant development (i.e. whether the results shall be considered Volvo Technology or PS Unique Volvo Technology) in accordance with what is set forth in Section 2.3.3.1 (if applicable) and Appendix 2. Further, the costs relating to the changes to the development work requested by Polestar shall, in relation to Polestar Technology, be allocated based on the category of the relevant development (i.e. whether the results shall be considered Common Polestar Technology or such Polestar Technology not being Common Polestar Technology) in accordance with what is set out in Section 4.4.1 (if applicable) and Appendix 2.
- 13.2.4 For the avoidance of doubt, the Parties acknowledge that Polestar shall be responsible for all costs relating to changes requested by Polestar in relation to such Polestar Technology to which Volvo Cars has not been granted a license pursuant to Section 4.3 or 4.4.
- 13.2.5 The Parties acknowledge that Volvo Cars will not perform in accordance with a change request submitted by Polestar until agreed in writing between the Parties. Until there is an agreement about the requested change, all work shall thus continue in accordance with the existing specification set forth in Appendix 1.
- 13.2.6 For the avoidance of doubt, any changes under this Agreement made in relation to the Polestar Technology after the effective date, shall automatically upon creation also be assigned to Polestar in accordance with what is set forth in Section 2.3.3.1 and 4.3-4.4 above. Correspondingly, any changes under this Agreement made to the Volvo Technology after the effective date shall automatically upon creation also be included in the license granted to Polestar in Section 4.1 above. Any changes under this Agreement made in relation to the Volvo Technology or Polestar Technology, respectively, as set forth in this Section, shall thus upon execution be included in the definition of Volvo Technology or Polestar Technology, as applicable.

14. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 14.1 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes set forth in this Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 14.1 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or sub-contractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:
- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
 - (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
 - (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
 - (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;
 - (e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and make use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or
 - (f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.
- 14.2 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 14.
- 14.3 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within thirty (30) days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as "Confidential", "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 14.4 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 14, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section 18.2 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 14.5 For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 14 does not permit disclosure of source code to software, and/or any substantial parts of design documents to software, included in any Volvo Technology to any Third Party, notwithstanding what it set forth above in this Section 14. Any such disclosure to any Third Party is permitted only if approved in writing by Volvo Cars.
- 14.6 This Section 14 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement without limitation in time.

15. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 15.1 This Agreement shall become effective as set forth in the preamble to this Agreement and shall remain in force during the performance of the Services and the validity of the license period of the license granted to Polestar under this Agreement, unless terminated in accordance with Section 15.2 or 15.4 below or partly cancelled in accordance with Sections 15.5 or 15.7 below.
- 15.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect in the event;
- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Agreement, which has not been remedied within sixty (60) days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied);
 - (b) the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors; or
- 15.3 For avoidance of doubt, either Party not paying the Fee, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, shall be considered a material breach for the purpose of this Agreement.
- 15.4 Polestar is entitled to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect in case Volvo Cars acts in breach of what is set forth in Sections 9.1 or 9.2 above and has not within one hundred twenty (120) days from written notice from Polestar to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied), taken necessary measures and/or remedy such non-compliance, delay, fault or defect and after such issue has been escalated in accordance with the escalation principles set out in Section 18.1 below.
- 15.5 None of the Parties shall be entitled to cancel any delivery of Volvo Technology (for the avoidance of doubt not including PS Unique Volvo Technology) unless both Parties agree on the termination and how to split the costs.
- 15.6 Polestar shall be entitled to cancel any delivery of Polestar Technology or PS Unique Volvo Technology by Volvo Cars under this Agreement for convenience upon thirty (30) days written notice to Volvo Cars. In such event, Volvo Cars shall, upon request from Polestar, promptly make available in the Data Room (if applicable) any and all parts of the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology which have been finalised for delivery on the effective date of the cancellation.
- 15.7 In the event Polestar cancels any delivery of the Polestar Technology or PS Unique Volvo Technology in accordance with Section 15.5 above, the Fee shall correspond to the part of the Fee that relates to (i) Polestar Technology or PS Unique Volvo Technology existing at the execution of this Agreement, (ii) Volvo Cars' costs for the work performed under this Agreement up, until and including the effective date of the cancellation, including the markup otherwise applied to calculate the Fee for the Polestar Technology or PS Unique Volvo Technology and (iii) any other proven costs Volvo Cars has incurred.

16. MISCELLANEOUS16.1 Force majeure

- 16.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under this Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A "Force Majeure Event" means any event beyond a Party's reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party's), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors.

16.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under this Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its non-performance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

16.2 Notices

16.2.1 All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:

- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
- (b) if sent by email transmission, at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
- (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
- (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any Party by email, such Party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods.

16.2.2 All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be sent to following addresses:

16.3 Assignment

16.3.1 Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.

16.3.2 Notwithstanding the above, each Party may assign this Agreement to an Affiliate without the prior written consent of the other Party.

16.4 Waiver

Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Agreement or failure to notify the infringing Party of a breach in connection with the Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.

16.5 Severability

In the event any provision of this Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.

16.6 Entire agreement

All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Agreement are superseded by this Agreement.

16.7 Amendments

Any amendment or addition to this Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.

16.8 Survival

16.8.1 If this Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 15 above, Section 3 (License Grant), Section 4.3 (Grant-back license to Common Polestar Technology), Section 4.4 (License to Polestar Technology not being Common Polestar Technology), Section 14 (Confidential Information), Section 17 (Governing Law), Section 18 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 16.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.

- 16.8.2 Notwithstanding Section 16.8.1 above, if this Agreement is terminated due to Polestar not paying the Fee without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, pursuant to Section 15 above, Section 3 (License Grant) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination.
- 16.8.3 Notwithstanding Section 16.8.1 above, if this Agreement is terminated due to Volvo Cars not reducing or repaying the Fee, or part thereof, without legitimate reasons for doing so, pursuant to Section 15 above, Section 4.3 (Grant-back license to Common Polestar Technology) and Section 4.4 (License to Polestar Technology not being Common Polestar Technology) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination.

17. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of Sweden without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

18. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

18.1 Escalation principles

- 18.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.
- 18.1.2 The members of the Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 18.1.3 If the Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the Strategic Board for decision. If no Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the Strategic Board.
- Should the matter not have been resolved by the Strategic Board within 30 days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 18.2 below.
- 18.1.4 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 14 above.
- 18.1.5 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 18.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the Strategic Board in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

18.2 Arbitration

- 18.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce. The seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, and the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.
- 18.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 18.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 18.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

This Agreement has been signed in two (2) originals, of which the parties have received one (1) each. The Parties acknowledge that this Agreement shall be binding upon the Parties already upon the signing and exchange of scanned version thereof, including scanned signatures.

APPENDIX 2

FEE

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This appendix determines the Fee for the deliveries under this Agreement.
- 1.2 Any capitalised terms used but not specifically defined in this Appendix shall have the meanings set out for such terms in the License and Service Agreement. In addition, the capitalised terms set out below shall for the purpose of this Appendix have the meaning described herein. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa.

2. FEE

- 2.1 Principles for determining the Fee
- 2.2 As regards the Polestar and Volvo Technology, the Fee shall be determined based on Volvo Cars actual development costs for developing the Polestar and Volvo Technology.
- 2.3 The Fee shall be determined based on the activities performed when Volvo Cars has developed/develops the Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology, and on estimated development costs, which shall be calculated on a time and material (and other costs) basis applying arm's length pricing using the cost plus method, i.e. full cost incurred plus an arm's length mark-up.
- 2.4 The Fee will be based on the actual hours required for the Service Specification in Appendix 1 and the hourly rates as set forth in Section 2.5 below. The Parties acknowledge that the estimated Fee set forth in this Appendix 2, are based on an estimation of the number of hours required and that this estimation may differ from the final actual number of hours charged by Volvo Cars. Hence, the Fee will ultimately be invoiced based on actual hours, not on estimated hours.
- 2.5 The hourly rates shall be determined by Volvo Cars on an annual basis in compliance with applicable tax legislation, including but not limited to the principle of "arm's length distance" between the Parties. All costs Volvo Cars has in order to develop the Agreement Result shall be included in the License and Service fee.

3. PAYMENT TERMS

- 3.1 The Fee outlined above in this appendix and included in the License and Service Agreement will be paid, as regards Volvo Cars' actual development costs up until and including February 2021, when the Agreement is signed by duly authorised signatories of each Party.
- 3.2 The actual development costs shall then be invoiced on a monthly basis, at the end of each month and payable within 45 days after the date of invoice.
- 3.3 All amounts and payments referred to in this Agreement shall be paid in SEK.
- 3.4 Volvo Cars is responsible for charging and declaring sales tax/VAT or other taxes as follow from applicable law. Any applicable sales tax/VAT on the agreed price will be included in the invoices and paid by Polestar. All amounts referred to in this Agreement are exclusive of VAT.

- 3.5 If Volvo Cars is obligated to collect or pay taxes, such taxes shall be invoiced to Polestar, unless Polestar provides a valid tax exemption certificate authorized by the appropriate Tax Authority. If Polestar is required by law to withhold any taxes from its payments Polestar must provide an official tax receipt or other appropriate documentation to support this withholding.
- 3.6 Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based on the one (1) month applicable interbank rate, with an addition of two per cent (2%) per annum.
- 3.7 Any paid portion of the Fee is non-refundable, with the exceptions set out in this Agreement.

APPENDICES

Appendix 1—Polestar 2 Technical Specification Modelyear Programs

Appendix 2—Fee

This LICENSE AND LICENSE ASSIGNMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is entered into on 15 February 2021 and made between:

- (1) Volvo Car Corporation, Reg. No. 556074-3089, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden ("Volvo Cars"); and
- (2) Polestar Automotive China Distribution Co. Ltd., Reg. No. 91510112MA6D05KT88, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of China ("Polestar").

Each of Volvo Cars and Polestar is hereinafter referred to as a "Party" and jointly as the "Parties".

BACKGROUND

- A. Volvo Cars is in the business, among other activities, of developing, manufacturing and selling Volvo branded cars. It is understood that Volvo Cars is not normally a service provider.
- B. Polestar is engaged in the development, manufacturing and sale of Polestar branded high- end electric performance cars.
- C. The Parties have entered into a Framework Assignment and License Agreement and a Car Model Assignment and License Agreement, both dated 31 October 2018, under which Volvo Cars develops, assigns and licenses certain intellectual property for Polestar 2 vehicles to Polestar.
- D. The Parties have agreed to continue to develop certain technology, to be introduced in Polestar's model year programs. During the life-time of the Polestar 2, there are several model year programs planned. These programs include additional technology content and features for the Polestar 2 that will be developed, assigned or licensed by Volvo Cars to Polestar
- E. The Parties have also agreed that Volvo Cars will provide certain development services for Polestar relating to the development of Polestar Unique Technology which will be introduced in Polestar's model year programs.
- F. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Agreement.

1. DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings assigned to them below. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa.

"Affiliate" means any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by Volvo Car Corporation or Polestar Automotive Holding Limited and control means the possession, directly or indirectly, by agreement or otherwise, of (i) at least 50% of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest, or (ii) the power (a) to appoint or remove a majority of the board of directors or other governing body of an entity, or (b) to cause the direction of the management of an entity.

"Agreement" means this License and License Assignment Agreement including all of its Appendices as amended from time to time.

“Appendix” means the appendices to this Agreement.

“Background IP” means the Intellectual Property Rights either;

- (a) owned by either of the Parties; or
- (b) created, developed or invented by directors, managers, employees or consultants of either of the Parties to which the Party has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sublicense

prior to the execution of this Agreement, and any Intellectual Property Rights developed independently of this Agreement.

“b” means the compact modular architecture platform.

“Common Polestar Technology” means such Polestar Technology, which is specified as Common Polestar Technology (Category 3B) in Appendix 1 to this Agreement, for which IP is owned by Polestar and which automatically, upon the assignment to Polestar, shall be licensed back to Volvo Cars.

“Confidential Information” means any and all information regarding the Parties and their respective businesses, whether commercial or technical, in whatever form or media, including but not limited to information relating to Intellectual Property Rights, concepts, technologies, processes, commercial figures, techniques, strategic plans and budgets, investments, customers and sales, designs, graphics, CAD models, CAE data, statement of works (including engineering statement of works and any specification), targets, test plans/reports, technical performance data and engineering sign-off documents and other information of a sensitive nature, that a Party learns from or about the other Party prior to or after the execution of this Agreement.

“Data Room” means (if applicable) the information sharing platform agreed to be used between the Parties for making available the information regarding the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology to Polestar.

“Data Room Software” means the information sharing solution agreed to be used between the Parties for making available the Polestar Technology being software.

“Disclosing Party” means the Party disclosing Confidential Information to the Receiving Party.

“Fee” means the fee to be paid by either Party to the other Party hereunder in accordance with what is set out in Appendix 2 to this Agreement.

“Force Majeure Event” shall have the meaning set out in Section 15.1.1 below.

“Gates” means the dates agreed between the Parties, and which shall be based on VPDS, when the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology, or parts thereof, shall have been delivered to and accepted by Polestar, and which shall, unless otherwise stated in this Agreement, be Program Start (PS), Final Data Judgement (FDJ), Launch Readiness (LR), Launch Sign-off (LS) and Final Status Report (FSR), all described in the VPDS.

“Industry Standard” means the exercise of such professionalism, skill, diligence, prudence and foresight which would normally be expected at any given time from a skilled and experienced actor engaged in a similar type of undertaking as under this Agreement.

“Intellectual Property Rights” means Patents, Non-patented IP, Know-How and rights in Confidential Information to the extent protected under applicable laws anywhere in the world. For the avoidance of doubt, Trademarks are not comprised by this definition.

“Job1” means in relation to this Agreement and the Polestar Vehicle, the date on which the production of the relevant Polestar Vehicle model year program covered by this Agreement starts. The Job1 time for each model year program is specified in Appendix 1.

“Job1+90” means in relation to this Agreement and the Polestar Vehicle, the date of Final Status Report (FSR), which follows from VPDS and which will take place 90 days after Job1.

“Know-How” means confidential and proprietary industrial, technical and commercial information and techniques in any form including (without limitation) drawings, formulae, test results, reports, project reports and testing procedures, instruction and training manuals, tables of operating conditions, specifications, component lists, market forecasts, lists and particulars of customers and suppliers.

“Non-patented IP” means copyrights (including rights in computer software), database rights, semiconductor topography rights, rights in designs, and other intellectual property rights (other than Trademarks and Patents) and all rights or forms of protection having equivalent or similar effect anywhere in the world, in each case whether registered or unregistered, and registered includes registrations, applications for registration and renewals whether made before, on or after execution of this Agreement.

“Object Code” means the compiled version of the Source Code including parameter files.

“Other Polestar Branded Vehicles” means Polestar branded vehicle models other than the Polestar Vehicle.

“Patent” means any patent, patent application, or utility model, whether filed before, on or after the execution of this Agreement, along with any continuation, continuation-in-part, divisional, re-examined or re-issued patent, foreign counterpart or renewal or extension of any of the foregoing.

“Polestar Supplier License Technology” means the Polestar Technology which is owned by a Third Party and licensed to Volvo Cars, and which license shall be assigned to Polestar under this Agreement.

“Polestar Technology” means technology that does not exist on any other vehicle than Polestar Vehicle and which shall be provided by Volvo Cars and purchased as a service by Polestar or assigned to Polestar under this Agreement, and which is specified as Polestar Technology (Category 1 and for the avoidance of doubt Category 3 B. Category 3B however not limited to existence in Polestar Vehicle) in Appendix 1 to this Agreement.

“PS Unique Volvo Technology” means such Volvo Technology which is specified as PS Unique Volvo Technology (Category 2) in Appendix 1 to this Agreement, for which IP is owned by Volvo Cars and which is licensed exclusively to Polestar including but not limited to access to drawings, specifications, calculations, protocols including test protocols), software (Object Code and Source Code), methods, processes and any similar deliverables needed for Polestar to make use of the licensed technology.

“Results” shall mean any outcome of the Services provided to Polestar under this Agreement (including but not limited to any IP, technology, patents, designs, software (Object Code and Source Code), methods, processes, deliverables, objects, products, documentation, modifications, improvements, and/or amendments to be carried out by Volvo Cars under the Appendix 1) and any other outcome or result of the Services to be performed by Volvo Cars as described in the relevant Appendix 1, irrespective of whether the performance of the Services has been completed or not.

“Services” means the services provided from Volvo Cars to Polestar relating to the Polestar Technology as specified in Appendix I for Category 1.

“Source Code” means human-readable program statements written by a programmer or developer in a high-level or assembly language that are not directly readable by a computer and that need to be compiled into object code before they can be executed by a computer.

“Territory” means all countries in the world except China.

“Third Party” means a party other than any of the Parties and/or an Affiliate of one of the Parties to this Agreement.

“Trademarks” means trademarks (including part numbers that are trademarks), service marks, logos, trade names, business names, assumed names, trade dress and get-up, and domain names, in each case whether registered or unregistered, including all applications, registrations, renewals and the like, in each case to the extent they constitute rights that are enforceable against third parties.

The right to “have made” is the right of the Parties in their capacity as a licensee hereunder, as applicable, to have another person (or their subcontractor of any tier) make for the Parties and does not include the right to grant sub-licenses to another person to make for such person’s own use or use other than for the Parties.

“Volvo IP” means Know-How, Intellectual Property Rights and all other deliverables and/or materials either

- (a) (i) owned by Volvo Cars, or (ii) created, developed or invented by directors, managers, employees or consultants of Volvo Cars (to which Volvo Cars has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sub-license), during or prior to the execution of this Agreement or during the term of the Agreement, or

- (b) licensed by Volvo Cars from any Third Party to which Volvo Cars has the right to grant a sub-license and/or to assign such license to Polestar.

“Volvo Technology” means the Volvo IP that shall be licensed to Polestar under this Agreement, and which is specified as Volvo Technology (Category 3 and 4 and for the avoidance of doubt Category 2) in Appendix I to this Agreement and for which IP is owned by Volvo Cars including but not limited to access to drawings, specifications, calculations, protocols (including test protocols), software (Object Code and Source Code), methods, processes and any similar deliverables needed for Polestar to make use of the licensed technology.

“Volvo Supplier License Technology” means the Volvo Technology and Polestar Unique Volvo Technology which is owned by a Third Party and licensed to Volvo Cars, and which license shall be sublicensed to Polestar under this Agreement.

“VPDS” means Volvo Cars’ procedures in development projects, ‘Volvo Product Development System’,

“Way Of Working” means the level of way of working set out in Section 2.2.2 below.

2 SCOPE OF THE AGREEMENT

2.1 General

- 2.1.1 The Polestar Vehicle consists of parts that are unique for Polestar and parts that are common with Volvo Cars. Before entering, into this Agreement, the Parties have discussed and specified the jointly agreed technical content that will be delivered by Volvo Cars for the Polestar Vehicle model year programs as further specified in Appendix 1. The model year programs will follow the VPDS process. The Parties have established a joint governance and change structure to follow up on upcoming changes for common development. Polestar alone will decide on changes to Polestar unique parts.
- 2.1.2 The Parties have agreed that Volvo Cars shall, to some extent based on Volvo IP, provide as a service and a license to Polestar certain technology related to the Polestar Vehicle and Other Polestar Branded Vehicles. It is acknowledged that such work will be conducted in accordance with the standards that Volvo Cars is using in its internal projects.
- 2.1.3 The Parties have agreed that the Volvo Technology shall be the sole property of Volvo Cars. Volvo Cars shall grant Polestar certain rights to use the Volvo Technology but also provide as a service and as assignment of supplier owned IP to Polestar the Polestar Technology. Polestar shall automatically grant Volvo Cars a grant-back license to use such parts of Polestar Technology that are Common Polestar Technology.
- 2.1.4 The Parties acknowledge that the Parties, prior to the signing of this Agreement, have started performing work in relation to this Agreement and that this Agreement shall govern this work irrespectively when it has been performed.
- 2.1.5 The Appendices shall be considered an integral part of this Agreement and any reference to the Agreement shall include the Appendices.
- 2.1.6 In the event there are any contradictions or inconsistencies between the terms of this Agreement and the appendices hereto, the Parties agree that they shall prevail over each other in the following order if not specifically stated otherwise in such document or the context or circumstances clearly suggest otherwise:
- (a) this Agreement;

(b) Appendix 1—Polestar 2 Technical Specification Modelyear Programs;

(c) Appendix 2—Fee.

2.2 Way of Working

- 2.2.1 Before entering into this Agreement, Polestar has been informed about the development and service processes and procedures that Volvo Cars is applying for its internal work and which Volvo Cars will be using for the development and services under this Agreement.
- 2.2.2 Under this Agreement, Volvo Cars shall use professional, appropriate, qualified and skilled personnel, and shall ensure that its personnel have been properly educated and trained for the work to be performed, including being fully acquainted with Polestar's specific requirements. Volvo Cars shall avoid unnecessary changes in the personnel engaged in performing its undertakings under this Agreement. Volvo Cars shall work according to the same standard of care and professionalism that is done in Volvo Cars' internal development projects. Such standard of care and professionalism, as well as Volvo Cars' performance of its undertakings under this Agreement shall however at all times correspond to Industry Standard. If Volvo Cars uses its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform its responsibilities under this Agreement, the same way of working shall apply as if such performance was made by Volvo Cars itself.
- 2.2.3 Volvo Cars shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its responsibilities under this Agreement. Furthermore, Volvo Cars undertakes to ensure that any development of the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology will not be given lower priority than other Volvo Cars internal similar projects.
- 2.2.4 Polestar shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its responsibilities under this Agreement and in particular provide Volvo Cars timely with necessary instructions and decisions requested by Volvo Cars, as required for Polestar to fulfil its responsibilities under this Agreement. Furthermore, Polestar shall use professional and skilled personal for the responsibilities to be performed including being adequately acquainted with Volvo Cars' specific requirements related to the common development.

2.3 The Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology

2.3.1 General

- 2.3.1.1 A commonly agreed specification setting forth, on an overall level, the deliverables to be performed by Volvo Cars in relation to the Polestar Vehicle is set out in Appendix 1. A final specification of the deliverables shall, subject to good faith and joint discussions between the Parties, be made at Job 1-90 as a part of the Final Status Report (FSR) where all agreed deliverables will be finally categorized as Volvo Technology or Polestar Technology jointly by the Parties. All of the aforementioned specifications shall be considered an integral part of Appendix 1 and consequently also this Agreement. However, for the avoidance of doubt deliverables categorised as Volvo Technology in Appendix 1 will not be recategorised as Polestar Technology.

2.3.1.2 The license to Volvo Technology and the delivery as a service of Polestar Technology shall, in relation to the Polestar Vehicle and Other Polestar Branded Vehicles, include all Volvo IP, which together with relevant Third Party Intellectual Property Rights not included in Volvo IP is reasonably necessary in order to meet the specification set forth in Appendix 1 to this Agreement. In case any such Third Party Intellectual Property Rights not included in Volvo IP is reasonably necessary in order to meet the specification set forth in Appendix J to this Agreement, Volvo Cars shall indicate that within the frame of the deliverables under the Volvo Technology. Polestar might thus be required to license Intellectual Property Rights and/or purchase components of Third Parties necessary to produce the Polestar Vehicle. However, Volvo Cars shall use reasonable efforts to ensure that Third Party Intellectual Property Rights are possible to sublicense or assign to Polestar.

2.3.1.3 For the avoidance of doubt, if any development shall be made in relation to such Polestar Technology to which Volvo Cars has not been granted a license to, pursuant to Section 3.3 or 3.4, the Parties acknowledge that Volvo Cars has a right to use such Polestar Technology to the extent it is reasonably necessary in order to perform the requested Service and the agreed common development.

2.3.2 General Limitations

2.3.2.1 The Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology that will be delivered under this Agreement is defined and described in Appendix I and that content is the basis for the Fee. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the details of such technology might not have been finalised at the time of entering into this Agreement. The technical functions are defined, but detailed deliverables will be updated and agreed according to Section 8 below, as the development progresses up until Job1+90 at the latest.

2.3.2.2 For the avoidance of doubt, Volvo Cars shall not under this Agreement manufacture the Polestar Vehicle, any components of the Volvo Technology or the Polestar Technology, or integrate any such components or the Volvo Technology or the Polestar Technology into Polestar's production of vehicles.

2.3.2.3 The Parties further acknowledge and agree that, if it is discovered that something has been classified by mistake as Volvo Technology under this Agreement, but which should have been classified as Polestar Technology or Common Polestar Technology, and/or vice versa, the Parties agree to in good faith renegotiate and agree on the reclassification of such technology and any amendment of the Fee to reflect such change. For avoidance of doubt, and as an example, this means that if the Parties agree that certain technology shall be changed from Volvo Technology to Common Polestar Technology, the terms and conditions herein relating to the latter shall thereafter apply to such technology. If the Parties cannot agree on such a reclassification, the issue shall be escalated in accordance with what is set out in Section 12.1.

2.3.3 Limitations in relation to the Polestar Supplier License Technology and Volvo Supplier License Technology

2.3.3.1 Assignment of Polestar Supplier Technology.

Polestar acknowledges that the Polestar Supplier License Technology is owned by Third Parties and that Volvo Cars may not be allowed to assign its rights thereto without consent from such relevant Third Party.

The assignment of Polestar Supplier License Technology is thus subject to any limitations which may be applicable to the rights granted to Volvo Cars by the Third Party owning the Intellectual Property Rights to such Polestar Supplier License Technology and will, not take effect until Volvo Cars has received the relevant consent from the Third Party.

When Volvo Cars has received the consent from the Third Party such Polestar Supplier License Technology will be assigned to Polestar. If Volvo Cars has not received the relevant consent from the Third Party within twelve (12) months from the signing date of this Agreement, no assignment of such Polestar Supplier License Technology shall occur, nor be considered to have occurred, and the Fee shall be reduced corresponding to the the part of the Fee that relates to the Polestar Supplier License Technology to which Volvo Cars has not received relevant consent in time. If such a reduction is not feasible to determine, it shall be negotiated between the Parties in good faith.

2.3.3.2 License to Volvo Supplier License Technology

Polestar acknowledges that the Volvo Supplier License Technology is owned by Third Parties and that Volvo Cars may not be allowed to grant a license without consent from such relevant Third Party.

The grant of a license to Volvo Supplier License Technology is thus subject to any limitations which may be applicable to the rights granted to Volvo Cars by the Third Party owning the Intellectual Property Rights to such Volvo Supplier License Technology, and will not take effect until Volvo Cars has received the relevant consent from the Third Party.

If Volvo Cars has not received the relevant consent from the Third Party within twelve (12) months from the signing date of this Agreement no license grant to Volvo Supplier License Technology shall occur, nor be considered to have occurred, and the Fee shall be reduced corresponding to the the part of the Fee that relates to the Volvo Supplier License Technology to which Volvo Cars has not received relevant consent in time. If such a reduction is not feasible to determine, it shall be negotiated between the Parties in good faith.

3. LICENSE GRANT

3.1 License grant

- 3.1.1 Volvo Cars undertakes to grant Polestar a license to the Volvo Technology covered by this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt any software included in the Volvo Technology the following shall apply: Polestar may use the Object Code in its delivered format, whether modified or unmodified, without limitations. Polestar may not transfer or sublicense the Source Code to any Third Party, in whole or in part, in any form, whether modified or unmodified.
- 3.1.2 Such license shall, except for what is set out in Section 3.2 below or unless otherwise agreed in this Agreement, be non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any Volvo IP included in the license described hereunder)), non-assignable and give Polestar a right to, within the Territory and only in relation to the Polestar Vehicle and Other Polestar Branded Vehicles:
 - (a) Use, in whole or in part, the Volvo Technology covered by this Agreement and any Volvo Cars' Background IP necessary to make Use of such Volvo Technology; and

- (b) design, engineer, make and have made, repair, service, market, sell and make available products and/or services based on, incorporating or using the Volvo Technology and the Background IP referred to in (a) above (in whole or in part).
- 3.1.3 Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as to give Polestar any rights, including but not limited to any license rights (express or implied), to any Volvo IP, except as expressly stated herein.
- 3.1.4 The license to be granted to Polestar in accordance with Section 3.1.1 and 3.1.2 above shall be fully sub-licensable to the Polestar's Affiliates, but shall not be sub-licensable to any Third Party without prior written consent from Volvo Cars, which shall not be unreasonably withheld (whereby a sublicense/license to a Third Party which is a competitor of Volvo Cars is an example of what could be deemed unreasonable) or delayed. For the avoidance of doubt, Volvo Cars shall except for what is set out in Section 3.2 below be free to Use and to grant licenses to Volvo Technology and any Volvo Cars' Background IP to Volvo Cars' Affiliates and any Third Parties without prior written consent from Polestar.
- 3.2 PS Unique Volvo Technology
 - 3.2.1 In addition to what is set forth in Section 3.1 above, what is set forth in this Section 3.2 shall apply in relation to PS Unique Volvo Technology.
 - 3.2.2 Any license granted in Section 3.1.2 above shall, in relation to PS Unique Volvo Technology be exclusive instead of non-exclusive. As a consequence thereof Volvo Cars shall have no right to make any Use whatsoever of, or to grant any further licenses to, any such PS Unique Volvo Technology.
 - 3.2.3 In the event Volvo Cars (i) in its sole discretion, determines that the PS Unique Volvo Technology, or parts thereof, shall no longer be PS Unique Volvo Technology but instead be such ordinary Volvo Technology covered only by Section 3.1 above Volvo Cars should pay Polestar a compensation. The compensation should equal 50% of the amount included in the Fee for such PS Unique Volvo Technology. In this case the following shall apply. Such PS Unique Volvo Technology shall immediately, upon Volvo Cars' payment of the compensation, no longer be considered PS Unique Volvo Technology but instead be considered ordinary Volvo Technology and what is set out in Section 3.1 above shall thus apply instead. For the avoidance of doubt, this inter cilia implies that such previous exclusive license granted by Volvo Cars to Polestar shall instead become non-exclusive. For avoidance of doubt, Volvo Cars' right under this Section 3.2.3 may be exercised at any time also after the term of this Agreement.
- 3.3 Grant-back license to Common Polestar Technology
 - 3.3.1 Polestar undertakes to automatically grant Volvo Cars a license to the Common Polestar Technology.
 - 3.3.2 Such license shall, be non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any Polestar Intellectual Property Rights included in the license hereunder)), non-assignable and give Volvo Cars a right to, within the Territory for Volvo branded vehicles;
 - (a) Use, in whole or in part, such Common Polestar Technology, and/or
 - (b) design, engineer, make and have made, repair, service, market, sell and make available products and/or services based on, incorporating or using such Common Polestar Technology (in whole or in part).

- 3.3.3 The license to be granted to Volvo Cars in accordance with Section 3.3.1 and 3.3.2 above shall be fully sub-licensable to Volvo Cars' Affiliates and to any Third Parties, without prior written consent from Polestar. The Parties further agree that Volvo Cars may further develop such licenced Common Polestar Technology, either by itself or together with its Affiliates and/or any Third Parties. For the avoidance of doubt, Polestar shall be free to Use the Common Polestar Technology licenced back to Volvo Cars and to license such Common Polestar Technology to Polestar's Affiliates and to any Third Parties without prior written consent from Volvo Cars.
- 3.4 License to Polestar Technology not being Common Polestar Technology
- 3.4.1 In the event Volvo Cars requests that the Polestar Technology not being Common Polestar Technology, or parts thereof, shall be licensed to Volvo Cars, and Polestar consents, Polestar shall grant to Volvo Cars a license to such Polestar Technology. Such consent from Polestar shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In such a case, Volvo Cars shall pay a compensation to Polestar. The compensation should equal 50% of the amount included in Fee as regards such Polestar Technology. For the avoidance of doubt, Volvo Cars' request for a license to Polestar Technology as set out in this Section 3.4.1 may be exercised at any time also after the term of this Agreement.
- 3.4.2 Such license shall, be non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any Polestar Intellectual Property Rights included in the license described hereunder)), non-assignable and give Volvo Cars a right to, within the Territory', for Volvo branded vehicles;
- (a) Use, in whole or in part, such Polestar Technology, and/or
 - (b) design, engineer, make and have made, repair, service, market, sell and make available products and/or services based on, incorporating or using such Polestar Technology (in whole or in part).
- 3.4.3 The license to be granted to Volvo Cars in accordance with Section 3.4.1 and 3.4.2 above shall be fully sub-licensable to Volvo Cars's Affiliates, but shall not be sub-licensable to any Third Party without prior written consent from Polestar, which shall not be unreasonably withheld (whereby a sublicense/license to a Third Party which is a competitor of Polestar is an example of what could be deemed unreasonable) or delayed. For the avoidance of doubt, Polestar shall be free to Use the Polestar Technology licensed to Volvo Cars and to license such Polestar Technology to Polestar's Affiliates and to any Third Parties without prior written consent from Volvo Cars.
- 3.5 Third Party assignments
- If the rights to any subject matter to which a license is granted under this Agreement is assigned by a Party to any Third Party, such Party shall ensure that said license is binding also upon the Third Party.

- 4 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS
- 4.1 Ownership rights
- 4.1.1 Other than with regard to Polestar Technology delivered as a service to Polestar, if any, Volvo Cars remains the owner and holder of all Volvo IP, including any Volvo Technology and Volvo Cars' Background IP, as well as any and all modifications, amendments and improvements thereof. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed an assignment of ownership of any Volvo IP, including any Volvo Technology and Volvo Cars' Background IP, from Volvo Cars to Polestar.
- 4.2 Polestar brand name
- 4.2.1 For sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Agreement does not include any right to use the "Polestar" brand name or Trademarks, or refer to "Polestar" in communications or official documents of whatever kind.
- 4.2.2 This means that this Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Polestar" brand name or "Polestar" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.
- 4.3 Volvo brand name
- 4.3.1 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Agreement does not include any right to use the "Volvo" brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to "Volvo" in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the "Volvo" Trademarks as well as the "Volvo" name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the "Volvo" Trademarks is subject to a license agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related Intellectual Property Rights can only be used by Volvo Car Corporation and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.
- 4.3.2 This means that this Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Volvo" brand name or "Volvo" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.
- 4.4 Suspected infringement
- 4.4.1 Either Party shall promptly (upon becoming aware) notify the other Party in writing of:
- (a) any conduct of a Third Party that such Party reasonably believes to be, or reasonably believes to be likely to be, an infringement, misappropriation or other violation of any Intellectual Property Rights licensed to such Party hereunder; or
- (b) any allegations made to such Party by a Third Party that any Intellectual Property Rights licensed hereunder are invalid, subject to cancellation, unenforceable, or are a misappropriation of any Intellectual Property Rights of a Third Party.
- 4.4.2 In the event that a Party has provided the other Party a notification pursuant to Section above, and the other Party decides not to take any action against the Third Party, the other Party may approve in writing that such Party shall be entitled to itself take action against the Third Party at its own cost. If the other Party approves, it shall provide reasonable assistance to such Party, as requested by such Party at its own expense. If the other Party does not approve to such Party taking such action, the issue should be escalated to the relevant governance forum on high governance level for decision.
- 4.4.3 For the avoidance of doubt, Volvo Cars has no responsibility in relation to Polestar in the event the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology is alleged to infringe in any Third Party's Intellectual Property Rights and as a consequence Volvo Cars has no obligation to defend and hold Polestar harmless from and against any alleged infringements, except as set forth in Section 10.3 below. Likewise, Polestar has no responsibility in relation to Volvo Cars in the event any Polestar Technology licensed back to Volvo Cars hereunder is alleged to infringe in any Third Party's Intellectual Property Rights and as a consequence Polestar has no obligation to defend and hold Volvo Cars harmless from and against any alleged infringements, except as set forth in Section 10.2 below.

5. FEE, PAYMENT TERMS

In consideration of the Services provided, the third party licenses assigned and the licenses granted hereunder and the Parties' performance of their respective obligations under this Agreement, each Party agrees to pay to the other Party the Fee under the payments terms as described in Appendix 2.

6. AUDITS

6.1.1 During the term of this Agreement, Polestar shall have the right to, upon reasonable notice in writing to Volvo Cars, inspect Volvo Cars' books and records related to the Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology and the premises where the work to finalise the Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology is carried out, in order to conduct quality controls and otherwise verify the statements rendered in this Agreement.

6.1.2 Audits shall be made during regular business hours and be conducted by Polestar or by an independent auditor appointed by Polestar. Should Polestar during any inspection find that Volvo Cars or the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology do not fulfil the requirements set forth herein, Polestar is entitled to comment on the identified deviations. Volvo Cars shall, upon notice from Polestar, take the actions required in order to fulfil the requirements. In the event the Parties cannot agree upon measures to be taken in respect of the audit, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to relevant governance forum on high governance level.

7. DELIVERY AND ACCEPTANCE

7.1 Volvo Cars shall provide the Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology, covered by this Agreement, (or if not finalised, any part of the Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology that has been finalised) to Polestar at the Gates or otherwise promptly after any part of the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology has been finalised.

7.2 The Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology (or finalised part thereof) in question shall be provided by Volvo Cars to Polestar by electronically loading files with the relevant information into the Data Room, except for the Object Code and the Source Code, which shall only be made available in the Data Room Software

7.3 Delivery of any Volvo Technology (or parts thereof), covered by this Agreement, occurs when the delivery at the respective Gates meets the requirements for that Gate set out in this Agreement, however subject to Section 8.2.1 below and that Polestar has accepted such delivery in accordance with what is set out below in this Section 7.

7.4 Polestar shall accept the delivery of the Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology, and parts thereof, at the respective Gates, unless the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology upon delivery at that Gate deviates from the requirements set forth in this Agreement. Unless otherwise noted in the minutes from the respective Gate, it is assumed that Polestar has accepted the delivery.

7.5 If the Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology has been delivered in accordance with this Section 7, but Polestar has not accepted the delivery in time (i.e. at the Gates or as agreed in this Agreement) nor objected to the delivery due to it deviating from what is set out in Section 8.2.1 below, the delivery shall be deemed accepted by Polestar. This shall apply at each Gate for each step.

- 7.6 For the avoidance of doubt, no delivery of the Common Polestar Technology shall be made by Polestar to Volvo Cars, and no acceptance shall hence be made by Volvo Cars of the Common Polestar Technology, since the Common Polestar Technology will continue to be in Volvo Cars' possession upon the assignment to Polestar considering the automatic grant-back license set forth in Section 3.3 above.
8. DELAYS, DEFECTS ETC.
- 8.1 Delay
- 8.1.1 Volvo Cars shall be deemed to be in delay when any of the Gates are met after the agreed delivery date for such Gate, unless the delay is caused by Polestar or the Parties have agreed for an extension of the time for meeting such Gate upon which the new agreed delivery date shall be relevant for determining whether Volvo Cars is in delay.
- 8.1.2 If Volvo Cars is in delay, or at any time believes that a Gate will not, or is unlikely to, be met in time, Volvo Cars shall inform Polestar of the reasons for and consequences of not meeting the Gate at the agreed date and shall take all steps reasonably necessary, including providing additional resources, to ensure that the requirements for the relevant Gate is met as soon as possible. For the avoidance of doubt, Volvo Cars shall be entitled to compensation in accordance with this Agreement for work performed to meet a Gate in relation to a risk of, or an actual, delay unless otherwise stated in this Section 9.1 or Section 9.2.3.
- 8.1.3 If Volvo Cars is in delay and such delay has a negative impact on the relevant model year program, the Parties shall upon Polestar's request, agree on a reduction of the Fee relating to additional work that (i) has to be carried out in order to meet the requirements for the Gate in question and (ii) is performed after the agreed delivery date for such Gate.
- 8.1.4 The Parties acknowledge that Volvo Cars' delay may be subject to Section 14.2 a) and 14.4.
- 8.2 Defects in delivery or the performance of development work
- 8.2.1 In the event the Volvo Technology or the Polestar Technology, or any part thereof, after having met a Gate, are faulty or defective, Volvo Cars shall, if such fault or defect is discovered and/or notified to Volvo Cars before Job1+90, remedy such non-compliance, fault or defect as soon as possible. Related costs shall be included in the Fee.
- 8.2.2 The Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology will not be considered faulty or defective if Volvo Cars has adhered to the Way Of Working when developing it.
- 8.2.3 Polestar shall not be responsible for costs that relate to work that does not meet the standards used by Volvo Cars when performing similar work for Volvo Cars or work having been performed by personnel not qualified for such work, in breach of Section 2.2.2 above, as long as such costs would not have occurred had the work been properly executed or performed by qualified personnel.
- 8.3 Effects of Polestar's actions
- 8.3.1 Notwithstanding what is set out above in this Section 8, Polestar shall be responsible for costs relating to delays which are due to Polestar's non-fulfillment of any of its obligations under this Agreement. Further, any such delays which are due to Polestar shall give a corresponding extension of time to Volvo Cars for meeting any affected Gate. Time plan and cost consequences for Polestar's requests for changes to the Volvo Technology or the Polestar Technology are to be handled in accordance with Section 12.2.

- 8.3.2 Notwithstanding what is set out above in this Section 8, Polestar shall be responsible for costs relating to faults and defects which are due to Polestar's non-fulfillment of any of its obligations under this Agreement.

9. WARRANTIES

General warranties

Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:

- (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;
- (b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;
- (c) the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement have been duly- authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate any laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and
- (d) this Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

10. INDEMNIFICATION

10.1 General

- 10.1.1 The Parties acknowledge that all Volvo Technology and Polestar Technology, and any Volvo Cars' Background IP, is licensed and/or provided as a service to Polestar on an "as is" basis, without any warranties or representations of any kind (except for the warranties in Section 10 above), whether implied or express, and in particular any warranties of suitability, merchantability, description, design and fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, completeness, systems integration and accuracy are expressly excluded to the maximum extent permissible by law. However, the above does not exclude Volvo Cars' limited undertakings in Section 8.2.1 above.

- 10.1.2 In addition, Volvo Cars does not make any warranties or representations as regards the functionality of any Volvo Technology, Volvo Cars' Background IP and/or Polestar Technology in relation to the Polestar Vehicle and/or Other Polestar Branded Vehicles. Polestar hereby releases Volvo Cars from all liability (and accordingly, cannot claim damages, compensation, price reduction etc.) in respect of errors, defects and deficiencies in any Volvo Technology, Volvo Cars' Background IP and/or Polestar Technology of whatever kind, whether visible or latent, including but not limited to errors of fact or law, errors regarding right of disposition, physical defects and deficiencies and damages arising due to product liability after the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology have been delivered to Polestar, however excluding Volvo Cars' limited undertakings in Section 8.2.1 above.
- 10.1.3 The principles set out in this Section 10 is reflected in the Fee and the fact that Volvo Cars is not a supplier or consultant of systems or technical solutions, such as the Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology, but merely a car manufacturer which normally only develops technical solutions for its own business purposes.
- 10.1.4 The principles set forth in this Section 10 are exclusive. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing in this Section 10, the Parties agree that no other remedy whatsoever under any statute, law or legal principle shall be available to Polestar in relation to the licenses and/or work to be granted and/or performed by Volvo Cars hereunder.
- 10.1.5 What is set forth in Sections 10.1.1-10.1.4 above shall apply mutatis mutandis in relation the effectuated grant-back licenses set forth in Sections 3.3 and 3.4 above.
- 10.2 Polestar's indemnification
- 10.2.1 Polestar shall indemnify and hold harmless Volvo Cars and each of its Affiliates from and against any and all direct or indirect losses, liabilities, damages, costs, expenses (including all interest, penalties, reasonable legal and other professional fees, costs and expenses), actions, charges, fines, claims and proceedings arising out of or in connection with Polestar's use of any Volvo Technology, Volvo Cars' Background IP and/or Polestar Technology, including but not limited to any Third Party claims on Intellectual Property Rights infringement.
- 10.2.2 Polestar shall indemnify and hold harmless Volvo Cars and each of its Affiliates from and against any and all direct or indirect losses, liabilities, damages, costs, expenses (including all interest, penalties, reasonable legal and other professional fees, costs and expenses), actions, charges, fines, claims and proceedings sustained by any of them, arising from any Third Party with respect to the death or injury to any person, or damage to property, by whomsoever suffered, resulting or claimed to have resulted from any fault or defect in the Polestar Vehicle or Other Polestar Branded Vehicles.
- 10.2.3 Volvo Cars shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to Polestar's use of any Volvo Technology, Volvo Cars' Background IP and/or Polestar Technology from Volvo Cars, or a claim which may reasonably be indemnifiable pursuant to Section 10.2.2 above, notify Polestar of such claim in writing and Polestar shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the Third Party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. Polestar shall at all times keep Volvo Cars informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with Volvo Cars on appropriate actions to take. If Polestar fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend Volvo Cars within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, Volvo Cars shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/or over any settlement negotiation at Polestar's cost. Any settlement proposed by Polestar on its own account must take account of potential implications for Volvo Cars and shall therefore be agreed in writing with Volvo Cars before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

- 10.3 Volvo's indemnification
- 10.3.1 Volvo Cars shall indemnify and hold harmless Polestar and each of its Affiliates from and against any and all direct or indirect losses, liabilities, damages, costs, expenses (including all interest, penalties, reasonable legal and other professional fees, costs and expenses), actions, charges, fines, claims and proceedings, arising out of or in connection with Volvo Cars' use of any Polestar Technology licensed back to Volvo Cars hereunder, including but not limited to any Third Party claims on Intellectual Property Rights infringement.
- 10.3.2 Volvo Cars shall indemnify and hold harmless Polestar and each of its Affiliates from and against any and all director indirect losses, liabilities, damages, costs, expenses (including all interest, penalties, reasonable legal and other professional fees, costs and expenses), actions, charges, fines, claims and proceedings sustained by any of them, arising from any Third Party with respect to the death or injury to any person, or damage to property, by whomever suffered, resulting or claimed to have resulted from any fault or defect in any Volvo branded vehicle.
- 10.3.3 Polestar shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to Volvo Cars' use of any Polestar Technology licensed back to Volvo Cars hereunder from Polestar, or a claim which may reasonably be indemnifiable pursuant to Section 10.3.2 above, notify Volvo Cars of such claim in writing and Volvo Cars shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the Third Party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. Volvo Cars shall at all times keep Polestar informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with Polestar on appropriate actions to take. If Volvo Cars fails to, or chooses not to take actions to defend Polestar within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts. Polestar shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/or over any settlement negotiation at Volvo Cars' cost. Any settlement proposed by Volvo Cars on its own account must take account of potential implications for Polestar and shall therefore be agreed in writing with Polestar before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.
11. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY
- 11.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Agreement.
- 11.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with a this Agreement shall be limited to ten (10) percent of the Fee payable by Polestar to Volvo Cars under this Agreement.
- 11.3 The limitations of liability Set out in this Section 11 shall not apply in respect of damage;
- (a) caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence, or
- (b) caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 13 below.
12. GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES
- 12.1 Governance
- 12.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Agreement, including its Appendices as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Agreement.
- 12.1.2 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event that the Parties on an operational level cannot agree, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue in accordance with what it set forth in Section 18. In the event that the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and the procedure set forth in Section 17 shall apply.

- 12.1.3 The first level of governance forum for handling the co-operation between the Parties in various matters, handling management, prioritisation of development activities etc. under this Agreement shall be the "Steering Committee", which is the so called Volvo Polestar PC Steering Committee. The Steering Committee shall be the first level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.
- 12.1.4 The higher level of governance forum, to which an issue shall be escalated if the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution shall be the "Strategic Board", which regarding cooperation between Volvo Cars and Polestar is the so called Volvo Polestar Executive Meeting. The Strategic Board shall be the highest level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.
- 12.2 Changes and Costs
- 12.2.1 Up until Job1+90, Polestar can request changes to the specification set forth in Appendix 1, as well as to the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology, which shall be handled in accordance with the governance procedure set forth in Section 13.1 above. Both Parties agree to act in good faith to address and respond to any change request within a reasonable period of time.
- 12.2.2 For the avoidance of doubt the Parties acknowledge that Volvo Cars, up until Job1+90, will be entitled to suggest changes to the Volvo Technology, as long as the specification in Appendix 1 is met. The Parties undertake to act in good faith and to agree on the consequences of any such changes for Polestar. If the Parties cannot agree on such suggested change of Volvo Technology, Volvo Cars shall still be entitled to carry out said change, but the result thereof will not be considered Volvo Technology.
- 12.2.3 The costs relating to changes to the development work requested by Polestar shall, in relation to Volvo Technology, be allocated based on the category of the relevant development (i.e. whether the results shall be considered Volvo Technology or PS Unique Volvo Technology) in accordance with what is set forth in Section 2.3.3.1 (if applicable) and Appendix 2. Further, the costs relating to the changes to the development work requested by Polestar shall, in relation to Polestar Technology, be allocated based on the category of the relevant development (i.e. whether the results shall be considered Common Polestar Technology or such Polestar Technology not being Common Polestar Technology) in accordance with what is set out in Section 4.4.1 (if applicable) and Appendix 2.
- 12.2.4 For the avoidance of doubt, the Parties acknowledge that Polestar shall be responsible for all costs relating to changes requested by Polestar in relation to such Polestar Technology to which Volvo Cars has not been granted a license pursuant to Section 4.3 or 4.4.
- 12.2.5 The Parties acknowledge that Volvo Cars will not perform in accordance with a change request submitted by Polestar until agreed in writing between the Parties. Until there is an agreement about the requested change, all work shall thus continue in accordance with the existing specification set forth in Appendix 1.
- 12.2.6 For the avoidance of doubt, any changes under this Agreement made in relation to the Polestar Technology after the effective date, shall automatically upon creation also be assigned to Polestar in accordance with what is set forth in Section 2.3.3.1 and 4.3-4.4 above. Correspondingly, any changes under this Agreement made to the Volvo Technology after the effective date shall automatically upon creation also be included in the license granted to Polestar in Section 4.1 above. Any changes under this Agreement made in relation to the Volvo Technology or Polestar Technology, respectively, as set forth in this Section, shall thus upon execution be included, in the definition of Volvo Technology or Polestar Technology, as applicable.

13. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

13.1 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes set forth in this Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 13.1 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or sub-contractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:

- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
- (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
- (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
- (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;

- (e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and make use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or
 - (f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.
- 13.2 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 13.
- 13.3 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within thirty (30) days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking of subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as "Confidential", "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 13.4 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 13, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section 17.2 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 13.5 For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 13 does not permit disclosure of source code to software, and/or any substantial parts of design documents to software, included in any Volvo Technology to any Third Party, notwithstanding what it set forth above in this Section 13. Any such disclosure to any Third Party is permitted only if approved in writing by Volvo Cars.
- 13.6 This Section 13 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement without limitation in time.

14 TERM AND TERMINATION

- 14.1 This Agreement shall become effective as set forth in the preamble to this Agreement and shall remain in force during the performance of the Services and the validity of the license period of the license granted to Polestar under this Agreement, unless terminated in accordance with Section 14.2 or 14.4 below or partly cancelled in accordance with Sections 14.5 or 14.7 below.
- 14.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect in the event;

- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Agreement, which has not been remedied within sixty (60) days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied);
 - (b) the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors; or
- 14.3 For avoidance of doubt, either Party not paying the Fee, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, shall be considered a material breach for the purpose of this Agreement.
- 14.4 Polestar is entitled to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect in case Volvo Cars acts in breach of what is set forth in Sections 8.1 or 8.2 above and has not within one hundred twenty (120) days from written notice from Polestar to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied), taken necessary measures and/or remedy such non-compliance, delay, fault or defect and after such issue has been escalated in accordance with the escalation principles set out in Section 17.1 below.
- 14.5 None of the Parties shall be entitled to cancel any delivery of Volvo Technology (for the avoidance of doubt not including PS Unique Volvo Technology) unless both Parties agree on the termination and how to split the costs.
- 14.6 Polestar shall be entitled to cancel any delivery of Polestar Technology or PS Unique Volvo Technology by Volvo Cars under this Agreement for convenience upon thirty (30) days written notice to Volvo Cars. In such event, Volvo Cars shall, upon request from Polestar, promptly make available in the Data Room (if applicable) any and all parts of the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology which have been finalised for delivery on the effective date of the cancellation.
- 14.7 In the event Polestar cancels any delivery of the Polestar Technology or PS Unique Volvo Technology in accordance with Section 14.5 above, the Fee shall correspond to the part of the Fee that relates to (i) Polestar Technology or PS Unique Volvo Technology existing at the execution of this Agreement, (ii) Volvo Cars' costs for the work performed under this Agreement up, until and including the effective date of the cancellation, including the mark-up otherwise applied to calculate the Fee for the Polestar Technology or PS Unique Volvo Technology and (iii) any other proven costs Volvo Cars has incurred.

15.1 Force majeure

- 15.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under this Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A "Force Majeure Event" means any event beyond a Party's reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party's), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors.
- 15.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under this Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its non-performance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

15.2.1 All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:

- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
- (b) if sent by email transmission, at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
- (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
- (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any Party by email, such Party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods.

15.2.2 All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be sent to following addresses:

15.3 Assignment

- 15.3.1 Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.
- 15.3.2 Notwithstanding the above, each Party may assign this Agreement to an Affiliate without the prior written consent of the other Party.

15.4 Waiver

Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Agreement or failure to notify the infringing Party of a breach in connection with the Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.

15.5 Severability

In the event any provision of this Agreement is, wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.

15.6 Entire agreement

All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Agreement are superseded by this Agreement.

15.7 Amendments

Any amendment or addition to this Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.

15.8 Survival

- 15.8.1 If this Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 3 (License Grant), Section 3.3 (Grant-back license to Common Polestar Technology), Section 3.4 (License to Polestar Technology not being Common Polestar Technology), Section 13 (Confidential Information), Section 16 (Governing Law), Section 17 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 15.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.
- 15.8.2 Notwithstanding Section 15.8.1 above, if this Agreement is terminated due to Polestar not paying the Fee without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 3 (License Grant) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination.
- 15.8.3 Notwithstanding Section 15.8.1 above, if this Agreement is terminated due to Volvo Cars not reducing or repaying the Fee, or part thereof, without legitimate reasons for doing so, pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 3.3 (Grant-back license to Common Polestar Technology) and Section 3.4 (License to Polestar Technology not being Common Polestar Technology) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination.

16. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of Sweden without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

17.1 Escalation principles

- 17.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party' shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.
- 17.1.2 The members of the Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on apian to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 17.1.3 if the Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the Strategic Board for decision. If no Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the Strategic Board. Should the matter not have been resolved by the Strategic Board within 30 days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 17.2 below.

- 17.1.4 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 13 above.
- 17.1.5 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 18.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the Strategic Board in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.
- 17.2 Arbitration
- 17.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce. The seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, and the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators .
- 17.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 17.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 17.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

This Agreement has been signed in two (2) originals, of which the parties have received one (1) each. The Parties acknowledge that this Agreement shall be binding upon the Parties already upon the signing and exchange of scanned version thereof, including scanned signatures.

APPENDIX 2

FEE

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This appendix determines the Fee for the deliveries under this Agreement.
- 1.2 Any capitalised terms used but not specifically defined in this Appendix shall have the meanings set out for such terms in the License and Service Agreement. In addition, the capitalised terms set out below shall for the purpose of this Appendix have the meaning described herein. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa.

2. FEE

- 2.1 Principles for determining the Fee
- 2.2 As regards the Polestar and Volvo Technology, the Fee shall be determined based on Volvo Cars actual development costs for developing the Polestar and Volvo Technology.
- 2.3 The Fee shall be determined based on the activities performed when Volvo Cars has developed/develops the Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology, and on estimated development costs, which shall be calculated on a time and material (and other costs) basis applying arm's length pricing using the cost plus method, i.e. full cost incurred plus an arm's length mark-up.
- 2.4 The Fee will be based on the actual hours required for the Service Specification in Appendix 1 and the hourly rates as set forth in Section 2.5 below. The Parties acknowledge that the estimated Fee set forth in this Appendix 2, are based on an estimation of the number of hours required and that this estimation may differ from the final actual number of hours charged by Volvo Cars. Hence, the Fee will ultimately be invoiced based on actual hours, not on estimated hours.
- 2.5 The hourly rates shall be determined by Volvo Cars on an annual basis in compliance with applicable tax legislation, including but not limited to the principle of "arm's length distance" between the Parties. All costs Volvo Cars has in order to develop the Agreement Result shall be included in the License fee.
- 2.6 The estimated Fee that Polestar shall pay to Volvo Cars for the Polestar and Volvo Technology is set out in the table below.

3. PAYMENT TERMS

- 3.1 The Fee outlined above in this appendix and included in the License Agreement will be paid, as regards Volvo Cars' actual development costs up until and including February 2021, when the Agreement is signed by duly authorised signatories of each Party.
- 3.2 The actual development costs shall then be invoiced on a monthly basis, at the end of each month and payable within 45 days after the date of invoice.
- 3.3 All amounts and payments referred to in this Agreement shall be paid in SEK.
- 3.4 All amounts referred to in this License Agreement are exclusive of VAT. The Licensee shall bear the VAT, and the Licensor shall bear the Withholding Tax and surtaxes, that are applicable in accordance with local legislation to all amounts referred to in this License Agreement.
- 3.5 Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based on the one (1) month applicable interbank rate, with an addition of two percent (2%) per annum.
- 3.6 Any paid portion of the Fee is non-refundable, with the exceptions set out in this Agreement.

Certain identified information marked with “[]” has been omitted from this document because it is both (i) not material and (ii) the type that the registrant treats as private or confidential.

LIST OF APPENDICES TO THIS CAR MODEL MANUFACTURING AGREEMENT

Appendix 1—General Terms

Appendix 2—Technical Specification

This CAR MODEL MANUFACTURING AGREEMENT (this “Car Model Manufacturing Agreement”) is entered into on the date indicated below and made between:

- (1) First Automobile Branch of Zhejiang Haoqing Automobile Manufacturing Co., Ltd., a branch of Geely’s subsidiary Zhejiang Haoqing Automobile Manufacturing Co., Ltd. Reg. No. 91331004759093054Q, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of People’s Republic of China (the “Supplier” or “First Branch”); and
- (2) Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co. Ltd., Reg. No. 91510100MA6BX1H33P, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of People’s Republic of China (the “Buyer”).

The Supplier and the Buyer are referred to individually as a “Party” and jointly as the “Parties”.

BACKGROUND

- A. Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. (“Geely”) owns and operates, through its subsidiaries Asia Euro Automobile Manufacturing (Taizhou) Co., Ltd. (“AELQ”) and Zhejiang Jin Gang Automobile Co., Ltd. (“KingKong”), a plant for manufacturing of cars in Luqiao of Taizhou City in the People’s Republic of China (the “Plant”). Land, building and facilities, as well as certain equipment and tooling, of the Plant are owned or possessed by KingKong and leased to AELQ.
- B. In relation to vehicles for the Chinese market, First Automobile Branch of Zhejiang Haoqing Automobile Manufacturing Co., Ltd. (“First Branch”) has the legal capacity to manufacture and sell complete vehicles and it is the entity purchasing the close-to- complete vehicles manufactured by AELQ. In relation to vehicles for export outside of the People’s Republic of China, AELQ is the entity manufacturing and selling complete vehicles. Geely, through First Branch, AELQ, etc., holds the necessary manufacturing permits to manufacture cars in the Plant.
- C. Volvo Car Corporation (“Volvo Cars”), Geely, AELQ and First Branch have agreed that the Buyer shall be allowed to have vehicles manufactured in the Plant.
- D. The Luqiao Steering Committee (defined below) has been established for inter alia governance of the operation of the Plant.
- E. The Buyer now wishes that the Supplier shall (i) have AELQ manufacture close-to- complete and (ii) itself complete and sell completed Polestar 2 vehicles (the “Contract Product”) to the Buyer.
- F. The general terms and conditions that shall apply to the manufacturing and assembly of cars in the Plant, and that shall thus apply to this Car Model Manufacturing Agreement, are attached hereto as Appendix 1 (the “General Terms”).

- G. As a general principle, Volvo Cars, Geely, AELQ and the Parties agree that transactions amongst all relevant entities involved shall be conducted on arm's length terms.
- H. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Car Model Manufacturing Agreement.

1. DEFINITIONS

The following terms shall have the meanings ascribed to them below. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa.

“AELQ” shall have the meaning set out in Background A above.

“Affiliates” means (i) for Supplier, any other legal entity that directly or indirectly is controlled by Geely and (ii) for Buyer, any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled (individually or jointly) by:

- (i) Polestar Automotive (Shanghai) Co., Ltd;
- (ii) Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co., Ltd.;
- (iii) Polestar Holding AB; or
- (iv) Polestar Performance AB;

“control” for this purpose meaning ownership or control of at least fifty per cent (50%) of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest of such legal entity, and the term “controlled by” having correlative meaning. The Parties, however, agree to renegotiate this definition of “Affiliates” in good faith if it in the future does not reflect the Parties’ intention at the time of signing this Car Model Manufacturing Agreement due to a restructuring or reorganisation in relation to either of the Parties.

“Car Model Manufacturing Agreement” means this car model manufacturing agreement including its appendices and exhibits thereto.

“First Branch” shall have the meaning set out in Background B above.

“Geely” shall have the meaning set out in Background A above.

“General Terms” shall have the meaning set out in Background F above.

“KingKong” shall have the meaning set out in Background A above.

“Luqiao Steering Committee” shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the General Terms.

“Plant” shall have the meaning set out in Background A above.

“Reserved Volumes” shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the General Terms.

“Technical Information” shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the General Terms.

“Technical Specifications” shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the General Terms.

“Volvo Cars” shall have the meaning set out in Background C above.

2. CAR MODEL MANUFACTURING AGREEMENT

- 2.1 This Car Model Manufacturing Agreement sets out the specific terms that shall apply to the manufacturing, assembly and sales to the Buyer of the Contract Product. The general terms and conditions in relation to the obligations of the Parties hereunder are set out in the General Terms, which, together with the other appendices to this Car Model Manufacturing Agreement, form an integral part of this Car Model Manufacturing Agreement.
- 2.2 In the event there are any contradictions or inconsistencies between the terms of this Car Model Manufacturing Agreement and the appendices hereto, the Parties agree that they shall prevail over each other in the following order if not specifically stated otherwise in such document or the context or circumstances clearly suggest otherwise:
 - (a) this main document of this Car Model Manufacturing Agreement.
 - (b) Appendix 1—General Terms.
 - (c) Appendix 2—Technical Specification.
- 2.3 Matters not addressed herein shall be referred to the General Terms.

3. THE CONTRACT PRODUCT

- 3.1 The Supplier agrees to supply to the Buyer and the Buyer agrees to purchase the Contract Products ordered in accordance with the terms and conditions under this Agreement. The Contract Products shall be manufactured in accordance with the Technical Specifications.
- 3.2 The Buyer shall provide the Supplier with such Technical Information as set out in the General Terms. The Technical Specifications for the Contract Product are attached hereto as Appendix 2.

- 3.3 Any changes to the Technical Specifications that affect the Contract Product shall be notified by the Buyer to the Supplier according to the change management procedures for the Contract Products set out in the General Terms.

4. VOLUME PLANNING PROCEDURES

- 4.1 The volume planning procedures applicable in relation to the production of the Contract Products are set out in the General Terms.
- 4.2 The Buyer's Reserved Volumes for the initial years 2019, 2020 and 2021 shall be decided by the Luqiao Steering Committee as soon as possible upon the execution of this Car Model Assignment Agreement, and for avoidance of doubt at the latest in accordance with the volume planning procedures set out in the General Terms, and shall be the base assumption for planning of future Reserved Volumes.

5. PRICE AND PAYMENT

Payment terms and the procedures for setting the price of the Contract Products are set out in the General Terms.

“VCPA” means Volvo Customer Product Audit.

“Volvo Cars” shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the Car Model Manufacturing Agreement.

2. SALE AND PURCHASE

- 2.1 The Supplier agrees to supply to the Buyer, and the Buyer agrees to purchase, the Contract Products ordered in accordance with and under the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- 2.2 Insofar as the Supplier is First Branch, the Buyer acknowledges that the Supplier will have the Contract Products manufactured for the Buyer and supplied to the Buyer, but that the Supplier will have AELQ manufacturing and assembling the Contract Products in the Plant up to close-to-final status under a car model agreement—component sales and then complete and sell the completed Contract Products to the Buyer. If the Supplier is AELQ, the Buyer acknowledges that the Supplier will manufacture and assemble the Contract Products in the Plant up to complete status and sell the completed Contract Products to the Buyer.
- 2.3 The Parties acknowledge that other car model manufacturing agreements may be entered into for the production of vehicles in the Plant other than the Contract Products. The Buyer shall not only cooperate with the Supplier, but shall also cooperate with AELQ (if the Supplier is First Branch), First Branch (if the Supplier is AELQ), Geely, Volvo Cars as well as buyers under such other car model manufacturing agreements in order to facilitate the operation of the Plant and the overall production of vehicles in the Plant as well as of the Contract Products.

3. VOLUME FORECASTS AND ORDER PROCESS

- 3.1 The procedures for planning the manufacturing and assembly of the Contract Products in the Plant, including forecasted volumes and orders for Contract Products, are attached hereto as Exhibit 1.
- 3.2 The Buyer will order and the Supplier will supply the Contract Products in accordance with the order process set out in Exhibit 1.

4. PRICE AND PAYMENT4.1 Price

4.1.1 The Contract Products shall be priced based on the full cost of production for such Contract Products plus a mark-up, currently being []. The mark-up will be reviewed and adjusted in accordance with the latest available benchmark under the guidelines of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development. The pricing is based on the total estimated fixed and variable costs for producing vehicles in the Plant, []. The principles and procedures for calculating the full cost of production and for setting the price of the Contract Products, on an 'arm's length' basis, are attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

4.1.2 In addition to Contract Products, also service/spare parts manufactured in the Plant being parts in a Contract Product shall be possible to order under this Car Model Manufacturing Agreement. In such case the principles relating to Contract Products in this Car Model Manufacturing Agreement shall also apply to such service/spare parts as far as reasonably possible, unless the context or circumstances clearly suggests otherwise.

4.2 Payment

4.2.1 Invoice for a Contract Product shall be issued by the Supplier to the Buyer when the Contract Product is Factory Complete. Invoices may be generated electronically. However, the Buyer may request hard-copy summary invoices that summarises total batches of individual invoices over a specified period, in order to satisfy VAT and customs reporting requirements.

4.2.2 Invoice from the Supplier to the Buyer shall be paid at the latest forty-five (45) days after an invoice has been issued. Payment shall be made in RMB or such other currency that the Supplier and the Buyer may agree, in a timely manner and in accordance with the payment terms set forth in this Section 4.2.

4.2.3 All amounts and payments referred to in this Agreement are exclusive of VAT, and any other taxes, for example withholding tax and surcharges. VAT is chargeable on all invoiced amounts only when required by local law and shall be borne by the Buyer, Buyer may appoint an Affiliate or Third Party to handle the requisite VAT registration and recovery.

4.2.4 Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based on the one (1) month applicable interbank rate, with an addition of two per cent (2%) per annum.

4.2.5 Any bank charges in connection with payment by the Buyer to the Supplier shall be paid or reimbursed by the Buyer.

4.2.6 If the Buyer is in default in making any payment, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, the Supplier may postpone its obligations under this Agreement until payment is received. Any postponement or termination of the Supplier's obligations under this Agreement shall have no effect on the Supplier's obligations or commitments under any other agreement or understanding between the Parties.

5. MANUFACTURING5.1 Assembly

- 5.1.1 The Supplier shall assemble the Contract Products in the Plant. The Supplier shall during the Term maintain capacity to manufacture, assemble and supply to the Buyer Contract Products in quantities ordered by the Buyer up to the volumes agreed between the Parties, and such capacity will in relation to the Buyer never exceed such volumes dedicated to the Buyer as decided by the Luqiao Steering Committee. The Parties thus acknowledge that the capacity in the Plant is limited and shared between the Buyer and other buyers having vehicles produced in the Plant.
- 5.1.2 The Buyer shall provide the Supplier with the Technical Specification and relevant Know- How for the manufacturing of the Contract Product. The Buyer may also, subject to separate agreement between the Parties, provide technical assistance to a reasonable level at the cost of the Supplier.
- 5.1.3 The Supplier undertakes to assemble the Contract Product in strict conformity with the Technical Specification, Know-How and/or as otherwise instructed by the Buyer from time to time and shall never implement any product changes, modification or substitutions of Component(s) unless authorized thereto in writing by the Buyer in each case, subject to the change management procedures set forth in Section 12.2.

5.2 Equipment and tooling

- 5.2.1 The Supplier undertakes to maintain in its (or KingKong's or AELQ's, as applicable) ownership and possession all equipment and in-house tooling for vehicles to be produced in the Plant, except for Type Bound Tooling which the Buyer shall remain the owner of. The Buyer will remain the owner of the Type Bound Tooling even if such is located in the Plant. Normal tooling maintenance will be commenced by the Supplier and related costs charged as part of the price for the Contract Products, whereas update and replacement of the Type Bound Tooling will be controlled and paid separately by the Buyer.
- 5.2.2 The Supplier undertakes to (or see to that KingKong or AELQ, as applicable) acquire or have acquired, all such necessary tooling, equipment and systems, including but not limited to jigs, fixtures, tools and welding equipment, necessary for the assembly of the Contract Product, except for the Type Bound Tooling mentioned in 5.2.1.
- 5.2.3 Any tooling and equipment acquired in accordance with Section 5.2.1-5.2.2 shall meet the Supplier's quality requirements.
- 5.2.4 Contract Product specific tooling and equipment acquired in accordance herewith shall be used solely for the purpose of the assembly of the Contract Product and its Components.
- 5.2.5 All plant tooling and equipment used by Supplier for the production of the Contract Products shall be maintained in proper working condition by the Supplier in accordance with applicable maintenance instructions for said tooling and equipment or by using industry practice if there are no specific instructions.
- 5.2.6 Purchase, maintenance and repair of unique Vendor Tooling, which is used only in relation to the Buyer's Contract Products, is not covered by this Agreement. The Buyer is responsible for providing and maintaining such Vendor Tooling. Costs related to commonly used Vendor Tooling should be [].

5.2.7 The Parties may enter into separate tooling agreements in order to regulate any details around tooling, which is not regulated herein.

5.3 Components

5.3.1 The Buyer is responsible for ensuring that the Supplier is able to order Components for the production of Contract Products by calling-off such Components from Component suppliers procured by the Buyer.

5.3.2 Components will be called-off from Component suppliers directly by the Supplier (or AELQ, as applicable) on behalf of the Buyer. The Buyer shall ensure that the Supplier is provided with information required to be able to call-off Components from such suppliers.

5.3.3 The Supplier shall pay (or shall ensure that AELQ pays, as applicable) all Component suppliers' invoices directly to the Component suppliers. The costs for such Components shall be included in the prices for the Contract Products.

5.4 License grant

5.4.1 The Buyer hereby grants to the Supplier a limited, non-exclusive, sub-licensable only to the extent set out in Section 5.4.2 below, license to the Buyer's intellectual property rights which are necessary for the production of the Contract Products and solely for the purpose of producing the Contract Products under and during the term of this Agreement. The license granted hereunder does not give the Supplier any right whatsoever to use the Buyer's intellectual property rights for any purpose other than as stated in this Section 5.4 and for the production of the Contract Products.

5.4.2 If the Supplier is First Branch, the license granted under Section 5.4.1 shall be sub-licensable to AELQ.

5.5 Insurance

5.5.1 The Supplier is responsible to ensure that the equipment owned by the Supplier and used in the Plant is properly insured.

5.5.2 The Supplier shall (or, insofar as the Supplier is First Branch, shall ensure that AELQ) hold necessary insurance protection.

6. DELIVERY, TITLE AND RISK

6.1 Delivery of Contract Product

6.1.1 The Parties agree that delivery of the Factory Complete Contract Products shall be made Ex Works (Incoterms 2010).

6.1.2 The Supplier shall notify the Buyer when a Contract Product is Factory Complete by registering the Contract Product as Factory Complete in the system used by the Parties for such communication. Simultaneously, the Supplier shall issue the invoice for such Contract Product to the Buyer.

- 6.1.3 The Supplier shall deliver to the Buyer the Factory Complete Contract Products within the timeframe decided during the volume planning procedures as set forth in Exhibit 1 or as agreed between the Parties by making it available for collection by the Buyer through having it parked within the premises of the Plant on the area of the yard designated for the Buyer, and the Supplier shall be deemed to have delivered the Contract Product to the Buyer at such time.
- 6.1.4 If not otherwise agreed between the Parties, the Buyer undertakes to collect the Contract Products on a daily basis, but latest within two weeks of delivery or as otherwise agreed between the Parties. If this time is exceeded, the Supplier will be entitled to charge the buyer a reasonable storage fee for actual costs incurred by the Supplier, to be agreed upon separately. The Buyer shall, in addition to the obligation described herein, take into consideration that the Supplier will produce vehicles to other buyers than the Buyer and that such vehicles also need be stored on the yard of the Plant.
- 6.1.5 Title and risk of loss or damage with respect to each Contract Product passes to the Buyer upon the moment it is Factory Complete, without prejudice for the Buyer's right to reject Contract Products under Section 7.
- 6.1.6 If the Supplier is in delay of delivery of Contract Products, it shall perform a root cause analysis and, provided the root cause analysis indicates that the delay is caused by the Supplier or within the Supplier's control, take appropriate measures in order to remedy the delay.
- 6.2 Distribution and outbound logistic
- 6.2.1 The Contract Products will be distributed by the Buyer through the distribution network managed by the Buyer.
- 6.2.2 The Supplier is not responsible for any matters in relation to the distribution of the Contract Product, except for:
- (a) selling the Contract Product directly to the Buyer at the price established under this Agreement;
 - (b) reporting any quality-related defect of the Contract Product to the Buyer for recall or other measures required by applicable law where the Contract Product is sold; and
 - (c) supporting the Buyer or any company listed by the Buyer as a company that needs this support, regarding warranty claims and after-sales services.
- 6.2.3 Outbound logistic of the Contract Product is the responsibility of the Buyer. The Supplier's obligations end when a Contract Product, as Factory Complete, is placed on the yard as explained above in Section 6.1.
- 6.2.4 Contract Products may be purchased for domestic sales in the People's Republic of China or export for distribution in markets outside of the People's Republic of China. In case of export, the Supplier is obligated to take all necessary steps to facilitate such export and to contribute to an efficient export in accordance with instructions provided by the Buyer, including, but not limited to, ensuring that such export is authorised as required by relevant laws and regulations of the People's Republic of China.

7. QUALITY, INSPECTION AND RIGHT TO REJECT PRODUCTS7.1 Quality

- 7.1.1 The Parties acknowledge that the attainment and maintenance according to quality requirements for the Contract Product and process reliability is of paramount importance. The Supplier shall take all precautions and institute all procedures necessary in order to assure the quality requirements in accordance with this Agreement. The Supplier shall upon direction of the Buyer take such actions at the Plant that are necessary to rectify deviations from the product quality requirements of the Contract Product and processes as set out in this Agreement.
- 7.1.2 The VCPA quality metrics requirements will apply to all Contract Products. The Supplier and the Plant shall meet the standards of VCPA and the Supplier shall maintain such standards.
- 7.1.3 The Supplier shall regularly submit quality control, test reports and records as agreed by the Parties.
- 7.1.4 The assembly or any other activity connected to preparation or inspection of the Contract Products under this Agreement shall take place at the Plant by fully trained and qualified personnel allocated for the Contract Product.

7.2 Inspection

- 7.2.1 When the Supplier has completed its work on the Contract Product it shall pass through the test line, where the Supplier will inspect the Contract Product and decide whether it fulfils the Technical Specification and is Factory Complete. The test line shall consist of a thorough inspection and, if the Buyer so requires, road tests, and otherwise in accordance with VCPA.
- 7.2.2 The Buyer shall be entitled, at its own expense and upon reasonable notice, to inspect during regular business hours the assembly of the Contract Products, and may carry out tests on the Contract Products that have been parked on the yard ready for collection, in order to ascertain that the Contract Products meet the product and process quality requirements and complies with the Technical Specification.

7.3 Right to reject, defects and repair

- 7.3.1 The Contract Products delivered by the Supplier to the Buyer shall be Factory Complete and free from defects. Immediately upon the Buyer's identification of the fact that any of the delivered Contract Products is not Factory Complete, despite the Supplier's inspection, the Buyer shall have the right to reject such defective Contract Products, provided that the Buyer identifies such defects before the Buyer has removed the Contract Products from the premises of the Plant, whereby what is set out in Sections 7.3.2-7.3.4 shall apply.
- 7.3.2 The Supplier shall repair and/or correct any rejected Contract Product within a commercially reasonable time at its own costs and expenses. If a particular Contract Product cannot be repaired or corrected, Supplier shall replace any non-repairable or non- correctable Contract Product, subject to its right to claim reimbursement from the Buyer, a supplier or other Third Party depending on the root cause of the problem.

- 7.3.3 For avoidance of doubt, the Supplier shall physically correct any defects found either prior to delivery of the Contract Products or while they are parked on the yard of the Plant. The Buyer shall not be obliged to accept Contract Products if such have defects that have not been properly corrected.
- 7.3.4 The Supplier is responsible for the costs relating to repairing defects on the Contract Product caused in assembly or manufacturing. The Buyer is responsible for the costs relating to defects in the Contract Product caused by product design, as well as part or Component quality (given that the Buyer is responsible for the sourcing of Components in accordance with Section 5.3). The Buyer's responsibility is however only in regard to repairing its Contract Products and does not include a responsibility for other costs incurred in the Plant, such as stand-still in production.
- 7.3.5 The principles set out in Sections 7.3.1-7.3.2 and 7.3.4 above shall also apply in case the Contract Products are found to be defective even after such Contract Products have been removed from the premises of the Plant, to the extent any defect in such Contract Products are due to Supplier's faulty assembly or manufacturing. This Section 7.3.5 shall, however, only apply if such defects have been found and notified to the Supplier within six (6) months from when such Contract Products have been removed from the premises of the Plant.
- 7.3.6 Where the Buyer has rejected Contract Products under this Section 7, the Buyer shall have the right to determine the order of priority in which such Contract Products shall be repaired.

8. PERMITS

- 8.1 The Supplier is responsible for the operation of the Plant and shall hold all necessary permits required by all applicable laws and regulations for the Plant, including, but not limited to, to operate the Plant and to produce and sell the Contract Products under this Agreement (the "Permits").
- 8.2 All Permits shall be valid so that the Supplier can produce and sell the Contract Products during the term of this Agreement.

9. WARRANTY, PRODUCT LIABILITY, RECALL AND OTHER CLAIMS

- 9.1 Other than as provided for in Section 7 above, the Supplier is not responsible for any warranty claims or similar in relation to the Contract Products. The Supplier warrants that the Contract Products are in conformity with the Technical Specifications and free from defects in materials and workmanship including manufacturing and assembly. In addition to this Section 9.1, what is set out below in this Section 9 shall apply.
- 9.2 If a defect is found in a Contract Product after delivery of a Contract Product, initial inspection should be carried out by the Buyer. If the Buyer finds that the defect is caused by Component quality, and thus the Buyer's responsibility (which in turn may be the Component supplier's responsibility under the Buyer's agreement with such supplier), the Buyer shall together with the supplier of the Component carry out the final inspection and make joint decision with regard to the cause of the defect and action to be taken. If it is confirmed finally that the defect is caused by Component quality, the Buyer shall bear all the damage and cost incurred from the whole event (which in turn may be the Component supplier's responsibility under the Buyer's agreement with such supplier, which governs the relationship between the Buyer and the Component supplier). If the Buyer finds that the defect is due to product design, the Buyer shall carry out the final inspection and make decision with regard to the cause of the defect and action to be taken. If it is confirmed finally that the defect is due to product design, the Buyer shall bear all the damage and cost incurred from the whole event. If the Buyer finds that the defect is the Supplier's responsibility in accordance with this Agreement, the Buyer shall together with AELQ carry out the final inspection and make joint decision with regard to the cause of the defect and action to be taken. If it is confirmed finally that the defect is the Supplier's responsibility, the Supplier shall bear all the damage and cost incurred from the whole event. If the Parties cannot agree on the cause of the defect, the issue shall be escalated in accordance with what is set out in Section 12.1. This Section 9.2 is at all times subject to Section 7.

- 9.3 The Buyer shall be responsible for all costs in relation to warranty claims, product liability claims, Contract Product recalls and other claims. If any such claim is due to a systematic defect in the Contract Products due to the Supplier's faulty manufacturing or assembly, however, the Supplier shall be responsible for all costs relating to such claims. A defect in the Contract Product shall be considered systematic (i) if it is attributable to the same, or substantially the same, root cause, and (ii) occurs, or is likely to occur, at a statistically significant level (determined in good faith by the Parties) during the agreed or reasonably expected life time of the Contract Product. Systematic defects shall be defined and claimed via case study on a case by case basis. In addition, the Parties shall in good faith agree on any consequences of systematic defects for the Supplier.
- 9.4 For the avoidance of doubt, the Buyer is not responsible in relation to the Supplier, nor in relation to other buyers that have entered into other car model manufacturing agreements with First Brauch or AELQ regarding production of vehicles in the Plant, for any costs and/or damages relating to stops in production in the Plant affecting such other buyers. Likewise, the Supplier is not responsible in relation to Buyer for such costs and/or damages.

10. TRADEMARKS

10.1 General

For the avoidance of doubt, this Agreement shall in no way be construed as to give any of the Parties any right whatsoever to use any registered or unregistered trademarks or brand names owned or licensed by another Party or its Affiliates, except in the manner and to the extent set forth in this Agreement or expressly consented to in writing by that other Party.

10.2 Geely brand name

- 10.2.1 For sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Agreement does not include any right to use the 'Geely' brand name or trademarks, or refer to 'Geely' in communications or official documents of whatever kind.
- 10.2.2 This means that this Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the 'Geely' brand name or 'Geely' trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

10.3 Volvo Cars brand name

- 10.3.1 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Agreement does not include any right to use the 'Volvo' brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to 'Volvo' in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the 'Volvo' Trademarks as well as the 'Volvo' name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the 'Volvo' Trademarks is subject to a license agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related intellectual property can only be used by Volvo Cars and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.
- 10.3.2 This means that this Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the 'Volvo' brand name or 'Volvo' Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

10.4 Trademark on Contract Products

- 10.4.1 Notwithstanding the above, the Supplier is hereby granted the right to use the Buyer's trademarks but solely to apply such trademark on the Contract Product in accordance with the Technical Specification or as otherwise instructed by the Buyer. If the Supplier is First Branch, the Supplier may sub-licence such rights to AELQ.
- 10.4.2 Any other use of the Buyer's trademark, including the one on the Contract Products, is subject to the Parties entering into a trademark license agreement.

11. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 11.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Agreement.
- 11.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any damage arising out of or in connection with this Agreement shall be limited to [].
- 11.3 The limitations of liability set out in this Section 11 shall not apply in respect of damage;
- (a) caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence, or;
 - (b) caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 13 below.

12. GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES12.1 Governance

- 12.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Agreement as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Agreement.
- 12.1.2 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event the Parties on an operational level cannot agree upon aspects relating to the co-operation between the Parties, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Luqiao Steering Committee.

12.1.3 If the Luqiao Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution of the disagreement the relevant issue should be escalated to the Strategic Board for decision.

12.2 Change management

12.2.1 For any changes or updates of the Technical Specifications, the Buyer shall notify the Supplier of its requested change and the Supplier shall provide feedback to the Buyer of potential consequences of the requested change. Details regarding change management should follow the change management procedure used by the Parties.

12.2.2 The Supplier undertakes to immediately incorporate any changes in the Components, in the Contract Products or in manufacturing engineering processes related thereto in accordance with strict batch sequence orders and plans as agreed by the Parties. The Supplier shall bear the costs for all the described work. All related work performed by the Supplier shall be charged back to the Buyer as part of the price for the Contract Products.

13. CONFIDENTIALITY

13.1 The Parties shall take any and all necessary measures to comply with the security and confidentiality procedures of the other Parties.

13.2 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes comprised by the fulfilment of this Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 13.2 below apply or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or sub-contractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder, as well as with the exception of such personnel of Geely and Volvo Cars with a need to know as for the Parties to perform their duties hereunder and in relation to the operation of the Plant. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:

- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
- (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
- (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
- (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations; or
- (e) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.

- 13.3 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 12.2.
- 13.4 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within thirty (30) days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as "Confidential", "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 13.5 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 12.2, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 13.6 This confidentiality provision shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement without limitation in time.

14. TERM AND TERMINATION

14.1 Term and termination

14.1.1 This Agreement shall become effective and remain in force in accordance with what is set out in the Car Model Manufacturing Agreement. This Agreement may be terminated in accordance with what is set out below in this Section 14.1.

14.1.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect in the event;

- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Agreement, which has not been remedied within sixty (60) days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
- (b) if the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.

14.2 Consequences of termination

14.2.1 Termination of this Agreement shall be without prejudice to the accrued rights and liabilities of the Parties on the date of termination, unless expressly waived in writing by the Parties.

14.2.2 Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, upon expiry or termination of this Agreement, the rights of the Supplier referred to in this Agreement hereof shall cease and the Supplier shall forthwith cease to assemble the Contract Product or any Components thereof.

- 14.2.3 The Supplier shall upon expiry or termination of this Agreement make no further use of the Technical Information and Know-How owned or associated with the Buyer and shall return to the Buyer, at the Supplier's expense, the Technical Information in tangible form and any reproductions or copies thereof or, at the Buyer's option, present acceptable evidence that the same have been completely destroyed.
- 14.2.4 The Supplier shall forthwith take all action necessary to transfer all licenses or registrations issued by the relevant authorities for the Contract Product to the Buyer or, if this is not possible, to arrange for cancellation of such licenses or registrations.
- 14.2.5 Upon termination of this Agreement, the Buyer shall within sixty (60) days after expiry, purchase at fair market value any non-defective Contract Product and/or Components and non-cancellable orders regarding supply to the Buyer.
- 14.2.6 No compensation for goodwill, redundancies in personnel, for investments made, indemnities for loss of profit or of clientele, or consequential loss can be claimed by reason of termination of this Agreement.
- 14.2.7 For avoidance of doubt, termination of this Agreement does not affect the validity of any other car model manufacturing agreements executed between the Parties.
- 14.3 Exit costs
- 14.3.1 If the Buyer exits from the Plant, i.e. ceases having vehicles produced in the Plant within the term of this Agreement, the Buyer shall in any event be responsible for the remaining depreciation for the investments in the Plant that relates to the Buyer, i.e. such fixed costs unique to the exiting Party.
- 14.3.2 Upon such exit, the Buyer shall take an accelerated share and pay a lump sum relating to the costs of such remaining depreciation.

15. MISCELLANEOUS

15.1 Force majeure

- 15.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under this Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A "Force Majeure Event" means any event beyond a Party's reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party's), failure of general energy sources delivering energy to the plant, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions.
- 15.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under this Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its non-performance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

15.2 Notices

15.2.1 All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, facsimile, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:

- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
- (b) if sent by facsimile or email transmission, at the time and on the date indicated on a confirmation of successful transmission page relating to such facsimile transmission or at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
- (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
- (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods.

15.2.2 All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be sent to the addresses set out in the Car Model Manufacturing Agreement.

15.3 Assignment

Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.

15.4 Waiver

Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.

15.5 Severability

In the event any provision of this Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.

15.6 Entire Agreement

All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Agreement are superseded by this Agreement.

15.7 Amendments

Any amendment or addition to this Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.

15.8 Survival

If this Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 13 (Confidential Information), Section 16 (Governing Law), Section 17 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 15.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.

16. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of the People's Republic of China without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION17.1 Escalation principles

17.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Luqiao Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten (10) days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Luqiao Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Luqiao Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.

17.1.2 The members of the Luqiao Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Luqiao Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Luqiao Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Luqiao Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.

- 17.1.3 If the Luqiao Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within thirty (30) days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the Strategic Board for decision. Should the matter not have been resolved by the Strategic Board within thirty (30) days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 17.2 below. If no Luqiao Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the Strategic Board immediately and Section 17.1.2 above shall not apply.
- 17.1.4 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 13 above.
- 17.1.5 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 17.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the Strategic Board in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

17.2 Arbitration

- 17.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall, be submitted to China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Committee (“CIETAC”) for arbitration, which shall be held in Shanghai and conducted in accordance with the CIETAC’s arbitration rules in effect at the time of applying for arbitration, whereas the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English and Chinese. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.
- 17.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 17.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 17.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

EXHIBIT 1
VOLUME PLANNING PROCEDURES

1. LONG TERM INVESTMENT VOLUMES

The Buyer acknowledges that all manufacturing of vehicles in the Plant is subject to planning and allocation of capacity in the Plant on a [] and that any planning of the volumes and the production of Contract Products under this Agreement shall consider that other vehicles than the Contract Products are to be produced in the Plant.

In order to predict and plan for the production volume appropriately, the Parties will discuss LTIV and planned volume forecasts on []. LTIV is required when there is need to increase or decrease the designed capacity of the Plant for the Contract Products by investment into tooling and equipment as well as planning for personnel and shift requirements. The LTIV constitutes a vehicle volume commitment by the Buyer.

The LTIV planning is illustrated by the graph below.

The Buyer shall on an annual basis, in due time before [] each year, provide the Volume Planning Committee its planned volume forecast for [] ("Requested Volumes"). Requests so filed with the Volume Planning Committee shall be processed within the internal planning process of each buyer having vehicles produced in the plant (including the Buyer), and resubmitted for a final decision by the Luqiao Steering Committee no later than [] each year. Thereafter, the Luqiao Steering Committee will, based on such Requested Volumes, by [] each year, at the latest, decide on the allocation of capacity in the Plant between the Buyer and other buyers having vehicles produced in the Plant under other car model manufacturing agreements for []. Thus, the Luqiao Steering Committee will by that time decide on the capacity in the Plant available to the Buyer. The Plant capacity so allocated to the Buyer during these [] shall be considered a volume commitment by the Buyer and the Buyer's "Reserved Volumes". The Buyer is responsible for its Reserved Volumes, meaning that if the Buyer does not utilize its Reserved Volumes, it shall in any event be responsible for any fixed and variable costs related to such unutilized Reserved Volumes that could not be mitigated.

The Luqiao Steering Committee may decide to have separate operational meetings to prepare planning volumes prior to its decisions on [] each year.

Furthermore, the Buyer agree to hold the Supplier and the Luqiao Steering Committee informed of its long term plans for production of Contract Products in the Plant beyond the [] period that concerns its Reserved Volumes.

Any decisions on the allocation of capacity is to be made by the Luqiao Steering Committee.

2. MONTHLY PLANNING PROCESS

The Parties acknowledge the need to on a regular basis follow-up and discuss volume forecasts and orders of Contract Products.

Moreover, the parties shall on a monthly basis follow-up, discuss and agree on the rolling production volume and details for [] for production and delivery of the Contract Products. The review is done on a [].

Monthly volume planning procedure is illustrated by the graph below and shall follow [].

3. ORDER BOOK PLANNING

The Parties agree that the forecasted monthly planning volume together with the annual production volume of the Contract Product forms the base for order book planning and also Components ordering planning.

The order book is open for [] at a time. The order book governance process and order process is illustrated by the graph below.

[]

EXHIBIT 2 CAR PRICING PRINCIPLES AND PROCEDURES1. VEHICLE COST CALCULATION

The price of the Contract Product shall be calculated according to [].

1.1 Common cost

The cost for the Plant, which is defined as common cost in graph 1 below, shall be [].

Example common cost calculation:

1.2 Model Unique cost

[]

Graph 1:

[]

1.3 Cost for use of tooling

Each brand will own its unique and type bound tooling. []

The pricing methodology for user right fee is stipulated in separate Vendor Tooling Agreements.

1.4 Pricing process

Prices for vehicles to be produced in the Plant, including Contract Products, shall be set on [] basis based on []. The Supplier will decide on the prices that the Supplier shall charge for vehicles to be produced in the Plant, including the Contract Products, for [].

The prices shall be reviewed on [] basis and may be amended by the Supplier at its discretion if necessary to cover costs for production of vehicles in the Plant, e.g. due to the production of vehicles in the Plant not reaching the estimated volumes or due to fluctuations in costs for material, etc.

The timeline for price setting is illustrated by graph 2 below.

[]

In case of disagreement between the Parties on price adjustments, it will be handled in accordance with Section 12 in the General Terms.

2. ACCOUNTING

In order to ensure the expenses and payments hereunder are accurately and correctly recorded, the Supplier shall establish necessary IT system and maintain separate accounts and records for the business associated with manufacturing and distribution of the Contract Product.

LIST OF APPENDICES TO THIS CAR MODEL MANUFACTURING AGREEMENT

Appendix 1—General Terms

Appendix 2—Technical Specification

This CAR MODEL MANUFACTURING AGREEMENT (this “Car Model Manufacturing Agreement”) is entered into on the date indicated below and made between:

- (1) Asia Euro Automobile Manufacturing (Taizhou) Co., Ltd., Reg. No. 91331004MA28G7BUX1, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of People’s Republic of China (the “Supplier” or “AELQ”); and
- (2) Polestar Performance AB, Reg. No. 556653-3096, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden (the “Buyer”).

The Supplier and the Buyer are referred to individually as a “Party” and jointly as the “Parties”.

BACKGROUND

- A. Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. (“Geely”) owns and operates, through its subsidiaries Asia Euro Automobile Manufacturing (Taizhou) Co., Ltd. (“AELQ”) and Zhejiang Jin Gang Automobile Co., Ltd. (“KingKong”), a plant for manufacturing of cars in Luqiao of Taizhou City in the People’s Republic of China (the “Plant”). Land, building and facilities, as well as certain equipment and tooling, of the Plant are owned or possessed by KingKong and leased to AELQ.
- B. In relation to vehicles for the Chinese market, First Automobile Branch of Zhejiang Haoqing Automobile Manufacturing Co., Ltd. (“First Branch”) has the legal capacity to manufacture and sell complete vehicles and it is the entity purchasing the close-to- complete vehicles manufactured by AELQ. In relation to vehicles for export outside of the People’s Republic of China, AELQ is the entity manufacturing and selling complete vehicles. Geely, through First Branch, AELQ, etc., holds the necessary manufacturing permits to manufacture cars in the Plant.
- C. Volvo Car Corporation (“Volvo Cars”), Geely, AELQ and First Branch have agreed that the Buyer shall be allowed to have vehicles manufactured in the Plant.
- D. The Luqiao Steering Committee (defined below) has been established for inter alia governance of the operation of the Plant.
- E. The Buyer now wishes that the Supplier shall manufacture and sell completed Polestar 2 vehicles (the “Contract Product”) to the Buyer.
- F. The general terms and conditions that shall apply to the manufacturing and assembly of cars in the Plant, and that shall thus apply to this Car Model Manufacturing Agreement, are attached hereto as Appendix 1 (the “General Terms”).
- G. As a general principle, Volvo Cars, Geely, AELQ and the Parties agree that transactions amongst all relevant entities involved shall be conducted on arm’s length terms.
- H. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Car Model Manufacturing Agreement.

1. DEFINITIONS

The following terms shall have the meanings ascribed to them below. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa.

“AELQ” shall have the meaning set out in Background A above.

“Affiliates” means (i) for Supplier, any other legal entity that directly or indirectly is controlled by Geely and (ii) for Buyer, any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled (individually or jointly) by:

- (i) Polestar Automotive (Shanghai) Co., Ltd;
- (ii) Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co., Ltd.;
- (iii) Polestar Holding AB; or
- (iv) Polestar Performance AB;

“control” for this purpose meaning ownership or control of at least fifty per cent (50%) of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest of such legal entity, and the term “controlled by” having correlative meaning. The Parties, however, agree to renegotiate this definition of “Affiliates” in good faith if it in the future does not reflect the Parties’ intention at the time of signing this Car Model Manufacturing Agreement due to a restructuring or reorganisation in relation to either of the Parties.

“Car Model Manufacturing Agreement” means this car model manufacturing agreement including its appendices and exhibits thereto.

“First Branch” shall have the meaning set out in Background B above.

“Geely” shall have the meaning set out in Background A above.

“General Terms” shall have the meaning set out in Background F above.

“KingKong” shall have the meaning set out in Background A above.

“Luqiao Steering Committee” shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the General Terms.

“Plant” shall have the meaning set out in Background A above.

“Reserved Volumes” shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the General Terms.

“Technical Information” shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the General Terms.

“Technical Specifications” shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the General Terms.

“Volvo Cars” shall have the meaning set out in Background C above.

2. CAR MODEL MANUFACTURING AGREEMENT

- 2.1 Tills Car Model Manufacturing Agreement sets out the specific terms that shall apply to the manufacturing, assembly and sales to the Buyer of the Contract Product. The general terms and conditions in relation to the obligations of the Parties hereunder are set out in the General Terms, which, together with the other appendices to this Car Model Manufacturing Agreement, form an integral part of this Car Model Manufacturing Agreement.
- 2.2 In the event there are any contradictions or inconsistencies between the terms of this Car Model Manufacturing Agreement and the appendices hereto, the Parties agree that they shall prevail over each other in the following order if not specifically stated otherwise in such document or the context or circumstances clearly suggest otherwise:
 - (a) this main document of this Car Model Manufacturing Agreement.

- (b) Appendix 1—General Terms.
- (c) Appendix 2—Technical Specification.

2.3 Matters not addressed herein shall be referred to the General Terms.

3. THE CONTRACT PRODUCT

- 3.1 The Supplier agrees to supply to the Buyer and the Buyer agrees to purchase the Contract Products ordered in accordance with the terms and conditions under this Car Model Manufacturing Agreement. The Contract Products shall be manufactured in accordance with the Technical Specifications.
- 3.2 The Buyer shall provide the Supplier with such Technical Information as set out in the General Terms. The Technical Specifications for the Contract Product are attached hereto as Appendix 2.
- 3.3 Any changes to the Technical Specifications that affect the Contract Product shall be notified by the Buyer to the Supplier according to the change management procedures for the Contract Products set out in the General Terms.

4. VOLUME PLANNING PROCEDURES

- 4.1 The volume planning procedures applicable in relation to the production of the Contract Products are set out in the General Terms.
- 4.2 The Buyer's Reserved Volumes for the initial years 2019, 2020 and 2021 shall be decided by the Luqiao Steering Committee as soon as possible upon the execution of this Car Model Manufacturing Agreement, and for avoidance of doubt at the latest in accordance with the volume planning procedures set out in the General Terms, and shall be the base assumption for planning of future Reserved Volumes.

5. PRICE AND PAYMENT

Payment terms and the procedures for setting the price of the Contract Products are set out in the General Terms.

6. MISCELLANEOUS

6.1 Notices

- 6.1.1 Notices, demands, requests and other communications between the Parties is governed by the General Terms.

6.1.2 All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be sent to following addresses:

“Technical Information” means all Technical Specification and Know-How and all other written or printed technical information or software stored in any media or materials or prototypes communicated to the Supplier by the Buyer and all reproductions, excerpts and summaries thereof, and all modifications and/or improvements to the Technical Specification and Know-How made by or for the Supplier.

“Technical Specification” means necessary product drawings, material lists, assembly instructions and quality requirements on paper or in electronic form provided by the Buyer for the assembly of the Contract Product in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement and that shall be attached to each Car Model Manufacturing Agreement.

“Third Party” means a party other than any of the Parties and/or an Affiliate of one of the Parties to this Agreement

“Type Bound Tooling” means tooling that are specific to certain Contract Products and that are unique to the Buyer.

“Vendor Tooling” means tooling owned by the Buyer that is used and stored at the premises of a Third Party but used for the production of Contract Products (and/or components therein) for the Buyer.

“Volume Planning Committee” means the committee established for the purpose of planning volume allocations for vehicles to be produced in the Plant and which is represented by Geely, Volvo Cars, AELQ, First Branch, the Buyer and other buyers which have entered into car model manufacturing agreements with First Branch or AELQ for production of vehicles in the Plant.

“VCPA” means Volvo Customer Product Audit.

“Volvo Cars” shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the Car Model Manufacturing Agreement.

2. SALE AND PURCHASE

- 2.1 The Supplier agrees to supply to the Buyer, and the Buyer agrees to purchase, the Contract Products ordered in accordance with and under the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- 2.2 Insofar as the Supplier is First Branch, the Buyer acknowledges that the Supplier will have the Contract Products manufactured for the Buyer and supplied to the Buyer, but that the Supplier will have AELQ manufacturing and assembling the Contract Products in the Plant up to close-to-final status under a car model agreement—component sales and then complete and sell the completed Contract Products to the Buyer. If the Supplier is AELQ, the Buyer acknowledges that the Supplier will manufacture and assemble the Contract Products in the Plant up to complete status and sell the completed Contract Products to the Buyer.
- 2.3 The Parties acknowledge that other car model manufacturing agreements may be entered into for the production of vehicles in the Plant other than the Contract Products. The Buyer shall not only cooperate with the Supplier, but shall also cooperate with AELQ (if the Supplier is First Branch), First Branch (if the Supplier is AELQ), Geely, Volvo Cars as well as buyers under such other car model manufacturing agreements in order to facilitate the operation of the Plant and the overall production of vehicles in the Plant as well as of the Contract Products.

3. VOLUME FORECASTS AND ORDER PROCESS

- 3.1 The procedures for planning the manufacturing and assembly of the Contract Products in the Plant, including forecasted volumes and orders for Contract Products, are attached hereto as Exhibit 1.
- 3.2 The Buyer will order and the Supplier will supply the Contract Products in accordance with the order process set out in Exhibit 1.

4. PRICE AND PAYMENT4.1 Price

- 4.1.1 The Contract Products shall be priced based on the full cost of production for such Contract Products plus a mark-up, currently being []. The mark-up will be reviewed and adjusted in accordance with the latest available benchmark under the guidelines of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development. The pricing is based on the total estimated fixed and variable costs for producing vehicles in the Plant, []. The principles and procedures for calculating the full cost of production and for setting the price of the Contract Products, on an 'arm's length' basis, are attached hereto as Exhibit 2.
- 4.1.2 In addition to Contract Products, also service/spare parts manufactured in the Plant being parts in a Contract Product shall be possible to order under this Car Model Manufacturing Agreement. In such case the principles relating to Contract Products in this Car Model Manufacturing Agreement shall also apply to such service/spare parts as far as reasonably possible, unless the context or circumstances clearly suggests otherwise.

4.2 Payment

- 4.2.1 Invoice for a Contract Product shall be issued by the Supplier to the Buyer when the Contract Product is Factory Complete. Invoices may be generated electronically. However, the Buyer may request hard-copy summary invoices that summarises total batches of individual invoices over a specified period, in order to satisfy VAT and customs reporting requirements.
- 4.2.2 Invoice from the Supplier to the Buyer shall be paid at the latest forty-five (45) days after an invoice has been issued. Payment shall be made in RMB or such other currency that the Supplier and the Buyer may agree, in a timely manner and in accordance with the payment terms set forth in this Section 4.2.
- 4.2.3 All amounts and payments referred to in this Agreement are exclusive of VAT, and any other taxes, for example withholding tax and surcharges. VAT is chargeable on all invoiced amounts only when required by local law and shall be borne by the Buyer, Buyer may appoint an Affiliate or Third Party to handle the requisite VAT registration and recovery.
- 4.2.4 Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based on the one (1) month applicable interbank rate, with an addition of two per cent (2%) per annum.
- 4.2.5 Any bank charges in connection with payment by the Buyer to the Supplier shall be paid or reimbursed by the Buyer.
- 4.2.6 If the Buyer is in default in making any payment, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, the Supplier may postpone its obligations under this Agreement until payment is received. Any postponement or termination of the Supplier's obligations under this Agreement shall have no effect on the Supplier's obligations or commitments under any other agreement or understanding between the Parties.

5. MANUFACTURING5.1 Assembly

- 5.1.1 The Supplier shall assemble the Contract Products in the Plant. The Supplier shall during the Term maintain capacity to manufacture, assemble and supply to the Buyer Contract Products in quantities ordered by the Buyer up to the volumes agreed between the Parties, and such capacity will in relation to the Buyer never exceed such volumes dedicated to the Buyer as decided by the Luqiao Steering Committee. The Parties thus acknowledge that the capacity in the Plant is limited and shared between the Buyer and other buyers having vehicles produced in the Plant.
- 5.1.2 The Buyer shall provide the Supplier with the Technical Specification and relevant Know- How for the manufacturing of the Contract Product. The Buyer may also, subject to separate agreement between the Parties, provide technical assistance to a reasonable level at the cost of the Supplier.
- 5.1.3 The Supplier undertakes to assemble the Contract Product in strict conformity with the Technical Specification, Know-How and/or as otherwise instructed by the Buyer from time to time and shall never implement any product changes, modification or substitutions of Component(s) unless authorized thereto in writing by the Buyer in each case, subject to the change management procedures set forth in Section 12.2.

5.2 Equipment and tooling

- 5.2.1 The Supplier undertakes to maintain in its (or KingKong's or AELQ's, as applicable) ownership and possession all equipment and in-house tooling for vehicles to be produced in the Plant, except for Type Bound Tooling which the Buyer shall remain the owner of. The Buyer will remain the owner of the Type Bound Tooling even if such is located in the Plant. Normal tooling maintenance will be commenced by the Supplier and related costs charged as part of the price for the Contract Products, whereas update and replacement of the Type Bound Tooling will be controlled and paid separately by the Buyer.
- 5.2.2 The Supplier undertakes to (or see to that KingKong or AELQ, as applicable) acquire or have acquired, all such necessary tooling, equipment and systems, including but not limited to jigs, fixtures, tools and welding equipment, necessary for the assembly of the Contract Product, except for the Type Bound Tooling mentioned in 5.2.1.
- 5.2.3 Any tooling and equipment acquired in accordance with Section 5.2.1-5.2.2 shall meet the Supplier's quality requirements.
- 5.2.4 Contract Product specific tooling and equipment acquired in accordance herewith shall be used solely for the purpose of the assembly of the Contract Product and its Components.
- 5.2.5 All plant tooling and equipment used by Supplier for the production of the Contract Products shall be maintained in proper working condition by the Supplier in accordance with applicable maintenance instructions for said tooling and equipment or by using industry practice if there are no specific instructions.
- 5.2.6 Purchase, maintenance and repair of unique Vendor Tooling, which is used only in relation to the Buyer's Contract Products, is not covered by this Agreement. The Buyer is responsible for providing and maintaining such Vendor Tooling. Costs related to commonly used Vendor Tooling should be [].
- 5.2.7 The Parties may enter into separate tooling agreements in order to regulate any details around tooling, which is not regulated herein.

5.3 Components

- 5.3.1 The Buyer is responsible for ensuring that the Supplier is able to order Components for the production of Contract Products by calling-off such Components from Component suppliers procured by the Buyer.
- 5.3.2 Components will be called-off from Component suppliers directly by the Supplier (or AELQ, as applicable) on behalf of the Buyer. The Buyer shall ensure that the Supplier is provided with information required to be able to call-off Components from such suppliers.
- 5.3.3 The Supplier shall pay (or shall ensure that AELQ pays, as applicable) all Component suppliers' invoices directly to the Component suppliers. The costs for such Components shall be included in the prices for the Contract Products.

5.4 License grant

- 5.4.1 The Buyer hereby grants to the Supplier a limited, non-exclusive, sub-licensable only to the extent set out in Section 5.4.2 below, license to the Buyer's intellectual property rights which are necessary for the production of the Contract Products and solely for the purpose of producing the Contract Products under and during the term of this Agreement. The license granted hereunder does not give the Supplier any right whatsoever to use the Buyer's intellectual property rights for any purpose other than as stated in this Section 5.4 and for the production of the Contract Products.

5.4.2 If the Supplier is First Branch, the license granted under Section 5.4.1 shall be sublicensable to AELQ.

5.5 Insurance

5.5.1 The Supplier is responsible to ensure that the equipment owned by the Supplier and used in the Plant is properly insured.

5.5.2 The Supplier shall (or, insofar as the Supplier is First Branch, shall ensure that AELQ) hold necessary insurance protection.

6. DELIVERY, TITLE AND RISK

6.1 Delivery of Contract Product

6.1.1 The Parties agree that delivery of the Factory Complete Contract Products shall be made Ex Works (Incoterms 2010).

6.1.2 The Supplier shall notify the Buyer when a Contract Product is Factory Complete by registering the Contract Product as Factory Complete in the system used by the Parties for such communication. Simultaneously, the Supplier shall issue the invoice for such Contract Product to the Buyer.

6.1.3 The Supplier shall deliver to the Buyer the Factory Complete Contract Products within the timeframe decided during the volume planning procedures as set forth in Exhibit 1 or as agreed between the Parties by making it available for collection by the Buyer through having it parked within the premises of the Plant on the area of the yard designated for the Buyer, and the Supplier shall be deemed to have delivered the Contract Product to the Buyer at such time.

6.1.4 If not otherwise agreed between the Parties, the Buyer undertakes to collect the Contract Products on a daily basis, but latest within two weeks of delivery or as otherwise agreed between the Parties. If this time is exceeded, the Supplier will be entitled to charge the buyer a reasonable storage fee for actual costs incurred by the Supplier, to be agreed upon separately. The Buyer shall, in addition to the obligation described herein, take into consideration that the Supplier will produce vehicles to other buyers than the Buyer and that such vehicles also need be stored on the yard of the Plant.

6.1.5 Title and risk of loss or damage with respect to each Contract Product passes to the Buyer upon the moment it is Factory Complete, without prejudice for the Buyer's right to reject Contract Products under Section 7.

6.1.6 If the Supplier is in delay of delivery of Contract Products, it shall perform a root cause analysis and, provided the root cause analysis indicates that the delay is caused by the Supplier or within the Supplier's control, take appropriate measures in order to remedy the delay.

6.2 Distribution and outbound logistic

6.2.1 The Contract Products will be distributed by the Buyer through the distribution network managed by the Buyer.

- 6.2.2 The Supplier is not responsible for any matters in relation to the distribution of the Contract Product, except for:
- (a) selling the Contract Product directly to the Buyer at the price established under this Agreement;
 - (b) reporting any quality-related defect of the Contract Product to the Buyer for recall or other measures required by applicable law where the Contract Product is sold; and
 - (c) supporting the Buyer or any company listed by the Buyer as a company that needs this support, regarding warranty claims and after-sales services.
- 6.2.3 Outbound logistic of the Contract Product is the responsibility of the Buyer. The Supplier's obligations end when a Contract Product, as Factory Complete, is placed on the yard as explained above in Section 6.1.
- 6.2.4 Contract Products may be purchased for domestic sales in the People's Republic of China or export for distribution in markets outside of the People's Republic of China. In case of export, the Supplier is obligated to take all necessary steps to facilitate such export and to contribute to an efficient export in accordance with instructions provided by the Buyer, including, but not limited to, ensuring that such export is authorised as required by relevant laws and regulations of the People's Republic of China.

7. QUALITY, INSPECTION AND RIGHT TO REJECT PRODUCTS

7.1 Quality

- 7.1.1 The Parties acknowledge that the attainment and maintenance according to quality requirements for the Contract Product and process reliability is of paramount importance. The Supplier shall take all precautions and institute all procedures necessary in order to assure the quality requirements in accordance with this Agreement. The Supplier shall upon direction of the Buyer take such actions at the Plant that are necessary to rectify deviations from the product quality requirements of the Contract Product and processes as set out in this Agreement.
- 7.1.2 The VCPA quality metrics requirements will apply to all Contract Products. The Supplier and the Plant shall meet the standards of VCPA and the Supplier shall maintain such standards.
- 7.1.3 The Supplier shall regularly submit quality control, test reports and records as agreed by the Parties.
- 7.1.4 The assembly or any other activity connected to preparation or inspection of the Contract Products under this Agreement shall take place at the Plant by fully trained and qualified personnel allocated for the Contract Product.

7.2 Inspection

- 7.2.1 When the Supplier has completed its work on the Contract Product it shall pass through the test line, where the Supplier will inspect the Contract Product and decide whether it fulfils the Technical Specification and is Factory Complete. The test line shall consist of a thorough inspection and, if the Buyer so requires, road tests, and otherwise in accordance with VCPA.
- 7.2.2 The Buyer shall be entitled, at its own expense and upon reasonable notice, to inspect during regular business hours the assembly of the Contract Products, and may carry out tests on the Contract Products that have been parked on the yard ready for collection, in order to ascertain that the Contract Products meet the product and process quality requirements and complies with the Technical Specification.

7.3 Right to reject, defects and repair

- 7.3.1 The Contract Products delivered by the Supplier to the Buyer shall be Factory Complete and free from defects. Immediately upon the Buyer's identification of the fact that any of the delivered Contract Products is not Factory Complete, despite the Supplier's inspection, the Buyer shall have the right to reject such defective Contract Products, provided that the Buyer identifies such defects before the Buyer has removed the Contract Products from the premises of the Plant, whereby what is set out in Sections 7.3.2-7.3.4 shall apply.
- 7.3.2 The Supplier shall repair and/or correct any rejected Contract Product within a commercially reasonable time at its own costs and expenses. If a particular Contract Product cannot be repaired or corrected, Supplier shall replace any non-repairable or non-correctable Contract Product, subject to its right to claim reimbursement from the Buyer, a supplier or other Third Party depending on the root cause of the problem.
- 7.3.3 For avoidance of doubt, the Supplier shall physically correct any defects found either prior to delivery of the Contract Products or while they are parked on the yard of the Plant. The Buyer shall not be obliged to accept Contract Products if such have defects that have not been properly corrected.
- 7.3.4 The Supplier is responsible for the costs relating to repairing defects on the Contract Product caused in assembly or manufacturing. The Buyer is responsible for the costs relating to defects in the Contract Product caused by product design, as well as part or Component quality (given that the Buyer is responsible for the sourcing of Components in accordance with Section 5.3). The Buyer's responsibility is however only in regard to repairing its Contract Products and does not include a responsibility for other costs incurred in the Plant, such as stand-still in production.
- 7.3.5 The principles set out in Sections 7.3.1-7.3.2 and 7.3.4 above shall also apply in case the Contract Products are found to be defective even after such Contract Products have been removed from the premises of the Plant, to the extent any defect in such Contract Products are due to Supplier's faulty assembly or manufacturing. This Section 7.3.5 shall, however, only apply if such defects have been found and notified to the Supplier within six (6) months from when such Contract Products have been removed from the premises of the Plant.
- 7.3.6 Where the Buyer has rejected Contract Products under this Section 7, the Buyer shall have the right to determine the order of priority in which such Contract Products shall be repaired.

8. PERMITS

- 8.1 The Supplier is responsible for the operation of the Plant and shall hold all necessary permits required by all applicable laws and regulations for the Plant, including, but not limited to, to operate the Plant and to produce and sell the Contract Products under this Agreement (the “Permits”).
- 8.2 All Permits shall be valid so that the Supplier can produce and sell the Contract Products during the term of this Agreement.

9. WARRANTY, PRODUCT LIABILITY, RECALL AND OTHER CLAIMS

- 9.1 Other than as provided for in Section 7 above, the Supplier is not responsible for any warranty claims or similar in relation to the Contract Products. The Supplier warrants that the Contract Products are in conformity with the Technical Specifications and free from defects in materials and workmanship including manufacturing and assembly. In addition to this Section 9.1, what is set out below in this Section 9 shall apply.
- 9.2 If a defect is found in a Contract Product after delivery of a Contract Product, initial inspection should be carried out by the Buyer. If the Buyer finds that the defect is caused by Component quality, and thus the Buyer’s responsibility (which in turn may be the Component supplier’s responsibility under the Buyer’s agreement with such supplier), the Buyer shall together with the supplier of the Component carry out the final inspection and make joint decision with regard to the cause of the defect and action to be taken. If it is confirmed finally that the defect is caused by Component quality, the Buyer shall bear all the damage and cost incurred from the whole event (which in turn may be the Component supplier’s responsibility under the Buyer’s agreement with such supplier, which governs the relationship between the Buyer and the Component supplier). If the Buyer finds that the defect is due to product design, the Buyer shall carry out the final inspection and make decision with regard to the cause of the defect and action to be taken. If it is confirmed finally that the defect is due to product design, the Buyer shall bear all the damage and cost incurred from the whole event. If the Buyer finds that the defect is the Supplier’s responsibility in accordance with this Agreement, the Buyer shall together with AELQ carry out the final inspection and make joint decision with regard to the cause of the defect and action to be taken. If it is confirmed finally that the defect is the Supplier’s responsibility, the Supplier shall bear all the damage and cost incurred from the whole event. If the Parties cannot agree on the cause of the defect, the issue shall be escalated in accordance with what is set out in Section 12.1. This Section 9.2 is at all times subject to Section 7.
- 9.3 The Buyer shall be responsible for all costs in relation to warranty claims, product liability claims, Contract Product recalls and other claims. If any such claim is due to a systematic defect in the Contract Products due to the Supplier’s faulty manufacturing or assembly, however, the Supplier shall be responsible for all costs relating to such claims. A defect in the Contract Product shall be considered systematic (i) if it is attributable to the same, or substantially the same, root cause, and (ii) occurs, or is likely to occur, at a statistically significant level (determined in good faith by the Parties) during the agreed or reasonably expected life time of the Contract Product. Systematic defects shall be defined and claimed via case study on a case by case basis. In addition, the Parties shall in good faith agree on any consequences of systematic defects for the Supplier.
- 9.4 For the avoidance of doubt, the Buyer is not responsible in relation to the Supplier, nor in relation to other buyers that have entered into other car model manufacturing agreements with First Branch or AELQ regarding production of vehicles in the Plant, for any costs and/or damages relating to stops in production in the Plant affecting such other buyers. Likewise, the Supplier is not responsible in relation to Buyer for such costs and/or damages.

10. TRADEMARKS10.1 General

For the avoidance of doubt, this Agreement shall in no way be construed as to give any of the Parties any right whatsoever to use any registered or unregistered trademarks or brand names owned or licensed by another Party or its Affiliates, except in the manner and to the extent set forth in this Agreement or expressly consented to in writing by that other Party.

10.2 Geely brand name

10.2.1 For sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Agreement does not include any right to use the 'Geely' brand name or trademarks, or refer to 'Geely' in communications or official documents of whatever kind.

10.2.2 This means that this Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the 'Geely' brand name or 'Geely' trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

10.3 Volvo Cars brand name

10.3.1 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Agreement does not include any right to use the 'Volvo' brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to 'Volvo' in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the 'Volvo' Trademarks as well as the 'Volvo' name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the 'Volvo' Trademarks is subject to a license agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related intellectual property can only be used by Volvo Cars and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.

10.3.2 This means that this Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the 'Volvo' brand name or 'Volvo' Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

10.4 Trademark on Contract Products

10.4.1 Notwithstanding the above, the Supplier is hereby granted the right to use the Buyer's trademarks but solely to apply such trademark on the Contract Product in accordance with the Technical Specification or as otherwise instructed by the Buyer. If the Supplier is First Branch, the Supplier may sub-licence such rights to AELQ.

10.4.2 Any other use of the Buyer's trademark, including the one on the Contract Products, is subject to the Parties entering into a trademark license agreement.

11. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

11.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Agreement.

11.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any damage arising out of or in connection with this Agreement shall be limited to [].

11.3 The limitations of liability set out in this Section 11 shall not apply in respect of damage;

- (a) caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence, or;
- (b) caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 13 below.

12. GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES

12.1 Governance

- 12.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Agreement as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Agreement.
- 12.1.2 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event the Parties on an operational level cannot agree upon aspects relating to the co-operation between the Parties, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Luqiao Steering Committee.
- 12.1.3 If the Luqiao Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution of the disagreement the relevant issue should be escalated to the Strategic Board for decision.

12.2 Change management

- 12.2.1 For any changes or updates of the Technical Specifications, the Buyer shall notify the Supplier of its requested change and the Supplier shall provide feedback to the Buyer of potential consequences of the requested change. Details regarding change management should follow the change management procedure used by the Parties.
- 12.2.2 The Supplier undertakes to immediately incorporate any changes in the Components, in the Contract Products or in manufacturing engineering processes related thereto in accordance with strict batch sequence orders and plans as agreed by the Parties. The Supplier shall bear the costs for all the described work. All related work performed by the Supplier shall be charged back to the Buyer as part of the price for the Contract Products.

13. CONFIDENTIALITY

- 13.1 The Parties shall take any and all necessary measures to comply with the security and confidentiality procedures of the other Parties.
- 13.2 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes comprised by the fulfilment of this Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 13.2 below apply or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or sub-contractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder, as well as with the exception of such personnel of Geely and Volvo Cars with a need to know as for the Parties to perform their duties hereunder and in relation to the operation of the Plant. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:
 - (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;

- (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
 - (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
 - (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations; or
 - (e) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.
- 13.3 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 12.2.
- 13.4 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within thirty (30) days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 13.5 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 12.2, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 13.6 This confidentiality provision shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement without limitation in time.

14. TERM AND TERMINATION

14.1 Term and termination

- 14.1.1 This Agreement shall become effective and remain in force in accordance with what is set out in the Car Model Manufacturing Agreement. This Agreement may be terminated in accordance with what is set out below in this Section 14.1.
- 14.1.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect in the event;

- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Agreement, which has not been remedied within sixty (60) days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
- (b) if the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.

14.2 Consequences of termination

- 14.2.1 Termination of this Agreement shall be without prejudice to the accrued rights and liabilities of the Parties on the date of termination, unless expressly waived in writing by the Parties.
- 14.2.2 Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, upon expiry or termination of this Agreement, the rights of the Supplier referred to in this Agreement hereof shall cease and the Supplier shall forthwith cease to assemble the Contract Product or any Components thereof.
- 14.2.3 The Supplier shall upon expiry or termination of this Agreement make no further use of the Technical Information and Know-How owned or associated with the Buyer and shall return to the Buyer, at the Supplier's expense, the Technical Information in tangible form and any reproductions or copies thereof or, at the Buyer's option, present acceptable evidence that the same have been completely destroyed.
- 14.2.4 The Supplier shall forthwith take all action necessary to transfer all licenses or registrations issued by the relevant authorities for the Contract Product to the Buyer or, if this is not possible, to arrange for cancellation of such licenses or registrations.
- 14.2.5 Upon termination of this Agreement, the Buyer shall within sixty (60) days after expiry, purchase at fair market value any non-defective Contract Product and/or Components and non-cancellable orders regarding supply to the Buyer.
- 14.2.6 No compensation for goodwill, redundancies in personnel, for investments made, indemnities for loss of profit or of clientele, or consequential loss can be claimed by reason of termination of this Agreement.
- 14.2.7 For avoidance of doubt, termination of this Agreement does not affect the validity of any other car model manufacturing agreements executed between the Parties.

14.3 Exit costs

- 14.3.1 If the Buyer exits from the Plant, i.e. ceases having vehicles produced in the Plant within the term of this Agreement, the Buyer shall in any event be responsible for the remaining depreciation for the investments in the Plant that relates to the Buyer, i.e. such fixed costs unique to the exiting Party.
- 14.3.2 Upon such exit, the Buyer shall take an accelerated share and pay a lump sum relating to the costs of such remaining depreciation.

15. MISCELLANEOUS15.1 Force majeure

- 15.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under this Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A "Force Majeure Event" means any event beyond a Party's reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party's), failure of general energy sources delivering energy to the plant, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions.
- 15.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under this Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its non-performance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

15.2 Notices

- 15.2.1 All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, facsimile, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:

- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
- (b) if sent by facsimile or email transmission, at the time and on the date indicated on a confirmation of successful transmission page relating to such facsimile transmission or at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
- (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
- (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods.

- 15.2.2 All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be sent to the addresses set out in the Car Model Manufacturing Agreement.

15.3 Assignment

Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.

15.4 Waiver

Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.

15.5 Severability

In the event any provision of this Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.

15.6 Entire Agreement

All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Agreement are superseded by this Agreement.

15.7 Amendments

Any amendment or addition to this Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.

15.8 Survival

If this Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 13 (Confidential Information), Section 16 (Governing Law), Section 17 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 15.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.

16. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of the People's Republic of China without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION17.1 Escalation principles

- 17.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Luqiao Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten (10) days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Luqiao Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Luqiao Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.

- 17.1.2 The members of the Luqiao Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Luqiao Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Luqiao Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Luqiao Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 17.1.3 If the Luqiao Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within thirty (30) days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the Strategic Board for decision. Should the matter not have been resolved by the Strategic Board within thirty (30) days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 17.2 below. If no Luqiao Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the Strategic Board immediately and Section 17.1.2 above shall not apply.
- 17.1.4 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 13 above.
- 17.1.5 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 17.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the Strategic Board in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

17.2 Arbitration

- 17.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall, be submitted to China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Committee (“CIETAC”) for arbitration, which shall be held in Shanghai and conducted in accordance with the CIETAC’s arbitration rules in effect at the time of applying for arbitration, whereas the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English and Chinese. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.
- 17.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 17.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 17.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

EXHIBIT 1
VOLUME PLANNING PROCEDURES

1. LONG TERM INVESTMENT VOLUMES

The Buyer acknowledges that all manufacturing of vehicles in the Plant is subject to planning and allocation of capacity in the Plant on a [] and that any planning of the volumes and the production of Contract Products under this Agreement shall consider that other vehicles than the Contract Products are to be produced in the Plant.

In order to predict and plan for the production volume appropriately, the Parties will discuss LTIV and planned volume forecasts on []. LTIV is required when there is need to increase or decrease the designed capacity of the Plant for the Contract Products by investment into tooling and equipment as well as planning for personnel and shift requirements. The LTIV constitutes a vehicle volume commitment by the Buyer.

The LTIV planning is illustrated by the graph below.

The Buyer shall on an annual basis, in due time before [] each year, provide the Volume Planning Committee its planned volume forecast for [] ("Requested Volumes"). Requests so filed with the Volume Planning Committee shall be processed within the internal planning process of each buyer having vehicles produced in the plant (including the Buyer), and resubmitted for a final decision by the Luqiao Steering Committee no later than [] each year. Thereafter, the Luqiao Steering Committee will, based on such Requested Volumes, by [] each year, at the latest, decide on the allocation of capacity in the Plant between the Buyer and other buyers having vehicles produced in the Plant under other car model manufacturing agreements for []. Thus, the Luqiao Steering Committee will by that time decide on the capacity in the Plant available to the Buyer. The Plant capacity so allocated to the Buyer during these [] shall be considered a volume commitment by the Buyer and the Buyer's "Reserved Volumes". The Buyer is responsible for its Reserved Volumes, meaning that if the Buyer does not utilize its Reserved Volumes, it shall in any event be responsible for any fixed and variable costs related to such unutilized Reserved Volumes that could not be mitigated.

The Luqiao Steering Committee may decide to have separate operational meetings to prepare planning volumes prior to its decisions on [] each year.

Furthermore, the Buyer agree to hold the Supplier and the Luqiao Steering Committee informed of its long term plans for production of Contract Products in the Plant beyond the [] period that concerns its Reserved Volumes.

Any decisions on the allocation of capacity is to be made by the Luqiao Steering Committee.

2. MONTHLY PLANNING PROCESS

The Parties acknowledge the need to on a regular basis follow-up and discuss volume forecasts and orders of Contract Products.

Moreover, the parties shall on a monthly basis follow-up, discuss and agree on the rolling production volume and details for [] for production and delivery of the Contract Products. The review is done on a [].

Monthly volume planning procedure is illustrated by the graph below and shall follow [].

3. ORDER BOOK PLANNING

The Parties agree that the forecasted monthly planning volume together with the annual production volume of the Contract Product forms the base for order book planning and also Components ordering planning.

The order book is open for [] at a time. The order book governance process and order process is illustrated by the graph below.

CAR PRICING PRINCIPLES AND PROCEDURES

1. VEHICLE COST CALCULATION

The price of the Contract Product shall be calculated according to [].

1.1 Common cost

The cost for the Plant, which is defined as common cost in graph 1 below, shall be [].

Example common cost calculation:

1.2 Model Unique cost

[]

1.3 Cost for use of tooling

Each brand will own its unique and type bound tooling. []

The pricing methodology for user right fee is stipulated in separate Vendor Tooling Agreements.

1.4 Pricing process

Prices for vehicles to be produced in the Plant, including Contract Products, shall be set on [] basis based on []. The Supplier will decide on the prices that the Supplier shall charge for vehicles to be produced in the Plant, including the Contract Products, for [].

The prices shall be reviewed on [] basis and may be amended by the Supplier at its discretion if necessary to cover costs for production of vehicles in the Plant, e.g. due to the production of vehicles in the Plant not reaching the estimated volumes or due to fluctuations in costs for material, etc.

The timeline for price setting is illustrated by graph 2 below.

[]

In case of disagreement between the Parties on price adjustments, it will be handled in accordance with Section 12 in the General Terms.

2. ACCOUNTING

In order to ensure the expenses and payments hereunder are accurately and correctly recorded, the Supplier shall establish necessary IT system and maintain separate accounts and records for the business associated with manufacturing and distribution of the Contract Product.

APPENDIX 2
TECHNICAL SPECIFICATION

The Parties agree to in good faith negotiate and finalise the contents of this Appendix after the effective date.

SUPPLEMENT AGREEMENT
CAR MODEL MANUFACTURING AGREEMENT

This Supplement Agreement to the Car Model Manufacturing Agreement (“Supplement”) is between Asia Euro Automobile Manufacturing (Taizhou) Co., Ltd., Reg. No. 91331004MA28G7BUX1, a company incorporated under the laws of People’s Republic of China (the “Supplier” or AELQ”); and

Polestar Performance AB, Reg. No. 556653-3096, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden with (the “Buyer”)

The Supplier and the Buyer are referred to individually as a “Party” and jointly as the “Parties”.

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have entered into a Car Model Manufacturing Agreement on 17 September 2018 (the “Agreement”).
- B. The Parties now wish to make certain clarifications and amendments to the Agreement to the extent set out below.
- C. Now, therefore, the Parties agree as follows:

1. SCOPE OF SUPPLEMENT

- 1.1 The Agreement will be deemed supplemented to the extent herein provided and will, except as specifically amended, continue in full force and effect in accordance with its original terms. In case of any discrepancy between the provisions of this Supplement and the Agreement, the provisions of this Supplement shall prevail. Any definitions used in this Supplement shall, unless otherwise is stated herein, have the respective meanings set forth in the Agreement.

2. PAYMENT TERMS RELATED

- 2.1 According to Appendix 1 Section 4.2 of the Agreement, invoices from the Supplier to the Buyer shall be paid at the latest forty-five (45) days after an invoice has been issued.
- 2.2 The Parties now agrees that the payment terms set out in Appendix 1 Section 4.2.2 in the Agreement, for unpaid invoices issued between the period June 1, 2020 until December 31, 2020 (“the Extension Range”), shall be changed. For unpaid invoices issued within the Extension Range, the Parties agrees to extend the payment terms so invoices from the Supplier to the Buyer shall be paid at the latest three hundred (300) days after an invoice has been issued.
- 2.3 For the sake of clarity, this Supplement only applies to unpaid invoices within the Extension Range. As far as not provided otherwise in this Section 2 above, the payment terms and tax clauses as set forth in the Agreement shall apply.

3. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 3.1 This Supplement is and should be regarded and interpreted as a Supplement to the Agreement. The validity of this Supplement is therefore dependent upon the validity of the Agreement.
- 3.2 This Supplement Agreement shall become effective upon signature of the authorised signatories of each Party.
- 3.3 The Parties may execute this Supplement in counterparts, including electronic copies, which taken together will constitute one instrument.

“Supplier” shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the Car Model Manufacturing Agreement.

“Technical Information” means all Technical Specification and Know-How and all other written or printed technical information or software stored in any media or materials or prototypes communicated to the Supplier by the Buyer and all reproductions, excerpts and summaries thereof, and all modifications and/or improvements to the Technical Specification and Know-How made by or for the Supplier.

“Technical Specification” means necessary product drawings, material lists, assembly instructions and quality requirements on paper or in electronic form provided by the Buyer for the assembly of the Contract Product in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement and that shall be attached to each Car Model Manufacturing Agreement.

“Third Party” means a party other than any of the Parties and/or an Affiliate of one of the Parties to this Agreement

“Type Bound Tooling” means tooling that are specific to certain Contract Products and that are unique to the Buyer.

“Vendor Tooling” means tooling owned by the Buyer that is used and stored at the premises of a Third Party but used for the production of Contract Products (and/or components therein) for the Buyer.

“Volume Planning Committee” means the committee established for the purpose of planning volume allocations for vehicles to be produced in the Plant and which is represented by Geely, Volvo Cars, AELQ, First Branch, the Buyer and other buyers which have entered into car mode! manufacturing agreements with First Branch or AELQ for production of vehicles in the Plant.

“VCPA” means Volvo Customer Product Audit.

“Volvo Cars” shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the Car Mode! Manufacturing Agreement.

2. SALE AND PURCHASE

- 2.1 The Supplier agrees to supply to the Buyer, and the Buyer agrees to purchase, the Contract Products ordered in accordance with and under the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- 2.2 Insofar as the Supplier is First Branch, the Buyer acknowledges that the Supplier will have the Contract Products manufactured for the Buyer and supplied to the Buyer, but that the Supplier will have AELQ manufacturing and assembling the Contract Products in the Plant up to close-to-final status under a car model agreement — component sales and then complete and sell the completed Contract Products to the Buyer. If the Supplier is AELQ, the Buyer acknowledges that the Supplier will manufacture and assemble the Contract Products in the Plant up to complete status and sell the completed Contract Products to the Buyer.
- 2.3 The Parties acknowledge that other car model manufacturing agreements may be entered into for the production of vehicles in the Plant other than the Contract Products. The Buyer shall not only cooperate with the Supplier, but shall also cooperate with AELQ (if the Supplier is First Branch), First Branch (if the Supplier is AELQ), Geely, Volvo Cars as well as buyers under such other car model manufacturing agreements in order to facilitate the operation of the Plant and the overall production of vehicles in the Plant as well as of the Contract Products.

3. VOLUME FORECASTS AND ORDER PROCESS

- 3.1 The procedures for planning the manufacturing and assembly of the Contract Products in the Plant, including forecasted volumes and orders for Contract Products, are attached hereto as Exhibit 1.
- 3.2 The Buyer will order and the Supplier will supply the Contract Products in accordance with the order process set out in Exhibit 1.

4. PRICE AND PAYMENT4.1 Price

- 4.1.1 The Contract Products shall be priced based on the full cost of production for such Contract Products plus a mark-up, currently being []. The mark-up will be reviewed and adjusted in accordance with the latest available benchmark under the guidelines of the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development. The pricing is based on the total estimated fixed and variable costs for producing vehicles in the Plant, which []. The principles and procedures for calculating the full cost of production and for setting the price of the Contract Products, on an 'arm's length' basis, are attached hereto as Exhibit 2.
- 4.1.2 In addition to Contract Products, also service/spare parts manufactured in the Plant being parts in a Contract Product shall be possible to order under this Car Model Manufacturing Agreement. In such case the principles relating to Contract Products in this Car Model Manufacturing Agreement shall also apply to such service/spare parts as far as reasonably possible, unless the context or circumstances clearly suggests otherwise.

4.2 Payment

- 4.2.1 Invoice for a Contract Product shall be issued by the Supplier to the Buyer when the Contract Product has been loaded onto the transport vessel at the port of departure. Invoices may be generated electronically. However, the Buyer may request hard-copy summary invoices that summarises total batches of individual invoices over a specified period, in order to satisfy VAT and customs reporting requirements.
- 4.2.2 Invoice from the Supplier to the Buyer shall be paid at the latest forty-five (45) days after an invoice has been issued. Payment shall be made in RMB or such other currency that the Supplier and the Buyer may agree, in a timely manner and in accordance with the payment terms set forth in this Section 4.2.
- 4.2.3 All amounts and payments referred to in this Agreement are exclusive of VAT, and any other taxes, for example withholding tax and surcharges. VAT is chargeable on all invoiced amounts only when required by local law and shall be borne by the Buyer, Buyer may appoint an Affiliate or Third Party to handle the requisite VAT registration and recovery.
- 4.2.4 Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based on the one (1) month applicable interbank rate, with an addition of two per cent (2%) per annum.
- 4.2.5 Any bank charges in connection with payment by the Buyer to the Supplier shall be paid or reimbursed by the Buyer.
- 4.2.6 If the Buyer is in default in making any payment, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, the Supplier may postpone its obligations under this Agreement until payment is received. Any postponement or termination of the Supplier's obligations under this Agreement shall have no effect on the Supplier's obligations or commitments under any other agreement or understanding between the Parties.

5. MANUFACTURING5.1 Assembly

- 5.1.1 The Supplier shall assemble the Contract Products in the Plant. The Supplier shall during the Term maintain capacity to manufacture, assemble and supply to the Buyer Contract Products in quantities ordered by the Buyer up to the volumes agreed between the Parties, and such capacity will in relation to the Buyer never exceed such volumes dedicated to the Buyer as decided by the Luqiao Steering Committee. The Parties thus acknowledge that the capacity in the Plant is limited and shared between the Buyer and other buyers having vehicles produced in the Plant.
- 5.1.2 The Buyer shall provide the Supplier with the Technical Specification and relevant Know-How for the manufacturing of the Contract Product. The Buyer may also, subject to separate agreement between the Parties, provide technical assistance to a reasonable level at the cost of the Supplier.
- 5.1.3 The Supplier undertakes to assemble the Contract Product in strict conformity with the Technical Specification, Know-How and/or as otherwise instructed by the Buyer from time to time and shall never implement any product changes, modification or substitutions of Component(s) unless authorized thereto in writing by the Buyer in each case, subject to the change management procedures set forth in Section 12.2.

5.2 Equipment and tooling

- 5.2.1 The Supplier undertakes to maintain in its (or KingKong's or AELQ's, as applicable) ownership and possession all equipment and in-house tooling for vehicles to be produced in the Plant, except for Type Bound Tooling which the Buyer shall remain the owner of. The Buyer will remain the owner of the Type Bound Tooling even if such is located in the Plant. Normal tooling maintenance will be commenced by the Supplier and related costs charged as part of the price for the Contract Products, whereas update and replacement of the Type Bound Tooling will be controlled and paid separately by the Buyer.
- 5.2.2 The Supplier undertakes to (or see to that KingKong or AELQ, as applicable) acquire or have acquired, all such necessary tooling, equipment and systems, including but not limited to jigs, fixtures, tools and welding equipment, necessary for the assembly of the Contract Product, except for the Type Bound Tooling mentioned in 5.2.1.
- 5.2.3 Any tooling and equipment acquired in accordance with Section 5.2.1—5.2.2 shall meet the Supplier's quality requirements.
- 5.2.4 Contract Product specific tooling and equipment acquired in accordance herewith shall be used solely for the purpose of the assembly of the Contract Product and its Components.
- 5.2.5 All plant tooling and equipment used by Supplier for the production of the Contract Products shall be maintained in proper working condition by the Supplier in accordance with applicable maintenance instructions for said tooling and equipment or by using industry practice if there are no specific instructions.
- 5.2.6 Purchase, maintenance and repair of unique Vendor Tooling, which is used only in relation to the Buyer's Contract Products, is not covered by this Agreement. The Buyer is responsible for providing and maintaining such Vendor Tooling. Costs related to commonly used Vendor Tooling should be [].
- 5.2.7 The Parties may enter into separate tooling agreements in order to regulate any details around tooling, which is not regulated herein.

5.3 Components

- 5.3.1 The Buyer is responsible for ensuring that the Supplier is able to order Components for the production of Contract Products by calling-off such Components from Component suppliers procured by the Buyer.
- 5.3.2 Components will be called-off from Component suppliers directly by the Supplier (or AELQ, as applicable) on behalf of the Buyer. The Buyer shall ensure that the Supplier is provided with information required to be able to call-off Components from such suppliers.
- 5.3.3 The Supplier shall pay (or shall ensure that AELQ pays, as applicable) all Component suppliers' invoices directly to the Component suppliers. The costs for such Components shall be included in the prices for the Contract Products.

5.4 License Grant

- 5.4.1 The Buyer hereby grants to the Supplier a limited, non-exclusive, sub-licensable only to the extent set out in Section 5.4.2 below, license to the Buyer's intellectual property rights which are necessary for the production of the Contract Products and solely for the purpose of producing the Contract Products under and during the term of this Agreement. The license granted hereunder does not give the Supplier any right whatsoever to use the Buyer's intellectual property rights for any purpose other than as stated in this Section 5.4 and for the production of the Contract Products.

5.4.2 If the Supplier is First Branch, the license granted under Section 5.4.1 shall be sub- licensable to AELQ.

5.5 Insurance

5.5.1 The Supplier is responsible to ensure that the equipment owned by the Supplier and used in the Plant is properly insured.

5.5.2 The Supplier shall (or, insofar as the Supplier is First Branch, shall ensure that AELQ) hold necessary insurance protection.

6. DELIVERY, TITLE AND RISK

6.1 Delivery of Contract Product

6.1.1 The Parties agree that delivery of the Factory Complete Contract Products shall be made Free on Board (FOB) (Incoterms 2020).

6.1.2 The Supplier shall notify the Buyer when a Contract Product is Factory Complete by registering the Contract Product as Factory Complete in the system used by the Parties for such communication.

6.1.3 The Supplier shall deliver to the Buyer the Factory Complete Contract Products within the timeframe decided during the volume planning procedures as set forth in Exhibit 1.

6.1.4 Title and risk of loss or damage with respect to each Contract Product passes to the Buyer upon the moment it has been loaded onto the transport vessel designated by Buyer at the port of departure, without prejudice for the Buyer's right to reject Contract Products under Section 7.

6.1.5 If the Supplier is in delay of delivery of Contract Products, it shall perform a root cause analysis and, provided the root cause analysis indicates that the delay is caused by the Supplier or within the Supplier's control, take appropriate measures in order to remedy the delay.

6.2 Distribution and outbound logistic

6.2.1 The Contract Products will be distributed by the Buyer through the distribution network managed by the Buyer.

6.2.2 The Supplier is not responsible for any matters in relation to the distribution of the Contract Product, except for:

- (a) selling the Contract Product directly to the Buyer at the price established under this Agreement;
- (b) reporting any quality-related defect of the Contract Product to the Buyer for recall or other measures required by applicable law where the Contract Product is sold; and

- (c) supporting the Buyer or any company listed by the Buyer as a company that needs this support, regarding warranty claims and after-sales services.
- 6.2.3 Once the Contract Product has been loaded onto the transport vessel designated by Buyer at the port of departure, outbound logistic of the Contract Product is the responsibility of the Buyer. The Supplier's obligations end when a Contract Product, as Factory Complete, has been loaded onto the transport vessel designated by Buyer at the port of departure as explained above in Section 6.1.
- 6.2.4 Contract Products may be purchased for domestic sales in the People's Republic of China or export for distribution in markets outside of the People's Republic of China. In case of export, the Supplier is obligated to take all necessary steps to facilitate such export and to contribute to an efficient export in accordance with instructions provided by the Buyer, including, but not limited to, ensuring that such export is authorised as required by relevant laws and regulations of the People's Republic of China.

7. QUALITY, INSPECTION AND RIGHT TO REJECT PRODUCTS

7.1 Quality

- 7.1.1 The Parties acknowledge that the attainment and maintenance according to quality requirements for the Contract Product and process reliability is of paramount importance. The Supplier shall take all precautions and institute all procedures necessary in order to assure the quality requirements in accordance with this Agreement. The Supplier shall upon direction of the Buyer take such actions at the Plant that are necessary to rectify deviations from the product quality requirements of the Contract Product and processes as set out in this Agreement.
- 7.1.2 The VCPA quality metrics requirements will apply to all Contract Products. The Supplier and the Plant shall meet the standards of VCPA and the Supplier shall maintain such standards.
- 7.1.3 The Supplier shall regularly submit quality control, test reports and records as agreed by the Parties.
- 7.1.4 The assembly or any other activity connected to preparation or inspection of the Contract Products under this Agreement shall take place at the Plant by fully trained and qualified personnel allocated for the Contract Product.

7.2 Inspection

- 7.2.1 When the Supplier has completed its work on the Contract Product it shall pass through the test line, where the Supplier will inspect the Contract Product and decide whether it fulfils the Technical Specification and is Factory Complete. The test line shall consist of a thorough inspection and, if the Buyer so requires, road tests, and otherwise in accordance with VCPA.

- 7.2.2 The Buyer shall be entitled, at its own expense and upon reasonable notice, to inspect during regular business hours the assembly of the Contract Products, and may carry out tests on the Contract Products that have been parked at the last point of rest, in order to ascertain that the Contract Products meet the product and process quality requirements and complies with the Technical Specification.

7.3 Right to reject, defects and repair

- 7.3.1 The Contract Products delivered by the Supplier to the Buyer shall be Factory Complete and free from defects. Immediately upon the Buyer's identification of the fact that any of the delivered Contract Products is not Factory Complete, despite the Supplier's inspection, the Buyer shall have the right to reject such defective Contract Products, provided that the Buyer identifies such defects before the Buyer has removed the Contract Products from the premises of the Plant, whereby what is set out in Sections 7.3.2-7.3.4 shall apply.
- 7.3.2 The Supplier shall repair and/or correct any rejected Contract Product within a commercially reasonable time at its own costs and expenses. If a particular Contract Product cannot be repaired or corrected, Supplier shall replace any non-repairable or non-correctable Contract Product, subject to its right to claim reimbursement from the Buyer, a supplier or other Third Party depending on the root cause of the problem.
- 7.3.3 For avoidance of doubt, the Supplier shall physically correct any defects found either prior to delivery of the Contract Products or while they are parked on the yard of the Plant. The Buyer shall not be obliged to accept Contract Products if such have defects that have not been properly corrected.
- 7.3.4 The Supplier is responsible for the costs relating to repairing defects on the Contract Product caused in assembly or manufacturing. The Buyer is responsible for the costs relating to defects in the Contract Product caused by product design, as well as part or Component quality (given that the Buyer is responsible for the sourcing of Components in accordance with Section 5.3). The Buyer's responsibility is however only in regard to repairing its Contract Products and does not include a responsibility for other costs incurred in the Plant, such as stand-still in production.
- 7.3.5 The principles set out in Sections 7.3.1-7.3.2 and 7.3.4 above shall also apply in case the Contract Products are found to be defective even after such Contract Products have been removed from the premises of the Plant, to the extent any defect in such Contract Products are due to Supplier's faulty assembly or manufacturing. This Section 7.3.5 shall, however, only apply if such defects have been found and notified to the Supplier within six (6) months from when such Contract Products have been removed from the premises of the Plant.
- 7.3.6 Where the Buyer has rejected Contract Products under this Section 7, the Buyer shall have the right to determine the order of priority in which such Contract Products shall be repaired.

8. PERMITS

- 8.1 The Supplier is responsible for the operation of the Plant and shall hold all necessary permits required by all applicable laws and regulations for the Plant, including, but not limited to, to operate the Plant and to produce and sell the Contract Products under this Agreement (the "Permits").

8.2 All Permits shall be valid so that the Supplier can produce and sell the Contract Products during the term of this Agreement.

9. WARRANTY, PRODUCT LIABILITY, RECALL AND OTHER CLAIMS

- 9.1 Other than as provided for in Section 7 above, the Supplier is not responsible for any warranty claims or similar in relation to the Contract Products. The Supplier warrants that the Contract Products are in conformity with the Technical Specifications and free from defects in materials and workmanship including manufacturing and assembly. In addition to this Section 9.1, what is set out below in this Section 9 shall apply.
- 9.2 If a defect is found in a Contract Product after delivery of a Contract Product, initial inspection should be carried out by the Buyer. If the Buyer finds that the defect is caused by Component quality, and thus the Buyer's responsibility (which in turn may be the Component supplier's responsibility under the Buyer's agreement with such supplier), the Buyer shall together with the supplier of the Component carry out the final inspection and make joint decision with regard to the cause of the defect and action to be taken. If it is confirmed finally that the defect is caused by Component quality, the Buyer shall bear all the damage and cost incurred from the whole event (which in turn may be the Component supplier's responsibility under the Buyer's agreement with such supplier, which governs the relationship between the Buyer and the Component supplier). If the Buyer finds that the defect is due to product design, the Buyer shall carry out the final inspection and make decision with regard to the cause of the defect and action to be taken. If it is confirmed finally that the defect is due to product design, the Buyer shall bear all the damage and cost incurred from the whole event. If the Buyer finds that the defect is the Supplier's responsibility in accordance with this Agreement, the Buyer shall together with AELQ carry out the final inspection and make joint decision with regard to the cause of the defect and action to be taken. If it is confirmed finally that the defect is the Supplier's responsibility, the Supplier shall bear all the damage and cost incurred from the whole event. If the Parties cannot agree on the cause of the defect, the issue shall be escalated in accordance with what is set out in Section 12.1. This Section 9.2 is at all times subject to Section 7.
- 9.3 The Buyer shall be responsible for all costs in relation to warranty claims, product liability claims, Contract Product recalls and other claims. If any such claim is due to a systematic defect in the Contract Products due to the Supplier's faulty manufacturing or assembly, however, the Supplier shall be responsible for all costs relating to such claims. A defect in the Contract Product shall be considered systematic (i) if it is attributable to the same, or substantially the same, root cause, and (ii) occurs, or is likely to occur, at a statistically significant level (determined in good faith by the Parties) during the agreed or reasonably expected life time of the Contract Product. Systematic defects shall be defined and claimed via case study on a case by case basis. In addition, the Parties shall in good faith agree on any consequences of systematic defects for the Supplier.
- 9.4 For the avoidance of doubt, the Buyer is not responsible in relation to the Supplier, nor in relation to other buyers that have entered into other car model manufacturing agreements with First Branch or AELQ regarding production of vehicles in the Plant, for any costs and/or damages relating to stops in production in the Plant affecting such other buyers. Likewise, the Supplier is not responsible in relation to Buyer for such costs and/or damages.

10. TRADEMARKS10.1 General

For the avoidance of doubt, this Agreement shall in no way be construed as to give any of the Parties any right whatsoever to use any registered or unregistered trademarks or brand names owned or licensed by another Party or its Affiliates, except in the manner and to the extent set forth in this Agreement or expressly consented to in writing by that other Party.

10.2 Geely brand name

10.2.1 For sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Agreement does not include any right to use the 'Geely' brand name or trademarks, or refer to 'Geely' in communications or official documents of whatever kind.

10.2.2 This means that this Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the 'Geely' brand name or 'Geely' trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

10.3 Volvo Cars brand name

10.3.1 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Agreement does not include any right to use the 'Volvo' brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to 'Volvo' in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the 'Volvo' Trademarks as well as the 'Volvo' name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the 'Volvo' Trademarks is subject to a license agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related intellectual property can only be used by Volvo Cars and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.

10.3.2 This means that this Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the 'Volvo' brand name or 'Volvo' Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

10.4 Trademark on Contract Products

10.4.1 Notwithstanding the above, the Supplier is hereby granted the right to use the Buyer's trademarks but solely to apply such trademark on the Contract Product in accordance with the Technical Specification or as otherwise instructed by the Buyer. If the Supplier is First Branch, the Supplier may sub-licence such rights to AELQ.

10.4.2 Any other use of the Buyer's trademark, including the one on the Contract Products, is subject to the Parties entering into a trademark license agreement.

11. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

11.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Agreement.

11.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any damage arising out of or in connection with this Agreement shall be limited to [].

11.3 The limitations of liability set out in this Section 11 shall not apply in respect of damage;

- (a) caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence, or;
- (b) caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 13 below.

12. GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES12.1 Governance

- 12.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Agreement as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Agreement.
- 12.1.2 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event the Parties on an operational level cannot agree upon aspects relating to the co-operation between the Parties, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Luqiao Steering Committee.
- 12.1.3 If the Luqiao Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution of the disagreement the relevant issue should be escalated to the Strategic Board for decision.

12.2 Change management

- 12.2.1 For any changes or updates of the Technical Specifications, the Buyer shall notify the Supplier of its requested change and the Supplier shall provide feedback to the Buyer of potential consequences of the requested change. Details regarding change management should follow the change management procedure used by the Parties.
- 12.2.2 Tire Supplier undertakes to immediately incorporate any changes in the Components, in the Contract Products or in manufacturing engineering processes related thereto in accordance with strict batch sequence orders and plans as agreed by the Parties. The Supplier shall bear the costs for all the described work. All related work performed by the Supplier shall be charged back to the Buyer as part of the price for the Contract Products.

13. CONFIDENTIALITY

- 13.1 The Parties shall take any and all necessary measures to comply with the security and confidentiality procedures of the other Parties.
- 13.2 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes comprised by the fulfilment of this Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 13.2 below apply or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or sub-contractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder, as well as with the exception of such personnel of Geely and Volvo Cars with a need to know as for the Parties to perform their duties hereunder and in relation to the operation of the Plant. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:
 - (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;

- (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
 - (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
 - (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations; or
 - (e) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.
- 13.3 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 12.2.
- 13.4 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within thirty (30) days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as "Confidential", "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 13.5 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 12.2, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section 14.2 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 13.6 This confidentiality provision shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement without limitation in time.

14. TERM AND TERMINATION

14.1 Term and termination

- 14.1.1 This Agreement shall become effective and remain in force in accordance with what is set out in the Car Model Manufacturing Agreement. This Agreement may be terminated in accordance with what is set out below in this Section 14.1.
- 14.1.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect in the event;

- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Agreement, which has not been remedied within sixty (60) days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
- (b) if the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.

14.2 Consequences of termination

- 14.2.1 Termination of this Agreement shall be without prejudice to the accrued rights and liabilities of the Parties on the date of termination, unless expressly waived in writing by the Parties.
- 14.2.2 Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, upon expiry or termination of this Agreement, the rights of the Supplier referred to in this Agreement hereof shall cease and the Supplier shall forthwith cease to assemble tire Contract Product or any Components thereof.
- 14.2.3 The Supplier shall upon expiry or termination of this Agreement make no further use of the Technical Information and Know-How owned or associated with the Buyer and shall return to the Buyer, at the Supplier's expense, the Technical Information in tangible form and any reproductions or copies thereof or, at the Buyer's option, present acceptable evidence that the same have been completely destroyed.
- 14.2.4 The Supplier shall forthwith take all action necessary to transfer all licenses or registrations issued by the relevant authorities for the Contract Product to the Buyer or, if this is not possible, to arrange for cancellation of such licenses or registrations.
- 14.2.5 Upon termination of this Agreement, the Buyer shall within sixty (60) days after expiry, purchase at fair market value any non-defective Contract Product and/or Components and non-cancellable orders regarding supply to the Buyer.
- 14.2.6 No compensation for goodwill, redundancies in personnel, for investments made, indemnities for loss of profit or of clientele, or consequential loss can be claimed by reason of termination of this Agreement.
- 14.2.7 For avoidance of doubt, termination of this Agreement does not affect the validity of any other ear model manufacturing agreements executed between the Parties.

14.3 Exit costs

- 14.3.1 If the Buyer exits from the Plant, i.e. ceases having vehicles produced in the Plant within the term of this Agreement, the Buyer shall in any event be responsible for the remaining depreciation for the investments in the Plant that relates to the Buyer, i.e. such fixed costs unique to the exiting Party.
- 14.3.2 Upon such exit, the Buyer shall take an accelerated share and pay a lump sum relating to the costs of such remaining depreciation.

15. MISCELLANEOUS15.1 Force majeure

- 15.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under this Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A “Force Majeure Event” means any event beyond a Party’s reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party ‘s), failure of general energy sources delivering energy to the plant, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions.
- 15.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under this Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its non-performance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

15.2 Notices

- 15.2.1 All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, facsimile, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:
- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
 - (b) if sent by facsimile or email transmission, at the time and on the date indicated on a confirmation of successful transmission page relating to such facsimile transmission or at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
 - (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
 - (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;
- in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods.
- 15.2.2 All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be sent to the addresses set out in the Car Model Manufacturing Agreement.

15.3 Assignment

Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Agreement without the other Party’s prior written consent.

15.4 Waiver

Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.

15.5 Severability

In the event any provision of this Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.

15.6 Entire Agreement

All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Agreement are superseded by this Agreement.

15.7 Amendments

Any amendment or addition to this Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.

15.8 Survival

If this Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 13 (Confidential Information), Section 16 (Governing Law), Section 17 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 15.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.

16. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of the People's Republic of China without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION17.1 Escalation principles

17.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Luqiao Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten (10) days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Luqiao Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Luqiao Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.

- 17.1.2 The members of the Luqiao Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Luqiao Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Luqiao Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Luqiao Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 17.1.3 If the Luqiao Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within thirty (30) days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the Strategic Board for decision. Should the matter not have been resolved by the Strategic Board within thirty (30) days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 17.2 below. If no Luqiao Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the Strategic Board immediately and Section 17.1.2 above shall not apply.
- 17.1.4 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 13 above.
- 17.1.5 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 17.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the Strategic Board in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

17.2 Arbitration

- 17.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall, be submitted to China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Committee ("CIETAC") for arbitration, which shall be held in Shanghai and conducted in accordance with the CIETAC's arbitration rules in effect at the time of applying for arbitration, whereas the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English and Chinese. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.
- 17.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 17.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 17.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

EXHIBIT 1
VOLUME PLANNING PROCEDURES

1. LONG TERM INVESTMENT VOLUMES

The Buyer acknowledges that all manufacturing of vehicles in the Plant is subject to planning and allocation of capacity in the Plant on [] basis and that any planning of the volumes and the production of Contract Products under this Agreement shall consider that other vehicles than the Contract Products are to be produced in the Plant.

In order to predict and plan for the production volume appropriately, the Parties will discuss LTIV and planned volume forecasts on [] basis. LTIV is required when there is need to increase or decrease the designed capacity of the Plant for the Contract Products by investment into tooling and equipment as well as planning for personnel and shift requirements. The LTIV constitutes a vehicle volume commitment by the Buyer.

The LTIV planning is illustrated by the graph below.

The Buyer shall on [] basis, in due time before [] each year, provide the Volume Planning Committee its planned volume forecast for [] ("Requested Volumes"). Requests so filed with the Volume Planning Committee shall be processed within the internal planning process of each buyer having vehicles produced in the plant (including the Buyer), and resubmitted for a final decision by the Luqiao Steering Committee no later than [] each year. Thereafter, the Luqiao Steering Committee will, based on such Requested Volumes, by [] each year, at the latest, decide on the allocation of capacity in the Plant between the Buyer and other buyers having vehicles produced in the Plant under other car model manufacturing agreements for each of []. Thus, the Luqiao Steering Committee will by that time decide on the capacity in the Plant available to the Buyer. The Plant capacity so allocated to the Buyer during these [] shall be considered a volume commitment by the Buyer and the Buyer's "Reserved Volumes". The Buyer is responsible for its Reserved Volumes, meaning that if the Buyer does not utilize its Reserved Volumes, it shall in any event be responsible for any fixed and variable costs related to such un-utilized Reserved Volumes that could not be mitigated.

The Luqiao Steering Committee may decide to have separate operational meetings to prepare planning volumes prior to its decisions on [] each year.

Furthermore, the Buyer agree to hold the Supplier and the Luqiao Steering Committee informed of its long term plans for production of Contract Products in the Plant beyond the [] period that concerns its Reserved Volumes.

Any decisions on the allocation of capacity is to be made by the Luqiao Steering Committee.

2. MONTHLY PLANNING PROCESS

The Parties acknowledge the need to on a regular basis follow-up and discuss volume forecasts and orders of Contract Products.

Moreover, the parties shall on a monthly basis follow-up, discuss and agree on the rolling production volume and details for [] for production and delivery of the Contract Products. The review is done on a [].

Monthly volume planning procedure shall follow []. The monthly planning process is illustrated by the graph below, [].

3. ORDER BOOK PLANNING

The Parties agree that the forecasted monthly planning volume together with the annual production volume of the Contract Product forms the base for Order Book planning and also Components ordering planning.

The order book process is illustrated by the graph below.

[]

Orders need to be in alignment with planned slots as decided in the monthly planning process; all planned slots must be ordered.

EXHIBIT 2

CAR PRICING PRINCIPLES AND PROCEDURES

1. VEHICLE COST CALCULATION

The price of the Contract Product shall be calculated according to [].

1.1 Common cost

The cost for the Plant, which is defined as common cost in graph 1 below, shall be [].

Example common cost calculation:

1.2 Model Unique cost

[]

1.3 Cost for use of tooling

Each brand will own its unique and type bound tooling. []

1.4 Pricing process

Prices for vehicles to be produced in the Plant, including Contract Products, shall be set on [] basis based on []. The Supplier will decide on the prices that the Supplier shall charge for vehicles to be produced in the Plant, including the Contract Products, for [].

The prices shall be reviewed on [] basis and may be amended by the Supplier at its discretion if necessary to cover costs for production of vehicles in the Plant, e.g. due to the production of vehicles in the Plant not reaching the estimated volumes or due to fluctuations in costs for material, etc.

The timeline for price setting is illustrated by graph 2 below.

[]

In case of disagreement between the Parties on price adjustments, it will be handled in accordance with Section 12 in the General Terms.

2. ACCOUNTING

In order to ensure the expenses and payments hereunder are accurately and correctly recorded, the Supplier shall establish necessary IT system and maintain separate accounts and records for the business associated with manufacturing and distribution of the Contract Product.

Certain identified information marked with "[]" has been omitted from this document because it is both (i) not material and (ii) the type that the registrant treats as private or confidential.

APPENDICES

Appendix 1 - Polestar 3 Technical Content

Appendix 2 - Fee

Appendix 3 - Governance and Changes Structure

This LICENSE, LICENSE ASSIGNMENT AND SERVICE AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is entered into on 30 June 2019 and made between:

- (1) Volvo Car Corporation, Reg. No. 556074-3089, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden (“Volvo Cars”); and
- (2) Polestar Performance AB, Reg. No. 556653-3096, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden (“Polestar”).

Each of Volvo Cars and Polestar is hereinafter referred to as a “Party” and jointly as the “Parties”.

BACKGROUND

- A. Volvo Cars is in the business, among other activities, of developing, manufacturing and selling Volvo branded cars. It is understood that Volvo Cars is not normally a service provider.
- B. Polestar is engaged in the development, manufacturing and sale of Polestar branded high-end electric performance cars.
- C. The Parties have agreed to develop certain common technology mainly consisting of a common platform architecture technology and a common electrified powertrain based on modular electronic powertrain for usage by both Parties. The Parties have agreed to cooperate in this development project. Both Polestar and Volvo Cars will use the mentioned platform for multiple tophats offered globally. By sharing the development of the common platform architecture technology and a common electrified powertrain, the investment per tophat can be reduced allowing for more tophats over time. Shared large volumes on parts also contributes to cost advantages etc.
- D. The Parties have also agreed that Volvo Cars will provide certain development services for Polestar relating to the development of Polestar Unique Technology.
- E. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Agreement.

1. DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings assigned to them below. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa.

“Affiliate” means

- (a) for Polestar, any of the below legal entities (other than Polestar) and any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled (individually or jointly) by:
 - (i) Polestar Automotive (Shanghai) Co., Ltd;

- (ii) Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co., Ltd.;
 - (iii) Polestar Holding AB; or
 - (iv) Polestar Performance AB; and
- (b) for Volvo Cars, Volvo Car AB and any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by Volvo Car AB, however, for the avoidance of doubt, not Polestar or its Affiliates;

“control” for this purpose meaning ownership or control of at least one-hundred per cent (100%) with regard to Polestar Affiliates, and fifty per cent (50%) with regard to Volvo Cars Affiliates of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest of such legal entity. The Parties, however, agree to renegotiate this definition of “Affiliate” in good faith if it in the future does not reflect the Parties’ intention at the time of signing this Agreement due to a restructuring or reorganisation in relation to either of the Parties.

“Agreement” means this License, License Assignment and Service Agreement including all of its Appendices as amended from time to time.

“Appendix” means the appendices to this Agreement.

“Background IP” means the Intellectual Property Rights either;

- (a) owned by either of the Parties; or
- (b) created, developed or invented by directors, managers, employees or consultants of either of the Parties to which the Party has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sublicense prior to the execution of this Agreement, and any Intellectual Property Rights developed independently of this Agreement.

“Common Polestar Technology” means such Polestar Technology, which is specified as Common Polestar Technology (Category 3B) in Appendix 1 to this Agreement, for which IP is owned by Polestar and which automatically, upon the assignment to Polestar, shall be licensed back to Volvo Cars.

“Confidential Information” means any and all information regarding the Parties and their respective businesses, whether commercial or technical, in whatever form or media, including but not limited to information relating to Intellectual Property Rights, concepts, technologies, processes, commercial figures, techniques, strategic plans and budgets, investments, customers and sales, designs, graphics, CAD models, CAE data, statement of works (including engineering statement of works and any specification), targets, test plans/reports, technical performance data and engineering sign-off documents and other information of a sensitive nature, that a Party learns from or about the other Party prior to or after the execution of this Agreement.

“Data Room” means (if applicable) the information sharing platform agreed to be used between the Parties for making available the information regarding the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology to Polestar.

“Data Room Software” means the information sharing solution agreed to be used between the Parties for making available the Polestar Technology being software.

“Disclosing Party” means the Party disclosing Confidential Information to the Receiving Party.

“Fee” means the fee to be paid by either Party to the other Party hereunder in accordance with what is set out in Appendix 2 to this Agreement.

“Force Majeure Event” shall have the meaning set out in Section 16.1.1 below.

“Gates” means the dates agreed between the Parties, and which shall be based on VPDS, when the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology, or parts thereof, shall have been delivered to and accepted by Polestar, and which shall, unless otherwise stated in this Agreement, be Program Start (PS), Final Data Judgement (FDJ), Launch Readiness (LR), Launch Sign-off (LS) and Final Status Report (FSR), all described in the VPDS.

“Industry Standard” means the exercise of such professionalism, skill, diligence, prudence and foresight which would normally be expected at any given time from a skilled and experienced actor engaged in a similar type of undertaking as under this Agreement.

“Intellectual Property Rights” means Patents, Non-patented IP, Know-How and rights in Confidential Information to the extent protected under applicable laws anywhere in the world. For the avoidance of doubt, Trademarks are not comprised by this definition.

“Job1” means in relation to this Agreement and the Polestar Vehicle, the date on which the production of the Polestar Vehicle covered by this Agreement starts.

“Job1+90” means in relation this Agreement and the Polestar Vehicle, the date of Final Status Report (FSR), which follows from VPDS and which will take place 90 days after Job1.

“Job1+365” means in relation to this Agreement and the Polestar Vehicle, the date until which variations of the content as specified in Appendix 1 will be introduced to the Polestar Vehicle.

“Know-How” means confidential and proprietary industrial, technical and commercial information and techniques in any form including (without limitation) drawings, formulae, test results, reports, project reports and testing procedures, instruction and training manuals, tables of operating conditions, specifications, component lists, market forecasts, lists and particulars of customers and suppliers.

“MEP2” means common electrified powertrain including technical content as defined in Appendix 1.

“Non-patented IP” means copyrights (including rights in computer software), database rights, semiconductor topography rights, rights in designs, and other intellectual property rights (other than Trademarks and Patents) and all rights or forms of protection having equivalent or similar effect anywhere in the world, in each case whether registered or unregistered, and registered includes registrations, applications for registration and renewals whether made before, on or after execution of this Agreement.

“Object Code” means the compiled version of the Source Code including parameter files.

“Other Polestar Branded Vehicles” means Polestar branded vehicle models other than the Polestar Vehicle.

“Patent” means any patent, patent application, or utility model, whether filed before, on or after the execution of this Agreement, along with any continuation, continuation-in-part, divisional, re-examined or re-issued patent, foreign counterpart or renewal or extension of any of the foregoing.

“Polestar Supplier License Technology” means the Polestar Technology which is owned by a Third Party and licensed to Volvo Cars, and which license shall be assisted to Polestar under this Agreement.

“Polestar Technology” means technology that does not exist on any other vehicle than Polestar Vehicle and which shall be provided by Volvo Cars and purchased as a service by Polestar or assigned to Polestar under this Agreement, and which is specified as Polestar Technology (Category 1 and for the avoidance of doubt Category 3B. Category 3B however not limited to existence in Polestar Vehicle) in Appendix 1 to this Agreement.

“PS Unique Volvo Technology” means such Volvo Technology which is specified as PS Unique Volvo Technology (Category 2) in Appendix 1 to this Agreement, for which IP is owned by Volvo Cars and which is licensed exclusively to Polestar including but not limited to access to drawings, specifications, calculations, protocols(including test protocols), software (Object Code and Source Code), methods, processes and any similar deliverables needed for Polestar to make use of the licensed technology.

“Results” shall mean any outcome of the Services provided to Polestar under this Agreement (including but not limited to any IP, technology, patents, designs, software (Object Code and Source Code), methods, processes, deliverables, objects, products, documentation, modifications, improvements, and/or amendments to be carried out by Volvo Cars under the Appendix 1) and any other outcome or result of the Services to be performed by Volvo Cars as described in the relevant Appendix 1, irrespective of whether the performance of the Services has been completed or not.

“Services” means the services provided from Volvo Cars to Polestar relating to the Polestar Technology as specified in Appendix 1 for Category 1.

“Source Code” means human-readable program statements written by a programmer or developer in a high-level or assembly language that are not directly readable by a computer and that need to be compiled into object code before they can be executed by a computer.

“SPA2” means Volvo Cars modular product architecture that enables integration of hybrid electric vehicles and battery electric vehicles in the same vehicle model.

“Territory” means all countries in the world except China.

“Third Party” means a party other than any of the Parties and/or an Affiliate of one of the Parties to this Agreement.

“Trademarks” means trademarks (including part numbers that are trademarks), service marks, logos, trade names, business names, assumed names, trade dress and get-up, and domain names, in each case whether registered or unregistered, including all applications, registrations, renewals and the like, in each case to the extent they constitute rights that are enforceable against third parties.

“Use” means to make, have made, use (including in a process, such as use in designing, engineering, testing or assembling products or in their research or development), keep, install, integrate, extract, assemble, reproduce, incorporate, create derivative works of, modify, adapt, improve, enhance, develop, service or repair, including in the case of installation, integration, assembly, service or repair, the right to have a subcontractor of any tier carry out any of these activities on behalf of the Parties in their capacity as a licensee hereunder.

The right to “have made” is the right of the Parties in their capacity as a licensee hereunder, as applicable, to have another person (or their subcontractor of any tier) make for the Parties and does not include the right to grant sub-licenses to another person to make for such person’s own use or use other than for the Parties.

“Volvo IP” means Know-How, Intellectual Property Rights and all other deliverables and/or materials either

- (a) (i) owned by Volvo Cars, or (ii) created, developed or invented by directors, managers, employees or consultants of Volvo Cars (to which Volvo Cars has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sub-license), during or prior to the execution of this Agreement or during the term of the Agreement, or

- (b) licensed by Volvo Cars from any Third Party to which Volvo Cars has the right to grant a sub-license and/or to assign such license to Polestar.

“Volvo Technology” means the Volvo that shall be licensed to Polestar under this Agreement, and which is specified as Volvo Technology (Category 3 and 4 and for the avoidance of doubt Category 2) in Appendix 1 to this Agreement and for which IP is owned by Volvo Cars including but not limited to access to drawings, specifications, calculations, protocols (including test protocols), software (Object Code and Source Code), methods, processes and any similar deliverables needed for Polestar to make use of the licensed technology.

“Volvo Supplier License Technology” means the Volvo Technology and Polestar Unique Volvo Technology which is owned by a Third Party and licensed to Volvo Cars, and which license shall be sublicensed to Polestar under this Agreement.

“VPDS” means Volvo Cars’ procedures in development projects, ‘Volvo Product Development System’.

“Way Of Working” means the level of way of working set out in Section 2.2.2 below.

2. SCOPE OF THE AGREEMENT

2.1 General

- 2.1.1 The Polestar Vehicle will consist of parts that are unique for Polestar and parts that are common with Volvo Cars. Before entering into this Agreement the Parties have jointly discussed and specified SPA2 and MEP2 in accordance with the gates described in VPDS. The base assumption has been that SPA2 should serve as a common platform and MEP2 as common electrified powertrain for both Volvo Cars vehicles and Polestar vehicles, thereby benefitting both Parties. The Parties have in several meetings described according to the VPDS process set prerequisites and from that developed a jointly agreed technical content (Appendix 1) and agree that Volvo Cars will carry out the R&D work for the common SPA2 and MEP2 components. The Parties have established a joint governance and changes structure (Appendix 3) to follow up on upcoming changes for common development. Polestar alone will decide on changes on Polestar unique parts.
- 2.1.2 The Parties have agreed that Volvo Cars shall, to some extent based on Volvo IP, provide as a service and a license to Polestar certain technology related to the Polestar Vehicle and Other Polestar Branded Vehicles. It is acknowledged that such work will be conducted in accordance with the standards that Volvo Cars is using in its internal projects.

- 2.1.3 The Parties have agreed that the Polestar Vehicle is the first car launched based on the Volvo Cars SPA2. The start of production of SPA2 and the Polestar Vehicle is currently scheduled for []. The Polestar Vehicle will be offered with electrified powertrains only. The Polestar Vehicle is a new top-hat, but has a high degree of shared systems with Volvo Cars vehicles.
- 2.1.4 The Parties have agreed that the Volvo Technology shall be the sole property of Volvo Cars. Volvo Cars shall grant Polestar certain rights to use the Volvo Technology but also provide as a service and as assignment of supplier owned IP to Polestar the Polestar Technology. Polestar shall automatically grant Volvo Cars a grant-back license to use such parts of Polestar Technology that are Common Polestar Technology.
- 2.1.5 The Parties acknowledge that the Parties, prior to the signing of this Agreement, have started performing work in relation to this Agreement and that this Agreement shall govern this work irrespectively when it has been performed.
- 2.1.6 Upon Polestar's request, the Parties have agreed that the Fee shall be a fixed price. Polestar will pay the fixed price irrespectively of their actual usage of the Result and licensed technology.
- 2.1.7 The Appendices shall be considered an integral part of this Agreement and any reference to the Agreement shall include the Appendices.
- 2.1.8 In the event there are any contradictions or inconsistencies between the terms of this Agreement and the appendices hereto, the Parties agree that they shall prevail over each other in the following order if not specifically stated otherwise in such document or the context or circumstances clearly suggest otherwise:
- (a) this Agreement;
 - (b) Appendix 1—Polestar 3 Technical Content;
 - (c) Appendix 3—Governance and Changes Structure;
 - (d) Appendix 2—Fee.

2.2 Way of Working

- 2.2.1 Before entering into this Agreement, Polestar has been informed about the development and service processes and procedures that Volvo Cars is applying for its internal work and which Volvo Cars will be using for the development and services under this Agreement.
- 2.2.2 Under this Agreement, Volvo Cars shall use professional, appropriate, qualified and skilled personnel, and shall ensure that its personnel have been properly educated and trained for the work to be performed, including being fully acquainted with Polestar's specific requirements. Volvo Cars shall avoid unnecessary changes in the personnel engaged in performing its undertakings under this Agreement. Volvo Cars shall work according to the same standard of care and professionalism that is done in Volvo Cars' internal development projects. Such standard of care and professionalism, as well as Volvo Cars' performance of its undertakings under this Agreement shall however at all times correspond to Industry Standard. If Volvo Cars uses its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform its responsibilities under this Agreement, the same way of working shall apply as if such performance was made by Volvo Cars itself.

- 2.2.3 Volvo Cars shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its responsibilities under this Agreement. Furthermore, Volvo Cars undertakes to ensure that any development of the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology will not be given lower priority than other Volvo Cars internal similar projects.
- 2.2.4 Polestar shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its responsibilities under this Agreement and in particular provide Volvo Cars timely with necessary instructions and decisions requested by Volvo Cars, as required for Polestar to fulfil its responsibilities under this Agreement. Furthermore, Polestar shall use professional and skilled personal for the responsibilities to be performed including being adequately acquainted with Volvo Cars' specific requirements related to the common development.

2.3 The Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology

2.3.1 General

- 2.3.1.1 A commonly agreed specification setting forth, on an overall level, the deliverables to be performed by Volvo Cars in relation to the Polestar Vehicle is set out in Appendix 1. The details of said specification are available in the Volvo KDP Engineering Database 19w38.1 and in the Volvo Lotus Notes Database 19w38.1. A final specification of the deliverables shall, subject to good faith and joint discussions between the Parties, be made at Job1+90 as a part of the Final Status Report (FSR) where all agreed deliverables will be finally categorized as Volvo Technology or Polestar Technology jointly by the Parties. All of the aforementioned specifications shall be considered an integral part of Appendix 1 and consequently also this Agreement. However, for the avoidance of doubt deliverables categorised as Volvo Technology in Appendix 1 will not be recategorised as Polestar Technology.
- 2.3.1.2 The license to Volvo Technology and the delivery as a service of Polestar Technology shall, in relation to the Polestar Vehicle and Other Polestar Branded Vehicles, include all Volvo IP, which together with relevant Third Party Intellectual Property Rights not included in Volvo IP is reasonably necessary in order to meet the specification set forth in Appendix 1 to this Agreement. In case any such Third Party Intellectual Property Rights not included in Volvo IP is reasonably necessary in order to meet the specification set forth in Appendix 1 to this Agreement, Volvo Cars shall indicate that within the frame of the deliverables under the Volvo Technology. Polestar might thus be required to license Intellectual Property Rights and/or purchase components of Third Parties necessary to produce the Polestar Vehicle. However, Volvo Cars shall use reasonable efforts to ensure that Third Party Intellectual Property Rights are possible to sublicense or assign to Polestar.

2.3.1.3 For the avoidance of doubt, if any development shall be made in relation to such Polestar Technology to which Volvo Cars has not been granted a license to, pursuant to Section 4.3 or 4.4, the Parties acknowledge that Volvo Cars has a right to use such Polestar Technology to the extent it is reasonably necessary in order to perform the requested Service and the agreed common development.

2.3.2 General Limitations

2.3.2.1 The Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology that will be delivered under this Agreement is defined and described in Appendix 1 and that content is the basis for the Fee. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the details of such technology might not have been finalised at the time of entering into this Agreement. The technical functions are defined, but detailed deliverables will be updated and agreed according to Section 8 below, as the development progresses up until Job1+90 at the latest.

2.3.2.2 For the avoidance of doubt, Volvo Cars shall not under this Agreement manufacture the Polestar Vehicle, any components of the Volvo Technology or the Polestar Technology, or integrate any such components or the Volvo Technology or the Polestar Technology into Polestar's production of vehicles.

2.3.2.3 The Parties further acknowledge and agree that, if it is discovered that something has been classified by mistake as Volvo Technology under this Agreement, but which should have been classified as Polestar Technology or Common Polestar Technology, and/or vice versa, the Parties agree to in good faith renegotiate and agree on the reclassification of such technology and any amendment of the Fee to reflect such change. For avoidance of doubt, and as an example, this means that if the Parties agree that certain technology shall be changed from Volvo Technology to Common Polestar Technology, the terms and conditions herein relating to the latter shall thereafter apply to such technology. If the Parties cannot agree on such a reclassification, the issue shall be escalated in accordance with what is set out in Section 13.1.

2.3.3 Limitations in relation to the Polestar Supplier License Technology and Volvo Supplier License Technology

2.3.3.1 Assignment of Polestar Supplier Technology.

Polestar acknowledges that the Polestar Supplier License Technology is owned by Third Parties and that Volvo Cars may not be allowed to assign its rights thereto without consent from such relevant Third Party.

The assignment of Polestar Supplier License Technology is thus subject to any limitations which may be applicable to the rights granted to Volvo Cars by the Third Party owning the Intellectual Property Rights to such Polestar Supplier License Technology and will, not take effect until Volvo Cars has received the relevant consent from the Third Party.

When Volvo Cars has received the consent from the Third Party such Polestar Supplier License Technology will be assigned to Polestar. If Volvo Cars has not received the relevant consent from the Third Party within twelve (12) months from the signing date of this Agreement, no assignment of such Polestar Supplier License Technology shall occur, nor be considered to have occurred, and the Fee shall be reduced corresponding to the part of the Fee that relates to the Polestar Supplier License Technology to which Volvo Cars has not received relevant consent in time. If such a reduction is not feasible to determine, it shall be negotiated between the Parties in good faith.

2.3.3.2 License to Volvo Supplier License Technolog

Polestar acknowledges that the Volvo Supplier License Technology is owned by Third Parties and that Volvo Cars may not be allowed to grant a license without consent from such relevant Third Party.

The grant of a license to Volvo Supplier License Technology is thus subject to any limitations which may be applicable to the rights granted to Volvo Cars by the Third Party owning the Intellectual Property Rights to such Volvo Supplier License Technology, and will not take effect until Volvo Cars has received the relevant consent from the Third Party.

If Volvo Cars has not received the relevant consent from the Third Party within twelve (12) months from the signing date of this Agreement no license grant to Volvo Supplier License Technology shall occur, nor be considered to have occurred, and the Fee shall be reduced corresponding to the part of the Fee that relates to the Volvo Supplier License Technology to which Volvo Cars has not received relevant consent in time. If such a reduction is not feasible to determine, it shall be negotiated between the Parties in good faith.

3. SERVICES

Volvo Cars undertakes to provide to Polestar the Polestar Technology as a service referred to as Services. The rights and obligations for providing the Services are covered under this Section 3.

3.1 Provision of services

3.1.1 Specification of Services

3.1.1.1 The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification of the Services provided under this Agreement in Category 1 in Appendix 1. The costs for the Services, which constitute a portion of the fixed Fee, have been calculated and set based on i.a. costs and timing.

3.1.2 Making available the Results

3.1.2.1 Volvo Cars shall make the Results (or if not finalised, any part of the Results that has been finalised) available to Polestar within the timeframes specified in Appendix 1, but under all circumstances promptly after any part of the Results has been finalised. The Results shall only be made available in a Data Room except for the Object Code and the Source Code, which shall only be made available in the Data Room Software.

3.1.2.2 The Results (or any finalised part thereof) shall be deemed made available by Volvo Cars to Polestar if such files have been electronically loaded into and made accessible by Volvo Cars in the Data Room and Data Room Software agreed upon.

3.1.3 Subcontractors

3.1.3.1 The Parties acknowledge that Volvo Cars may use its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Agreement, provided that Volvo Cars informs Polestar thereof

3.1.3.2 Volvo Cars shall however remain responsible for the performance, and any omission to perform or comply with the provisions in this Section 3, by any Affiliate to Volvo Cars and/or any subcontractor to the same extent as if such performance or omission was made by Volvo Cars itself. Volvo Cars shall also remain Polestar's sole point of contact unless otherwise agreed.

3.2 Service Requirements

3.2.1 All Services shall be performed in accordance with the requirements set forth in this Agreement, including Appendix 1.

3.2.2 Polestar shall provide Volvo Cars with instructions as reasonably required for Volvo Cars to be able to carry out the Services. Volvo Cars must continuously inform Polestar of any needs of additional instructions or specifications required to perform the Services.

3.3 Intellectual Property Rights

3.3.1 Ownership of existing Intellectual Property Rights.

3.3.1.1 Each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of (i) any Background IP and other Intellectual Property Rights owned prior to the execution of the Services under this Agreement, (ii) any Intellectual Property Rights developed independently of the Services in this Section 3, and (iii) any Intellectual Property Rights which are modifications, amendments or derivatives of any Intellectual Property Rights already owned by such Party.

3.3.1.2 Nothing in this Section 3 shall be deemed to constitute an assignment of, or license to use, any Trademarks of the other Party.

3.3.2 Ownership of Results.

3.3.2.1 Polestar shall be the exclusive owner of the Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof.

3.3.2.2 All Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof, and any Intellectual Property Rights developed as a result of the Services provided by Volvo Cars (or if applicable, any of its appointed Affiliates or subcontractors), shall consequently automatically upon creation be transferred from Volvo Cars to Polestar. Polestar may freely modify and assign such Result. However, and for the avoidance of doubt, Source Code and Object Code modifications, amendments and developments after such Source Code and Object Code have been made available by Volvo Cars to Polestar in accordance with Section 3.1.2 are not governed by this Agreement, but will instead be governed by a separate software sharing agreement.

4. LICENSE GRANT

4.1 License grant

- 4.1.1 Volvo Cars undertakes to grant Polestar a license to the Volvo Technology covered by this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt any software included in the Volvo Technology the following shall apply: Polestar may use the Object Code in its delivered format, whether modified or unmodified, without limitations. Polestar may not transfer or sublicense the Source Code to any Third Party, in whole or in part, in any form, whether modified or unmodified.
- 4.1.2 Such license shall, except for what is set out in Section 4.2 below or unless otherwise agreed in this Agreement, be non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any Volvo IP included in the license described hereunder)), non-assignable and give Polestar a right to, within the Territory and only in relation to the Polestar Vehicle and Other Polestar Branded Vehicles;
- (a) Use, in whole or in part, the Volvo Technology covered by this Agreement and any Volvo Cars' Background IP necessary to make Use of such Volvo Technology; and
- (b) design, engineer, make and have made, repair, service, market, sell and make available products and/or services based on, incorporating or using the Volvo Technology and the Background IP referred to in (a) above (in whole or in part).
- 4.1.3 Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as to give Polestar any rights, including but not limited to any license rights (express or implied), to any Volvo IP, except as expressly stated herein.
- 4.1.4 The license to be granted to Polestar in accordance with Section 4.1.1 and 4.1.2 above shall be fully sub-licensable to the Polestar's Affiliates, but shall not be sub-licensable to any Third Party without prior written consent from Volvo Cars, which shall not be unreasonably withheld (whereby a sublicense/license to a Third Party which is a competitor of Volvo Cars is an example of what could be deemed unreasonable) or delayed. For the avoidance of doubt, Volvo Cars shall except for what is set out in Section 4.2 below be free to Use and to grant licenses to Volvo Technology and any Volvo Cars' Background IP to Volvo Cars' Affiliates and any Third Parties without prior written consent from Polestar.

4.2 PS Unique Volvo Technolog

- 4.2.1 In addition to what is set forth in Section 4.1 above, what is set forth in this Section 4.2 shall apply in relation to PS Unique Volvo Technology.
- 4.2.2 Any license granted in Section 4.1.2 above shall, in relation to PS Unique Volvo Technology be exclusive instead of non-exclusive. As a consequence thereof Volvo Cars shall have no right to make any Use whatsoever of or to grant any further licenses to, any such PS Unique Volvo Technology.
- 4.2.3 In the event Volvo Cars (i) in its sole discretion, determines that the PS Unique Volvo Technology, or parts thereof, shall no longer be PS Unique Volvo Technology but instead be such ordinary Volvo Technology covered only by Section 4.1 above Volvo Cars should pay Polestar a compensation. The compensation should equal 48% of the amount included in the Fee for such PS Unique Volvo Technology. In this case the following shall apply. Such PS Unique Volvo Technology shall immediately, upon Volvo Cars' payment of the compensation, no longer be considered PS Unique Volvo Technology but instead be considered ordinary Volvo Technology and what is set out in Section 4.1 above shall thus apply instead. For the avoidance of doubt, this inter alia implies that such previous exclusive license granted by Volvo Cars to Polestar shall instead become non-exclusive. For avoidance of doubt, Volvo Cars' right under this Section 4.2.3 may be exercised at any time also after the term of this Agreement.

4.3 Grant-back license to Common Polestar Technology

- 4.3.1 Polestar undertakes to automatically grant Volvo Cars a license to the Common Polestar Technology.
- 4.3.2 Such license shall, be non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any Polestar Intellectual Property Rights included in the license hereunder)), non-assignable and give Volvo Cars a right to, within the Territory, for Volvo branded vehicles;
- (a) Use, in whole or in part, such Common Polestar Technology, and/or
- (b) design, engineer, make and have made, repair, service, market, sell and make available products and/or services based on, incorporating or using such Common Polestar Technology (in whole or in part).
- 4.3.3 The license to be granted to Volvo Cars in accordance with Section 4.3.1 and 4.3.2 above shall be fully sub-licensable to Volvo Cars' Affiliates and to any Third Parties, without prior written consent from Polestar. The Parties further agree that Volvo Cars may further develop such licenced Common Polestar Technology, either by itself or together with its Affiliates and/or any Third Parties. For the avoidance of doubt, Polestar shall be free to Use the Common Polestar Technology licenced back to Volvo Cars and to license such Common Polestar Technology to Polestar's Affiliates and to any Third Parties without prior written consent from Volvo Cars.

4.4 License to Polestar Technology not being Common Polestar Technology

- 4.4.1 In the event Volvo Cars requests that the Polestar Technology not being Common Polestar Technology, or parts thereof, shall be licensed to Volvo Cars, and Polestar consents, Polestar shall grant to Volvo Cars a license to such Polestar Technology. Such consent from Polestar shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In such a case, Volvo Cars shall pay a compensation to Polestar. The compensation should equal 85% of the amount included in Fee as regards such Polestar Technology. For the avoidance of doubt, Volvo Cars' request for a license to Polestar Technology as set out in this Section 4.4.1 may be exercised at any time also after the term of this Agreement.
- 4.4.2 Such license shall, be non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any Polestar Intellectual Property Rights included in the license described hereunder)), non-assignable and give Volvo Cars a right to, within the Territory, for Volvo branded vehicles;
- (a) Use, in whole or in part, such Polestar Technology, and/or
 - (b) design, engineer, make and have made, repair, service, market, sell and make available products and/or services based on, incorporating or using such Polestar Technology (in whole or in part).
- 4.4.3 The license to be granted to Volvo Cars in accordance with Section 4.4.1 and 4.4.2 above shall be fully sub-licensable to Volvo Cars's Affiliates, but shall not be sub-licensable to any Third Party without prior written consent from Polestar, which shall not be unreasonably withheld (whereby a sublicense/license to a Third Party which is a competitor of Polestar is an example of what could be deemed unreasonable) or delayed. For the avoidance of doubt, Polestar shall be free to Use the Polestar Technology licensed to Volvo Cars and to license such Polestar Technology to Polestar's Affiliates and to any Third Parties without prior written consent from Volvo Cars.

4.5 Third Party assignments

If the rights to my subject matter to which a license is granted under this Agreement is assigned by a Party to any Third Party, such Party shall ensure that said license is binding also upon the Third Party.

5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

5.1 Ownership rights

- 5.1.1 Other than with regard to Polestar Technology delivered as a service to Polestar, if any, Volvo Cars remains the owner and holder of all Volvo IP, including any Volvo Technology and Volvo Cars' Background IP, as well as any and all modifications, amendments and improvements thereof. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed an assignment of ownership of any Volvo IP, including any Volvo Technology and Volvo Cars' Background IP, from Volvo Cars to Polestar.

5.2 Polestar brand name

- 5.2.1 For sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Agreement does not include any right to use the “Polestar” brand name or Trademarks, or refer to “Polestar” in communications or official documents of whatever kind.
- 5.2.2 This means that this Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the “Polestar” brand name or “Polestar” Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

5.3 Volvo brand name

- 5.3.1 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Agreement does not include any right to use the “Volvo” brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to “Volvo” in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the “Volvo” Trademarks as well as the “Volvo” name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the “Volvo” Trademarks is subject to a license agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related Intellectual Property Rights can only be used by Volvo Car Corporation and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.
- 5.3.2 This means that this Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the “Volvo” brand name or “Volvo” Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

5.4 Suspected infringement

- 5.4.1 Either Party shall promptly (upon becoming aware) notify the other Party in writing of:
 - (a) any conduct of a Third Party that such Party reasonably believes to be, or reasonably believes to be likely to be, an infringement, misappropriation or other violation of any Intellectual Property Rights licensed to such Party hereunder; or
 - (b) any allegations made to such Party by a Third Party that any Intellectual Property Rights licensed hereunder are invalid, subject to cancellation, unenforceable, or are a misappropriation of any Intellectual Property Rights of a Third Party.

- 5.4.2 In the event that a Party has provided the other Party a notification pursuant to Section 5.4.1 above, and the other Party decides not to take any action against the Third Party, the other Party may approve in writing that such Party shall be entitled to itself take action against the Third Party at its own cost. If the other Party approves, it shall provide reasonable assistance to such Party, as requested by such Party at its own expense. If the other Party does not approve to such Party taking such action, the issue should be escalated to the relevant governance forum on high governance level for decision.
- 5.4.3 For the avoidance of doubt, Volvo Cars has no responsibility in relation to Polestar in the event the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology is alleged to infringe in any Third Party's Intellectual Property Rights and as a consequence Volvo Cars has no obligation to defend and hold Polestar harmless from and against any alleged infringements, except as set forth in Section 11.3 below. Likewise, Polestar has no responsibility in relation to Volvo Cars in the event any Polestar Technology licensed back to Volvo Cars hereunder is alleged to infringe in any Third Party's Intellectual Property Rights and as a consequence Polestar has no obligation to defend and hold Volvo Cars harmless from and against any alleged infringements, except as set forth in Section 11.2 below.

6. FEE, PAYMENT TERMS

In consideration of the Services provided, the third party licenses assigned and the licenses granted hereunder and the Parties' performance of their respective obligations under this Agreement, each Party agrees to pay to the other Party the Fee under the payments terms as described in Appendix 2.

7. AUDITS

- 7.1.1 During the term of this Agreement, Polestar shall have the right to, upon reasonable notice in writing to Volvo Cars, inspect Volvo Cars' books and records related to the Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology and the premises where the work to finalise the Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology is carried out, in order to conduct quality controls and otherwise verify the statements rendered in this Agreement.
- 7.1.2 Audits shall be made during regular business hours and be conducted by Polestar or by an independent auditor appointed by Polestar. Should Polestar during any inspection find that Volvo Cars or the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology do not fulfil the requirements set forth herein, Polestar is entitled to comment on the identified deviations. Volvo Cars shall, upon notice from Polestar, take the actions required in order to fulfil the requirements. In the event the Parties cannot agree upon measures to be taken in respect of the audit, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to relevant governance forum on high governance level.

8. DELIVERY AND ACCEPTANCE

- 8.1 Volvo Cars shall provide the Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology, covered by this Agreement, (or if not finalised, any part of the Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology that has been finalised) to Polestar at the Gates or otherwise promptly after any part of the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology has been finalised.

- 8.2 The Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology (or finalised part thereof) in question shall be provided by Volvo Cars to Polestar by electronically loading files with the relevant information into the Data Room, except for the Object Code and the Source Code, which shall only be made available in the Data Room Software
- 8.3 Delivery of any Volvo Technology (or parts thereof, covered by this Agreement, occurs when the deliver at the respective Gates meets the requirements for that Gate set out in this Agreement, however subject to Section 9.2.1 below and that Polestar has accepted such delivery in accordance with what is set out below in this Section 8.
- 8.4 Polestar shall accept the delivery of the Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology, and parts thereof, at the respective Gates, unless the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technolog upon deliver at that Gate deviates from the requirements set forth in this Agreement. Unless otherwise noted in the minutes from the respective Gate, it is assumed that Polestar has accepted the delivery.
- 8.5 If the Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology has been delivered in accordance with this Section 8, but Polestar has not accepted the delivery in time (i.e. at the Gates or as agreed in this Agreement) nor objected to the delivery due to it deviating from what is set out in Section 9.2.1 below, the deliver shall be deemed accepted by Polestar. This shall apply at each Gate for each step.
- 8.6 For the avoidance of doubt, no delivery of the Common Polestar Technology shall be made by Polestar to Volvo Cars, and no acceptance shall hence be made by Volvo Cars of the Common Polestar Technology, since the Common Polestar Technology will continue to be in Volvo Cars' possession upon the assignment to Polestar considering the automatic grant-back license set forth in Section 4.3 above.

9. DELAYS, DEFECTS ETC.

9.1 Delay

- 9.1.1 Volvo Cars shall be deemed to be in delay when Job1 is not met, unless the delay is caused by Polestar or the Parties have agreed for an extension of the time for meeting Job1 upon which the new agreed deliver date shall be relevant for determining whether Volvo Cars is in delay.
- 9.1.2 The Polestar Vehicle is based and dependent on SPA2 that is currently being developed. Polestar acknowledges that the development time plan for SPA2 is directly linked to this Agreement and that any delay in the SPA2 development could have direct implications on the deliverables. The Parties acknowledge the fact that SPA2 development is currently scheduled for []. If SPA2 will be introduced later than [], Section 9.1.3 below shall apply.

- 9.1.3 If Volvo Cars is in delay, or at any time believes that Job1 will not, or is unlikely to, be met in time, Volvo Cars shall inform Polestar of the reasons for and consequences of not meeting Job1 at the agreed date and shall provide additional resources, to ensure that the requirements for Job1 is met as soon as possible. Related costs shall be included in the Fee.
- 9.1.4 A change in Volvo Cars' cycle plan that would have an effect on the Polestar Vehicle's Job1 shall be agreed between the Parties.
- 9.1.5 The Parties acknowledge that Volvo Cars' delay may be subject to Section 15.5.
- 9.1.6 No other remedies than as set forth in Sections 9.1.2 - 9.1.5 are available.
- 9.2 Defects in deliver or the performance of development work
- 9.2.1 In the event the Volvo Technology or the Polestar Technology, or any part thereof, after having met a Gate, are faulty or defective, Volvo Cars shall, if such fault or defect is discovered and/or notified to Volvo Cars before Job1+90, remedy such non-compliance, fault or defect as soon as possible. Related costs shall be included in the Fee.
- 9.2.2 The Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology will not be considered faulty or defective if Volvo Cars has adhered to the Way Of Working when developing it.
- 9.2.3 Polestar shall not be responsible for costs that relate to work that does not meet the standards used by Volvo Cars when performing similar work for Volvo Cars or work having been performed by personnel not qualified for such work, in breach of Section 2.2.2 above, as long as such costs would not have occurred had the work been properly executed or performed by qualified personnel.
- 9.3 Effects of Polestar's actions
- 9.3.1 Notwithstanding what is set out above in this Section 9, Polestar shall be responsible for costs relating to delays which are due to Polestar's non-fulfillment of any of its obligations under this Agreement. Further, any such delays which are due to Polestar shall give a corresponding extension of time to Volvo Cars for meeting any affected Gate. Time plan and cost consequences for Polestar's requests for changes to the Volvo Technology or the Polestar Technology are to be handled in accordance with Appendix 3.
- 9.3.2 Notwithstanding what is set out above in this Section 9, Polestar shall be responsible for costs relating to faults and defects which are due to Polestar's non-fulfillment of any of its obligations under this Agreement.

10. WARRANTIES

10.1 General warranties

Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:

- (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;
- (b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;
- (c) the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement have been duly authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate any laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and
- (d) this Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

11. INDEMNIFICATION

11.1 General

11.1.1 The Parties acknowledge that all Volvo Technology and Polestar Technology, and any Volvo Cars' Background IP, is licensed and/or provided as a service to Polestar on an "as is" basis, without any warranties or representations of any kind (except for the warranties in Section 10.1 above), whether implied or express, and in particular any warranties of suitability, merchantability, description, design and fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, completeness, systems integration and accuracy are expressly excluded to the maximum extent permissible by law. However, the above does not exclude Volvo Cars' limited undertakings in Section 9.2.1 above.

11.1.2 In addition, Volvo Cars does not make any warranties or representations as regards the functionality of any Volvo Technology, Volvo Cars' Background IP and/or Polestar Technology in relation to the Polestar Vehicle and/or Other Polestar Branded Vehicles. Polestar hereby releases Volvo Cars from all liability (and accordingly, cannot claim damages, compensation, price reduction etc.) in respect of errors, defects and deficiencies in any Volvo Technology, Volvo Cars' Background IP and/or Polestar Technology of whatever kind, whether visible or latent, including but not limited to errors of fact or law, errors regarding right of disposition, physical defects and deficiencies and damages arising due to product liability after the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology have been delivered to Polestar, however excluding Volvo Cars' limited undertakings in Section 9.2.1 above.

11.1.3 The principles set out in this Section 11 is reflected in the Fee and the fact that Volvo Cars is not a supplier or consultant of systems or technical solutions, such as the Volvo Technology and the Polestar Technology, but merely a car manufacturer which normally only develops technical solutions for its own business purposes.

11.1.4 The principles set forth in this Section 11 are exclusive. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing in this Section 11, the Parties agree that no other remedy whatsoever under any statute, law or legal principle shall be available to Polestar in relation to the licenses and/or work to be granted and/or performed by Volvo Cars hereunder.

11.1.5 What is set forth in Sections 11.1.1-11.1.4 above shall apply mutatis mutandis in relation the effectuated grant-back licenses set forth in Sections 4.3 and 4.4 above.

11.2 Polestar's indemnification

11.2.1 Polestar shall indemnify and hold harmless Volvo Cars and each of its Affiliates from and against any and all direct or indirect losses, liabilities, damages, costs, expenses (including all interest, penalties, reasonable legal and other professional fees, costs and expenses), actions, charges, fines, claims and proceedings arising out of or in connection with Polestar's use of any Volvo Technology, Volvo Cars' Background IP and/or Polestar Technology, including but not limited to any Third Party claims on Intellectual Property Rights infringement.

11.2.2 Polestar shall indemnify and hold harmless Volvo Cars and each of its Affiliates from and against any and all direct or indirect losses, liabilities, damages, costs, expenses (including all interest, penalties, reasonable legal and other professional fees, costs and expenses), actions, charges, fines, claims and proceedings sustained by any of them, arising from any Third Party with respect to the death or injury to any person, or damage to property, by whomsoever suffered, resulting or claimed to have resulted from any fault or defect in the Polestar Vehicle or Other Polestar Branded Vehicles.

11.2.3 Volvo Cars shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to Polestar's use of any Volvo Technology, Volvo Cars' Background IP and/or Polestar Technology from Volvo Cars, or a claim which may reasonably be indemnifiable pursuant to Section 11.2.2 above, notify Polestar of such claim in writing and Polestar shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the Third Party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. Polestar shall at all times keep Volvo Cars informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with Volvo Cars on appropriate actions to take. If Polestar fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend Volvo Cars within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, Volvo Cars shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/or over any settlement negotiation at Polestar's cost. Any settlement proposed by Polestar on its own account must take account of potential implications for Volvo Cars and shall therefore be agreed in writing with Volvo Cars before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

11.3 Volvo's indemnification

- 11.3.1 Volvo Cars shall indemnify and hold harmless Polestar and each of its Affiliates from and against any and all director indirect losses, liabilities, damages, costs, expenses (including all interest, penalties, reasonable legal and other professional fees, costs and expenses), actions, charges, fines, claims and proceedings, arising out of or in connection with Volvo Cars' use of any Polestar Technology licensed back to Volvo Cars hereunder, including but not limited to any Third Party claims on Intellectual Property Rights infringement.
- 11.3.2 Volvo Cars shall indemnify and hold harmless Polestar and each of its Affiliates from and against any and all direct or indirect losses, liabilities, damages, costs, expenses (including all interest, penalties, reasonable legal and other professional fees, costs and expenses), actions, charges, fines, claims and proceedings sustained by any of them, arising from any Third Party with respect to the death or injury to any person, or damage to property, by whomever suffered, resulting or claimed to have resulted from any fault or defect in any Volvo branded vehicle.
- 11.3.3 Polestar shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to Volvo Cars' use of any Polestar Technology licensed back to Volvo Cars hereunder from Polestar, or a claim which may reasonably be indemnifiable pursuant to Section 11.3.2 above, notify Volvo Cars of such claim in writing and Volvo Cars shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the Third Party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. Volvo Cars shall at all times keep Polestar informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with Polestar on appropriate actions to take. If Volvo Cars fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend Polestar within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, Polestar shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/or over any settlement negotiation at Volvo Cars' cost. Any settlement proposed by Volvo Cars on its own account must take account of potential implications for Polestar and shall therefore be agreed in writing with Polestar before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

12. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 12.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Agreement.
- 12.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with a this Agreement shall be limited to ten (10) percent of the Fee payable by Polestar to Volvo Cars under this Agreement.
- 12.3 The limitations of liability set out in this Section 12 shall not apply in respect of damage:
 - (a) caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence, or
 - (b) caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 14 below.

13. GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES

13.1 Governance

- 13.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Agreement, including its Appendices as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Agreement.
- 13.1.2 The Parties agree that governance in respect of this Agreement shall be handled in accordance with what is set out in Appendix 3.
- 13.1.3 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event that the Parties on an operational level cannot agree, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue in accordance with what is set forth in Appendix 3 to this Agreement. In the event that the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disablements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and the procedure set forth in Section 18 shall apply.

13.2 Changes and Costs

- 13.2.1 The Parties can request changes to the technical content in Appendix 1 within the time frame set forth in this Agreement, which shall be handled in accordance with the procedure set forth in Appendix 3.
- 13.2.2 Volvo Cars has an obligation to, upon either Party's request, handle change management in accordance with the change management procedure described in Appendix 3 in relation to Results and technologies covered by the licences:
- (a) included in the technical content as set forth in Appendix 1 (i) for the Job1 deliveries up until Job1+90 days and (ii) for the Job1+365 deliveries up until Job1+365+90 days. Such change management is included in the Fee;
 - (b) not included in the technical content as set forth in Appendix 1. Such change management is not included in the Fee;
 - (c) however, 90 days after Job1 and/or Job1+365 deliveries, any changes to the Volvo Technology or the Polestar Technology in relation to the Polestar Vehicle shall be subject to the Parties entering into a separate change management agreement. Thus, this Agreement shall not apply in relation to any such changes. Further, Volvo Cars shall have no responsibility for the Volvo Technology or the Polestar Technology 90 days after any Job1 and/or Job1+365 deliveries.

14. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 14.1 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes set forth in this Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 14.1 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or sub-contractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:
- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
 - (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
 - (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
 - (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;
 - (e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and make use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or
 - (f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any p[^] thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.
- 14.2 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 14.
- 14.3 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within thirty (30) days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as "Confidential", "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 14.4 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 14, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section 18.2 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.

- 14.5 For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 14 does not permit disclosure of source code to software, and/or any substantial parts of design documents to software, included in any Volvo Technology to any Third Party, notwithstanding what it set forth above in this Section 14. Any such disclosure to any Third Party is permitted only if approved in writing by Volvo Cars.
- 14.6 This Section 14 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement without limitation in time.

15. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 15.1 This Agreement shall become effective as set forth in the preamble to this Agreement and shall remain in force during the performance of the Services and the validity of the license period of the license granted to Polestar under this Agreement, unless terminated in accordance with Section 15.2 or 15.4 below or partly cancelled in accordance with Sections 15.5 or 15.7 below.
- 15.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect in the event;
- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Agreement, which has not been remedied within sixty (60) days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied);
 - (b) the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors; or
- 15.3 For avoidance of doubt, either Party not paying the Fee, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, shall be considered a material breach for the purpose of this Agreement.
- 15.4 Polestar is entitled to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect in case Volvo Cars acts in breach of what is set forth in Sections 9.1 or 9.2 above and has not within one hundred twenty (120) days from written notice from Polestar to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied), taken necessary measures and/or remedy such non-compliance, delay, fault or defect and after such issue has been escalated in accordance with the escalation principles set out in Section 18.1 below.
- 15.5 None of the Parties shall be entitled to cancel any delivery of Volvo Technology (for the avoidance of doubt not including PS Unique Volvo Technology) unless both Parties agree on the termination and how to split the costs.

- 15.6 Polestar shall be entitled to cancel any delivery of Polestar Technology or PS Unique Volvo Technology by Volvo Cars under this Agreement for convenience upon thirty (30) days written notice to Volvo Cars. In such event, Volvo Cars shall, upon request from Polestar, promptly make available in the Data Room (if applicable) any and all parts of the Volvo Technology and/or the Polestar Technology which have been finalised for delivery on the effective date of the cancellation.
- 15.7 In the event Polestar cancels any delivery of the Polestar Technology or PS Unique Volvo Technology in accordance with Section 15.5 above, the Fee shall correspond to the part of the Fee that relates to (i) Polestar Technology or PS Unique Volvo Technology existing at the execution of this Agreement, (ii) Volvo Cars' costs for the work performed under this Agreement up, until and including the effective date of the cancellation, including the mark-up otherwise applied to calculate the Fee for the Polestar Technology or PS Unique Volvo Technology and (iii) any other proven costs Volvo Cars has incurred.

16.1 Force majeure

- 16.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under this Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A "Force Majeure Event" means any event beyond a Party's reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party's), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors.
- 16.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under this Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its non-performance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue its performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

16.2 Notices

- 16.2.1 All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:

- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;

- (b) if sent by email transmission, at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
- (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
- (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any Party by email, such Party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods.

16.2.2 All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be sent to following addresses:

16.3 Assignment

16.3.1 Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.

16.3.2 Notwithstanding the above, each Party may assign this Agreement to an Affiliate without the prior written consent of the other Party.

16.4 Waiver

Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Agreement or failure to notify the infringing Party of a breach in connection with the Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.

16.5 Severability

In the event any provision of this Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.

16.6 Entire agreement

All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Agreement are superseded by this Agreement

16.7 Amendments

Any amendment or addition to this Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.

16.8 Survival

16.8.1 If this Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 15 above, Section 3 (License Grant), Section 4.3 (Grant-back license to Common Polestar Technology), Section 4.4 (License to Polestar Technology not being Common Polestar Technology), Section 14 (Confidential Information), Section 17 (Governing Law), Section 18 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 16.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.

- 16.8.2 Notwithstanding Section 16.8.1 above, if this Agreement is terminated due to Polestar not paying the Fee without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, pursuant to Section 15 above, Section 3 (License Grant) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination.
- 16.8.3 Notwithstanding Section 16.8.1 above, if this Agreement is terminated due to Volvo Cars not reducing or repaying the Fee, or part thereof, without legitimate reasons for doing so, pursuant to Section 15 above, Section 4.3 (Grant-back license to Common Polestar Technology) and Section 4.4 (License to Polestar Technology not being Common Polestar Technology) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination.

17. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of Sweden without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

18. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

18.1 Escalation principles

- 18.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes in the governance forum Volvo Polestar Executive P&Q Steering Committee, described in Appendix 3, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and any of the Parties can notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice as set forth in Section 16.2.2 above and this Section. In such deadlock notice the reasons and preferred solution for the deadlock situation shall be stated. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten (10) days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement in accordance with what it set forth this Section 18.1. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.
- 18.1.2 The members of the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall ensure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.

- 18.1.3 If the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within thirty (30) days from the deadlock notice, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the respective CEO and CFO of the two owners of Polestar on the signing date of this Agreement for decision. Should the matter not have been resolved by the respective CEO and CFO of the two owners of Polestar on the signing date of this Agreement within thirty (30) days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section Section 18.2 below.
- 18.1.4 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 14 above.
- 18.1.5 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 18.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the the respective CEO and CFO of the two owners of Polestar on the signing date of this Agreement in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

18.2 Arbitration

- 18.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce. The seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, and the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.
- 18.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 18.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 18.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

This Agreement has been signed in two (2) originals, of which the parties have received one (1) each. The Parties acknowledge that this Agreement shall be binding upon the Parties already upon the signing and exchange of scanned version thereof, including scanned signatures.

APPENDIX I
POLESTAR 3 TECHNICAL SPECIFICATION
[]

Appendix 3
Governance and Change Structure

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This Appendix 3 outlines the governance structure for this Agreement between the two Parties as well as how to handle changes along the development project.

2. DEFINITIONS

- 2.1 Any capitalised terms used but not specifically defined herein shall have the meanings set out for such terms in the Agreement. In addition, the capitalised terms set out below in this Section 2 shall for the purposes of this Appendix have the meanings described herein. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa.

3. GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE

3.1 Product Development

- 3.1.1 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. The operational level for the product development is defined by the forum called Design Review Meeting ("DRM"). This meeting will handle issues where a decision regarding deviations from objectives have to be made, for example technical changes, re-categorization of development streams, attribute deviations, time consequences, delays, quality, cost consequences and prioritisation of development activities or other aspects relating to the co-operation between the Parties. This meeting will also confirm the change management logged as Cross-Brand Service Request in the Polestar Intake Meeting ("CBSR") including price effects of change requests, which is further described in Section 4.2. For Polestar Technology and PS Unique Volvo Technology, Polestar has the right for final decision. For Volvo Technology, Volvo Cars has the right for final decision related to the development. However, the decisions made for the Volvo Technology will consider the Polestar share and Polestar will be involved in the decisions to an extent corresponding to their share. The participants at the DRM is the Volvo Cars Technical Project Leader and the Polestar Product Manager, as well as relevant experts from both Parties related to the subjects discussed. The DRM is held weekly.
- 3.1.2 If the DRM cannot make the decision or if Polestar objects to a decision or Polestar find that a decision is not made in time and decides to escalate an issue, the next governance level is the Polestar Program Governance Meeting ("PPGM"). The PPGM is overseeing the project at a high level delivery status, with key item reports and key activity forecasts. The forum decides on escalated issues and also decides on changes that have a cost impact. Items regarding manufacturing engineering and procurement may also be handled in the PPGM in the event that the item effect Product Development. The participants at the PPGM is the Volvo Cars Technical Project Leader, Volvo Cars Project Finance Lead and Volvo Cars Vehicle Line Manager and Polestar Project Manager. The PPGM is held weekly, unless the Parties agree otherwise.

3.1.3 The next governance level for product development is the Executive P&Q Steering Committee. This Steering Committee is handling the future direction and strategic relationship between the Parties. The forum decides on escalated issues and changes that have a major cost impact. The participants at the Executive P&Q Steering Committee is Volvo Cars Head of P&Q and Volvo Cars Head of Global Procurement and Polestar CEO and Polestar Head of R&D, as well as other relevant participants from both Parties related to the subjects discussed. The meeting chair is Volvo Cars Head of P&Q and the meeting is held monthly.

3.2 Joint Governance Level

3.2.1 In the event that Polestar objects to decisions made in the Executive P&Q Steering Committee and the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for disagreements or disputes handled, the final governance level is the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee. The participants in the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee is Volvo CEO and CFO and Polestar CEO and CFO, as well as other relevant participants from both Parties related to the subjects discussed. The meeting is held monthly or as otherwise agreed, based on escalated items.

3.2.2 If the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee cannot settle the disagreement, such deadlock will be referred to the respective CEO and CFO of the two owners of Polestar on the signing date of this Agreement, for deadlock resolution, according to the escalation principles described in the Agreement Section 18.

3.2.3 The governance structure between Volvo Cars and Polestar is illustrated in a picture at the end of this appendix.

4. DESCRIPTION CHANGE MANAGEMENT

4.1 As defined in the Agreement Section 13.2, Polestar and Volvo Cars can request changes, which shall be handled in accordance with the procedure set forth in this Appendix 3. Both Parties agree to act in good faith to address and respond to any change request within a reasonable period of time.

4.2 A change requested by Polestar or Volvo Cars is to be sent to the CBSR meeting and logged in the already established SharePoint site. The CBSR will then appoint the request to the responsible function department to investigate the request for consequences of technology, time plan, cost and resources. The request will be reviewed cross functionally, including tax, before the response is presented to Polestar for decision. Polestar then decides, based on the quotation presented in the CBSR, if the change request will be introduced. The decision is agreed in writing and documented in the SharePoint site at a CBSR.

- 4.3 A change requested by Polestar and sent to the CBSR may also be denied, if the request is deemed unable to be realized due to for instance technical consequences, time schedule or lack of resources.
- 4.4 The Parties acknowledge that Volvo Cars will not perform in accordance with a change request submitted by Polestar until agreed in writing between the Parties. Until there is an agreement about the requested change, all work shall thus continue in accordance with the existing specification set forth in this Agreement unless Polestar requests Volvo Cars to pause the work until an agreement is reached.
- 4.5 The cost consequence for a change request will be handled based on the quotation presented in the CBSR, and the amount will be invoiced to Polestar quarterly added to the payment plan described in Appendix 2. If a change request results in a cost reduction, the fixed price amount defined in Appendix 2 will be deducted with the quoted reduction from the CBSR.
- 4.6 For the avoidance of doubt the Parties acknowledge that Volvo Cars will be entitled to make changes to the Volvo Technology, as long as the specification in Appendix 1 is met. The Parties undertake to act in good faith and to agree on the consequences of any such changes for Polestar. If the Parties cannot agree on such suggested change of Volvo Technology, Volvo Cars shall still be entitled to carry out said change and the result thereof will be considered Volvo Technology. In this event Polestar may stay with the original technology, which will then be considered PS Unique Volvo Technology delivered by Volvo Cars to an additional fee.
- 4.7 The costs relating to changes to the development work requested by Polestar shall, in relation to Volvo Technology, be allocated based on the category of the relevant development (i.e. whether the results shall be considered Volvo Technology or PS Unique Volvo Technology) in accordance with what is set forth in the Agreement (if applicable) and Appendix 1. Further, the costs relating to changes to the development work requested by Polestar shall, in relation to Polestar Technology, be allocated based on the category of the relevant development (i.e. whether the results shall be considered Common Polestar Technology or such Polestar Technology not being Common Polestar Technology) in accordance with what is set out in in the Agreement (if applicable) and Appendix 1.
- 4.8 For the avoidance of doubt, the Parties acknowledge that Polestar shall be responsible for all costs relating to changes requested by Polestar in relation to such Polestar Technology to which Volvo Cars has not been granted a license pursuant to in the Agreement.
- 4.9 For the avoidance of doubt, any changes under this Agreement made in relation to the Polestar Technology after the effective date of this Agreement, shall automatically upon creation also be delivered as a service to Polestar in accordance with what is set forth in Section 3 in the Agreement. Correspondingly, any changes under this Agreement made to the Volvo Technology after the effective date of this Agreement, shall automatically upon creation also be included in the license granted to Polestar in Section 4 in the Agreement. Any changes under this Agreement made in relation to the Volvo Technology or Polestar Technology, respectively, as set forth in this Appendix 1, shall thus upon execution be included in the definition of Volvo Technology or Polestar Technology, as applicable.

SIDE LETTER

This side letter ("Side Letter") is entered into on 30 June 2019 and made between:

Volvo Car Corporation, Reg. No. 556074-3089, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden ("Volvo Cars");

Volvo Cars (China) Investment Co., Ltd., Reg. No. 913101145574653825, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China ("Volvo Cars China");

Polestar Performance AB, Reg. No. 556653-3096, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden ("Polestar"); and

Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co. Ltd., Reg. No. 91510100MA6BX1H33P, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China ("Polestar China").

Each of Volvo Cars, Volvo Cars China, Polestar and Polestar China are hereinafter referred to as a "Party" and jointly as the "Parties". Volvo Cars and Volvo Cars China are jointly referred to as the "Volvo Cars Entities" and Polestar and Polestar China are jointly referred to as the "Polestar Entities".

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have entered into four separate license and service agreements for the development of the Polestar Vehicle and related services.
- B. The Parties now wish to clarify in writing the contractual setup and the relationship between the four Agreements, as set out below.
- C. It is also noted that the payments to Volvo Cars under the Agreements may be subject to withholding tax ("WHT") and Polestar Entities shall compensate Volvo Cars as stated in the Side Letter.
- D. Unless otherwise defined in this Side Letter, capitalized terms used herein shall have the meaning ascribed to them in each of the Agreements.

1 CONTRACTUAL SET-UP

1.1 There are four separate agreements that will be signed together with this Side Letter:

- (a) License and Service Agreement between Volvo Cars and Polestar (“License and Service Agreement RoW”),
- (b) License Agreement between Volvo Cars and Polestar China (“License Agreement China”),
- (c) Service Agreement between Volvo Cars and Polestar China (“Service Agreement RoW”),
- (d) Service Agreement between Volvo Cars China and Polestar China (“Service Agreement China”).

The four agreements in Section 1.1(a)-(d) are together referred to as the “Agreements”.

1.2 Even though the Agreements are four separate agreements with different parties, the Parties acknowledge that their intention is that the Agreements actually constitute one and the same agreement.

2 FEE

2.1 []

2.2 The Parties agree that the percentages and amounts set out in Appendix 2 to each of the Agreements referenced in Section 1.1 shall be interpreted in light of the fact that the four Agreements shall actually constitute one and the same agreement. []

2.3 In the light of the foregoing, the Parties agree that the below mentioned Sections in Appendix 2 to the above mentioned Agreements shall be interpreted as follows:

- (a) []
- (b) []
- (c) []
- (d) []

3 SPLIT OF WHT

3.1 []

4 NO SUB-LICENSING BETWEEN THE POLESTAR ENTITIES

4.1 The Parties acknowledge that the rights granted to the Polestar Entities is to some extent sub-licensable to inter alia Polestar Affiliates under the Agreements. It is, however, not the intention of the Parties that the Polestar Entities shall be allowed to sub-license the rights granted under each of the Agreements to each other instead of utilising the rights granted to such Polestar Entity under its own Agreement. In the light of the above, the Polestar Entities shall thus not be allowed to sub-license any of the rights granted under the Agreements between them, but only to other Polestar Affiliates of them as stipulated in each of the Agreements.

5 AMENDMENTS

- 5.1 The Parties agree that, if an amendment is made to one of the Agreements, the Party not being a Party to such amended Agreement agrees to make the corresponding amendment to the Agreement it is a Party to, unless otherwise agreed between the Parties.

6 TERMINATION

- 6.1 A breach of this Side Letter shall be considered a material breach under each of the Agreements.

7 DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 7.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Side Letter, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce. The seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, and the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators. The Parties' intention is that the identical arbitration clauses in each of the Agreements, with the exception of the Service Agreement China, shall function as one and the same arbitration agreement entered into between, on the one hand, Volvo Cars, and, on the other hand, Polestar and Polestar China. Accordingly, the Parties agree that any disputes, controversies or claims arising out of or in connection with the License and Service Agreement RoW, the License Agreement China, the Service Agreement RoW, and/or this Side Letter, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, may upon request by a party to such agreement be consolidated into one arbitration proceeding.

8 MISCELLANEOUS

- 8.1 This Side Letter shall become effective as set forth in the preamble of this Side Letter and shall remain in force until all tax decisions to be made by authorities regarding the Agreements and this Side Letter are final.
- 8.2 This Side Letter is hereby incorporated to, and shall form an integral part of, in relation to the relevant Parties, the relevant Agreements. This Side Letter takes precedence over the Agreements if they are contradictory or ambiguous.

This Side Letter has been signed in four (4) originals, of which the parties have received one (1) each. The Parties acknowledge that this Side Letter shall be binding upon the Parties already upon the signing and exchange of scanned version thereof, including scanned signatures.

AMENDMENT AGREEMENT

This Amendment Agreement to the License, License Assignment and Service Agreement ("Amendment") is between Volvo Car Corporation, Reg. No. 556074-3089, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Sweden ("Volvo Cars") and Polestar Performance AB, Reg. No. 556653-3096 a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Sweden ("Polestar").

Each of Volvo Cars and Polestar is hereinafter referred to as a "Party" and jointly as the "Parties".

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have entered into a License, License Assignment and Service Agreement on 30 June 2019 (the "Agreement").
- B. The Parties now wish to amend the Agreement to the extent set out below.
- C. Now, therefore, the Parties agree as follows:

1 SCOPE OF AMENDMENT

- 1.1 The Agreement will be deemed amended to the extent herein provided and will, except as specifically amended, continue in full force and effect in accordance with its original terms. In case of any discrepancy between the provisions of this Amendment and the Agreement, the provisions of this Amendment shall prevail. Any definitions used in this Amendment shall, unless otherwise is stated herein, have the respective meanings set forth in the Agreement.
- 1.2 The amendments to the provisions in the Agreement as stated in Section 2 below, such provisions highlighted for ease of reference in bold italics, shall come into force on the date this Amendment is signed by the last Party to sign it (as indicated by the date associated with that Party's signature).

2 AMENDMENTS

- 2.1 Section 6.1.3 of Appendix 2 to the Agreement shall be amended and restated in its entirety as follows:

"All amounts and payments referred to in this Agreement shall be paid in SEK, unless both Parties have agreed that Polestar shall pay any amount and payment referred to in this Agreement in EUR instead. The applicable currency for each amount and payment shall be stated on the invoices issued by Volvo Cars. If to be paid in EUR, the amount and payment in EUR shall be converted from the SEK amounts stated in this Agreement based on the Bloomberg EUR/SEK Fixing (BFIX) at the conversion date which is determined at Volvo Cars' sole discretion."

3 GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 3.1 This Amendment is and should be regarded and interpreted as an amendment to the Agreement. The validity of this Amendment is therefore dependent upon the validity of the Agreement,
- 3.2 No amendment of this Amendment will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by both Parties. A waiver of any default is not a waiver of any later default and will not affect the validity of this Amendment.
- 3.3 Sections 17 and 18 of the Agreement shall apply to this Amendment as well,
- 3.4 The Parties may execute this Amendment in counterparts, including electronic copies, which taken together will constitute one instrument.

Appendix 3 Governance and Changes Structure

This LICENSE AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is entered into on 30 June 2019 and made between:

- (1) Volvo Car Corporation, Reg. No. 556074-3089, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden (“Volvo Cars”); and
- (2) Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co. Ltd., Reg. No. 91510100MA6bXIH33P, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of People’s Republic of China (“Polestar”).

Each of Volvo Cars and Polestar is hereinafter referred to as a “Party” and jointly as the “Parties”.

BACKGROUND

- A. Volvo Cars is in the business, among other activities, of developing, manufacturing and selling Volvo branded cars.
- B. Polestar is engaged in manufacturing and sale of Polestar branded high-end electric performance cars.
- C. The Parties have agreed to develop certain common technology mainly consisting of a common platform architecture technology and a common electrified powertrain based on modular electronic powertrain for usage by both Parties. The Parties have agreed to cooperate in the this development project. Both Polestar and Volvo Cars will use the mentioned platform for multiple tophats offered globally. By sharing the development of the common platform architecture technology and a common electrified powertrain, the investment per tophat can be reduced allowing for more tophats over time. Shared large volumes on parts also contributes to cost advantages etc.
- D. The Parties have also agreed that Volvo Cars shall deliver and grant licenses to the Volvo Technology to Polestar in relation to the Polestar Vehicle and Other Polestar Branded Vehicles in China.
- E. The license to the Volvo Technology includes all Volvo IP which together with the relevant Third Party Intellectual Property Rights not included in the Volvo IP is reasonably necessary in order to meet the specification of Volvo Technology in Appendix 1.
- F. The Parties have further agreed that the Volvo Technology is the sole property of Volvo Cars and that Volvo Cars shall grant Polestar certain rights to use the Volvo Technology.
- G. The Parties have agreed that the Polestar Vehicle is the first car launched based on the Volvo Cars SPA2. The start of production of SPA2 and the Polestar Vehicle is currently scheduled for []. The Polestar Vehicle will be offered with electrified powertrains only. The Polestar Vehicle is a new top-hat, but has a high degree of shared systems with Volvo Cars vehicles.

- H. The Polestar Vehicle will consist of parts that are unique for Polestar and parts that are common with Volvo Cars. Before entering into this Agreement the Volvo Cars and Polestar Performance AB have jointly discussed and specified SPA2 and MEP2 in accordance with the gates described in VPDS. The base assumption has been that SPA2 should serve as a common platform and MEP2 as common electrified powertrain for both Volvo Cars vehicles and Polestar vehicles, thereby benefitting both Volvo Cars and Polestar Performance AB. Volvo Cars and Polestar Performance AB have in meetings described according to the VPDS process set prerequisites and from that developed a jointly agreed technical content (Appendix 1) and agree that Volvo Cars will carry out the R&D work for the common SPA2 and MEP2 components. Volvo Cars and Polestar Performance AB have established a joint governance and changes structure (Appendix 3) to follow up on upcoming changes. Polestar alone will decide on changes on Polestar unique parts.
- I. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Agreement.

1. DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings assigned to them below. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa.

“Affiliate” means

- (a) for Polestar, any of the below legal entities (other than Polestar) and any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled (individually or jointly) by:
- (i) Polestar Automotive (Shanghai) Co., Ltd;
 - (ii) Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co., Ltd.;
 - (iii) Polestar Holding AB; or
 - (iv) Polestar Performance AB; and
- (b) for Volvo Cars, Volvo Car AB and any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by Volvo Car AB, however, for the avoidance of doubt, not Polestar or its Affiliates;

“control” for this purpose meaning ownership or control of at least one-hundred per cent (100%) with regard to Polestar Affiliates, and fifty per cent (50%) with regard to Volvo Cars Affiliates of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest of such legal entity. The Parties, however, agree to renegotiate this definition of “Affiliate” in good faith if it in the future does not reflect the Parties’ intention at the time of signing this Agreement due to a restructuring or reorganisation in relation to either of the Parties.

“Agreement” means this License Agreement including all of its Appendices as amended from time to time.

“Appendix” means the appendices to this Agreement.

“Background IP” means the Intellectual Property Rights either;

- (a) owned by either of the Parties; or
- (b) created, developed or invented by directors, managers, employees or consultants of either of the Parties to which the Party has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sublicense prior to the execution of this Agreement, and any Intellectual Property Rights developed independently of this Agreement.

“Confidential Information” means any and all information regarding the Parties and their respective businesses, whether commercial or technical, in whatever form or media, including but not limited to information relating to Intellectual Property Rights, concepts, technologies, processes, commercial figures, techniques, strategic plans and budgets, investments, customers and sales, designs, graphics, CAD models, CAE data, statement of works (including engineering statement of works and any specification), targets, test plans/reports, technical performance data and engineering sign-off documents and other information of a sensitive nature, that a Party learns from or about the other Party prior to or after the execution of this Agreement.

“Data Room” means (if applicable) the information sharing platform agreed to be used between the Parties for making available the information regarding the Volvo Technology to Polestar.

“Data Room Software” means the information sharing solution agreed to be used between the Parties for making available the Volvo Technology being software.

“Disclosing Party” means the Party disclosing Confidential Information to the Receiving Party.

“Fee” means the fee to be paid by either Party to the other Party hereunder in accordance with what is set out in Appendix 2 to this Agreement.

“Force Majeure Event” shall have the meaning set out in Section 15.1.1 below.

“Gates” means the dates agreed between the Parties, and which shall be based on VPDS, when the Volvo Technology, or parts thereof, shall have been delivered to and accepted by Polestar, and which shall, unless otherwise stated in this Agreement, be Program Start (PS), Final Data Judgement (FDJ), Launch Readiness (LR), Launch Sign-off (LS) and Final Status Report (FSR), all described in the VPDS.

“Industry Standard” means the exercise of such professionalism, skill, diligence, prudence and foresight which would normally be expected at any given time from a skilled and experienced actor engaged in a similar type of undertaking as under this Agreement.

“Intellectual Property Rights” means Patents, Non-patented IP, Know-How and rights in Confidential Information to the extent protected under applicable laws anywhere in the world. For the avoidance of doubt, Trademarks are not comprised by this definition.

“Job1” means in relation to this Agreement and the Polestar Vehicle, the date on which the production of the Polestar Vehicle covered by this Agreement starts.

“Job1+90” means in relation this Agreement and the Polestar Vehicle, the date of Final Status Report (FSR), which follows from VPDS and which will take place 90 days after Job1.

“Job1+365” means in relation to this Agreement and the Polestar Vehicle, the date until which variations of the content as specified in Appendix 1 will be introduced to the Polestar Vehicle.

“Know-How” means confidential and proprietary industrial, technical and commercial information and techniques in any form including (without limitation) drawings, formulae, test results, reports, project reports and testing procedures, instruction and training manuals, tables of operating conditions, specifications, component lists, market forecasts, lists and particulars of customers and suppliers.

“MEP2” means common electrified powertrain including technical content as defined in Appendix 1.

“Non-patented EP” means copyrights (including rights in computer software), database rights, semiconductor topography rights, rights in designs, and other intellectual property rights (other than Trademarks and Patents) and all rights or forms of protection having equivalent or similar effect anywhere in the world, in each case whether registered or unregistered, and registered includes registrations, applications for registration and renewals whether made before, on or after execution of this Agreement.

“Object Code” means the compiled version of the Source Code including parameter files.

“Other Polestar Branded Vehicles” means Polestar branded vehicle models other than the Polestar Vehicle.

“Patent” means any patent, patent application, or utility model, whether filed before, on or after the execution of this Agreement, along with any continuation, continuation-in-part, divisional, re-examined or re-issued patent, foreign counterpart or renewal or extension of any of the foregoing.

“Polestar Technology” means technology that does not exist on any other vehicle than Polestar Vehicle and which shall be provided by Volvo Cars and purchased as a service by Polestar or assigned to Polestar under this Agreement, and which is specified as Polestar Technology (Category 1 and for the avoidance of doubt Category 3B. Category 3B however not limited to existence in Polestar Vehicle) in Appendix 1 to this Agreement.

“Polestar Vehicle” means the Polestar branded vehicle model Polestar 3.

“PS Unique Volvo Technology” means such Volvo Technology which is specified as PS Unique Volvo Technology (Category 2) in Appendix 1 to this Agreement, for which IP is owned by Volvo Cars and which is licensed exclusively to Polestar including but not limited to access to drawings, specifications, calculations, protocols (including test protocols), software (Object Code and Source Code), methods, processes and any similar deliverables needed for Polestar to make use of the licensed technology.

“Source Code” means human-readable program statements written by a programmer or developer in a high-level or assembly language that are not directly readable by a computer and that need to be compiled into object code before they can be executed by a computer.

“SPA2” means Volvo Cars modular product architecture that enables integration of hybrid electric vehicles and battery electric vehicles in the same vehicle model.

“Territory” means China.

“Third Party” means a party other than any of the Parties and/or an Affiliate of one of the Parties to this Agreement.

“Trademarks” means trademarks (including part numbers that are trademarks), service marks, logos, trade names, business names, assumed names, trade dress and get-up, and domain names, in each case whether registered or unregistered, including all applications, registrations, renewals and the like, in each case to the extent they constitute rights that are enforceable against third parties.

“Use” means to make, have made, use (including in a process, such as use in designing, engineering, testing or assembling products or in their research or development), keep, install, integrate, extract, assemble, reproduce, incorporate, create derivative works of, modify, adapt, improve, enhance, develop, service or repair, including in the case of installation, integration, assembly, service or repair, the right to have a subcontractor of any tier carry out any of these activities on behalf of the Parties in their capacity as a licensee hereunder.

The right to “have made” is the right of the Parties in their capacity as a licensee hereunder, as applicable, to have another person (or their subcontractor of any tier) make for the Parties and does not include the right to grant sub-licenses to another person to make for such person’s own use or use other than for the Parties.

“Volvo IP” means Know-How, Intellectual Property Rights and all other deliverables and/or materials either

- (a) (i) owned by Volvo Cars, or (ii) created, developed or invented by directors, managers, employees or consultants of Volvo Cars (to which Volvo Cars has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sub-license), during or prior to the execution of this Agreement or during the term of the Agreement, or

- (b) licensed by Volvo Cars from any Third Party to which Volvo Cars has the right to grant a sub-license and/or to assign such license to Polestar.

“Volvo Technology” means the Volvo IP that shall be licensed to Polestar under this Agreement, and which is specified as Volvo Technology (Category 3 and 4) in Appendix 1 to this Agreement and for which IP is owned by Volvo Cars including but not limited to access to drawings, specifications, calculations, protocols(including test protocols), software (Object Code and Source Code), methods, processes and any similar deliverables needed for Polestar to make use of the licensed technology.

“Volvo Supplier License Technology” means the Volvo Technology and Polestar Unique Volvo Technology which is owned by a Third Party and licensed to Volvo Cars, and which license shall be sublicensed to Polestar, under this Agreement.

“VPDS” means Volvo Cars’ procedures in development projects, ‘Volvo Product Development System’.

“Way Of Working” means the level of way of working set out in Section 2.2.2 below.

2. SCOPE OF THE AGREEMENT

2.1 General

- 2.1.1 The Parties acknowledge that the Parties, prior to the signing of this Agreement, have started performing work in relation to the technology that is licensed this Agreement and that this Agreement shall govern this work irrespectively when it has been performed.
- 2.1.2 Upon Polestar’s request, the Parties have agreed that the Fee shall be a fixed price. Polestar will pay the fixed price irrespectivly of their actual usage of the licensed technology.
- 2.1.3 The Appendices shall be considered an integral part of this Agreement and any reference to the Agreement shall include the Appendices.
- 2.1.4 In the event there are any contradictions or inconsistencies between the terms of this Agreement and the appendices hereto, the Parties agree that they shall prevail over each other in the following order if not specifically stated otherwise in such document or the context or circumstances clearly suggest otherwise:
- (a) this Agreement;
 - (b) Appendix 1 - Polestar 3 Technical Content;
 - (c) Appendix 3 - Governance and Changes Structure;
 - (d) Appendix 2 - Fee.

2.2 Way of Working

- 2.2.1 Before entering into this Agreement, Polestar has been informed about the development and service processes and procedures that Volvo Cars is applying for its internal work and which Volvo Cars will be using when performing its obligations under this Agreement.
- 2.2.2 Under this Agreement, Volvo Cars shall use professional, appropriate, qualified and skilled personnel, and shall ensure that its personnel have been properly educated and trained for the work to be performed, including being fully acquainted with Polestar's specific requirements. Volvo Cars shall avoid unnecessary changes in the personnel engaged in performing its undertakings under this Agreement. Volvo Cars shall work according to the same standard of care and professionalism that is done in Volvo Cars' internal development projects. Such standard of care and professionalism, as well as Volvo Cars' performance of its undertakings under this Agreement, shall however at all times correspond to Industry Standard. If Volvo Cars uses its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform its responsibilities under this Agreement, the same way of working shall apply as if such performance was made by Volvo Cars itself.
- 2.2.3 Volvo Cars shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its responsibilities under this Agreement. Furthermore, Volvo Cars undertakes to ensure that any development of the Volvo Technology will not be given lower priority than other Volvo Cars internal similar projects.
- 2.2.4 The Parties acknowledge that Polestar Performance AB will, on Polestar's behalf, ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its responsibilities under this Agreement and in particular provide Volvo Cars timely with necessary instructions and decisions requested by Volvo Cars, as required for Polestar to fulfil its responsibilities under this Agreement. Furthermore, Polestar and Polestar Performance AB shall use professional and skilled personal for the responsibilities to be performed including being adequately acquainted with Volvo Cars' specific requirements related to the common development.

2.3 The Volvo Technology

2.3.1 General

- 2.3.1.1 A commonly agreed specification setting forth, on an overall level, the Volvo Technology to be licensed to Polestar in relation to the Polestar Vehicle and Other Polestar Branded Vehicles is set out in Appendix 1. The details of said specification are available in the Volvo KDP Engineering Database [] and in the Volvo Lotus Notes Database [], A final specification of the Volvo Technology shall, subject to good faith and joint discussions between the Parties, be made at Job1+90 as a part of the Final Status Report (FSR) where all agreed deliverables will be finally categorized as Volvo Technology or Polestar Technology jointly by the Parties. All of the aforementioned specifications shall be considered an integral part of Appendix 1 and consequently also this Agreement.

2.3.1.2 The license to Volvo Technology shall, in relation to the Polestar Vehicle and Other Polestar Branded Vehicles, include all Volvo IP, which together with relevant Third Party Intellectual Property Rights not included in Volvo IP is reasonably necessary in order to meet the specification set forth in Appendix 1 to this Agreement. In case any such Third Party Intellectual Property Rights not included in Volvo IP is reasonably necessary in order to meet the specification set forth in Appendix 1 to this Agreement, Volvo Cars shall indicate that within the frame of the deliverables under the Volvo Technology. Polestar might thus be required to license Intellectual Property Rights and/or purchase components of Third Parties necessary to produce the Polestar Vehicle. However, Volvo Cars shall use reasonable efforts to ensure that Third Party Intellectual Property Rights are possible to sublicense or assign to Polestar.

2.3.2 General Limitations

2.3.2.1 The Volvo Technology that will be licensed under this Agreement is defined and described in Appendix 1 and that content is the basis for the Fee. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the details of such technology might not have been finalised at the time of entering into this Agreement. The technical functions are defined, but detailed deliverables will be updated and agreed according to Section 8, as the development progresses up until Job1+90 at the latest.

2.3.2.2 For the avoidance of doubt, Volvo Cars shall not under this Agreement manufacture the Polestar Vehicle, any components of the Volvo Technology, or integrate any such components or the Volvo Technology into Polestar's production of vehicles.

2.3.3 Limitations in relation to the Volvo Supplier License Technology

Polestar acknowledges that the Volvo Supplier License Technology is owned by Third Parties and that Volvo Cars may not be allowed to grant a license without consent from such relevant Third Party.

The grant of a license to Volvo Supplier License Technology is thus subject to any limitations which may be applicable to the rights granted to Volvo Cars by the Third Party owning the Intellectual Property Rights to such Volvo Supplier License Technology, and will not take effect until Volvo Cars has received the relevant consent from the Third Party.

If Volvo Cars has not received the relevant consent from the Third Party within twelve (12) months from the signing date of this Agreement no license grant to Volvo Supplier License Technology shall occur, nor be considered to have occurred, and the Fee shall be reduced corresponding to the the part of the Fee that relates to the Volvo Supplier License Technology to which Volvo Cars has not received relevant consent in time. If such a reduction is not feasible to determine, it shall be negotiated between the Parties in good faith.

3. LICENSE GRANT

3.1 License grant

- 3.1.1 Volvo Cars undertakes to grant Polestar a license to the Volvo Technology covered by this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt any software included in the Volvo Technology the following shall apply: Polestar may use the Object Code in its delivered format, whether modified or unmodified, without limitations. Polestar may not transfer or sublicense the Source Code to any Third Party, in whole or in part, in any form, whether modified or unmodified.
- 3.1.2 Such license shall, except for what is set out in Section 3.2 below or unless otherwise agreed in this Agreement, be non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any Volvo IP included in the license described hereunder)), non-assignable and give Polestar a right to, within the Territory and only in relation to the Polestar Vehicle and Other Polestar Branded Vehicles;
- (a) Use, in whole or in part, the Volvo Technology covered by this Agreement and any Volvo Cars' Background IP necessary to make Use of such Volvo Technology; and
 - (b) design, engineer, make and have made, repair, service, market, sell and make available products and/or services based on, incorporating or using the Volvo Technology and the Background IP referred to in (a) above (in whole or in part).
- 3.1.3 Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as to give Polestar any rights, including but not limited to any license rights (express or implied), to any Volvo IP, except as expressly stated herein.
- 3.1.4 The license to be granted to Polestar in accordance with Section 3.1.1 and 3.1.2 above shall be fully sub-licensable to the Polestar's Affiliates, but shall not be sub-licensable to any Third Party without prior written consent from Volvo Cars, which shall not be unreasonably withheld (whereby a sublicense/license to a Third Party which is a competitor of Volvo Cars is an example of what could be deemed unreasonable) or delayed. For the avoidance of doubt, Volvo Cars shall be free to Use and to grant licenses to Volvo Technology and any Volvo Cars' Background IP to Volvo Cars' Affiliates and any Third Parties without prior written consent from Polestar Performance AB.

3.2 PS Unique Volvo Technology

- 3.2.1 In addition to what is set forth in Section 3.1, what is set forth in this Section 3.2 shall apply in relation to PS Unique Volvo Technology.
- 3.2.2 Any license granted in Section 3.1.2 shall, in relation to PS Unique Volvo Technology be exclusive instead of non-exclusive. As a consequence thereof Volvo Cars shall have no right to make any Use whatsoever of, or to grant any further licenses to, any such PS Unique Volvo Technology. With the exception of what is set out in this Section 3.2, Section 3.1 shall apply to PS Unique Volvo Technology.

- 3.2.3 In the event Volvo Cars (i) in its sole discretion, determines that the PS Unique Volvo Technology, or parts thereof, shall no longer be PS Unique Volvo Technology but instead be such ordinary Volvo Technology covered only by Section 3.1 above Volvo Cars should pay Polestar a compensation. The compensation should equal [] of the amount included in the Fee for such PS Unique Volvo Technology. In this case the following shall apply. Such PS Unique Volvo Technology shall immediately, upon Volvo Cars' payment of the compensation, no longer be considered PS Unique Volvo Technology but instead be considered ordinary Volvo Technology and what is set out in Section 3.1 above shall thus apply instead. For the avoidance of doubt, this inter alia implies that such previous exclusive license granted by Volvo Cars to Polestar shall instead become non-exclusive. For avoidance of doubt, Volvo Cars' right under this Section 3.2.3 may be exercised at any time also after the term of this Agreement.

3.3 Third Party assignments

If the rights to any subject matter to which a license is granted under this Agreement is assigned by a Party to any Third Party, such Party shall ensure that said license is binding also upon the Third Party.

4. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

4.1 Ownership rights

- 4.1.1 Each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of (i) any Background IP and other Intellectual Property Rights owned, developed or otherwise acquired prior to the execution of this Agreement, (ii) any Intellectual Property Rights developed independently of this Agreement, and (iii) any Intellectual Property Rights which are modifications, amendments or derivatives of any Intellectual Property Rights already owned by such Party
- 4.1.2 Volvo Cars remains the owner and holder of all Volvo IP, including any Volvo Technology and Volvo Cars' Background IP, as well as any and all modifications, amendments and improvements thereof. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed an assignment of ownership of any Volvo IP, including any Volvo Technology and Volvo Cars' Background IP, from Volvo Cars to Polestar.

4.2 Polestar brand name

- 4.2.1 For sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Agreement does not include any right to use the "Polestar" brand name or Trademarks, or refer to "Polestar" in communications or official documents of whatever kind.
- 4.2.2 This means that this Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Polestar" brand name or "Polestar" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

4.3 Volvo brand name

- 4.3.1 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Agreement does not include any right to use the “Volvo” brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to “Volvo” in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the “Volvo” Trademarks as well as the “Volvo” name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the “Volvo” Trademarks is subject to a license agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related Intellectual Property Rights can only be used by Volvo Car Corporation and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.
- 4.3.2 This means that this Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the “Volvo” brand name or “Volvo” Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

4.4 Suspected infringement

- 4.4.1 Either Party shall promptly (upon becoming aware) notify the other Party in writing of:
- (a) any conduct of a Third Party that such Party reasonably believes to be, or reasonably believes to be likely to be, an infringement, misappropriation or other violation of any Intellectual Property Rights licensed to such Party hereunder; or
 - (b) any allegations made to such Party by a Third Party that any Intellectual Property Rights licensed hereunder are invalid, subject to cancellation, unenforceable, or are a misappropriation of any Intellectual Property Rights of a Third Party.
- 4.4.2 In the event that a Party has provided the other Party a notification pursuant to Section above, and the other Party decides not to take any action against the Third Party, the other Party may approve in writing that such Party shall be entitled to itself take action against the Third Party at its own cost. If the other Party approves, it shall provide reasonable assistance to such Party, as requested by such Party at its own expense. If the other Party does not approve to such Party taking such action, the issue should be escalated to the relevant governance forum on high governance level for decision.
- 4.4.3 For the avoidance of doubt, Volvo Cars has no responsibility in relation to Polestar in the event the Volvo Technology is alleged to infringe in any Third Party’s Intellectual Property Rights and as a consequence Volvo Cars has no obligation to defend and hold Polestar harmless from and against any alleged infringements, except as set forth in Section 10.3 below.

5. FEE, PAYMENT TERMS5.1 Fee

- 5.1.1 In consideration of the licenses granted hereunder and the Parties' performance of their respective obligations under this Agreement, each Party agrees to pay to the other Party the Fee under the payments terms as described in Appendix 2.

6. AUDITS

- 6.1.1 During the term of this Agreement, Polestar shall have the right to, upon reasonable notice in writing to Volvo Cars, inspect Volvo Cars' books and records related to the Volvo Technology and the premises where the work to finalise the Volvo Technology is carried out, in order to conduct quality controls and otherwise verify the statements rendered in this Agreement.
- 6.1.2 Audits shall be made during regular business hours and be conducted by Polestar or by an independent auditor appointed by Polestar. Should Polestar during any inspection find that Volvo Cars or the Volvo Technology do not fulfil the requirements set forth herein, Polestar is entitled to comment on the identified deviations. Volvo Cars shall, upon notice from Polestar, take the actions required in order to fulfil the requirements. In the event the Parties cannot agree upon measures to be taken in respect of the audit, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to relevant governance forum on high governance.

7. DELIVERY AND ACCEPTANCE

- 7.1 Volvo Cars shall provide the Volvo Technology, covered by this Agreement, (or if not finalised, any part of the Volvo Technology that has been finalised) to Polestar at the Gates or otherwise promptly after any part of the Volvo Technology has been finalised.
- 7.2 The Volvo Technology (or finalised part thereof) in question shall be provided by Volvo Cars to Polestar by electronically loading files with the relevant information into the Data Room, except for the Object Code and the Source Code, which shall only be made available in the Data Room Software
- 7.3 Delivery of any Volvo Technology (or parts thereof), covered by this Agreement, occurs when the delivery at the respective Gates meets the requirements for that Gate set out in this Agreement, however subject to Section 8.2.1 and that Polestar has accepted such delivery in accordance with what is set out below in this Section 7.
- 7.4 Polestar shall accept the delivery of the Volvo Technology, and parts thereof, at the respective Gates, unless the Volvo Technology upon delivery at that Gate deviates from the requirements set forth in this Agreement. Unless otherwise noted in the minutes from the respective Gate, it is assumed that Polestar has accepted the delivery.
- 7.5 If the Volvo Technology has been delivered in accordance with this Section 7, but Polestar has not accepted the delivery in time (j.e. at the Gates or as agreed in this Agreement) nor objected to the delivery due to it deviating from what is set out in Section 8.2.1, the delivery shall be deemed accepted by Polestar. This shall apply at each Gate for each step.

8. DELAYS, DEFECTS ETC.8.1 Delay

- 8.1.1 Volvo Cars shall be deemed to be in delay when Job1 is not met, unless the delay is caused by Polestar or the Parties have agreed for an extension of the time for meeting Job1 upon which the new agreed delivery date shall be relevant for determining whether Volvo Cars is in delay.
- 8.1.2 The Polestar Vehicle is based and dependent on SPA2 that is currently being developed. Polestar acknowledges that the development time plan for SPA2 is directly linked to this Agreement and that any delay in the SPA2 development could have direct implications on the deliverables. The Parties acknowledge the fact that SPA2 development is currently scheduled for []. If SPA2 will be introduced later than [], Section 8.1.3 below shall apply.
- 8.1.3 If Volvo Cars is in delay, or at any time believes that Job1 will not, or is unlikely to, be met in time, Volvo Cars shall inform Polestar of the reasons for and consequences of not meeting Job1 at the agreed date and shall provide additional resources, to ensure that the requirements for Job1 is met as soon as possible. Related costs shall be included in the Fee.
- 8.1.4 A change in Volvo Cars' cycle plan that would have an effect on the Polestar Vehicle's Job1 shall be agreed between the Volvo Cars and Polestar Performance AB.
- 8.1.5 The Parties acknowledge that Volvo Cars' delay may be subject to Section 14.4.
- 8.1.6 No other remedies than as set forth in Sections 8.1.2—8.1.5 are available.

8.2 Defects in delivery

- 8.2.1 In the event the Volvo Technology, or any part thereof, after having met a Gate, are faulty or defective, Volvo Cars shall, if such fault or defect is discovered and/or notified to Volvo Cars before Job1+90, remedy such non-compliance, fault or defect as soon as possible. Related costs shall be included in the Fee.
- 8.2.2 The Volvo Technology will not be considered faulty or defective if Volvo Cars has adhered to the Way Of Working when developing it.
- 8.2.3 Polestar shall not be responsible for costs that relate to work that does not meet the standards used by Volvo Cars when performing similar work for Volvo Cars or work having been performed by personnel not qualified for such work, in breach of Section 2.2.2, as long as such costs would not have occurred had the work been properly executed or performed by qualified personnel.

8.3 Effects of Polestar's actions

- 8.3.1 Notwithstanding what is set out above in this Section 8, Polestar shall be responsible for costs relating to delays which are due to Polestar's non-fulfillment of any of its obligations under this Agreement. Further, any such delays which are due to Polestar shall give a corresponding extension of time to Volvo Cars for meeting any affected Gate. Time plan and cost consequences for Polestar's requests for changes to the Volvo Technology are to be handled in accordance with Appendix 3.
- 8.3.2 Notwithstanding what is set out above in this Section 8, Polestar shall be responsible for costs relating to faults and defects which are due to Polestar's non-fulfillment of any of its obligations under this Agreement.

9. WARRANTIES9.1 General warranties

Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:

- (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;
- (b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;
- (c) the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement have been duly authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate any laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and
- (d) this Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

10. INDEMNIFICATION10.1 General

- 10.1.1 The Parties acknowledge that all Volvo Technology, and any Volvo Cars' Background IP, is licensed to Polestar on an "as is" basis, without any warranties or representations of any kind (except for the warranties in Section 9.1 above), whether implied or express, and in particular any warranties of suitability, merchantability, description, design and fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, completeness, systems integration and accuracy are expressly excluded to the maximum extent permissible by law. However, the above does not exclude Volvo Cars' limited undertaking in Section 8.2.1 above.
- 10.1.2 In addition, Volvo Cars does not make any warranties or representations as regards the functionality of any Volvo Technology, Volvo Cars' Background IP in relation to the Polestar Vehicle and/or Other Polestar Branded Vehicles. Polestar hereby releases Volvo Cars from all liability (and accordingly, cannot claim damages, compensation, price reduction etc.) in respect of errors, defects and deficiencies in any Volvo Technology, Volvo Cars' Background IP of whatever kind, whether visible or latent, including but not limited to errors of fact or law, errors regarding right of disposition, physical defects and deficiencies and damages arising due to product liability after the Volvo Technology have been delivered to Polestar, however excluding Volvo Cars' limited undertakings in Section 8.2.1 above.

10.1.3 The principles set out in this Section 10 is reflected in the Fee and the fact that Volvo Cars is not a supplier or consultant of systems or technical solutions, such as the Volvo Technology, but merely a car manufacturer which normally only develops technical solutions for its own business purposes.

10.1.4 The principles set forth in this Section 10 are exclusive. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing in this Section 10, the Parties agree that no other remedy whatsoever under any statute, law or legal principle shall be available to Polestar in relation to the licenses and/or work to be granted and/or performed by Volvo Cars hereunder.

10.2 Polestar's indemnification

10.2.1 Polestar shall indemnify and hold harmless Volvo Cars and each of its Affiliates from and against any and all direct or indirect losses, liabilities, damages, costs, expenses (including all interest, penalties, reasonable legal and other professional fees, costs and expenses), actions, charges, fines, claims and proceedings arising out of or in connection with Polestar's use of any Volvo Technology and/or Volvo Cars' Background IP, including but not limited to any Third Party claims on Intellectual Property Rights infringement.

10.2.2 Polestar shall indemnify and hold harmless Volvo Cars and each of its Affiliates from and against any and all direct or indirect losses, liabilities, damages, costs, expenses (including all interest, penalties, reasonable legal and other professional fees, costs and expenses), actions, charges, fines, claims and proceedings sustained by any of them, arising from any Third Party with respect to the death or injury to any person, or damage to property, by whomsoever suffered, resulting or claimed to have resulted from any fault or defect in the Polestar Vehicle or Other Polestar Branded Vehicles.

10.2.3 Volvo Cars shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to Polestar's use of any Volvo Technology and/or Volvo Cars' Background IP from Volvo Cars, or a claim which may reasonably be indemnifiable pursuant to Section 10.2.2 above, notify Polestar of such claim in writing and Polestar shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the Third Party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. Polestar shall at all times keep Volvo Cars informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with Volvo Cars on appropriate actions to take. If Polestar fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend Volvo Cars within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, Volvo Cars shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/or over any settlement negotiation at Polestar's cost. Any settlement proposed by Polestar on its own account must take account of potential implications for Volvo Cars and shall therefore be agreed in writing with Volvo Cars before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

10.3 Volvo's indemnification

- 10.3.1 Volvo Cars shall indemnify and hold harmless Polestar and each of its Affiliates from and against any and all direct or indirect losses, liabilities, damages, costs, expenses (including all interest, penalties, reasonable legal and other professional fees, costs and expenses), actions, charges, fines, claims and proceedings sustained by any of them, arising from any Third Party with respect to the death or injury to any person, or damage to property, by whomever suffered, resulting or claimed to have resulted from any fault or defect in any Volvo branded vehicle.
- 10.3.2 Polestar shall after receipt of notice of a claim which may reasonably be indemnifiable pursuant to Section 10.3.1 above, notify Volvo Cars of such claim in writing and Volvo Cars shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the Third Party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. Volvo Cars shall at all times keep Polestar informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with Polestar on appropriate actions to take. If Volvo Cars fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend Polestar within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, Polestar shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/or over any settlement negotiation at Volvo Cars' cost. Any settlement proposed by Volvo Cars on its own account must take account of potential implications for Polestar and shall therefore be agreed in writing with Polestar before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

11. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 11.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Agreement.
- 11.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with a this Agreement shall be limited to ten (10) percent of the Fee payable by Polestar to Volvo Cars under this Agreement.
- 11.3 The limitations of liability set out in this Section 11 shall not apply in respect of damage;
- (a) caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence, or
 - (b) caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 13 below.

12. GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES12.1 Governance

- 12.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Agreement, including its Appendices as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Agreement.
- 12.1.2 The Parties agree that governance in respect of this Agreement shall be handled in accordance with what is set out in Appendix 3.
- 12.1.3 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event that the Parties on an operational level cannot agree, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue in accordance with what is set forth in Appendix 3 to this Agreement. In the event that the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and the procedure set forth in Section 17 shall apply.

12.2 Changes and Costs

- 12.2.1 The Parties can request changes to the technical content in Appendix 1 within the time frame set forth in this Agreement, which shall be handled in accordance with the procedure set forth in the Appendix 3.
- 12.2.2 Volvo Cars has an obligation to, upon either Party's request, handle change management in accordance with the change management procedure described in Appendix 3 in relation to technologies covered by the licences:
- (a) included in the technical content as set forth in Appendix 1 (i) for the Job1 deliveries up until Job1+90 days and (ii) for the Job1+365 deliveries up until Job1+365+90 days. Such change management is included in the Fee;
 - (b) not included in the technical content as set forth in Appendix 1. Such change management is not included in the Fee;
 - (c) however, 90 days after Job1 and/or Job1+365 deliveries, any changes to the Volvo Technology in relation to the Polestar Vehicle shall be subject to the Parties entering into a separate change management agreement. Thus, this Agreement shall not apply in relation to any such changes. Further, Volvo Cars shall have no responsibility for the Volvo Technology 90 days after any Job1 and/or Job1+365 deliveries.

13. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 13.1 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes set forth in this Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 13.1 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or sub-contractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:
- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;

- (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
 - (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
 - (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;
 - (e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and make use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or
 - (f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.
- 13.2 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 13.
- 13.3 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within thirty (30) days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as "Confidential", "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 13.4 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 13, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section 17.2 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 13.5 For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 13 does not permit disclosure of source code to software, and/or any substantial parts of design documents to software, included in any Volvo Technology to any Third Party, notwithstanding what it set forth above in this Section 13. Any such disclosure to any Third Party is permitted only if approved in writing by Volvo Cars.

13.6 This Section 13 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement without limitation in time.

14. TERM AND TERMINATION

14.1 This Agreement shall become effective as set forth in the preamble to this Agreement and shall remain in force during the validity of the license period of the license granted to Polestar under this Agreement, unless terminated in accordance with Section 14.2 or 14.4 below or partly cancelled in accordance with Sections 0 or 14.8 below.

14.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect in the event;

- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Agreement, which has not been remedied within sixty (60) days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied);
- (b) the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors; or

14.3 For avoidance of doubt, either Party not paying the Fee, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, shall be considered a material breach for the purpose of this Agreement.

14.4 Polestar is entitled to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect in case Volvo Cars acts in breach of what is set forth in Sections 8.1 or 8.2 and has not within onehundredtwenty (120) days from written notice from Polestar to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied), taken necessary measures and/or remedy such non-compliance, delay, fault or defect and after such issue has been escalated in accordance with the escalation principles set out in Section 17.1 below.

14.5 None of the Parties shall be entitled to cancel any delivery of Volvo Technology (for the avoidance of doubt not including PS Unique Volvo Technology) unless both Parties agree on the termination and how to split the costs.

14.7 Polestar shall be entitled to cancel any delivery of PS Unique Volvo Technology by Volvo Cars under this Agreement for convenience upon thirty (30) days written notice to Volvo Cars. In such event, Volvo Cars shall, upon request from Polestar, promptly make available in the Data Room (if applicable) any and all parts of the Volvo Technology which have been finalised for delivery on the effective date of the cancellation.

14.8 In the event Polestar cancels any delivery of the PS Unique Volvo Technology in accordance with Section 0 above, the Fee shall correspond to the part of the Fee that relates to (i) PS Unique Volvo Technology existing at the execution of this Agreement, (ii) Volvo Cars' costs for the work performed under this Agreement up to, and including the effective date of the cancellation, including the mark-up otherwise applied to calculate the Fee for the PS Unique Volvo Technology and (iii) any other proven costs Volvo Cars has incurred.

15. MISCELLANEOUS15.1 Force majeure

15.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under this Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A "Force Majeure Event" means any event beyond a Party's reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party's), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors.

15.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under this Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its non-performance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

15.2 Notices

15.2.1 All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:

- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
- (b) if sent by email transmission, at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
- (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
- (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any Party by email, such Party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods.

15.2.2 All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be sent to following addresses:

15.3 Assignment

15.3.1 Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.

15.3.2 Notwithstanding the above, each Party may assign this Agreement to an Affiliate without the prior written consent of the other Party.

15.4 Waiver

Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Agreement or failure to notify the infringing Party of a breach in connection with the Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.

15.5 Severability

In the event any provision of this Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.

15.6 Entire agreement

All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Agreement are superseded by this Agreement.

15.7 Amendments

Any amendment or addition to this Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.

15.8 Survival

15.8.1 If this Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 3 (License Grant), Section 13 (Confidential Information), Section 16 (Governing Law), Section 17 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 15.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.

15.8.2 Notwithstanding Section 15.8.1 above, if this Agreement is terminated due to Polestar not paying the Fee without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 3 (License Grant) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination.

16. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of Sweden without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION17.1 Escalation principles

17.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes in the governance forum Volvo Polestar Executive P&Q Steering Committee, described in Appendix 3, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and any of the Parties can notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice as set forth in Section 15.2.2 above and this Section. In such deadlock notice the reasons and preferred solution for the deadlock situation shall be stated. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten (10) days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement in accordance with what is set forth in this Section 17.1. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.

- 17.1.2 The members of the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall ensure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 17.1.3 If the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within thirty (30) days from the deadlock notice, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the respective CEO and CFO of the two owners of Polestar on the signing date of this Agreement for decision. Should the matter not have been resolved by the respective CEO and CFO of the two owners of Polestar on the signing date of this Agreement within thirty (30) days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 17.2 below.
- 17.1.4 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 13 above.
- 17.1.5 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 17.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the respective CEO and CFO of the two owners of Polestar on the signing date of this Agreement in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

17.2 Arbitration

- 17.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce. The seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, and the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.
- 17.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.

17.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.

17.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

This Agreement has been signed in two (2) originals, of which the parties have received one (1) each. The Parties acknowledge that this Agreement shall be binding upon the Parties already upon the signing and exchange of scanned version thereof, including scanned signatures.

Appendix 3
Governance and Change Structure

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This Appendix 3 outlines the governance structure for this Agreement between the two Parties as well as how to handle changes along the development project.

2. DEFINITIONS

- 2.1 Any capitalised terms used but not specifically defined herein shall have the meanings set out for such terms in the Agreement. In addition, the capitalised terms set out below in this Section 2 shall for the purposes of this Appendix have the meanings described herein. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa.

3. GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE

3.1 Product Development

- 3.1.1 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. The operational level for the product development is defined by the forum called Design Review Meeting ("DRM"). This meeting will handle issues where a decision regarding deviations from objectives have to be made, for example technical changes, re-categorization of development streams, attribute deviations, time consequences, delays, quality, cost consequences and prioritisation of development activities or other aspects relating to the cooperation between the Parties. This meeting will also confirm the change management logged as Cross Brand Service Request in the Polestar Intake Meeting ("CBSR") including price effects of change requests, which is further described in Section 4.2. For Polestar Technology and PS Unique Volvo Technology, Polestar has the right for final decision. For Volvo Technology, Volvo Cars has the right for final decision related to the development. However, the decisions made for the Volvo Technology will consider the Polestar share and Polestar will be involved in the decisions to an extent corresponding to their share. The participants at the DRM is the Volvo Cars Technical Project Leader and the Polestar Product Manager, as well as relevant experts from both Parties related to the subjects discussed. The DRM is held weekly.

- 3.1.2 If the DRM cannot make the decision or if Polestar objects to a decision or Polestar find that a decision is not made in time and decides to escalate an issue, the next governance level is the Polestar Program Governance Meeting ("PPGM"). The PPGM is overseeing the project at a high level delivery status, with key item reports and key activity forecasts. The forum decides on escalated issues and also decides on changes that have a cost impact. Items regarding manufacturing engineering and procurement may also be handled in the PPGM in the event that the item effect Product Development. The participants at the PPGM is the Volvo Cars Technical Project Leader, Volvo Cars Project Finance Lead and Volvo Cars Vehicle Line Manager and Polestar Project Manager. The PPGM is held weekly, unless the Parties agree otherwise.

3.1.3 The next governance level for product development is the Executive P&Q Steering Committee. This Steering Committee is handling the future direction and strategic relationship between the Parties. The forum decides on escalated issues and changes that have a major cost impact. The participants at the Executive P&Q Steering Committee is Volvo Cars Head of P&Q and Volvo Cars Head of Global Procurement and Polestar CEO and Polestar Head of R&D, as well as other relevant participants from both Parties related to the subjects discussed. The meeting chair is Volvo Cars Head of P&Q and the meeting is held monthly.

3.2 Joint Governance Level

3.2.1 In the event that Polestar objects to decisions made in the Executive P&Q Steering Committee and the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for disagreements or disputes handled, the final governance level is the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee. The participants in the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee is Volvo CEO and CFO and Polestar CEO and CFO, as well as other relevant participants from both Parties related to the subjects discussed. The meeting is held monthly or as otherwise agreed, based on escalated items.

3.2.2 If the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee cannot settle the disagreement, such deadlock will be referred to the respective CEO and CFO of the two owners of Polestar on the signing date of this Agreement, for deadlock resolution, according to the escalation principles described in the Agreement Section 18.

3.2.3 The governance structure between Volvo Cars and Polestar is illustrated in a picture at the end of this appendix.

4. DESCRIPTION CHANGE MANAGEMENT

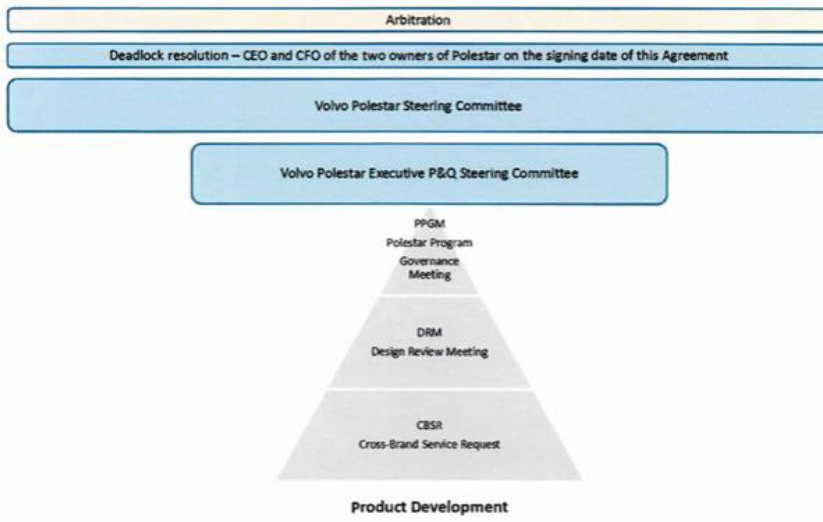

4.1 As defined in the Agreement Section 13.2, Polestar and Volvo Cars can request changes, which shall be handled in accordance with the procedure set forth in this Appendix 3. Both Parties agree to act in good faith to address and respond to any change request within a reasonable period of time.

4.2 A change requested by Polestar or Volvo Cars is to be sent to the CBSR meeting and logged in the already established SharePoint site. The CBSR will then appoint the request to the responsible function department to investigate the request for consequences of technology, time plan, cost and resources. The request will be reviewed cross-functionally, including tax, before the response is presented to Polestar for decision. Polestar then decides, based on the quotation presented in the CBSR, if the change request will be introduced. The decision is agreed in writing and documented in the SharePoint site at a CBSR.

4.3 A change requested by Polestar and sent to the CBSR may also be denied, if the request is deemed unable to be realized due to for instance technical consequences, time schedule or lack of resources.

4.4 The Parties acknowledge that Volvo Cars will not perform in accordance with a change request submitted by Polestar until agreed in writing between the Parties. Until there is an agreement about the requested change, all work shall thus continue in accordance with the existing specification set forth in this Agreement unless Polestar requests Volvo Cars to pause the work until an agreement is reached.

- 4.5 The cost consequence for a change request will be handled based on the quotation presented in the CBSR, and the amount will be invoiced to Polestar quarterly added to the payment plan described in Appendix 2. If a change request results in a cost reduction, the fixed price amount defined in Appendix 2 will be deducted with the quoted reduction from the CBSR.
- 4.6 For the avoidance of doubt the Parties acknowledge that Volvo Cars will be entitled to make changes to the Volvo Technology, as long as the specification in Appendix 1 is met. The Parties undertake to act in good faith and to agree on the consequences of any such changes for Polestar. If the Parties cannot agree on such suggested change of Volvo Technology, Volvo Cars shall still be entitled to carry out said change and the result thereof will be considered Volvo Technology. In this event Polestar may stay with the original technology, which will then be considered PS Unique Volvo Technology delivered by Volvo Cars to an additional fee.
- 4.7 The costs relating to changes to the development work requested by Polestar shall, in relation to Volvo Technology, be allocated based on the category of the relevant development (i.e. whether the results shall be considered Volvo Technology or PS Unique Volvo Technology) in accordance with what is set forth in the Agreement (if applicable) and Appendix 1. Further, the costs relating to changes to the development work requested by Polestar shall, in relation to Polestar Technology, be allocated based on the category of the relevant development (i.e. whether the results shall be considered Common Polestar Technology or such Polestar Technology not being Common Polestar Technology) in accordance with what is set out in the Agreement (if applicable) and Appendix 1.
- 4.8 For the avoidance of doubt, the Parties acknowledge that Polestar shall be responsible for all costs relating to changes requested by Polestar in relation to such Polestar Technology to which Volvo Cars has not been granted a license pursuant to in the Agreement.
- 4.9 For the avoidance of doubt, any changes under this Agreement made in relation to the Polestar Technology after the effective date of this Agreement, shall automatically upon creation also be delivered as a service to Polestar in accordance with what is set forth in Section 3 in the Agreement. Correspondingly, any changes under this Agreement made to the Volvo Technology after the effective date of this Agreement, shall automatically upon creation also be included in the license granted to Polestar in Section 4 in the Agreement. Any changes under this Agreement made in relation to the Volvo Technology or Polestar Technology, respectively, as set forth in this Appendix 1, shall thus upon execution be included in the definition of Volvo Technology or Polestar Technology, as applicable.

SIDE LETTER

This side letter ("Side Letter") is entered into on 30 June 2019 and made between:

Volvo Car Corporation, Reg. No. 556074-3089, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden ("Volvo Cars");

Volvo Cars (China) Investment Co., Ltd., Reg. No. 913101145574653825, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China ("Volvo Cars China");

Polestar Performance AB, Reg. No. 556653-3096, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden ("Polestar"); and

Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co. Ltd., Reg. No. 91510100MA6BX1H33P, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China ("Polestar China").

Each of Volvo Cars, Volvo Cars China, Polestar and Polestar China are hereinafter referred to as a "Party" and jointly as the "Parties". Volvo Cars and Volvo Cars China are jointly referred to as the "Volvo Cars Entities" and Polestar and Polestar China are jointly referred to as the "Polestar Entities".

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have entered into four separate license and service agreements for the development of the Polestar Vehicle and related services.
- B. The Parties now wish to clarify in writing the contractual setup and the relationship between the four Agreements, as set out below.
- C. It is also noted that the payments to Volvo Cars under the Agreements may be subject to withholding tax ("WHT") and Polestar Entities shall compensate Volvo Cars as stated in the Side Letter.
- D. Unless otherwise defined in this Side Letter, capitalized terms used herein shall have the meaning ascribed to them in each of the Agreements.

1 CONTRACTUAL SET-UP

1.1 There are four separate agreements that will be signed together with this Side Letter:

- (a) License and Service Agreement between Volvo Cars and Polestar ("License and Service Agreement RoW"),

- (b) License Agreement between Volvo Cars and Polestar China (“License Agreement China”),
- (c) Service Agreement between Volvo Cars and Polestar China (“Service Agreement RoW”),
- (d) Service Agreement between Volvo Cars China and Polestar China (“Service Agreement China”).

The four agreements in Section 1.1(a)-(d) are together referred to as the “Agreements”.

- 1.2 Even though the Agreements are four separate agreements with different parties, the Parties acknowledge that their intention is that the Agreements actually constitute one and the same agreement.

2 FEE

- 2.1 []

- 2.2 The Parties agree that the percentages and amounts set out in Appendix 2 to each of the Agreements referenced in Section 1.1 shall be interpreted in light of the fact that the four Agreements shall actually constitute one and the same agreement. []

- 2.3 In the light of the foregoing, the Parties agree that the below mentioned Sections in Appendix 2 to the above mentioned Agreements shall be interpreted as follows:

- (a) []
- (b) []
- (c) []
- (d) []

3 SPLIT OF WHT

- 3.1 []

4 NO SUB-LICENSING BETWEEN THE POLESTAR ENTITIES

- 4.1 The Parties acknowledge that the rights granted to the Polestar Entities is to some extent sub-licensable to inter alia Polestar Affiliates under the Agreements. It is, however, not the intention of the Parties that the Polestar Entities shall be allowed to sub-license the rights granted under each of the Agreements to each other instead of utilising the rights granted to such Polestar Entity under its own Agreement. In the light of the above, the Polestar Entities shall thus not be allowed to sub-license any of the rights granted under the Agreements between them, but only to other Polestar Affiliates of them as stipulated in each of the Agreements.

5 AMENDMENTS

- 5.1 The Parties agree that, if an amendment is made to one of the Agreements, the Party not being a Party to such amended Agreement agrees to make the corresponding amendment to the Agreement it is a Party to, unless otherwise agreed between the Parties.

6 TERMINATION

- 6.1 A breach of this Side Letter shall be considered a material breach under each of the Agreements.

7 DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 7.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Side Letter, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce. The seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, and the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators. The Parties' intention is that the identical arbitration clauses in each of the Agreements, with the exception of the Service Agreement China, shall function as one and the same arbitration agreement entered into between, on the one hand, Volvo Cars, and, on the other hand, Polestar and Polestar China. Accordingly, the Parties agree that any disputes, controversies or claims arising out of or in connection with the License and Service Agreement RoW, the License Agreement China, the Service Agreement RoW, and/or this Side Letter, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, may upon request by a party to such agreement be consolidated into one arbitration proceeding.

8 MISCELLANEOUS

- 8.1 This Side Letter shall become effective as set forth in the preamble of this Side Letter and shall remain in force until all tax decisions to be made by authorities regarding the Agreements and this Side Letter are final.
- 8.2 This Side Letter is hereby incorporated to, and shall form an integral part of, in relation to the relevant Parties, the relevant Agreements. This Side Letter takes precedence over the Agreements if they are contradictory or ambiguous.

This Side Letter has been signed in four (4) originals, of which the parties have received one (1) each. The Parties acknowledge that this Side Letter shall be binding upon the Parties already upon the signing and exchange of scanned version thereof, including scanned signatures.

The above parties shall be hereinafter referred to as a “Party” individually and as the “Parties” collectively.

WHEREAS:

- (1) The Transferor and Volvo Cars entered into a License Agreement in relation to joint development provided under a license to technology related to Polestar 3 car model (the “Original Agreement”) on 30 June, 2019;
- (2) The Transferor and Volvo Cars also entered into an Amendment Agreement to the Original Agreement in December 2019.
- (3) The Transferor agrees to transfer all of the rights and outstanding obligations under the Original Agreement to the Transferee and the Transferee agrees to accept such transfer.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

Article 1 Transfer of Rights and Obligations

- 1.1 The Parties hereby agree, by execution of this Agreement and subject to the terms and conditions contained herein, that the Transferor hereby transfers all of its rights and outstanding obligations under the Original Agreement to the Transferee, and the Transferee agrees to substitute the Transferor as a party to the Original Agreement, and shall acquire all of the rights of the Transferor under the Original Agreement and undertake all of the outstanding obligations of the Transferor thereunder on the Effective Date (as defined below).
- 1.2 As of the Effective Date of the Agreement, the Transferor shall not be severally liable for any liability of the Transferee to perform its obligations under the Original Agreement.
- 1.3 The Transferee confirms that it can fully perform all obligations as they exist under the Original Agreement.

Article2 Taxes, Costs and Expenses

The Parties shall be responsible for any taxes, costs and expenses incurred by them respectively in connection with the rights and obligation transfer according to this Agreement.

Article3 Effectiveness

This Agreement shall become effective on the date that it is duly executed by all the Parties (the "Effective Date").

Article4 Governing Law and Dispute Resolution

Sections 16 and 17 of the Original Agreement shall apply to this Agreement as well.

Article5 Language and Originals

This Agreement shall be made in English and in three originals with each Party keeping one original.

Manufacturing engineering, logistic and procurement services worldwide related to Polestar 3 car model

APPENDICES

Appendix 1.1—Service Specification Manufacturing Engineering and Logistics

Appendix 1.2—Service Specification Direct Material Procurement

Appendix 2—Fee

Appendix 3—Governance and Changes Structure

This SERVICE AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is entered into on 30 June 2019 and made between:

- (1) Volvo Car Corporation, Reg. No. 556074-3089, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden (“Volvo Cars”); and
- (2) Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co. Ltd., Reg. No. 91510100MA6BX1H33P, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the People’s Republic of China (“Polestar”).

Each of Volvo Cars and Polestar is hereinafter referred to as a “Party” and jointly as the “Parties”.

BACKGROUND

- A. Volvo Cars is an experienced manufacturer of Volvo branded cars. It is understood that Volvo Cars is not normally a service provider.
- B. Polestar is engaged in manufacturing and sale of Polestar branded high-end electric performance cars.
- C. The Parties have agreed that Volvo Cars shall provide services concerning the Polestar Vehicle to Polestar.
- D. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Agreement.

1. DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings assigned to them below. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa.

“Affiliate” means

- (a) for Polestar, any of the below legal entities (other than Polestar) and any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled (individually or jointly) by:
 - (i) Polestar Automotive (Shanghai) Co., Ltd;
 - (ii) Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co., Ltd.;
 - (iii) Polestar Holding AB; or
 - (iv) Polestar Performance AB; and
- (b) for Volvo Cars, Volvo Car AB and any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by Volvo Car AB, however, for the avoidance of doubt, not Polestar or its Affiliates;

“control” for this purpose meaning ownership or control of at least one-hundred per cent (100%) with regard to Polestar Affiliates, and fifty per cent (50%) with regard to Volvo Cars Affiliates of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest of such legal entity. The Parties, however, agree to renegotiate this definition of “Affiliate” in good faith if it in the future does not reflect the Parties’ intention at the time of signing this Agreement due to a restructuring or reorganisation in relation to either of the Parties.

“Agreement” means this Service Agreement including all of its Appendices as amended from time to time.

“Appendix” means the appendices to this Agreement.

“Background IP” means the Intellectual Property Rights either;

- (a) owned by either of the Parties; or
- (b) created, developed or invented by directors, managers, employees or consultants of either of the Parties to which the Party has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sublicense

prior to the execution of this Agreement, and any Intellectual Property Rights developed independently of this Agreement.

“Confidential Information” means any and all information regarding the Parties and their respective businesses, whether commercial or technical, in whatever form or media, including but not limited to information relating to Intellectual Property Rights, concepts, technologies, processes, commercial figures, techniques, strategic plans and budgets, investments, customers and sales, designs, graphics, CAD models, CAE data, statement of works (including engineering statement of works and any specification), targets, test plans/reports, technical performance data and engineering sign-off documents and other information of a sensitive nature, that a Party learns from or about the other Party prior to or after the execution of this Agreement.

“Disclosing Party” means the Party disclosing Confidential Information to the Receiving Party.

“Fee” means the fee to be paid by either Party to the other Party hereunder in accordance with what is set out in Appendix 2 to this Agreement.

“Force Majeure Event” shall have the meaning set out in Section 13.1.1 below.

“Industry Standard” means the exercise of such professionalism, skill, diligence, prudence and foresight which would normally be expected at any given time from a skilled and experienced actor engaged in a similar type of undertaking as under this Agreement.

“Intellectual Property Rights” means Patents, Non-patented IP, Know-How and rights in Confidential Information to the extent protected under applicable laws anywhere in the world. For the avoidance of doubt, Trademarks are not comprised by this definition.

“Know-How” means confidential and proprietary industrial, technical and commercial information and techniques in any form including (without limitation) drawings, formulae, test results, reports, project reports and testing procedures, instruction and training manuals, tables of operating conditions, specifications, component lists, market forecasts, lists and particulars of customers and suppliers.

“Non-patented IP” means copyrights (including rights in computer software), database rights, semiconductor topography rights, rights in designs, and other intellectual property rights (other than Trademarks and Patents) and all rights or forms of protection having equivalent or similar effect anywhere in the world, in each case whether registered or unregistered, and registered includes registrations, applications for registration and renewals whether made before, on or after execution of this Agreement.

“Patent” means any patent, patent application, or utility model, whether filed before, on or after the execution of this Agreement, along with any continuation, continuation-in-part, divisional, re-examined or re-issued patent, foreign counterpart or renewal or extension of any of the foregoing.

“Polestar Vehicle” means the Polestar branded vehicle model Polestar 3.

“Results” shall mean any outcome of the Services provided to Polestar under this Agreement (including but not limited to any IP, technology, patents, designs, software, methods, processes, deliverables, objects, products, documentation, modifications, improvements, and/or amendments to be carried out by Volvo Cars) and any other outcome or result of the Services to be performed by Volvo Cars as described in the relevant Appendix 1.1 and Appendix 1.2, irrespective of whether the performance of the Services has been completed or not.

“Services” means the services provided from Volvo Cars to Polestar as specified in Appendix 1.1 and Appendix 1.2.

“SPA2” means Volvo Cars modular product architecture that enables integration of hybrid electric vehicles and battery electric vehicles in the same vehicle model.

“Territory” means all countries in the world except China.

“Third Party” means a party other than any of the Parties and/or an Affiliate of one of the Parties to this Agreement.

“Trademarks” means trademarks (including part numbers that are trademarks), service marks, logos, trade names, business names, assumed names, trade dress and get-up, and domain names, in each case whether registered or unregistered, including all applications, registrations, renewals and the like, in each case to the extent they constitute rights that are enforceable against third parties.

“Use” means to make, have made, use (including in a process, such as use in designing, engineering, testing or assembling products or in their research or development), keep, install, integrate, extract, assemble, reproduce, incorporate, create derivative works of, modify, adapt, improve, enhance, develop, service or repair, including in the case of installation, integration, assembly, service or repair, the right to have a subcontractor of any tier carry out any of these activities on behalf of the Parties in their capacity as a licensee hereunder.

The right to “have made” is the right of the Parties in their capacity as a licensee hereunder, as applicable, to have another person (or their subcontractor of any tier) make for the Parties and does not include the right to grant sub-licenses to another person to make for such person’s own use or use other than for the Parties.

“Volvo IP” means Know-How, Intellectual Property Rights and all other deliverables and/or materials either

- (a) (i) owned by Volvo Cars, or (ii) created, developed or invented by directors, managers, employees or consultants of Volvo Cars (to which Volvo Cars has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sub-license), during or prior to the execution of this Agreement or during the term of the Agreement, or
- (b) licensed by Volvo Cars from any Third Party to which Volvo Cars has the right to grant a sub-license and/or to assign such license to Polestar.

“Way Of Working” means the level of way of working set out in Section 2.2.2 below.

2. SCOPE OF THE AGREEMENT

2.1 General

- 2.1.1 The Parties have agreed that Volvo Cars shall provide to Polestar manufacturing engineering, logistic and procurement services related to the Polestar Vehicle. It is acknowledged that such work will be conducted in accordance with the standards that Volvo Cars is using in its internal projects.
- 2.1.2 The Polestar Vehicle is the first car launched based on the Volvo Cars SPA2. The start of production of SPA2 and the Polestar Vehicle is planned [] and the pre-requisite for this Agreement is that the Polestar Vehicle will be produced solely in the Volvo Cars Chengdu plant in China. The Polestar Vehicle will be offered with electrified powertrains only. The Polestar Vehicle is a new top-hat, but has a high degree of shared systems with Volvo Cars vehicles.
- 2.1.3 Polestar wishes to obtain such services in relation to the Polestar Vehicle.
- 2.1.4 Upon Polestar's request, the Parties have agreed that the Fee shall be a fixed price. Polestar will pay the fixed price irrespectively of their actual usage of the Services.
- 2.1.5 The Appendices shall be considered an integral part of this Agreement and any reference to the Agreement shall include the Appendices.
- 2.1.6 In the event there are any contradictions or inconsistencies between the terms of this Agreement and the appendices hereto, the Parties agree that they shall prevail over each other in the following order if not specifically stated otherwise in such document or the context or circumstances clearly suggest otherwise:
- (a) this Agreement;
 - (b) Appendix 1.1- Service Specification Manufacturing Engineering and Logistics and Appendix 1.2- Service Specification Direct Material Procurement;
 - (c) Appendix 2—Governance and Changes Structure;
 - (d) Appendix 3—Fee.

2.2 Way of Working

- 2.2.1 Before entering into this Agreement, Polestar has been informed about the service processes and procedures that Volvo Cars is applying for its internal work and which Volvo Cars will be using for the Services under this Agreement.

- 2.2.2 Under this Agreement, Volvo Cars shall use professional, appropriate, qualified and skilled personnel, and shall ensure that its personnel have been properly educated and trained for the work to be performed, including being fully acquainted with Polestar's specific requirements. Volvo Cars shall avoid unnecessary changes in the personnel engaged in performing its undertakings under this Agreement. Volvo Cars shall work according to the same standard of care and professionalism that is done in Volvo Cars' internal projects. Such standard of care and professionalism, as well as Volvo Cars' performance of its undertakings under this Agreement, shall however at all times correspond to Industry Standard. If Volvo Cars uses its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform its responsibilities under this Agreement, the same way of working shall apply as if such performance was made by Volvo Cars itself.
- 2.2.3 Volvo Cars shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its responsibilities under this Agreement. Furthermore, Volvo Cars undertakes to ensure that the Services will not be given lower priority than other Volvo Cars internal similar projects.
- 2.2.4 Polestar shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its responsibilities under this Agreement and in particular provide Volvo Cars timely with necessary instructions and decisions requested by Volvo Cars, as required for Polestar to fulfil its responsibilities under this Agreement. Furthermore, Polestar shall use professional and skilled personal for the responsibilities to be performed.

3. SERVICES

Volvo Cars undertakes to provide to Polestar manufacturing engineering, logistic and procurement services, jointly referred to as Services. The rights and obligations for providing the Services are covered under this Section 3.

3.1 Provision of services

3.1.1 Specification of Services

3.1.1.1 The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification of the Services provided under this Agreement in Appendix 1.1 and Appendix 1.2. The Services shall be provided for the Territory. The costs for the Services have been calculated and set based on i.a. costs and timing as set out in the Appendix 1.1 and Appendix 1.2.

3.1.2 Making available the Results

3.1.2.1 Volvo Cars shall make the Results (or if not finalised, any part of the Results that has been finalised) available to Polestar within the timeframes specified in Appendix 1.1 and Appendix 1.2, but under all circumstances promptly after any part of the Results has been finalised.

3.1.3 Subcontractors

3.1.3.1 The Parties acknowledge that Volvo Cars may use its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Agreement, provided that Volvo Cars informs Polestar thereof.

3.1.3.2 Volvo Cars shall however remain responsible for the performance, and any omission to perform or comply with the provisions in this Section 3, by any Affiliate to Volvo Cars and/or any subcontractor to the same extent as if such performance or omission was made by Volvo Cars itself. Volvo Cars shall also remain Polestar's sole point of contact unless otherwise agreed.

3.2 Service Requirements

3.2.1 All Services shall be performed in accordance with the requirements set forth in this Agreement, including Appendix 1.1 and Appendix 1.2.

3.2.2 Polestar shall provide Volvo Cars with instructions as reasonably required for Volvo Cars to be able to carry out the Services. Volvo Cars must continuously inform Polestar of any needs of additional instructions or specifications required to perform the Services.

3.3 Intellectual Property Rights

3.3.1 Ownership of existing Intellectual Property Rights.

3.3.1.1 Each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of (i) any Background IP and other Intellectual Property Rights owned prior to the execution of the Services under this Agreement, (ii) any Intellectual Property Rights developed independently of the Services in this Section 3, and (iii) any Intellectual Property Rights which are modifications, amendments or derivatives of any Intellectual Property Rights already owned by such Party.

3.3.1.2 Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to constitute an assignment of, or license to use, any Trademarks of the other Party.

3.3.2 Ownership of Results.

3.3.2.1 In the event any Results are created as a result of the Services provided by Volvo Cars (or if applicable, any of its appointed Affiliates or subcontractors) under this Agreement, the Parties agree that Volvo Cars shall be the exclusive owner of such Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof. Hence, all Results shall automatically upon their creation stay with Volvo Cars. Volvo Cars shall further have the right to transfer, sublicense, modify and otherwise freely dispose of the Results.

3.4 License grant

- 3.4.1 Volvo Cars hereby grants to Polestar a non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any IP or Background IP included in the license described hereunder)) and non-assignable license to, within the Territory:
- (a) Use, in whole or in part, the Results;
 - (b) if applicable, Use any Background IP embedded in or otherwise used in the development of the Results to the extent such license is necessary or reasonably necessary to make Use of the license granted to the Results; and
 - (c) design, engineer, Use, make and have made, repair, service, market, sell and make available products and/or services based on, incorporating or using the Results and any Background IP referred to in (a) and (b) above, in whole or in part.
- 3.4.2 The license granted to Polestar in accordance with Section 3.4.1 shall be fully sublicensable to Polestar's Affiliates, but shall not be sub-licensable to any Third Party without prior written consent from Volvo Cars, which shall not be unreasonably withheld (whereby a sublicense/license to a Third Party which is a competitor of Volvo Cars is an example of what could be deemed unreasonable) or delayed. For the avoidance of doubt, Volvo Cars shall be free to Use and to grant licenses to the Results and any Background IP to Volvo Cars' Affiliates and any Third Parties without prior written consent from Polestar.
- 3.4.3 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement shall be construed as to give the other Party any rights, including but not limited to any license rights (express or implied), to any Background IP, except as expressly stated herein.

3.5 Polestar brand name

- 3.5.1 For sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Agreement does not include any right to use the "Polestar" brand name or Trademarks, or refer to "Polestar" in communications or official documents of whatever kind.
- 3.5.2 This means that this Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Polestar" brand name or "Polestar" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

3.6 Volvo brand name

- 3.6.1 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Agreement does not include any right to use the “Volvo” brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to “Volvo” in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the “Volvo” Trademarks as well as the “Volvo” name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the “Volvo” Trademarks is subject to a license agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related Intellectual Property Rights can only be used by Volvo Car Corporation and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.
- 3.6.2 This means that this Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the “Volvo” brand name or “Volvo” Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

4. FEE, PAYMENT TERMS4.1 Fee

- 4.1.1 In consideration of the Services provided hereunder and the Parties’ performance of their respective obligations under this Agreement, each Party agrees to pay to the other Party the Fee under the payments terms as described in Appendix 2.

5. AUDITS

- 5.1.1 During the term of this Agreement, Polestar shall have the right to, upon reasonable notice in writing to Volvo Cars, inspect Volvo Cars’ books and records related to the Services and the premises where the work to finalise the Services is carried out, in order to conduct quality controls and otherwise verify the statements rendered in this Agreement.
- 5.1.2 Audits shall be made during regular business hours and be conducted by Polestar or by an independent auditor appointed by Polestar. Should Polestar during any inspection find that Services do not fulfil the requirements set forth herein, Polestar is entitled to comment on the identified deviations. Volvo Cars shall, upon notice from Polestar, take the actions required in order to fulfil the requirements. In the event the Parties cannot agree upon measures to be taken in respect of the audit, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to relevant governance forum on high governance level.

6. DELAYS ETC.

6.1 Delay

6.1.1 In the event Volvo Cars risks not to meet an agreed deadline or is otherwise in delay with the performance of the Services, Volvo Cars shall appoint additional resources in order to avoid the effects of the anticipated delay or the delay (as the case may be). Related costs shall be included in the Fee.

6.2 Effects of Polestar's actions

6.2.1 Notwithstanding what is set out above in this Section 6, Polestar shall be responsible for costs relating to delays which are due to Polestar's non-fulfillment of any of its obligations under this Agreement. Further, any such delays which are due to Polestar shall give a corresponding extension of time to Volvo Cars for meeting any time plan.

7. WARRANTIES

7.1 General warranties

Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:

- (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;
- (b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;
- (c) the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement have been duly authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate any laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and
- (d) this Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

8. INDEMNIFICATION8.1 General

8.1.1 The Parties acknowledge that all Services are provided to Polestar on an "as is" basis, without any warranties or representations of any kind (except for the warranties in Section 7.1 above), whether implied or express, and in particular any warranties of suitability, merchantability, description, design and fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, completeness, systems integration and accuracy are expressly excluded to the maximum extent permissible by law.

- 8.1.2 In addition, Volvo Cars does not make any warranties or representations as regards the functionality of any Volvo Cars' Background IP in relation to the Polestar Vehicle. Polestar hereby releases Volvo Cars from all liability (and accordingly, cannot claim damages, compensation, price reduction etc.) in respect of errors, defects and deficiencies in any Volvo Cars' Background IP of whatever kind, whether visible or latent, including but not limited to errors of fact or law, errors regarding right of disposition, physical defects and deficiencies and damages arising due to product liability.
- 8.1.3 The principles set out in this Section 8 is reflected in the Fee and the fact that Volvo Cars is not a supplier or consultant of systems or technical solutions, but merely a car manufacturer which normally only develops technical solutions for its own business purposes.
- 8.1.4 The principles set forth in this Section 8 are exclusive. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing in this Section 8, the Parties agree that no other remedy whatsoever under any statute, law or legal principle shall be available to Polestar in relation to the licenses and/or work to be granted and/or performed by Volvo Cars hereunder.

8.2 Polestar's indemnification

- 8.2.1 Polestar shall indemnify and hold harmless Volvo Cars and each of its Affiliates from and against any and all direct or indirect losses, liabilities, damages, costs, expenses (including all interest, penalties, reasonable legal and other professional fees, costs and expenses), actions, charges, fines, claims and proceedings, arising out of or in connection with Polestar's use of any Volvo Cars' Background IP, including but not limited to any Third Party claims on Intellectual Property Rights infringement.
- 8.2.2 Polestar shall indemnify and hold harmless Volvo Cars and each of its Affiliates from and against any and all direct or indirect losses, liabilities, damages, costs, expenses (including all interest, penalties, reasonable legal and other professional fees, costs and expenses), actions, charges, fines, claims and proceedings sustained by any of them, arising from any Third Party with respect to the death or injury to any person, or damage to property, by whomsoever suffered, resulting or claimed to have resulted from any fault or defect in the Polestar Vehicle or Other Polestar Branded Vehicles.
- 8.2.3 Volvo Cars shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to Polestar's use of any Volvo Cars' Background IP from Volvo Cars, or a claim which may reasonably be indemnifiable pursuant to Section 8.2.2 above notify Polestar of such claim in writing and Polestar shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the Third Party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. Polestar shall at all times keep Volvo Cars informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with Volvo Cars on appropriate actions to take. If Polestar fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend Volvo Cars within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, Volvo Cars shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/or over any settlement negotiation at Polestar's cost. Any settlement proposed by Polestar on its own account must take account of potential implications for Volvo Cars and shall therefore be agreed in writing with Volvo Cars before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

9. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 9.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Agreement.
- 9.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with this Agreement shall be limited to ten (10) percent of the Fee payable by Polestar to Volvo Cars under this Agreement.
- 9.3 The limitations of liability set out in this Section 9 shall not apply in respect of damage;
 - (a) caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence, or
 - (b) caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 11 below.

10. GOVERNANCE

10.1 Governance

- 10.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Agreement, including its Appendices as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Agreement.
- 10.1.2 The Parties agree that governance in respect of this Agreement shall be handled in accordance with what is set out in the Governance and Change Structure in Appendix 3.

10.1.3 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event that the Parties on an operational level cannot agree, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue in accordance with what is set forth in the Governance and Changes Structure in Appendix 3 to this Agreement. In the event that the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and the procedure set forth in Section 15 shall apply.

11. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 11.1 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes set forth in this Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 11.1 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or sub-contractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:
- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
 - (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
 - (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
 - (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;
 - (e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and make use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or
 - (f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.
- 11.2 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 11.

- 11.3 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as “Confidential,” “Proprietary” or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within thirty (30) days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as “Confidential,” “Proprietary” or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 11.4 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 11, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section 15.2 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 11.5 This Section 11 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement without limitation in time.

12. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 12.1 This Agreement shall become effective as set forth in the preamble to this Agreement and shall remain in force during the performance of the Services and the validity of the license period of the license granted to Polestar under this Agreement, unless terminated in accordance with Section 12.2 below.
- 12.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect in the event;
- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Agreement, which has not been remedied within sixty (60) days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied);
 - (b) the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors; or
- 12.3 For avoidance of doubt, either Party not paying the Fee, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, shall be considered a material breach for the purpose of this Agreement.
- 12.4 Polestar shall in addition be entitled to cancel the Services performed by Volvo Cars for convenience upon 90 days written notice to Volvo Cars.
- 12.5 In the event Polestar cancels the Services in accordance with Section 12.4 above, Volvo Cars shall, in addition to the Fee, include any other reasonable proven costs Volvo Cars has incurred until the effective date of the cancellation.

13. MISCELLANEOUS13.1 Force majeure

13.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under this Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event.

A “Force Majeure Event” means any event beyond a Party’s reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party’s), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors.

13.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under this Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its non-performance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

13.2 Notices

13.2.1 All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:

- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
- (b) if sent by email transmission, at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;

- (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
- (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any Party by email, such Party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods.

13.2.2 All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be sent to following addresses:

13.3 Assignment

13.3.1 Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.

13.3.2 Notwithstanding the above, each Party may assign this Agreement to an Affiliate without the prior written consent of the other Party.

13.4 Waiver

Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Agreement or failure to notify the infringing Party of a breach in connection with the Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.

13.5 Severability

In the event any provision of this Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.

13.6 Entire agreement

All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Agreement are superseded by this Agreement.

13.7 Amendments

Any amendment or addition to this Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.

13.8 Survival

13.8.1 If this Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 12 above,, Section 11 (Confidential Information), Section 14 (Governing Law), Section 15 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 13.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.

14. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of Sweden without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

15. DISPUTE RESOLUTION15.1 Escalation principles

15.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes in the governance forum Volvo Polestar Executive P&Q Steering Committee, described in Appendix 3, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and any of the Parties can notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice as set forth in Section 13.2.2 above and this Section. In such deadlock notice the reasons and preferred solution for the deadlock situation shall be stated. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten (10) days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement in accordance with what it set forth this Section 15.1. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.

- 15.1.2 The members of the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall ensure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 15.1.3 If the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within thirty (30) days from the deadlock notice, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the respective CEO and CFO of the two owners of Polestar on the signing date of this Agreement for decision. Should the matter not have been resolved by the respective CEO and CFO of the two owners of Polestar on the signing date of this Agreement within thirty (30) days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 15.2 below.
- 15.1.4 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 11 above.
- 15.1.5 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 15.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the respective CEO and CFO of the two owners of Polestar on the signing date of this Agreement in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

15.2 Arbitration

- 15.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce. The seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, and the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.
- 15.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 15.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.

15.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

This Agreement has been signed in two (2) originals, of which the parties have received one (1) each. The Parties acknowledge that this Agreement shall be binding upon the Parties already upon the signing and exchange of scanned version thereof, including scanned signatures.

Appendix 1.1
Service Specification
Manufacturing Engineering and Logistics

1.1.1 .

Appendix 1.2
Service Specification
Direct Material Procurement

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This Service Specification sets out the scope and the specification of the activities that shall be performed by Volvo Cars Procurement under the Agreement and the division of responsibilities between the Parties.

2. DEFINITIONS

- 2.1 Any capitalised terms used but not specifically defined herein shall have the meanings set out for such terms in the Agreement. In addition, the capitalised terms set out below in this Section 2 shall for the purposes of this Service Specification have the meanings described herein. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa.

“Procurement”—Involves both commercial purchasing and quality assurance of suppliers and their products and services.

“Direct Material Procurement”—Purchasing and quality assurance from and of Suppliers of car component tooling, car components, vehicle software and related development activities.

“Indirect Procurement”—Purchasing of Non-Production Material, Services and IT.

“SQM” means Supplier Quality Management, function within Direct Procurement that quality assures suppliers and the car components that they supply to Volvo Cars.

3. GENERAL DESCRIPTION

- 3.1 The Parties have agreed that Volvo Cars will be the service provider of Direct Procurement activities to source and quality assure suppliers and their products to the Polestar Vehicle. The overall objective for Volvo Cars is to source the best suppliers at a competitive cost level, in a timely manner and based on Volvo Cars standards.
- 3.2 The services of Indirect Procurement are not included in this Agreement, and will be subject to a separate agreement.
- 3.3 The principles for common vendor tooling are not included in this Agreement, and will be subject to a separate agreement.
- 3.4 The Direct Material Procurement services cover:
- Polestar Technology (Category 1) components
 - PS Unique Volvo Technology (Category 2) components
 - Volvo Technology (Category 3A and 4) components
 - Common Polestar Technology (Category 3B) components

4. ASSUMPTIONS/PRE-REQUISITES

- 4.1 The Procurement services will be carried out according to and within Volvo Cars existing sourcing process and approval levels. Volvo Cars Procurement will follow the already established functional forums, where Procurement is required for the sourcing process. Sourcing Strategy (bidders list) and Sourcing Decision (final supplier) will be approved in Volvo Cars Supplier Choice Meeting (“SCM”) and Supplier Choice Consensus (“SCC”). The sourcing decisions will be made in SCM and SCC. The governance procedure is described in Appendix 4.
- 4.2 At the supplier selection for Polestar Technology components, Polestar is responsible to participate in the SCM and is regarded as one of the Stakeholders and will have a voice in the SCM. At the supplier selection for common platform components, Polestar is invited to be present in the SCM.
- 4.3 Volvo Cars Procurement requires all Engineering Statement of Work (“ESOW”) to be agreed and signed-off between Volvo Cars and Polestar R&D before Sourcing is commenced.
- 4.4 Sourcing decisions will be based on multiple parameters such as quality, technical capability, sustainability, strategic consideration, and price. All price calculations are based on landed cost.
- 4.5 To adhere to Volvo Cars standards, the Volvo Cars Purchasing Terms & Conditions will be used towards the suppliers at sourcing and contract signing. Volvo Cars plants payment terms: 60 days + free delivery months and 75 days net for export/import between EU and China. Volvo Cars delivery terms: FCA.

- 4.6 “Arm’s length principle” will be applied, meaning that information shared with Polestar about for instance Volvo Cars supplier strategies and agreements will be based on “need-to-know” basis only. Volvo Cars will not share benchmark data without the consent of the Supplier.
- 4.7 Volvo Cars will use its own standard agreements for sourcing Volvo Technology parts, but will not commit to volume on behalf of Polestar.
- 4.8 Volvo Cars Procurement functions will work in their normal line organisation while providing this service to Polestar, and may work with other projects in parallel.

5. DESCRIPTION OF THE SERVICE ACTIVITIES

5.1 The service will be provided in three main phases:

1. Strategic—strategic alignment for Polestar Vehicle. Volvo Cars Procurement is responsible to lead the overall strategic work including CBP, Design to Profitability (“DtP”) and benchmarking and will align the strategy and the targets with Polestar.
2. Sourcing—Volvo Cars Procurement will lead the sourcing including team set-up, planning, execution, negotiation, contract, including performing needed supplier quality assessments.
3. Industrialization—Volvo Cars Procurement will lead the industrialization including, risk assessment, PPAP and capacity verification.

5.2 The service deliveries will be the following:

- Sourcing work including cost estimates and capacity leading up to a Sourcing Strategy and Sourcing Decision in SCM/SCC.
- Prepare Supplier contracts and Contracted Weekly Capacity (“CWC”) (to be signed by Polestar).
- Place build, tool, prototype, engineering and production orders (blanket) and price updates. Ordering will be done in SI +/-SAP with Polestar order template when Polestar owned tool orders. For Volvo Cars Procurement to be able to place orders in SI+, Polestar unique suppliers need to be registered and included in supplier base system VSM/Parma. Polestar orders will be approved in SI+ according to Volvo Delegation of Authority.
- PSW/PPAP per part number, approved by Volvo Site SQM including Verified Weekly Capacity.

- 0 km Supplier quality assurance up to Start of Production + 90 days.

5.3 Volvo Cars Procurement will perform procurement deliveries through the following functions and their activities:

- Program management/PAM—Scope and plan the sourcing activities and drive that tasks are met timely, both for Polestar Technology and platform related parts and carline Capacity Increase Requests (“CIR”).
- Capacity and volume pre-requisites team—Provide, via SP-tool, volume pre-requisites for the buyers RFQ and Contracted Weekly Capacity to the SQM supplier capacity verification
- Hardware, Software and Propulsion Buyers—Perform supplier evaluation (SEM), lead the sourcing, negotiation, supplier selection and contract signing including ordering.
- Cost estimator—Perform cost estimates based on LCE and OCE and communicate with the Buyer.
- Forward Sourcing Buyer—Manage sourcing process and analysis in sourcing system VGS
- SQM—Perform supplier evaluations (MSA), PPAP and verify supplier capacity.
- Resident SQM—Plant situated SQM, will secure supplier quality at launch and 0 km supplier quality assurance.

In addition Volvo Cars Procurement will provide all management and business support needed to support the different functions and processes with decisions and business analysis to support these decisions.

5.4 Cost Targets

- Cost targets per component and for tooling for Polestar Technology will be set based on program affordable defined by project management prior to sourcing. Polestar has stated the affordable material cost target and total amount for tooling for the Polestar Vehicle. Deviations from set cost targets for Polestar Technology components will be aligned in operational program meetings and then agreed in SCM/SCC, including participation from Polestar. In the event a deviation cannot be agreed in SCM/SCC, the issue will be escalated according to the governance process described in Appendix 3. Cost target for common components will follow the already established Volvo Cars internal process.
- Eventual year-over-year cost reductions (LTA's) for Polestar Technology components will be handled based on case-by-case potential and according to supplier strategies or based on agreement with Polestar.
- Volvo Cars Procurement will keep Polestar informed of the overall progress of the sourcing including potential deviations from targets in operational program meetings.

6. POLESTARS RESPONSIBILITIES

- 6.1 Polestar must provide an overall high-level volume plan as well as a detailed volume plan in front of sourcing activities. The detailed volume plan must include complete information at a level that enables sourcing at component level, with specification of take-rates and variants.
- 6.2 Polestar is responsible to participate in SCM and SCC meetings for Polestar Technology components. If Polestar can not to participate, the decisions cannot be made by Volvo Cars in SCM and SCC, unless prior approval has been given by Polestar. Polestar may be invited to be present in Supplier Choice meetings for Volvo Technology components.
- 6.3 Polestar is responsible to provide approved overall funding of tooling investments for Polestar Technology tooling and agreed cost targets in front of negotiations with suppliers.
- 6.4 Polestar will abide to Volvo Cars supplier strategies and, with Volvo Cars R&D agreed, Commodity Business Plans (“CBP”).
- 6.5 Polestar shall sign an agreement based on its Delegation of Authority to commit to volume, as necessary. Polestar will be responsible for its own capacity and volume forecasts.
- 6.6 Polestar will always be ultimately responsible for the Purchase Orders placed in Polestars name (i.e. payments, volume).
- 6.7 Only if requested by Volvo Cars will Polestar give input for sourcing of suppliers for Polestar Technology components.
- 6.8 Only if requested by Volvo Cars will Polestar participate in supplier strategy work for Polestar Technology components.
- 1.2 Polestar will keep a Power of Attorney updated and available for each of Volvo Cars legal entities to act on Polestars behalf. The purpose is to avoid any confusion towards suppliers and clarify that Volvo Cars has the authority to deliver the direct material procurement for Polestar.
- 1.3 Polestar will need to sign all agreements according to Polestar Delegation of Authority. Volvo Cars will use Polestar templates when acting on Polestars behalf.

Appendix 3
Governance and Change Structure

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This Appendix 3 outlines the governance structure for this Agreement between the two Parties as well as how to handle changes along the development project.

2. DEFINITIONS

- 2.1 Any capitalised terms used but not specifically defined herein shall have the meanings set out for such terms in the Agreement. In addition, the capitalised terms set out below in this Section 2 shall for the purposes of this Appendix have the meanings described herein. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa.

3. GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE

3.1 Procurement

- 3.1.1 The operational level forum for procurement will follow the already established cross functional and agile forums, where procurement is required for the sourcing process. The meetings manage operational issues in the sourcing process and prepares the information to be formally decided in Volvo Cars Supplier Choice Meeting (“SCM”) and Supplier Choice Consensus (“SCC”). Polestar is invited to the established functional forums and meetings as requested and there Polestar will be informed of the overall progress of the sourcing of Polestar Technology including potential deviations from targets. The participants are the Volvo Cars Procurement program manager and Polestar Procurement Manager. Meeting cadence is based on request.
- 3.1.2 The SCM is the forum that decides on sourcing strategies, sourcing decisions and manages disagreements in deviations of program targets. The chairman of the meeting is the Volvo Cars Vice Presidents of Direct Material and participants are Volvo Cars Vice Presidents of Direct Material, Volvo Cars Sourcing Analyst, Volvo Cars Cost Estimate Director and Volvo Cars SQM Program Manager. At the supplier selection for Polestar Technology components, Polestar is responsible to participate in the SCM and is regarded as one of the stakeholders and will have a voice in the SCM. At the supplier selection for common platform components, Polestar is invited to be present in the SCM. The meeting is held weekly.

3.1.3 The SCC is the next level of governance forum for procurement, and it also decides sourcing strategy, sourcing decisions and manages disagreements in deviations of program targets. However, the SCC is only deciding on items escalated by Polestar and items that has decision value of more than []. Sourcing decisions for certain, defined critical, commodities must be finally decided by SCC, after decision in SCM. The chairman of the meeting is Volvo Cars Head of Global Procurement and Volvo Cars Vice Presidents of Procurement, as well as other unit stakeholders depending on agenda. At the supplier selection for Polestar Technology components, Polestar is responsible to participate in the SCC and is regarded as one of the Stakeholders and will have a voice in the SCC.

3.1.4 The next governance level for procurement is the Executive P&Q Steering Committee as described in Section 3.3.

3.2 Manufacturing Engineering & Logistics

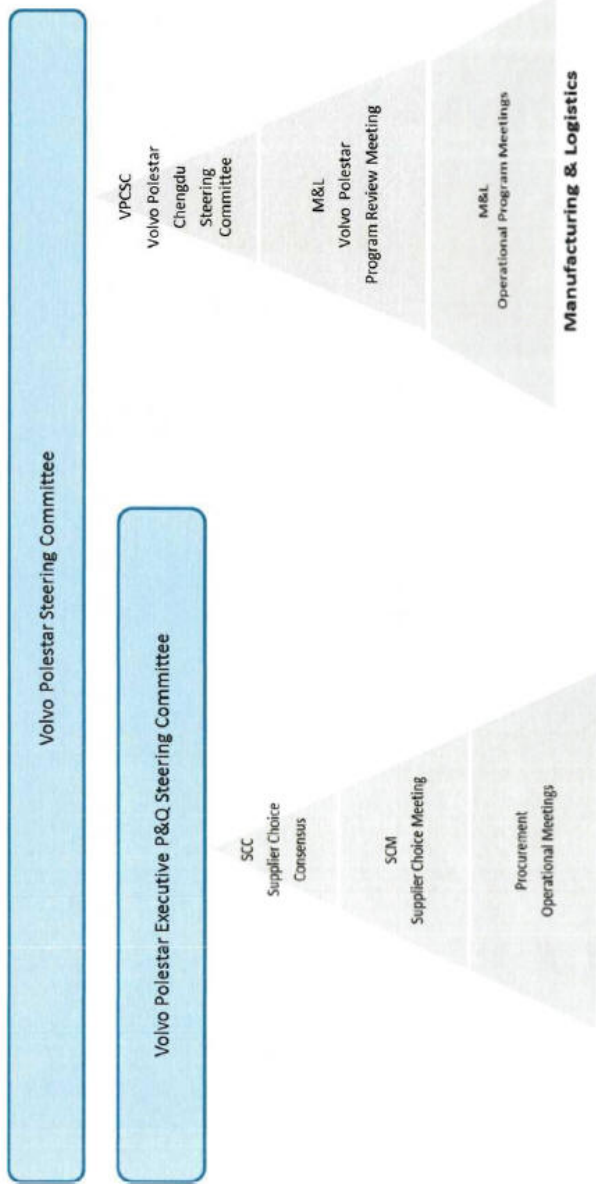

3.2.1 The governance and co-operation for the manufacturing engineering and logistics is to be primarily conducted at M&L Operational Program Meetings between the Parties, but if Polestar objects to decisions made in the M&L Operational Program Meeting issues can be escalated to the Volvo Polestar M&L Program Review Meeting. The Volvo Polestar M&L Program Review Meeting will handle issues where a decision regarding deviations from M&L objectives have to be made. The meeting participants are Volvo Cars Manufacturing Business Office (“MBO”) representative and Volvo Cars plant in Chengdu General Manager and Polestar Manufacturing Business Office and Polestar Finance. The meeting chair is Volvo Cars MBO and the meeting is held quarterly.

3.2.2 The next governance level for Manufacturing Engineering & Logistics is the Volvo Polestar Chengdu Steering Committee (“VPCSC”). The VPCSC is handling escalated topics escalated by Polestar and discuss strategic questions related to production. The participants are Volvo Cars SVP Manufacturing & Logistics and Polestar SVP Manufacturing & Logistics and Polestar Manufacturing Business Office, the meeting is facilitated by Volvo Cars MBO and is held quarterly.

3.3 Joint Governance Level

3.3.1 In the event that Polestar objects to decisions made in the VPCSC and the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for disagreements or disputes handled, the final governance level is the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee. The participants in the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee is Volvo CEO and CFO and Polestar CEO and CFO, as well as other relevant participants from both Parties related to the subjects discussed. The meeting is held monthly or as otherwise agreed, based on escalated items.

- 3.3.2 If the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee cannot settle the disagreement, such deadlock will be referred to the respective CEO and CFO of the two owners of Polestar on the signing date of this Agreement, for deadlock resolution, according to the escalation principles described in the Agreement Section 18.
- 3.3.3 The governance structure between Volvo Cars and Polestar is illustrated in a picture at the end of this appendix.

SIDE LETTER

This side letter ("Side Letter") is entered into on 30 June 2019 and made between:

Volvo Car Corporation, Reg. No. 556074-3089, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden ("Volvo Cars");

Volvo Cars (China) Investment Co., Ltd., Reg. No. 913101145574653825, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China ("Volvo Cars China");

Polestar Performance AB, Reg. No. 556653-3096, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden ("Polestar"); and

Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co. Ltd., Reg. No. 91510100MA6BX1H33P, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China ("Polestar China").

Each of Volvo Cars, Volvo Cars China, Polestar and Polestar China are hereinafter referred to as a "Party" and jointly as the "Parties". Volvo Cars and Volvo Cars China are jointly referred to as the "Volvo Cars Entities" and Polestar and Polestar China are jointly referred to as the "Polestar Entities".

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have entered into four separate license and service agreements for the development of the Polestar Vehicle and related services.
- B. The Parties now wish to clarify in writing the contractual setup and the relationship between the four Agreements, as set out below.
- C. It is also noted that the payments to Volvo Cars under the Agreements may be subject to withholding tax ("WHT") and Polestar Entities shall compensate Volvo Cars as stated in the Side Letter.
- D. Unless otherwise defined in this Side Letter, capitalized terms used herein shall have the meaning ascribed to them in each of the Agreements.

1 CONTRACTUAL SET-UP

1.1 There are four separate agreements that will be signed together with this Side Letter:

- (a) License and Service Agreement between Volvo Cars and Polestar (“License and Service Agreement RoW”),
- (b) License Agreement between Volvo Cars and Polestar China (“License Agreement China”),
- (c) Service Agreement between Volvo Cars and Polestar China (“Service Agreement RoW”),
- (d) Service Agreement between Volvo Cars China and Polestar China (“Service Agreement China”).

The four agreements in Section 1.1(a)-(d) are together referred to as the “Agreements”.

1.2 Even though the Agreements are four separate agreements with different parties, the Parties acknowledge that their intention is that the Agreements actually constitute one and the same agreement.

2 FEE

2.1 []

2.2 The Parties agree that the percentages and amounts set out in Appendix 2 to each of the Agreements referenced in Section 1.1 shall be interpreted in light of the fact that the four Agreements shall actually constitute one and the same agreement. []

2.3 In the light of the foregoing, the Parties agree that the below mentioned Sections in Appendix 2 to the above mentioned Agreements shall be interpreted as follows:

- (a) []
- (b) []
- (c) []
- (d) []

3 SPLIT OF WHT

3.1 []

4 NO SUB-LICENSING BETWEEN THE POLESTAR ENTITIES

4.1 The Parties acknowledge that the rights granted to the Polestar Entities is to some extent sub-licensable to inter alia Polestar Affiliates under the Agreements. It is, however, not the intention of the Parties that the Polestar Entities shall be allowed to sub-license the rights granted under each of the Agreements to each other instead of utilising the rights granted to such Polestar Entity under its own Agreement. In the light of the above, the Polestar Entities shall thus not be allowed to sub-license any of the rights granted under the Agreements between them, but only to other Polestar Affiliates of them as stipulated in each of the Agreements.

5 AMENDMENTS

- 5.1 The Parties agree that, if an amendment is made to one of the Agreements, the Party not being a Party to such amended Agreement agrees to make the corresponding amendment to the Agreement it is a Party to, unless otherwise agreed between the Parties.

6 TERMINATION

- 6.1 A breach of this Side Letter shall be considered a material breach under each of the Agreements.

7 DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 7.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Side Letter, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce. The seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, and the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators. The Parties' intention is that the identical arbitration clauses in each of the Agreements, with the exception of the Service Agreement China, shall function as one and the same arbitration agreement entered into between, on the one hand, Volvo Cars, and, on the other hand, Polestar and Polestar China. Accordingly, the Parties agree that any disputes, controversies or claims arising out of or in connection with the License and Service Agreement RoW, the License Agreement China, the Service Agreement RoW, and/or this Side Letter, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, may upon request by a party to such agreement be consolidated into one arbitration proceeding.

8 MISCELLANEOUS

- 8.1 This Side Letter shall become effective as set forth in the preamble of this Side Letter and shall remain in force until all tax decisions to be made by authorities regarding the Agreements and this Side Letter are final.
- 8.2 This Side Letter is hereby incorporated to, and shall form an integral part of, in relation to the relevant Parties, the relevant Agreements. This Side Letter takes precedence over the Agreements if they are contradictory or ambiguous.

[Signature page follows]

This Side Letter has been signed in four (4) originals, of which the parties have received one (1) each. The Parties acknowledge that this Side Letter shall be binding upon the Parties already upon the signing and exchange of scanned version thereof, including scanned signatures.

SERVICE AGREEMENT

Volvo Cars (China) Investment Co. Ltd.

and

Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co. Ltd.

Manufacturing engineering, logistic and procurement services in China related to Polestar 3 car model

APPENDICES

Appendix 1.1 - Service Specification Manufacturing Engineering and Logistics

Appendix 1.2 - Service Specification Direct Material Procurement

Appendix 2 - Fee

Appendix 3 - Governance and Changes Structure

This SERVICE AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is entered into on 30 June 2019 and made between:

- (1) Volvo Cars (China) Investment Co., Ltd., Reg. No. 913101145574653825, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the People’s Republic of China (“Volvo Cars”); and
- (2) Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co. Ltd., Reg. No. 91510100MA6BX1H33P, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the People’s Republic of China (“Polestar”).

Each of Volvo Cars and Polestar is hereinafter referred to as a “Party” and jointly as the “Parties”.

BACKGROUND

- A. Volvo Cars is an experienced manufacturer of Volvo branded cars. It is understood that Volvo Cars is not normally a service provider.
- B. Polestar is engaged in manufacturing and sale of Polestar branded high-end electric performance cars.
- C. The Parties have agreed that Volvo Cars shall provide services concerning the Polestar Vehicle to Polestar.
- D. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Agreement.

1. DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings assigned to them below. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa.

“Affiliate” means

- (a) for Polestar, any of the below legal entities (other than Polestar) and any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled (individually or jointly) by:
 - (i) Polestar Automotive (Shanghai) Co., Ltd;
 - (ii) Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co., Ltd.;
 - (iii) Polestar Holding AB; or
 - (iv) Polestar Performance AB; and

- (b) for Volvo Cars, Volvo Car Corporation and Volvo Car AB and any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by Volvo Car Corporation and Volvo Car AB, however, for the avoidance of doubt, not Polestar or its Affiliates;

“control” for this purpose meaning ownership or control of at least one-hundred per cent (100%) with regard to Polestar Affiliates, and fifty per cent (50%) with regard to Volvo Cars Affiliates of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest of such legal entity. The Parties, however, agree to renegotiate this definition of “Affiliate” in good faith if it in the future does not reflect the Parties’ intention at the time of signing this Agreement due to a restructuring or reorganisation in relation to either of the Parties.

“Agreement” means this Service Agreement including all of its Appendices as amended from time to time.

“Appendix” means the appendices to this Agreement.

“Background IP” means the Intellectual Property Rights either:

- (a) owned by either of the Parties; or
- (b) created, developed or invented by directors, managers, employees or consultants of either of the Parties to which the Party has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sublicense prior to the execution of this Agreement, and any Intellectual Property Rights developed independently of this Agreement.

“Confidential Information” means any and all information regarding the Parties and their respective businesses, whether commercial or technical, in whatever form or media, including but not limited to information relating to Intellectual Property Rights, concepts, technologies, processes, commercial figures, techniques, strategic plans and budgets, investments, customers and sales, designs, graphics, CAD models, CAE data, statement of works (including engineering statement of works and any specification), targets, test plans/reports, technical performance data and engineering sign-off documents and other information of a sensitive nature, that a Party learns from or about the other Party prior to or after the execution of this Agreement.

“Disclosing Party” means the Party disclosing Confidential Information to the Receiving Party.

“Fee” means the fee to be paid by either Party to the other Party hereunder in accordance with what is set out in Appendix 2 to this Agreement.

“Force Majeure Event” shall have the meaning set out in Section 13.1.1 below.

“Industry Standard” means the exercise of such professionalism, skill, diligence, prudence and foresight which would normally be expected at any given time from a skilled and experienced actor engaged in a similar type of undertaking as under this Agreement.

“Intellectual Property Rights” means Patents, Non-patented IP, Know-How and rights in Confidential Information to the extent protected under applicable laws anywhere in the world. For the avoidance of doubt, Trademarks are not comprised by this definition.

“Know-How” means confidential and proprietary industrial, technical and commercial information and techniques in any form including (without limitation) drawings, formulae, test results, reports, project reports and testing procedures, instruction and training manuals, tables of operating conditions, specifications, component lists, market forecasts, lists and particulars of customers and suppliers.

“Non-patented IP” means copyrights (including rights in computer software), database rights, semiconductor topography rights, rights in designs, and other intellectual property rights (other than Trademarks and Patents) and all rights or forms of protection having equivalent or similar effect anywhere in the world, in each case whether registered or unregistered, and registered includes registrations, applications for registration and renewals whether made before, on or after execution of this Agreement.

“Patent” means any patent, patent application, or utility model, whether filed before, on or after the execution of this Agreement, along with any continuation, continuation-in-part, divisional, re-examined or re-issued patent, foreign counterpart or renewal or extension of any of the foregoing.

“Polestar Vehicle” means the Polestar branded vehicle model Polestar 3.

“Results” shall mean any outcome of the Services provided to Polestar under this Agreement (including but not limited to any IP, technology, patents, designs, software, methods, processes, deliverables, objects, products, documentation, modifications, improvements, and/or amendments to be carried out by Volvo Cars) and any other outcome or result of the Services to be performed by Volvo Cars as described in the relevant Appendix 1.1 and Appendix 1.2, irrespective of whether the performance of the Services has been completed or not.

“Services” means the services provided from Volvo Cars to Polestar as specified in Appendix 1.1 and Appendix 1.2.

“SPA2” means Volvo Cars modular product architecture that enables integration of hybrid electric vehicles and battery electric vehicles in the same vehicle model.

“Territory” means China.

“Third Party” means a party other than any of the Parties and/or an Affiliate of one of the Parties to this Agreement.

“Trademarks” means trademarks (including part numbers that are trademarks), service marks, logos, trade names, business names, assumed names, trade dress and get-up, and domain names, in each case whether registered or unregistered, including all applications, registrations, renewals and the like, in each case to the extent they constitute rights that are enforceable against third parties.

“Use” means to make, have made, use (including in a process, such as use in designing, engineering, testing or assembling products or in their research or development), keep, install, integrate, extract, assemble, reproduce, incorporate, create derivative works of, modify, adapt, improve, enhance, develop, service or repair, including in the case of installation, integration, assembly, service or repair, the right to have a subcontractor of any tier carry out any of these activities on behalf of the Parties in their capacity as a licensee hereunder.

The right to “have made” is the right of the Parties in their capacity as a licensee hereunder, as applicable, to have another person (or their subcontractor of any tier) make for the Parties and does not include the right to grant sub-licenses to another person to make for such person’s own use or use other than for the Parties.

“Volvo IP” means Know-How, Intellectual Property Rights and all other deliverables and/or materials either

- (a) (i) owned by Volvo Cars, or (ii) created, developed or invented by directors, managers, employees or consultants of Volvo Cars (to which Volvo Cars has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sub-license), during or prior to the execution of this Agreement or during the term of the Agreement, or
- (b) licensed by Volvo Cars from any Third Party to which Volvo Cars has the right to grant a sub-license and/or to assign such license to Polestar.

“Way Of Working” means the level of way of working set out in Section 2.2.2 below.

2. SCOPE OF THE AGREEMENT

2.1 General

- 2.1.1 The Parties have agreed that Volvo Cars shall provide to Polestar manufacturing engineering, logistic and procurement services related to the Polestar Vehicle. It is acknowledged that such work will be conducted in accordance with the standards that Volvo Cars is using in its internal projects.
- 2.1.2 The Polestar Vehicle is the first car launched based on the Volvo Cars SPA2. The start of production of SPA 2 and the Polestar Vehicle is planned [] and the pre-requisite for this Agreement is that the Polestar Vehicle will be produced solely in the Volvo Cars Chengdu plant in China. The Polestar Vehicle will be offered with electrified powertrains only. The Polestar Vehicle is a new top-hat, but has a high degree of shared systems with Volvo Cars vehicles.
- 2.1.3 Polestar wishes to obtain such services in relation to the Polestar Vehicle.
- 2.1.4 Upon Polestar's request, the Parties have agreed that the Fee shall be a fixed price. Polestar will pay the fixed price irrespectively of their actual usage of the Services.
- 2.1.5 The Appendices shall be considered an integral part of this Agreement and any reference to the Agreement shall include the Appendices.
- 2.1.6 In the event there are any contradictions or inconsistencies between the terms of this Agreement and the appendices hereto, the Parties agree that they shall prevail over each other in the following order if not specifically stated otherwise in such document or the context or circumstances clearly suggest otherwise:
- (a) this Agreement;
 - (b) Appendix 1.1—Service Specification Manufacturing Engineering and Logistics and Appendix 1.2—Service Specification Direct Material Procurement;
 - (c) Appendix 2—Governance and Changes Structure;
 - (d) Appendix 3—Fee.

2.2 Way of Working

- 2.2.1 Before entering into this Agreement, Polestar has been informed about the service processes and procedures that Volvo Cars is applying for its internal work and which Volvo Cars will be using for the Services under this Agreement.

- 2.2.2 Under this Agreement, Volvo Cars shall use professional, appropriate, qualified and skilled personnel, and shall ensure that its personnel have been properly educated and trained for the work to be performed, including being fully acquainted with Polestar's specific requirements. Volvo Cars shall avoid unnecessary changes in the personnel engaged in performing its undertakings under this Agreement. Volvo Cars shall work according to the same standard of care and professionalism that is done in Volvo Cars' internal projects. Such standard of care and professionalism, as well as Volvo Cars' performance of its undertakings under this Agreement, shall however at all times correspond to Industry Standard. If Volvo Cars uses its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform its responsibilities under this Agreement, the same way of working shall apply as if such performance was made by Volvo Cars itself.
- 2.2.3 Volvo Cars shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its responsibilities under this Agreement. Furthermore, Volvo Cars undertakes to ensure that the Services will not be given lower priority than other Volvo Cars internal similar projects.
- 2.2.4 Polestar shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its responsibilities under this Agreement and in particular provide Volvo Cars timely with necessary instructions and decisions requested by Volvo Cars, as required for Polestar to fulfil its responsibilities under this Agreement. Furthermore, Polestar shall use professional and skilled personal for the responsibilities to be performed.

3. SERVICES

Volvo Cars undertakes to provide to Polestar manufacturing engineering, logistic and procurement services, jointly referred to as Services. The rights and obligations for providing the Services are covered under this Section 3.

3.1 Provision of services

3.1.1 Specification of Services

- 3.1.1.1 The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification of the Services provided under this Agreement in Appendix 1.1 and Appendix 1.2. The Services shall be provided for the Territory. The costs for the Services have been calculated and set based on i.a. costs and timing as set out in the Appendix 1.1 and Appendix 1.2.

3.1.2 Making available the Results

- 3.1.2.1 Volvo Cars shall make the Results (or if not finalised, any part of the Results that has been finalised) available to Polestar within the timeframes specified in Appendix 1.1 and Appendix 1.2, but under all circumstances promptly after any part of the Results has been finalised.

3.1.3 Subcontractors

3.1.3.1 The Parties acknowledge that Volvo Cars may use its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Agreement, provided that Volvo Cars informs Polestar thereof.

3.1.3.2 Volvo Cars shall however remain responsible for the performance, and any omission to perform or comply with the provisions in this Section 3, by any Affiliate to Volvo Cars and/or any subcontractor to the same extent as if such performance or omission was made by Volvo Cars itself. Volvo Cars shall also remain Polestar's sole point of contact unless otherwise agreed.

3.2 Service Requirements

3.2.1 All Services shall be performed in accordance with the requirements set forth in this Agreement, including Appendix 1.1 and Appendix 1.2.

3.2.2 Polestar shall provide Volvo Cars with instructions as reasonably required for Volvo Cars to be able to carry out the Services. Volvo Cars must continuously inform Polestar of any needs of additional instructions or specifications required to perform the Services.

3.3 Intellectual Property Rights

3.3.1 Ownership of existing Intellectual Property Rights.

3.3.1.1 Each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of (i) any Background IP and other Intellectual Property Rights owned prior to the execution of the Services under this Agreement, (ii) any Intellectual Property Rights developed independently of the Services in this Section 3, and (iii) any Intellectual Property Rights which are modifications, amendments or derivatives of any Intellectual Property Rights already owned by such Party.

3.3.1.2 Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to constitute an assignment of, or license to use, any Trademarks of the other Party.

3.3.2 Ownership of Results.

3.3.2.1 In the event any Results are created as a result of the Services provided by Volvo Cars (or if applicable, any of its appointed Affiliates or subcontractors) under this Agreement, the Parties agree that Volvo Cars shall be the exclusive owner of such Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof. Hence, all Results shall automatically upon their creation stay with Volvo Cars. Volvo Cars shall further have the right to transfer, sublicense, modify and otherwise freely dispose of the Results.

3.4 License grant

- 3.4.1 Volvo Cars hereby grants to Polestar a non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any IP or Background IP included in the license described hereunder)) and non-assignable license to, within the Territory:
- (a) Use, in whole or in part, the Results;
 - (b) if applicable, Use any Background IP embedded in or otherwise used in the development of the Results to the extent such license is necessary or reasonably necessary to make Use of the license granted to the Results; and
 - (c) design, engineer, Use, make and have made, repair, service, market, sell and make available products and/or services based on, incorporating or using the Results and any Background IP referred to in (a) and (b) above, in whole or in part.
- 3.4.2 The license granted to Polestar in accordance with Section 3.4.1 shall be fully sublicensable to Polestar's Affiliates, but shall not be sub-licensable to any Third Party without prior written consent from Volvo Cars, which shall not be unreasonably withheld (whereby a sublicense/license to a Third Party which is a competitor of Volvo Cars is an example of what could be deemed unreasonable) or delayed. For the avoidance of doubt, Volvo Cars shall be free to Use and to grant licenses to the Results and any Background IP to Volvo Cars' Affiliates and any Third Parties without prior written consent from Polestar.
- 3.4.3 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement shall be construed as to give the other Party any rights, including but not limited to any license rights (express or implied), to any Background IP, except as expressly stated herein.

3.5 Polestar brand name

- 3.5.1 For sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Agreement does not include any right to use the "Polestar" brand name or Trademarks, or refer to "Polestar" in communications or official documents of whatever kind.
- 3.5.2 This means that this Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Polestar" brand name or "Polestar" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

3.6 Volvo brand name

3.6.1 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Agreement does not include any right to use the “Volvo” brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to “Volvo” in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the “Volvo” Trademarks as well as the “Volvo” name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the “Volvo” Trademarks is subject to a license agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related Intellectual Property Rights can only be used by Volvo Car Corporation and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.

3.6.2 This means that this Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the “Volvo” brand name or “Volvo” Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

4. FEE, PAYMENT TERMS4.1 Fee

4.1.1 In consideration of the Services provided hereunder and the Parties’ performance of their respective obligations under this Agreement, each Party agrees to pay to the other Party the Fee under the payments terms as described in Appendix 2.

5. AUDITS

5.1.1 During the term of this Agreement, Polestar shall have the right to, upon reasonable notice in writing to Volvo Cars, inspect Volvo Cars’ books and records related to the Services and the premises where the work to finalise the Services is carried out, in order to conduct quality controls and otherwise verify the statements rendered in this Agreement.

5.1.2 Audits shall be made during regular business hours and be conducted by Polestar or by an independent auditor appointed by Polestar. Should Polestar during any inspection find that Services do not fulfil the requirements set forth herein, Polestar is entitled to comment on the identified deviations. Volvo Cars shall, upon notice from Polestar, take the actions required in order to fulfil the requirements. In the event the Parties cannot agree upon measures to be taken in respect of the audit, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to relevant governance forum on high governance level.

6. DELAYS ETC.6.1 Delay

6.1.1 In the event Volvo Cars risks not to meet an agreed deadline or is otherwise in delay with the performance of the Services, Volvo Cars shall appoint additional resources in order to avoid the effects of the anticipated delay or the delay (as the case may be). Related costs shall be included in the Fee.

6.2 Effects of Polestar's actions

- 6.2.1 Notwithstanding what is set out above in this Section 6, Polestar shall be responsible for costs relating to delays which are due to Polestar's non-fulfillment of any of its obligations under this Agreement. Further, any such delays which are due to Polestar shall give a corresponding extension of time to Volvo Cars for meeting any time plan.

7. WARRANTIES7.1 General warranties

Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:

- (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;
- (b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;
- (c) the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement have been duly authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate any laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and
- (d) this Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

8. INDEMNIFICATION8.1 General

- 8.1.1 The Parties acknowledge that all Services are provided to Polestar on an "as is" basis, without any warranties or representations of any kind (except for the warranties in Section 7.1 above), whether implied or express, and in particular any warranties of suitability, merchantability, description, design and fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, completeness, systems integration and accuracy are expressly excluded to the maximum extent permissible by law.

- 8.1.2 In addition, Volvo Cars does not make any warranties or representations as regards the functionality of any Volvo Cars' Background IP in relation to the Polestar Vehicle. Polestar hereby releases Volvo Cars from all liability (and accordingly, cannot claim damages, compensation, price reduction etc.) in respect of errors, defects and deficiencies in any Volvo Cars' Background IP of whatever kind, whether visible or latent, including but not limited to errors of fact or law, errors regarding right of disposition, physical defects and deficiencies and damages arising due to product liability.
- 8.1.3 The principles set out in this Section 8 is reflected in the Fee and the fact that Volvo Cars is not a supplier or consultant of systems or technical solutions, but merely a car manufacturer which normally only develops technical solutions for its own business purposes.
- 8.1.4 The principles set forth in this Section 8 are exclusive. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing in this Section 8, the Parties agree that no other remedy whatsoever under any statute, law or legal principle shall be available to Polestar in relation to the licenses and/or work to be granted and/or performed by Volvo Cars hereunder.

8.2 Polestar's indemnification

- 8.2.1 Polestar shall indemnify and hold harmless Volvo Cars and each of its Affiliates from and against any and all direct or indirect losses, liabilities, damages, costs, expenses (including all interest, penalties, reasonable legal and other professional fees, costs and expenses), actions, charges, fines, claims and proceedings, arising out of or in connection with Polestar's use of any Volvo Cars' Background IP, including but not limited to any Third Party claims on Intellectual Property Rights infringement.
- 8.2.2 Polestar shall indemnify and hold harmless Volvo Cars and each of its Affiliates from and against any and all direct or indirect losses, liabilities, damages, costs, expenses (including all interest, penalties, reasonable legal and other professional fees, costs and expenses), actions, charges, fines, claims and proceedings sustained by any of them, arising from any Third Party with respect to the death or injury to any person, or damage to property, by whomsoever suffered, resulting or claimed to have resulted from any fault or defect in the Polestar Vehicle or Other Polestar Branded Vehicles.
- 8.2.3 Volvo Cars shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to Polestar's use of any Volvo Cars' Background IP from Volvo Cars, or a claim which may reasonably be indemnifiable pursuant to Section 8.2.2 above notify Polestar of such claim in writing and Polestar shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the Third Party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. Polestar shall at all times keep Volvo Cars informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with Volvo Cars on appropriate actions to take. If Polestar fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend Volvo Cars within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, Volvo Cars shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/or over any settlement negotiation at Polestar's cost. Any settlement proposed by Polestar on its own account must take account of potential implications for Volvo Cars and shall therefore be agreed in writing with Volvo Cars before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

9. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 9.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Agreement.
- 9.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with this Agreement shall be limited to ten (10) percent of the Fee payable by Polestar to Volvo Cars under this Agreement.
- 9.3 The limitations of liability set out in this Section 9 shall not apply in respect of damage;
- (a) caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence, or
 - (b) caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 11 below.

10. GOVERNANCE

10.1 Governance

- 10.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Agreement, including its Appendices as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Agreement.
- 10.1.2 The Parties agree that governance in respect of this Agreement shall be handled in accordance with what is set out in the Governance and Change Structure in Appendix 3.
- 10.1.3 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event that the Parties on an operational level cannot agree, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue in accordance with what is set forth in the Governance and Changes Structure in Appendix 3 to this Agreement. In the event that the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and the procedure set forth in Section 15 shall apply.

11. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 11.1 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes set forth in this Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 11.1 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or sub-contractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:
- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
 - (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
 - (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
 - (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;
 - (e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and make use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or
 - (f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.
- 11.2 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 11.
- 11.3 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within thirty (30) days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as "Confidential", "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.

- 11.4 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 11, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section 15.2 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 11.5 This Section 11 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement without limitation in time.

12. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 12.1 This Agreement shall become effective as set forth in the preamble to this Agreement and shall remain in force during the performance of the Services and the validity of the license period of the license granted to Polestar under this Agreement, unless terminated in accordance with Section 12.2 below.
- 12.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect in the event;
- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Agreement, which has not been remedied within sixty (60) days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied);
 - (b) the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors; or
- 12.3 For avoidance of doubt, either Party not paying the Fee, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, shall be considered a material breach for the purpose of this Agreement.
- 12.4 Polestar shall in addition be entitled to cancel the Services performed by Volvo Cars for convenience upon 90 days written notice to Volvo Cars.
- 12.5 In the event Polestar cancels the Services in accordance with Section 12.4 above, Volvo Cars shall, in addition to the Fee, include any other reasonable proven costs Volvo Cars has incurred until the effective date of the cancellation.

13. MISCELLANEOUS

13.1 Force majeure

13.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under this Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A “Force Majeure Event” means any event beyond a Party’s reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party’s), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors.

13.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under this Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its non-performance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

13.2 Notices

13.2.1 All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:

- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
- (b) if sent by email transmission, at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
- (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
- (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any Party by email, such Party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods.

13.2.2 All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be sent to following addresses:

13.3 Assignment

13.3.1 Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.

13.3.2 Notwithstanding the above, each Party may assign this Agreement to an Affiliate without the prior written consent of the other Party.

13.4 Waiver

Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Agreement or failure to notify the infringing Party of a breach in connection with the Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.

13.5 Severability

In the event any provision of this Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.

13.6 Entire agreement

All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Agreement are superseded by this Agreement.

13.7 Amendments

Any amendment or addition to this Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.

13.8 Survival

13.8.1 If this Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 12 above, , Section 11 (Confidential Information), Section 14 (Governing Law), Section 15 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 13.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.

14. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of China without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

15. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

15.1 Escalation principles

- 15.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes in the governance forum Volvo Polestar Executive P&Q Steering Committee, described in Appendix 3, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and any of the Parties can notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice as set forth in Section 13.2.2 above and this Section. In such deadlock notice the reasons and preferred solution for the deadlock situation shall be stated. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten (10) days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement in accordance with what it set forth this Section 15.1. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.
- 15.1.2 The members of the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall ensure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 15.1.3 If the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within thirty (30) days from the deadlock notice, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the respective CEO and CFO of the two owners of Polestar on the signing date of this Agreement for decision. Should the matter not have been resolved by the respective CEO and CFO of the two owners of Polestar on the signing date of this Agreement within thirty (30) days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 15.2 below.
- 15.1.4 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 11 above.
- 15.1.5 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 15.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the respective CEO and CFO of the two owners of Polestar on the signing date of this Agreement in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate Arbitration
- 15.1.6 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall be submitted to China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Committee (“CIETAC”) for arbitration, which shall be held in Shanghai and conducted in accordance with the CIETAC’s arbitration rules in effect at the time of applying for arbitration, whereas the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English and Chinese

- 15.1.7 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 15.1.8 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 15.1.9 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

This Agreement has been signed in two (2) originals, of which the parties have received one (1) each. The Parties acknowledge that this Agreement shall be binding upon the Parties already upon the signing and exchange of scanned version thereof, including scanned signatures.

Appendix 1.2
Service Specification
Direct Material Procurement

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This Service Specification sets out the scope and the specification of the activities that shall be performed by Volvo Cars Procurement under the Agreement and the division of responsibilities between the Parties.

2. DEFINITIONS

2.1 Any capitalised terms used but not specifically defined herein shall have the meanings set out for such terms in the Agreement. In addition, the capitalised terms set out below in this Section 2 shall for the purposes of this Service Specification have the meanings described herein. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa.

“Procurement” - Involves both commercial purchasing and quality assurance of suppliers and their products and services.

“Direct Material Procurement” - Purchasing and quality assurance from and of Suppliers of car component tooling, car components, vehicle software and related development activities.

“Indirect Procurement” - Purchasing of Non-Production Material, Services and IT.

“SQM” means Supplier Quality Management, function within Direct Procurement that quality assures suppliers and the car components that they supply to Volvo Cars.

3. GENERAL DESCRIPTION

3.1 The Parties have agreed that Volvo Cars will be the service provider of Direct Procurement activities to source and quality assure suppliers and their products to the Polestar Vehicle. The overall objective for Volvo Cars is to source the best suppliers at a competitive cost level, in a timely manner and based on Volvo Cars standards.

3.2 The services of Indirect Procurement are not included in this Agreement, and will be subject to a separate agreement.

3.3 The principles for common vendor tooling are not included in this Agreement, and will be subject to a separate agreement.

3.4 The Direct Material Procurement services cover:

- Polestar Technology (Category 1) components
- PS Unique Volvo Technology (Category 2) components
- Volvo Technology (Category 3A and 4) components
- Common Polestar Technology (Category 3B) components

4. ASSUMPTIONS/PRE-REQUISITES

- 4.1 The Procurement services will be carried out according to and within Volvo Cars existing sourcing process and approval levels. Volvo Cars Procurement will follow the already established functional forums, where Procurement is required for the sourcing process. Sourcing Strategy (bidders list) and Sourcing Decision (final supplier) will be approved in Volvo Cars Supplier Choice Meeting (“SCM”) and Supplier Choice Consensus (“SCC”). The sourcing decisions will be made in SCM and SCC. The governance procedure is described in Appendix 4.
- 4.2 At the supplier selection for Polestar Technology components, Polestar is responsible to participate in the SCM and is regarded as one of the Stakeholders and will have a voice in the SCM. At the supplier selection for common platform components, Polestar is invited to be present in the SCM.
- 4.3 Volvo Cars Procurement requires all Engineering Statement of Work (“ESOW”) to be agreed and signed-off between Volvo Cars and Polestar R&D before Sourcing is commenced.
- 4.4 Sourcing decisions will be based on multiple parameters such as quality, technical capability, sustainability, strategic consideration, and price. All price calculations are based on landed cost.
- 4.5 To adhere to Volvo Cars standards, the Volvo Cars Purchasing Terms & Conditions will be used towards the suppliers at sourcing and contract signing. Volvo Cars plants payment terms: 60 days + free delivery months and 75 days net for export/import between EU and China. Volvo Cars delivery terms: FCA.
- 4.6 “Arm’s length principle” will be applied, meaning that information shared with Polestar about for instance Volvo Cars supplier strategies and agreements will be based on “need-to-know” basis only. Volvo Cars will not share benchmark data without the consent of the Supplier.
- 4.7 Volvo Cars will use its own standard agreements for sourcing Volvo Technology parts, but will not commit to volume on behalf of Polestar.
- 4.8 Volvo Cars Procurement functions will work in their normal line organisation while providing this service to Polestar, and may work with other projects in parallel.

5. DESCRIPTION OF THE SERVICE ACTIVITIES

- 5.1 The service will be provided in three main phases:
1. Strategic - strategic alignment for Polestar Vehicle. Volvo Cars Procurement is responsible to lead the overall strategic work including CBP, Design to Profitability (“DtP”) and benchmarking and will align the strategy and the targets with Polestar.
 2. Sourcing - Volvo Cars Procurement will lead the sourcing including team set-up, planning, execution, negotiation, contract, including performing needed supplier quality assessments.
 3. Industrialization - Volvo Cars Procurement will lead the industrialization including, risk assessment, PPAP and capacity verification.
- 5.2 The service deliveries will be the following:
- Sourcing work including cost estimates and capacity leading up to a Sourcing Strategy and Sourcing Decision in SCM/SCC.
 - Prepare Supplier contracts and Contracted Weekly Capacity (“CWC”) (to be signed by Polestar).

- Place build, tool, prototype, engineering and production orders (blanket) and price updates. Ordering will be done in SI +/SAP with Polestar order template when Polestar owned tool orders. For Volvo Cars Procurement to be able to place orders in SI+, Polestar unique suppliers need to be registered and included in supplier base system VSM/Parma. Polestar orders will be approved in SI+ according to Volvo Delegation of Authority.
- PSW/PPAP per part number, approved by Volvo Site SQM including Verified Weekly Capacity.
- Okm Supplier quality assurance up to Start of Production + 90 days.

5.3 Volvo Cars Procurement will perform procurement deliveries through the following functions and their activities:

- Program management/PAM - Scope and plan the sourcing activities and drive that tasks are met timely, both for Polestar Technology and platform related parts and carline Capacity Increase Requests ("CIR").
- Capacity and volume pre-requisites team - Provide, via SP-tool, volume pre-requisites for the buyers RFQ and Contracted Weekly Capacity to the SQM supplier capacity verification
- Hardware, Software and Propulsion Buyers - Perform supplier evaluation (SEM), lead the sourcing, negotiation, supplier selection and contract signing including ordering.
- Cost estimator - Perform cost estimates based on LCE and OCE and communicate with the Buyer.
- Forward Sourcing Buyer - Manage sourcing process and analysis in sourcing system VGS
- SQM - Perform supplier evaluations (MSA), PPAP and verify supplier capacity.
- Resident SQM - Plant situated SQM, will secure supplier quality at launch and 0 km supplier quality assurance.

In addition Volvo Cars Procurement will provide all management and business support needed to support the different functions and processes with decisions and business analysis to support these decisions.

5.4 Cost Targets

Cost targets per component and for tooling for Polestar Technology will be set based on program affordable defined by project management prior to sourcing. Polestar has stated the affordable material cost target and total amount for tooling for the Polestar Vehicle. Deviations from set cost targets for Polestar Technology components will be aligned in operational program meetings and then agreed in SCM/SCC, including participation from Polestar. In the event a deviation cannot be agreed in SCM/SCC, the issue will be escalated according to the governance process described in Appendix 3. Cost target for common components will follow the already established Volvo Cars internal process.

- Eventual year-over-year cost reductions (LTA's) for Polestar Technology components will be handled based on case-by-case potential and according to supplier strategies or based on agreement with Polestar.
- Volvo Cars Procurement will keep Polestar informed of the overall progress of the sourcing including potential deviations from targets in operational program meetings.

6. POLESTARS RESPONSIBILITIES

6.1 Polestar must provide an overall high-level volume plan as well as a detailed volume plan in front of sourcing activities. The detailed volume plan must include complete information at a level that enables sourcing at component level, with specification of take-rates and variants.

6.2 Polestar is responsible to participate in SCM and SCC meetings for Polestar Technology components. If Polestar can not to participate, the decisions cannot be made by Volvo Cars in SCM and SCC, unless prior approval has been given by Polestar. Polestar may be invited to be present in Supplier Choice meetings for Volvo Technology components.

6.3 Polestar is responsible to provide approved overall funding of tooling investments for Polestar Technology tooling and agreed cost targets in front of negotiations with suppliers.

6.4 Polestar will abide to Volvo Cars supplier strategies and, with Volvo Cars R&D agreed, Commodity Business Plans (“CBP”).

6.5 Polestar shall sign an agreement based on its Delegation of Authority to commit to volume, as necessary. Polestar will be responsible for its own capacity and volume forecasts.

6.6 Polestar will always be ultimately responsible for the Purchase Orders placed in Polestars name (i.e. payments, volume).

6.7 Only if requested by Volvo Cars will Polestar give input for sourcing of suppliers for Polestar Technology components.

6.8 Only if requested by Volvo Cars will Polestar participate in supplier strategy work for Polestar Technology components.

6.9 Polestar will keep a Power of Attorney updated and available for each of Volvo Cars legal entities to act on Polestars behalf. The purpose is to avoid any confusion towards suppliers and clarify that Volvo Cars has the authority to deliver the direct material procurement for Polestar.

6.10 Polestar will need to sign all agreements according to Polestar Delegation of Authority. Volvo Cars will use Polestar templates when acting on Polestars behalf.

Appendix 3
Governance and Change Structure

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This Appendix 3 outlines the governance structure for this Agreement between the two Parties as well as how to handle changes along the development project.

2. DEFINITIONS

- 2.1 Any capitalised terms used but not specifically defined herein shall have the meanings set out for such terms in the Agreement. In addition, the capitalised terms set out below in this Section 2 shall for the purposes of this Appendix have the meanings described herein. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa.

3. GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE

3.1 Procurement

- 3.1.1 The operational level forum for procurement will follow the already established crossfunctional and agile forums, where procurement is required for the sourcing process. The meetings manage operational issues in the sourcing process and prepares the information to be formally decided in Volvo Cars Supplier Choice Meeting (“SCM”) and Supplier Choice Consensus (“SCC”). Polestar is invited to the established functional forums and meetings as requested and there Polestar will be informed of the overall progress of the sourcing of Polestar Technology including potential deviations from targets. The participants are the Volvo Cars Procurement program manager and Polestar Procurement Manager. Meeting cadence is based on request.
- 3.1.2 The SCM is the forum that decides on sourcing strategies, sourcing decisions and manages disagreements in deviations of program targets. The chairman of the meeting is the Volvo Cars Vice Presidents of Direct Material and participants are Volvo Cars Vice Presidents of Direct Material, Volvo Cars Sourcing Analyst, Volvo Cars Cost Estimate Director and Volvo Cars SQM Program Manager. At the supplier selection for Polestar Technology components, Polestar is responsible to participate in the SCM and is regarded as one of the stakeholders and will have a voice in the SCM. At the supplier selection for common platform components, Polestar is invited to be present in the SCM. The meeting is held weekly.

- 3.1.3 The SCC is the next level of governance forum for procurement, and it also decides sourcing strategy, sourcing decisions and manages disagreements in deviations of program targets. However, the SCC is only deciding on items escalated by Polestar and items that has decision value of more than []. Sourcing decisions for certain, defined critical, commodities must be finally decided by SCC, after decision in SCM. The chairman of the meeting is Volvo Cars Head of Global Procurement and Volvo Cars Vice Presidents of Procurement, as well as other unit stakeholders depending on agenda. At the supplier selection for Polestar Technology components, Polestar is responsible to participate in the SCC and is regarded as one of the Stakeholders and will have a voice in the SCC.
- 3.1.4 The next governance level for procurement is the Executive P&Q Steering Committee as described in Section 3.3.
- 3.2 Manufacturing Engineering & Logistics
- 3.2.1 The governance and co-operation for the manufacturing engineering and logistics is to be primarily conducted at M&L Operational Program Meetings between the Parties, but if Polestar objects to decisions made in the M&L Operational Program Meeting issues can be escalated to the Volvo Polestar M&L Program Review Meeting. The Volvo Polestar M&L Program Review Meeting will handle issues where a decision regarding deviations from M&L objectives have to be made. The meeting participants are Volvo Cars Manufacturing Business Office (“MBO”) representative and Volvo Cars plant in Chengdu General Manager and Polestar Manufacturing Business Office and Polestar Finance. The meeting chair is Volvo Cars MBO and the meeting is held quarterly.
- 3.2.2 The next governance level for Manufacturing Engineering & Logistics is the Volvo Polestar Chengdu Steering Committee (“VPCSC”). The VPCSC is handling escalated topics escalated by Polestar and discuss strategic questions related to production. The participants are Volvo Cars SVP Manufacturing & Logistics and Polestar SVP Manufacturing & Logistics and Polestar Manufacturing Business Office, the meeting is facilitated by Volvo Cars MBO and is held quarterly.
- 3.3 Joint Governance Level
- 3.3.1 In the event that Polestar objects to decisions made in the VPCSC and the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for disagreements or disputes handled, the final governance level is the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee. The participants in the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee is Volvo CEO and CFO and Polestar CEO and CFO, as well as other relevant participants from both Parties related to the subjects discussed. The meeting is held monthly or as otherwise agreed, based on escalated items.
- 3.3.2 If the Volvo Polestar Steering Committee cannot settle the disagreement, such deadlock will be referred to the respective CEO and CFO of the two owners of Polestar on the signing date of this Agreement, for deadlock resolution, according to the escalation principles described in the Agreement Section 18.

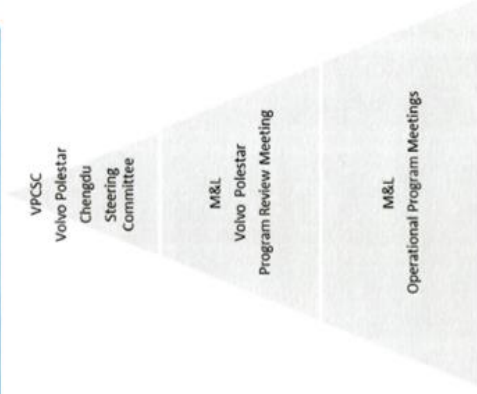

3.3.3 The governance structure between Volvo Cars and Polestar is illustrated in a picture at the end of this appendix.

AMENDMENT AGREEMENT

This Amendment Agreement to the Service Agreement ("Amendment") is between Volvo Cars (China) Investment Co. Ltd., Reg. No. 913101145574653825, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of China ("Volvo Cars") and Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co. Ltd., 91510100MA6BX1H33P a corporation organized and existing under the laws of China ("Polestar").

Each of Volvo Cars and Polestar is hereinafter referred to as a "Party" and jointly as the "Parties".

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have entered into a Service Agreement regarding manufacturing engineering, logistic and procurement services in China related to Polestar 3 car model on 30 June 2019 (the "Agreement").
- B. The Parties now wish to amend the Agreement to the extent set out below.
- C. Now, therefore, the Parties agree as follows:

1 SCOPE OF AMENDMENT

- 1.1 The Agreement will be deemed amended to the extent herein provided and will, except as specifically amended, continue in full force and effect in accordance with its original terms. In case of any discrepancy between the provisions of this Amendment and the Agreement, the provisions of this Amendment shall prevail. Any definitions used in this Amendment shall, unless otherwise is stated herein, have the respective meanings set forth in the Agreement.
- 1.2 The amendments to the provisions in the Agreement as stated in Section 2 below, such provisions highlighted for ease of reference in bold italics, shall come into force on the date this Amendment is signed by the last Party to sign it (as indicated by the date associated with that Party's signature).

2 AMENDMENTS

- 2.1 The Parties acknowledge, and Volvo Cars hereby informs Polestar in accordance with Section 3.1.3.1 of the Agreement, that Volvo Cars Affiliates Volvo Car (Asia Pacific) Investment Holding Co. Ltd., Volvo Cars Technology (Shanghai) Co. Ltd. and Zhongjia Automobile Manufacturing (Chengdu) Co. Ltd. will perform the Services under the Agreement and that Polestar shall pay the Fees to these three Affiliates. In light of the foregoing, the following amendments to the Agreement shall be made:

- 2.2 Section 4.1.1 of the Agreement shall be amended and restated in its entirety as follows:

In consideration of the Services provided hereunder and the Parties' performance of their respective obligations under this Agreement, each Party agrees to pay to the other Party or its Affiliates the Fee under the payments terms as described in Appendix 2.

2.3 Appendix 2 to the Agreement shall be replaced its entirety by Appendix 2 attached to this Amendment.

3 GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 3.1 This Amendment is and should be regarded and interpreted as an amendment to the Agreement. The validity of this Amendment is therefore dependent upon the validity of the Agreement.
- 3.2 No amendment of this Amendment will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by both Parties. A waiver of any default is not a waiver of any later default and will not affect the validity of this Amendment.
- 3.3 Sections 14 and 15 of the Agreement shall apply to this Amendment as well.
- 3.4 The Parties acknowledge that this Agreement shall be binding upon the Parties already upon the signing and exchange of scanned versions thereof, including scanned signatures.

SIDE LETTER

This side letter ("Side Letter") is entered into on 30 June 2019 and made between:

Volvo Car Corporation, Reg. No. 556074-3089, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden ("Volvo Cars");

Volvo Cars (China) Investment Co., Ltd., Reg. No. 913101145574653825, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China ("Volvo Cars China");

Polestar Performance AB, Reg. No. 556653-3096, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden ("Polestar"); and

Polestar New Energy Vehicle Co. Ltd., Reg. No. 91510100MA6BX1H33P, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China ("Polestar China").

Each of Volvo Cars, Volvo Cars China, Polestar and Polestar China are hereinafter referred to as a "Party" and jointly as the "Parties". Volvo Cars and Volvo Cars China are jointly referred to as the "Volvo Cars Entities" and Polestar and Polestar China are jointly referred to as the "Polestar Entities".

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have entered into four separate license and service agreements for the development of the Polestar Vehicle and related services.
- B. The Parties now wish to clarify in writing the contractual setup and the relationship between the four Agreements, as set out below.
- C. It is also noted that the payments to Volvo Cars under the Agreements may be subject to withholding tax ("WHT") and Polestar Entities shall compensate Volvo Cars as stated in the Side Letter.
- D. Unless otherwise defined in this Side Letter, capitalized terms used herein shall have the meaning ascribed to them in each of the Agreements.

1 CONTRACTUAL SET-UP

1.1 There are four separate agreements that will be signed together with this Side Letter:

- (a) License and Service Agreement between Volvo Cars and Polestar (“License and Service Agreement RoW”),
- (b) License Agreement between Volvo Cars and Polestar China (“License Agreement China”),
- (c) Service Agreement between Volvo Cars and Polestar China (“Service Agreement RoW”),
- (d) Service Agreement between Volvo Cars China and Polestar China (“Service Agreement China”).

The four agreements in Section 1.1(a)-(d) are together referred to as the “Agreements”.

1.2 Even though the Agreements are four separate agreements with different parties, the Parties acknowledge that their intention is that the Agreements actually constitute one and the same agreement.

2 FEE

2.1 []

2.2 The Parties agree that the percentages and amounts set out in Appendix 2 to each of the Agreements referenced in Section 1.1 shall be interpreted in light of the fact that the four Agreements shall actually constitute one and the same agreement. []

2.3 In the light of the foregoing, the Parties agree that the below mentioned Sections in Appendix 2 to the above mentioned Agreements shall be interpreted as follows:

- (a) []
- (b) []
- (c) []
- (d) []

3 SPLIT OF WHT

3.1 []

4 NO SUB-LICENSING BETWEEN THE POLESTAR ENTITIES

4.1 The Parties acknowledge that the rights granted to the Polestar Entities is to some extent sub-licensable to inter alia Polestar Affiliates under the Agreements. It is, however, not the intention of the Parties that the Polestar Entities shall be allowed to sub-license the rights granted under each of the Agreements to each other instead of utilising the rights granted to such Polestar Entity under its own Agreement. In the light of the above, the Polestar Entities shall thus not be allowed to sub-license any of the rights granted under the Agreements between them, but only to other Polestar Affiliates of them as stipulated in each of the Agreements.

5 AMENDMENTS

- 5.1 The Parties agree that, if an amendment is made to one of the Agreements, the Party not being a Party to such amended Agreement agrees to make the corresponding amendment to the Agreement it is a Party to, unless otherwise agreed between the Parties.

6 TERMINATION

- 6.1 A breach of this Side Letter shall be considered a material breach under each of the Agreements.

7 DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 7.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Side Letter, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce. The seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, and the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators. The Parties' intention is that the identical arbitration clauses in each of the Agreements, with the exception of the Service Agreement China, shall function as one and the same arbitration agreement entered into between, on the one hand, Volvo Cars, and, on the other hand, Polestar and Polestar China. Accordingly, the Parties agree that any disputes, controversies or claims arising out of or in connection with the License and Service Agreement RoW, the License Agreement China, the Service Agreement RoW, and/or this Side Letter, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, may upon request by a party to such agreement be consolidated into one arbitration proceeding.

8 MISCELLANEOUS

- 8.1 This Side Letter shall become effective as set forth in the preamble of this Side Letter and shall remain in force until all tax decisions to be made by authorities regarding the Agreements and this Side Letter are final.
- 8.2 This Side Letter is hereby incorporated to, and shall form an integral part of, in relation to the relevant Parties, the relevant Agreements. This Side Letter takes precedence over the Agreements if they are contradictory or ambiguous.

[Signature page follows]

This Side Letter has been signed in four (4) originals, of which the parties have received one (1) each. The Parties acknowledge that this Side Letter shall be binding upon the Parties already upon the signing and exchange of scanned version thereof, including scanned signatures.

SERVICE AGREEMENT MAIN DOCUMENT

Name of Project: Indirect Procurement Services

Short description of activities under this Service Agreement: Indirect Procurement Services for Polestar 3 in Volvo Cars Chengdu plant located in China.

This Service Agreement is between Volvo Cars Technology (Shanghai) Co., Ltd., Reg. No. 91310000568010754K, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of China ("Service Provider"), and Polestar Automotive China Distribution Co. Ltd., Reg. No. 91510112MA6D05KT88, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of China ("Purchaser").

Each of Service Provider and Purchaser is hereinafter referred to as a "Party" and jointly as the "Parties".

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have determined that Service Provider shall provide to Purchaser certain Services (as defined in the General Terms), which are further described in the Service Specification in Appendix 1. The provision of the Services shall be performed in accordance with the terms in this service agreement and its appendices (the "Service Agreement").
- B. Purchaser now wishes to enter into this Service Agreement for the purpose of receiving the Services and Service Provider wishes to provide the Services in accordance with the terms set forth in this Service Agreement.
- C. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Service Agreement.

AGREEMENT

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This Service Agreement consists of this main document (the "Main Document") and its appendices. This Main Document sets out the specific terms in respect of the provision of the Services, whereas Appendix 2 sets out certain general terms and conditions applicable to the Parties' rights, obligations and performance of the Parties' activities hereunder (the "General Terms").
- 1.2 All capitalized terms used, but not specifically defined in this Main Document, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the General Terms.

2. SERVICE SPECIFICATION

- 2.1 The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification for the Services as specified in the Service Specification in Appendix 1.

3. AFFILIATE

3.1 Affiliate shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the following meaning:

“Affiliate” means any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by or is under common control with Volvo Gars Technology (Shanghai) or Polestar Automotive China Distribution and control means the possession, directly or indirectly, by agreement or otherwise, of (i) at least 50% of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest, or (ii) the power (a) to appoint or remove a majority of the board of directors or other governing body of an entity, or (b) to cause the direction of the management of an entity.

4. SERVICE CHARGES

4.1 In consideration of Service Provider’s performance of the Services under this Service Agreement, Purchaser shall to pay to Service Provider the service charges as further described below (the “Service Charges”).

4.2 The Service Charges for the Services will be based on the actual hours required for the Services to be performed by Service Provider as set forth in the Service Specification in Appendix 1 and the hourly rates as set forth in Appendix 3. The Parties acknowledge that the estimated Service Charges set forth in the Service Specification in Appendix 1, are based on an estimation of the amount of hours required for the performance of the Services and that this estimation may differ from the final actual number of hours charged by Service Provider. Hence, the Service Charges will ultimately be invoiced based on actual hours, not on estimated hours.

4.3 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency: CNY.

4.4 The hourly rates that are used to calculate the Service Charges shall be determined by Service Provider on an annual basis in compliance with applicable tax legislation, including but not limited to the principle of “arm’s length distance” between the Parties. The hourly rates shall be calculated using the cost plus method, i.e. full cost incurred plus an arm’s length mark-up. All costs Service Provider has in order to perform the Services shall be reimbursed by Purchaser.

5. PAYMENT

5.1 If Service Provider, pursuant to the General Terms, appoints its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, Service Provider shall include the costs relating to such work in the invoices to Purchaser.

5.2 The actual Service Charges shall be invoiced on a monthly basis at the end of each month and paid by Purchaser in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms.

6. GOVERNANCE FORUM

6.1 The Parties agree that governance in respect of this Service Agreement shall be handled in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms in Appendix 2. When reference is made to a relevant governance forum, it shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the meaning set out below in this Section 6.

6.2 The first level of governance forum for handling the co-operation between the Parties in various matters, handling management, prioritisation of development activities etc. under the Service Agreement shall be the “Steering Committee”, which regarding cooperation between Service Provider and Purchaser is the so called Volvo Polestar Chengdu Steering Committee. The Steering Committee shall be the first level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

- 6.3 The higher level of governance forum, to which an issue shall be escalated if the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution shall be the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. This shall be the highest level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

7. TEMPLATE FINANCIAL REPORTING

- 7.1 The Parties agree that the basis for calculating the Service Charges shall be transparent and auditable to Purchaser and be done based on the template attached as Appendix 4.

8. ORDER OF PRIORITY

- 8.1 In the event there are any contradictions or inconsistencies between the terms of this Main Document and any of the Appendices hereto, the Parties agree that the following order of priority shall apply:

- (1) This Main Document
- (2) Appendix 2, General Terms—Service Agreement
- (3) Appendix 1, Service Specification
- (4) Appendix 3, Hourly Rates
- (5) Appendix 4, Template Financial Reporting

9. NOTICES

1. GENERAL

1.1 This Service Specification is a part of the Service Agreement executed between Service Provider and Purchaser. This Service Specification sets out the scope and the specification of the activities that shall be performed under the Service Agreement, the division of responsibilities between Service Provider and Purchaser and the applicable time plan for the performance of the activities;

2. DEFINITIONS

2.1 Any capitalised terms used but not specifically defined herein shall have the meanings set out for such terms in the Main Document. In addition, the capitalised terms set out below in this Section 2 shall for the purposes of this Service Specification have the meanings described herein. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa.

“Procurement”-Involves both commercial purchasing and quality assurance of suppliers and their products and services.

“Indirect Procurement”—Purchasing of Material, Services and IT not related to car components.

3. GENERAL DESCRIPTION

3.1 The Parties have agreed that Volvo Cars will be the service provider of Indirect Procurement activities and to source suppliers and their services and equipment/products for the industrialisation of Polestar 3 in the Volvo Cars Plant in Chengdu (VCCD).

3.2 The overall objectives of the activities is to strive to source the best suppliers at a competitive cost level, in a timely manner and based on Volvo Cars manufacturing standards.

3.3 The Indirect Procurement services cover:

- Machinery, equipment and tooling
- Facilities
- IT and other general services
- MRO (Maintenance service, spare parts and supplies)

4. ASSUMPTIONS/PRE-REQUISITES

4.1 Volvo Cars Procurement will have the full lead for the Indirect Procurement activities.

- Polestar and Volvo Manufacturing Engineering shall agree about cost targets for each sourcing scope prior to sourcing. If sourcing results is not fulfilling set cost targets deviations to be aligned in Polestar Program Governance Meeting (PPGM) between Volvo and Polestar and then agreed in SCM/SCC. In the event a deviation cannot be agreed in SCM/SCC, the issue will be escalated according to the governance process described in Appendix 2.

- 4.2 The Procurement services will be carried out according to and within Volvo Cars existing sourcing process and approval levels. Volvo Cars Procurement will follow the already established functional forums, where Procurement is required for the sourcing process. Sourcing Strategy (bidders list) and Sourcing Decision (final supplier) will be approved in Volvo Cars Supplier Choice Meeting (“SCM”) and Supplier Choice Consensus (“SCC”). The sourcing decisions will be made in SCM and SCC.
- 4.3 The Purchaser is responsible ‘to’ participate in the’ SCM and is regarded as one of the’ Stakeholders and will have a voice in the SCM. The Purchaser should get an invitation in due time and will be provided with necessary information, according to Section 5.4, in order to be able to actively participate in the meeting. If Polestar chooses not to participate, the decisions made by Volvo Cars in SCM and SCC are deemed to be accepted by Polestar.
- 4.4 Sourcing decisions will be based on multiple parameters such as quality, technical capability, sustainability, strategic consideration, and price.
- 4.5 To adhere to Volvo Cars standards, the Volvo Cars Purchasing Terms & Conditions will be used towards the suppliers at sourcing and contract signing. All contracts that are required to, will be 3-party agreement, meaning that Polestar and Volvo Cars jointly sign one contract with the supplier.
- 4.6 Based on initial estimated split provided by Manufacturing Engineering program, each Party shall then place their orders towards the supplier. If there is a need to adjust the order split after contract is signed, each Party shall immediately, and based on split provided by Manufacturing Engineering program, make the funding (Shopping Cart) available for the Service Provider.
- 4.7 Information about for instance the Service Provider’s supplier strategies and agreements will be shared with the Purchaser based on “need-to-know” basis only. The Service Provider will not share benchmark data without the consent of the Supplier. However, information based on the Service Providers agreements where by the Purchaser is an affiliate to the agreement and utilising the agreement will be shared.
- 4.8 Volvo Cars Procurement functions will work in their normal line organisation while providing this service to Polestar, and may work with other projects in parallel.

5. DESCRIPTION OF THE SERVICE ACTIVITIES

- 5.1 The Service will be provided in two main phases:
 1. Sourcing—Volvo Cars Procurement will lead the sourcing including team set-up, planning, execution, negotiation, contract, including performing needed supplier assessments.
 2. Industrialization—Volvo Cars Procurement will place orders and lead the commercial Modification Change Requests.

- 5.2 The Service deliveries will be the following:
- Sourcing work leading up to a Sourcing Strategy and Sourcing Decision in SCM/SCC.
 - Prepare Supplier contracts (to be signed by Polestar).
 - Place orders. Ordering for Polestar will be done in SRM with Polestar order template. Polestar requisitions will be approved in Polestar Delegation of Authority and orders will be approved in SRM according to Volvo Delegation of Authority.
- 5.3 Volvo Cars Procurement will perform procurement deliveries through the following functions and their activities:
- Program management—Scope and plan the sourcing activities and drive that tasks are met timely
 - Buyers—Perform supplier evaluation (SEM), lead the sourcing, negotiation, supplier selection and contract signing including ordering.
- In addition Volvo Cars Procurement will provide all management and business support needed to support the different functions and processes with decisions and business analysis to support these decisions.
- 5.4 The Service Provider will keep the Purchaser informed of the overall progress and other information of the sourcing including potential deviations from targets in Polestar Program Governance Meeting (“PPGM”). The Service Provider will align with the Purchaser and share necessary information in front of SCM about proposed and alternative suppliers and commercial solutions.

6. TIMING AND DELIVERABLES

6.1 []

6.2 []

7. ESTIMATED HOURS

7.1 []

8. PURCHASER’S RESPONSIBILITIES

- 8.1 Purchaser is responsible for all the other activities in relation to the indirect procurement, including:
- 8.2 Polestar is responsible to provide approved funding in SRM (Shopping Cart, SC) for Polestar scope in front of negotiations with suppliers. If there is an order split needed between Volvo and Polestar for the same contract, Polestar must issue the funding (SC) at the same time as the Volvo funding (SC).
- 8.3 Polestar will abide to Volvo Cars supplier strategies and Commodity Business Plans (“CBP”).
- 8.4 Polestar will always be ultimately responsible for the Purchase Orders placed in Polestars name (i.e. payments).
- 8.5 Polestar will keep a Power of Attorney updated and available for each of Volvo Cars legal entities to act on Polestars behalf. The purpose is to avoid any confusion towards suppliers and clarify that Volvo Cars has the authority to deliver the indirect procurement for Polestar.

8.6 Polestar will need to sign all agreements where Polestar is involved according to Polestar Delegation of Authority. When necessary, Volvo Cars will use Polestar templates when acting on Polestars behalf.

SERVICE AGREEMENT
APPENDIX 2
GENERAL TERMS

1. BACKGROUND

- 2.23 The right to “have made” is the right of a Party in its capacity as a licensee hereunder, as applicable, to have another person (or their subcontractor of any tier) make for that Party and does not include the right to grant sublicenses to another person to make for such person’s own use or use other than for that Party.

3. PROVISION OF SERVICES

- 3.1 Service Specification. The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification of the Services provided under this Service Agreement in the Service Specification.
- 3.2 Service Recipients. In addition to Purchaser, all of Purchaser’s Affiliates shall be entitled to receive and use the Services under this Service Agreement. Nevertheless, Purchaser shall be Service Provider’s sole point of contact and shall be responsible for payment of the Service Charges as set forth in this Service Agreement, irrespectively of whether it is Purchaser or any of Purchaser’s Affiliates that in reality received and used the Services.
- 3.3 Subcontractors.
- 3.3.1 The Parties acknowledge that Service Provider may use its Affiliates and/or subcontractors’ to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, provided that Service Provider informs Purchaser thereof.
- 3.3.2 Service Provider shall however remain responsible for the performance, and any omission to perform or comply with the provisions of this Service Agreement, by any Affiliate to Service Provider and/or any subcontractor to the same extent as if such performance or omission was made by Service Provider itself. Service Provider shall also remain Purchaser’s sole point of contact unless otherwise agreed.
- 3.4 Relationship between the Parties. The Parties are acting as independent contractors when performing each Party’s respective obligations under the Service Agreement. Neither Party nor its Affiliates are agents for the other Party or its Affiliates and have no authority to represent them in relation to any matters. Nothing in these General Terms or the Service Agreement shall be construed as to constitute a partnership or joint venture between the Parties.

4. SERVICE REQUIREMENTS

- 4.1 All Services shall be performed in accordance with the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement, including the Service Specification, and otherwise in a professional manner.
- 4.2 When providing the Services, Service Provider shall use professional and skilled personnel, reasonably experienced for the Services to be performed, Service Provider shall work according to the same standard of care and professionalism that is done in Service Provider’s internal business and development projects. Such standard of care and professionalism, shall however at all times correspond to Industry Standard. For the avoidance of doubt, Service Provider is responsible for all necessary recruiting and hiring costs associated with employing appropriate personnel as well as all necessary training costs.
- 4.3 Service Provider acknowledges that time is of essence and Service Provider agrees to strictly respect and adhere to the deadlines set out in the Service Specification in Appendix 1, such as time limits, milestones and gates. In the event Service Provider risks not to meet an agreed deadline or is otherwise in delay with the performance of the Services, Service Provider shall appoint additional resources in order to avoid the effects of the anticipated delay or the delay (as the case may be).
- 4.4 In the event the Services or any part thereof, more than insignificantly deviate from the requirements set forth in the Service Specification, or if Service Provider otherwise does not meet or ceases to meet the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement (except for minor faults and defects, which do not affect the provision of the Services), Service Provider shall remedy such noncompliance, fault or defect as soon as reasonably possible.

- 4.5 In the event Service Provider fails to act in accordance With Section 4.3 and 4.4 above, such failure shall be escalated in accordance with the escalation principles set forth in Section 17,1 and eventually give Purchaser the right to terminate the Service Agreement in accordance with Section 14.4.
- 4.6 Purchaser shall provide Service Provider with instructions as reasonably required for Service Provider to be able to carry out the Services. Service Provider must continuously inform Purchaser of any needs of additional instructions or specifications required to perform the Services.
- 4.7 Service Provider shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its undertakings under this Service Agreement. Further, Service Provider undertakes to ensure that the performance of the Services will not be given lower priority than other of Service Provider's internal similar projects.

5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

5.1 Ownership of existing Intellectual Property Rights.

- 5.1.1 Each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of its Background IP.
- 5.1.2 Nothing in this Service Agreement shall be deemed to constitute an assignment of, or license to use, any Trademarks of the other Party.

5.2 Ownership of Results. In the event any Results are created as a result of the Services provided by Service Provider (or if applicable, any of its appointed Affiliates or subcontractors) under this Service Agreement, the Parties agree that Service Provider shall be the exclusive owner-of-such -Results-, including- all modifications, amendments and developments thereof. Hence, all Results shall automatically upon their creation stay with Service Provider. Service Provider shall further have the right to transfer, sublicense, modify and otherwise freely dispose of the Results.

5.3 License grant.

- 5.3.1 Upon creation of the Results, Purchaser shall at the same time automatically be granted a non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any IP or Background IP included in the license described hereunder)), non-assignable (however assignable to Purchaser's Affiliates), worldwide license to Use, in whole or in part, the Results and, if applicable, any Background IP embedded in or otherwise used in the development of the Results. The license granted in this Section 5.3.1 is limited to the extent such license is necessary for Purchaser to make use of the Services provided hereunder and to enable an orderly transfer to another service provider after the termination and/or expiry of this Service Agreement.
- 5.3.2 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Service Agreement, nothing in these General Terms or otherwise in the Service Agreement shall be construed as to give the other Party any rights, including but not limited to any license rights (express or implied), to any Background IP, except as expressly stated herein.

5.4 Volvo brand name.

- 5.4.1 For the sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the "Volvo" brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to "Volvo" in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the "Volvo" Trademarks as well as the "Volvo" name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the "Volvo" Trademarks is subject to a service agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related Intellectual Property can only be used by Volvo Car Corporation and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.

- 5.4.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the “Volvo” brand name or “Volvo” Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.
- 5.4.3 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the Polestar brand name or Trademarks, or refer to Polestar in communications or official documents of whatever kind.
- 5.4.4 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the Polestar brand name or Polestar Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

6. SERVICE CHARGES

- 6.1 In consideration of Service Provider's performance of the Services under this Service Agreement, Purchaser agrees to pay to Service Provider the Service Charges as set forth or referenced to in the Main Document.

7. PAYMENT TERMS

- 7.1 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency set forth in the Main Document, in a timely manner and in accordance with the payment terms set forth in this Section 7.
- 7.2 All amounts referred to in this Service Agreement are exclusive of VAT, VAT will be added in accordance with local legislation.
- 7.3 Any amount of the Service Charges invoiced by Service Provider to Purchaser shall be paid by Purchaser within 45 days after the invoice date.
- 7.4 Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based on the one month applicable interbank rate, depending on invoice and currency, with an addition of two per cent (2.0%) per annum.
- 7.5 Any paid portion of the Service Charges is non-refundable, with the exception set forth in the Main Document.

8. AUDIT

- 8.1 During the term of the Service Agreement, Purchaser shall have the right to, upon reasonable notice in writing to Service Provider, inspect Service Provider's books and records related to the Services and the premises where the Services are performed, in order to conduct quality controls and otherwise verify the statements rendered under this Service Agreement.
- 8.2 Audits shall be made during regular business hours and be conducted by Purchaser or by an independent auditor appointed by Purchaser. Should Purchaser during any inspection find that Service Provider or the Services does/do not fulfil the requirements set forth herein, Purchaser is entitled to comment on the identified deviations. Service Provider shall, upon notice from Purchaser, take reasonable efforts to take the actions required in order to fulfil the requirements. In the event the Parties cannot agree upon measures to be taken in respect of the audit, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.

9. REPRESENTATIONS

9.1 Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:

- (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;
- (b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Service Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;
- (c) the execution, delivery and performance of this Service Agreement have been duly authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate any laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and
- (d) this Service Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

10. SERVICE WARRANTY

10.1 When performing the Services, Service Provider shall provide professional and skilled personnel, reasonably experienced for the Services to be performed at the best of their knowledge.

10.2 Service Provider provides the Services "as is". Service Provider does neither warrant nor represent that any Services, provided or delivered to Purchaser hereunder are functional for the business needs of Purchaser or otherwise suitable for any specific purpose, nor that the Services, are not infringing any Intellectual Property of any third party. Service Provider does neither give any representations or warranties as regards the merchantability of the deliverables to be delivered hereunder nor any other representations or warranties of any kind whatsoever concerning the Services. Purchaser acknowledges that the price of the Services to be performed and other deliverables to be delivered by Service Provider are set in consideration of the foregoing.

10.3 Service Provider shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to Purchaser's use of the Services notify Purchaser of such claim in writing and Purchaser shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the third party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. Purchaser shall at all times keep Service Provider informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with Service Provider on appropriate actions to take. If Purchaser fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend Service Provider within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, Service Provider shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/ or over any settlement negotiation at Purchaser's cost. Any settlement proposed by Purchaser on its own account must take account of potential implications for Service Provider and shall therefore be agreed with Service Provider before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

11. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

11.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Service Agreement.

11.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement shall be limited to 30 % of the total Service Charges payable by Purchaser to Service Provider hereunder.

- 11.3 The limitations of liability set forth in this Section 11 shall not apply in respect of:
- (a) claims related to death or bodily injury;
 - (b) damage caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence;
 - (c) damage caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 13 below; or
 - (d) damage arising out of an infringement, or alleged infringement, of the other Party's or any third party's Intellectual Property.

12. GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES

12.1 Governance.

- 12.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Service Agreement as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Service Agreement.
- 12.1.2 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Service Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event the Parties on an operational level cannot agree upon inter alia the prioritisation of development activities or other aspects relating to the co-operation between the Parties, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.
- 12.1.3 If the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution of the disagreement the relevant issue should be escalated to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. for decision.

12.2 Changes.

- 12.3 During the term of this Service Agreement, Purchaser can request changes to the Service Specification, which shall be handled in accordance with the governance procedure set forth in Section 12.1 above. Both Parties agree to act in good faith to address and respond to any change request within a reasonable period of time.
- 12.4 The Parties acknowledge that Service Provider will not perform in accordance with such change request until agreed in writing between the Parties. For the avoidance of any doubt, until there is agreement about the requested change, all work shall continue in accordance with the existing Service Specification.

13. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 13.1 The Parties shall take any and all necessary measures to comply with the security and confidentiality procedures of the other Party.
- 13.2 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes comprised by the fulfilment of this Service Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Service Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 13.2 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or sub-contractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:

- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
 - (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
 - (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
 - (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;
 - (e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or
 - (f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.
- 13.3 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 13.
- 13.4 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within 30 days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 13.5 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 13, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (H) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section 17.2 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 13.6 For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 13 does not permit disclosure of source code to software, and/or any substantial parts of design documents to software, included in the Results, to any Third Party, notwithstanding what it set forth above in this Section 13. Any such disclosure to any Third Party is permitted only if approved in writing by Service Provider.
- 13.7 This confidentiality provision shall survive the expiration or termination of this Service Agreement without limitation in time.

14. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 14.1 This Service Agreement shall become effective when the Main Document is signed by duly authorised signatories of each Party and shall, unless terminated in accordance with this Section 14 below, remain in force until the Services are completed.
- 14.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in the event:
- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Service Agreement, which has not been remedied within 30 days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
 - (b) if the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.

- 14.3 For avoidance of doubt, Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, shall be considered in material breach for the purpose of this Service Agreement.
- 14.4 Furthermore, Purchaser is entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in case Service Provider acts in breach, which is not insignificant, of what is set forth in Section 4.3 and 4.4 provided that the issue first has been escalated in accordance with Section 17.1,
- 14.5 Purchaser shall in addition be entitled to cancel the Services performed by Service Provider for convenience upon 30 days written notice to Service Provider.
- 14.6 In the event Purchaser cancels the Services in accordance with Section 14.5 above, the Service Charges shall, in addition to what is set out in the Main Document, include any other reasonable proven costs Service Provider has incurred until the effective date of the cancellation.
- 14.7 Either Party shall in addition be entitled to terminate the Service Agreement for convenience upon 60 days written notice to the other Party.

15. MISCELLANEOUS

15.1 Force majeure.

- 15.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under the Service Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A “Force Majeure Event” means any event beyond a Party’s reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party’s), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors if such default or delay has been caused by a Force Majeure Event.
- 15.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under the Service Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its nonperformance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.
- 15.2 Notices. All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Service Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:
- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
 - (b) if sent by email transmission, at the time and date Indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
 - (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
 - (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods. All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be addressed to the address, and with the attention, as set forth in the Main Document, or to such other address, number or email address as a Party may designate.

15.3 Assignment.

15.3.1 Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Service Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.

15.3.2 Notwithstanding the above, each Party may assign this Service Agreement to an Affiliate without the prior written consent of the other Party.

15.4 Waiver. Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Service Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Service Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the Service Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.

- 15.5 Severability. In the event any provision of this Service Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Service Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Service Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Service Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.
- 15.6 Entire agreement. All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Service Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Service Agreement are superseded by this Service Agreement and its Appendices.
- 15.7 Amendments. Any amendment or addition to this Service Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.
- 15.8 Survival.
- 15.8.1 If this Service Agreement Is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 5.3 (License grant), Section 13 (Confidentiality), Section 16 (Governing Law), Section 17 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 15.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.
- 15.8.2 Notwithstanding Section 15.8.1 above, if this Service Agreement is terminated due to Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 5.3 (License Grant) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination. For the avoidance of doubt, what is stated in this Section 15.8.2 shall only apply in relation to such licenses granted to Purchaser pursuant to Section 5.3 above and any licenses granted to Service Provider under Section 5.3 shall thus nevertheless remain in force after such termination;

16. GOVERNING LAW

- 16.1 This Service Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Service Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of:
- (a) the People's Republic of China, if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China; and
 - (b) Sweden, if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of Sweden, without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

17.1 Escalation principles.

- 17.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.
- 17.1.2 The members of the Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach to be presented for the Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.

- 17.1.3 If the Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice served pursuant to Section 17.1.1 above, such deadlock will be referred to the CEO's of each Party, which shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve the situation in the same way as indicated above. If no Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the CEO's of each Party immediately and Section 17.1.2 above shall not apply.
- 17.1.4 If the CEO's of each Party cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. for decision. Should the matter not have been resolved by the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. within 30 days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 17.2 below.
- 17.1.5 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 13 above.
- 17.1.6 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 17.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

17.2 Arbitration.

- 17.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall:
- (a) if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China, be submitted to China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Committee ("CIETAC") for arbitration, which shall be held in Shanghai and conducted in accordance with the CIETAC's arbitration rules in effect at the time of applying for arbitration, whereas the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English and Chinese; and
 - (b) if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of Sweden, be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, whereas the seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English, and the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.
- 17.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 17.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 17.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

Certain identified information marked with “[]” has been omitted from this document because it is both (i) not material and (ii) the type that the registrant treats as private or confidential.

SERVICE AGREEMENT
MAIN DOCUMENT

Name of Project: Indirect Procurement Services

Short description of activities under this Service Agreement: Indirect Procurement Services for Polestar 3 in Volvo Cars Chengdu plant located in China.

This Service Agreement is between Volvo Car Corporation, Reg. No. 556074-3089, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Sweden (“Service Provider”), and Polestar Automotive China Distribution Co. Ltd., Reg. No. 91510112MA6D05KT88, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of China (“Purchaser”).

Each of Service Provider and Purchaser is hereinafter referred to as a “Party” and jointly as the “Parties”.

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have determined that Service Provider shall provide to Purchaser certain Services (as defined in the General Terms), which are further described in the Service Specification in Appendix 1. The provision of the Services shall be performed in accordance with the terms in this service agreement and its appendices (the “Service Agreement”).
- B. Purchaser now wishes to enter into this Service Agreement for the purpose of receiving the Services and Service Provider wishes to provide the Services in accordance with the terms set forth in this Service Agreement.
- C. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Service Agreement.

AGREEMENT

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This Service Agreement consists of this main document (the “Main Document”) and its appendices. This Main Document sets out the specific terms in respect of the provision of the Services, whereas Appendix 2 sets out certain general terms and conditions applicable to the Parties’ rights, obligations and performance of the Parties’ activities hereunder (the “General Terms”).
- 1.2 All capitalized terms used, but not specifically defined in this Main Document, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the General Terms.

2. SERVICE SPECIFICATION

- 2.1 The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification for the Services as specified in the Service Specification in Appendix 1.

3. AFFILIATE

3.1 Affiliate shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the following meaning:

“Affiliate” means any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by or is under common control with Volvo Car Corporation or Polestar Automotive China Distribution and control means the possession, directly or indirectly, by agreement or otherwise, of (i) at least 50% of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest, or (ii) the power (a) to appoint or remove a majority of the board of directors or other governing body of an entity, or (b) to cause the direction of the management of an entity.

4. SERVICE CHARGES

4.1 In consideration of Service Provider’s performance of the Services under this Service Agreement, Purchaser shall pay to Service Provider the service charges as further described below (the “Service Charges”).

4.2 The Service Charges for the Services will be based on the actual hours required for the Services to be performed by Service Provider as set forth in the Service Specification in Appendix 1 and the hourly rates as set forth in Appendix 3. The Parties acknowledge that the estimated Service Charges set forth in the Service Specification in Appendix 1, are based on an estimation of the amount of hours required for the performance of the Services and that this estimation may differ from the final actual number of hours charged by Service Provider. Hence, the Service Charges will ultimately be invoiced based on actual hours, not on estimated hours.

4.3 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency: SEK.

4.4 The hourly rates that are used to calculate the Service Charges shall be determined by Service Provider on an annual basis in compliance with applicable tax legislation, including but not limited to the principle of “arm’s length distance” between the Parties. The hourly rates shall be calculated using the cost plus method, i.e. full cost incurred plus an arm’s length mark-up. All costs Service Provider has in order to perform the Services shall be reimbursed by Purchaser.

5. PAYMENT

5.1 If Service Provider, pursuant to the General Terms, appoints its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, Service Provider shall include the costs relating to such work in the invoices to Purchaser.

5.2 The actual Service Charges shall be invoiced on a monthly basis at the end of each month and paid by Purchaser in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms.

6. GOVERNANCE FORUM

6.1 The Parties agree that governance in respect of this Service Agreement shall be handled in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms in Appendix 2. When reference is made to a relevant governance forum, it shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the meaning set out below in this Section 6.

6.2 The first level of governance forum for handling the co-operation between the Parties in various matters, handling management, prioritisation of development activities etc. under the Service Agreement shall be the "Steering Committee", which regarding cooperation between Service Provider and Purchaser is the so called Volvo Polestar Chengdu Steering Committee. The Steering Committee shall be the first level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

6.3 The higher level of governance forum, to which an issue shall be escalated if the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution shall be the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. This shall be the highest level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

7. TEMPLATE FINANCIAL REPORTING

7.1 The Parties agree that the basis for calculating the Service Charges shall be transparent and auditable to Purchaser and be done based on the template attached as Appendix 4.

8. ORDER OF PRIORITY

8.1 In the event there are any contradictions or inconsistencies between the terms of this Main Document and any of the Appendices hereto, the Parties agree that the following order of priority shall apply:

- (1) This Main Document
- (2) Appendix 2, General Terms- Service Agreement
- (3) Appendix 1, Service Specification
- (4) Appendix 3, Hourly Rates
- (5) Appendix 4, Template Financial Reporting

9. NOTICES

SERVICE AGREEMENT [*] INSTALLATIONS VCCD
APPENDIX 1
SERVICE SPECIFICATION FROM SWEDEN TO CHINA

1. GENERAL

1.1 This Service Specification is a part of the Service Agreement executed between Service Provider and Purchaser. This Service Specification sets out the scope and the specification of the activities that shall be performed under the Service Agreement, the division of responsibilities between Service Provider and Purchaser and the applicable time plan for the performance of the activities.

2. DEFINITIONS

2.1 Any capitalised terms used but not specifically defined herein shall have the meanings set out for such terms in the Main Document. In addition, the capitalised terms set out below in this Section 2 shall for the purposes of this Service Specification have the meanings described herein. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa.

“Procurement”—Involves both commercial purchasing and quality assurance of suppliers and their products and services.

“Indirect Procurement”—Purchasing of Material, Services and IT not related to car components.

3. GENERAL DESCRIPTION

3.1 The Parties have agreed that Volvo Cars will be the service provider of Indirect Procurement activities and to source suppliers and their services and equipment/products for the industrialisation of Polestar 3 in the Volvo Cars Plant in Chengdu (VCCD).

3.2 The overall objectives of the activities is to strive to source the best suppliers at a competitive cost level, in a timely manner and based on Volvo Cars manufacturing standards.

3.3 The Indirect Procurement services cover:

- Machinery, equipment and tooling
- Facilities
- IT and other general services
- MRO (Maintenance service, spare parts and supplies)

4. ASSUMPTIONS/PRE-REQUISITES

4.1 Volvo Cars Procurement will have the full lead for the Indirect Procurement activities.

Polestar and Volvo Manufacturing Engineering shall agree about cost targets for each sourcing scope prior to sourcing. If sourcing results is not fulfilling set cost targets deviations to be aligned in Polestar Program Governance Meeting (PPGM) between Volvo and Polestar and then agreed in SCM/SCC. In the event a deviation cannot be agreed in SCM/SCC, the issue will be escalated according to the governance process described in Appendix 2.

- 4.2 The Procurement services will be carried out according to and within Volvo Cars existing sourcing process and approval levels. Volvo Cars Procurement will follow the already established functional forums, where Procurement is required for the sourcing process. Sourcing Strategy (bidders list) and Sourcing Decision (final supplier) will be approved in Volvo Cars Supplier Choice Meeting ("SCM") and Supplier Choice Consensus ("SCC"). The sourcing decisions will be made in SCM and SCC.
- 4.3 The Purchaser is responsible to participate in the SCM and is regarded as one of the Stakeholders and will have a voice in the SCM. The Purchaser should get an invitation in due time and will be provided with necessary information, according to Section 5.4, in order to be able to actively participate in the meeting. If Polestar chooses not to participate, the decisions made by Volvo Cars in SCM and SCC are deemed to be accepted by Polestar.
- 4.4
- 4.5 Sourcing decisions will be based on multiple parameters such as quality, technical capability, sustainability, strategic consideration, and price.
- 4.6 To adhere to Volvo Cars standards, the Volvo Cars Purchasing Terms & Conditions will be used towards the suppliers at sourcing and contract signing. All contracts that are required to, will be 3-party agreement, meaning that Polestar and Volvo Cars jointly sign one contract with the supplier.
- 4.7 Based on initial estimated split provided by Manufacturing Engineering program, each Party shall then place their orders towards the supplier. If there is a need to adjust the order split after contract is signed, each Party shall immediately, and based on split provided by Manufacturing Engineering program, make the funding (Shopping Cart) available for the Service Provider.
- 4.8 Information about for instance the Service Provider's supplier strategies and agreements will be shared with the Purchaser based on "need-to-know" basis only. The Service Provider will not share benchmark data without the consent of the Supplier. However, information based on the Service Providers agreements where by the Purchaser is an affiliate to the agreement and utilising the agreement will be shared.
- 4.9 Volvo Cars Procurement functions will work in their normal line organisation while providing this service to Polestar, and may work with other projects in parallel.

5. DESCRIPTION OF THE SERVICE ACTIVITIES

5.1 The Service will be provided in two main phases:

1. Sourcing-Volvo Cars Procurement will lead the sourcing including team set-up, planning, execution, negotiation, contract, including performing needed supplier assessments.
2. Industrialization -Volvo Cars Procurement will place orders and lead the commercial Modification Change Requests.

- 5.2 The Service deliveries will be the following:
- Sourcing work leading up to a Sourcing Strategy and Sourcing Decision in SCM/SCC.
Prepare Supplier contracts (to be signed by Polestar).
 - Place orders. Ordering for Polestar will be done in SRM with Polestar order template. Polestar requisitions will be approved in Polestar Delegation of Authority and orders will be approved in SRM according to Volvo Delegation of Authority.
- 5.3 Volvo Cars Procurement will perform procurement deliveries through the following functions and their activities:
- Program management—Scope and plan the sourcing activities and drive that tasks are met timely
 - Buyers—Perform supplier evaluation (SEM), lead the sourcing, negotiation, supplier selection and contract signing including ordering.
- In addition Volvo Cars Procurement will provide all management and business support needed to support the different functions and processes with decisions and business analysis to support these decisions.
- 5.4 The Service Provider will keep the Purchaser informed of the overall progress and other information of the sourcing including potential deviations from targets in Polestar Program Governance Meeting (“PPGM”). The Service Provider will align with the Purchaser and share necessary information in front of SCM about proposed and alternative suppliers and commercial solutions.

6. TIMING AND DELIVERABLES

6.1 []

6.2 The milestones and deadlines that are defined by the Volvo Product Development System (“VPDS”) for project [] shall apply for the IDP Procurement services deliverables under this Agreement.

7. ESTIMATED HOURS

7.1 []

8. PURCHASER’S RESPONSIBILITIES

8.1 Purchaser is responsible for all the other activities in relation to the indirect procurement, including:

8.2 Polestar is responsible to provide approved funding in SRM (Shopping Cart, SC) for Polestar scope in front of negotiations with suppliers. If there is an order split needed between Volvo and Polestar for the same contract, Polestar must issue the funding (SC) at the same time as the Volvo funding (SC).

- 8.3 Polestar will abide to Volvo Cars supplier strategies and Commodity Business Plans (“CBP”).
 - 8.4 Polestar will always be ultimately responsible for the Purchase Orders placed in Polestars name (i.e. payments).
 - 8.5 Polestar will keep a Power of Attorney updated and available for each of Volvo Cars, legal entities to act on Polestars behalf. The purpose is to avoid any confusion towards suppliers and clarify that Volvo Cars has the authority to deliver the indirect procurement for Polestar.
 - 8.6 Polestar will need to sign all agreements where Polestar is involved according to Polestar Delegation of Authority. When necessary, Volvo Cars will use Polestar templates when acting on Polestars behalf.

SERVICE AGREEMENT
APPENDIX 2
GENERAL TERMS

1. BACKGROUND

This Appendix 2, General Terms—Service Agreement, (the “General Terms”) is an Appendix to the Main Document and is an integrated part of the Service Agreement entered into between the Parties.

2. DEFINITIONS

- 2.1 For the purpose of these General Terms, the following terms shall have the meanings assigned to them below. All capitalized terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa. Any capitalized terms used, but not specifically defined below in this Section 2, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Main Document.
- 2.2 “Appendix” means an appendix to the Main Document.
- 2.3 “Background IP” means the Intellectual Property Rights either:
- (a) owned by either of the Parties;
 - (b) created, developed or invented by directors, managers, employees or consultants of either of the Parties;
 - (c) to which the Party has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sublicense
- prior to the execution of this Service Agreement, and any Intellectual Property Rights developed or otherwise acquired independently of this Service Agreement.
- 2.4 “Confidential Information” means any and all non-public information regarding the Parties and their respective businesses, whether commercial or technical, in whatever form or media, including but not limited to the existence, content and subject matter of this Service Agreement, information relating to Intellectual Property Rights, concepts, technologies, processes, commercial figures, techniques, algorithms, formulas, methodologies, knowhow, strategic plans and budgets, investments, customers and sales, designs, graphics, CAD models, CAE data, statement of works (including engineering statement of works and any high level specification), targets, test plans/reports, technical performance data and engineering sign-off documents and other information of a sensitive nature, that a Party learns from or about the other Party prior to or after the execution of this Service Agreement.
- 2.5 “Disclosing Party” means the Party disclosing Confidential Information to the Receiving Party.
- 2.6 “EU Data Protection Laws” shall mean collectively, any applicable data protection, privacy or similar law generally applicable to the processing of personal data, including but not limited to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation) and any act or piece of national legislation implementing, supporting or otherwise incorporating said regulation, including any amendment made to any of the foregoing.

- 2.7 “Force Majeure Event” shall have the meaning set out in Section 15.1.
- 2.8 “Industry Standard” means the exercise of such professionalism, skill, diligence, prudence and foresight that would normally be expected at any given time from a skilled and experienced actor engaged in a similar type of undertaking as under this Service Agreement.
- 2.9 “Intellectual Property Rights” or “IP” means Patents, Non-patented IP, rights in Confidential Information and Know-How to the extent protected under applicable laws anywhere in the world. For the avoidance of doubt, Trademarks are not comprised by this definition.
- 2.10 “Know-How” means confidential and proprietary industrial, technical and commercial information and techniques in any form including (without limitation) drawings, formulae, test results, reports, project reports and testing procedures, instruction and training manuals, tables of operating conditions, specifications, component lists, market forecasts, lists and particulars of customers and suppliers.
- 2.11 “Main Document” means the contract document (with the heading “Main Document—Service Agreement”), which is signed by Service Provider and Purchaser, to which these General Terms are an Appendix.
- 2.12 “Non-patented IP” means copyrights (including rights in computer software), database rights, semiconductor topography rights, rights in designs, and other intellectual property rights (other than Trademarks and Patents) and all rights or forms of protection having equivalent or similar effect anywhere in the world, in each case whether registered or unregistered, and registered includes registrations, applications for registration and renewals whether made before, on or after execution of this Service Agreement.
- 2.13 “Patent” means any patent, patent application, or utility model, whether filed before, on or after execution of this Service Agreement, along with any continuation, continuation-in-part, divisional, re-examined or re-issued patent, foreign counterpart or renewal or extension of any of the foregoing.
- 2.14 “Receiving Party” means the Party receiving Confidential Information from the Disclosing Party.
- 2.15 “Results” shall mean any outcome of the Services provided to Purchaser under this Service Agreement (including but not limited to any IP, technology, software, methods, processes, deliverables, objects, products, documentation, modifications, improvements, and/or amendments to be carried out by Service Provider under the Service Specification) and any other outcome or result of the Services to be performed by Service Provider as described in the relevant Service Specification, irrespective of whether the performance of the Services has been completed or not.
- 2.16 “Services” shall mean the services to be performed by Service Provider to Purchaser hereunder, including all services under the Appendices attached hereto.
- 2.17 “Service Agreement” means the Main Document including all of its Appendices and their Schedules as amended from time to time.
- 2.18 “Service Charges” means the service charges as set forth or referenced to in the Main Document.
- 2.19 “Service Specification” describes the Services to be provided by Service Provider to Purchaser hereunder including (if applicable) a time plan for the provision of the Services, which is included as Appendix 1 in this Service Agreement.
- 2.20 “Third Party” means a party other than any of the Parties and/or an Affiliate of one of the Parties to this Service Agreement.

- 2.21 “Trademarks” means trademarks (including part numbers that are trademarks), service marks, logos, trade names, business names, assumed names, trade dress and get-up, and domain names, in each case whether registered or unregistered, including all applications, registrations, renewals and the like, in each case to the extent they constitute rights that are enforceable against Third Parties.
- 2.22 “Use” means to make, have made, use (including in a process, such as use in designing, engineering, testing or assembling products or in their research or development), keep, install, integrate, extract, assemble, reproduce, incorporate, create derivative works of, modify, adapt, Improve, enhance, develop, service or repair, including in the case of installation, integration, assembly, service or repair, the right to have a subcontractor of any tier carry out any of these activities on behalf of the Parties in their capacity as a licensee hereunder.
- 2.23 The right to “have made” is the right of a Party in its capacity as a licensee hereunder, as applicable, to have another person (or their subcontractor of any tier) make for that Party and does not include the right to grant sublicenses to another person to make for such person’s own use or use other than for that Party.

3. PROVISION OF SERVICES

- 3.1 Service Specification. The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification of the Services provided under this Service Agreement in the Service Specification.
 - 3.2 Service Recipients. In addition to Purchaser, all of Purchaser’s Affiliates shall be entitled to receive and use the Services under this Service Agreement. Nevertheless, Purchaser shall be Service Provider’s sole point of contact and shall be responsible for payment of the Service Charges as set forth in this Service Agreement, irrespectively of whether it is Purchaser or any of Purchaser’s Affiliates that in reality received and used the Services.
- 3.3 Subcontractors.
- 3.3.1 The Parties acknowledge that Service Provider may use its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, provided that Service Provider informs Purchaser thereof.
 - 3.3.2 Service Provider shall however remain responsible for the performance, and any omission to perform or comply with the provisions of this Service Agreement, by any Affiliate to Service Provider and/or any subcontractor to the same extent as if such performance or omittance was made by Service Provider itself. Service Provider shall also remain purchaser’s sole point of contact unless otherwise agreed.

3.4 Relationship between the Parties. The Parties are acting as independent contractors when performing each Party's respective obligations under the Service Agreement. Neither Party nor its Affiliates are agents for the other Party or its Affiliates and have no authority to represent them in relation to any matters. Nothing in these General Terms or the Service Agreement shall be construed as to constitute a partnership or joint venture between the Parties.

4. SERVICE REQUIREMENTS

- 4.1 All Services shall be performed in accordance with the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement, including the Service Specification, and otherwise in a professional manner.
- 4.2 When providing the Services, Service Provider shall use professional and skilled personnel, reasonably experienced for the Services to be performed, Service Provider shall work according to the same standard of care and professionalism that is done in Service Provider's internal business and development projects. Such standard of care and professionalism, shall however at all times correspond to Industry Standard. For the avoidance of doubt, Service Provider is responsible for all necessary recruiting and hiring costs associated with employing appropriate personnel as well as all necessary training costs.
- 4.3 Service Provider acknowledges that time is of essence and Service Provider agrees to strictly respect and adhere to the deadlines set out in the Service Specification in Appendix 1, such as time limits, milestones and gates. In the event Service Provider risks not to meet an agreed deadline or is otherwise in delay with the performance of the Services. Service Provider shall appoint additional resources in order to avoid the effects of the anticipated delay or the delay (as the case may be).
- 4.4 In the event the Services or any part thereof, more than insignificantly deviate from the requirements set forth in the Service Specification, or if Service Provider otherwise does not meet or ceases to meet the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement (except for minor faults and defects, which do not affect the provision of the Services), Service Provider shall remedy such noncompliance, fault or defect as soon as reasonably possible.
- 4.5 In the event Service Provider fails to act in accordance with Section 4.3 and 4.4 above, such failure shall be escalated in accordance with the escalation principles set forth in Section 17.1 and eventually give Purchaser the right to terminate the Service Agreement in accordance with Section 14.4.
- 4.6 Purchaser shall provide Service Provider with instructions as reasonably required for Service Provider to be able to carry out the Services. Service Provider must continuously inform Purchaser of any needs of additional instructions or specifications required to perform the Services.
- 4.7 Service Provider shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its undertakings under this Service Agreement. Further, Service Provider undertakes to ensure that the performance of the Services will not be given lower priority than other of Service Provider's internal similar projects.

5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

5.1 Ownership of existing Intellectual Property Rights.

- 5.1.1 Each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of its Background IP.
- 5.1.2 Nothing in this Service Agreement shall be deemed to constitute an assignment of, or license to use, any Trademarks of the other Party.

- 5.2 Ownership of Results. In the event any Results are created as a result of the Services provided by Service Provider (or if applicable, any of its appointed Affiliates or subcontractors) under this Services Agreement, the Parties agree that Service Provider shall be the exclusive owner of such Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof. Hence, all Results shall automatically upon their creation stay with Service Provider. Service Provider shall further have the right to transfer, sublicense, modify and otherwise freely dispose of the Results.
- 5.3 License grant.
- 5.3.1 Upon creation of the Results, Purchaser shall at the same time automatically be granted a non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any IP or Background IP included in the license described hereunder)), non-assignable (however assignable to Purchaser's Affiliates), worldwide license to Use, in whole or in part, the Results and, if applicable, any Background IP embedded in or otherwise used in the development of the Results. The license granted in this Section 5.3.1 is limited to the extent such license is necessary for Purchaser to make use of the Services provided hereunder and to enable an orderly transfer to another service provider after the termination and/or expiry of this Service Agreement.
- 5.3.2 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Service Agreement, nothing in these General Terms or otherwise in the Service Agreements shall be construed as to give the other Party any rights, including but not limited to any license rights (express or implied), to any Background IP, except as expressly stated herein.
- 5.4 Volvo brand name.
- 5.4.1 For the sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the "Volvo" brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to "Volvo" in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the "Volvo" Trademarks as well as the "Volvo" name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the "Volvo" Trademarks is subject to a service agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related Intellectual Property can only be used by Volvo Car Corporation and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.
- 5.4.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Volvo" brand name or "Volvo" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.
- 5.4.3 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the Polestar brand name or Trademarks, or refer to Polestar in communications or official documents of whatever kind.
- 5.4.4 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the Polestar brand name or Polestar Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.
- 6. SERVICE CHARGES
- 6.1 In consideration of Service Provider's performance of the Services under this Service Agreement, Purchaser agrees to pay to Service Provider the Service Charges as set forth or referenced to in the Main Document.
- 7. PAYMENT TERMS
- 7.1 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency set forth in the Main Document, in a timely manner and in accordance with the payment terms set forth in this Section 7.

Purchaser shall bear the VAT and surtaxes, and Service Provider shall bear the Withholding Tax, which are applicable in accordance with local legislation to amounts and payments referred to in this Service Agreement.

- 7.2 Purchaser shall make a reasonable effort in establishing, where applicable and to the fullest extent possible, to the tax authorities of its country of residence that services rendered there by Service Provider do not amount to a Permanent Establishment as defined under Article 5 of the Agreement between the Government of the People's Republic of China and the Government of the Kingdom of Sweden for the Avoidance of Double Taxation and the Prevention of Fiscal Evasion with respect to Taxes on Income (1986) (hereinafter the "Sweden-China Income Tax Treaty"); and that no withholding tax shall apply to payments under this Service Agreement. Service Provider shall make a reasonable effort to obtain a credit, under either Article 23 of the Sweden-China Income Tax Treaty or the domestic legislation of Service Provider's country of residence, against income tax in Service Provider's country of residence on account of the withholding tax, if any, levied on the payments by the tax authorities of Purchaser's country of residence.
- 7.3 In the event that the withholding tax, if any, levied by the tax authorities of Purchaser's country of residence is determined, by the tax authorities of Service Provider's country of residence, to not be so creditable against the income tax of Service Provider, Purchaser shall reimburse Service Provider for the withholding tax, exclusive of any tax applicable thereupon in Purchaser's country of residence. The reimbursement shall be due upon the presentation by Service Provider of reasonable proof of the denial of the aforementioned credit.
- 7.4 Where the withholding tax levied In Purchaser's country of residence is denied creditability in Service Provider's country of residence, Purchaser and Service Providers shall decide jointly whether a course of action shall be undertaken in the form of Mutual Agreement Procedure under Article 25 of the Sweden-China Income Tax Treaty or other dispute resolution procedures available between the competent authorities of Sweden and China.
- 7.5 Upon tax authority request, Service Provider should provide the supporting documents to help Purchaser prove the arm's length nature of the payment.
- 7.6 Any amount of the Service Charges invoiced by Service Provider to Purchaser shall be paid by Purchaser within 45 days after the invoice date.
- 7.7 Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based on the one month applicable interbank rate, depending on invoice and currency, with an addition of two per cent (2.0%) per annum.
- 7.8 Any paid portion of the Service Charges is non-refundable, with the exception set forth in the Main Document.

8. AUDIT

- 8.1 During the term of the Service Agreement, Purchaser shall have the right to, upon reasonable notice in writing to Service Provider, inspect Service Provider's books and records related to the Services and the premises where the Services are performed, in order to conduct quality controls and otherwise verify the statements rendered under this Service Agreement.
- 8.2 Audits shall be made during regular business hours and be conducted by Purchaser or by an independent auditor appointed by Purchaser. Should Purchaser during any inspection find that Service Provider or the Services does/do not fulfil the requirements set forth herein, Purchaser is entitled to comment on the identified deviations. Service Provider shall, upon notice from Purchaser, take reasonable efforts to take the actions required in order to fulfil the requirements. In the event the Parties cannot agree upon measures to be taken in respect of the audit, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.

9. REPRESENTATIONS

9.1 Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:

- (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;
- (b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Service Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;
- (c) the execution, delivery and performance of this Service Agreement have been duly authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate any laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and
- (d) this Service Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

10. SERVICE WARRANTY

10.1 When performing the Services, Service Provider shall provide professional and skilled personnel, reasonably experienced for the Services to be performed at the best of their knowledge.

10.2 Service Provider provides the Services “as is”. Service Provider does neither warrant nor represent that any Services, provided or delivered to Purchaser hereunder are functional for the business needs of Purchaser or otherwise suitable for any specific purpose, nor that the Services, are not infringing any intellectual Property of any third party. Service Provider does neither give any representations or warranties as regards the merchantability of the deliverables to be delivered hereunder nor any other representations or warranties of any kind whatsoever concerning the Services. Purchaser acknowledges that the price of the Services to be performed and other deliverables to be delivered by Service Provider are set in consideration of the foregoing.

10.3 Service Provider shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to Purchaser’s use of the Services notify Purchaser of such claim in writing and Purchaser shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost. conduct negotiations with the third party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. Purchaser shall at all times keep Service Provider informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with Service Provider on appropriate actions to take. If Purchaser fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend Service Provider within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, Service Provider shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/or over any settlement negotiation at Purchaser’s cost. Any settlement proposed by Purchaser on its own account must take account of potential implications for Service Provider and shall therefore be agreed with Service Provider before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party’s control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

11. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

11.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Service Agreement.

- 11.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement shall be limited to 30% of the total Service Charges payable by Purchaser to Service Provider hereunder.
- 11.3 The limitations of liability set forth in this Section 11 shall not apply in respect of:
- (a) claims related to death or bodily injury;
 - (b) damage caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence;
 - (c) damage caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 13 below; or
 - (d) damage arising out of an infringement, or alleged infringement, of the other Party's or any third party's intellectual Property.

12. GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES

12.1 Governance.

- 12.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Service Agreement as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Service Agreement.
- 12.1.2 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Service Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event the Parties on an operational level cannot agree upon inter alia the prioritisation of development activities or other aspects relating to the co-operation between the Parties, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.
- 12.1.3 If the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution of the disagreement the relevant issue should be escalated to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. for decision.

12.2 Changes.

- 12.3 During the term of this Service Agreement, Purchaser can request changes to the Service Specification, which shall be handled in accordance with the governance procedure set forth in Section 12.1 above. Both Parties agree to act in good faith to address and respond to any change request within a reasonable period of time.
- 12.4 The Parties acknowledge that Service Provider will not perform in accordance with such change request until agreed in writing between the Parties. For the avoidance of any doubt, until there is agreement about the requested change, all work shall continue in accordance with the existing Service Specification,

13. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 13.1 The Parties shall take any and all necessary measures to comply with the security and confidentiality procedures of the other Party.
- 13.2 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes comprised by the fulfilment of this Service Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Service Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 13.2 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or subcontractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:

- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
- (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
- (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
- (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;
- (e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or
- (f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.

- 13.3 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a Similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 13.
- 13.4 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within 30 days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as "Confidential", "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 13.5 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 13, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section 17.2 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 13.6 For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 13 does not permit disclosure of source code to software, and/or any substantial parts of design documents to software, included in the Results, to any Third Party, notwithstanding what it set forth above in this Section 13. Any such disclosure to any Third Party is permitted only if approved in writing by Service Provider.
- 13.7 This confidentiality provision shall survive the expiration or termination of this Service Agreement without limitation in time.

14. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 14.1 This Service Agreement shall become effective when the Main Document is signed by duly authorised signatories of each Party and shall, unless terminated in accordance with this Section 14 below, remain in force until the Services are completed.
- 14.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in the event:
- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Service Agreement, which has not been remedied within 30 days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
 - (b) if the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.
- 14.3 For avoidance of doubt, Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, shall be considered in material breach for the purpose of this Service Agreement.
- 14.4 Furthermore, Purchaser is entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in case Service Provider acts in breach, which is not insignificant, of what is set forth in Section 4.3 and 4.4 provided that the issue first has been escalated in accordance with Section 17.1.
- 14.5 Purchaser shall in addition be entitled to cancel the Services performed by Service Provider for convenience upon 30 days written notice to Service Provider.
- 14.6 In the event Purchaser cancels the Services in accordance with Section 14.5 above, the Service Charges shall, in addition to what is set out in the Main Document, include any other reasonable proven costs Service Provider has incurred until the effective date of the cancellation.
- 14.7 Either Party shall in addition be entitled to terminate the Service Agreement for convenience upon 60 days written notice to the other Party.

15. MISCELLANEOUS

15.1 Force majeure.

- 15.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under the Service Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A “Force Majeure Event” means any event beyond a Party’s reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party’s), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or defaulter delays of suppliers or subcontractors if such default or delay has been caused by a Force Majeure Event.

- 15.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under the Service Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its nonperformance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.
- 15.2 Notices. All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Service Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:
- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
 - (b) if sent by email transmission, at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
 - (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
 - (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;
- in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods. All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be addressed to the address, and with the attention, as set forth in the Main Document, or to such other address, number or email address as a Party may designate.
- 15.3 Assignment.
- 15.3.1 Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Service Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.
- 15.3.2 Notwithstanding the above, each Party may assign this Service Agreement to an Affiliate without the prior written consent of the other Party.
- 15.4 Waiver. Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Service Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Service Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the Service Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.
- 15.5 Severability. In the event any provision of this Service Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Service Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Service Agreement shall remain valid, To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Service Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.
- 15.6 Entire agreement. All arrangements, commitments and undertakings In connection with the subject matter of this Service Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Service Agreement are superseded by this Service Agreement and its Appendices.
- 15.7 Amendments. Any amendment or addition to this Service Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.

15.8 Survival.

- 15.8.1 If this Service Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 5.3 (License grant), Section 13 (Confidentiality), Section 16 (Governing Law), Section 17 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 15.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.
- 15.8.2 Notwithstanding Section 15.8.1 above, if this Service Agreement is terminated due to Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 5.3 (License Grant) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination. For the avoidance of doubt, what is stated in this Section 15.8.2 shall only apply in relation to such licenses granted to Purchaser pursuant to Section 5.3 above and any licenses granted to Service Provider under Section 5.3 shall thus nevertheless remain in force after such termination.

16. GOVERNING LAW

- 16.1 This Service Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Service Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of:
- (a) the People's Republic of China, if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China; and
 - (b) Sweden, if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of Sweden,
- without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

17.1 Escalation principles.

- 17.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.
- 17.1.2 The members of the Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 17.1.3 If the Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice served pursuant to Section 17.1.1 above, such deadlock will be referred to the CEO's of each Party, which shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve the situation in the same way as indicated above. If no Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the CEO's of each Party immediately and Section 17.1.2 above shall not apply.

- 17.1.4 If the CEO'S of each Party cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. for decision. Should the matter not have been resolved by the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. within 30 days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 17.2 below.
- 17.1.5 All notices and communications exchanged In the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 13 above.
- 17.1.6 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 17.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

17.2 Arbitration.

- 17.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall:
- (a) if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China, be submitted to China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Committee ("CIETAC") for arbitration, which shall be held in Shanghai and conducted in accordance with the CIETAC's arbitration rules in effect at the time of applying for arbitration, whereas the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English and Chinese; and
 - (b) if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of Sweden, be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, whereas the seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English, and the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.
- 17.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 17.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 17.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

FINANCIAL UNDERTAKING

AGREEMENT

INVESTMENTS FOR VEHICLE ASSEMBLY

Dated 27 February 2020

Zhongjia Automobile Manufacturing (Chengdu) Co., Ltd.

and

Polestar Automotive China Distribution Co., Ltd.

Production of Polestar 3 vehicles in Volvo Cars plant in Chengdu, China

This Financial Undertaking Agreement—Investments for Vehicle Assembly (this “Agreement”) is dated 27 February 2020 and made between:

- (1) Zhongjia Automobile Manufacturing (Chengdu) Co., Ltd. Reg. No. 1510112562005858U, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of China (“Volvo Cars”); and
- (2) Polestar Automotive China Distribution Co., Ltd. Reg. No. 91510112MA6D05KT88, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the People’s Republic of China (“Polestar”).

Each of Volvo Cars and Polestar is hereinafter referred to as a “Party” and jointly as the “Parties”.

1. BACKGROUND

- 1.1 Polestar and Volvo Cars have agreed to produce certain Polestar products on the SPA2 platform, for the global market, in Volvo Cars Chengdu plant located in China (“VCCD”). Volvo Cars has investigated and identified a possibility to utilise existing manufacturing capacity in VCCD and concluded that it is possible to meet the volumes requested by Polestar.
- 1.2 If Volvo Cars shall be able to free up floor space for new installation and prepare start of production at the time set forth below, then activities that requires funding, for example, purchasing manufacturing equipment, need to start no later than[].
- 1.3 The purpose of this Agreement is to (i) to serve as a binding commitment for Polestar to pay for the investments within the scope set out in this Agreement and (ii) confirm both Parties’ intention to enter into the next agreement for production of Polestar vehicles in VCCD and to summarize certain provisions intended to be included in said contract, which would be subject to changes mutually agreed upon by the Parties.
- 1.4 The Parties have therefore agreed to execute this Agreement.

2. FINANCIAL UNDERTAKING BY POLESTAR RELATING TO TOOLING IN CHENGDU

2.1 Financial undertaking by Polestar

- 2.1.1 By entering into this Agreement, the Parties initiate a co-operation, where Volvo Cars and Polestar will invest to make it possible to manufacture and assemble Polestar cars in VCCD.
- 2.1.2 Such investments are made now and the Parties agree that they will enter into the next agreement for production of Polestar vehicles in VCCD, as described in Section 3 below. This Agreement includes a summary of certain terms and conditions to be included in said agreement. It is acknowledged that such agreement will, upon execution, contain additional material terms, conditions and provisions not yet negotiated or agreed upon by the Parties relating to the subject matter thereof.
- 2.1.3 By entering into this Agreement the Parties have entered into a binding agreement relating to the investments within the scope set out herein that are required to enable Volvo Cars to assemble Polestar cars in VCCD within the contemplated time-frame and to the financial undertakings made by Polestar that correspond to such required investments.
- 2.2 The general principle to be applied for all pricing, cost reimbursement and similar matters between the Parties is arms length’s terms and conditions. Thus, the general principle for the vehicle assembly price will be according to arms length’s terms and conditions, meaning that the vehicle price will be based on actual cost plus a mark-up. Fixed plant costs will be shared by the Parties pro-rata based on forecasted volume, and the principles for the vehicle assembly price as well as the process of defining the pro-rata volume and allocating capacity in the plant based on forecasts will be described in the in the next agreement for production of Polestar vehicles in VCCD.

- 2.3 The Parties acknowledge that Polestar may, for structural purposes, decide to, wholly or partly, assign its rights and/or obligations under this Agreement to one of its Affiliates (either existing or to be established). Such assignment may be made in accordance with Section 8.3 below. Upon such assignment, the rights and obligations of Polestar under this Agreement shall be transferred to, and assumed by, the relevant Affiliate and after which Polestar will be jointly and severally liable for such Affiliate's obligations under this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, until any such assignment is made, Polestar is a Party to this Agreement, and shall duly perform its obligations hereunder. For the purposes of this Agreement "Affiliate" means a legal entity that, directly or indirectly, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with a Party; and control means ownership Or control of at least 50% of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest of such legal entity.

3. CONTENT AND TIMEPLAN FOR AGREEMENTS

An additional agreement for production of Polestar vehicles in VCCD is foreseen, and to be entered into by the Parties. Final timing to be agreed between the Parties. The next agreement will include

- confirmed investments, process for investment allocation, launch cost, the vehicle pricing principles and capacity allocation principles.
- services required for a car assembly, such as call-off to suppliers and inbound logistics for common and type-bound direct-material, in-house manufacturing including Body, Paint and Final Assembly.
- Details related to pricing, finance flow, quality and production planning. Volvo VPDS and Volvo manufacturing principles will be applied.

4. AGREED INVESTMENTS AND PAYMENT TERMS

4.1 Definition of Investment Types

4.1.1 "Type Bound And Unique Equipment" is defined as follows:

4.1.1.1 Tools or equipment or production lines that are related to the Polestar 3 usage only. Type Bound and Unique Equipment can not be, or is not expected to be, re-used without modifications for another product. Some typical examples of Type Bound and Unique Equipment are a Polestar 3 designed gripper, a shaped fixture, a gauging tool or any duplicated or unique manufacturing process aimed to only produce Polestar branded vehicles.

4.1.1.2 Type Bound and Unique Equipment also includes modification of already existing equipment at the manufacturing site that will be modified for manufacturing of only Polestar 3 after the modification. That includes also re-arrangement of existing facilities for the sole purpose to produce the Polestar 3.

4.1.2 "Common Equipment" is defined as follows:

4.1.2.1 Equipment that is planned to be used for manufacturing and assembly of both Polestar 3 and Volvo-branded vehicles.

4.1.2.2 Common equipment also includes modification and re-design of already existing equipment at the manufacturing site that will be modified and re-designed for manufacturing and assembly of both Polestar 3 and Volvo-branded vehicles.

4.1.3 "Launch Cost" means extraordinary costs for the plant that occurs when introducing a new product in the plant. The definition of Launch Cost is according to Volvo VPDS and Volvo manufacturing principles. Examples of Launch Cost elements are, education of plant personel, quality and containment actions, slow build and inefficiencies during pre-builds, pre-build material, sequence set-up for pre-build material, indirect material and scrap, transport cost of pre-build material. It is acknowledged that die Launch Cost amount will be defined and agreed in a separate agreement.

4.2 Agreed Investments

4.2.1 The Parties commit to the following amounts relating to the investments within the scope set out herein (subject to the below in this Section 4.2.1);

- (a) Type Bound And Unique Equipment: [], to be funded and paid by Polestar. Type Bound And Unique Equipment orders shall be funded upfront by Polestar through SRM-system and Polestar will issue the purchase orders and pay the suppliers directly. The Type Bound And Unique Equipment ordered by Polestar will be the property of Polestar. However, the purchase orders will be carried out by Volvo as a service provided to Polestar, subject to a separate agreement. Polestar must approve the terms for the purchase orders prior to sending to the supplier.
- (b) Common Equipment: [], funded and ordered by Volvo Cars. The Common Equipment funded by Volvo Cars will be depreciated and included as part of the SPA2 vehicle prices. Potential subsidies should be considered. The Common Equipment ordered by Volvo Cars will be the property of Volvo Cars and Volvo Cars shall be able to use it for its own vehicles as well. Polestar will be informed regarding investment request amounts before negotiations with equipment suppliers.

If the above stated Common Equipment investment and the related Launch Cost are not recovered by the end of the next agreement for production of Polestar vehicles in VCCD and not possible to mitigate, Polestar will reimburse Volvo Cars such cost, related to capacity share allocated to Polestar of total plant capacity, as a lump sum payment in accordance with the payment terms set forth in Section 4.3. This also applies if the next agreement is not entered into between the Parties. If Polestar at the due date of any above- mentioned lump sum payment has any undisputed claim(s) towards Volvo Cars under the said agreement, Polestar would have a right to set-off such claims against the due and non-recovered investment costs. Should investments be reused by Volvo Cars, the residual value of the original investments should be deducted with the corresponding amounts from the lump sum payable by Polestar.

- (c) It is acknowledged that the investment amounts in this Section 4.2.1 are estimates and that the share between Type Bound And Unique Equipment and Common Equipment will be further specified and adjusted once the detailed cost is specified and agreed with the suppliers. The Parties further acknowledge that the respective investment amounts in this Section 4.2.1 have been approved by the respective Party's company boards. Any change in the respective Party's committed investment is subject to prior written agreement between the Parties. In the event that either Party becomes aware that these amounts might be exceeded, the Parties agree to discuss in good faith and seek for internal approval before any investments that could lead to an overrun of these amounts are done.
- (d) Currency is for guidance only and actual cost could be in other currencies.
- 4.2.2 Volvo Cars will show all the investment costs and other related Launch Cost for Polestar and have a transparent cost follow up system. Further, Polestar shall have the right at any time during the term of this Agreement and until Job1 and two years thereafter, or if termination according to Section 6 before Job1, for two (2) years after such termination, to audit and make copies of all pertinent documents and materials in the possession of Volvo Cars relating to the investment costs to be paid by Polestar under this Agreement. Such audit shall be made during regular business hours and in such manner as will not unreasonably disturb the ordinary business of Volvo Cars. During the term of this Agreement and for a period of one (1) year after the expiry or termination thereof, Volvo Cars agrees to keep records of such investment costs. For the avoidance of doubt, all information obtained during such audit shall be deemed Confidential Information (as defined below) of Volvo Cars.
- 4.2.3 For the avoidance of doubt, the agreed investments set out in this Section 4.2 are based on preparation of Polestar capacity utilization as set forth in Section 5.1.4, and any effects of non-utilization of such capacity by Polestar (e.g. payment of running fixed costs under vehicle assembly) will be covered in the next agreement for production of Polestar vehicles in VCCD. In the event that Polestar does not utilize the allocated and planned capacity or cancel the planned production at VCCD and there is no formal decision made by Volvo Cars SVP Manufacturing & Logistics to use the capacity for Volvo Cars, Polestar will cover the running fixed costs related to the capacity share allocated to Polestar of total plant capacity. Volvo Cars will make reasonable efforts to make use of the invested capacity.
- 4.3 Payment terms
- 4.3.1 All amounts and payments referred to in this Agreement are exclusive of VAT, and any other taxes will be charged in accordance with applicable laws. The amounts to be paid in the transaction currency the investment was originally made.
- 4.3.2 In the event that Polestar should pay Volvo Cars a lump-sum according to Section 4.2.1, c), 4.2.3, 6.3 or 6.4, Volvo Cars will invoice Polestar once Volvo Cars has, after prior consultation with Polestar, concluded the amount payable. All amounts invoiced by Volvo Cars to Polestar shall be paid by Polestar within forty-five (45) days after receipt of such invoice.
- 4.3.3 With respect to any payment made later than the due date, such will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid. The interest rate to be applied under this Agreement shall be based on the one (1) month applicable interbank rate, with an addition of two per cent (2%) per annum.

5. SCOPE AND PREREQUISITES

5.1 Description of scope and pre-requisites

- 5.1.1 The product considered and investigated for the contract manufacturing and assembly is the Polestar 3, with 100% BEV, including battery pack assembly process. The technical specification of the Polestar 3 for the contract manufacturing and assembly is defined in the Polestar 3 Car Project Agreement. A second model, [], is planned for with allocated space in the layouts for the plant, but investments required for production of [] are not included in this Agreement.

- 5.1.2 Modular Electronic Powertrain ("MEP") deliveries from a Volvo Cars owned site are subject to separate agreements by respective legal entity and investments required are not included in this Agreement.
- 5.1.3 Start of production for Polestar 3 is planned []. Start of production for [] is planned [].
- 5.1.4 Polestar will be allocated the volumes Polestar is requesting, according to below forecast. The total capacity of VCCD is [] vehicles per year.
[]
- 5.1.5 []
- 5.1.6 []

6. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 6.1 This Agreement shall become effective when signed by duly authorised signatories of each Party and shall, unless terminated in accordance with Section 6.2 below, remain in force until the next agreement for production of Polestar vehicles in VCCD is signed. It is acknowledged that the Parties aim to include in said agreement, as the case may be, provisions (i) covering the subject matter of this Agreement, and (ii) stating that said agreements will, upon execution, replace and supersede this Agreement, except for any provisions in this Agreement which the Parties agree shall remain in force.
- 6.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect in the event;
 - (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Agreement, which has not been remedied within sixty (60) days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
 - (b) the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.
- 6.3 Before Job1, Polestar has the right to terminate this Agreement for convenience upon 60 days written notice to Volvo Cars. In the event that Polestar exercises this termination right, Polestar shall reimburse Volvo Cars for the Polestar committed investments and Launch Cost according to Section 4.2.1 as a result of such investments not being possible to mitigate. Polestar bears the burden of proof for any alleged possible mitigation. Any circumstance which would release Polestar from such payment obligation would have to be expressly specified in writing in this agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 6.3 shall not apply if Polestar terminates this Agreement in accordance with Section 6.2 above.
- 6.4 Before Job1, Volvo Cars has the right to terminate this Agreement in the event of an unremedied material breach thereof by Polestar. An unremedied material breach would be, for example, repeatedly missing or unvalid delays of approval of Type Bound and Unique facility orders or other actions that will jeopardize other Volvo Cars programs at VCCD or other production sites. In such case, Polestar shall, in addition to other remedies available to Volvo Cars, reimburse Volvo Cars for the Polestar committed investments and Launch Cost according to Section 4.2.1 as a result of such investments not being possible to mitigate.

7. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

7.1 Either Party or its Affiliates ("Disclosing Party") may disclose Confidential Information to the other Party or its Affiliates ("Receiving Party") in connection with this Agreement. All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes set forth in this Agreement.

"Confidential Information" means any and all information regarding the Parties and their respective businesses, whether commercial or technical, in whatever form or media, including but not limited to information relating to Intellectual Property Rights, concepts, technologies, processes, commercial figures, techniques, strategic plans and budgets, investments, customers and sales, designs, graphics, CAD models, CAE data, statement of works (including engineering statement of works and any high-level project plan), targets, test plans/reports, technical performance data and engineering sign-off documents and other information of a sensitive nature, that a Party learns from or about the other Party prior to or after the execution of this Agreement.

7.2 Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Agreement and will not divulge the same to any third party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 7.2 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or sub-contractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:

- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
- (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
- (c) is obtained from a third party who is free to divulge the same;
- (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations; or
- (e) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.

7.3 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the dissemination to third parties or publication of the Confidential Information, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section.

7.4 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.

7.5 This Section shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement without limitation in time.

8. MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Force majeure

- 8.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under this Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A “Force Majeure Event” means any event beyond a Party’s reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including but not limited to strikes (whether involving its own workforce or a third party’s), failure of general energy sources delivering energy to the plant, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions.
- 8.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under this Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its non-performance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

8.2 Notices

- 8.2.1 All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:
- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
 - (b) if sent by or email transmission at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
 - (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
 - (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;
- in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods.
- 8.2.2 All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be sent to following addresses:

8.3 Assignment

- 8.3.1 Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent, not to be unreasonably withheld.

8.4 Waiver

Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.

8.5 Severability

In the event any provision of this Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.

8.6 Entire agreement

All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Agreement are superseded by this Agreement.

8.7 Amendments

Any amendment or addition to this Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.

8.8 Survival

If this Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 6 above, Sections 0-4.3, Section 7 (Confidential Information), Section 9 (Governing Law), Section 10 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 8.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.

9. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of China without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

10. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Escalation principles

- 10.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the "Steering Committee", which regarding the cooperation between the Parties is the so called Volvo Polestar M&L Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.
- 10.2 The members of the Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 10.3 If the Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice served pursuant to Section 10.1 above, such deadlock will be referred to the CEO's of Volvo Car Corporation and Polestar Performance AB, which shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve the situation in the same way as indicated above. If no Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the CEO's of Volvo Car Corporation and Polestar Performance AB immediately and Section 10.2 above shall not apply.
- 10.4 If the CEO's of Volvo Car Corporation and Polestar Performance AB cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. for decision. Should the matter not have been resolved by the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. within 30 days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 10.7 below.
- 10.5 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 7 above.
- 10.6 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 10 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set but above are not appropriate.

10.7 Arbitration

- 10.7.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall be submitted to China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Committee ("CIETAC") for arbitration, which shall be held in Shanghai and conducted in accordance with the CIETAC's arbitration rules in effect at the time of applying for arbitration, whereas the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English and Chinese.
- 10.7.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.

- 10.7.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 10.7.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

This Agreement has been signed in two (2) originals, of which the parties have received one (1) each.

SERVICE AGREEMENT MAIN DOCUMENT

Name of Project: IT-adjustments for [] production in VCCD

Short description of activities under this Service Agreement: The Service Provider will prepare the VCCD existing IT solutions to support the [] production in the VCCD plant.

This Service Agreement is between Zhongjia Automobile Manufacturing (Chengdu) Co., Ltd. Reg. No. 1510112562005858U, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of China ("Service Provider"), and Polestar Automotive China Distribution Co. Ltd., Reg. No. 91510112MA6D05KT88, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of China ("Purchaser").

Each of Service Provider and Purchaser is hereinafter referred to as a "Party" and jointly as the "Parties".

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have determined that Service Provider shall provide to Purchaser certain Services (as defined in the General Terms), which are further described in the Service Specification in Appendix 1. The provision of the Services shall be performed in accordance with the terms in this service agreement and its appendices (the "Service Agreement").
- B. Purchaser now wishes to enter into this Service Agreement for the purpose of receiving the Services and Service Provider wishes to provide the Services in accordance with the terms set forth in this Service Agreement.
- C. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Service Agreement.

AGREEMENT

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This Service Agreement consists of this main document (the "Main Document") and its appendices. This Main Document sets out the specific terms in respect of the provision of the Services, whereas Appendix 2 sets out certain general terms and conditions applicable to the Parties' rights, obligations and performance of the Parties' activities hereunder (the "General Terms").
- 1.2 All capitalized terms used, but not specifically defined in this Main Document, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the General Terms.

2. SERVICE SPECIFICATION

- 2.1 The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification for the Services as specified in the Service Specification in Appendix 1.

3. AFFILIATE

3.1 Affiliate shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the following meaning:

“Affiliate” means any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by or is under common control with Zhongjia Automobile Manufacturing (Chengdu) Co., Ltd. or Polestar Automotive Holding Limited and control means the possession, directly or indirectly, by agreement or otherwise, of (i) at least 50% of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest, or (ii) the power (a) to appoint or remove a majority of the board of directors or other governing body of an entity, or (b) to cause the direction of the management of an entity.

4. SERVICE CHARGES

4.1 In consideration of Service Provider’s performance of the Services under this Service Agreement, Purchaser shall to pay to Service Provider the service charges as further described below (the “Service Charges”).

4.2 The Service Charges for the Services will be based on the actual hours required for the Services to be performed by Service Provider as set forth in the Service Specification in Appendix 1 and the hourly rates as set forth in Appendix 3. The Parties acknowledge that the estimated Service Charges set forth in the Service Specification in Appendix 1, are based on an estimation of the amount of hours required for the performance of the Services and that this estimation may differ from the final actual number of hours charged by Service Provider. Hence, the Service Charges will ultimately be invoiced based on actual hours, not on estimated hours.

4.3 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency: CNY.

4.4 The hourly rates that are used to calculate the Service Charges shall be determined by Service Provider on an annual basis in compliance with applicable tax legislation, including but not limited to the principle of “arm’s length distance” between the Parties. The hourly rates shall be calculated using the cost plus method, i.e. full cost incurred plus an arm’s length mark-up. All costs Service Provider has in order to perform the Services shall be reimbursed by Purchaser.

5. PAYMENT

5.1 If Service Provider, pursuant to the General Terms, appoints its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, Service Provider shall include the costs relating to such work in the invoices to Purchaser.

5.2 The actual Service Charges shall be invoiced on a monthly basis at the end of each month and paid by Purchaser in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms.

6. GOVERNANCE FORUM

6.1 The Parties agree that governance in respect of this Service Agreement shall be handled in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms in Appendix 2. When reference is made to a relevant governance forum, it shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the meaning set out below in this Section 6.

- 6.2 The first level of governance forum for handling the co-operation between the Parties in various matters, handling management, prioritisation of development activities etc. under the Service Agreement shall be the “Steering Committee”, which regarding cooperation between Service Provider and Purchaser is the so called Polestar M&L Steering Committee. The Steering Committee shall be the first level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.
- 6.3 The higher level of governance forum, to which an issue shall be escalated if the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution shall be the “Strategic Board”, which regarding cooperation between Service Provider and Purchaser is the so called Volvo Polestar Executive Meeting. The Strategic Board shall be the highest level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

7. TEMPLATE FINANCIAL REPORTING

- 7.1 The Parties agree that the basis for calculating the Service Charges shall be transparent and auditable to Purchaser and be done based on the template attached as Appendix 4.

8. ORDER OF PRIORITY

- 8.1 In the event there are any contradictions or inconsistencies between the terms of this Main Document and any of the Appendices hereto, the Parties agree that the following order of priority shall apply:
- (1) This Main Document,
 - (2) Appendix 2, General Terms-Service Agreement
 - (3) Appendix 1, Service Specification
 - (4) Appendix 3, Hourly Rates
 - (5) Appendix 4, Template Financial Reporting

9. NOTICES

- 9.1 All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Service Agreement shall be sent to the following addresses and shall otherwise be sent in accordance with the terms in the General Terms:

SERVICE AGREEMENT
APPENDIX 2
GENERAL TERMS

1. BACKGROUND

This Appendix 2, General Terms -Service Agreement, (the "General Terms") is an Appendix to the Main Document and Is an integrated part of the Service Agreement entered into between the Parties.

2. DEFINITIONS

- 2.1 For the purpose of these General Terms, the following terms shall have the meanings assigned to them below. All capitalized terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa. Any capitalized terms used, but not specifically defined below in this Section 2, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Main Document.
- 2.2 "Appendix" means an appendix to the Main Document.
- 2.3 "Background IP" means the Intellectual Property Rights either:
- (a) owned by either of the Parties;
 - (b) created, developed or invented by directors, managers, employees or consultants of either of the Parties;
 - (c) to which the Party has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sublicense prior to the execution of this Service Agreement, and any Intellectual Property Rights developed or otherwise acquired independently of this Service Agreement.
- 2.4 "Confidential Information" means any and all non-public information regarding the Parties and their respective businesses, whether commercial or technical, in whatever form or media, including but not limited to the existence, content and subject matter of this Service Agreement, information relating to Intellectual Property Rights, concepts, technologies, processes, commercial figures, techniques, algorithms, formulas, methodologies, knowhow, strategic plans and budgets, investments, customers and sales, designs, graphics, CAD models, CAE data, statement of works (including engineering statement of works and any high level specification), targets, test plans/reports, technical performance data and engineering sign-off documents and other information of a sensitive nature, that a Party learns from or about the other Party prior to or after the execution of this Service Agreement.

- 2.6 "EU Data Protection Laws" shall mean collectively, any applicable data protection, privacy or similar law generally applicable to the processing of personal data, including but not limited to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation) and any act or piece of national legislation implementing, supporting or otherwise incorporating said regulation, including any amendment made to any of the foregoing.
- 2.7 "Force Majeure Event" shall have the meaning set out in Section 15.1.
- 2.8 "Industry Standard" means the exercise of such professionalism, skill, diligence, prudence and foresight that would normally be expected at any given time from a skilled and experienced actor engaged in a similar type of undertaking as under this Service Agreement.
- 2.9 "Intellectual Property Rights" or "IP" means Patents, Non-patented IP, rights in Confidential Information and Know-How to the extent protected under applicable laws anywhere in the world. For the avoidance of doubt, Trademarks are not comprised by this definition.

- 2.10 “Know-How” means confidential and proprietary industrial, technical and commercial information and techniques in any form including (without limitation) drawings, formulae, test results, reports, project reports and testing procedures, instruction and training manuals, tables of operating conditions, specifications, component lists, market forecasts, lists and particulars of customers and suppliers.
- 2.11 “Main Document” means the contract document (with the heading “Main Document—Service Agreement”), which is signed by Service Provider and Purchaser, to which these General Terms are an Appendix.
- 2.12 “Non-patented IP” means copyrights (including rights in computer software), database rights, semiconductor topography rights, rights in designs, and other intellectual property rights (other than Trademarks and Patents) and all rights or forms of protection having equivalent or similar effect anywhere in the world, in each case whether registered or unregistered, and registered includes registrations, applications for registration and renewals whether made before, on or after execution of this Service Agreement.
- 2.13 “Patent” means any patent, patent application, or utility model, whether filed before, on or after execution of this Service Agreement, along with any continuation, continuation-in-part, divisional, re-examined or re-issued patent, foreign counterpart or renewal or extension of any of the foregoing.
- 2.14 “Receiving Party” means the Party receiving Confidential Information from the Disclosing Party.
- 2.15 “Results” shall mean any outcome of the Services provided to Purchaser under this Service Agreement (including but not limited to any IP, technology, software, methods, processes, deliverables, objects, products, documentation, modifications, improvements, and/or amendments to be carried out by Service Provider under the Service Specification) and any other outcome or result of the Services to be performed by Service Provider as described in the relevant Service Specification, irrespective of whether the performance of the Services has been completed or not.
- 2.16 “Services” shall mean the services to be performed by Service Provider to Purchaser hereunder, including all services under the Appendices attached hereto.
- 2.17 “Service Agreement” means the Main Document including all of its Appendices and their Schedules as amended from time to time.
- 2.18 “Service Charges” means the service charges as set forth or referenced to in the Main Document.
- 2.19 “Service Specification” describes the Services to be provided by Service Provider to Purchaser hereunder including (if applicable) a time plan for the provision of the Services, which is included as Appendix 1 in this Service Agreement.
- 2.20 “Third Party” means a party other than any of the Parties and/or an Affiliate of one of the Parties to this Service Agreement.
- 2.21 “Trademarks” means trademarks (including part numbers that are trademarks), service marks, logos, trade names, business names, assumed names, trade dress and get-up, and domain names, in each case whether registered or unregistered, including all applications, registrations, renewals and the like, in each case to the extent they constitute rights that are enforceable against Third Parties.
- 2.22 “Use” means to make, have made, use (including in a process, such as use in designing, engineering, testing or assembling products or in their research or development), keep, install, integrate, extract, assemble, reproduce, incorporate, create derivative works of, modify, adapt, improve, enhance, develop, service or repair, including in the case of installation, integration, assembly, service or repair, the right to have a subcontractor of any tier carry out any of these activities on behalf of the Parties in their capacity as a licensee hereunder.

- 2.23 The right to “have made” is the right of a Party in its capacity as a licensee hereunder, as applicable, to have another person (or their subcontractor of any tier) make for that Party and does not include the right to grant sublicenses to another person to make for such person’s own use or use other than for that Party.

3. PROVISION OF SERVICES

- 3.1 Service Specification. The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification of the Services provided under this Service Agreement in the Service Specification.
- 3.2 Service Recipients. In addition to Purchaser, all of Purchaser’s Affiliates shall be entitled to receive and use the Services under this Service Agreement. Nevertheless, Purchaser shall be Service Provider’s sole point of contact and shall be responsible for payment of the Service Charges as set forth in this Service Agreement, irrespectively of whether it is Purchaser or any of Purchaser’s Affiliates that in reality received and used the Services.

3.3 Subcontractors.

- 3.3.1 The Parties acknowledge that Service Provider may use its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, provided that Service Provider informs Purchaser thereof.
- 3.3.2 Service Provider shall however remain responsible for the performance, and any omission to perform or comply with the provisions of this Service Agreement, by any Affiliate to Service Provider and/or any subcontractor to the same extent as if such performance or omission was made by Service Provider itself. Service Provider shall also remain Purchaser’s sole point of contact unless otherwise agreed.
- 3.4 Relationship between the Parties. The Parties are acting as independent contractors when performing each Party’s respective obligations under the Service Agreement. Neither Party nor its Affiliates are agents for the other Party or its Affiliates and have no authority to represent them in relation to any matters. Nothing in these General Terms or the Service Agreement shall be construed as to constitute a partnership or joint venture between the Parties.

4. SERVICE REQUIREMENTS

- 4.1 All Services shall be performed in accordance with the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement, including the Service Specification, and otherwise in a professional manner.
- 4.2 When providing the Services, Service Provider shall use professional and skilled personnel, reasonably experienced for the Services to be performed, Service Provider shall work according to the same standard of care and professionalism that is done in Service Provider’s internal business and development projects. Such standard of care and professionalism, shall however at all times correspond to Industry Standard. For the avoidance of doubt, Service Provider is responsible for all necessary recruiting and hiring costs associated with employing appropriate personnel as well as all necessary training costs.
- 4.3 Service Provider acknowledges that time is of essence and Service Provider agrees to strictly respect and adhere to the deadlines set out in the Service Specification in Appendix 1, such as time limits, milestones and gates. In the event Service Provider risks not to meet an agreed deadline or is otherwise in delay with the performance of the Services, Service Provider shall appoint additional resources in order to avoid the effects of the anticipated delay or the delay (as the case may be).
- 4.4 In the event the Services or any part thereof, more than insignificantly deviate from the requirements set forth in the Service Specification, or if Service Provider otherwise does not meet or ceases to meet the requirements set forth In this Service Agreement (except for minor faults and defects, which do not affect the provision of the Services), Service Provider shall remedy such noncompliance, fault or defect as soon as reasonably possible.

- 4.5 In the event Service Provider fails to act in accordance with Section 4.3 and 4.4 above, such failure shall be escalated in accordance with the escalation principles set forth in Section 17.1 and eventually give Purchaser the right to terminate the Service Agreement in accordance with Section 14.4.
- 4.6 Purchaser shall provide Service Provider with instructions as reasonably required for Service Provider to be able to carry out the Services. Service Provider must continuously inform Purchaser of any needs of additional instructions or specifications required to perform the Services.
- 4.7 Service Provider shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its undertakings under this Service Agreement. Further, Service Provider undertakes to ensure that the performance of the Services will not be given lower priority than other of Service Provider's internal similar projects.

5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

5.1 Ownership of existing Intellectual Property Rights.

5.1.1 Each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of its Background IP.

5.1.2 Nothing in this Service Agreement shall be deemed to constitute an assignment of, or license to use, any Trademarks of the other Party.

5.2 Ownership of Results. In the event any Results are created as a result of the Services provided by Service Provider (or if applicable, any of its appointed Affiliates or subcontractors) under this Service Agreement, the Parties agree that Service Provider shall be the exclusive owner of such Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof. Hence, all Results shall automatically upon their creation stay with Service Provider. Service Provider shall further have the right to transfer, sublicense, modify and otherwise freely dispose of the Results.

5.3 License grant.

5.3.1 Upon creation of the Results, Purchaser shall at the same time automatically be granted a non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any IP or Background IP included in the license described hereunder)), non-assignable (however assignable to Purchaser's Affiliates), worldwide license to Use, in whole or in part, the Results and, if applicable, any Background IP embedded in or otherwise used in the development of the Results. The license granted in this Section 5.3.1 is limited to the extent such license is necessary for Purchaser to make use of the Services provided hereunder and to enable an orderly transfer to another service provider after the termination and/or expiry of this Service Agreement.

5.3.2 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Service Agreement, nothing in these General Terms or otherwise in the Service Agreement shall be construed as to give the other Party any rights, including but not limited to any license rights (express or implied), to any Background IP, except as expressly stated herein.

5.4 Volvo brand name.

5.4.1 For the sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the "Volvo" brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to "Volvo" in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the "Volvo" Trademarks as well as the "Volvo" name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the "Volvo" Trademarks is subject to a service agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related Intellectual Property can only be used by Volvo Car Corporation and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.

5.4.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Volvo" brand name or "Volvo" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

5.5 Polestar brand name.

- 5.5.1 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the Polestar brand name or Trademarks, or refer to Polestar in communications or official documents of whatever kind.
- 5.5.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the Polestar brand name or Polestar Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

6. SERVICE CHARGES

- 6.1 In consideration of Service Provider's performance of the Services under this Service Agreement, Purchaser agrees to pay to Service Provider the Service Charges as set forth or referenced to in the Main Document.

7. PAYMENT TERMS

- 7.1 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency set forth in the Main Document, in a timely manner and in accordance with the payment terms set forth in this Section 7.
- 7.2 All amounts referred to in this Service Agreement are exclusive of VAT, VAT will be added in accordance with local legislation.
- 7.3 Any amount of the Service Charges invoiced by Service Provider to Purchaser shall be paid by Purchaser within 45 days after the invoice date.
- 7.4 Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based on the one month applicable interbank rate, depending on invoice and currency, with an addition of two per cent (2.0%) per annum.
- 7.5 Any paid portion of the Service Charges is non-refundable, with the exception set forth in the Main Document.

8. AUDIT

- 8.1 During the term of the Service Agreement, Purchaser shall have the right to, upon reasonable notice in writing to Service Provider, inspect Service Provider's books and records related to the Services and the premises where the Services are performed, in order to conduct quality controls and otherwise verify the statements rendered under this Service Agreement.
- 8.2 Audits shall be made during regular business hours and be conducted by Purchaser or by an independent auditor appointed by Purchaser. Should Purchaser during any inspection find that Service Provider or the Services does/do not fulfil the requirements set forth herein, Purchaser is entitled to comment on the identified deviations. Service Provider shall, upon notice from Purchaser, take reasonable efforts to take the actions required in order to fulfil the requirements. In the event the Parties cannot agree upon measures to be taken in respect of the audit, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.

9. REPRESENTATIONS

- 9.1 Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:
- (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;
 - (b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Service Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;
 - (c) the execution, delivery and performance of this Service Agreement have been duly authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate any laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and
 - (d) this Service Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

10. SERVICE WARRANTY

- 10.1 When performing the Services, Service Provider shall provide professional and skilled personnel, reasonably experienced for the Services to be performed at the best of their knowledge.

- 10.2 Service Provider provides the Services “as is”. Service Provider does neither warrant nor represent that any Services, provided or delivered to Purchaser hereunder are functional for the business needs of Purchaser or otherwise suitable for any specific purpose, nor that the Services, are not infringing any Intellectual Property of any third party. Service Provider does neither give any representations or warranties as regards the merchantability of the deliverables to be delivered hereunder nor any other representations or warranties of any kind whatsoever concerning the Services. Purchaser acknowledges that the price of the Services to be performed and other deliverables to be delivered by Service Provider are set in consideration of the foregoing.
- 10.3 Service Provider shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to Purchaser’s use of the Services notify Purchaser of such claim in writing and Purchaser shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the third party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. Purchaser shall at all times keep Service Provider informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with Service Provider on appropriate actions to take. If Purchaser fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend Service Provider within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, Service Provider shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/ or over any settlement negotiation at Purchaser’s cost. Any settlement proposed by Purchaser on its own account must take account of potential implications for Service Provider and shall therefore be agreed with Service Provider before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party’s control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

11. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 11.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Service Agreement.
- 11.2 Each Party’s aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement shall be limited to 30 % of the total Service Charges payable by Purchaser to Service Provider hereunder.
- 11.3 The limitations of liability set forth in this Section 11 shall not apply in respect of:
- (a) claims related to death or bodily injury;
 - (b) damage caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence;
 - (c) damage caused by a Party’s breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 13 below; or
 - (d) damage arising out of an infringement, or alleged infringement, of the other Party’s or any third party’s Intellectual Property.

12. GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES

12.1 Governance.

- 12.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Service Agreement as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Service Agreement.
- 12.1.2 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Service Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event the Parties on an operational level cannot agree upon inter alia the prioritisation of development activities or other aspects relating to the co-operation between the Parties, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.
- 12.1.3 If the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution of the disagreement the relevant issue should be escalated to the Strategic Board for decision.
- 12.2 Changes.
- 12.3 During the term of this Service Agreement, Purchaser can request changes to the Service Specification, which shall be handled in accordance with the governance procedure set forth in Section 12.1 above. Both Parties agree to act in good faith to address and respond to any change request within a reasonable period of time.
- 12.4 The Parties acknowledge that Service Provider will not perform in accordance with such change request until agreed in writing between the Parties. For the avoidance of any doubt, until there is agreement about the requested change, all work shall continue in accordance with the existing Service Specification.

13. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 13.1 The Parties shall take any and all necessary measures to comply with the security and confidentiality procedures of the other Party.
- 13.2 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes comprised by the fulfilment of this Service Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Service Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 13.2 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or sub-contractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:
- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
 - (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
 - (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
 - (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;
 - (e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or
 - (f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.
- 13.3 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 13.

- 13.4 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as “Confidential,” “Proprietary” or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within 30 days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as “Confidential”, “Proprietary” or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 13.5 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 13, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section 17-2 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 13.6 For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 13 does not permit disclosure of source code to software, and/or any substantial parts of design documents to software, included in the Results, to any Third Party, notwithstanding what it set forth above in this Section 13. Any such disclosure to any Third Party is permitted only if approved in writing by Service Provider.
- 13.7 This confidentiality provision shall survive the expiration or termination of this Service Agreement without limitation in time.

14. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 14.1 This Service Agreement shall become effective when the Main Document is signed by duly authorised signatories of each Party and shall, unless terminated in accordance with this Section 14 below, remain in force until the Services are completed.
- 14.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in the event:
- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Service Agreement, which has not been remedied within 30 days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
 - (b) if the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.

- 14.3 For avoidance of doubt, Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, shall be considered in material breach for the purpose of this Service Agreement.
- 14.4 Furthermore, Purchaser is entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in case Service Provider acts in breach, which is not insignificant, of what is set forth in Section 4.3 and 4.4 provided that the issue first has been escalated in accordance with Section 17.1.
- 14.5 Purchaser shall in addition be entitled to cancel the Services performed by Service Provider for convenience upon 30 days written notice to Service Provider.
- 14.6 In the event Purchaser cancels the Services in accordance with Section 14.5 above, the Service Charges shall, in addition to what is set out in the Main Document, include any other reasonable proven costs Service Provider has incurred until the effective date of the cancellation.
- 14.7 Either Party shall in addition be entitled to terminate the Service Agreement for convenience upon 60 days written notice to the other Party.

15. MISCELLANEOUS

15.1 Force majeure.

- 15.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under the Service Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A “Force Majeure Event” means any event beyond a Party’s reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party’s), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors if such default or delay has been caused by a Force Majeure Event.
- 15.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under the Service Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its nonperformance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

- 15.2 Notices. All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Service Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:
- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
 - (b) if sent by email transmission, at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
 - (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
 - (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods. All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be addressed to the address, and with the attention, as set forth in the Main Document, or to such other address, number or email address as a Party may designate.

15.3 Assignment.

15.3.1 Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Service Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.

15.3.2 Notwithstanding the above, each Party may assign this Service Agreement to an Affiliate without the prior written consent of the other Party.

15.4 Waiver. Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Service Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Service Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the Service Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.

15.5 Severability. In the event any provision of this Service Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Service Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Service Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Service Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.

15.6 Entire agreement. All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Service Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Service Agreement are superseded by this Service Agreement and its Appendices.

15.7 Amendments. Any amendment or addition to this Service Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.

15.8 Survival.

15.8.1 If this Service Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 5.3 (License grant), Section 13 (Confidentiality), Section 16 (Governing Law), Section 17 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 15.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.

15.8.2 Notwithstanding Section 15.8.1 above, if this Service Agreement is terminated due to Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 5.3 (License Grant) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination. For the avoidance of doubt, what is stated in this Section 15.8.2 shall only apply in relation to such licenses granted to Purchaser pursuant to Section 5.3 above and any licenses granted to Service Provider under Section 5.3 shall thus nevertheless remain in force after such termination.

16. GOVERNING LAW

16.1 This Service Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Service Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of:

- (a) the People's Republic of China, if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China; and
- (b) Sweden, if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of Sweden, Without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

17.1 Escalation principles.

17.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.

17.1.2 The members of the Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.

17.1.3 If the Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the Strategic Board for decision. If no Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the Strategic Board. Should the matter not have been resolved by the Strategic Board within 30 days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 17.2 below.

17.1.4 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 13 above.

17.1.5 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 17.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the Strategic Board in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

17.2 Arbitration.

17.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall:

- (a) if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China, be submitted to China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Committee ("CIETAC") for arbitration, which shall be held in Shanghai and conducted in accordance with the CIETAC's arbitration rules in effect at the time of applying for arbitration, whereas the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English and Chinese; and
- (b) if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of Sweden, be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, whereas the seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English, and the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.

17.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.

17.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.

17.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

SERVICE AGREEMENT MAIN DOCUMENT

Name of Project: IT-adjustments for [] production in VCCD

Short description of activities under this Service Agreement: The Service Provider will prepare the VCCD existing IT solutions to support the [] production in the VCCD plant.

This Service Agreement is between Volvo Car Corporation, Reg. No. 556074-3089, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Sweden ("Service Provider"), and Polestar Automotive China Distribution Co. Ltd., Reg. No. 91510112MA6D05KT88, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Sweden ("Purchaser").

Each of Service Provider and Purchaser is hereinafter referred to as a "Party" and jointly as the "Parties".

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have determined that Service Provider shall provide to Purchaser certain Services (as defined in the General Terms), which are further described in the Service Specification in Appendix 1. The provision of the Services shall be performed in accordance with the terms in this service agreement and its appendices (the "Service Agreement").
- B. Purchaser now wishes to enter into this Service Agreement for the purpose of receiving the Services and Service Provider wishes to provide the Services in accordance with the terms set forth in this Service Agreement.
- C. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Service Agreement.

AGREEMENT

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This Service Agreement consists of this main document (the "Main Document") and its appendices. This Main Document sets out the specific terms in respect of the provision of the Services, whereas Appendix 2 sets out certain general terms and conditions applicable to the Parties' rights, obligations and performance of the Parties' activities hereunder (the "General Terms").
- 1.2 All capitalized terms used, but not specifically defined in this Main Document, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the General Terms.

2. SERVICE SPECIFICATION

- 2.1 The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification for the Services as specified in the Service Specification in Appendix 1.

3. AFFILIATE

3.1 Affiliate shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the following meaning:

“Affiliate” means any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by or is under common control with Volvo Car Corporation or Polestar Automotive Holding Limited and control means the possession, directly or indirectly, by agreement or otherwise, of (I) at least 50% of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest, or (ii) the power (a) to appoint or remove a majority of the board of directors or other governing body of an entity, or (b) to cause the direction of the management of an entity.

4. SERVICE CHARGES

4.1 in consideration of Service Provider’s performance of the Services under this Service Agreement, Purchaser shall to pay to Service Provider the service charges as further described below (the “Service Charges”).

4.2 The Service Charges for the Services will be based on the actual hours required for the Services to be performed by Service Provider as set forth in the Service Specification in Appendix 1 and the hourly rates as set forth in Appendix 3. The Parties acknowledge that the estimated Service Charges set forth in the Service Specification in Appendix 1, are based on an estimation of the amount of hours required for the performance of the Services and that this estimation may differ from the final actual number of hours charged by Service Provider. Hence, the Service Charges will ultimately be invoiced based on actual hours, not on estimated hours.

4.3 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency: SEK.

4.4 The hourly rates that are used to calculate the Service Charges shall be determined by Service Provider on an annual basis in compliance with applicable tax legislation, including but not limited to the principle of “arm’s length distance” between the Parties. The hourly rates shall be calculated using the cost plus method, i.e. full cost incurred plus an arm’s length mark-up. All costs Service Provider has in order to perform the Services shall be reimbursed by Purchaser.

5. PAYMENT

5.1 If Service Provider, pursuant to the General Terms, appoints its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, Service Provider shall include the costs relating to such work in the Invoices to Purchaser.

5.2 The actual Service Charges shall be invoiced on a monthly basis at the end of each month and paid by Purchaser in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms.

6. GOVERNANCE FORUM

6.1 The Parties agree that governance in respect of this Service Agreement shall be handled in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms in Appendix 2. When reference is made to a relevant governance forum, it shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the meaning set out below in this Section 6.

6.2 The first level of governance forum for handling the co-operation between the Parties in various matters, handling management, prioritisation of development activities etc. under the Service Agreement shall be the “Steering Committee”, which regarding cooperation between Service Provider and Purchaser is the so called Volvo Polestar M&L Steering Committee. The Steering Committee shall be the first level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

- 6.3 The higher level of governance forum, to which an issue shall be escalated if the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution shall be the “Strategic Board”, which regarding cooperation between Service Provider and Purchaser is the so called Volvo Polestar Executive Meeting. The Strategic Board shall be the highest level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

7. TEMPLATE FINANCIAL REPORTING

- 7.1 The Parties agree that the basis for calculating the Service Charges shall be transparent and auditable to Purchaser and be done based on the template attached as Appendix 4.

8. ORDER OF PRIORITY

- 8.1 In the event there are any contradictions or inconsistencies between the terms of this Main Document and any of the Appendices hereto, the Parties agree that the following order of priority shall apply;

- (1) This Main Document
- (2) Appendix 2, General Terms—Service Agreement
- (3) Appendix 1, Service Specification
- (4) Appendix 3, Hourly Rates
- (5) Appendix 4, Template Financial Reporting

9. NOTICES

- 9.1 All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Service Agreement shall be sent to the following addresses and shall otherwise be sent in accordance with the terms in the General Terms:

SERVICE AGREEMENT
APPENDIX 1
SERVICE SPECIFICATION, SE-CH

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This Service Specification is a part of the Service Agreement executed between Service Provider and Purchaser. This Service Specification sets out the scope and the specification of the activities that shall be performed under the Service Agreement, the division of responsibilities between Service Provider and Purchaser and the applicable time plan for the performance of the activities.

2. DEFINITIONS

Any capitalised terms used but not specifically defined herein shall have the meanings set out for such terms in the Main Document.

3. GENERAL DESCRIPTION

- 3.1 The Parties have agreed that the Service Provider will prepare the VCCD existing IT solutions (Infrastructure and applications) to support the [] (Polestar 3) car production in the VCCD plant, including rolling out the global IT solution supporting the new Battery Assembly, and the new Merge Center in Chengdu.
- 3.2 The overall objectives of the activities are to have Production, Quality and Order Handling applications and Infrastructure—described in section 5—configured, integrated, tested and UAT approved with VCCD Manufacturing.

4. ASSUMPTIONS/PRE-REQUISITES

Shopfloor IT is implemented according to agreed time plan and set-up.

Business requirements are set and communicated in a timely manner.

Availability and cooperation of necessary IT, Business and ME resources—local and global to support the project

VCC Standard equipment and Tools (Shopfloor IT).

VCC Standard integration between IT and Shopfloor IT.

Battery plant building ready and accessible.

5. DESCRIPTION OF THE SERVICE ACTIVITIES

The relevant IT systems will be upgraded with new functionality, configured and tested to support the [] production in VCCD—including the global IT solution supporting the new Battery Assembly, new Merge Centre at Business milestone PP (Pilot Production) and new/upgraded Infrastructure.

The products involved are: Prepare production, Product control, Quality, Plant maintenance) Connected shopfloor, Material Demand, Factory Support (Infrastructure), ProdOrder&Scheduling, Finance

The goal for this project is to have all necessary IT deliverables in place to support the []-production in Chengdu at the right moment in the business project phases.

Within the project we are aiming to re-use the existing VCC processes and IT solutions that are deployed globally. Any deviation must be investigated and prioritized within the project.

High level overview of activities in scope of this project:

- BIW Sub-assembly automatic steering: solution exists, need to be implemented.
- BIW Pre-order solution: new development and implementation
- Paint buffer solution: solution exists, to be implemented
- VCATS upgrade for SPAII and i-Flex devices and testing new SWDL and ECOS
- SJC server set up for new supplier Desoutter
- Battery plant solution: carry back the solution implemented in AELQ with adaptive changes supporting higher JPH.
- Merge flow of sequence parts: carry back Gent's solution with adding some adaptive changes
- Extra Andon stations: solution exists, extended to new area
- Integrations with new PLCs: solution exists, need to be implemented

- 2.23 The right to “have made” is the right of a Party in its capacity as a licensee hereunder, as applicable, to have another person (or their subcontractor of any tier) make for that Party and does not include the right to grant sublicenses to another person to make for such person’s own use or use other than for that Party.

3. PROVISION OF SERVICES

- 3.1 Service Specification. The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification of the Services provided under this Service Agreement in the Service Specification.
- 3.2 Service Recipients. In addition to Purchaser, all of Purchaser’s Affiliates shall be entitled to receive and use the Services under this Service Agreement. Nevertheless, Purchaser shall be Service Provider’s sole point of contact and shall be responsible for payment of the Service Charges as set forth in this Service Agreement, irrespectively of whether it is Purchaser or any of Purchaser’s Affiliates that in reality received and used the Services.
- 3.3 Subcontractors.
- 3.3.1 The Parties acknowledge that Service Provider may use its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, provided that Service Provider informs Purchaser thereof.
- 3.3.2 Service Provider shall however remain responsible for the performance, and any omission to perform or comply with the provisions of this Service Agreement, by any Affiliate to Service Provider and/or any subcontractor to the same extent as if such performance or omittance was made by Service Provider itself. Service Providers shall also remain Purchaser’s sole point of contact unless otherwise agreed.
- 3.4 Relationship between the Parties. The Parties are acting as independent contractors when performing each Party’s respective obligations under the Service Agreement, Neither Party nor its Affiliates are agents for the other Party or its Affiliates and have no authority to represent them in relation to any matters. Nothing in these General Terms or the Service Agreement shall be construed as to constitute a partnership or joint venture between the Parties.

4. SERVICE REQUIREMENTS

- 4.1 All Services shall be performed in accordance with the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement, including the Service Specification, and otherwise in a professional manner.
- 4.2 When providing the Services, Service Provider shall use professional and skilled personnel, reasonably experienced for the Services to be performed, Service Provider shall work according to the same standard of care and professionalism that is done in Service Provider’s internal business and development projects. Such standard of care and professionalism, shall however at all times correspond to Industry Standard. For the avoidance of doubt, Service Provider is responsible for all necessary recruiting and hiring costs associated with employing appropriate personnel as well as all necessary training costs.
- 4.3 Service Provider acknowledges that time is of essence and Service Provider agrees to strictly respect and adhere to the deadlines set out in the Service Specification in Appendix 1, such as time limits, milestones and gates. In the event Service Provider risks not to meet an agreed deadline or is otherwise in delay with the performance of the Services, Service Provider shall appoint additional resources in order to avoid the effects of the anticipated delay or the delay (as the case may be).
- 4.4 In the event the Services or any part thereof, more than insignificantly deviate from the requirements set forth in the Service Specification, or if Service Provider otherwise does not meet or ceases to meet the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement (except for minor faults and defects, which do not affect the provision of the Services), Service Provider shall remedy such noncompliance, fault or defect as soon as reasonably possible.

- 4.5 In the event Service Provider fails to act in accordance with Section 4.3 and 4.4 above, such failure shall be escalated in accordance with the escalation principles set forth in Section 17.1 and eventually give Purchaser the right to terminate the Service Agreement in accordance with Section 14.4.
- 4.6 Purchaser shall provide Service Provider with instructions as reasonably required for Service Provider to be able to carry out the Services, Service Provider must continuously inform Purchaser of any needs of additional instructions or specifications required to perform the Services.
- 4.7 Service Provider shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its undertakings under this Service Agreement. Further, Service Provider undertakes to ensure that the performance of the Services will not be given lower priority than other of Service Provider's internal similar projects.

5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

5.1 Ownership of existing Intellectual Property Rights.

5.1.1 Each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of its Background IP.

5.1.2 Nothing in this Service Agreement shall be deemed to constitute an assignment of, or license to use, any Trademarks of the other Party.

5.2 Ownership of Results. In the event any Results are created as a result of the Services provided by Service Provider (or if applicable, any of its appointed Affiliates or subcontractors) under this Service Agreement, the Parties agree that Service Provider shall be the exclusive owner of such Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof. Hence, all Results shall automatically upon their creation stay with Service Provider. Service Provider shall further have the right to transfer, sublicense, modify and otherwise freely dispose of the Results.

5.3 License grant.

5.3.1 Upon creation of the Results, Purchaser shall at the same time automatically be granted a non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any IP or Background IP included in the license described hereunder)), non-assignable (however assignable to Purchaser's Affiliates), worldwide license to Use, in whole or in part, the Results and, if applicable, any Background IP embedded in or otherwise used in the development of the Results. The license granted in this Section 5.3.1 is limited to the extent such license is necessary for Purchaser to make use of the Services provided hereunder and to enable an orderly transfer to another service provider after the termination and/or expiry of this Service Agreement.

5.3.2 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Service Agreement, nothing in these General Terms or otherwise in the Service Agreement shall be construed as to give the other Party any rights, including but not limited to any license rights (express or implied), to any Background IP, except as expressly stated herein.

5.4 Volvo brand name.

5.4.1 For the sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the "Volvo" brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to "Volvo" in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the "Volvo" Trademarks as well as the "Volvo" name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the "Volvo" Trademarks is subject to a service agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related Intellectual Property can only be used by Volvo Car Corporation and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.

5.4.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Volvo" brand name or "Volvo" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

5.5 Polestar brand name.

5.5.1 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the Polestar brand name or Trademarks, or refer to Polestar in communications or official documents of whatever kind.

5.5.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the Polestar brand name or Polestar Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

6. SERVICE CHARGES

- 6.1 In consideration of Service Provider's performance of the Services under this Service Agreement, Purchaser agrees to pay to Service Provider the Service Charges as set forth or referenced to in the Main Document.

7. PAYMENT TERMS

- 7.1 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency set forth in the Main Document, in a timely manner and in accordance with the payment terms set forth in this Section 7.
- 7.2 Purchaser shall bear the VAT and surtaxes, and Service Provider shall bear the Withholding Tax, which are applicable in accordance with local legislation to amounts and payments referred to in this Service Agreement.
- 7.3 Purchaser shall make a reasonable effort in establishing, where applicable and to the fullest extent possible, to the tax authorities of its country of residence that services rendered there by Service Provider do not amount to a Permanent Establishment as defined under Article 5 of the Agreement between the Government of the People's Republic of China and the Government of the Kingdom of Sweden for the Avoidance of Double Taxation and the Prevention of Fiscal Evasion with respect to Taxes on Income (1986) (hereinafter the "Sweden-China income Tax Treaty"); and that no withholding tax shall apply to payments under this Service Agreement. Service Provider shall make a reasonable effort to obtain a credit, under either Article 23 of the Sweden-China Income Tax Treaty or the domestic legislation of Service Provider's country of residence, against income tax in Service Provider's country of residence. On account of the withholding tax, if any, levied on the payments by the tax authorities of Purchaser's country of residence.
- 7.4 In the event that the withholding tax, if any, levied by the tax authorities of Purchaser's country of residence is determined, by the tax authorities of Service Provider's country of residence, to not be so creditable against the income tax of Service Provider, Purchaser shall reimburse Service Provider for the withholding tax, exclusive of any tax applicable thereupon in Purchaser's country of residence. The reimbursement shall be due upon the presentation by Service Provider of reasonable proof of the denial of the aforementioned credit.
- 7.5 Where the withholding tax levied in Purchaser's country of residence is denied creditability in Service Provider's country of residence, Purchaser and Service Provider shall decide jointly whether a course of action shall be undertaken in the form of Mutual Agreement Procedure under Article 25 of the Sweden-China income Tax Treaty or other dispute resolution procedures available between the competent authorities of Sweden and China.
- 7.6 Upon tax authority request, Service Provider should provide the supporting documents to help Purchaser prove the arm's length nature of the payment.
- 7.7 Any amount of the Service Charges invoiced by Service Provider to Purchaser shall be paid by Purchaser within 45 days after the invoice date.
- 7.8 Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based on the one month applicable interbank rate, depending on invoice and currency, with an addition of two per cent (2.0%) per annum.
- 7.9 Any paid portion of the Service Charges is non-refundable, with the exception set forth in the Main Document.

8. AUDIT

- 8.1 During the term of the Service Agreement, Purchaser shall have the right to, upon reasonable notice in writing to Service Provider, inspect Service Provider's books and records related to the Services and the premises where the Services are performed, in order to conduct quality controls and otherwise verify the statements rendered under this Service Agreement.
- 8.2 Audits shall be made during regular business hours and be conducted by Purchaser or by an independent auditor appointed by Purchaser. Should Purchaser during any inspection find that Service Provider or the Services does/do not fulfil the requirements set forth herein, Purchaser is entitled to comment on the identified deviations. Service Provider shall, upon notice from Purchaser, take reasonable efforts to take the actions required in order to fulfil the requirements. In the event the Parties cannot agree upon measures to be taken in respect of the audit, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.

9. REPRESENTATIONS

- 9.1 Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:
- (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;
 - (b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Service Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;
 - (c) the execution, delivery and performance of this Service Agreement have been duly authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate any laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and
 - (d) this Service Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

10. SERVICE WARRANTY

- 10.1 When performing the Services, Service Provider shall provide professional and skilled personnel, reasonably experienced for the Services to be performed at the best of their knowledge.
- 10.2 Service Provider provides the Services "as is". Service Provider does neither warrant nor represent that any Services, provided or delivered to Purchaser hereunder are functional for the business needs of Purchaser or otherwise suitable for any specific purpose, nor that the Services, are not infringing any intellectual Property of any third party. Service Provider does neither give any representations or warranties as regards the merchantability of the deliverables to be delivered hereunder nor any other representations or warranties of any kind whatsoever concerning the Services. Purchaser acknowledges that the price of the Services to be performed and other deliverables to be delivered by Service Provider are set in consideration of the foregoing.
- 10.3 Service Provider shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to Purchaser's use of the Services notify Purchaser of such claim in writing and Purchaser shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the third party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. Purchaser shall at all times keep Service Provider informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with Service Provider on appropriate actions to take. If Purchaser fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend Service Provider within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, Service Provider shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/or over any settlement negotiation at Purchaser's cost. Any settlement proposed by Purchaser on its own account must take account of potential implications for Service Provider and shall therefore be agreed with Service Provider before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

11. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 11.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Service Agreement.
- 11.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement shall be limited to 30 % of the total Service Charges payable by Purchaser to Service Provider hereunder.
- 11.3 The limitations of liability set forth in this Section 11 shall not apply in respect of:
- (a) claims related to death or bodily injury;
 - (b) damage caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence;
 - (c) damage caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 13 below; or
 - (d) damage arising out of an infringement, or alleged infringement, of the other Party's or any third party's Intellectual Property.

12. GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES

12.1 Governance.

- 12.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Service Agreement as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Service Agreement,
- 12.1.2 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Service Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event the Parties on an operational level cannot agree upon inter alia the prioritisation of development activities or other aspects relating to the co-operation between the Parties, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.
- 12.1.3 If the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution of the disagreement the relevant issue should be escalated to the Strategic Board for decision.
- 12.2 Changes.
- 12.3 During the term of this Service Agreement, Purchaser can request changes to the Service Specification, which shall be handled in accordance with the governance procedure set forth in Section 12.1 above. Both Parties agree to act in good faith to address and respond to any change request within a reasonable period of time.
- 12.4 The Parties acknowledge that Service Provider will not perform in accordance with such change request until agreed in writing between the Parties. For the avoidance of any doubt, until there is agreement about the requested change, all work shall continue in accordance with the existing Service Specification.

13. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 13.1 The Parties shall take any and all necessary measures to comply with the security and confidentiality procedures of the other Party.
- 13.2 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes comprised by the fulfilment of this Service Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Service Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 13.2 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or sub-contractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:
- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
 - (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
 - (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
 - (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;
 - (e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or
 - (f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.
- 13.3 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 13.

- 13.4 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as “Confidential,” “Proprietary” or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within 30 days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as “Confidential,” “Proprietary” or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 13.5 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 13, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section 17.2 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 13.6 For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 13 does not permit disclosure of source code to software, and/or any substantial parts of design documents to software, included in the Results, to any Third Party, notwithstanding what is set forth above in this Section 13. Any such disclosure to any Third Party is permitted only if approved in writing by Service Provider.
- 13.7 This confidentiality provision shall survive the expiration or termination of this Service Agreement without limitation in time.

14. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 14.1 This Service Agreement shall become effective when the Main Document is signed by duly authorised signatories of each Party and shall, unless terminated in accordance with this Section 14 below, remain in force until the Services are completed.
- 14.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in the event:
- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Service Agreement, which has not been remedied within 30 days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
 - (b) if the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.
- 14.3 For avoidance of doubt, Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, shall be considered in material breach for the purpose of this Service Agreement.
- 14.4 Furthermore, Purchaser is entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in case Service Provider acts in breach, which is not insignificant, of what is set forth in Section 4.3 and 4.4 provided that the issue first has been escalated in accordance with Section 17.1.
- 14.5 Purchaser shall in addition be entitled to cancel the Services performed by Service Provider for convenience upon 30 days written notice to Service Provider.

14.6 In the event Purchaser cancels the Services in accordance with Section 14.5 above, the Service Charges shall, in addition to what is set out in the Main Document, include any other reasonable proven costs Service Provider has incurred until the effective date of the cancellation.

14.7 Either Party shall in addition be entitled to terminate the Service Agreement for convenience upon 60 days written notice to the other Party.

15. MISCELLANEOUS

15.1 Force majeure.

15.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under the Service Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A "Force Majeure Event" means any event beyond a Party's reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party's), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors if such default or delay has been caused by a Force Majeure Event.

15.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under the Service Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its nonperformance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

15.2 Notices. All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Service Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:

- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
- (b) if sent by email transmission, at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
- (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
- (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods. All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be addressed to the address, and with the attention, as set forth in the Main Document, or to such other address, number or email address as a Party may designate.

- 15.3 Assignment.
- 15.3.1 Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Service Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.
- 15.3.2 Notwithstanding the above, each Party may assign this Service Agreement to an Affiliate without the prior written consent of the other Party.
- 15.4 Waiver. Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Service Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Service Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the Service Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.
- 15.5 Severability. In the event any provision of this Service Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Service Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Service Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Service Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.
- 15.6 Entire agreement. All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Service Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Service Agreement are superseded by this Service Agreement and its Appendices.
- 15.7 Amendments. Any amendment or addition to this Service Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.
- 15.8 Survival.

- 15.8.1 If this Service Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 5.3 (License grant), Section 13 (Confidentiality), Section 16 (Governing Law), Section 17 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 15.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.
- 15.8.2 Notwithstanding Section 15.8.1 above, if this Service Agreement is terminated due to Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 5.3 (License Grant) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination. For the avoidance of doubt, what is stated in this Section 15.8.2 shall only apply in relation to such licenses granted to Purchaser pursuant to Section 5.3 above and any licenses granted to Service Provider under Section 5.3 shall thus nevertheless remain in force after such termination.

16. GOVERNING LAW

- 16.1 This Service Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Service Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of:
- (a) the People's Republic of China, if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China; and
 - (b) Sweden, if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of Sweden,
- without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

17.1 Escalation principles.

- 17.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.
- 17.1.2 The members of the Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 17.1.3 If the Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the Strategic Board for decision. If no Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the Strategic Board, Should the matter not have been resolved by the Strategic Board within 30 days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 17.2 below.
- 17.1.4 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 13 above.

17.1.5 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 17.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the Strategic Board in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

17.2 Arbitration.

17.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall:

- (a) if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China, be submitted to China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Committee ("CIETAC") for arbitration, which shall be held in Shanghai and conducted in accordance with the CIETAC's arbitration rules in effect at the time of applying for arbitration, whereas the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English and Chinese; and
- (b) if the Party that is providing the Services is Incorporated under the laws of Sweden, be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, whereas the seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English, and the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.

17.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.

17.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.

17.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

Agreement No.: PS20-017

LICENSE AGREEMENT

Name of Project: License Agreement for Polestar Engineered for Volvo Vehicle Models

Short description of activities under this Agreement: The Polestar Engineered Concept is offered on the SPA160-cluster, on S60, V60 and XC60. The offer of Polestar Engineered is planned until the end of MY2024. If the Parties agree that the Polestar Engineered Concept will be introduced on other Volvo vehicle models this will be regulated in a separate agreement or an amendment to this Agreement.

This License Agreement is between Polestar Performance AB, Reg. No. 556653-3096, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Sweden ("Licensor"), and Volvo Car Corporation, Reg. No. 556074-3089, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Sweden ("Licensee").

Each of Licensor and Licensee is hereinafter referred to as a "Party" and jointly as the "Parties".

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have determined that Licensor shall grant Licensee certain rights to use the Licensed Intellectual Property (as defined in Appendix 1) which is developed by Licensor, in accordance with the terms in this license agreement and its appendices (the "License Agreement").
- B. The Parties acknowledge that the Licensed Intellectual Property vests with Licensor. Consequently, the Parties have agreed that Licensor exclusively shall own any and all rights in and to Licensed Intellectual Property and all modifications, amendments and improvements thereof, in accordance with the terms in this License Agreement.
- C. However, the Parties have agreed, that Licensor, subject to the due payment of the License Fee (as defined in Section 4), shall grant Licensee the right to use the Licensed Intellectual Property for certain purposes as further detailed herein.
- D. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this License Agreement.

1. DEFINITIONS

- 1.1 For the purpose of this License Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings assigned to them below. All capitalized terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa. Any capitalized terms used, but not specifically defined below in this Section 1, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the License Agreement.
- 1.2 Appendix means an appendix to this License Agreement.
- 1.3 Affiliate means any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by Volvo Car Corporation and control means the possession, directly or indirectly, by agreement or otherwise, of (i) at least 50% of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest, or (ii) the power (a) to appoint or remove a majority of the board of directors or other governing body of an entity, or (b) to cause the direction of the management of an entity.

- 1.4 Confidential Information means any and all non-public information regarding the Parties and their respective businesses, whether commercial or technical, in whatever form or media, including but not limited to the existence, content and subject matter of this License Agreement, information relating to Intellectual Property Rights, concepts, technologies, processes, commercial figures, techniques, algorithms, formulas, methodologies, know-how, strategic plans and budgets, investments, customers and sales, designs, graphics, CAD models, CAE data, statement of works (including engineering statement of works and any high level specification), targets, test plans/reports, technical performance data and engineering sign-off documents and other information of a sensitive nature, that a Party learns from or about the other Party prior to or after the execution of this License Agreement.
- 1.5 Data Room means (if applicable) the information sharing platform agreed to be used between the Parties for making available the Licensed Intellectual Property to Licensee.
- 1.6 Disclosing Party means the Party disclosing Confidential Information to the Receiving Party.
- 1.7 Effective Date means the date this License Agreement is signed by the last Party to sign it.
- 1.8 Intellectual Property Rights or IP means Patents, Non-patented IP and rights in Confidential Information to the extent protected under applicable laws anywhere in the world. For the avoidance of doubt, Trademarks are not comprised by this definition.
- 1.9 IPLA shall have the meaning set out in Section 3.10.
- 1.10 Licensed Intellectual Property means any and all processes, apparatus, articles of manufacture and/or compositions, information, formulae, diagrams, data, inventions (whether patentable or not), invention disclosures, know-how and trade secrets, patentable or otherwise relating to Polestar Engineered as described in Section 1 (Core Content) in Appendix 1.
- 1.11 Licensee Modifications shall mean all modifications, enhancements and improvements to and/or derivative works of Licensed Intellectual Property made by licensee, either solely or jointly with other persons, together with all Confidential Information, patent, copyright, trade secret, and other intellectual and industrial property rights inherent therein and appurtenant thereto.
- 1.12 Non patented IP means copyrights (including rights in computer software), database rights, semiconductor topography rights, rights in designs, and other intellectual property rights (other than Trademarks and Patents) and all rights or forms of protection having equivalent or similar effect anywhere in the world, in each case whether registered or unregistered, and registered includes registrations, applications for registration and renewals whether made before, on or after execution of this License Agreement.
- 1.13 Patents means utility models, industrial designs and all patents (including, without limitation, patents of importation, patents of confirmation, patents of improvement, design patents, certificates of addition and utility patents, as well as divisions, reissues, continuations, continuations-in-part, reexamination certificates, provisional applications, renewals and extensions of any of the foregoing, and applications therefor).
- 1.14 Polestar Engineered Vehicle means Volvo branded vehicles model S60, V60 and XC60 based on the SPA1 platform which contains all the hardware and software components listed in Section 1-3 (Core Content, Other Content and Specification Adjustments) in Appendix 1.

- 1.15 Receiving Party means the Party receiving Confidential Information from the Disclosing Party.
- 1.16 Third Party means a party other than any of the Parties and/or an Affiliate of one of the Parties to this License Agreement.
- 1.17 Trademarks means trademarks (including part numbers that are trademarks), service marks, logos, trade names, business names, assumed names, trade dress and get-up, and domain names, in each case whether registered or unregistered, including all applications, registrations, renewals and the like, in each case to the extent they constitute rights that are enforceable against Third Parties.
- 1.18 Use means to make, have made, use (including in a process, such as use in designing, engineering, testing or assembling products or in their research or development), keep, install, integrate, extract, assemble, reproduce, incorporate, create derivative works of, modify, adapt, improve, enhance, develop, service or repair, including in the case of installation, integration, assembly, service or repair, the right to have a subcontractor of any tier carry out any of these activities on behalf of Licensee.
- 1.19 Have made is the right of Licensee, as applicable, to have another person (or their subcontractor of any tier) make for Licensee and does not include the right to grant sublicenses to another person to make for such person's own use or use other than for Licensee.
- 1.20 Territory means world-wide.

2. LICENSE

- 2.1 Licensor hereby grants to Licensee a non-exclusive, irrevocable, non-assignable (however assignable to licensee's Affiliates license) right within in the Territory to, during the Term set forth in Section 9, use the Licensed Intellectual Property for the sole purpose of make and have made, market, sell and make available Polestar Engineered Vehicles.
- 2.2 In excess of what is outlined in section 2.1. above the Licensee shall be granted a nonexclusive, irrevocable, non-assignable (however assignable to Licensee's Affiliates license), perpetual license (at least 50 years long) within in the Territory to the Licensed Intellectual Property for the sole purpose of make or have made spare parts for repair and service of Polestar Engineered Vehicles.
- 2.3 Documentation related to the licensed Intellectual Property is available in Licensee's engineering release systems.
- 2.4 Licensor shall own all Licensee Modifications and Licensee hereby assigns and transfers all right, title and interest Licensee has or may have in any Licensee Modifications to Licensor; provided, however, that Licensee shall retain license rights in such Licensee Modifications as set forth herein. Upon Licensors' request and at Licensors' expense, Licensee shall (and shall cause its Personnel to execute and deliver to Licensor any and all instruments and other documents, and take such other actions as may be necessary or desirable, to document the aforesaid assignment and transfer of Licensee Modifications to Licensor and to enable Licensor to secure, register, prosecute, maintain, enforce or otherwise fully protect its rights, throughout the world, in and to such Licensee Modifications.
- 2.5 The license granted to Licensee under Section 2.1 above shall be fully sublicensable to Licensee's Affiliates, but shall not be sublicensable to any Third Party without prior written approval from Licensor.

3. INTELLECTUAL PROPERT RIGHTS3.1 Ownership.

3.2 Each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of (i) any Intellectual Property Rights owned, developed or otherwise acquired prior to the execution of this License Agreement, (ii) any Intellectual Property Rights developed or otherwise acquired independently of this License Agreement but during the Term of this License Agreement, and (iii) any Intellectual Property Rights which are modifications, amendments or derivatives of any Intellectual Property Rights already owned by such Party.

3.3 Nothing in this License Agreement shall be deemed to constitute an assignment of, or license to use, any Trademarks of the other Party.

3.4 Licensor shall be the sole and exclusive owner of the Licensed Intellectual Property, including any Licensee Modifications. Nothing in this License Agreement shall be deemed an assignment of ownership of the Licensed Intellectual Property and/or Licensee Modifications, from Licensor to Licensee.

3.5 Suspected infringement.

3.6 Licensee shall promptly (upon becoming aware) notify Licensor in writing of;

- a) any conduct of a Third Party that Licensee reasonably believes to be, or reasonably believes to be likely to be, an infringement, misappropriation or other violation of any Intellectual Property Rights licensed to Licensee hereunder by a Third Party; or
- b) any allegations made to Licensee by a Third Party that any Intellectual Property Rights licensed hereunder are invalid, subject to cancellation, unenforceable, or is a misappropriation of any Intellectual Property Rights of a Third Party.

3.7 In the event that Licensee has provided Licensor a notification pursuant to Section 3.6 a) above, and Licensor decides not to take any action against the Third Party, Licensor may approve in writing that Licensee shall be entitled to itself take action against the Third Party at its own cost. If Licensor approves, it shall provide reasonable assistance to Licensee, as requested by Licensee at Licensee's expense. If Licensor does not approve to Licensee taking such action, the issue should be escalated to the Strategic Board for decision.

3.8 For the avoidance of doubt, Licensor has no responsibility in the event the Licensed Intellectual Property are alleged to infringe in any Third Party's Intellectual Property Rights and Licensor has no obligation to defend and hold Licensee harmless from and against any alleged infringements.

3.9 Polestar brand name.

3.10 Volvo shall be granted the right to use the Polestar brand and marks for the sole purpose of marketing and selling the Polestar Engineered Vehicles in accordance with Polestars brand identity guidelines. Such rights shall be set out and regulated in a trademark sublicense agreement to be entered into between the Parties.

3.11 Apart from expressly specified in Section 3.10, it is especially noted that this License Agreement does not include any right to use the "Polestar" brand name or Trademarks, or refer to "Polestar" in communications or official documents of whatever kind.

- 3.12 This means that this License Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the “Polestar” brand name or “Polestar” Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence
- 3.13 Volvo brand name.
- 3.14 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this License Agreement does not include any right to use the “Volvo” brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to “Volvo” in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the “Volvo” Trademarks as well as the “Volvo” name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the “Volvo” Trademarks is subject to a license agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related Intellectual Property can only be used by Volvo Car Corporation and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.
- 3.15 This means that this License Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the “Volvo” brand name or “Volvo” Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence

4. LICENSE FEE AND PAYMENT TERMS

- 4.1 in consideration of Licensor’s performance of its obligations under this License Agreement and the license granted from Licensor to Licensee hereunder, Licensee agrees to pay to Licensor the License Fee as defined in Appendix 2.
- 4.2 The License Fee shall be paid in SEK.
- 4.3 Upon signing of this License Agreement, the Licensor will issue an invoice for the License fee payable by the Licensee for the Polestar Engineered Vehicles sold up until and including September 2020. Thereafter the Licensor will invoice the Licensee for the license fee payable on a quarterly within one month after the end of the quarter. The License Fee shall be paid within 30 days after the invoice date.
- 4.4 All amounts referred to in this License Agreement are exclusive of VAT. The Licensee shall bear the VAT, and the Licensor shall bear the Withholding Tax and surtaxes, that are applicable in accordance with local legislation to all amounts referred to in this License Agreement.
- 4.5 Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based on the one month applicable interbank rate, depending on invoice and currency, with an addition of two per cent (2.0%) per annum.
- 4.6 The License Fee is non-refundable.

5. WARRANTIES

- 5.1 Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:
- a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;

- b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this License Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;
 - c) the execution, delivery and performance of this License Agreement have been duly authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate any laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and
 - d) this License Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with, its terms.
- 5.2 The Parties acknowledge that the Licensed Intellectual Property is licensed to Licensee on an “as is” basis, without any warranties or representations of any kind (except for the warranties in Section 5.1 above), whether implied or express, and in particular any warranties of suitability, merchantability, description, design and fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, completeness, systems integration and accuracy are expressly excluded to the maximum extent permissible by law.

6. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 6.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this License Agreement.
- 6.2 Each Party’s aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with this License Agreement shall be limited to 30 % of the License Fee payable by Licensee to Licensor hereunder.
- 6.3 The limitations of liability set forth in this Section 6 shall not apply in respect of damage;
 - a) claims related to death or bodily injury;
 - b) caused by willful misconduct or gross negligence;
 - c) caused by a Party’s breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 8 below; or
 - d) arising out of an infringement, or alleged infringement, of the other Party’s or any Third Party’s Intellectual Property.

7. GOVERNANCE

- 7.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this License Agreement as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this License Agreement.
- 7.2 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this License Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event the Parties on an operational level cannot agree upon the aspects relating to the co-operation between the Parties; each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the relevant governance forums described below.
- 7.3 The first level of governance forum for handling the co-operation between the Parties in various matters, under this License Agreement shall be the "Steering Committee", which regarding cooperation between Licensor and Licensee is the so-called Volvo Polestar PC Steering Committee. The Steering Committee shall be the first level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.
- 7.4 The higher level of governance forum, to which an issue shall be escalated if the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution shall be the "Strategic Board", which regarding cooperation between Service Provider and Purchaser is the so-called Volvo Polestar Executive Meeting. This shall be the highest level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

8. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 8.1 The Parties shall take any and all necessary measures to comply with the security and confidentiality procedures of the other Party.
- 8.2 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes comprised by the fulfilment of this License Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this License Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 8.2 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or subcontractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:
- a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
 - b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
 - c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
 - d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;
 - e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or
 - f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.

- 8.3 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions, as those set forth in this Section 8.
- 8.4 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within 30 days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as "Confidential", "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 8.5 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 8, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behavior and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section 12 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 8.6 For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 8 does not permit disclosure of source code to software, and/or any substantial parts of design documents to software, included in the Licensed Intellectual Property, to any Third Party, notwithstanding what it set forth above in this Section 8. Any such disclosure to any Third Party is permitted only if approved in writing by Licensor.
- 8.7 This confidentiality provision shall survive the expiration or termination of this license Agreement without limitation in time.

9. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 9.1 This License Agreement shall become effective when it is signed by duly authorized signatories of each Party and shall, unless terminated In accordance with this Section 9 below, remain in force up until and including MY2024 ("Term"). Six months prior the expiration of the Term the Parties should in good faith discuss the need for an extension of the Term.
- 9.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this License Agreement with immediate effect in the event:
- a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this License Agreement, which has not been remedied within 30 days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
 - b) if the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.

10. MISCELLANEOUS

- 10.1 Force majeure. Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under the License Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A "Force Majeure Event" means any event beyond a Party's reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party's), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors if such default or delay has been caused by a Force Majeure Event.
- 10.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under the License Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its non-performance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.
- 10.3 Notices. All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this License Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:
- a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
 - b) if sent by email transmission, at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
 - c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
 - d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;
- in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods. All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be addressed to the address, and with the attention, as set forth in Section 13 below, or to such other address, number or email address as a Party may designate.
- 10.4 Assignment. Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this License Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.

- 10.5 Waiver. Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this License Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this License Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the License Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.
- 10.6 Severability. In the event any provision of this License Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the License Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the License Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the License Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.
- 10.7 Entire agreement. All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this License Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this License Agreement are superseded by this License Agreement and its Appendices.
- 10.8 Amendments. Any amendment or addition to this License Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.
- 10.9 Survival. If this License Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 9 above, Section 8 (Confidential Information), Section 11 (Governing Law), Section 12 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 10.9, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.

11. GOVERNING LAW

- 11.1 This License Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this License Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of Sweden without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

12. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 12.1 Escalation principles.
- 12.2 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.

- 12.3 The members of the Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavors to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 12.4 If the Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavors to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the Strategic Board, for decision. If no Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the Strategic Board. Should the matter not have been resolved by the Strategic Board within 30 days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavors to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 12.7 below.
- 12.5 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 8 above.
- 12.6 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 12.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the Strategic Board in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.
- 12.7 Arbitration.
- 12.8 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this License Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, whereas the seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English, and the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.
- 12.9 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this License Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 12.10 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this License Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defense of sovereign immunity and any other defense based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defense of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 12.11 All arbitral proceedings as well as a ny and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

PERFORMANCE SOFTWARE

AGREEMENT

1 January, 2020

Volvo Car Corporation AB

and

Polestar Performance AB

Agreement for Polestar Performance Software in Volvo Vehicle Models.

By and between

- A. Volvo Gar Corporation, registration number 556074-3089, SE-405 08 Gothenburg, Sweden (“Volvo”)
- B. Polestar Performance AB, registration number 556653-3096, SE-405 31 Gothenburg, Sweden (“Polestar”).

hereinafter referred to as the “Agreement”

Background and Purpose

Polestar manufactures and distributes Polestar branded vehicles throughout the world.

Volvo manufactures and distributes Volvo branded vehicles throughout the world.

The Parties have worked together since 1996 using the Polestar brand and services to promote and support dealership projects, campaigns, educational programs, sales events and premium performance. The Parties have also agreed to co-operate in relation to certain common development of technology.

A growing number of companies are offering so called “chip tuning” software for Volvo vehicles on the market place. These companies have no connection to Volvo and the original software is tampered with, sold, and distributed without any possibility of control by Volvo regarding quality assurance and with limited possibility of being compensated. Further, the use of these unauthorized independent software products in the vehicles can result in damage to the vehicles and Volvo is often responsible under the manufacturer’s warranty for defects caused as a direct consequence of the unauthorized use of chip tuned software and the tampering of Volvo’s original software.

The purpose of this Agreement is to enable Volvo to offer a solution for its end-customers who want to enhance vehicle performance, without impact to the Volvo Original Guarantee. The Parties have agreed that Polestar shall design, develop and supply performance enhancing software products for Volvo model product range, intended for distribution in Volvo infrastructure for software download.

Polestar’s responsibility include, but is not limited to, ensuring the continuous supply of the Products under this Agreement, including the provision of advertising and sales materials under the Polestar brand and provision of liability insurance equivalent to the Volvo Original Guarantee.

The Products shall be sold as a complement to Volvo’s ordinary range of products and the appointment of Polestar as an authorized supplier of the Products is regulated by this Agreement.

Volvo does not guarantee any volumes to be purchased of the Products.

1. Definitions

Affiliated Company	means any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by or is under common control with Volvo; however excluding Polestar and any legal entity that directly or indirectly, is controlled by or is under common control with Polestar; and control means the possession, directly or indirectly, by agreement or otherwise, of (i) at least 50% of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest, or (ii) the power (a) to appoint or remove a majority of the board of directors or other governing body of an entity, or (b) to cause the direction of the management of an entity.
Background IP	means all Intellectual Property Rights that were either developed or otherwise acquired by either Party before this Agreement came into force, or are developed or otherwise acquired by either Party outside of this Agreement, but during the term of this Agreement.
Confidential Information	means any and all non-public information regarding the Parties and their respective businesses, whether commercial or technical, in whatever form or media, including but not limited to the existence, content and subject matter of this Agreement, information relating to Intellectual Property Rights, concepts, technologies, processes, commercial figures, techniques, algorithms, formulas, methodologies, know-how, strategic plans and budgets, investments, customers and sales, designs, graphics, CAD models, CAE data, statement of works (including engineering statement of works and any high level specification), targets, test plans/reports, technical performance data and engineering sign-off documents and other information of a sensitive nature, that a Party learns from or about the other Party prior to or after the execution of this Agreement.
Dealer	means a dealer authorised by Volvo or by an Affiliated Company responsible for marketing, sale and servicing of Volvo's Vehicle Models to end-customers.
End-customers	means any person or legal entity purchasing a Vehicle Model.
Importer	means an independent third party company appointed by Volvo or an Affiliated Company for the marketing, sale and servicing of Volvo's Vehicle Models through own or independent Dealers or Repairers in a specific Market.
Industry Standard	means the exercise of such professionalism, skill, diligence, prudence and foresight which would normally be expected at any given time from a skilled and experienced actor engaged in a similar type of undertaking as under this Agreement.

Intellectual Property Rights	means patents, non-patented Intellectual Property Rights, rights in Confidential Information and know-how to the extent protected under applicable laws anywhere in the world. For the avoidance of doubt, Trademarks are not comprised by this definition.

2. Scope

- 2.1 For the sake of good order the Parties note and agree that the terms and conditions as set forth in the Performance Software Development Agreement signed in 2009 and the Amendment Agreement dated 20 November 2016 shall apply even for the period 1 January 2018 until this Agreements comes into force according to Section 2.2 below.
- 2.2 This Agreement shall come into force on 1 January 2020.
- 2.3 Under the terms of this Agreement, Polestar will develop and design performance enhancing software products for the Volvo vehicle models in close co-operation with Volvo, subject to Section 4.1. In this co-operation, values concerning safety, environmental and customer satisfaction are fundamental. The co-operation will further build on mutual confidence, good business ethics and with the aim to increase the competitiveness of both Parties. Subject to Sections 4.5 and 8.5 below, Volvo has appointed Polestar as Volvo's exclusive official supplier of the Products. Polestar may enter into a co-operation to design, develop and supply performance enhancing software products with other parties, but no Technical Information provided by Volvo or Volvo background IP may be used for design, development or supply to other parties.
- 2.4 Polestar will supply the Polestar Products to Volvo pursuant to the terms and conditions set out in this Performance Software Agreement.

3. Non-agency

The Parties are solely responsible for their respective performance under this Agreement and act as independent entities. Polestar shall be responsible for the work or services rendered by sub-consultants or other partners as for its own work and services.

4. Product development, introduction and updates

- 4.1 Polestar will develop and design performance enhancing software products for the Volvo Vehicle Models in close co-operation with Volvo. Polestar has the full responsibility for the development and production of the Products. Polestar is responsible to ensure that the Products meet the technical requirements, as well as all certification and homologation requirements for each Market where the Products are to be commercialized. Polestar undertakes to ensure that delivery of Products can be made via Volvo's VIDA system. Volvo shall make the Products available to End-customers through the Volvo network of Sales Companies or Importers as the case may be and Dealers and Repairers. Volvo has the responsibility for Volvo Original Guarantee towards the End-customer.

- 4.2 With the exception of Section 4.5, and 8.4. Polestar is responsible for and shall bear all development, production and certification costs of the Products.
- 4.3 The development, testing, production, certification and homologation of the Polestar Product may be requested and purchased as a service from Volvo by Polestar. Such service is subject to a separate agreement. The parties hereby acknowledge that the initial cost for development, testing and certification of the Polestar Products is significant and therefore Volvo shall use all reasonable endeavours to assist Polestar including ensuring that the Products are timely introduced, certified and homologized.
- 4.4 The Parties has an established P&Q Steering Committee in place, which will be the forum for the co-operation under this Agreement between the Parties. The P&Q Steering Committee will agree on the software products to be developed and produced by Polestar and will accordingly decide the requirements and standards for the software products. The P&Q Steering Committee must have at least two representatives from both Parties and any decision shall be unanimous. The P&Q Steering Committee shall be free to invite other Volvo and Polestar employees to participate in any of the meetings.
- 4.5 Should the P&Q Steering Committee not be able to agree on a product specifically desired by Volvo to be developed or if Polestar fails to develop an agreed product within reasonable time, Volvo shall be free, at its own choice, to enter into an agreement with any other third Party or in-house Volvo for the development and purchase of enhancing and performance software products to be installed in Vehicle Models. This right shall enter into effect if Polestar after a written request by Volvo declares its intention not to develop and supply such product or fails to respond to Volvo's request in writing within seven (7) days after having received Volvos written request.
- 4.6 For the avoidance of doubt, Polestar has the sole and full responsibility for the development and production of the Products, subject to Section 4.5. Polestar shall use all reasonable endeavours to follow current best practice in the development of the Products, including ensuring that the Products are fit for their purpose by the End-customer. Polestar shall use professional, appropriate, qualified and skilled personnel, and shall ensure that its personnel have been properly educated and trained for the work to be performed, including being fully acquainted with Volvo's specific requirements. Polestar shall avoid unnecessary changes in the personnel engaged in performing its undertakings under this Agreement. Polestar shall work according to the same standard of care and professionalism that is done in Polestar's internal development projects. Such standard of care and professionalism, as well as Polestar's performance of its undertakings under this Agreement shall however at all times correspond to Industry Standard. If Polestar uses its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform its responsibilities under this Agreement, the same way of working shall apply as if such performance was made by Polestar itself. Polestar is also responsible for design and development of the Polestar badge, which is applied at the back of the car after purchase of the Product. If Polestar suggests any change of the design of the Polestar badge, the new design must be presented and reviewed at the P&Q Steering Committee. Volvo has the right to reject design changes, approval not to be unreasonably withheld. The Polestar badge is defined as a Polestar unique aftersales component and will be regulated as such, according to separate aftersales agreement between Polestar and Volvo.

- 4.7 Any requests from Volvo for additional variants of performance enhancing software products shall be evaluated between Volvo and Polestar at the P&Q Steering Committee, and if reasonable met as soon as possible.
- 4.8 Volvo has, at all times, the right to-reject the co-operation on development and introduction of a software product that Volvo deems not to be commercially viable or feasible. Polestar has at all times the right to decline any request for development and introduction of a software product that Polestar deems not to be commercially viable or feasible. Should Polestar decline, Volvo may in such case engage a third Party, all in accordance with Section 4.5.
- 4.9 Polestar shall be informed as soon as possible of any upgrades, reconstructions or other changes to Vehicle Models and/or their software which may affect the Products already developed and delivered by Polestar under this Agreement. Any amendments or upgrades w to the Products which prove necessary as a consequence shall be the responsibility of and carried out at the cost of Polestar in the same way as for the original Products.

5. Intellectual Property Rights

- 5.1 Each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of its Background IP.
- 5.2 In the event any Results are created as a result of Polestar's development and design of the Products for the Volvo Vehicle Models under this Agreement, the Parties agree that Polestar shall be the exclusive owner of such Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof. Hence, all Results shall automatically upon their creation stay with Polestar. Polestar shall further have the right to transfer, sublicense, modify and otherwise freely dispose of the Results.
- 5.3 Volvo further grants Polestar a non-exclusive, non-assignable worldwide license to use, in whole or in part, the Technical Information and, if applicable, any Background IP embedded therein during the Term to the extent such license is necessary for Polestar to develop and design the Products for Volvo. For the avoidance of doubt, Polestar may not use Technical Information provided by Volvo or Background IP for the development of enhancement software for any other party than Volvo.
- 5.4 Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as to give the other Party any rights, including but not limited to any license rights (express or implied), to any Background IP, except as expressly stated herein.

6. Delivery and Defects

- 6.1 When a software product meets the standards and requirements and all certification and homologation requirements for each Market where the Products are to be commercialized, the Product will be listed in a separate document. Such document to include all Products being developed in accordance with Section 4.1. and 4.4. and meeting the requirements in Section 4.6. Products being listed in the document can be ordered by a Dealer or Repairer. Polestar is responsible for ensuring timely delivery of ordered Products via electronic download on Volvo's VIDA system or other appropriate means agreed between the Parties. Products meeting the above requirements at the execution of this Agreement are listed in Appendix 1.
- 6.2 Polestar undertakes to use best efforts in co-operation with Volvo in order to ensure that prompt delivery of Products can be made via Volvo's VIDA system. Should Volvo make any changes to the VIDA system or introduce another system for the same purpose, Polestar shall take all necessary actions, at its own costs, for being able to supply the Products through the new system or upgraded VIDA.
- 6.3 Any Product listed in the relevant document described in Section 6.1., may only be removed from the said list with a six (6) months prior written notice, stating a reasonable cause here fore, from the party requiring the Product to be removed. In case a Product may have a negative effect on any of Volvo's core values, such as safety and sustainability or endanger Volvos customer satisfaction or goodwill, all in the view of Volvo, such Product shall immediately be removed from the document and VIDA.
- 6.4 It is of outmost importance that the Products function flawlessly and can be used in the manner intended by Volvo. Polestar warrants that the Products are delivered without being defective, which means, inter alia, that the Products can in every respect be used in the manner intended by Volvo.
- 6.5 Defects shall be remedied without delay by Polestar and without expense to Volvo. Volvo shall be entitled, itself or through a third party of its choice, to remedy the defect at Polestars risk and expense if Polestar fails to fulfil its obligation to remedy the defect immediately or if Volvo cannot reasonably wait for Polestar to remedy the defect.
- 6.6 Polestar bears strict liability for damages for Volvo's losses due to a defect in the Products.
- 6.7 Volvo's right to invoke a claim on account of factual defects on the Product ceases at the time of the expiration of the Volvo Original Guarantee.
- 6.8 Notwithstanding the above, Volvo may claim that the Products are defective if: a) Polestar has acted with gross negligence or in bad faith, or b) the Products cannot be used in a manner which Volvo has intended on account of a legal defect or a defect limiting the use of the goods.

7. Indemnification

Polestar shall indemnify Volvo, Its Affiliates and its Sales Companies, Importers, Dealers and Repairers from any and all losses or damages arising out of any claim of infringement or threatened infringement of Intellectual Property Rights or misappropriation of third party Confidential Information, brought against Volvo, its Affiliates and its Sales Companies, Importers, Dealers and Repairers or their respective directors, officers, or employees relating to the sale, use or handling of the Products. Should a Product by a final decision of a competent court from which no further appeal is possible or as to which the time to appeal has expired, be held to infringe any Intellectual Property Rights of a third party and should such decision render further sale of a Product by Volvo impossible or not commercially feasible, Polestar shall either at its cost arrange for a license to Volvo under the Intellectual Property Right that is held to be infringed or deliver to Volvo another software product that does not infringe any Intellectual Property Rights of a third party but in all other respects correspond to the Product being held to infringe the third party Intellectual Property Rights.

8. Commercialization

- 8.1 Volvo undertakes to facilitate that the sales of Products shall be made available to End-customers through the Volvo network of Sales Companies or Importers as the case may be and Dealers and Repairers.
- 8.2 Volvo undertakes to facilitate Polestar to expand the sales of the Products to its full business potential, by allowing Polestar to participate in trainings, presentations, seminars and conferences with Sales Companies, Dealers, Repairers and Volvo staff etc., all to the extent agreed between Volvo and Polestar, however limited to 80 hours per year for each market and provided that no additional spending's for Volvo are required. The average fee in Appendix 2 is based on Volvo spending 80 hours per year for each market. However, this is an average calculation for all markets and some markets may use more and some less. This average calculation basis for the fee is to be reviewed yearly and adjusted accordingly.
- 8.3 Polestar may reject being involved in the sale of Products, on an objective and reasonable acceptable cause, to certain Markets. Notwithstanding this Section 8.3., any sales which are made in such territory by Volvo or its Sales Companies or Importers, network of Dealers and Repairers shall be made in accordance with Section 8.4. and subject to Section 8.5. If Polestar has rejected the commercialization of the software in a certain market in accordance with this Section 8.3. due to high introduction cost, Volvo may decide that the Product may anyway be commercialized and Volvo should carry the associated cost wholly or partly.
- 8.4 In the event that Volvo decides to introduce the Product on a market, but Polestar has decided not to supply, referring to Section 8.3, Volvo shall be entitled to produce and sell the Product, or have it produced, to the extent needed by Volvo on a royalty free license, should that be required due to any Intellectual Property Rights proprietary to Polestar. The license shall be exclusive for the use in Volvo's Area of Interest for a period of five (5) years. In this respect the license shall also be exclusive in relation to Polestar. Such license agreement shall also include any other confidential information and Intellectual Property Rights deemed reasonably necessary in order to exercise Volvo's rights described above.

In consideration of a licence granted under Section 8.4, Volvo shall bear all the risks for the Products being sold to a Market being rejected by Polestar in accordance with the above. Volvo is responsible to pay certification and marketing costs for the Markets being rejected by Polestar in accordance with the above. Polestar shall thus have no warranty liability for the Product on such Market.

- 8.5 Volvo may, alternatively to its right as described under Section 8.4., at its own choice, enter into an agreement with any other third party or in-house Volvo for the development and purchase of enhancing and performance software products to be installed in Vehicle Models for that specific Market. This right shall enter into effect if Polestar after a written request by Volvo declares its intention in writing not to be engaged in the sale of Product to a Market or fails to respond to Volvo's request in writing within seven (7) days after having received Volvo's written request.

9. Marketing

- 9.1 Polestar will, at its own cost, develop guidelines in English for the marketing materials related to the Products, the market materials to be agreed in writing by Polestar and Volvo, agreement not to be unreasonably withheld.
- 9.2 The Products shall be marketed and sold under and characterised by the Polestar brand in line with the guidelines agreed in accordance with Section 9.1.
- 9.3 Polestar shall be entitled to communicate in its own marketing that the Products come with, are in line with, and do not affect the Volvo Original Guarantee, subject to agreement in accordance with Section 9.5. Apart from expressly specified in this Section 9.3, this Agreement does not include any right to use the "Volvo" brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to "Volvo" in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties Acknowledge that the "Volvo" Trademarks as well as the "Volvo" name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that this Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Volvo" brand name or "Volvo" Trademarks, on or for any products (including the Products) or when marketing, promoting, and/or selling such products (including the Products), or in any other contacts with third parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.
- 9.4 Volvo shall be granted the right to use the Polestar brand and marks for marketing the Products in accordance with Polestar's brand identity guidelines. Such rights shall be set out and regulated in a trademark sublicense agreement to be entered into between the Parties.

- 9.5 The Parties shall agree in writing prior to the production of any marketing material of the Products.
- 9.6 Both Parties are responsible for its own marketing costs and expenses and all such marketing activities shall be in strictly compliance with this Section 9.

10. Warranties and Insurance Policy

- 10.1 If the average warranty cost for Volvo vehicles fitted with a Product exceeds the average warranty cost for Volvo vehicles not being fitted with a Product, Polestar is responsible for compensating Volvo for the exceeding warranty cost relevant to the Product. Volvo shall in December each year review the outcome of the warranty costs for Volvo vehicles fitted with a Product. If the average warranty cost exceeds the warranty cost in comparison to Volvo vehicles not fitted with a Product, Polestar is responsible for compensating Volvo for each Product being sold to an end-customer under this Agreement with an amount corresponding to the exceeding warranty cost relevant to the Product where the root cause for the exceeding warranty cost can be connected to the Product. The applicable amount shall be paid by Polestar to Volvo by a price reduction for each Product when Volvo pays Polestar in accordance with Section 12.8.
- At the signing of this Agreement, the average warranty cost for Volvo vehicles fitted with a Product in comparison to the average warranty cost for Volvo vehicles not fitted with a Product does currently not justify compensation for each Product sold to an end-customer.
- 10.2 Polestar is responsible for any and all costs and damages for the Products in respect of product liability and field service actions, including but not limited to recalls and extended warranty programs, whether such field service action being a safety related action, infringement of legal requirements or a customer satisfaction related action. Any and all field service actions, as described, shall be made solely at Volvos discretion irrespective of cause. Polestar shall have no such responsibility should the cause hereof be directly related to Volvos manufacturer's responsibility. (Swe: tillverkaransvar)
- 10.3 Polestar shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Volvo and its affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, employees and agents, from and against any and all damages, death, injuries (both to person and reputation), losses, claims, actions, demands, liabilities and from all expenses and costs incidental thereto, including but not limited to reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of or resulting from Polestar's defective design or development of any Product delivered hereunder or otherwise as a result from any Product delivered hereunder. This shall not apply if any of the above is due to the fact that the manufacturer's responsibility for the Volvo vehicle remains with Volvo, i.e. not having an effect of functionalities or properties of any Product.

- 10.4 Where the manufacturer's responsibility remains with Volvo for a Volvo car, Volvo shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Polestar and its affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, employees and agents from and against any and all damages, death, injuries (both to person and reputation), losses, claims, actions, demands, liabilities and from all expenses and costs incidental thereto, including but not limited to reasonable attorneys' fees.
- 10.5 Polestar shall provide and maintain an applicable and sufficient product liability insurance covering the risks of a Product causing a personal injury or property damage due to a defect, regardless whether or not Polestar has acted with negligence. Polestar shall upon request from Volvo prove that such insurance exists.
- 10.6 If Polestar fails to comply with its undertaking described in Section 10.4 above, i.e. not providing a sufficient insurance policy, Volvo may obtain such insurance and charge Polestar with the costs. Polestar shall, if so requested by Volvo, assign to Volvo the right to collect insurance monies payable in respect of claims under the relevant insurance policy.
- 10.7 In no event, shall a Party be liable to the other Party for loss of profits, loss of use, consequential, special, indirect or incidental damage, including negligence, arising out of or in connection with this Agreement.

11. Technical and Sales and Marketing Information

- 11.1 Both Parties recognize that certification of the Products is a pre-requisite to sales and Volvo agrees to provide Polestar with the information necessary to enable the proper performance of this Agreement, particularly with regard to design, development, certification and Vehicle Model introduction. It also includes sales and marketing information, including contact to Sales Companies, Dealers and Repairers. This undertaking shall be made in a manner decided solely by Volvo.
- 11.2 Volvo agrees to provide Polestar, free of charge, with up to date original engine management software information, for example function descriptions, software application models and other information and means necessary to be able to ensure development of the Products in accordance with this Agreement. Polestar may only use this information for the development of the Product for Volvo.
- 11.3 The Parties agree to grant access under this Section 11 as early as possible in any development process for developing performance enhancing software.
- 11.4 Volvo shall provide Polestar with the specific information regarding the identity of the vehicles, time and date of downloading Dealer or Repairer, relevant Market and what Products has been downloaded, this is acknowledged by the Parties as being a necessity for the fulfilment of marketing activities, guarantee, warranty and insurance obligations that are central to this Agreement.

- 11.5 Polestar is responsible for producing Product information in English related to the installation of the Products.
- 11.6 Translation of the Product information and installation material and quality assurance of such translated information is the sole responsibility of Polestar. Volvo is under no circumstances responsible for any consequences whatsoever arising out of faulty Product information translation.

12. Price and Payment

- 12.1 Polestar sets a recommended Manufacturers Suggested Retail Price ("MSRP") and a recommended dealer net-price for the Products. The recommendations are reviewed together with Volvo in December each year for the coming year. The dealers decide their retail price. The National Sales Companies decides the dealer net-price, but Polestar has the right to set a minimum dealer net price per market.
- 12.2 The compensation to Polestar from Volvo equals the actual net revenue obtained by Volvo, less the compensation defined in Section 12.3. Net revenue is defined as gross revenue less discounts only and warranty compensation defined in Section 10.1
- 12.3 Polestar compensates Volvo for expenses and a small profit, at an amount calculated for Products being sold to an end-customer under this Agreement. The amount calculation principles is shown in Appendix 2.
- 12.4 The cost of goods for the Product in the Volvo systems is defined per software download. This cost in the Volvo systems is solely defined by Volvo, and is a not affecting the compensation towards Polestar but is intended to encourage the sales of the Product.
- 12.5 If Polestar initiates a temporary dealer net-price discount as part of a campaign or otherwise, then Polestar will carry the associated cost as part of reduced actual revenue according to Section 12.2. If Volvo initiates a temporary dealer net-price discount as part of a campaign or otherwise, on terms that are not acceptable by Polestar, then Volvo is responsible to carry the associated cost.
- 12.6 If the Product is downloaded at a plant or in a port, those installations revenue is not recorded in the Volvo Customer Service system. Thus, there may be a gap between the revenue recorded in the Volvo Customer Service system and the actual software downloads. The gap can be identified by comparing the number of software downloads according to Customer Service system and information of software downloads in the IT- system PIE. For software downloads identified through comparison in PIE will be compensated to Polestar by applying an average revenue amount per download. The average will be based on the average revenue per download globally that month.

12.7 All amounts and payments referred to in this Agreement shall be paid in SEK. All amounts referred to in this Agreement are exclusive of VAT and surtaxes but inclusive of withholding tax applicable in accordance with local legislation. Any amount invoiced by Polestar to Volvo shall be paid by Volvo within thirty (30) days after receipt of such invoice, provided all necessary permits from authorities, as applicable, has been received. Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based on the one (1) month applicable interbank rate, with an addition of two per cent (2%) per annum.

13. Confidentiality

13.1 The Parties shall take any and all necessary measures to comply with the security and confidentiality procedures of the other Party.

13.2 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes comprised by the fulfilment of this Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Agreement and will not divulge the same to any third party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 13.2 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or sub-contractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the receiving party can demonstrate:

- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
- (b) was already in the possession of the receiving Party before its receipt from the disclosing Party;
- (c) is obtained from a third party who is free to divulge the same;
- (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;
- (e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or
- (f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.

13.3 The receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, as the receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature, to prevent the dissemination to third parties or publication of the Confidential Information. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 13.

- 13.4 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the disclosing Party as “Confidential,” “Proprietary” or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within 30 days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as “Confidential,” “Proprietary” or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 13.5 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 13, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section 18 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 13.6 This confidentiality provision shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement without limitation in time.

14. Duration and Termination

- 14.1 This Agreement shall become effective on 1 January 2020 and shall, unless terminated in accordance with this Section 14 below, remain in force until any of the Parties terminate the Agreement.
- 14.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement for convenience with a notice period of at least six months before start of the next model year, which for the purpose of this Agreement is to be considered to be [] each year. In the event of a termination of the Agreement for convenience, this Agreement will remain in force until the start of the next model year. During the expiration time, Volvo is still obligated to continue to promote the Products. If there are individual software products under development at the date of termination of this Agreement, Polestar may decide to terminate the development work of such individual software products. In that event Polestar shall provide Volvo a written notice of such decision within thirty (30) days following either Party’s termination notice. If Polestar terminates the development work for such individual software product, Volvo shall compensate Polestar for the development, production and certification costs incurred by Polestar for such individual software product up until the issue date of Polestar’s written decision. Polestar shall use reasonable efforts to limit the costs incurred between the date of receipt of Volvo’s termination notice and issue date of Polestar’s written decision.

- 14.3 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate an individual software product for convenience with a notice period of three months. However, launched individual software products should always be sold during at least one full model year. During the expiration time, Volvo is still obligated to continue to promote the Products. However, in case of a termination of an individual software product that is underdevelopment, Polestar may decide to terminate the development work of such individual software product. In that event Polestar shall provide Volvo a written notice of such decision within thirty (30) days following either Party's termination notice. If Polestar terminates the development work for such individual software product, Volvo shall compensate Polestar for the development, production and certification costs incurred by Polestar for such individual software product up until the issue date of Polestar's written decision. Polestar shall use reasonable efforts to limit the costs incurred between the date of receipt of Volvo's termination notice and issue date of Polestar's written decision.
- 14.4 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect in the event:
- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Agreement, which has not been remedied within 30 days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
 - (b) if the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors; or
- 14.5 Either Parties have the right to claim contractual damages under applicable law, however remedies for damages caused by breach of either Party under this Agreement are limited to exclude indirect damages for loss of profit, interruption in production, or other form of damages except in cases of gross negligence or deliberate breach.
- 14.6 Except as provided for under obligatory provision of applicable law, the remedies available to the Parties are set out under this Agreement in case of termination.

15. Termination Consequences

- 15.1 Upon receiving notice of termination, Polestar shall cease from accepting further orders that cannot be delivered prior to the date of termination, notwithstanding this Section 15, Polestar undertakes to fulfil delivery of orders which have been agreed between the Parties and Volvo undertakes to accept delivery in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
- 15.2 Such orders accepted post-termination under Section 15.1 do not comprise a revocation of termination notice, each such transaction shall be subject to identical terms and conditions under this Agreement unless otherwise agreed in writing between the Parties and Section 15.1 and 15.2, do not prejudice any other rights of the Parties under this Agreement.

- 15.3 The Parties shall destroy and/or return all Confidential Information and other property that it may have in its possession at the request of the other Party within a reasonable period from termination of this Agreement.
- 15.4 Termination of this Agreement for whatever reason shall not affect Polestar's undertakings and responsibilities under Section 10 as to any Products sold prior to the effective date of termination.

16. Audit Rights

The Parties will have the right at any reasonable time to send its authorized representatives to examine all pertinent documents and materials in the possession or under the control of the other Party relating to any of the Parties obligations under this Agreement or any payments requested by the Parties relative to any undertaking by the Parties. The Parties shall maintain all pertinent books and records relating to this Agreement according to law or for a period of two years after completion of services pursuant to any specific performance under this Agreement.

17. Governing law

This Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of Sweden without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

18. Dispute Resolution

Escalation principles

- 18.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Polestar Volvo P&Q Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Polestar Volvo P&Q Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Polestar Volvo P&Q Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.
- 18.2 The members of the Polestar Volvo P&Q Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Polestar Volvo P&Q Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Polestar Volvo P&Q Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Polestar Volvo P&Q Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.

- 18.3 If the Polestar Volvo P&Q Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice served pursuant to Section 18.1 above, such deadlock will be referred to the General Counsels of each Party, which shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve the situation in the same way as indicated above. If no Polestar Volvo Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the General Counsels of each Party immediately and Section 18.2 above shall not apply.
- 18.4 If the General Counsels cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. for decision. Should the matter not have been resolved by the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. within 30 days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 18.7 below.
- 18.5 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 13 above.
- 18.6 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in these Sections 18.1-18.6 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

Arbitration.

- 18.7 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, whereas the seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English, and the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.
- 18.8 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.

18.9 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.

18.10 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

19. Force Majeure

19.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under the Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A "Force Majeure Event" means any event beyond a Party's reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a third party's), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, Stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors if such default or delay has been caused by a Force Majeure Event.

19.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under the Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its nonperformance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

20. Waiver

Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.

21. Notices

21.1 All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Agreement shall be sent to the following addresses and shall otherwise be sent in accordance with the Section 22.2:

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods.

22. Amendment

Any amendment or addition to this Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.

23. Entirety

All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Agreement are superseded by this Agreement and its Appendices.

24. Severability

In the event any provision of this Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.

25. Survival

If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 13 (Confidentiality), Section 17 (Governing Law), Section 18 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 2525, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.

This Agreement is executed in two (2) original copies by the duly authorized representatives of the Parties.

FINANCIAL UNDERTAKING

AGREEMENT

INVESTMENTS FOR VEHICLE ASSEMBLY

Dated 17 March 2021

Volvo Car Corporation

and

Polestar Performance AB

Production of Polestar 3 vehicles in Volvo Cars plant in Ridgeville, South Carolina, USA

This Financial Undertaking Agreement—Investments for Vehicle Assembly (this “Agreement”) is dated 17 March 2021 and made between:

- (1) Volvo Car Corporation, 556074-3089, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden (“Volvo Cars”); and
- (2) Polestar Performance AB Reg. No. 556653-3096, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the Sweden (“Polestar”).

Each of Volvo Cars and Polestar is hereinafter referred to as a “Party” and jointly as the “Parties”.

1. BACKGROUND

- 1.1 Polestar and Volvo Cars have investigated the opportunity to use existing manufacturing capacity in Volvo Cars South Carolina plant in Ridgeville (“VCCH”) for the production of Polestar 3, 100% BEV, including battery pack assembly process on the SPA2 platform, for the North American market. Volvo Cars has identified a possibility to utilize existing manufacturing capacity in VCCH to meet the volumes anticipated by Polestar.
- 1.2 In order to prepare for a planned start of production of , activities that require funding, for example, purchasing of manufacturing equipment, need to start no later than[].
- 1.3 The purpose of this Agreement is to (i) to serve as a binding commitment for Polestar to the scope set out in this Agreement and (ii) confirm both Parties’ intention to enter into a more detailed agreement for production of Polestar 3 in VCCH not later than one year before start of production (“Definitive Agreement”).

2. FINANCIAL UNDERTAKING BY POLESTAR RELATING TO TOOLING IN VCCH

2.1 Financial undertaking by Polestar

- 2.1.1 Subject to the terms of this Agreement, both Parties commit to certain investments necessary to manufacture and assemble Polestar 3 in VCCH prior to the Parties entering into the Definitive Agreement.
- 2.1.2 The general principle to be applied for all pricing, cost reimbursement and similar matters between the Parties is arms length’s terms and conditions. Thus, the general principle for the vehicle assembly price will be according to arms length’s terms and conditions, meaning that the vehicle price will be based on actual cost plus a mark-up. The principles for the vehicle assembly price as well as the process of defining how common cost should be shared and allocating capacity in the plant will be described in the in the Definitive Agreement.
- 2.1.3 The Parties acknowledge that the Parties may, for structural purposes, decide to, wholly or partly, assign its rights and/or obligations under this Agreement to one of its Affiliates (either existing or to be established). Such assignment may be made in accordance with Section 6.3 below and only upon such assignment will the rights and obligations of the assigning Party under this Agreement be transferred to, and assumed by, the relevant Affiliate, provided that even following such assignment, the assigning Party will be jointly and severally liable for such Affiliate’s obligations under this Agreement. For the purposes of this Agreement “Affiliate” means a legal entity that, directly or indirectly, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with a Party; and control means ownership or control of at least 50% of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest of such legal entity.

3. AGREED INVESTMENTS AND PAYMENT TERMS

3.1 Definition of Investment Types

3.1.1 "Common Equipment" is defined as follows:

3.1.1.1 Equipment that is planned to be used for manufacturing and assembly of Volvo-branded vehicles, and which will also be needed for production of Polestar 3 in VCCH.

3.1.1.2 Common equipment also includes modification and re-design of already existing equipment at the manufacturing site that will be modified and re-designed for manufacturing and assembly of Volvo-branded vehicles and which will also be needed for production of Polestar 3 in VCCH .

3.1.2 "Launch Cost" means extraordinary costs for the plant that occurs when introducing a new product in the plant. The definition of Launch Cost is according to Volvo VPDS and Volvo manufacturing principles. Examples of Launch Cost elements are, education of plant personnel, quality and containment actions, slow build and inefficiencies during pre-builds, pre-build material, sequence set-up for pre-build material, indirect material and scrap, transport cost of pre-build material. It is acknowledged that the Launch Cost amount will be defined and agreed in a separate agreement.

3.2 Agreed Investments

3.2.1 The Parties commit to the following amounts relating to the investments within the scope set out herein (subject to the below in this Section 3.2.1);

- (a) Common Equipment:[] funded and ordered by Volvo Cars. The Common Equipment funded by Volvo Cars will be depreciated, shared pro-rata between the Parties and included as part of the SPA2 vehicle prices. The Common Equipment ordered by Volvo Cars will be the property of Volvo Cars and Volvo Cars shall be able to use it for its own vehicles. Polestar will be informed regarding investment request amounts before negotiations with equipment suppliers.

If the above stated Common Equipment investment and the related Launch Cost are not recovered by Volvo Cars prior to the end date of the Definitive Agreement, and not possible to mitigate using reasonable efforts, Polestar will reimburse Volvo Cars the actual costs not recovered based on the capacity share allocated to Polestar of total plant capacity, as a lump sum payment in accordance with the payment terms set forth in Section 3.3. The same reimbursement obligation of Polestar will apply if the Definitive Agreement is not entered into between the Parties. If Polestar at the due date of any above-mentioned lump sum payment has any undisputed claim(s) towards Volvo Cars under the Definitive Agreement, Polestar would have a right to set-off such claims against the due and nonrecovered investment costs. Should investments be reused by Volvo Cars, the residual value of the original investments should be deducted with the corresponding amounts from the lump sum payable by Polestar.

- (b) It is acknowledged that the investment amount in this Section 3.2.1 is an estimate. The Parties further acknowledge that the investment amount in this Section 3.2.1 is subject for approval by the respective Party's company boards. Any change in the respective Party's committed investment is subject to prior written agreement between the Parties. In the event that either Party becomes aware that these amounts might be exceeded, the Parties agree to discuss in good faith and seek internal approval before any investments that could lead to an overrun of these amounts are made.
- (c) It is further acknowledged that potential subsidies received for VCCH and that are connected to the production of Polestar 3 in VCCH shall benefit Polestar in proportion to their volume contribution.

(d) Currency is for guidance only and actual cost could be in other currencies.

- 3.2.2 Volvo Cars will provide evidence of all the investment costs and other related Launch Cost for Polestar and have a transparent cost follow up system. Further, Polestar shall have the right at any time during the term of this Agreement and until Job1 and two years thereafter, or if this Agreement is terminated according to Section 4 before Job1, for two (2) years after such termination, to audit and make copies of all pertinent documents and materials in the possession of Volvo Cars relating to the investment costs to be paid by Polestar under this Agreement. Such audit shall be made during regular business hours and in such manner as will not unreasonably disturb the ordinary business of Volvo Cars. During the term of this Agreement and for a period of one (1) year after the expiry or termination thereof, Volvo Cars agrees to keep records of such investment costs. For the avoidance of doubt, all information obtained during such audit shall be deemed Confidential Information (as defined below) of Volvo Cars.
- 3.2.3 For the avoidance of doubt, the agreed investments set out in this Section 3.2 are based on preparation of Polestar capacity utilization as set forth in Appendix 1, and any effects of non-utilization of such capacity by Polestar will be covered in the Definitive Agreement. The Parties agree that the Definitive Agreement will include a requirement for Polestar to cover the running fixed costs related to the capacity share allocated to Polestar of total plant capacity for any unused or cancelled capacity if there is no formal decision made by Volvo Cars SVP Industrial Operations & Quality to use the capacity for Volvo Cars after making reasonable efforts to make use of the invested capacity.

3.3 Payment terms

- 3.3.1 All amounts and payments referred to in this Agreement are exclusive of VAT, and any other taxes will be charged in accordance with applicable laws. The amounts to be paid in the transaction currency the investment was originally made.
- 3.3.2 In the event that Polestar should pay Volvo Cars a lump-sum according to Section 3.2, 4.3 or 4.4, Volvo Cars will invoice Polestar once Volvo Cars has, after prior consultation with Polestar, concluded the amount payable. All amounts invoiced by Volvo Cars to Polestar shall be paid by Polestar within forty-five (45) days after receipt of such invoice.
- 3.3.3 With respect to any payment made later than the due date, such will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid. The interest rate to be applied under this Agreement shall be based on the one (1) month applicable interbank rate, with an addition of two per cent (2%) per annum.

4. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 4.1 This Agreement shall become effective when signed by duly authorized signatories of each Party and shall, unless terminated in accordance with Sections 4.2-4.4 below, remain in force until the Definitive Agreement is signed. It is acknowledged that the Parties aim to include in the Definitive Agreement, as the case may be, provisions (i) covering the subject matter of this Agreement, and (ii) stating that said agreements will, upon execution, replace and supersede this Agreement, except for any provisions in this Agreement which the Parties agree shall remain in force.
- 4.2 The undertakings under Section 3.2.1 are subject to relevant Board approvals within the respective Party's group of companies. If such approvals have not been received latest by 31 March 2021, this Agreement shall terminate automatically without any rights, obligations or liability remaining between the Parties.

- 4.3 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect in the event:
- (a) the other Party commits a material breach (as specified in Section 4.5 below) of the terms of this Agreement, which has not been remedied within sixty (60) days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
 - (b) the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.
- 4.4 Polestar has the right to terminate this Agreement for convenience upon 60 days written notice to Volvo Cars. In the event that Polestar exercises this termination right, Polestar shall reimburse Volvo Cars for the Polestar committed undertakings according to Section 3.2.1 to the extent such undertakings are not possible to mitigate. Polestar bears the burden of proof for any alleged possible mitigation. Any circumstance which would release Polestar from such payment obligation would have to be expressly specified in writing in this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 4.4 shall not apply if Polestar terminates this Agreement in accordance with Section 3 above.
- 4.5 In the event that Volvo Cars terminates this Agreement in accordance with Section 4.3(a), Polestar shall, in addition to other remedies available to Volvo Cars, reimburse Volvo Cars for the Polestar committed investments and Launch Cost according to Section 3.2.1 to the extent such undertakings are not possible to mitigate by Volvo Cars. Polestar bears the burden of proof for any alleged possible mitigation.

5. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 5.1 Either Party or its Affiliates (“Disclosing Party”) may disclose Confidential Information to the other Party or its Affiliates (“Receiving Party”) in connection with this Agreement. All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes set forth in this Agreement.

“Confidential Information” means any and all information regarding the Parties and their respective businesses, whether commercial or technical, in whatever form or media, including but not limited to information relating to Intellectual Property Rights, concepts, technologies, processes, commercial figures, techniques, strategic plans and budgets, investments, customers and sales, designs, graphics, CAD models, CAE data, statement of works (including engineering statement of works and any high-level project plan), targets, test plans/reports, technical performance data and engineering sign-off documents and other information of a sensitive nature, that a Party learns from or about the other Party prior to or after the execution of this Agreement.

- 5.2 Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Agreement and will not divulge the same to any third party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 5.2 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or sub-contractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:
- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
 - (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;

- (c) is obtained from a third party who is free to divulge the same;
 - (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations; or
 - (e) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.
- 5.3 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the dissemination to third parties or publication of the Confidential Information, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section.
- 5.4 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 5.5 This Section shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement without limitation in time.

6. MISCELLANEOUS

6.1 Force majeure

- 6.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under this Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A "Force Majeure Event" means any event beyond a Party's reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including but not limited to strikes (whether involving its own workforce or a third party's), failure of general energy sources delivering energy to the plant, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions.
- 6.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under this Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its non-performance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

6.2 Notices

6.2.1 All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:

- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
- (b) if sent by or email transmission at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
- (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
- (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods.

6.2.2 All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be sent to following addresses:

6.3 Assignment

Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent, not to be unreasonably withheld.

6.4 Waiver

Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.

6.5 Severability

In the event any provision of this Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.

6.6 Entire agreement

All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Agreement are superseded by this Agreement.

6.7 Amendments

Any amendment or addition to this Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.

6.8 Survival

If this Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 4 above, Section 5 (Confidential Information), Section 7 (Governing Law), Section 8 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 6.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.

7. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of Sweden. Dispute resolution

8. DISPUTE RESOLUTION8.1 Escalation principles

- 8.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the "Steering Committee", which regarding the cooperation between the Parties is the so called Volvo Polestar IO&Q Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.
- 8.1.2 The members of the Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.

- 8.1.3 If the Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the Strategic Board for decision. Strategic Board means the so-called Volvo Polestar Executive Alignment Meeting. The Strategic Board shall be the highest level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters. Should the matter not have been resolved by the Strategic Board within 30 days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 8.2 below.
- 8.1.4 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 5 above.
- 8.1.5 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 8 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the Strategic Board in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

8.2 Arbitration

- 8.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof shall be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, whereas the seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English, and the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.

- 8.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 8.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 8.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

This Agreement has been signed in (2) originals, of which the Parties have received one (1) each.

This Financial Undertaking Agreement - Investments for Vehicle Assembly (this "Agreement") is dated 23 March 2021 and made between:

- (1) Volvo Car Corporation, 556074-3089, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Sweden ("Volvo Cars"); and
- (2) Polestar Performance AB Reg. No. 556653-3096, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the Sweden ("Polestar").

Each of Volvo Cars and Polestar is hereinafter referred to as a "Party" and jointly as the "Parties".

1. BACKGROUND

- 1.1 Polestar and Volvo Cars have investigated the opportunity to use existing manufacturing capacity in Volvo Cars South Carolina plant in Ridgeville ("VCCH") for the production of Polestar 3, 100% BEV, including battery pack assembly process on the SPA2 platform, for the North American market. Volvo Cars has identified a possibility to utilize existing manufacturing capacity in VCCH to meet the volumes anticipated by Polestar.
- 1.2 In order to prepare for a planned start of production of [] ("Job1"), activities that require funding, for example, purchasing of manufacturing equipment, need to start no later than [].
- 1.3 The purpose of this Agreement is to (i) to serve as a binding commitment for Polestar to the scope set out in this Agreement and (ii) confirm both Parties' intention to enter into a more detailed agreement for production of Polestar 3 in VCCH not later than one year before start of production ("Definitive Agreement").

2. FINANCIAL UNDERTAKING BY POLESTAR RELATING TO TOOLING IN VCCH

2.1 Financial undertaking by Polestar

- 2.1.1 Subject to the terms of this Agreement, both Parties commit to certain investments necessary to manufacture and assemble Polestar 3 in VCCH prior to the Parties entering into the Definitive Agreement.
- 2.1.2 The general principle to be applied for all pricing, cost reimbursement and similar matters between the Parties is arms length's terms and conditions. Thus, the general principle for the vehicle assembly price will be according to arms length's terms and conditions, meaning that the vehicle price will be based on actual cost plus a mark-up. The principles for the vehicle assembly price as well as the process of defining how common cost should be shared and allocating capacity in the plant will be described in the in the Definitive Agreement.
- 2.1.3 The Parties acknowledge that the Parties may, for structural purposes, decide to, wholly or partly, assign its rights and/or obligations under this Agreement to one of its Affiliates (either existing or to be established). Such assignment may be made in accordance with Section 6.3 below and only upon such assignment will the rights and obligations of the assigning Party under this Agreement be transferred to, and assumed by, the relevant Affiliate, provided that even following such assignment, the assigning Party will be jointly and severally liable for such Affiliate's obligations under this Agreement. For the purposes of this Agreement "Affiliate" means a legal entity that, directly or indirectly, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with a Party; and control means ownership or control of at least 50% of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest of such legal entity.

3. AGREED INVESTMENTS AND PAYMENT TERMS

3.1 Definition of Investment Types

3.1.1 “Type Bound And Unique Equipment” is defined as follows:

3.1.1.1 Tools or equipment or production lines that are related to the Polestar 3 usage only. Type Bound and Unique Equipment can not be, or is not expected to be, re-used without modifications for another product. Some typical examples of Type Bound and Unique Equipment are a Polestar 3 designed gripper, a shaped fixture, a gauging tool or any duplicated or unique manufacturing process aimed to only produce Polestar branded vehicles.

3.1.1.2 Type Bound and Unique Equipment also includes modification of already existing equipment at the manufacturing site that will be modified for manufacturing of only Polestar 3 after the modification. That includes also re-arrangement of existing facilities for the sole purpose to produce the Polestar 3.

3.1.2 “Launch Cost” means extraordinary costs for the plant that occurs when introducing a new product in the plant. The definition of Launch Cost is according to Volvo VPDS and Volvo manufacturing principles. Examples of Launch Cost elements are, education of plant personel, quality and containment actions, slow build and inefficiencies during pre-builds, pre-build material, sequence set-up for pre-build material, indirect material and scrap, transport cost of pre-build material. It is acknowledged that the Launch Cost amount will be defined and agreed in a separate agreement.

3.2 Agreed Investments

3.2.1 The Parties commit to the following amounts relating to the investments within the scope set out herein (subject to the below in this Section 3.2.1);

- (a) Type Bound And Unique Equipment: [], to be funded and ordered by Volvo Cars. The Type Bound and Unique Equipment funded by Volvo Cars will be depreciated on the Polestar 3 vehicles and included as part of the vehicle manufacturing price of the Polestar 3 vehicles. The Type Bound and Unique Equipment ordered by Volvo Cars will be the property of Volvo Cars. Polestar will be informed regarding investment request amounts before negotiations with equipment suppliers. The depreciation time will be the life-time of the Polestar 3 production in VCCH. The general principle of the vehicle manufacturing price is according to Section 2.2.

If the above stated Type Bound and Unique Equipment investment is not fully recovered by Volvo Cars from Polestar prior to the end date of the production of Polestar 3 in VCCH, Polestar will reimburse Volvo Cars the actual costs not recovered, as a lump sum payment in accordance with the payment terms set forth in Section 3.3. The same reimbursement obligation of Polestar will apply if the Definitive Agreement is not entered into between the Parties. If Polestar at the due date of any above-mentioned lump sum payment has any undisputed claim(s) towards Volvo Cars under the Definitive Agreement, Polestar would have a right to set-off such claim(s) against the due and non-recovered investment costs.

- (b) It is acknowledged that the investment amount in this Section 3.2.1 is an estimate. The Parties further acknowledge that the investment amount in this Section 3.2.1 is subject for approval by the respective Party's company boards. Any change in the respective Party's committed investment is subject to prior written agreement between the Parties. In the event that either Party becomes aware that these amounts might be exceeded, the Parties agree to discuss in good faith and seek internal approval before any investments that could lead to an overrun of these amounts are made.
 - (c) It is further acknowledged that potential subsidies received for VCCH and that are connected to the production of Polestar 3 in VCCH shall benefit Polestar in proportion to their volume contribution.
 - (d) Currency is for guidance only and actual cost could be in other currencies.
- 3.2.2 Volvo Cars will provide evidence of all the investment costs and other related Launch Cost for Polestar and have a transparent cost follow up system. Further, Polestar shall have the right at any time during the term of this Agreement and until Job1 and two years thereafter, or if this Agreement is terminated according to Section 4 before Job1, for two (2) years after such termination, to audit and make copies of all pertinent documents and materials in the possession of Volvo Cars relating to the investment costs to be paid by Polestar under this Agreement. Such audit shall be made during regular business hours and in such manner as will not unreasonably disturb the ordinary business of Volvo Cars. During the term of this Agreement and for a period of one (1) year after the expiry or termination thereof, Volvo Cars agrees to keep records of such investment costs. For the avoidance of doubt, all information obtained during such audit shall be deemed Confidential Information (as defined below) of Volvo Cars.
- 3.2.3 For the avoidance of doubt, the agreed investments set out in this Section 3.2 are based on preparation of Polestar capacity utilization as set forth in Appendix 1, and any effects of non-utilization of such capacity by Polestar will be covered in the Definitive Agreement. The Parties agree that the Definitive Agreement will include a requirement for Polestar to cover the running fixed costs related to the capacity share allocated to Polestar of total plant capacity for any unused or cancelled capacity if there is no formal decision made by Volvo Cars SVP Industrial Operations & Quality to use the capacity for Volvo Cars after making reasonable efforts to make use of the invested capacity.

3.3 Payment terms

- 3.3.1 All amounts and payments referred to in this Agreement are exclusive of VAT, and any other taxes will be charged in accordance with applicable laws. The amounts to be paid in the transaction currency the investment was originally made.
- 3.3.2 In the event that Polestar should pay Volvo Cars a lump-sum according to Section 3.2, 4.3 or 4.4, Volvo Cars will invoice Polestar once Volvo Cars has, after prior consultation with Polestar, concluded the amount payable. All amounts invoiced by Volvo Cars to Polestar shall be paid by Polestar within forty-five (45) days after receipt of such invoice.
- 3.3.3 With respect to any payment made later than the due date, such will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid. The interest rate to be applied under this Agreement shall be based on the one (1) month applicable interbank rate, with an addition of two per cent (2%) per annum.

4. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 4.1 This Agreement shall become effective when signed by duly authorized signatories of each Party and shall, unless terminated in accordance with Sections 4.2-4.4 below, remain in force until the Definitive Agreement is signed. It is acknowledged that the Parties aim to include in the Definitive Agreement, as the case may be, provisions (i) covering the subject matter of this Agreement, and (ii) stating that said agreements will, upon execution, replace and supersede this Agreement, except for any provisions in this Agreement which the Parties agree shall remain in force.
- 4.2 The undertakings under Section 3.2.1 are subject to relevant Board approvals within the respective Party's group of companies. If such approvals have not been received by Polestar latest by [] and by Volvo Cars latest by [], this Agreement shall terminate automatically without any rights, obligations or liability remaining between the Parties.
- 4.3 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect in the event:
- (a) the other Party commits a material breach (as specified in Section 4.5 below) of the terms of this Agreement, which has not been remedied within sixty (60) days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
 - (b) the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.
- 4.4 Polestar has the right to terminate this Agreement for convenience upon 60 days written notice to Volvo Cars. In the event that Polestar exercises this termination right, Polestar shall reimburse Volvo Cars for the Polestar committed undertakings according to Section 3.2.1 to the extent such undertakings are not possible to mitigate. Polestar bears the burden of proof for any alleged possible mitigation. Any circumstance which would release Polestar from such payment obligation would have to be expressly specified in writing in this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 4.4 shall not apply if Polestar terminates this Agreement in accordance with Section 3 above.
- 4.5 In the event that Volvo Cars terminates this Agreement in accordance with Section 4.3(a), Polestar shall, in addition to other remedies available to Volvo Cars, reimburse Volvo Cars for the Polestar committed investments and Launch Cost according to Section 3.2.1 to the extent such undertakings are not possible to mitigate by Volvo Cars. Polestar bears the burden of proof for any alleged possible mitigation.

5. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 5.1 Either Party or its Affiliates ("Disclosing Party") may disclose Confidential Information to the other Party or its Affiliates ("Receiving Party") in connection with this Agreement. All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes set forth in this Agreement.

"Confidential Information" means any and all information regarding the Parties and their respective businesses, whether commercial or technical, in whatever form or media, including but not limited to information relating to Intellectual Property Rights, concepts, technologies, processes, commercial figures, techniques, strategic plans and budgets, investments, customers and sales, designs, graphics, CAD models, CAE data, statement of works (including engineering statement of works and any high-level project plan), targets, test plans/reports, technical performance data and engineering sign-off documents and other information of a sensitive nature, that a Party learns from or about the other Party prior to or after the execution of this Agreement.

- 5.2 Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Agreement and will not divulge the same to any third party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 5.2 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or sub-contractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:
- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
 - (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
 - (c) is obtained from a third party who is free to divulge the same;
 - (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations; or
 - (e) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.
- 5.3 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the dissemination to third parties or publication of the Confidential Information, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section.
- 5.4 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 5.5 This Section shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement without limitation in time.

6. MISCELLANEOUS

6.1 Force majeure

- 6.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under this Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A "Force Majeure Event" means any event beyond a Party's reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including but not limited to strikes (whether involving its own workforce or a third party's), failure of general energy sources delivering energy to the plant, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions.

- 6.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under this Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its non-performance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

6.2 Notices

- 6.2.1 All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:

- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
- (b) if sent by or email transmission at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
- (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
- (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods.

- 6.2.2 All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be sent to following addresses:

6.3 Assignment

Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent, not to be unreasonably withheld.

6.4 Waiver

Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.

6.5 Severability

In the event any provision of this Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.

6.6 Entire agreement

All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Agreement are superseded by this Agreement.

6.7 Amendments

Any amendment or addition to this Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.

6.8 Survival

If this Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 4 above, Section 5 (Confidential Information), Section 7 (Governing Law), Section 8 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 6.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.

7. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of Sweden. Dispute resolution

8. DISPUTE RESOLUTION8.1 Escalation principles

- 8.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the "Steering Committee", which regarding the cooperation between the Parties is the so called Volvo Polestar IO&Q Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.
- 8.1.2 The members of the Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 8.1.3 If the Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the Strategic Board for decision. Strategic Board means the so-called Volvo Polestar Executive Alignment Meeting. The Strategic Board shall be the highest level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters. Should the matter not have been resolved by the Strategic Board within 30 days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 8.2 below.
- 8.1.4 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 5 above.
- 8.1.5 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 8 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the Strategic Board in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

8.2 Arbitration

- 8.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof shall be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, whereas the seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English, and the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.

- 8.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 8.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 8.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

This Agreement has been signed in two (2) originals, of which the parties have received one (1) each.

SERVICE AGREEMENT MAIN DOCUMENT

Name of Project: Design Services for []

Short description of activities under this Service Agreement: Polestar will develop a new car with project name []. The responsibility for the program is within Polestar R&D. However, the design of the [] will be provided as a service by Volvo Cars under this Agreement. The Service include the complete design of the [], from concept phase until start of production.

This Service Agreement is between Volvo Car Corporation, Reg. No. 556074-3089, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Sweden ("Service Provider"), and Polestar Performance AB, Reg. No. 556653 3096, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Sweden ("Purchaser").

Each of Service Provider and Purchaser is hereinafter referred to as a "Party" and jointly as the "Parties".

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have determined that Service Provider shall provide to Purchaser certain Services (as defined in the General Terms), which are further described in the Service Specification in Appendix 1. The provision of the Services shall be performed in accordance with the terms in this service agreement and its appendices (the "Service Agreement").
- B. Purchaser now wishes to enter into this Service Agreement for the purpose of receiving the Services and Service Provider wishes to provide the Services in accordance with the terms set forth in this Service Agreement.
- C. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Service Agreement.

AGREEMENT

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This Service Agreement consists of this main document (the "Main Document") and its appendices. This Main Document sets out the specific terms in respect of the provision of the Services, whereas Appendix 2 sets out certain general terms and conditions applicable to the Parties' rights, obligations and the performance of the Parties' activities hereunder (the "General Terms").
- 1.2 All capitalized terms used, but not specifically defined in this Main Document, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the General Terms.

2. SERVICE SPECIFICATION

- 2.1 The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification for the Services as specified in the Service Specification in Appendix 1

3. AFFILIATE

3.1 Affiliate shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the following meaning:

“Affiliate” means any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by or is under common control with Volvo Car Corporation or Polestar Performance; and control means the possession, directly or indirectly, by agreement or otherwise, of (i) at least 50% of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest, or (ii) the power (a) to appoint or remove a majority of the board of directors or other governing body of an entity, or (b) to cause the direction of the management of an entity.

4. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

4.1 The Parties agree that the Purchaser shall be the exclusive owner of all Results (as defined in the General Terms in Appendix 2) developed through the performance of the Services in accordance with what is set forth in Section 4.2 in the General Terms and shall thus be deemed the Results Owner (as defined in the General Terms in Appendix 2).

5. SERVICE CHARGES

5.1 In consideration of Service Provider’s performance of the Services under this Service Agreement, Purchaser shall to pay to Service Provider the service charges as further described below (the “Service Charges”).

5.2 The Service Charges for the Services will be based on the estimated hours for the Services to be performed by Service Provider as set forth in the Service Specification in Appendix 1 and the hourly rates as set forth in Appendix 3. The Parties acknowledge that the estimated Service Charges set forth in the Service Specification in Appendix 1 are based on an estimation of the amount of hours required for the performance of the Services and that this estimation may differ from the final actual number of hours charged by Service Provider. Hence, the Service Charges will ultimately be invoiced based on actual hours, not on estimated hours.

5.3 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency: SEK.

5.4 The hourly rates that are used to calculate the Service Charges shall be determined by Service Provider on an annual basis in compliance with applicable tax legislation, including but not limited to the principle of “arm’s length distance” between the Parties. The hourly rates shall be calculated using the cost plus method, i.e. full cost incurred plus an arm’s length mark-up. All costs Service Provider has in order to perform the Services shall be reimbursed by Purchaser.

6. PAYMENT

6.1 If Service Provider, pursuant to the General Terms, appoints its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, Service Provider shall include the costs relating to such work in the invoices to Purchaser:

6.2 The actual Service Charges shall be invoiced on a monthly basis at the end of each month and paid by Purchaser in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms.

7. GOVERNANCE FORUM

- 7.1 The Parties agree that governance in respect of this Service Agreement shall be handled in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms in Appendix 2. When reference is made to a relevant governance forum, it shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the meaning set out below in this Section 7.
- 7.2 The first level of governance forum for handling the co-operation between the Parties in various matters, handling management, prioritisation of development activities etc. under the Service Agreement shall be the “Steering Committee”, which regarding cooperation between Service Provider and Purchaser is the so called Volvo Polestar Executive P&Q Steering Committee. The Steering Committee shall be the first level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.
- 7.3 The higher level of governance forum, to which an issue shall be escalated if the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution shall be the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO at Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. This shall be the highest level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling, the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

8. TEMPLATE FINANCIAL REPORTING

- 8.1 The Parties agree that the basis for calculating the Service Charges shall be transparent and auditable to Purchaser and be done based on the template attached as Appendix 4.

9. ORDER OF PRIORITY

- 9.1 In the event there are any contradictions or inconsistencies between the terms of this Main Document and any of the Appendices hereto, the Parties agree that the following order of priority shall apply:

- (1) This Main Document
- (2) Appendix 2 (a), Amendment to General Terms—Service Agreement
- (3) Appendix 2 (b), General Terms-Service Agreement
- (4) Appendix 1, Service Specification
- (5) Appendix 3, Hourly Rates
- (6) Appendix 4, Template Financial Reporting

10. NOTICES

- 10.1 All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Service Agreement shall be sent to the following addresses and shall otherwise be sent in accordance with the terms in the General Terms:

SERVICE AGREEMENT

APPENDIX 2

GENERAL TERMS

1. BACKGROUND

This Appendix 2, General Terms—Service Agreement, (the “General Terms”) is an Appendix to the Main Document and is an integrated part of the Service Agreement entered into between the Parties.

2. DEFINITIONS

2.1 For the purpose of these General Terms, the following terms shall have the meanings assigned to them below. All capitalized terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa. Any capitalized terms used, but not specifically defined below in this Section 2, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Main Document

2.2 “Appendix” means an appendix to the Main Document.

2.3 “Background IP” means the Intellectual Property Rights either:

- (a) owned by either of the Parties;
- (b) created, developed or invented by directors, managers, employees or consultants of either of the Parties to which the Party has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sublicense;
- (c) to which the Party has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sub license prior to the execution of this Service Agreement, and any Intellectual Property Rights developed or otherwise acquired independently of this Service Agreement.

2.4 “Change Management” means maintenance and development of the Results to be performed 90 days after the start of production of the first vehicle in which the Results are installed, incorporated, included or otherwise used, and which are driven by for example legal requirements or changes in other products/parts having an effect on the Results.

2.5 “Confidential Information” means any and all non-public information regarding the Parties and their respective businesses, whether commercial or technical, in whatever form or media, including but not limited to the existence, content and subject matter of this Service Agreement, information relating to Intellectual Property Rights, concepts, technologies, processes, commercial figures, techniques, algorithms, formulas, methodologies, knowhow, strategic plans and budgets, investments, customers and sales, designs, graphics, CAD models, CAE data, statement of works (including engineering statement of works and any high level specification), targets, test plans/reports, technical performance data and engineering sign-off documents and other information of a sensitive nature, that a Party learns from or about the other Party prior to or after the execution of this Service Agreement.

- 2.6 “Data Room” means the secure environment personal approved access information sharing platform agreed to be used between the Parties for making available the Results to Purchaser.
- 2.7 “Disclosing Party” means the Party disclosing Confidential Information to the Receiving Party.
- 2.8 “EU Data Protection Laws” shall mean collectively, any applicable data protection, privacy or similar law generally applicable to the processing of personal data, including but not limited to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation) and any act or piece of national legislation implementing, supporting or otherwise incorporating said regulation, including any amendment made to any of the foregoing.
- 2.9 “Force Majeure Event” shall have the meaning set out in Section 15.1.1.
- 2.10 “Industry Standard” means the exercise of such professionalism, skill, diligence, prudence and foresight that would normally be expected at any given time from a skilled and experienced actor engaged in a similar type of undertaking as under this Service Agreement.
- 2.11 “Intellectual Property Rights” or “IP” means Patents, Non-patented IP, rights in Confidential Information and Know How to the extent protected under applicable laws anywhere in the world. For the avoidance of doubt, Trademarks are not comprised by this definition.
- 2.12 “Know-How” means confidential and proprietary industrial, technical and commercial information and techniques in any form including (without limitation) drawings, formulae, test results, reports, project reports and testing procedures, instruction and training manuals, tables of operating conditions, specifications, component lists, market forecasts, lists and particulars of customers and suppliers.
- 2.13 “Main Document” means the contract document (with the heading “Main Document—Service Agreement”), which is signed by Service Provider and Purchaser, to which these General Terms are an Appendix.
- 2.14 “Non-patented IP” means copyrights (including rights in computer software), database rights, semiconductor topography rights, rights in designs, and other intellectual property rights (other than Trademarks and Patents) and all rights or forms of protection having equivalent or similar effect anywhere in the world, in each case whether registered or unregistered, and registered includes registrations, applications for registration and renewals whether made before, on or after execution of this Service Agreement.
- 2.15 “Patent” means any patent, patent application, or utility model, whether filed before, on or after execution of this Service Agreement, along with any continuation, continuation-in-part, divisional, re examined or re-issued patent, foreign counterpart or renewal or extension of any of the foregoing.

- 2.16 “Receiving Party” means the Party receiving Confidential Information from the Disclosing Party.
- 2.17 “Results” shall mean any outcome of the Services provided to Purchaser under this Service Agreement (including but not limited to any IP, technology, software, methods, processes, deliverables, objects, products, documentation, modifications, improvements, and/or amendments to be carried out by Service Provider under the Service Specification) and any other outcome or result of the Services to be performed by Service Provider as described in the relevant Service Specification, irrespective of whether the performance of the Services has been completed or not.
- 2.18 “Results Owner” shall mean the Party which shall be the owner of the Results in accordance with what is set forth in Section 5.2.
- 2.19 “Services” shall mean the services to be performed by Service Provider to Purchaser hereunder, including all services under the Appendices attached hereto.
- 2.20 “Service Agreement” means the Main Document including all of its Appendices and their Schedules as amended from time to time.
- 2.21 “Service Charges” means the service charges as set forth or referenced to in the Main Document.
- 2.22 “Service Specification” describes the Services to be provided by Service Provider to Purchaser hereunder including (if applicable) a time plan for the provision of the Services, which is included as Appendix 1 in this Service Agreement.
- 2.23 “Third Party” means a party other than any of the Parties and/or an Affiliate of one of the Parties to this Service Agreement.
- 2.24 “Trademarks” means trademarks (including part numbers that are trademarks), service marks, logos, trade names, business names, assumed names, trade dress and get-up, and domain names, in each case whether registered or unregistered, including all applications, registrations, renewals and the like, in each case to the extent they constitute rights that are enforceable against Third Parties.
- 2.25 “Use” means to make, have made, use (including in a process, such as use in designing, engineering, testing or assembling products or in their research or development), keep, install, integrate, extract, assemble, reproduce, incorporate, create derivative works of, modify, adapt, improve, enhance, develop, service or repair, including in the case of installation, integration, assembly, service or repair, the right to have a subcontractor of any tier carry out any of these activities on behalf of Purchaser.
- 2.26 The right to “have made” is the right of Purchaser to have another person (or their subcontractor of any tier) make for Purchaser and does not include the right to grant sublicenses to another person to make for such person’s own use or use other than for Purchaser.

3. PROVISION OF SERVICES

3.1 Service Specification. The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification of the Services provided under this Service Agreement in the Service Specification.

3.2 Making available the Results.

3.2.1 Service Provider shall make the Results (or if not finalised, any part of the Results that has been finalised) available to Purchaser within the timeframes specified in the Service Specification, but under all circumstances promptly after any part of the Results has been finalised. The Results shall only be made available in a Data Room.

3.2.2 The Results (or any finalised part thereof) shall be deemed made available by Service Provider to Purchaser if such files have been electronically loaded into and made accessible by Service Provider in the Data Room agreed upon

3.3 Change Management. Service Provider has an obligation to, upon Purchaser's request, perform Change Management in relation to the developed Results, such as changes required in order to maintain functionality, adjust the Results due to new technical solutions etc. For the avoidance of doubt, the performance of Change Management is however not governed by this Service Agreement, but shall be subject to a separate agreement between the Parties, which the Parties upon either Party's request shall execute.

3.4 Service Recipients. In addition to Purchaser, all of Purchaser's Affiliates shall be entitled to receive and use the Services under this Service Agreement. Nevertheless, Purchaser shall be Service Provider's sole point of contact and shall be responsible for payment of the Service Charges as set forth in this Service Agreement, irrespectively of whether it is Purchaser or any of Purchaser's Affiliates that in reality received and used the Services.

3.5 Subcontractors.

3.5.1 The Parties acknowledge that Service Provider may use its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, provided that Service Provider informs Purchaser thereof.

3.5.2 Service Provider shall however remain responsible for the performance, and any omission to perform or comply with the provisions of this Service Agreement, by any Affiliate to Service Provider and/or any subcontractor to the same extent as if such performance or omittance was made by Service Provider itself. Service Provider shall also remain Purchaser's sole point of contact unless otherwise agreed.

3.6 Relationship between the Parties. The Parties are acting as independent contractors when performing each Party's respective obligations under the Service Agreement. Neither Party nor its Affiliates are agents for the other Party or its Affiliates and have no authority to represent them in relation to any matters. Nothing in these General Terms or the Service Agreement shall be construed as to constitute a partnership or joint venture between the Parties.

4. SERVICE REQUIREMENTS

- 4.1 All Services shall be performed in accordance with the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement, including the Service Specification, and otherwise in a professional manner.
- 4.2 When providing the Services, Service Provider shall use professional and skilled personnel, reasonably experienced for the Services to be performed, Service Provider shall work according to the same standard of care and professionalism that is done in Service Provider's internal business and development projects. Such standard of care and professionalism, shall however at all times correspond to Industry Standard. For the avoidance of doubt, Service Provider is responsible for all necessary recruiting and hiring costs associated with employing appropriate personnel as well as all necessary training costs.
- 4.3 Service Provider acknowledges that time is of essence and Service Provider agrees to strictly respect and adhere to the deadlines set out in the Service Specification in Appendix 1, such as time limits, milestones and gates. In the event Service Provider risks not to meet an agreed deadline or is otherwise in delay with the performance of the Services, Service Provider shall appoint additional resources in order to avoid the effects of the anticipated delay or the delay (as the case may be).
- 4.4 In the event the Services or any part thereof, more than insignificantly deviate from the requirements set forth in the Service Specification, or if Service Provider otherwise does not meet or ceases to meet the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement (except for minor faults and defects, which do not affect the provision of the Services), Service Provider shall remedy such non-compliance, fault or defect as soon as reasonably possible.
- 4.5 In the event Service Provider fails to act in accordance with Section 4.3 and 4.4 above, such failure shall be escalated in accordance with the escalation principles set forth in Section 17.1 and eventually give Purchaser the right to terminate the Service Agreement in accordance with Section 14.4.
- 4.6 Purchaser shall provide Service Provider with instructions as reasonably required for Service Provider to be able to carry out the Services. Service Provider must continuously inform Purchaser of any needs of additional instructions or specifications required to perform the Services.
- 4.7 Service Provider shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its undertakings under this Service Agreement. Further, Service Provider undertakes to ensure that the performance of the Services will not be given lower priority than other of Service Provider's internal similar projects.

5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

5.1 Ownership of existing Intellectual Property Rights.

- 5.1.1 Each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of its Background IP and any Intellectual Property Rights which are modifications, amendments or derivatives of any Intellectual Property Rights already owned by such Party.
- 5.1.2 Nothing in this Service Agreement shall be deemed to constitute an assignment of, or license to use, any Trademarks of the other Party.

5.2 Ownership of Results.

- 5.2.1 The Party specified in the Main Document to own the Results shall be the exclusive owner of the Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof.
- 5.2.2 If Purchaser is the Party indicated as owning the Results in the Main Document, all Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof, and any Intellectual Property Rights developed as a result of the Services provided by Service Provider (or if applicable, any of its appointed Affiliates or subcontractors), shall consequently automatically upon creation be transferred from Service Provider to Purchaser. Purchaser shall further have the right to transfer, sublicense, modify and otherwise freely dispose of the Results, however with the restrictions set forth in Section 5.3 below.

5.3 License grant.

- 5.3.1 If the Purchaser is the Party defined as owning the Results in Section 4 in the Main Document, the Service Provider may request a license to the Results. Upon such request the Parties will enter into good faith negotiations for such license. A license is subject to the Purchaser's approval, and to compensation to the Purchaser. For the avoidance of doubt, the Service Provider's request for a license as set out in this Section 5.3.1 may be exercised at any time, also after the term of this Agreement.
- 5.3.2 Such license shall be non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least 50 years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any IP or Background IP included in the license described hereunder)), non-assignable (however assignable to the Party's Affiliates and related companies) license to, within the Territory:
- (a) Use, in whole or in part, the Results and, if applicable, any Background IP embedded in or otherwise used in the development of the Results to the extent such license is necessary or reasonably necessary to make use of this license granted to the Results and the Services provided hereunder; and
 - (b) design, engineer, Use, make and have made, repair, service, market, sell and make available products and/or services based on, incorporating or using the Results and any Background IP referred to in (a) above, in whole or in part.
- 5.3.3 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Service Agreement, nothing in these General Terms or otherwise in the Service Agreement shall be construed as to give the other Party any rights, including but not limited to any license rights (express or implied), to any Background IP, except as expressly stated herein.
- 5.3.4 If a license is granted from the Results Owner to the other Party under Section 5.3.1 above, it shall be fully sublicensable to the other Party's Affiliates, but shall not be sublicensable to any Third Party without prior written approval from the Results Owner, however with the exception stated in Section 5.3.5 below. For the avoidance of doubt, the Results Owner shall be entitled to license the Results, including any Background IP therein, to the Results Owner's Affiliates without prior written consent from the other Party.
- 5.3.5 In the event either Party would want to sublicense/license the rights granted under Section 5.3.1 above in whole, or a substantial part of said rights, to a Third Party, such sublicense/license requires the prior written approval of the other Party, which shall not be sublicense/license requires the prior written approval of the other Party, which shall not be unreasonably withheld (whereby a sublicense/license to a Third Party which is a competitor of either Party is an example of what could be deemed unreasonable and subject to nonapproval) or delayed. Any approval in accordance with the foregoing shall be handled at a high governance level by the Strategic Board. For the avoidance of doubt, the other Party has no obligation to provide any support regarding sublicensing/licensing of any rights connected to this Service Agreement to a Party providing a sublicense/license to a Third Party.

5.4 Suspected infringement.

5.4.1 If a license is granted from the Results Owner to the other Party under Section 5.3.1 above, the Party to whom the license in Section 5.3 is granted, shall promptly (upon becoming aware) notify the Results Owner in writing of:

- (a) any conduct of a Third Party that the Party reasonably believes to be, or reasonably believes to be likely to be, an infringement, misappropriation or other violation of any Intellectual Property Rights licensed to the Party hereunder by a Third Party; or
- (b) any allegations made to the Party by a Third Party that any Intellectual Property Rights licensed hereunder are invalid, subject to cancellation, unenforceable, or is a misappropriation of any Intellectual Property Rights of a Third Party.

5.4.2 In the event that the Party has provided the Results Owner a notification pursuant to Section 5.4.1(a) above, and the Results Owner decides not to take any action against the Third Party, the Results Owner may approve in writing that the other Party shall be entitled to itself take action against the Third Party at its own cost. If the Results Owner approves, it shall provide reasonable assistance to the other Party, as requested by the other Party at the other Party's expense. If the Results Owner does not approve to the other Party taking such action, the issue should be escalated to the Strategic Board for decision.

5.4.3 For the avoidance of doubt, the Results Owner has no responsibility in the event the Results are alleged to infringe in any Third Party's Intellectual Property Rights and the Results Owner has, except for what is set out above in this Section 5.4 no obligation to defend and hold the other Party harmless from and against any alleged infringements.

5.5 Volvo brand name.

5.5.1 For the sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the "Volvo" brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to "Volvo" in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the "Volvo" Trademarks as well as the "Volvo" name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the "Volvo" Trademarks is subject to a service agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related Intellectual Property can only be used by Volvo Car Corporation and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.

5.5.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Volvo" brand name or "Volvo" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

- 5.5.3 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the “Polestar” brand name or Trademarks, or refer to “Polestar” in communications or official documents of whatever kind.
- This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the “Polestar” brand name or “Polestar” Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.
- 6. SERVICE CHARGES
- 6.1 In consideration of Service Provider’s performance of the Services under this Service Agreement, Purchaser agrees to pay to Service Provider the Service Charges as set forth or referenced to in the Main Document.
- 7. PAYMENT TERMS
- 7.1 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency set forth in the Main Document, in a timely manner and in accordance with the payment terms set forth in this Section 7.
- 7.2 All amounts referred to. in this Service Agreement are exclusive of VAT and surtaxes but inclusive of withholding tax applicable in accordance with local legislation.
- 7.3 Service Provider is responsible for charging and declaring sales tax/VAT or other taxes as follow from applicable law. Any applicable sales tax/VAT on the agreed price will be included in the invoices and paid by Purchaser. All amounts referred to in this Service Agreement are exclusive of VAT.
- 7.4 If Service Provider is obligated to collect or pay taxes, such taxes shall be invoiced to Purchaser, unless Purchaser provides a valid tax exemption certificate authorized by the appropriate Tax Authority. If Purchaser is required by law to withhold any taxes from its payments, Purchaser must provide an official tax receipt or other appropriate documentation to support this withholding.
- 7.5 Any amount of the invoiced by Service Provider to Purchaser shall be paid by Purchaser within 30 days after the invoice date.
- 7.6 Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based on the one month applicable interbank rate, depending, on invoice and currency, with an addition of two per cent (2.0%) per annum.
- 7.7 Any paid portion of the Service Charges is non-refundable, with the exception set forth in the Main Document.
- 8. AUDIT
- 8.1 During the term of the Service Agreement, Purchaser shall have the right to, upon reasonable notice in writing to Service Provider, inspect Service Provider’s books and records related to the Services and the premises where the Services are performed, in order to conduct quality controls and otherwise verify the statements rendered under this Service Agreement.

- 8.2 Audits shall be made during regular business hours and be conducted by Purchaser or by an independent auditor appointed by Purchaser. Should Purchaser during any inspection find that Service Provider or the Services does/do not fulfil the requirements set forth herein, Purchaser is entitled to comment on the identified deviations. Service Provider shall, upon notice from Purchaser, take reasonable efforts to take the actions required in order to fulfil the requirements. In the event the Parties cannot agree upon measures to be taken in respect of the audit, each Party shall be entitled, to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.

9. REPRESENTATIONS

- 9.1 Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:
- (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;
 - (b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Service Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;
 - (c) the execution, delivery and performance of this Service Agreement have been duly authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate any laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and
 - (d) this Service Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.
- 9.2 To the extent any Background IP is embedded, or otherwise included, in the Results and subject to the license granted in Section 5.3 above, the Parties acknowledge that the Background IP is licensed on an "as is" basis, without any warranties or representations of any kind (except for the warranties in Section 9.1 above), whether implied or express, and in particular any warranties of suitability, merchantability, description, design and fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, completeness, systems integration and accuracy are expressly excluded to the maximum extent permissible by law.

10. SERVICE WARRANTY

- 10.1 When performing the Services, Service Provider shall provide professional and skilled personnel, reasonably experienced for the Services to be performed at the best of their knowledge.
- 10.2 Service Provider provides the Services "as is". Service Provider does neither warrant nor represent that any Services, provided or delivered to Purchaser hereunder are functional for the business needs of Purchaser or otherwise suitable for any specific purpose, nor that the Services, are not infringing any Intellectual Property of any third party. Service Provider does neither give any representations or warranties as regards the merchantability of the deliverables to be delivered hereunder nor any other representations or warranties of any kind whatsoever concerning the Services. Purchaser acknowledges that the price of the Services to be performed and other deliverables to be delivered by Service Provider are set in consideration of the foregoing.

- 10.3 Service Provider shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to Purchaser's use of the Services notify Purchaser of such claim in writing and Purchaser shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the third party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. Purchaser shall at all times keep Service Provider informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with Service Provider on appropriate actions to take. If Purchaser fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend Service Provider within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, Service Provider shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/or over any settlement negotiation at Purchaser's cost. Any settlement proposed by Purchaser on its own account must take account of potential implications for Service Provider and shall therefore be agreed with Service Provider before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

11. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 11.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Service Agreement.
- 11.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement shall be limited to 30 % of the total Service Charges payable by Purchaser to Service Provider hereunder.
- 11.3 The limitations of liability set forth in this Section 11 shall not apply in respect of:
- (a) claims related to death or bodily injury;
 - (b) damage caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence;
 - (c) damage caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 13 below; or
 - (d) damage arising out of an infringement, or alleged infringement, of the other Party's or any third party's Intellectual Property.

12. GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES

12.1 Governance.

- 12.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Service Agreement as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Service Agreement.
- 12.1.2 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Service Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event the Parties on an operational level cannot agree upon inter alia the prioritisation of development activities or other aspects relating to the co-operation between the Parties, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.

12.1.3 If the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution of the disagreement the relevant issue should be escalated to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO at Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd for decision.

12.2 Changes.

12.3 During the term of this Service Agreement, Purchaser can request changes to the Service Specification, which shall be handled in accordance with the governance procedure set forth in Section 12.112.1 above. Both Parties agree to act in good faith to address and respond to any change request within a reasonable period of time.

12.4 The Parties acknowledge that Service Provider will not perform in accordance with such change request until agreed in writing between the Parties. For the avoidance of any doubt, until there is agreement about the requested change, all work shall continue in accordance with the existing Service Specification.

13. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

13.1 The Parties shall take any and all necessary measures to comply with the security and confidentiality procedures of the other Party.

13.2 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes comprised by the fulfilment of this Service Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Service Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 13.2 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or sub-contractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:

- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
- (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
- (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
- (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;
- (e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or
- (f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.

- 13.3 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 13.
- 13.4 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within 30 days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as "Confidential", "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential information.
- 13.5 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 13, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behavior and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to 17.1.6 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 13.6 For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 13 does not permit disclosure of source code to software, and/or any substantial parts of design documents to software, included in the Results, to any Third Party, notwithstanding what is set forth above in this Section 13. Any such disclosure to any Third Party is permitted only if approved in writing by Service Provider.
- 13.7 This confidentiality provision shall survive the expiration or termination of this Service Agreement without limitation in time.

14. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 14.1 This Service Agreement shall become effective when the Main Document is signed by duly authorised signatories of each Party and shall, unless terminated in accordance with this Section 14 below, remain in force until the Services are completed.
- 14.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in the event:
- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Service Agreement, which has not been remedied within 30 days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
 - (b) if the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.
- 14.3 For avoidance of doubt, Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, shall be considered in material breach for the purpose of this Service Agreement.

- 14.4 Furthermore, Purchaser is entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in case Service Provider acts in breach, which is not insignificant, of what is set forth in Section 4.3 and 4.4 provided that the issue first has been escalated in accordance with Section 17.1.
- 14.5 Purchaser shall in addition be entitled to cancel the Services performed by Service Provider for convenience upon 30 days written notice to Service Provider. In such event, Service Provider shall, upon request from Purchaser, promptly make available in the Data Room (if applicable) any and all parts of the Results which have been finalised on the effective date of the cancellation. Moreover, the "Results" shall for the purposes of this Service Agreement be considered such parts of the Results that Service Provider has finalised on the effective date of the cancellation.
- 14.6 In the event Purchaser cancels the Services in accordance with Section 14.5 above, the Service Charges shall, instead of what is set out in the Main Document, correspond to Service Provider's costs for the Services performed up, until and including the effective date of the cancellation, including the mark-up otherwise applied to calculate the Service Charges in accordance with the Main Document and any other reasonable proven costs Service Provider has incurred.
- 14.7 Either Party shall in addition be entitled to terminate the Service Agreement for convenience upon 60 days written notice to the other Party.

15. MISCELLANEOUS

15.1 Force majeure.

- 15.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under the Service Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A "Force Majeure Event" means any event beyond a Party's reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party's), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors if such default or delay has been caused by a Force Majeure Event.
- 15.1.2 A non performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under the Service Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its non performance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.
- 15.2 Notices. All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Service Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:

- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
- (b) if sent by email transmission, at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
- (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
- (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using One of the other methods. All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be addressed to the address, and with the attention, as set forth in the Main Document, or to such other address, number or email address as a Party may designate.

15.3 Assignment.

15.3.1 Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Service Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.

15.3.2 Notwithstanding the above, each Party may assign this Service Agreement to an Affiliate without the prior written consent of the other Party.

15.4 Waiver. Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Service Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Service Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the Service Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.

15.5 Severability. In the event any provision of this Service Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Service Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Service Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Service Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.

15.6 Entire agreement. All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Service Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Service Agreement are superseded by this Service Agreement and its Appendices.

15.7 Amendments. Any amendment or addition to this Service Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.

15.8 Survival.

- 15.8.1 If this Service Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 5.3 (License grant), Section 13 (Confidentiality), Section 16 (Governing Law), Section 17 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 15.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.
- 15.8.2 Notwithstanding Section 15.8.1 above, if this Service Agreement is terminated due to Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 5.3 (License Grant) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination. For the avoidance of doubt, what is stated in this Section 15.8.2 shall only apply in relation to such licenses granted to Purchaser pursuant to Section 5.3 above and any licenses granted to Service Provider under Section 5.3 shall thus nevertheless remain in force after such termination.

16. GOVERNING LAW

- 16.1 This Service Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Service Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of Sweden, without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

17.1 Escalation principles.

- 17.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.
- 17.1.2 The members of the Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 17.1.3 If the Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice served pursuant to Section 17.1.1 above, such deadlock will be referred to the CEO's of each Party, which shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve the situation in the same way as indicated above. If no Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the CEO's of each Party immediately and Section 17.1.2 above shall not apply.

- 17.1.4 If the CEO's of each Party cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. for decision. Should the matter not have been resolved by the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. within 30 days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 17.2 below.
- 17.1.5 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 13 above.
- 17.1.6 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 17.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.
- 17.2 Arbitration.
- 17.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, whereas the seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English, and the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.
- 17.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Service Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 17.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Service Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 17.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

Certain identified information marked with "[]" has been omitted from this document because it is both (i) not material and (ii) the type that the registrant treats as private or confidential.

Short description of activities under this Service Agreement: Project [] is a [] with a planned start of production in []. The design of the [] will be provided as a service by Volvo Cars under this agreement. The Service under this agreement include the complete design of the [], from concept phase until the SOP (Start of production).

This Service Agreement is between Volvo Car Corporation, Reg. No. 556074-3089, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Sweden ("Service Provider"), and Polestar Performance AB, Reg. No. 556653-3096, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Sweden ("Purchaser").

Each of Service Provider and Purchaser is hereinafter referred to as a "Party" and jointly as the "Parties".

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have determined that Service Provider shall provide to Purchaser certain Services (as defined in the General Terms), which are further described in the Service Specification in Appendix 1, The provision of the Services shall be performed in accordance with the terms in this service agreement and its appendices (the "Service Agreement").
- B. Purchaser now wishes to enter into this Service Agreement for the purpose of receiving the Services and Service Provider wishes to provide the Services in accordance with the terms set forth in this Service Agreement.
- C. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Service Agreement.

AGREEMENT

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This Service Agreement consists of this main document (the "Main Document") and its appendices. This Main Document sets Out the specific terms in respect of the provision of the Services, whereas Appendix 2 sets out certain general terms and conditions applicable to the Parties' rights, obligations and the performance of the Parties' activities hereunder (the "General Terms").
- 1.2 All capitalized terms used, but not specifically defined in this Main Document, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the General Terms.

2. SERVICE SPECIFICATION

- 2.1 The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification for the Services as specified in the Service Specification in Appendix 1.

3. AFFILIATE

3.1 Affiliate shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the following meaning:

“Affiliate” means any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by Volvo Car Corporation or Polestar Automotive Holding Limited and control means the possession, directly or indirectly, by agreement or otherwise, of (i) at least 50% of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest, or (ii) the power (a) to appoint or remove a majority of the board of directors or other governing body of an entity, or (b) to cause the direction of the management of an entity.

4. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

4.1 The Parties agree that the Purchaser shall be the exclusive owner of all Results (as defined in the General Terms in Appendix 2) developed through the performance of the Services in accordance with what is set forth in Section 5.2.1 in the General Terms and shall thus be deemed the Results Owner (as defined in the General Terms in Appendix 2).

5. SERVICE CHARGES

5.1 In consideration of Service Provider’s performance of the Services under this Service Agreement, Purchaser shall to pay to Service Provider the service charges as further described below (the “Service Charges”).

5.2 The Service Charges for the Services will be based on the actual hours required for the Services to be performed by Service Provider as set forth in the Service Specification in Appendix 1 and the hourly rates as set forth in Appendix 3. The Parties acknowledge that the estimated Service Charges set forth in the Service Specification in Appendix 1 are based on an estimation of the amount of hours required for the performance of the Services and that this estimation may differ from the final actual number of hours charged by Service Provider. Hence, the Service Charges will ultimately be invoiced based on actual hours, not on estimated hours.

5.3 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency: SEK.

5.4 The hourly rates that are used to calculate the Service Charges shall be determined by Service Provider on an annual basis in compliance with applicable tax legislation, including but not limited to the principle of “arm’s length distance” between the Parties. The hourly rates shall be calculated using the cost plus method, i.e. full cost incurred plus an arm’s length mark-up. All costs Service Provider has in order to perform the Services shall be reimbursed by Purchaser.

6. PAYMENT

6.1 If Service Provider, pursuant to the General Terms, appoints its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, Service Provider shall include the costs relating to such work in the invoices to Purchaser.

6.2 The actual Service Charges shall be invoiced on a monthly basis at the end of each month and paid by Purchaser in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms.

7. GOVERNANCE FORUM

- 7.1 The Parties agree that governance in respect of this Service Agreement shall be handled in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms in Appendix 2. When reference is made to a relevant governance forum, it shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the meaning set out below in this Section 7.
- 7.2 The first level of governance forum for handling the co-operation between the Parties in various matters, handling management, prioritisation of development activities etc. under the Service Agreement shall be the “Steering Committee”, which regarding cooperation between Service Provider and Purchaser is the so called Volvo Polestar Executive PG Steering Committee. The Steering Committee shall be the first level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.
- 7.3 The higher level of governance forum, to which an issue shall be escalated if the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution shall be the “Strategic Board”, which regarding cooperation between Service Provider and Purchaser is the so called Volvo Polestar Executive Meeting. The Strategic Board shall be the highest level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

8. TERRITORY

- 8.1 For the purposes of this Service Agreement, the “Territory” shall mean all countries in the world,

9. TEMPLATE FINANCIAL REPORTING

- 9.1 The Parties agree that the basis for calculating the Service Charges shall be transparent and auditable to Purchaser and be done based on the template, attached as Appendix 4.

10. ORDER OF PRIORITY

- 10.1 In the event there are any contradictions or inconsistencies between the terms of this Main Document and any of the Appendices hereto, the Parties agree that the following order of priority shall apply:
- (1) This Main Document
 - (2) Appendix 2, General Terms—Service Agreement
 - (3) Appendix 1, Service Specification
 - (4) Appendix 3, Hourly Rates
 - (5) Appendix 4, Template Financial Reporting

SERVICE AGREEMENT
APPENDIX 1
SERVICE SPECIFICATION

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This Service Specification is a part of the Service Agreement executed between Service Provider and Purchaser. This Service Specification sets out the scope and the specification of the activities that shall be performed under the Service Agreement, the division of responsibilities between Service Provider and Purchaser and the applicable time plan for the performance of the activities.

2. DEFINITIONS

- 2.1 Any capitalised terms used but not specifically defined herein shall have the meanings set out for such terms in the Main Document. In addition, the capitalised terms set out below in this Section 2 shall for the purposes of this Service Specification have the meanings described herein. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa.

3. GENERAL DESCRIPTION

- 3.1 The Parties have agreed that Volvo Cars Design will perform the design process for the [] until the project reaches SOP (start of production).

4. ASSUMPTIONS/PRE-REQUISITES

- 4.1 The aim for this vehicle is to use as many carry-over components as possible to keep investments and cost to a minimum. Certain specifications will be reduced to increase profitability but shall remain the Polestar quality and attention to detail.

5. DESCRIPTION OF THE SERVICE ACTIVITIES

- 5.1 The services include exterior design, interior design and surface design. Additionally, it also includes C&M design, UX design, prototype support, visualisation work and studio engineering support. The services and deliveries are performed according to the Digital Model Procedure, with defined milestones for approval of Digital Shape Model (DSM) and Appearance Approval (AA). The procedure and milestone criteria are described in Schedule 1.
- 5.2 The prerequisite and starting point for the design service is the DSM2 release. The fulfilment of the services is confirmed when there is an agreed and approved CAD releases for the following milestones: DSM2, DSM3 and DSM4. The design development will also be confirmed and approved with milled clay models after each release, DSM4, DSM5, AA1 and AA2. The delivery of the service is finalised when there is a confirmation and approval of the AA2 design release, colour material specification and the UX update on [] UX content.

- 2.8 “EU Data Protection Laws” shall mean collectively, any applicable data protection, privacy or similar law generally applicable to the processing of personal data, including but not limited to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation) and any act or piece of national legislation implementing, supporting or otherwise incorporating said regulation, including any amendment made to any of the foregoing.
- 2.9 “Force Majeure Event” shall have the meaning set out in Section 15.1.1.
- 2.10 “Industry Standard” means the exercise of such professionalism, skill, diligence, prudence and foresight that would normally be expected at any given time from a skilled and experienced actor engaged in a similar type of undertaking as under this Service Agreement.
- 2.11 “Intellectual Property Rights” or “IP” means Patents, Non-patented IP, rights, in Confidential Information and Know-How to the extent protected under applicable laws anywhere in the world. For the avoidance of doubt, Trademarks are not comprised by this definition.
- 2.12 “Know-How” means confidential and proprietary industrial, technical and commercial information and techniques in any form including (without limitation) drawings, formulae, test results, reports, project reports and testing procedures, instruction and training manuals, tables of operating conditions, specifications, component lists, market forecasts, lists and particulars of customers and suppliers.
- 2.13 “Main Document” means the contract document (with the heading “Main Document—Service Agreement”), which is signed by Service Provider and Purchaser, to which these General Terms are an Appendix.
- 2.14 “Non patented IP” means copyrights (including rights in computer software), database rights, semiconductor topography rights, rights in designs, and other intellectual property rights (other than Trademarks and Patents) and all rights or forms of protection having equivalent or similar effect anywhere in the world, in each case whether registered or unregistered, and registered includes registrations, applications for registration and renewals whether made before, on or after execution of this Service Agreement.
- 2.15: “Patent” means any patent, patent application, or utility model, whether filed before, on or after execution of this Service Agreement, along with any continuation, continuation- in-part, divisional, re-examined or re-issued patent, foreign counterpart or renewal or extension of any of the foregoing.
- 2.16 “Receiving Party” means the Party receiving Confidential Information from the Disclosing Party.

- 2.17 “Results” shall mean any outcome of the Services provided to Purchaser under this Service Agreement (including but not limited to any IP, technology, software, methods, processes, deliverables, objects, products, documentation, modifications, improvements, and/or amendments to be carried out by Service Provider under the Service Specification) and any other outcome or result of the Services to be performed by Service Provider as described in the relevant Service Specification, irrespective of whether the performance of the Services has been completed or not.
- 2.18 “Results Owner” shall mean the Party which shall be the owner of the Results in accordance with what is set forth in Section 5.2.
- 2.19 “Services” shall mean the services to be performed by Service Provider to Purchaser hereunder, including all services under the Appendices attached hereto.
- 2.20 “Service Agreement” means the Main Document including all of its Appendices and their Schedules as amended from time to time.
- 2.21 “Service Charges” means the service charges as set forth or referenced to in the Main Document.
- 2.22 “Service Specification” describes the Services to be provided by Service Provider to Purchaser hereunder including (if applicable) a time plan for the provision of the Services, which is included as Appendix 1 in this Service Agreement.
- 2.23 “Third Party” means a party other than any of the Parties and/or an Affiliate of one of the Parties to this Service Agreement.
- 2.24 “Trademarks” means trademarks (including part numbers that are trademarks), service marks, logos, trade names, business names, assumed names, trade dress and get up, and domain names, in each case whether registered or unregistered, including all applications, registrations, renewals and the like, in each case to the extent they constitute rights that are enforceable against Third Parties.
- 2.25 “Use” means to make, have made, use (including in a process, such as use in designing, engineering, testing or assembling products or in their research or development), keep, install, integrate, extract, assemble, reproduce, incorporate, create derivative works of, modify, adapt, improve, enhance, develop, service or repair, including in the case of installation, integration, assembly, service or repair, the right to have a subcontractor of any tier carry out any of these activities on behalf of Purchaser.
- 2.26 The right to “have made” is the right of Purchaser to have another person (or their subcontractor of any tier) make for Purchaser and does not include the right to grant sublicenses to another person to make for such person’s own use or use other than for Purchaser.

3. PROVISION OF SERVICES

- 3.1 Service Specification. The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification of the Services provided under this Service Agreement in the Service Specification.

3.2 Making available the Results.

- 3.2.1 Service Provider shall make the Results (or if not finalised, any part of the Results that has been finalised) available to Purchaser within the timeframes specified in the Service Specification, but under all circumstances promptly after any part of the Results has been finalised. The Results shall only be made available in a Data Room.
- 3.2.2 The Results (or any finalised part thereof) shall be deemed made available by Service Provider to Purchaser if such files have been electronically loaded into and made accessible by Service Provider in the Data Room agreed upon.
- 3.3 Change Management. Service Provider has an obligation to, upon Purchaser's request, perform Change Management in relation to the developed Results, such as changes required in order to maintain functionality, adjust the Results due to new technical solutions etc. For the avoidance of doubt, the performance of Change Management is however not governed by this Service Agreement, but shall be subject to a separate agreement between the Parties, which the Parties upon either Party's request shall execute.
- 3.4 Service Recipients. In addition to Purchaser, all of Purchaser's Affiliates shall be entitled to receive and use the Services under this Service Agreement. Nevertheless, Purchaser shall be Service Provider's sole point of contact and shall be responsible for payment of the Service Charges as set forth in this Service Agreement, irrespectively of whether it is Purchaser or any of Purchaser's Affiliates that in reality received and used the Services.

3.5 Subcontractors.

- 3.5.1 The Parties acknowledge that Service Provider may use its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, provided that Service Provider informs Purchaser thereof.
- 3.5.2 Service Provider shall however remain responsible for the performance, and any omission to perform or comply with the provisions of this Service Agreement, by any Affiliate to Service Provider and/or any subcontractor to the same extent as if such performance or omission was made by Service Provider itself. Service Provider shall also remain Purchaser's sole point of contact unless otherwise agreed.
- 3.6 Relationship between the Parties. The Parties are acting as independent contractors when performing each Party's respective obligations under the Service Agreement. Neither Party nor its Affiliates are agents for the other Party or its Affiliates and have no authority to represent them in relation to any matters. Nothing in these General Terms or the Service Agreement shall be construed as to constitute a partnership or joint venture between the Parties.

4. SERVICE REQUIREMENTS

- 4.1 All Services shall be performed in accordance with the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement, including the Service Specification, and otherwise in a professional manner.
- 4.2 When providing the Services, Service Provider shall use professional and skilled personnel, reasonably experienced for the Services to be performed, Service Provider shall work according to the same standard of care and professionalism that is done in Service Provider's internal business and development projects. Such standard of care and professionalism, shall however at all times correspond to Industry Standard. For the avoidance of doubt, Service Provider is responsible for all necessary recruiting and hiring costs associated with employing appropriate personnel as well as all necessary training costs,

- 4.3 Service Provider acknowledges that time is of essence and Service Provider agrees to strictly respect and adhere to the deadlines set out in the Service Specification in Appendix 1, such as time limits, milestones and gates. In the event Service Provider risks not to meet an agreed deadline or is otherwise in delay with the performance of the Services, Service Provider shall appoint additional resources in order to avoid the effects of the anticipated delay or the delay (as the case may be).
- 4.4 In the event the Services or any part thereof, more than insignificantly deviate from the requirements set forth in the Service Specification, or if Service Provider otherwise does not meet or ceases to meet the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement (except for minor faults and defects, which do not affect the provision of the Services), Service Provider shall remedy such non-compliance, fault or defect as soon as reasonably possible.
- 4.5 In the event Service Provider fails to act in accordance with Section 4.3 and 4.4 above, such failure shall be escalated in accordance with the escalation principles set forth in Section and eventually give Purchaser the right to terminate the Service Agreement in accordance with Section 14.4.
- 4.6 Purchaser shall provide Service Provider with instructions as reasonably required for Service Provider to be able to carry out the Services, Service Provider must continuously inform Purchaser of any needs of additional instructions or specifications required to perform the Services.
- 4.7 Service Provider shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its undertakings under this Service Agreement. Further, Service Provider undertakes to ensure that the performance of the Services will not be given lower priority than other of Service Provider's internal similar projects.

5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

5.1 Ownership of existing Intellectual Property Rights.

- 5.1.1 Each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of its Background IP and any Intellectual Property Rights which are modifications, amendments or derivatives of any Intellectual Property Rights already owned by such Party.
- 5.1.2 Nothing in this Service Agreement shall be deemed to constitute an assignment of, or license to use, any Trademarks of the other Party.

5.2 Ownership of Results.

- 5.2.1 The Party specified in the Main Document to own the Results shall be the exclusive owner of the Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof.
- 5.2.2 If Purchaser is the Party indicated as owning the Results in the Main Document, all Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof, and any Intellectual Property Rights developed as a result of the Services provided by Service Provider (or if applicable, any of its appointed Affiliates or subcontractors), shall consequently automatically upon creation be transferred from Service Provider to Purchaser. Purchaser shall further have the right to transfer, sublicense, modify and otherwise freely dispose of the Results, however with the restrictions set forth in Section 5.3 below.

- 5.3 License grant.
- 5.3.1 If the Purchaser is the Party defined as owning the Results in Section 4 in the Main Document, the Service Provider may request a license to the Results. Upon such request the Parties will enter into good faith negotiations for such license. A license is subject to the Purchaser's approval, and to compensation to the Purchaser. For the avoidance of doubt, the Service Provider's request for a license as set out in this Section 5.3.1 may be exercised at any time, also after the term of this Agreement.
- 5.3.2 Such license shall be non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least 50 years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any IP or Background IP included in the license described hereunder)), non assignable (however assignable to the Party's Affiliates and related companies) license to, within the Territory:
- (a) Use, in whole or in part, the Results and, if applicable, any Background IP embedded in or otherwise used in the development of the Results to the extent such license is necessary or reasonably necessary to make use of this license granted to the Results and the Services provided hereunder; and
 - (b) design, engineer, Use, make and have made, repair, service, market, sell and make available products and/or services based on, incorporating or using the Results and any Background IP referred to in (a) above, in whole or in part,
- 5.3.3 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Service Agreement, nothing in these General Terms or otherwise in the Service Agreement shall be construed as to give the other Party any rights, including but not limited to any license rights (express or implied), to any Background IP, except as expressly stated herein.
- 5.3.4 If a license is granted from the Results Owner to the other Party under Section 5.3.1 above, it shall be fully sublicensable to the other Party's Affiliates, but shall not be sublicensable to any Third Party without prior written approval from the Results Owner, For the avoidance of doubt, the Results Owner shall be entitled to license the Results, including any Background IP therein, to the Results Owner's Affiliates without prior written consent from the other Party.
- 5.4 Suspected infringement.
- 5.4.1 If a license is granted from the Results Owner to the other Party under Section 5.3.1 above, the Party to whom the license in Section 5.3 is granted, shall promptly (upon becoming aware) notify the Results Owner in writing of:
- (a) any conduct of a Third Party that the Party reasonably believes to be, or reasonably believes to be likely to be, an infringement, misappropriation or other violation of any Intellectual Property Rights licensed to the Party hereunder by a Third Party; or
 - (b) any allegations made to the Party by a Third Party that any Intellectual Property Rights licensed hereunder are invalid, subject to cancellation, unenforceable, or is a misappropriation of any Intellectual Property Rights of a Third Party.

- 5.4.2 In the event that the Party has provided the Results Owner a notification pursuant to Section 5.4.1(a) above, and the Results Owner decides not to take any action against the Third Party, the Results Owner may approve in writing that the other Party shall be entitled to itself take action against the Third Party at its own cost. If the Results Owner approves, it shall provide reasonable assistance to the Other Party, as requested by the other Party at the other Party's expense. If the Results Owner does not approve to the other Party taking such action, the issue should be escalated to the Strategic Board for decision.
- 5.4.3 For the avoidance of doubt, the Results Owner has no responsibility in the event the Results are alleged to infringe in any Third Party's Intellectual Property Rights and the Results Owner has, except for what is set out above in this Section 5,3,4 no obligation to defend and hold the other Party harmless from and against any alleged infringements.
- 5.5 Volvo brand name.
- 5.5.1 For the sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the "Volvo" brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to "Volvo" in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the "Volvo" Trademarks as well as the "Volvo" name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the "Volvo" Trademarks is subject to a service agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related Intellectual Property can only be used by Volvo Car Corporation and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.
- 5.5.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Volvo" brand name or "Volvo" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.
- 5.5.3 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the Polestar brand name or Trademarks, or refer to Polestar in communications or official documents of whatever kind.
- This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the Polestar brand name or Polestar Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.
- 6. SERVICE CHARGES
- 6.1 In consideration of Service Provider's performance of the Services under this Service Agreement, Purchaser agrees to pay to Service Provider the Service Charges as set forth or referenced to in the Main Document.
- 7. PAYMENT TERMS
- 7.1 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency set forth in the Main Document, in a timely manner and in accordance with the payment terms set forth in this Section 7.

- 7.2 Service Provider is responsible for charging and declaring sales tax/VAT or other taxes as follow from applicable law. Any applicable sales tax/VAT o.n the agreed price will be included in the invoices and paid by Purchaser. All amounts referred to in this Service Agreement are exclusive of VAT.
- 7.3 if Service Provider is obligated to collect or pay taxes, such taxes shall be invoiced to Purchaser, unless Purchaser provides a valid tax exemption certificate authorized by the appropriate Tax Authority. If Purchaser is required by law to withhold any taxes from its payments, Purchaser must provide an official tax receipt or other appropriate documentation to support this withholding.
- 7.4 Any amount of the Service Charges invoiced by Service Provider to Purchaser shall be paid by Purchaser within 30 days after the invoice date.
- 7.5 Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based on the one month applicable interbank rate, depending on invoice and currency, with an addition of two per cent (2.0%) per annum.
- 7.6 Any paid portion of the Service Charges is non-refundable, with the exception set forth in the Main Document.

8. AUDIT

- 8.1 During the term of the Service Agreement, Purchaser shall have the right to, upon reasonable notice in writing to Service Provider, inspect Service Provider's books and records related to the Services and the premises where the Services are performed, in order to conduct quality controls and otherwise verify the statements rendered under this Service Agreement.
- 8.2 Audits shall be made during regular business hours and be conducted by Purchaser or by an independent auditor appointed by Purchaser. Should Purchaser during any inspection find that Service Provider or the Services does/do not fulfil the requirements set forth herein, Purchaser is entitled to comment on the identified deviations. Service Provider shall, upon notice from Purchaser, take reasonable efforts to take the actions required in order to fulfil the requirements. In the event the Parties cannot agree upon measures to be taken in respect of the audit, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.

9. REPRESENTATIONS

- 9.1 Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:
 - (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;
 - (b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Service Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;
 - (c) the execution, delivery and performance of this Service Agreement have been duly authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate any laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and
 - (d) this Service Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

- 9.2 To the extent any Background IP is embedded, or otherwise included, in the Results and subject to the license granted in Section 5.3 above, the Parties acknowledge that the Background IP is licensed on an "as is" basis, without any warranties or representations of any kind (except for the warranties in Section 9.1 above), whether implied or express, and in particular any warranties of suitability, merchantability, description, design and fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, completeness, systems integration and accuracy are expressly excluded to the maximum extent permissible by law.

10. SERVICE WARRANTY

- 10.1 When performing the Services, Service Provider shall provide professional and skilled personnel, reasonably experienced for the Services to be performed at the best of their knowledge.
- 10.2 Service Provider provides the Services "as is". Service Provider does neither warrant nor represent that any Services, provided or delivered to Purchaser hereunder are functional for the business needs of Purchaser or otherwise suitable for any specific purpose, nor that the Services, are not infringing any Intellectual Property of any third party. Service Provider does neither give any representations or warranties as regards the merchantability of the deliverables to be delivered hereunder nor any other representations or warranties of any kind whatsoever concerning the Services. Purchaser acknowledges that the price of the Services to be performed and other deliverables to be delivered by Service Provider are set in consideration of the foregoing.
- 10.3 Service Provider shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to Purchaser's use of the Services notify Purchaser of such claim in writing and Purchaser shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the third party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. Purchaser shall at all times keep Service Provider informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with Service Provider on appropriate actions to take. If Purchaser fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend Service Provider within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, Service Provider shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/ or over any settlement negotiation at Purchaser's cost. Any settlement proposed by Purchaser on its own account must take account of potential implications for Service Provider and shall therefore be agreed with Service Provider before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

11. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 11.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Service Agreement.
- 11.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement shall be limited to 30 % of the total Service Charges payable by Purchaser to Service Provider hereunder.

- 11.3 The limitations of liability set forth in this Section 11 shall not apply in respect of:
- (a) claims related to death or bodily injury;
 - (b) damage caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence;
 - (c) damage caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 13 below; or
 - (d) damage arising out of an infringement, or alleged infringement, of the other Party's or any third party's Intellectual Property.

12. GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES

12.1 Governance.

- 12.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Service Agreement as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Service Agreement.
- 12.1.2 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Service Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event the Parties on an operational level cannot agree upon inter alia the prioritisation of development activities or other aspects relating to the co-operation between the Parties, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.
- 12.1.3 If the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution of the disagreement the relevant issue should be escalated to the Strategic Board for decision.

12.2 Changes.

- 12.3 During the term of this Service Agreement, Purchaser can request changes to the Service Specification, which shall be handled in accordance with the governance procedure set forth in Section 12.112.1 above. Both Parties agree to act in good faith to address and respond to any change request within a reasonable period of time.
- 12.4 The Parties acknowledge that Service Provider will not perform in accordance with such change request until agreed in writing between the Parties. For the avoidance of any doubt, until there is agreement about the requested change, all work shall continue in accordance with the existing Service Specification.

13. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 13.1 The Parties shall take any and all necessary measures to comply with the security and confidentiality procedures of the other Party.
- 13.2 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes comprised by the fulfilment of this Service Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Service Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless, the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 13.2 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or sub contractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:
- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;

- (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
 - (c) is Obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
 - (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;
 - (e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or
 - (f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.
- 13.3 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 13,
- 13.4 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within 30 days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as "Confidential", "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information,
- 13.5 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 13, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to 17.1.5 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply-
- 13.6 For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 13 does not permit disclosure of source code to software, and/or any substantial parts of design documents to software, included in the Results, to any Third Party, notwithstanding what it set forth above in this Section 13. Any such disclosure to any Third Party is permitted only if approved in writing by Service Provider.
- 13.7 This confidentiality provision shall survive the expiration or termination of this Service Agreement without limitation in time.

14. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 14.1 This Service Agreement shall become effective when the Main Document is signed by duly authorised signatories of each Party and shall, unless terminated in accordance with this Section 14 below, remain in force until the Services are completed.
- 14.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in the event:
- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Service Agreement, which has not been remedied within 30 days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
 - (b) if the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.
- 14.3 For avoidance of doubt, Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, shall be considered in material breach for the purpose of this Service Agreement.
- 14.4 Furthermore, Purchaser is entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in case Service Provider acts in breach, which is not insignificant, of what is set forth in Section 4.3 and 4.4 provided that the issue first has been escalated in accordance with Section 17.1;
- 14.5 Purchaser shall in addition be entitled to cancel the Services performed by Service Provider for convenience upon 30 days written notice to Service Provider. In such event, Service Provider shall, upon request from Purchaser, promptly make available in the Data Room (if applicable) any and all parts of the Results which have been finalised on the effective date of the cancellation. Moreover, the "Results" shall for the purposes of this Service Agreement be considered such parts of the Results that Service Provider has finalised on the effective date of the cancellation.
- 14.6 In the event Purchaser cancels the Services in accordance with Section 14.5 above, the Service Charges shall, instead of what is set out in the Main Document, correspond to Service Provider's costs for the Services performed up, until and including the effective date of the cancellation, including the mark-up otherwise applied to calculate the Service Charges in accordance with the Main Document and any other reasonable proven costs Service Provider has incurred.
- 14.7 Either Party shall in addition be entitled to terminate the Service Agreement for convenience upon 60 days written notice to the other Party,

15. MISCELLANEOUS

15.1 Force majeure.

15.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under the Service Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A “Force Majeure Event” means any event beyond a Party’s reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party’s), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors if such default or delay has been caused by a Force Majeure Event.

15.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under the Service Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its nonperformance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

15.2 Notices. All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Service Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:

- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
- (b) if sent by email transmission, at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
- (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
- (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods. All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be addressed to the address, and with the attention, as set forth in the Main Document, or to such other address, number or email address as a Party may designate.

- 15.3 Assignment.
- 15.3.1 Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Service Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.
- 15.3.2 Notwithstanding the above, each Party may assign this Service Agreement to an Affiliate without the prior written consent of the other Party.
- 15.4 Waiver. Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Service Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Service Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the Service Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.
- 15.5 Severability. In the event any provision of this Service Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Service Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Service Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Service Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.
- 15.6 Entire agreement. All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Service Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Service Agreement are superseded by this Service Agreement and its Appendices.
- 15.7 Amendments. Any amendment or addition to this Service Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.
- 15.8 Survival.
- 15.8.1 If this Service Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 5.3 (License, grant), Section 13 (Confidentiality), Section 16 (Governing Law), Section 17 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 15.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.
- 15.8.2 Notwithstanding Section 15.8.1 above, if this Service Agreement is terminated due to Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 5.3 (License Grant) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination. For the avoidance of doubt, what is stated in this Section 15.8.2 shall only apply in relation to such licenses granted to Purchaser pursuant to Section 5.3 above and any licenses granted to Service Provider under Section 5.3 shall thus nevertheless remain in force after such termination,
16. GOVERNING LAW
- 16.1 This Service Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Service Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of:
- (a) the People's Republic of China, if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China; and
 - (b) Sweden, if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of Sweden, without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

17, DISPUTE RESOLUTION

17.1 Escalation principles.

- 17.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.
- 17.1.2 The members of the Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 17.1.3 If the Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the Strategic Board for decision. If no Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the Strategic Board. Should the matter not have been resolved by the Strategic Board within 30 days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 17.1.5 below,
- 17.1.4 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 13 above.
- 17.1.5 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 17.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the Strategic Board in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

17.1.6 Arbitration.

- 17.1.7 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall:
- (a) if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China, be submitted to China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Committee ("CIETAC") for arbitration, which shall be held in Shanghai and conducted in accordance with the CIETAC's arbitration rules in effect at the time of applying for arbitration, whereas the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English and Chinese; and

- (b) if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of Sweden, be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, whereas the seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English, and the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.
- 17.1.8 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Service Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 17.1.9 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Service Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 17.1.10 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

APPENDIX 2
GENERAL TERMS

1 BACKGROUND

This Appendix 2, General Terms - Service Agreement, (the “General Terms”) is an Appendix to the Main Document and is an integrated part of the Service Agreement entered into between the Parties.

2 DEFINITIONS

- 2.1 For the purpose of these General Terms, the following terms shall have the meanings assigned to them below. All capitalized terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa. Any capitalized terms used, but not specifically defined below in this Section 2, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Main Document.
- 2.2 “Appendix” means an appendix to the Main Document.
- 2.3 “Background IP” means the Intellectual Property Rights either:
- (a) owned by either of the Parties;
 - (b) created, developed or invented by directors, managers, employees or consultants of either of the Parties;
 - (c) to which the Party has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sublicense
- prior to the execution of this Service Agreement, and any Intellectual Property Rights developed or otherwise acquired independently of this Service Agreement.
- 2.4 “Change Management” means maintenance and development of the Results to be performed 90 days after the start of production of the first vehicle in which the Results are installed, incorporated, included or otherwise used, and which are driven by for example legal requirements or changes in other products/parts having an effect on the Results.
- 2.5 “Confidential Information” means any and all non-public information regarding the Parties and their respective businesses, whether commercial or technical, in whatever form or media, including but not limited to the existence, content and subject matter of this Service Agreement, information relating to Intellectual Property Rights, concepts, technologies, processes, commercial figures, techniques, algorithms, formulas, methodologies, knowhow, strategic plans and budgets, investments, customers and sales, designs, graphics, CAD models, CAE data, statement of works (including engineering statement of works and any high level specification), targets, test plans/reports, technical performance data and engineering sign-off documents and other information of a sensitive nature, that a Party learns from or about the other Party prior to or after the execution of this Service Agreement.

- 2.6 “Data Room” means the secure environment personal approved access information sharing platform agreed to be used between the Parties for making available the Results to Purchaser.
- 2.7 “Disclosing Party” means the Party disclosing Confidential Information to the Receiving Party.
- 2.8 “EU Data Protection Laws” shall mean collectively, any applicable data protection, privacy or similar law generally applicable to the processing of personal data, including but not limited to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation) and any act or piece of national legislation implementing, supporting or otherwise incorporating said regulation, including any amendment made to any of the foregoing.
- 2.9 “Force Majeure Event” shall have the meaning set out in Section 15.1.1.
- 2.10 “Industry Standard” means the exercise of such professionalism, skill, diligence, prudence and foresight that would normally be expected at any given time from a skilled and experienced actor engaged in a similar type of undertaking as under this Service Agreement.
- 2.11 “Intellectual Property Rights” or “IP” means Patents, Non-patented IP, rights in Confidential Information and Know-How to the extent protected under applicable laws anywhere in the world. For the avoidance of doubt, Trademarks are not comprised by this definition.
- 2.12 “Know-How” means confidential and proprietary industrial, technical and commercial information and techniques in any form including (without limitation) drawings, formulae, test results, reports, project reports and testing procedures, instruction and training manuals, tables of operating conditions, specifications, component lists, market forecasts, lists and particulars of customers and suppliers.
- 2.13 “Main Document” means the contract document (with the heading “Main Document - Service Agreement”), which is signed by Service Provider and Purchaser, to which these General Terms are an Appendix.
- 2.14 “Non-patented IP” means copyrights (including rights in computer software), database rights, semiconductor topography rights, rights in designs, and other intellectual property rights (other than Trademarks and Patents) and all rights or forms of protection having equivalent or similar effect anywhere in the world, in each case whether registered or unregistered, and registered includes registrations, applications for registration and renewals whether made before, on or after execution of this Service Agreement.
- 2.15 “Patent” means any patent, patent application, or utility model, whether filed before, on or after execution of this Service Agreement, along with any continuation, continuation- in-part, divisional, re-examined or re-issued patent, foreign counterpart or renewal or extension of any of the foregoing.
- 2.16 “Receiving Party” means the Party receiving Confidential Information from the Disclosing Party.

- 2.17 “Results” shall mean any outcome of the Services provided to Purchaser under this Service Agreement (including but not limited to any IP, technology, software, methods, processes, deliverables, objects, products, documentation, modifications, improvements, and/or amendments to be carried out by Service Provider under the Service Specification) and any other outcome or result of the Services to be performed by Service Provider as described in the relevant Service Specification, irrespective of whether the performance of the Services has been completed or not.
- 2.18 “Results Owner” shall mean the Party which shall be the owner of the Results in accordance with what is set forth in Section 5.2.
- 2.19 “Services” shall mean the services to be performed by Service Provider to Purchaser hereunder, including all services under the Appendices attached hereto.
- 2.20 “Service Agreement” means the Main Document including all of its Appendices and their Schedules as amended from time to time.
- 2.21 “Service Charges” means the service charges as set forth or referenced to in the Main Document.
- 2.22 “Service Specification” describes the Services to be provided by Service Provider to Purchaser hereunder including (if applicable) a time plan for the provision of the Services, which is included as Appendix 1 in this Service Agreement.
- 2.23 “Third Party” means a party other than any of the Parties and/or an Affiliate of one of the Parties to this Service Agreement.
- 2.24 “Trademarks” means trademarks (including part numbers that are trademarks), service marks, logos, trade names, business names, assumed names, trade dress and get-up, and domain names, in each case whether registered or unregistered, including all applications, registrations, renewals and the like, in each case to the extent they constitute rights that are enforceable against Third Parties.
- 2.25 “Use” means to make, have made, use (including in a process, such as use in designing, engineering, testing or assembling products or in their research or development), keep, install, integrate, extract, assemble, reproduce, incorporate, create derivative works of, modify, adapt, improve, enhance, develop, service or repair, including in the case of installation, integration, assembly, service or repair, the right to have a subcontractor of any tier carry out any of these activities on behalf of Purchaser.
- 2.26 The right to “have made” is the right of Purchaser to have another person (or their subcontractor of any tier) make for Purchaser and does not include the right to grant sublicenses to another person to make for such person’s own use or use other than for Purchaser.

3 PROVISION OF SERVICES

- 3.1 Service Specification. The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification of the Services provided under this Service Agreement in the Service Specification.

- 3.2 Making available the Results.
- 3.2.1 Service Provider shall make the Results (or if not finalised, any part of the Results that has been finalised) available to Purchaser within the timeframes specified in the Service Specification, but under all circumstances promptly after any part of the Results has been finalised. The Results shall only be made available in a Data Room.
- 3.2.2 The Results (or any finalised part thereof) shall be deemed made available by Service Provider to Purchaser if such files have been electronically loaded into and made accessible by Service Provider in the Data Room agreed upon.
- 3.3 Change Management. Service Provider has an obligation to, upon Purchaser's request, perform Change Management in relation to the developed Results, such as changes required in order to maintain functionality, adjust the Results due to new technical solutions etc. For the avoidance of doubt, the performance of Change Management is however not governed by this Service Agreement, but shall be subject to a separate agreement between the Parties, which the Parties upon either Party's request shall execute.
- 3.4 Service Recipients. In addition to Purchaser, all of Purchaser's Affiliates shall be entitled to receive and use the Services under this Service Agreement. Nevertheless, Purchaser shall be Service Provider's sole point of contact and shall be responsible for payment of the Service Charges as set forth in this Service Agreement, irrespectively of whether it is Purchaser or any of Purchaser's Affiliates that in reality received and used the Services.
- 3.5 Subcontractors.
- 3.5.1 The Parties acknowledge that Service Provider may use its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, provided that Service Provider informs Purchaser thereof.
- 3.5.2 Service Provider shall however remain responsible for the performance, and any omission to perform or comply with the provisions of this Service Agreement, by any Affiliate to Service Provider and/or any subcontractor to the same extent as if such performance or omission was made by Service Provider itself. Service Provider shall also remain Purchaser's sole point of contact unless otherwise agreed.
- 3.6 Relationship between the Parties. The Parties are acting as independent contractors when performing each Party's respective obligations under the Service Agreement. Neither Party nor its Affiliates are agents for the other Party or its Affiliates and have no authority to represent them in relation to any matters. Nothing in these General Terms or the Service Agreement shall be construed as to constitute a partnership or joint venture between the Parties.

4 SERVICE REQUIREMENTS

- 4.1 All Services shall be performed in accordance with the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement, including the Service Specification, and otherwise in a professional manner.
- 4.2 When providing the Services, Service Provider shall use professional and skilled personnel, reasonably experienced for the Services to be performed, Service Provider shall work according to the same standard of care and professionalism that is done in Service Provider's internal business and development projects. Such standard of care and professionalism, shall however at all times correspond to Industry Standard. For the avoidance of doubt, Service Provider is responsible for all necessary recruiting and hiring costs associated with employing appropriate personnel as well as all necessary training costs.
- 4.3 Service Provider acknowledges that time is of essence and Service Provider agrees to strictly respect and adhere to the deadlines set out in the Service Specification in Appendix 1, such as time limits, milestones and gates. In the event Service Provider risks not to meet an agreed deadline or is otherwise in delay with the performance of the Services, Service Provider shall appoint additional resources in order to avoid the effects of the anticipated delay or the delay (as the case may be).

- 4.4 In the event the Services or any part thereof, more than insignificantly deviate from the requirements set forth in the Service Specification, or if Service Provider otherwise does not meet or ceases to meet the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement (except for minor faults and defects, which do not affect the provision of the Services), Service Provider shall remedy such noncompliance, fault or defect as soon as reasonably possible.
- 4.5 In the event Service Provider fails to act in accordance with Section 4.3 and 4.4 above, such failure shall be escalated in accordance with the escalation principles set forth in Section and eventually give Purchaser the right to terminate the Service Agreement in accordance with Section 14.4.
- 4.6 Purchaser shall provide Service Provider with instructions as reasonably required for Service Provider to be able to carry out the Services. Service Provider must continuously inform Purchaser of any needs of additional instructions or specifications required to perform the Services.
- 4.7 Service Provider shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its undertakings under this Service Agreement. Further, Service Provider undertakes to ensure that the performance of the Services will not be given lower priority than other of Service Provider's internal similar projects.

5 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

- 5.1 Ownership of existing Intellectual Property Rights.
 - 5.1.1 Each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of its Background IP and any Intellectual Property Rights already owned by such Party.
 - 5.1.2 Nothing in this Service Agreement shall be deemed to constitute an assignment of, or license to use, any Trademarks of the other Party.
- 5.2 Ownership of Results.
 - 5.2.1 The Party specified in the Main Document to own the Results shall be the exclusive owner of the Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof.

- 5.3 If Purchaser is the Party indicated as owning the Results in the Main Document, all Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof, and any Intellectual Property Rights developed as a result of the Services provided by Service Provider (or if applicable, any of its appointed Affiliates or subcontractors), shall consequently automatically upon creation be transferred from Service Provider to Purchaser. Purchaser shall further have the right to transfer, sublicense, modify and otherwise freely dispose of the Results, however with the restrictions set forth in Section 5.4 below. Parties shall enter into a separate license agreement with regards to the use of Service Provider's Background IP in relation to PMA-1 technologies.
- 5.4 License grant. ®
- 5.4.1 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Service Agreement, nothing in these General Terms or otherwise in the Service Agreement shall be construed as to give the other Party any rights, including but not limited to any license rights (express or implied), to any Background IP, except as expressly stated herein.
- 5.5 Suspected infringement.
- 5.5.1 For the avoidance of doubt, neither Party shall have any responsibility towards the other Party in the event the Results are alleged to infringe in any Third Party's Intellectual Property Rights and neither Party shall have any obligation to defend and hold the other Party harmless from and against any alleged infringements.
- 5.6 Polestar Brand name.
- 5.6.1 For the sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the "Polestar" brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to "Polestar" in communications or official documents of whatever kind.
- 5.6.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Polestar" brand name or "Polestar" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.
- 5.7 Geely brand name.
- 5.7.1 Correspondingly, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the "Geely" brand name or Trademarks, or refer to "Geely" in communications or official documents of whatever kind.
- 5.7.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use "Geely" brand name or "Geely" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.

6 SERVICE CHARGES

- 6.1 In consideration of Service Provider's performance of the Services under this Service Agreement, Purchaser agrees to pay to Service Provider the Service Charges as set forth or referenced to in the Main Document.

7 PAYMENT TERMS

- 7.1 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency set forth in the Main Document, in a timely manner and in accordance with the payment terms set forth in this Section 7.
- 7.2 Purchaser shall bear the VAT and surtaxes, and Service Provider shall bear the Withholding Tax, which are applicable in accordance with local legislation to amounts and payments referred to in this Service Agreement.

- 7.3 Upon tax authority request, Service Provider should provide the supporting documents to help Purchaser prove the arm's length nature of the payment.
- 7.4 Any amount of the Service Charges invoiced by Service Provider to Purchaser shall be paid by Purchaser within 45 days after the invoice date.
- 7.5 Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based on the one month applicable interbank rate, depending on invoice and currency, with an addition of two per cent (2.0%) per annum.
- 7.6 Any paid portion of the Service Charges is non-refundable, with the exception set forth in the Main Document.

8 AUDIT

- 8.1 During the term of the Service Agreement, Purchaser shall have the right to, upon reasonable notice in writing to Service Provider, inspect Service Provider's books and records related to the Services and the premises where the Services are performed, in order to conduct quality controls and otherwise verify the statements rendered under this Service Agreement.
- 8.2 Audits shall be made during regular business hours and be conducted by Purchaser or by an independent auditor appointed by Purchaser. Should Purchaser during any inspection find that Service Provider or the Services does/do not fulfil the requirements set forth herein, Purchaser is entitled to comment on the identified deviations. Service Provider shall, upon notice from Purchaser, take reasonable efforts to take the actions required in order to fulfil the requirements. In the event the Parties cannot agree upon measures to be taken in respect of the audit, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.

9 REPRESENTATIONS

- 9.1 Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:
 - (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;
 - (b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Service Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;
 - (c) the execution, delivery and performance of this Service Agreement have been duly authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate any laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and
 - (d) this Service Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.
- 9.2 To the extent any Background IP is embedded, or otherwise included, in the Results and subject to the Section 5.3 above, the Parties acknowledge that the related Background IP shall be licensed on an "as is" basis, without any warranties or representations of any kind (except for the warranties in Section 9.1 above), whether implied or express, and in particular any warranties of suitability, merchantability, description, design and fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, completeness, systems integration and accuracy are expressly excluded to the maximum extent permissible by law. As set forth in Section Parties shall enter into a separate license agreement with regards to the use of Service Provider's Background IP in relation to PMA-1 technologies.

10 SERVICE WARRANTY

- 10.1 When performing the Services, Service Provider shall provide professional and skilled personnel, reasonably experienced for the Services to be performed at the best of their knowledge.
- 10.2 Service Provider provides the Services "as is". Service Provider does neither warrant nor represent that any Services, provided or delivered to Purchaser hereunder are functional for the business needs of Purchaser or otherwise suitable for any specific purpose, nor that the Services, are not infringing any Intellectual Property of any third party. Service Provider does neither give any representations or warranties as regards the merchantability of the deliverables to be delivered hereunder nor any other representations or warranties of any kind whatsoever concerning the Services. Purchaser acknowledges that the price of the Services to be performed and other deliverables to be delivered by Service Provider are set in consideration of the foregoing.
- 10.3 Service Provider shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to Purchaser's use of the Services notify Purchaser of such claim in writing and Purchaser shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the third party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. Purchaser shall at all times keep Service Provider informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with Service Provider on appropriate actions to take. If Purchaser fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend Service Provider within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, Service Provider shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/ or over any settlement negotiation at Purchaser's cost. Any settlement proposed by Purchaser on its own account must take account of potential implications for Service Provider and shall therefore be agreed with Service Provider before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

11 LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 11.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Service Agreement.

- 11.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement shall be limited to 30 % of the total Service Charges payable by Purchaser to Service Provider hereunder.
- 11.3 The limitations of liability set forth in this Section 11 shall not apply in respect of:
- (a) claims related to death or bodily injury;
 - (b) damage caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence;
 - (c) damage caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 13 below; or
 - (d) damage arising out of an infringement, or alleged infringement, of the other Party's or any third party's Intellectual Property.

12 GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES

12.1 Governance.

12.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Service Agreement as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Service Agreement.

12.1.2 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Service Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event the Parties on an operational level cannot agree upon inter alia the prioritisation of development activities or other aspects relating to the co-operation between the Parties, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.

12.1.3 If the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution of the disagreement the relevant issue should be escalated to the Strategic Board for decision.

12.2 Changes.

12.2.1 During the term of this Service Agreement, Purchaser can request changes to the Service Specification, which shall be handled in accordance with the governance procedure set forth in Section 12.1 above. Both Parties agree to act in good faith to address and respond to any change request within a reasonable period of time.

12.2.2 The Parties acknowledge that Service Provider will not perform in accordance with such change request until agreed in writing between the Parties. For the avoidance of any doubt, until there is agreement about the requested change, all work shall continue in accordance with the existing Service Specification.

13 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

13.1 The Parties shall take any and all necessary measures to comply with the security and confidentiality procedures of the other Party.

- 13.2 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes comprised by the fulfilment of this Service Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Service Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 13.2 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or subcontractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:
- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
 - (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
 - (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
 - (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;
 - (e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or
 - (f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.
- 13.3 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 13.
- 13.4 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within 30 days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as "Confidential", "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 13.5 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 13, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to 17.1.6 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.

- 13.6 For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 13 does not permit disclosure of source code to software, and/or any substantial parts of design documents to software, included in the Results, to any Third Party, notwithstanding what is set forth above in this Section 13. Any such disclosure to any Third Party is permitted only if approved in writing by Service Provider.
- 13.7 This confidentiality provision shall survive the expiration or termination of this Service Agreement without limitation in time.

14 TERM AND TERMINATION

- 14.1 This Service Agreement shall become effective when the Main Document is signed by duly authorised signatories of each Party and shall, unless terminated in accordance with this Section 14 below, remain in force until the Services are completed.
- 14.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in the event:
- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Service Agreement, which has not been remedied within 30 days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
 - (b) if the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.
- 14.3 For avoidance of doubt, Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, shall be considered in material breach for the purpose of this Service Agreement.
- 14.4 Furthermore, Purchaser is entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in case Service Provider acts in breach, which is not insignificant, of what is set forth in Section 4.3 and 4.4 provided that the issue first has been escalated in accordance with Section 17.1.
- 14.5 Purchaser shall in addition be entitled to cancel the Services performed by Service Provider for convenience upon 30 days written notice to Service Provider. In such event, Service Provider shall, upon request from Purchaser, promptly make available in the Data Room (if applicable) any and all parts of the Results which have been finalised on the effective date of the cancellation. Moreover, the "Results" shall for the purposes of this Service Agreement be considered such parts of the Results that Service Provider has finalised on the effective date of the cancellation.
- 14.6 In the event Purchaser cancels the Services in accordance with Section 14.5 above, the Service Charges shall, instead of what is set out in the Main Document, correspond to Service Provider's costs for the Services performed up, until and including the effective date of the cancellation, including the mark-up otherwise applied to calculate the Service Charges in accordance with the Main Document and any other reasonable proven costs Service Provider has incurred.
- 14.7 Either Party shall in addition be entitled to terminate the Service Agreement for convenience upon 60 days written notice to the other Party.

15 MISCELLANEOUS

15.1 Force majeure.

15.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under the Service Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A “Force Majeure Event” means any event beyond a Party’s reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party’s), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors if such default or delay has been caused by a Force Majeure Event.

15.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under the Service Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its non-performance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.

15.2 Notices. All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Service Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:

- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
- (b) if sent by email transmission, at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
- (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
- (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;

in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods. All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be addressed to the address, and with the attention, as set forth in the Main Document, or to such other address, number or email address as a Party may designate.

- 15.3 Assignment. Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Service Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.
- Notwithstanding the above, each Party may assign this Service Agreement to an Affiliate without the prior written consent of the other Party.
- 15.4 Waiver. Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Service Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Service Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the Service Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.
- 15.5 Severability. In the event any provision of this Service Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Service Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Service Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Service Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.
- 15.6 Entire agreement. All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Service Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Service Agreement are superseded by this Service Agreement and its Appendices.
- 15.7 Amendments. Any amendment or addition to this Service Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.
- 15.8 Survival.
- 15.8.1 If this Service Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 5.3 (License grant), Section 13 (Confidentiality), Section 16 (Governing Law), Section 17 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 15.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.
- 15.8.2 Notwithstanding Section 15.8.1 above, if this Service Agreement is terminated due to Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 5.3 (License Grant) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination. For the avoidance of doubt, what is stated in this Section 15.8.2 shall only apply in relation to such licenses granted to Purchaser pursuant to Section 5.3 above and any licenses granted to Service Provider under Section 5.3 shall thus nevertheless remain in force after such termination.

16 GOVERNING LAW

- 16.1 This Service Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Service Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of:
- (a) the People's Republic of China, if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China; and
 - (b) Sweden, if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of Sweden,
- without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

17 17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

17.1 Escalation principles.

- 17.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.
- 17.1.2 The members of the Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 17.1.3 If the Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice served pursuant to Section 17.1.1 above, such deadlock will be referred to the CEO's of each Party, which shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve the situation in the same way as indicated above. If no Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the CEO's of each Party immediately and Section 17.1.2 above shall not apply.
- 17.1.4 If the CEOs of each Party cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the Strategic Board for decision. Should the matter not have been resolved by the Strategic Board within 30 days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 17.1.6 below.
- 17.1.5 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 13 above.
- 17.1.6 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 17.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the Strategic Board in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.

17.2 Arbitration.

17.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall:

- (a) if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China, be submitted to China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Committee ("CIETAC") for arbitration, which shall be held in Shanghai and conducted in accordance with the CIETAC's arbitration rules in effect at the time of applying for arbitration, whereas the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English and Chinese; and
- (b) if the Party that is providing the Services is incorporated under the laws of Sweden, be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, whereas the seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English, and the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.

17.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Service Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.

17.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Service Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.

17.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

Certain identified information marked with “[]” has been omitted from this document because it is both (i) not material and (ii) the type that the registrant treats as private or confidential.

SERVICE AGREEMENT MAIN DOCUMENT

Name of Project: Uptime Services

Short description of activities under this Service Agreement: Services within the areas of Customer Care, Consumer and Car Services.

This Service Agreement is entered into on the date indicated below and entered into between Volvo Car Corporation, Reg. No. 556074-3089, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Sweden (“Service Provider”); and Polestar Performance AB, Reg. No. 556653-3069, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Sweden (“Purchaser”).

Each of Service Provider and Purchaser is hereinafter referred to as a “Party” and jointly as the “Parties”.

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have determined that Service Provider shall provide to Purchaser certain Services (as defined in the General Terms), which are further described in the Service Specification in Appendix 1. The provision of the Services shall be performed in accordance with the terms in this service agreement and its appendices (the “Service Agreement”).
- B. Purchaser now wishes to enter into this Service Agreement for the purpose of receiving the Services and Service Provider wishes to provide the Services in accordance with the terms set forth in this Service Agreement.
- C. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Service Agreement.

AGREEMENT

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This Service Agreement consists of this main document (the “Main Document”) and its appendices. This Main Document sets out the specific terms in respect of the provision of the Services, whereas Appendix 2 sets out certain general terms and conditions applicable to the Parties’ rights, obligations and performance of the Parties’ activities hereunder (the “General Terms”).

1.2 All capitalized terms used, but not specifically defined in this Main Document, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the General Terms.

2. SERVICE SPECIFICATION

2.1 The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification for the Services as specified in the Service Specification in Appendix 1.

3. AFFILIATE

3.1 Affiliate shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the following meaning:

“Affiliate” means any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by or is under common control with Volvo Car Corporation or Polestar Performance AB; and control means the possession, directly or indirectly, by agreement or otherwise, of (i) at least 50% of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest, or (ii) the power (a) to appoint or remove a majority of the board of directors or other governing body of an entity, or (b) to cause the direction of the management of an entity.

4. SERVICE CHARGES

4.1 In consideration of Service Provider’s performance of the Services under this Service Agreement, Purchaser shall pay to Service Provider the service charges as further described below (the “Service Charges”).

4.2 The Service Charges for the Services will be calculated as further set forth in Appendix 3.

4.3 The Parties agree that the basis for calculating the Service Charges shall be transparent and auditable to the Purchaser. Therefore, the relevant financial information relating to the Scope of Work should be reported to the Purchaser in accordance with the Template Financial Reporting attached as Appendix 4.

4.4 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency as stated in Appendix 3.

4.5 The hourly rates that are used to calculate the Service Charges shall be determined by Service Provider on an annual basis in compliance with applicable tax legislation, including but not limited to the principle of “arm’s length distance” between the Parties. The hourly rates shall be calculated using the cost plus method, i.e. full cost incurred plus an arm’s length mark-up. All costs Service Provider has in order to perform the Services shall be reimbursed by Purchaser.

5. PAYMENT

5.1 If Service Provider, pursuant to the General Terms, appoints its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, Service Provider shall include the costs relating to such work in the invoices to Purchaser.

5.2 The actual Service Charges shall be invoiced on a monthly basis at the end of each month and paid by Purchaser in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms.

6. GOVERNANCE FORUM

6.1 The Parties agree that governance in respect of this Service Agreement shall be handled in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms in Appendix 2. When reference is made to a relevant governance forum, it shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the meaning set out below in this Section 6.

6.2 The first level of governance forum for handling the co-operation between the Parties in various matters, handling management, prioritisation of development activities etc. under the Service Agreement shall be the “Steering Committee”, which regarding cooperation between Service Provider and Purchaser is the so called Volvo Polestar GBO Steering Committee. The Steering Committee shall be the first level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

6.3 The higher level of governance forum, to which an issue shall be escalated if the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution shall be the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. This shall be the highest level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

7. TEMPLATE FINANCIAL REPORTING

7.1 The Parties agree that the basis for calculating the Service Charges shall be transparent and auditable to Purchaser and be done based on the template attached as Appendix 4.

8. DATA PROCESSING AGREEMENT

8.1 If Service Provider processes any personal data on Purchaser’s behalf and in accordance with its instructions as part of or in connection with the performance of the Services, the Parties agree that the General Data Processing Agreement between the Parties dated 1 June 2019 shall apply between the Parties, and shall be deemed an integrated part of this Service Agreement.

8.2 The Parties shall at all times comply with applicable laws on protection of personal data, in particular, but not limited to the EU Data Protection Laws (as defined in the General Terms in Appendix 2), and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that any Affiliates or subcontractors engaged by it also comply therewith.

9. ORDER OF PRIORITY

9.1 In the event there are any contradictions or inconsistencies between the terms of this Main Document and any of the Appendices hereto, the Parties agree that the following order of priority shall apply:

- (1) This Main Document
- (2) Appendix 2, General Terms—Service Agreement
- (3) Appendix 1, Service Specification
- (4) Appendix 3, Service Charges
- (5) Appendix 4, Template Financial Reporting

10. NOTICES

10.1 All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Service Agreement shall be sent to the following addresses and shall otherwise be sent in accordance with the terms in the General Terms:

SERVICE AGREEMENT
APPENDIX 1
SERVICE SPECIFICATION

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This Service Specification is a part of the Service Agreement executed between Service Provider and Purchaser. This Service Specification sets out the scope and the specification of the activities that shall be performed under the Service Agreement, the division of responsibilities between Service Provider and Purchaser and the applicable time plan for the performance of the activities.
- 1.2 This Service Specification consists of this Appendix 1—Service Specification and its Schedule A—Detailed Service Specification, in which the Services are described in more detail.

2. DEFINITIONS

- 2.1 Any capitalised terms used but not specifically defined herein shall have the meanings set out for such terms in the Main Document

3. GENERAL DESCRIPTION

- 3.1 Service Provider shall provide services to Purchaser within the areas of Customer Care, Consumer and Car Services.
- 3.2 The Parties have agreed on the scope of services, their corresponding descriptions and service levels as stated in Schedule A.
- 3.3 The overall objective of the Services is to, within the scope of services defined in Schedule A, ensure a hassle-free car ownership and/or usage for Purchaser's customers.

4. ASSUMPTIONS/PRE-REQUISITES

- 4.1 The Services can only be delivered if the prerequisites and Purchaser responsibilities, as stated in Schedule A, column F "Purchaser responsibility" and section 8.3 of this Service Specification, are fulfilled.

5. DESCRIPTION OF THE SERVICE ACTIVITIES

- 5.1 The Services are described in this Appendix 1 and in its Schedule A, column C "Description of services".
- 5.2 Both Parties should be entitled to request a change of the Scope of Services, service levels etc defined in this Appendix 1 with a notice period of six (6) months, unless otherwise agreed between the Parties.
- 5.3 The Services shall be provided in the following countries: Sweden, Norway, Germany, The Netherlands, Belgium and the United Kingdom. The actual implementation timeframe and launch dates of each specific country must be agreed in writing between the parties.

6. TIMING AND DELIVERABLES

6.1 Detailed milestones are defined in Schedule A, column G “Delivered from”.

7. ESTIMATED HOURS

7.1 The amount of hours to perform the Services will vary over time and will include multiple resources in different countries. They will be charged to the Purchaser in accordance with the principles set out in Appendix 3.

8. PARTIES RESPONSIBILITIES

8.1 General. The overall division of the responsibilities between the Parties can be described as follows in this Section 8.

8.2 Service Provider’s responsibilities. Service Provider is responsible for the following activities:

- (a) Carry out all services (specifically the performance of activities and actions, but excluding the design and operationalization) as described in Schedule A
- (b) Continuously strive to improve quality, efficiency and effectiveness of the Services
- (c) When requested by Purchaser and agreed to by the Service Provider, perform, on a consultancy basis for the fees stated in Appendix 3, design and operationalization services connected to the Services (e.g. implementation services). The details of these services must be clearly described by Purchaser and will be recorded in a separate written document that will be incorporated with, and subject to the terms and conditions of, this Services Agreement.

8.3 Purchaser’s responsibilities. Purchaser is responsible, in addition to what is specified in Schedule A, for the following activities:

- (a) Supply Service Provider with updated car park, order and pre-order volume estimates on a monthly basis.
- (b) Supply Service Provider with customer and vehicle data needed to perform the Services.
- (c) Define Purchaser’s specific Tone of Voice for communication.
- (d) Supply Service Provider with planned marketing activities that will drive volume.
- (e) Ensuring adjustment and maintenance of all customer-facing and business-critical systems, unless otherwise explicitly stated.
- (f) Develop and carry out specific Purchaser-related training of Service Provider personnel, such as brand and product.
- (g) In respect of Purchaser’s instance of Salesforce (“Salesforce”) that is necessary for Service Provider to perform the Services:
 - a. Provision of all necessary access to Salesforce for Service Provider’s agents to perform the Services (including licence or access rights).
 - b. Ensuring the operation and availability, together with support and maintenance, of Salesforce.

- c. Integration of Salesforce with all necessary Service Provider or third-party systems or applications.
- (h) In respect of the 'processes' (e.g. the actions and their sequence) necessary for Service Provider to perform the Services, in or connected to Salesforce, Purchaser must ensure the processes, and all changes to the processes, will function without disruption to the Services.

9. PRIOR DEVELOPMENT WORK AND PROCESSES

- 9.1 Service Provider has, prior to the commencement of this Agreement, undertaken certain development work related to the service processes that will be used by Purchaser ("Development Work"). According to Appendix 2 section 5.3 Purchaser obtains a license to the Results of such Development Work.
- 9.2 Further, as outlined in section 8.3 (h) above the Parties agree that Purchaser from the commencement of this Agreement will be responsible for the processes (including the Development Work) to be used by the Service Provider in providing the Services to Purchaser.

SERVICE AGREEMENT
APPENDIX 2
GENERAL TERMS

1. BACKGROUND

This Appendix 2, General Terms—Service Agreement, (the “General Terms”) is an Appendix to the Main Document and is an integrated part of the Service Agreement entered into between the Parties.

2. DEFINITIONS

2.1 For the purpose of these General Terms, the following terms shall have the meanings assigned to them below. All capitalized terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa. Any capitalized terms used, but not specifically defined below in this Section 2, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Main Document.

2.2 “Appendix” means an appendix to the Main Document.

2.3 “Background IP” means the Intellectual Property Rights either:

- (a) owned by either of the Parties;
- (b) created, developed or invented by directors, managers, employees or consultants of either of the Parties to which the Party has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sublicense;
- (c) to which the Party has licensed rights instead of ownership and the right to grant a sublicense prior to the execution of this Service Agreement, and any Intellectual Property Rights developed or otherwise acquired independently of this Service Agreement.

2.4 “Confidential Information” means any and all non-public information regarding the Parties and their respective businesses, whether commercial or technical, in whatever form or media, including but not limited to the existence, content and subject matter of this Service Agreement, information relating to Intellectual Property Rights, concepts, technologies, processes, commercial figures, techniques, algorithms, formulas, methodologies, knowhow, strategic plans and budgets, investments, customers and sales, designs, graphics, CAD models, CAE data, statement of works (including engineering statement of works and any high level specification), targets, test plans/reports, technical performance data and engineering sign-off documents and other information of a sensitive nature, that a Party learns from or about the other Party prior to or after the execution of this Service Agreement.

2.5 “Disclosing Party” means the Party disclosing Confidential Information to the Receiving Party.

2.6 “EU Data Protection Laws” shall mean collectively, any applicable data protection, privacy or similar law generally applicable to the processing of personal data, including but not limited to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation) and any act or piece of national legislation implementing, supporting or otherwise incorporating said regulation, including any amendment made to any of the foregoing.

- 2.7 “Force Majeure Event” shall have the meaning set out in Section 15.1.
- 2.8 “Industry Standard” means the exercise of such professionalism, skill, diligence, prudence and foresight that would normally be expected at any given time from a skilled and experienced actor engaged in a similar type of undertaking as under this Service Agreement.
- 2.9 “Intellectual Property Rights” or “IP” means Patents, Non-patented IP, rights in Confidential Information and Know-How to the extent protected under applicable laws anywhere in the world. For the avoidance of doubt, Trademarks are not comprised by this definition.
- 2.10 “Know-How” means confidential and proprietary industrial, technical and commercial information and techniques in any form including (without limitation) drawings, formulae, test results, reports, project reports and testing procedures, instruction and training manuals, tables of operating conditions, specifications, component lists, market forecasts, lists and particulars of customers and suppliers.
- 2.11 “Main Document” means the contract document (with the heading “Main Document—Service Agreement”), which is signed by Service Provider and Purchaser, to which these General Terms are an Appendix.
- 2.12 “Non-patented IP” means copyrights (including rights in computer software), database rights, semiconductor topography rights, rights in designs, and other intellectual property rights (other than Trademarks and Patents) and all rights or forms of protection having equivalent or similar effect anywhere in the world, in each case whether registered or unregistered, and registered includes registrations, applications for registration and renewals whether made before, on or after execution of this Service Agreement.
- 2.13 “Patent” means any patent, patent application, or utility model, whether filed before, on or after execution of this Service Agreement, along with any continuation, continuation-in-part, divisional, re-examined or re-issued patent, foreign counterpart or renewal or extension of any of the foregoing.
- 2.14 “Receiving Party” means the Party receiving Confidential Information from the Disclosing Party.
- 2.15 “Results” shall mean any outcome of the Services provided to Purchaser under this Service Agreement (including but not limited to any IP, technology, software, methods, processes, deliverables, objects, products, documentation, modifications, improvements, and/or amendments to be carried out by Service Provider under the Service Specification) and any other outcome or result of the Services to be performed by Service Provider as described in the relevant Service Specification, irrespective of whether the performance of the Services has been completed or not.
- 2.16 “Services” shall mean the services to be performed by Service Provider to Purchaser hereunder, including all services under the Appendices attached hereto.
- 2.17 “Service Agreement” means the Main Document including all of its Appendices and their Schedules as amended from time to time.
- 2.18 “Service Charges” means the service charges as set forth or referenced to in the Main Document and Appendix 3.

- 2.19 “Service Specification” describes the Services to be provided by Service Provider to Purchaser hereunder including (if applicable) a time plan for the provision of the Services, which is included as Appendix 1 in this Service Agreement.
- 2.20 “Third Party” means a party other than any of the Parties and/or an Affiliate of one of the Parties to this Service Agreement.
- 2.21 “Trademarks” means trademarks (including part numbers that are trademarks), service marks, logos, trade names, business names, assumed names, trade dress and get-up, and domain names, in each case whether registered or unregistered, including all applications, registrations, renewals and the like, in each case to the extent they constitute rights that are enforceable against Third Parties.
- 2.22 “Use” means to make, have made, use (including in a process, such as use in designing, engineering, testing or assembling products or in their research or development), keep, install, integrate, extract, assemble, reproduce, incorporate, create derivative works of, modify, adapt, improve, enhance, develop, service or repair, including in the case of installation, integration, assembly, service or repair, the right to have a subcontractor of any tier carry out any of these activities on behalf of the Parties in their capacity as a licensee hereunder.
- 2.23 The right to “have made” is the right of a Party in its capacity as a licensee hereunder, as applicable, to have another person (or their subcontractor of any tier) make for that Party and does not include the right to grant sublicenses to another person to make for such person’s own use or use other than for that Party.

3. PROVISION OF SERVICES

- 3.1 Service Specification. The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification of the Services provided under this Service Agreement in the Service Specification.
- 3.2 Service Recipients. In addition to Purchaser, all of Purchaser’s Affiliates shall be entitled to receive and use the Services under this Service Agreement. Nevertheless, Purchaser shall be Service Provider’s sole point of contact and shall be responsible for payment of the Service Charges as set forth in this Service Agreement, irrespectively of whether it is Purchaser or any of Purchaser’s Affiliates that in reality received and used the Services.
- 3.3 Subcontractors.
 - 3.3.1 The Parties acknowledge that Service Provider may use its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, provided that Service Provider informs Purchaser thereof.
 - 3.3.2 Service Provider shall however remain responsible for the performance, and any omission to perform or comply with the provisions of this Service Agreement, by any Affiliate to Service Provider and/or any subcontractor to the same extent as if such performance or omittance was made by Service Provider itself. Service Provider shall also remain Purchaser’s sole point of contact unless otherwise agreed.
- 3.2 Relationship between the Parties. The Parties are acting as independent contractors when performing each Party’s respective obligations under the Service Agreement. Neither Party nor its Affiliates are agents for the other Party or its Affiliates and have no authority to represent them in relation to any matters. Nothing in these General Terms or the Service Agreement shall be construed as to constitute a partnership or joint venture between the Parties.

4 SERVICE REQUIREMENTS

- 4.1 All Services shall be performed in accordance with the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement, including the Service Specification, and otherwise in a professional manner.
- 4.2 When providing the Services, Service Provider shall use professional and skilled personnel, reasonably experienced for the Services to be performed, Service Provider shall work according to the same standard of care and professionalism that is done in Service Provider's internal business and development projects. Such standard of care and professionalism, shall however at all times correspond to Industry Standard. For the avoidance of doubt, Service Provider is responsible for all necessary recruiting and hiring costs associated with employing appropriate personnel as well as all necessary training costs.
- 4.3 Service Provider acknowledges that time is of essence and Service Provider agrees to strictly respect and adhere to the deadlines set out in the Service Specification in Appendix 1, such as time limits, milestones and gates. In the event Service Provider risks not to meet an agreed deadline or is otherwise in delay with the performance of the Services, Service Provider shall appoint additional resources in order to avoid the effects of the anticipated delay or the delay (as the case may be).
- 4.4 In the event the Services or any part thereof, more than insignificantly deviate from the requirements set forth in the Service Specification, or if Service Provider otherwise does not meet or ceases to meet the requirements set forth in this Service Agreement (except for minor faults and defects, which do not affect the provision of the Services), Service Provider shall remedy such non-compliance, fault or defect as soon as reasonably possible.
- 4.5 In the event Service Provider fails to act in accordance with Section 4.3 and 4.4 above, such failure shall be escalated in accordance with the escalation principles set forth in Section 17.1 and eventually give Purchaser the right to terminate the Service Agreement in accordance with Section 14.4.
- 4.6 Purchaser shall provide Service Provider with instructions as reasonably required for Service Provider to be able to carry out the Services. Service Provider must continuously inform Purchaser of any needs of additional instructions or specifications required to perform the Services.
- 4.7 Service Provider shall ensure that it has sufficient resources to perform its undertakings under this Service Agreement. Further, Service Provider undertakes to ensure that the performance of the Services will not be given lower priority than other of Service Provider's internal similar projects.

5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

5.1 Ownership of existing Intellectual Property Rights.

- 5.1.1 Each Party remains the sole and exclusive owner of its Background IP.
- 5.1.2 Nothing in this Service Agreement shall be deemed to constitute an assignment of, or license to use, any Trademarks of the other Party.

- 5.2 Ownership of Results. In the event any Results are created as a result of the Services provided by Service Provider (or if applicable, any of its appointed Affiliates or subcontractors) under this Service Agreement, the Parties agree that Service Provider shall be the exclusive owner of such Results, including all modifications, amendments and developments thereof. Hence, all Results shall automatically upon their creation stay with Service Provider. Service Provider shall further have the right to transfer, sublicense, modify and otherwise freely dispose of the Results.
- 5.3 License grant.
- 5.3.1 Upon creation of the Results, Purchaser shall at the same time automatically be granted a non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (however at least fifty (50) years long (however, in no event shall such time exceed the validity period of any IP or Background IP included in the license described hereunder)), non-assignable (however assignable to Purchaser's Affiliates), worldwide license to Use, in whole or in part, the Results and, if applicable, any Background IP embedded in or otherwise used in the development of the Results. The license granted in this Section 5.3.1 is limited to the extent such license is necessary for Purchaser to make use of the Services provided hereunder and to enable an orderly transfer to another service provider after the termination and/or expiry of this Service Agreement.
- 5.3.2 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Service Agreement, nothing in these General Terms or otherwise in the Service Agreement shall be construed as to give the other Party any rights, including but not limited to any license rights (express or implied), to any Background IP, except as expressly stated herein.
- 5.4 Volvo brand name.
- 5.4.1 For the sake of clarity, it is especially noted that this Service Agreement does not include any right to use the "Volvo" brand name, or Trademarks, or refer to "Volvo" in communications or official documents of whatever kind. The Parties acknowledge that the "Volvo" Trademarks as well as the "Volvo" name is owned by Volvo Trademark Holding AB and that the right to use the name and the "Volvo" Trademarks is subject to a service agreement, which stipulates that the name, Trademarks and all thereto related Intellectual Property can only be used by Volvo Car Corporation and its Affiliates in relation to Volvo products.
- 5.4.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any rights to directly or indirectly use the "Volvo" brand name or "Volvo" Trademarks, on or for any products or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence.
- 5.5 Polestar brand name.
- 5.5.1 This Service Agreement includes the right to use the "Polestar" brand name or Trademarks, or refer to "Polestar" for the limited purposes of (i) the provision of the Services to potential or actual Polestar customers, or (i) engaging with third party service providers, when necessary (e.g. procuring a service or product unique to Polestar). When using Polestar's Trademark, Service Provider shall comply with any instructions or guidelines provided by Polestar.
- 5.5.2 This means that this Service Agreement does not include any other rights to directly or indirectly use the "Polestar" brand name or "Polestar" Trademarks, in or for any products that do not relate to this Service Agreement or to Polestar or when marketing, promoting and/or selling such products, or in any other contacts with Third Parties, e.g. in presentations, business cards and correspondence, unless with the prior written consent of Polestar.

6. SERVICE CHARGES

- 6.1 In consideration of Service Provider's performance of the Services under this Service Agreement, Purchaser agrees to pay to Service Provider the Service Charges as set forth or referenced to in the Main Document and Appendix 3.

7. PAYMENT TERMS

- 7.1 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency set forth in the Main Document, in a timely manner and in accordance with the payment terms set forth in this Section 7.
- 7.2 Service Provider is responsible for charging and declaring sales tax/VAT or other taxes as follow from applicable law. Any applicable sales tax/VAT on the agreed price will be included in the invoices and paid by Purchaser. All amounts referred to in this Service Agreement are exclusive of VAT.
- 7.3 If Service Provider is obligated to collect or pay taxes, such taxes shall be invoiced to Purchaser, unless Purchaser provides a valid tax exemption certificate authorized by the appropriate Tax Authority. If Purchaser is required by law to withhold any taxes from its payments, Purchaser must provide an official tax receipt or other appropriate documentation to support this withholding.
- 7.4 Any amount of the invoiced by Service Provider to Purchaser shall be paid by Purchaser within 30 days after the invoice date.
- 7.5 Payment made later than the due date will automatically be subject to interest for late payments for each day it is not paid and the interest shall be based on the one month applicable interbank rate, depending on invoice and currency, with an addition of two per cent (2.0%) per annum.
- 7.6 Any paid portion of the Service Charges is non-refundable, with the exception set forth in the Main Document.

8. AUDIT

- 8.1 During the term of the Service Agreement, Purchaser shall have the right to, upon reasonable notice in writing to Service Provider, inspect Service Provider's books and records related to the Services and the premises where the Services are performed, in order to conduct quality controls and otherwise verify the statements rendered under this Service Agreement.
- 8.2 Audits shall be made during regular business hours and be conducted by Purchaser or by an independent auditor appointed by Purchaser. Should Purchaser during any inspection find that Service Provider or the Services does/do not fulfil the requirements set forth herein, Purchaser is entitled to comment on the identified deviations. Service Provider shall, upon notice from Purchaser, take reasonable efforts to take the actions required in order to fulfil the requirements. In the event the Parties cannot agree upon measures to be taken in respect of the audit, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.

9. REPRESENTATIONS

9.1 Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that:

- (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of incorporation or formation, as applicable;
- (b) it has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Service Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;
- (c) the execution, delivery and performance of this Service Agreement have been duly authorized and approved, with such authorization and approval in full force and effect, and do not and will not (i) violate any laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) violate its organization documents or any agreement to which it is a party; and
- (d) this Service Agreement is a legal and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

10. SERVICE WARRANTY

10.1 When performing the Services, Service Provider shall provide professional and skilled personnel, reasonably experienced for the Services to be performed at the best of their knowledge.

10.2 Service Provider provides the Services "as is". Service Provider does neither warrant nor represent that any Services, provided or delivered to Purchaser hereunder are functional for the business needs of Purchaser or otherwise suitable for any specific purpose, nor that the Services, are not infringing any Intellectual Property of any third party. Service Provider does neither give any representations or warranties as regards the merchantability of the deliverables to be delivered hereunder nor any other representations or warranties of any kind whatsoever concerning the Services. Purchaser acknowledges that the price of the Services to be performed and other deliverables to be delivered by Service Provider are set in consideration of the foregoing.

10.3 Service Provider shall after receipt of notice of a claim related to Purchaser's use of the Services notify Purchaser of such claim in writing and Purchaser shall following receipt of such notice, to the extent permitted under applicable law, at its own cost conduct negotiations with the third party presenting the claim and/or intervene in any suit or action. Purchaser shall at all times keep Service Provider informed of the status and progress of the claim and consult with Service Provider on appropriate actions to take. If Purchaser fails to or chooses not to take actions to defend Service Provider within a reasonable time, or at any time ceases to make such efforts, Service Provider shall be entitled to assume control over the defence against such claim and/ or over any settlement negotiation at Purchaser's cost. Any settlement proposed by Purchaser on its own account must take account of potential implications for Service Provider and shall therefore be agreed with Service Provider before settlement. Each Party will at no cost furnish to the other Party all data, records, and assistance within that Party's control that are of importance in order to properly defend against a claim.

11. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

11.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damage or any losses of production or profit caused by it under this Service Agreement.

11.2 Each Party's aggregate liability for any direct damage arising out of or in connection with this Service Agreement shall be limited to 30 % of the total Service Charges payable by Purchaser to Service Provider hereunder.

- 11.3 The limitations of liability set forth in this Section 11 shall not apply in respect of:
- (a) claims related to death or bodily injury;
 - (b) damage caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence;
 - (c) damage caused by a Party's breach of the confidentiality undertakings in Section 13 below; or
 - (d) damage arising out of an infringement, or alleged infringement, of the other Party's or any third party's Intellectual Property.

12. GOVERNANCE AND CHANGES

12.1 Governance.

- 12.1.1 The Parties shall act in good faith in all matters and shall at all times co-operate in respect of changes to this Service Agreement as well as issues and/or disputes arising under this Service Agreement.
- 12.1.2 The governance and co-operation between the Parties in respect of this Service Agreement shall primarily be administered on an operational level. In the event the Parties on an operational level cannot agree upon inter alia the prioritisation of development activities or other aspects relating to the co-operation between the Parties, each Party shall be entitled to escalate such issue to the Steering Committee.
- 12.1.3 If the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution of the disagreement the relevant issue should be escalated to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. for decision.

12.2 Changes.

- 12.3 During the term of this Service Agreement, Purchaser can request changes to the Service Specification, which shall be handled in accordance with the governance procedure set forth in Section 12.1 above. Both Parties agree to act in good faith to address and respond to any change request within a reasonable period of time.
- 12.4 The Parties acknowledge that Service Provider will not perform in accordance with such change request until agreed in writing between the Parties. For the avoidance of any doubt, until there is agreement about the requested change, all work shall continue in accordance with the existing Service Specification.

13. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 13.1 The Parties shall take any and all necessary measures to comply with the security and confidentiality procedures of the other Party.

- 13.2 All Confidential Information shall only be used for the purposes comprised by the fulfilment of this Service Agreement. Each Party will keep in confidence any Confidential Information obtained in relation to this Service Agreement and will not divulge the same to any Third Party, unless the exceptions specifically set forth below in this Section 13.2 below apply, in order to obtain patent protection or when approved by the other Party in writing, and with the exception of their own officers, employees, consultants or sub-contractors with a need to know as to enable such personnel to perform their duties hereunder. This provision will not apply to Confidential Information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate:
- (a) was in the public domain other than by breach of this undertaking, or by another confidentiality undertaking;
 - (b) was already in the possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party;
 - (c) is obtained from a Third Party who is free to divulge the same;
 - (d) is required to be disclosed by mandatory law, court order, lawful government action or applicable stock exchange regulations;
 - (e) is reasonably necessary for either Party to utilize its rights and use of its Intellectual Property Rights; or
 - (f) is developed or created by one Party independently of the other, without any part thereof having been developed or created with assistance or information received from the other Party.
- 13.3 The Receiving Party shall protect the disclosed Confidential Information by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, as the Receiving Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of similar nature, to prevent the dissemination to Third Parties or publication of the Confidential Information. Further, each Party shall ensure that its employees and consultants are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality and that any subcontractors taking part in the fulfilment of that Party's obligations hereunder, enters into a confidentiality undertaking containing in essence similar provisions as those set forth in this Section 13.
- 13.4 Any tangible materials that disclose or embody Confidential Information should be marked by the Disclosing Party as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof. Confidential Information that is disclosed orally or visually shall be identified by the Disclosing Party as confidential at the time of disclosure, with subsequent confirmation in writing within 30 days after disclosure. However, the lack of marking or subsequent confirmation that the disclosed information shall be regarded as "Confidential", "Proprietary" or the substantial equivalent thereof does not disqualify the disclosed information from being classified as Confidential Information.
- 13.5 If any Party violates any of its obligations described in this Section 13, the violating Party shall, upon notification from the other Party, (i) immediately cease to proceed such harmful violation and take all actions needed to rectify said behaviour and (ii) financially compensate for the harm suffered as determined by an arbitral tribunal pursuant to Section 17.2 below. All legal remedies (compensatory but not punitive in nature) according to law shall apply.
- 13.6 For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 13 does not permit disclosure of source code to software, and/or any substantial parts of design documents to software, included in the Results, to any Third Party, notwithstanding what it set forth above in this Section 13. Any such disclosure to any Third Party is permitted only if approved in writing by Service Provider.

13.7 This confidentiality provision shall survive the expiration or termination of this Service Agreement without limitation in time.

14. TERM AND TERMINATION

14.1 This Service Agreement shall become effective when the Main Document is signed by duly authorised signatories of each Party and shall, unless terminated in accordance with this Section 14 below, remain in force until the Services are completed.

14.2 Either Party shall be entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in the event:

- (a) the other Party commits a material breach of the terms of this Service Agreement, which has not been remedied within 30 days from written notice from the other Party to remedy such breach (if capable of being remedied); or
- (b) if the other Party should become insolvent or enter into negotiations on composition with its creditors or a petition in bankruptcy should be filed by it or it should make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.

14.3 For avoidance of doubt, Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, shall be considered in material breach for the purpose of this Service Agreement.

14.4 Furthermore, Purchaser is entitled to terminate this Service Agreement with immediate effect in case Service Provider acts in breach, which is not insignificant, of what is set forth in Section 4.3 and 4.4 provided that the issue first has been escalated in accordance with Section 17.1.

14.5 Either Party shall in addition be entitled to terminate this Service Agreement for convenience upon 12 months written notice to the other Party.

14.6 In the event Purchaser terminates this Service Agreement in accordance with Section 14.5 above, the Service Charges shall, in addition to what is set out in the Main Document, include any other reasonable proven costs Service Provider has incurred until the effective date of the termination.

15. MISCELLANEOUS

15.1 Force majeure.

15.1.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under the Service Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A "Force Majeure Event" means any event beyond a Party's reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a Third Party's), failure of energy sources or transport network, restrictions concerning motive force, acts of God, war, terrorism, insurgencies and riots, civil commotion, mobilization or extensive call ups, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, currency restrictions, requisitions, confiscation, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, stroke of lightning, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default or delays of suppliers or subcontractors if such default or delay has been caused by a Force Majeure Event.

- 15.1.2 A non-performing Party, which claims there is a Force Majeure Event, and cannot perform its obligations under the Service Agreement as a consequence thereof, shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to continue to perform or to mitigate the impact of its nonperformance notwithstanding the Force Majeure Event and shall continue the performance of its obligations as soon as the Force Majeure Event ceases to exist.
- 15.2 Notices. All notices, demands, requests and other communications to any Party as set forth in, or in any way relating to the subject matter of, this Service Agreement must be in legible writing in the English language delivered by personal delivery, email transmission or prepaid overnight courier using an internationally recognized courier service and shall be effective upon receipt, which shall be deemed to have occurred:
- (a) in case of personal delivery, at the time and on the date of personal delivery;
 - (b) if sent by email transmission, at the time and date indicated on a response confirming such successful email transmission;
 - (c) if delivered by courier, at the time and on the date of delivery as confirmed in the records of such courier service; or
 - (d) at such time and date as delivery by personal delivery or courier is refused by the addressee upon presentation;
- in each case provided that if such receipt occurred on a non-business day, then notice shall be deemed to have been received on the next following business day; and provided further that where any notice, demand, request or other communication is provided by any party by email, such party shall also provide a copy of such notice, demand, request or other communication by using one of the other methods. All such notices, demands, requests and other communications shall be addressed to the address, and with the attention, as set forth in the Main Document, or to such other address, number or email address as a Party may designate.
- 15.3 Assignment.
- 15.3.1 Neither Party may, wholly or partly, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of its rights and/or obligations under this Service Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent.
- 15.3.2 Notwithstanding the above, each Party may assign this Service Agreement to an Affiliate without the prior written consent of the other Party.
- 15.4 Waiver. Neither Party shall be deprived of any right under this Service Agreement because of its failure to exercise any right under this Service Agreement or failure to notify the infringing party of a breach in connection with the Service Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rules on complaints and limitation periods shall apply.
- 15.5 Severability. In the event any provision of this Service Agreement is wholly or partly invalid, the validity of the Service Agreement as a whole shall not be affected and the remaining provisions of the Service Agreement shall remain valid. To the extent that such invalidity materially affects a Party's benefit from, or performance under, the Service Agreement, it shall be reasonably amended.

- 15.6 Entire agreement. All arrangements, commitments and undertakings in connection with the subject matter of this Service Agreement (whether written or oral) made before the date of this Service Agreement are superseded by this Service Agreement and its Appendices.
- 15.7 Amendments. Any amendment or addition to this Service Agreement must be made in writing and signed by the Parties to be valid.
- 15.8 Survival.
- 15.8.1 If this Service Agreement is terminated or expires pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 5.3 (License grant), Section 13 (Confidentiality), Section 16 (Governing Law), Section 17 (Dispute Resolution) as well as this Section 15.8, shall survive any termination or expiration and remain in force as between the Parties after such termination or expiration.
- 15.8.2 Notwithstanding Section 15.8.1 above, if this Service Agreement is terminated due to Purchaser not paying the Service Charges, without legitimate reasons for withholding payment, pursuant to Section 14 above, Section 5.3 (License Grant) shall not survive termination or remain in force as between the Parties after such termination. For the avoidance of doubt, what is stated in this Section 15.8.2 shall only apply in relation to such licenses granted to Purchaser pursuant to Section 5.3 above and any licenses granted to Service Provider under Section 5.3 shall thus nevertheless remain in force after such termination.

16. GOVERNING LAW

- 16.1 This Service Agreement and all non-contractual obligations in connection with this Service Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of Sweden, without giving regard to its conflict of laws principles.

17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

17.1 Escalation principles.

- 17.1.1 In case the Parties cannot agree on a joint solution for handling disagreements or disputes, a deadlock situation shall be deemed to have occurred and each Party shall notify the other Party hereof by the means of a deadlock notice and simultaneously send a copy of the notice to the Steering Committee. Upon the receipt of such a deadlock notice, the receiving Party shall within ten days of receipt, prepare and circulate to the other Party a statement setting out its position on the matter in dispute and reasons for adopting such position, and simultaneously send a copy of its statement to the Steering Committee. Each such statement shall be considered by the next regular meeting held by the Steering Committee or in a forum meeting specifically called upon by either Party for the settlement of the issue.
- 17.1.2 The members of the Steering Committee shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve a deadlock situation in good faith. As part thereof, the Steering Committee may request the Parties to in good faith develop and agree on a plan to resolve or address the breach, to be presented for the Steering Committee without undue delay. If the Steering Committee agrees upon a resolution or disposition of the matter, the Parties shall agree in writing on terms of such resolution or disposition and the Parties shall procure that such resolution or disposition is fully and promptly carried into effect.
- 17.1.3 If the Steering Committee cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice served pursuant to Section 17.1.1 above, such deadlock will be referred to the CEO's of each Party, which shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve the situation in the same way as indicated above. If no Steering Committee has been established between the Parties, the relevant issue shall be referred to the CEOs of each Party immediately and Section 17.1.2 above shall not apply.

- 17.1.4 If the CEO's of each Party cannot settle the deadlock within 30 days from the deadlock notice pursuant to the section above, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, such deadlock will be referred to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. for decision. Should the matter not have been resolved by the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. within 30 days counting from when the matter was referred to them, despite using reasonable endeavours to do so, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Section 17.2 below.
- 17.1.5 All notices and communications exchanged in the course of a deadlock resolution proceeding shall be considered Confidential Information of each Party and be subject to the confidentiality undertaking in Section 13 above.
- 17.1.6 Notwithstanding the above, the Parties agree that either Party may disregard the time frames set forth in this Section 17.1 and apply shorter time frames and/or escalate an issue directly to the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. in the event the escalated issue is of an urgent character and where the applicable time frames set out above are not appropriate.
- 17.2 Arbitration.
- 17.2.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, whereas the seat of arbitration shall be Gothenburg, Sweden, the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English, and the arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators.
- 17.2.2 Irrespective of any discussions or disputes between the Parties, each Party shall always continue to fulfil its undertakings under this Agreement unless an arbitral tribunal or court (as the case may be) decides otherwise.
- 17.2.3 In any arbitration proceeding, any legal proceeding to enforce any arbitration award, or any other legal proceedings between the Parties relating to this Agreement, each Party expressly waives the defence of sovereign immunity and any other defence based on the fact or allegation that it is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign state. Such waiver includes a waiver of any defence of sovereign immunity in respect of enforcement of arbitral awards and/or sovereign immunity from execution over any of its assets.
- 17.2.4 All arbitral proceedings as well as any and all information, documentation and materials in any form disclosed in the proceedings shall be strictly confidential.

Service Agreement
Appendix 3
Service Charge

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This Appendix 3 stipulates the rules and principle for the Service Charges payable by Purchaser to Service Provider for Services delivered under this Service Agreement.

2. DEFINITIONS

- 2.1 Any capitalised terms used but not specifically defined herein shall have the meanings set out for such terms in the Service Agreement. In addition, the capitalised terms set out below in this Section 2 shall for the purposes of this Service Specification have the meanings described herein. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa.
- 2.2 Development Costs means project costs for process development support based on Purchaser's requests.
- 2.3 Implementation Costs means costs associated with setting up, or rolling out, new or existing processes or Services based on Purchaser's request.
- 2.4 Operations Costs means direct costs for the delivery of the running Services.
- 2.5 Central Administrative Costs means all costs indirectly needed for the delivery of the Services, e.g. Uptime Management.
- 2.6 Uptime Operations FTE Rate means hourly rates for resources in the operations. The Uptime Operations FTE Rate includes a []% mark-up. The Uptime Operations FTE Rate is updated yearly in accordance with what is set forth in section 4 of this Appendix 3.
- 2.7 Central FTE Rate means hourly rates for Service Provider's centrally located staff. The Central FTE Rate Includes a []% mark-up. The Central FTE Rate is updated yearly in accordance with what is set forth in section 4 of this Appendix 3.
- 2.8 Pooled Purchasers means the group of customers, including Purchaser, that the Service Provider is providing the same or similar Services to.
- 2.9 Car Park means units on the road.

3. SERVICE CHARGE

- 3.1 In consideration of the Services to be provided by the Service Provider under this Service Agreement, the Purchaser shall pay to Service Provider the service charges as further described below (the "Service Charges").
- 3.2 Cost categories and how the charges are calculated are listed in the table below.

3.3 Hours consumed are calculated as follows:

- a) []
- b) []
- c) []

3.4 The Central administrative costs will be charged based on []. The [] shall mean the []. [].

4. RATES

4.1 The hourly rates that are used to calculate the Service Charges under Section 3 shall be determined between the Parties based on the Services to be performed by the Service Provider. The Service Charges shall be calculated on a time and material basis applying arm's length hourly rates using the cost plus method, i.e. full cost incurred plus an arm's length mark-up. The hourly rates should be reviewed, updated and agreed between the Parties on a calendar year basis. The agreed hourly rate shall be specified in this Appendix 3. Total costs for the purposes of determining the hourly rates shall include all direct and indirect costs, including but not limited to overhead costs such as facility cost, IT cost etc., reasonably related to the Services.

4.2 The Parties agree that the basis for calculating the Service Charges shall be transparent and auditable to the Purchaser. Therefore, the relevant financial information relating to the Services shall be reported to the Purchaser in accordance with the Template Financial Reporting attached as Appendix 4 which is deemed an integrated part of this Agreement.

4.3 The rates agreed between the Parties and applicable during 2019 for the Services described in this Service Agreement are listed in the table below:

[]

4.4 Local currency applies as far as possible. However, if any cost needs to be converted to another currency, Service Provider's "Fixed Exchange Rates for Outgoing Invoices", which is updated monthly, shall be used.

5. OTHER

5.1 For 2019, the Parties have agreed that the following amounts shall be paid by the Purchaser

SERVICE AGREEMENT
MAIN DOCUMENT

Technical Support Polestar

Short description of activities under this Service Agreement: Level 1 and Level 2 Technical Support to workshops regarding issues when servicing Polestar cars.

This Service Agreement is between Volvo Car Corporation, Reg. No. 556074-3089, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Sweden ("Service Provider"), and Polestar Performance AB, Reg. No. 556653-3096, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Sweden ("Purchaser").

Each of Service Provider and Purchaser is hereinafter referred to as a "Party" and jointly as the "Parties".

BACKGROUND

- A. The Parties have determined that Service Provider shall provide to Purchaser certain Services (as defined in the General Terms), which are further described in the Service Specification in Appendix 1. The provision of the Services shall be performed in accordance with the terms in this service agreement and its appendices (the "Service Agreement").
- B. Purchaser now wishes to enter into this Service Agreement for the purpose of receiving the Services and Service Provider wishes to provide the Services in accordance with the terms set forth in this Service Agreement.
- C. In light of the foregoing, the Parties have agreed to execute this Service Agreement.

AGREEMENT

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This Service Agreement consists of this main document (the "Main Document") and its appendices. This Main Document sets out the specific terms in respect of the provision of the Services, whereas Appendix 2 sets out certain general terms and conditions applicable to the Parties' rights, obligations and performance of the Parties' activities hereunder (the "General Terms").
- 1.2 All capitalized terms used, but not specifically defined in this Main Document, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the General Terms.

2. SERVICE SPECIFICATION

- 2.1 The Parties have agreed upon the scope and specification for the Services as specified in the Service Specification in Appendix 1.

3. AFFILIATE

3.1 Affiliate shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the following meaning:

“Affiliate” means any other legal entity that, directly or indirectly, is controlled by or is under common control with Volvo Car Corporation or Polestar Performance AB; control means the possession, directly or indirectly, by agreement or otherwise, of (i) at least 50% of the voting stock, partnership interest or other ownership interest, or (ii) the power (a) to appoint or remove a majority of the board of directors or other governing body of an entity, or (b) to cause the direction of the management of an entity.

4. SERVICE CHARGES

4.1 In consideration of Service Provider’s performance of the Services under this Service Agreement, Purchaser shall pay to Service Provider the service charges as further described below (the “Service Charges”).

4.2 The Service Charges for the Services will be based on the estimated hours and rates for the Services to be performed by Service Provider as set forth in the in Appendix 3, Service Charges.

4.3 The Service Charges shall be paid in the currency: Swedish Krona (SEK).

4.4 The hourly rates that are used to calculate the Service Charges shall be determined by Service Provider on an annual basis in compliance with applicable tax legislation, including but not limited to the principle of “arm’s length distance” between the Parties. The hourly rates shall be calculated using the cost plus method, i.e. full cost incurred plus an arm’s length mark-up. All costs Service Provider has in order to perform the Services shall be reimbursed by Purchaser.

5. PAYMENT

5.1 If Service Provider, pursuant to the General Terms, appoints its Affiliates and/or subcontractors to perform the Services under this Service Agreement, Service Provider shall include the costs relating to such work in the invoices to Purchaser.

5.2 The actual Service Charges shall be invoiced on a monthly basis at the end of each month and paid by Purchaser in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms.

6. GOVERNANCE FORUM

6.1 The Parties agree that governance in respect of this Service Agreement shall be handled in accordance with what is set out in the General Terms in Appendix 2. When reference is made to a relevant governance forum, it shall for the purpose of this Service Agreement have the meaning set out below in this Section 6.

6.2 The first level of governance forum for handling the co-operation between the Parties in various matters, handling management, prioritisation of development activities etc. under the Service Agreement shall be the “Steering Committee”, which regarding cooperation between Service Provider and Purchaser is the so called Volvo Polestar GBO Steering Committee. The Steering Committee shall be the first level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

- 6.3 The higher level of governance forum, to which an issue shall be escalated if the Steering Committee fails to agree upon a solution shall be the CEO and CFO of Volvo Car Corporation and the CEO and CFO of Zhejiang Geely Holding Group Co., Ltd. This shall be the highest level of governance forum established by the Parties for handling the cooperation between them in respect of various matters.

7. TEMPLATE FINANCIAL REPORTING

- 7.1 The Parties agree that the basis for calculating the Service Charges shall be transparent and auditable to Purchaser and be done based on the template attached as Appendix 4.

8. DATA PROCESSING AGREEMENT

- 8.1 If Service Provider processes any personal data on Purchaser's behalf and in accordance with its instructions as part of or in connection with the performance of the Services, the Parties agree that the General Data Processing Agreement between the Parties dated 1 June 2019 shall apply between the Parties, and shall be deemed an integrated part of this Service Agreement.
- 8.2 The Parties shall at all times comply with applicable laws on protection of personal data, in particular, but not limited to the ELI Data Protection Laws (as defined in the General Terms in Appendix 2), and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that any Affiliates or subcontractors engaged by it also comply therewith.

SERVICE AGREEMENT
APPENDIX 1
SERVICE SPECIFICATION

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 This Service Specification is a part of the Service Agreement executed between Service Provider and Purchaser. This Service Specification sets out the scope and the specification of the activities that shall be performed under the Service Agreement, the division of responsibilities between Service Provider and Purchaser and the applicable time plan for the performance of the activities.
- 1.2 This Service Specification consists of this Appendix 1–Service Specification and its Schedules:
- A. Detailed Service Specification, in which the Services are described in more detail;
 - B. Service Levels, in which opening hours, resolution time, etc. are described, and;
 - C. Supported Markets and Service Levels, a list of countries in which a Vehicle must be registered to be covered by this Agreement and country specific Service Levels provided under this Agreement.

2. DEFINITIONS

- 2.1 Any capitalised terms used but not specifically defined herein shall have the meanings set out for such terms in the Main Document. In addition, the capitalised terms set out below in this Section 2 shall for the purposes of this Service Specification have the meanings described herein. All capitalised terms in singular in the list of definitions shall have the same meaning in plural and vice versa.
- 2.2 “Vehicle” means Purchaser’s products.
- 2.3 “User” means a dealer or workshop who is authorised by Purchaser to repair, maintain or service the Vehicles.
- 2.4 “End Customer” means the owner or leaseholder of a Vehicle.
- 2.5 “Technical Support” means the services as put forth in Schedule A to this Appendix !.

3. GENERAL DESCRIPTION

- 3.1 The Parties have agreed to engage in a cooperation in which Service Provider will provide Technical Support to Users who are repairing, maintaining and/or servicing Vehicles produced by Purchaser.
- 3.2 The overall objectives of the activities are to, by utilising Service Provider’s existing organisation and procedures, prepare and operate full Technical Support on behalf of Purchaser.

4. DESCRIPTION OF THE SERVICE ACTIVITIES

- 4.1 The service under this agreement covers a full Service Level Agreement where the User is supported by Technical Support.
- 4.2 For more detailed description of the Service, see Schedules A, B and C.
